This year I have gone through a strong stripping: as in circumcision of the heart, the flesh, peeling away old dead layers to heal old wounds, and exposing generational sins to set me free from the past. In hindsight to this vision, I think the Y2K clock and the computer chip had to do with the timing of the stripping process. This year I have written several posts on different aspects of being stripped. From the many responses I received, many have been going through the same thing.

A warning as related to the computer chip being left in too long, is not to wallow in the process. The Lord has a specific time limit to this work and if the enemy could continue the process, it would turn into destructive things like shame, condemnation, fear, etc. When the Lord peels away our layers to expose our wounds, our sins, our failings, He does so to cleanse and make whole. The enemy does so to destroy.

Something I had not realized until just this week, as He brought back the memory of that wind basting away the layers on the ship, is that His intention in this stripping has been to RENEW us, to RESTORE us and bring us back from being underneath the years of enemy dirt and grime. In the midst of dust and dirt flying everywhere, all I had been thinking about this year was repentance and inner healing, but He had even more in mind. He wanted to resurrect painful truths, so that they could be healed in the right way, HIS WAY. He wanted to take us past the pain, and even past the healing, and INTO TOTAL RESTORATION OF ALL THAT WAS LOST. That will be mind boggling when we begin to realize how the revelation will begin to come to pass in our lives!

There are many applications to this revelation and to this work He is doing among us. One of them is the ship. Ship in prophetic language speaks of leadership. He is raising up His government and restoring something that has been buried a very long time. I perceive this goes all the way back to the leadership of the early church and extends into the present time. We have yet to know what His kingdom is to become ON THIS EARTH.

Today I received an email that reaffirmed what I had been thinking about the restoration process and this was very quickened to me so I want to pass it on:

ALL THINGS MADE NEW
A vision given to Debra-Louise debbcossu@juno.com

Revelation 21:5 "He who was seated on the throne said, 'I am making everything new!'"

Vision: I was in front of a large warehouse. Across the door was written: "Piece's Restored" As I went inside there was a myriad of all different kinds of boxes. Most like shoe boxes, some the type roses would be carried in, some cartons, and crates, and even coffins! They were all sizes and shapes and colors... Each box had a string that held it tied securely, and a tag with a picture of the contents. This was the largest warehouse I had ever seen, and it was full, with more boxes being brought in all the time....

I walked down the row I had begun, and FINALLY reached the end where there was a work table set up just inside the exit door. There stood the Lord, with tools laying all around Him, and a big vat of something very thick and sweet smelling. It contained a liquid that was a ruby red, very glossy and shiny. He had just completed what He had been working on, and turned it around for me to see. It was a beautiful Tiffany style lamp, unlike any on earth. He placed the tag that had come with it underneath the base of this beautiful lamp as His signature card. It was a picture of what had come into His hands from the box....Ugly and broken pieces of junk all jumbled and disorganized had been tossed into the box and cast aside. All of these boxes in the warehouse held similar contents of broken and discarded pieces, parts that were useless and unwanted or tossed aside.

Now that these contents had been made new, it was placed on a serving tray to be carried out the exit door. Above the exit door was written: "Peace-is Restored."

Word of the Lord:

My peace I give to you. You have given Me the pieces of your life, and I make all things new.

Out of broken dreams will come the dream I have waiting just for you.

>From destroyed hopes will come My hope fulfilled for many.

It is the blood I shed for you that is the very essence which has carried you through, and will keep you together for what lies ahead. Life is in the blood, and I restore life to you this day. My life poured out, will flood into you, and I will seal and secure the pieces brought to Me. Even those you withheld out of shame or pride, or a combination of both, I will mold into something beautiful to show forth My glory!

It is My love poured out that has filled in the empty places, and now holds all things made new. Even if you feel like some of the pieces are still missing, I declare to you this day that is just more space for My love to flood in and fill you. The varying sizes and shapes of the pieces do not matter in My hands, for as My blood, the blood of the covenant you have entered into with Me, seeps into the cracks and crevices of your life, every part will be held and molded in place.

Then, as each of you has been rebuilt and reconstructed, I shall form and fashion you together in ways that were not possible before you were broken and needed to be made anew.

Piece's Restored, Peace is restored,

To you, made new, in My love.

To tie all these concepts together: As a result of not following their conscience, the body of Christ has suffered gaping holes and loss. We are in pain, yet with the merciful promise of restoration of those years.

In the mean time, the Lord is bringing the earth through a great upheaval. Between spaces of rest, the labor pains grow stronger, and with each upheaval (like wars are rumors of wars) the Lord knocks on the door of the unrighteous. He wants to shake the world so that it is no longer settled in its own complacency and realizes its need for a supernatural God - Who alone has all the answers.

And within the shaking of that environment, He uses all events surrounding His church to peel away the layers of our own decay to brings us lovingly back to Him. It is for our TOTAL RESTORATION that He is doing this!

Acts 3:19-21 NKJV Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began.

Joel 2:28-29 KJV And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Lovingly, Sandy

NEWS BRIEFS:

RAILWAY STATION MEETINGS PUT NEW AGERS ON RIGHT SPIRITUAL TRACK

New Age followers have been put on the right track at a Swiss railway station. Several have come to Christ after attending weeklong seminars aimed at spiritual seekers. Ambiguously titled "Jesus of Nazareth in the Modern Esoteric," the courses have been advertised in esoteric magazines by Daniel Hari, a pastor and former Salvation Army member.

Topics at the courses--held in Lucerne's railway station restaurant--have included "Jesus as spiritual Master and Healer," "experiencing rebirth and its effects," and "experiencing Christ's healing power yourself." One woman who took part said later: "My heart chakra [spiritual energy point] has been opened," reported DAWN Europe's "Friday Fax."

Hari told attendees on the second night that he believed Jesus was alive. "People from the esoteric scene actively seek a purpose in life and supernatural experience of God," he said. "They tend to be well-read and like to attend courses, which they are prepared to pay [for] handsomely. Let's offer them this alternative."

At one meeting a man was healed from liver disease, he said. The man's spirit-healer brother became a Christian the same night, and there was "a chain reaction," with 15 people being saved in a short time. Later this month Hari holds another course at the railway station--this one teaching other Christians how they can reach out to those involved in New Age thought.

Friday Fax 1999 issue 41, 15 October

Switzerland: opening heart chakras

"My heart chakra has opened," said a happily smiling woman at the end of the penultimate seminar. She had taken part in a week-long seminar "Jesus of Nazareth in the modern esoteric" held by previous Salvation Army member and pastor Daniel Hari, who reports that people involved in the esoteric scene had come to believe in Jesus in each of the four 5-evening courses which he has held so far. Many of the people who became Christians in his courses subsequently attended an Alpha course.

It all started in Lucerne's railway station restaurant, where Hari held seminars on topics such as 'Jesus as spiritual master and healer', 'Experiencing rebirth and its effects', and 'Experiencing Christ's healing power yourself'.

Responses to adverts for his courses in esoteric magazines came via post and telephone. 32 people, only 6 of them Christians, attended the first course. "On the second evening, I openly declared my conviction that Jesus of Nazareth is alive and present with us during the course, with the same power as he had 2000 years ago," says Hari. "We can allow him to work as he chooses, and should not be surprised if he heals people, calls people to follow him or sets people free."

The Joan of Arc Anointing

The Lord spoke to me as I was doing some correction on some writing saying "Joan of Arc Anointing" , and at first I thought He was referring to some words spoken to me at an earlier time. Then I heard , "There is a spirit of fire and burning going throughout the earth. The Lord is coming with vengeance against the enemy of your souls. He wants a pure and a spotless bride."

This week in our cell group, there was the manifest presence of Our Lord in the living room. Whenever someone would walk across this one area which was hot on the rug to the touch.... they would fall down in the Spirit and be overcome by the power of the Lord. One woman had such burning and pain in her arms and body during the worship and meeting...it was uncomfortable. I also remembered that when Jill Austin was in New Zealand, many people at the gathering , where there was such a powerful presence of GOD ALMIGHTY,...had FELT their arms and legs burning as if they were on fire !

As I heard the words of the messenger , I remembered about the program on herbs and essential oils I had downloaded and read some of this week. Essential oils can burn when rubbed into your skin. Herbs are more powerful to use as essential oil than taking pills that contain the same herbs according to the botanist. They can even do harm if taken wrong or in conjunction with certain afflictions.

I found this image enlightening when considering Esther and how she was rubbed with oil of myrrh for 6 months. Myrrh is a purifying and preserving agent. Myrrh is useful in the treatment of yeast infection in the body. When you think how yeast, or leaven , in the bible is symbolic at times of PRIDE, Then you begin to get the picture of what God is doing right now in burning off the dross in our hearts. God is crushing our pride and fears, etc. so that all control can be given over to Him. Pride and fear are what keep control in place in our lives, the Lord once told me. When we hold on to our pride, it can lead to delusion and strong deception, to a degree, where we are drawn into strong apostasy in the form of cultic beliefs.

Where a church I know meets now, was formerly a center for a famous cult who then moved all her followers to Montana. And one night in prayer a long time ago, (they have a 24 hour prayer room) I was sensing demons which had stayed around....(I had been the brunt of their deception for a time in regards to a husband) . The Lord showed me some spirits had not fully left, and would leave during services, but then hang around at night, and on the grounds. The Lord began to speak to me how the root of all the cults was in PRIDE. And pride had allowed these spirits to retain a measure of existence in this place till full repentance of what had gone on there had been completed. When we have knowledge of spiritual things then we are responsible for teaching and praying when others have fallen into deception as the Lord leads. PRIDE was the key to the fall of many who thought their dreams and revelation could not be wrong; or they were better , or more accurate in their interpretation of those words, or the scriptures, than those around them to an extreme. Most often this pride is rooted in insecurity and low self-esteem and is the kind of inferior pride that comes with childhood abuse, or neglect, and not being affirmed. When people's value as human beings is overlooked, through selfish self-centeredness from parents who were victims, or victims of victims, then they need a lot of affirmation in order for the trust in God and others to be restored. It takes A LOT of unconditional LOVE to break the back of such insecurity.

Many sheep have been treated like so much flotsam or jetsam by the church; thrown overboard when those over them had not the heart, knowledge, or patience to deal with their problems. Too many times we in the church have been too judgmental and critical of those who are very different because of their wounds. I remember a story about Rees Howells, and how God required him once to befriend the town drunk. He was NOT to preach to him, or push him into church. He was told by the Lord to just be his friend. He did just that for 3 years before the fellow began to attend one of his bible studies. That impressed me...Most in the church would not be able to do that. Just being a friend, means loving someone, where they are at, unconditionally. Therefore God HAS to DO SOMETHING to change our hearts. I know my own has been exposed lately to the point of such pain, that I can't help but cry and weep to see what a miserable failure I am, compared to HIS glory and love. It is so painful to have our heart exposed.

But if we are too prideful to submit to the process God is working into us we may be at greater loss. What is the saying...."No pain, no gain." We must endure the fellowship of His sufferings, if we want to share in His glory. That is His word!

So then the voice continues..... "If burning is what your heart is yearning, Then come to the place where healing is born Come to the fire of His Presence, And know the LOVE his heart dispenses. One can never share the glory With the King whose heart embraces More than our mind can understand. Can't you see the specks of gold are Only a feeble taste of His glory compared to His Presence ? "

Eye has not seen, nor ear heard what is prepared for those who love Him. One of the first bible studies the Lord had me do when I became ill years ago was on suffering, persecution and affliction. I thought it strange that I would have to suffer so much pain, yet church leaders were saying I didn't have to suffer, and there must be something WRONG with me if I am.

God corrected that doctrine of demons quickly as I read all the scriptures related to suffering. There was Epaphroditus who was SICK unto death, almost, for the sake of the gospel.

I got this revelation in parts....the aforementioned on the 24th, Then today I was thinking about a conversation with a friend about fuller's soap I had last night, and had looked that up...

The scripture is MALACHI 3:2-3 NKJ But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears ? For He is like a refiner's fire and a fuller's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will PURIFY the sons of LEVI, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness.

Fuller's soap Natural lye extracted from Asiatic soap plants which are reduced by BURNING to produce a pasty mass used as a bleach...especially in the presence of olive oil !!!!

Look at the above in light of the symbolism....olive oil represents the anointing of the Holy Spirit, could it be we are the plants that are being burned by the fire of His presence to produce a bleach...Did you know histologically....bleach KILLS everything?

It kills bacteria, viruses, and parasites....just about everything. Likewise His fire in us will be used to kill off our enemies spiritually. FULLER'S SOAP

Figurative. The powerful cleansing properties of borit, or soap, are employed by the prophet Malachi (Mal 3:2; NIV, "launderer's soap") to represent the prospective results of the Messiah's coming (cf. Mark 9:3). Unger's Bible Dictionary FULLER kobees, from kaabas "to tread." The fuller's chief work was cleansing and whitening garments for festive and religious occasions. The white garment typifies Christ's spotless righteousness, put on the saints. Rev 3:4-5,18; 6:11; 7:9,14; Eccl 9:8, "let thy garments be always white"; the present, even if gloomy, should never rob saints of the festive joyousness of spirit which faith bestows, in consciousness of peace with God now, and in the prospect of glory for ever. Fulling or cleansing cloth was effected by stamping on the garments with the feet or bats in tubs of water containing some alkaline dissolved. The alkaline substances mentioned are "soap" and "nitre" (Prov 25:20; Jer 2:22), a potash which mixed with oil was used as soap. Mal 3:2, "fullers' soap." Job 9:30, "if I make my hands never so clean," translated, "if I cleanse my hands with lye." Carbonate of potash is obtained impure from burning plants, especially the kali (from whence, with the Arabic al the article, comes the word "alkali ") of Egypt and Arabia. The Mishna mentions also urine and chalk used in fullers' cleansing. This may have suggested the indelicate filthy sneer of Rabshakeh to Hezekiah's messengers in "the highway of the fullers' field" (2 Kings 18:27). The trade was relegated to the outside of Jerusalem, to avoid the offensive smells [see ENROGEL]. Chalk, or earth of some kind, was used to whiten garments. Christ's garments at the transfiguration became "shining" white "as no fuller on earth could whiten them" (Mark 9:3). Christ's mission, including both the first and second advents, is compared to "fuller's soap" in respect to the judicial process now secretly going on, hereafter to be publicly consummated at the second advent, whereby the unclean are separated from the clean. (from Fausset's Bible Dictionary, Electronic Database Copyright (c)1998 by Biblesoft)

So I asked the Lord, what does all this have to do with Joan of ARC ? Joan was a woman like Deborah....who went when men wouldn't do anything about the injustice and destruction of their land. FIRE was used as a signal in WAR. FIRE was a sign in many miracles...like with Gideon & Elijah. And God is our All-Consuming Fire.

In Joan of Arc, the made for TV movie, she was called forth at a time when the overlords had no care for the needs of the people. She was a sort of Robin Hood, without the thievery methods. She was a BRAVEHEART ! She followed her vision to the DEATH. There are overlords in this country who are out of touch with the people. We are disposable extras to the NEW WORLD ORDER. Our news and political people say we are doing well. All is well with the economy. But they are liars and thieves, and they are more concerned with their own welfare than ours, like some big business. Yes...there are SOME who care....but they are precious few.

God is about to change all that....Joan of Arc....is like the female Gideon. She was just a peasant girl, going about her own daily life. God spoke to her through saints I believe, as it was something she could relate to without fear, and was aligned with her own belief system of the church, at that time. {So please don't send me mail about Catholics. } If that is all you know, God will work with that. It's simple. He speaks to all of us in words and ways that are familiar to us, or that we can relate to from past experiences. He is still doing that with Catholics, as He knows how best to reach them.

Look then at the following scriptures in MALACHI..... Mal 3:2-5 NKJ "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire And like fuller's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD An offering in righteousness. "Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem Will be pleasant to the LORD, As in the days of old, As in former years. And I will come near you for judgment; I will be a swift witness AGAINST SORCERERS, AGAINST ADULTERERS, AGAINST PERJURORS, Against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans, AND AGAINST THOSE WHO TURN AWAY AN ALIEN, because they do not fear Me," Says the LORD of Hosts.

Mal 4:1-3 NKJ "For behold, the day is coming, Burning like an oven, And all the PROUD , yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble. And the day which is coming shall burn them up ,"Says the LORD of Hosts, "That will with healing in His wings; And you shall go out And grow fat like stall-fed calves. You shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this, "Says the LORD of Hosts. Then look at the use of horse in Zechariah Zech 10:3 NKJ For the LORD of hosts will visit His flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as His royal horse in the battle. Again in Joel. the coming army and the fire and the horse image. Joel 2:2-5 KJV...a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, {mountains stand for authorities-false or true } like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble,

Then the Lord spoke to me " SOUND THE WARNING ! SOUND THE ALARM! For the Lord is coming in judgement upon the earth , but first to the house of the Lord! "

Then words from Amos 2:6-7 KJV Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, {like Judas} and the poor for a pair of shoes; That pant after the dust of the earth, on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek : and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name:

And Amos 2:11-12 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not!

And Amos 3:6-8 "Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? But he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? The Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy!"

May all of us surrender fully to the burning of the Lord ! And may He fill us with the courage and grace, to be like Gideon, Joan of Arc, Deborah, or Esther...called forth for such a time as this. May we run the race with diligence toward our goal...the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jerusalem O reeling cup amongst the Nations!

Ros Henderson

Zechariah chapter 12 verse 1-3

The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him

Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah [and] against Jerusalem

And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

Dear friends in Christ, today I am burdened with the knowledge that we are living in perilous times. We are standing on the threshold of a time of great turmoil and tribulation.

Whilst the world waits in earnest for peace and safety, Israel readies itself for war! Jerusalem, Jerusalem the cup of reeling amongst the nations, all who touch you shall be cut to pieces. shall you be divided into little pieces, by those who claim sovereignty over you. surely as I have said it, so shall it be done. Your city shall be divided for a time, by those who have their own interests at heart.

Prepare yourselves mighty men of war! for a time is coming when the kings of the earth shall rise up against you to devour your land.

With a consuming fire they shall reign down upon your walls O Jerusalem, but fear not for I am with you saith the Lord!

Even now the vile northern conqueror makes his plans and set his purposes upon you. Yes in his heart he says, I shall sweep down upon the land of unwalled villages to pillage and cause great destruction.

I say to you, O northern destructor, it is I who leads you to your destruction. Like a bull with a ring in its nose, you shall be brought down upon my Holy Land and you shall be no more! for the beast of the earth and the birds of the air shall feast upon your carcasses.

Sound the alarm in Zion, send out the messengers, for the day draws close, the battle draws near! For I am coming soon to execute judgment upon the inhabitants of the earth, and upon the kings who divide my Holy Land! who is able to stand against the God Almighty, who is able to save himself from my judgment!

Hear who has an ear listen to what the voice of the Holy Spirit, for the days will shortly be upon you!

God Bless

Ros

NINTH HOUR, JUDGMENT, RAPTURE

By Celia R. Okhuysen - USA

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

[As prompted by the Holy Spirit, I sought interpretative help from Pastor Paula Cavu, of Daystar Ministries, Australia, <http://www.uq.net.au/daystar/page2.htm>. It is with deep and humble gratitude that I acknowledge his assistance and anointed interpretation in helping me bring this dream of December 18, 1999* to the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ while taking time away from his very busy and heavy work and travel schedule. I could not have rendered the needed interpretations in areas where the Holy Spirit led him to interpret. (Thank you, Paula.) His interpretative comments follow at the end of the dream. My interpretation follows thereafter. The reader should keep in mind that most of this dream is allegorical in context. The dreamer here is representative of the five-fold ministry in Eph. 4:11,12.]

INTRODUCTORY COMMENT BY PAULA CAVU:

"Celia, this dream seems to constitute a warning and instruction to Christians that the coming resurrection rapture, which is portrayed in this dream as the imminent departure of the air plane, is almost upon us."

DREAM

A) I was in uniform with a flight crew at an airport and was aware that I did not have much time left to myself. I told the other In-Flight Purser that I'd be on time for departure as I wanted to pick up something at the Duty Free Shop. I left the crew, and when I arrived at the Duty Free Shop, I saw a large beautiful painting of cats with a blue background, and became interested in it. However, I quickly realized that the shop was too crowded with people and would not get the attention I quickly needed. Instead, I decided to proceed to the aircraft.

B) Next, I found myself in the passenger lounge glancing through a newspaper which I had previously bought. I quickly sorted the newspaper, selecting only sections of interest while laying aside the other sections. Somehow I got the impression that it was a New Jersey newspaper. I now became aware of the short time left in getting to the departure gate. I glanced around at an almost empty passenger lounge. There was only one person left. It was a woman who sat fast asleep while leaning over to the right with nothing supporting her. She was approximately sixty years of age, overweight, her complexion was olive, and she wore a black scarf over her head and tied under her chin. She was also dressed in dark peasant style clothing. I quickly left the passenger lounge without the newspaper and walked toward the departure gate. As I arrived at the gate, the ramp agent quickly picked up the phone and told someone that I had arrived. I glanced at my watch, and it was exactly two minutes before departure time. (I cannot recall the time.) I quickly ran down the ramp as the passenger lounge door closed behind me, and when I boarded the 747 aircraft, the ramp agent slammed the large aircraft door closed and locked it from the outside.

PAULA'S SCRIPTURE REFERENCE INSERT

Gen. 7:15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein [is] the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: AND THE LORD SHUT HIM IN.

All the passengers had boarded by now, and I quickly met up with the other purser who gave me a passenger count in both First Class and in Economy Class. The First Class section had more passengers than there were in Economy. I was startled, and asked her if she was sure of the count. She repeated the same passenger count (I cannot recall the exact numbers, but both class sections each had some twenty plus passengers) and I quickly proceeded into the First Class section which I would be working during the flight. After stowing away my coat and shoulder bag, I went into the galley area and looked for my crew bag. I saw many other crew bags but did not recognize mine. (As a former Pan Am In-Flight Purser, I know that regulations require that crew bags be stowed away in other locations in the aircraft and not in tiny galley areas where there is no such room.)

C) Next, I found myself outside as I quickly inspected the grounds which surrounded the aircraft. Strange as it may seem, I had opened the aircraft's left forward door, and without stepping out onto a ramp, I found myself walking on firm ground. The aircraft was supposed to be airborne, as I was keenly aware that it had taken off and the pilots were now flying and navigating the aircraft with a computer. Yet, it was sitting flat on the ground with the landing gear retracted into its storage compartment. The engines were not making their typical whining, whirring noise, but were silent. Otherwise, I could not have walked near them due to their strong suction power while in operation.

D) As I walked about, inspecting the immediate grounds all around the aircraft in total darkness, I noticed smoldering ground patches throughout the entire surrounding areas. They had the appearance of smoldering orange-yellowish ambers. Although it was nighttime and quite dark outside the aircraft, I could clearly distinguish the color of the soil as I bent down and scooped some of it in my hand to inspect it. It was pitch black, and not its usual dark brownish color.

E) I returned to the aircraft, and observed all the activity taking place while the aircraft was supposedly airborne. Some flight attendants were busy quenching the few passengers' thirsty needs while other flight attendants were setting up the meal carts in First Class. With the few passengers in Economy Class, no meal carts were necessary as the meal trays would be hand carried. Galley attendants were busy in both galleys preparing the meals.

I became deeply concerned about the smoldering ground patches outside the aircraft, and decided to return outside. The smoldering ground patches had increased in number and size. Suddenly, one of the patches erupted with flames, instantly engulfing a large portion of the left ground area a short distance away from the aircraft. I quickly returned inside the aircraft and grabbed a fire extinguisher. I ran outside with it, pulled out the release pin and began pulling the trigger to release the CO2 (carbon dioxide) as I aimed at the base of the growing flames. I quickly put the fire out and proceeded to run throughout the entire grounds surrounding the aircraft, aiming at all the smoldering patches and putting them out as well. The CO2 bottle was quite a large cylinder in my arms. Strangely, however, it was light to carry and easy to handle. I made a thorough search of where the fire had broken out to insure that it was completely out. Upon making sure that it was and that I had also put out all the other smoldering patches, I returned inside the aircraft with the CO2 bottle.

F) In the next scene I was with my husband at a hotel. We had arrived at a crew layover hotel, and I became aware that I had left my crew bag at Customs. I told my husband that I'd have to try and pick it up as some of my personal things were packed in that bag. I had a smaller bag with me that contained only a few toiletries. Then, and for some unexplained reason, I decided to forego the idea of picking up my bag at Customs.

PAULA'S SCRIPTURE REFERENCE INSERT

Luke 17:30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and HIS STUFF IN THE HOUSE, LET HIM NOT COME DOWN TO TAKE IT AWAY: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

G) I was aware that I would be deadheading (traveling as a passenger while in uniform) on American Airlines, Flight #9, which would be departing at 9:30 from Gate 19. I told my husband to go ahead without me, and that I would meet him at the gate. I decided to return to the passenger lounge I had previously been at to collect the newspaper I had left behind. I then found myself in the passenger lounge walking toward the newspaper which was still there in one of the seats. A different peasant woman, also wearing a dark scarf tied under her chin, was going through the newspaper, but when she saw me approaching she quickly withdrew from the newspaper. I picked it up and discovered that with the newspaper there was a TIME Magazine with a front cover of two men. The cover picture was divided into two halves which displayed one man's face in the upper half of the cover with a line drawn across the cover and the other man's face displayed in the lower half. Both men were foreign statesmen. I recognized the man pictured above the lower man as the current leader of China, President Jiang Zemin. I did not recognize the other man pictured in the lower half of the cover. The magazine title, "TIME," was printed in large bold red letters, and the magazine cover had a red border all around the cover.

H) I looked at my watch. It was now 9:05. I became aware that I did not have much time to spare, yet quickly decided to pick up my crew bag at Customs after all. I abandoned the newspaper and magazine and quickly hastened to pick up my bag. I glanced at my watch again. The time was now 9:15. Again, I decided to forego my bag and hastened to the airline's ticket counter to pick up my boarding pass. The lady ticket agent was on the phone, and as I stood at the counter waiting for her to get off the phone, suddenly two other flight attendants, wearing another airline's uniforms, hastily walked up to the ticket counter to my right. They both had fair complexions, were of average height and weight, had short blond hair down to their necks, and wore light beige uniforms. (My uniform was medium blue.) Their crew hats were also the same beige color. They were just as rushed as I was. It seems that we were to be on the same flight together, and they wanted to pick up their boarding passes too. The agent got off the phone, and gave us our boarding passes and told us to quickly proceed to Gate 19 from where Flight #9 would be departing at 9:30.

I) We quickly walked through the crowded passenger terminal to the gate. The other two flight attendants were fast walkers and no matter how I tried to stay close behind them, they kept getting farther ahead of me. I kept them in sight while I continued on toward the departure gate. The next thing I knew, I found both flight attendants outside in the dark night, walking around in circles within a chain linked fenced area. As dark as it was, I could clearly see that they had become confused without light.

PAULA'S SCRIPTURE REFERENCE INSERT

Matt. 15:14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

[A brother in Christ, Frank M., has made the following observation which I quote as follows: "Suddenly disaster strikes, everything is dark and you find yourself in a compound surrounded by a high fence. Perhaps this is the take over of America with Martial Law ensuing."]

When I saw their mistake, as well as the mistake I had made in following their lead, I quickly turned to the right and began climbing up some type of large rock boulder while panting quite heavily. I used my hands to cling onto the boulder's crevices and protrusions as I crawled my way up. The other two flight attendants began following me.

PAULA'S SCRIPTURE REFERENCE INSERT

Matt 16:17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

I climbed to the top and opened a door. As I entered, with the other two flight attendants directly behind me, I was instantly at the same ticket counter as before. The same lady ticket agent urgently told us that we were supposed to be on board Flight #9 by now at Gate 19 for a 9:30 departure while pointing out the direction to the gate. She told us to hurry as it was almost departure time.

J) We quickly ran throughout the now empty passenger terminal toward the other end of the terminal. (Dream ended.)

COMMENT BY PAULA

"Celia, this dream seems to constitute a warning and instruction to Christians that the coming resurrection rapture, which is portrayed in this dream as the imminent departure of the air plane, is almost upon us (2 minutes before departure time).It is time to put away desires for the temporal things of the world as symbolized by the painting of the cats at the Duty Free Shop and the crew bag which you finally decided to leave at Customs. The timing for the rapture is perhaps related to the time when China will dominate the news media (TIME magazine with the dominant picture of the Chinese leader). It will also be the time when judgment shall be upon the earth (black earth and smoldering amber) and threaten the Church of the Rapture. It is God's end time apostolic and prophetic anointing and ministries which shall keep the Church of the rapture from being consumed by judgment (the dreamer extinguishing the ambers). This also agrees with your mention of number 9 being the number of judgment.

The two women with peasant clothing and dark head scarves who were sitting in the passenger lounge and presumably missed the flight most likely portrayed churches in spiritual poverty whose spiritual covering is from the kingdom of darkness (dark scarves).

The two flight attendants who wore a different uniform from yours and who led you into the dark and into confusion most likely speak of churches who are not of God's apostolic and prophetic anointing and are therefore not taught and led of the Spirit. Being the dreamer, you are of this anointing so that the churches, who will ultimately be led of the Spirit [by] God's end time apostles and prophets, will receive the quickening of the direct revelation of Jesus (rock that was climbed). Hereby, many churches will be saved.

Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

Jude 22

And of some have compassion, making a difference:

Jude 23

And others save with fear, PULLING THEM OUT OF THE FIRE; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh."

INTERPRETATION

[With the interpretative support from Paula, this dream portrays the approaching events leading toward judgment and followed by the Rapture, both of which are to take place shortly. Nine is the number of judgment, and great haste occurs during the ninth hour. A few references are applied to me in this dream. However, I believe that the Holy Spirit will speak to Christian readers, through His conviction, that there are certain activities and distractions currently taking place in their lives that are keeping them from remaining totally focused on their calling and faithfulness to the Lord Jesus.]

A) The flight crew represents part of the remnant Church. In First Class: the five-fold ministry of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers (Eph. 4:11,12), and co-laborers for the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. In Economy Class: the faithful few in number that are ready for the flight at departure time. The Duty Free Shop portrays the ongoing distractions in the world around me, even to the time of departure. "Duty Free" represents unceasing temptations to "free" me from my sanctified "duty" (calling) as a servant of God and a watchman. (The painting of cats represents my great attachment to heart memories of previous departed cats as well as a deep fondness for the current one I have.)

B) I selected only certain sections of interest from the newspaper which I discerned to be a New Jersey newspaper. Many references have been made to the fact that Israel is the approximate size of New Jersey. (I closely follow current news regarding peace negotiations in Israel, as well as a few other political world events.) The empty passenger lounge indicates that the vigilant Church had already boarded the aircraft while I observed the non-vigilant Church asleep. I decided to set the newspaper aside and remain focused on my departure.

C) The strange scene of an aircraft, which should have been airborne, yet sitting flat on the ground, portrays a simulated flight with passengers that in actuality will depart shortly (the Rapture: "caught up" - 1 Thes. 4:15-17).

D) Paula's comment, "It is God's end time apostolic and prophetic anointing and ministries which shall keep the Church of the rapture from being CONSUMED BY JUDGMENT..." tremendously describes this scene. Paula's comment covers the rest of the dream's paragraph E.

E) The refreshments and nourishment being served to those on board the aircraft represents the provision of the Word of which they are partakers and with which they will continue to nourish and refresh themselves with in the Lord while waiting for their "flight" departure. The CO2 fire extinguisher in this dream is another symbolic representation of the Word of God.

F) My ongoing indecision regarding my crew bag is a great confirmation to me in this dream about my deep burdens for both my husband's and my family members' salvation. This is my "bag of burdens." (In reality I am walking in great anxiety for my loved ones' spiritual welfare, wanting to somehow have some form of control in seeing that they will all be saved and enter into the Kingdom of God. However, all I can, and do, is pray for them and keep them covered with the Blood of Jesus daily.) Included in these burdens, and in greater depth, is my great concern for the spiritual state of the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ world-wide, as well as the state of the persecuted Church, AND the remnant Church in America which will be kept here during her hour of judgment. http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/1\_inherit.html. Customs represents God: security, a place of safe keeping. I also agree with Paula's scriptural reference about this scene portraying some in the Church as being attached to personal possessions.

G) My decision to return to the passenger lounge to retrieve my newspaper brings me together again with another peasant woman. Paula's comment on both peasant women representing impoverished churches "whose spiritual covering is from the kingdom of darkness (dark scarves)" is what I had also received of the Holy Spirit. My observance of the second peasant woman as she browsed through the newspaper and then quickly withdrew herself when she saw me approaching seems to convey that the slumbering and spiritually impoverished Church is more interested in events of the world.

The magazine cover brings forth an interesting observation. It pictured the current Chinese President, Jiang Zemin, and another statesman which I did not recognize. How interesting that this dream occurred on December 18th because thirteen days later, on December 31st, the Russian President, Boris Yeltsin, resigned. The number thirteen represents rebellion, apostasy, defection, corruption, disintegration and revolution. My inability to recognize the second statesman pictured below the Chinese leader's picture was about to become a fact. Vladimir Putin, unfamiliar to the world at that time, became Russia's acting president on December 31st, also thirteen days later. The number thirteen could very well portray similar or identical characteristics in both of these men.

The color red, as displayed on the magazine cover, is the color of war and destruction (Rev. 6:4). Again, Paula's comment that "The timing for the rapture is perhaps related to the time when China will dominate the news media (TIME magazine with the dominant picture of the Chinese leader)" is intertwined with the pending scenario of nuclear war [see Commentary at the end] that will soon come to pass with China and Russia "jointly" at the helm, as both are "jointly" pictured together on the magazine cover and bordered with the color red.

H) Something is about to happen, and there is great haste to get on board the flight before its departure. A sequence of events reveals how the hour of judgment and the Rapture seem to be somehow timed close together. The faithful in waiting are caught in the midst of judgment, as their hopes were that they would be raptured before judgment falls. The number "nine" is surrounded with frenzy and haste. The various moments during the ninth hour seem to reveal the following: 5 = grace and ministry of the gospel; 9 = finality, judgment, gifts of the Holy Spirit and fruit of the Holy Spirit; 15 = rest; 30 = launching out of ministry, the right moment, dedication, and the Blood of Christ, and 19 = faith. All these numbers harmonize spiritually, and tremendously so. It seems that the remnant Church will be fully equipped with all these spiritual giftings as well as completely empowered by the Holy Spirit to endure through what lies ahead during the time of judgment. The color blue (my uniform) represents the Holy Spirit. The color brown (beige--worn by other flight attendants) represents drought, wilderness, famine and death.

As for a 9:30 time departure, I cannot bring a full interpretation here. Could it be that the Church will endure halfway through the ninth hour, the hour of judgment, and then be raptured?

Further interpretation is explained by Paula quite clearly. "The two flight attendants who wore a different uniform from yours and who led you into the dark and into confusion most likely speak of churches who are not of God's apostolic and prophetic anointing and are therefore not taught and led of the Spirit. Being the dreamer, you are of this anointing so that the churches, who will ultimately be led of the Spirit [by] God's end time apostles and prophets, will receive the quickening of the direct revelation of Jesus (rock that was climbed). Hereby, many churches will be saved." That many churches will be saved is a tremendous interpretation as it puts into perspective why the two flight attendants (spiritually famished churches) followed me up the rock boulder.

I) The crowded passenger terminal reveals that people's lives are thriving and have not yet been disrupted. So far, judgment has not taken place. (See "Dreams and Visions from God" to Dumitru Duduman, <http://www.throughthefire.com/dreams.htm>.) I am portrayed as following after spiritually famished and spiritually impoverished churches, and misled by them when in actuality I am brought together with them to minister to them through prayer or otherwise, and by following them I show that I am concerned about their spiritual welfare and don't want to let them out of my sight. I want to make sure they go in the right direction.

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world. But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen" (1 Pet. 5:8-11). [Bold emphasis is mine.]

J) The empty airport terminal seems to portray a two-fold scenario. 1) Judgment has taken place, and 2) the remnant Church has boarded the flight which is ready for departure (the Rapture). There are no more passengers to take the flight. The "no shows" for flight departure have been found lacking in humility, obedience and repentance, and have either perished during judgment or are found unworthy of entering into God's kingdom. They must endure the tremendous suffering and pain of God's wrath during the hour of judgment until it's over. Prayerfully, by the presence of the Church still here, PREACHING THE GOSPEL to them in their hour of devastation, hopelessness and anguish, many will repent, receive the Son of God as their Savior, and become worthy to enter into God's eternal rest in Christ Jesus.

"But in accordance with your hardness and your impenitent [unrepentant] heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God" (Rom 2:5).

"How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: 'How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!'...So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God" (Rom 10:14,15,17).

"The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance" (2 Pet. 3:9).

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved" (Jn. 3:16,17).

As for the two other flight attendants running with me to catch the flight, these churches were "revived" in their hearts by the power of the Holy Spirit's conviction. At last they set their sight and faith in Jesus, alone, by forsaking religion and denominational teachings of confusion and division through traditions and dogmas. Praise God!

"And the Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!' And let him who hears say, 'Come!'" (Rev. 22:17)

"'Surely I am coming quickly.' Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!" (Rev. 22:20)

COMMENTARY

From all current appearances, it seems that judgment on America has begun, yet the prospering economy and technological and scientific advancements seem to be deceiving most in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Biblically speaking, there are accounts in the Old Testament that give witness to harsh weather, drought and crop conditions, among other events, that paved the way for severe consequences which followed as God's judgment fell on those nations. Climatic and atmospheric changes are beginning to threaten the quality of life on earth, particularly the increasing famine in many parts of the world. America has begun to witness and experience rapid weather changes affecting her water reservoirs, crops and farmlands, as well as increasing periods of extreme heat and drought. The rest of the world has also begun to experience severe and unheard of weather pattern changes. And then there is Israel and the "imminent" peace that will soon take place there. From all appearances, there are no further arguments left for scoffers in the Church.

I cannot state that the hour of judgment is the same as the seven year tribulation period. The Church here in America has been warned by God's Romanian pastor and prophet, Dumitru Duduman (1932-1997), that this nation will be greatly judged through a nuclear attack for her disobedience to Him and rejection of His Word. Only God knows the length of the hour of America's judgment.

This dream is also a message to the five-fold ministry of Ephesians 4:11,12 and to the co-laborers for the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. We are to stay completely focused on the Lord and not look to others or become too overly concerned about their spiritual welfare to the point of distraction. We are to remain vigilant in prayer and in our spiritual and anointed calling. And yes, we are to remain highly sensitive to the Holy Spirit's guidance with humility, obedience, faithfulness, and perseverance in the strength of the Lord from this time forth with the remaining time we have left before judgment arrives.

Judgment from my Throne

Wayne Surbrook

Let us pray:

Most Holy One, Father of all, Giver of Life, Master of the Universe; Send your Holy Spirit to teach us your truth, the truth that has been hidden since the foundations of the world. The truth that will set us free, bring us into new life, cause us to walk as you walk, full of tender mercies each day, picking up the downcast, raising the crippled, both in spirit and in body. Amen..

There are many words coming forth in this day, the last few days before the beginning of a new dimension of existence, many words that talk about tearing down the old, bringing judgment to the religious, etc.

I say to you that this will occur, but not the way that many think. I am causing my chosen vessels to begin even this day, to walk in new and deeper dimensions of love. Love that would appear effeminate to some, kind, soft, gentle, caring, soft wonderful love and acceptance of even the most undesirable. Know that I am causing this. There is no way that you can do anything to facilitate this other than making yourself available to me.

This will take on the form of conviction, breaking, facing the darkness of your own souls, the places that you won't even look at, the places that I see all of the time. But because of the love that I have for you, I love you anyway. Understand that these things too shall pass away.

These places are not an issue to me, but they keep you from walking in my fullness, my completeness. They are like a weak spot in the wall that allows the enemy to attack you, to render you less than totally effective. Surrender to me and I will make the dark places light, I will repair the breeches, I will restore, I will replace the relationship that we once had before, the foundations of the world if you will but trust Me.

No man will be able to walk you thru these things. You must yield to My Holy Spirit for the deep cleansing that must occur. Many will not choose to go on. That is their choice and I love them just as much. It will be the toughest thing you will ever do. But it will bring you life intensive as I have it.

If you still find the desire for retribution or vengeance on others (religious) people, then you are not yet qualified. When My vessels of honor have been 'fired' in the kiln, they will have no desire for any kind of retribution or vengeance. They will love to the max. They will exude love, in every form. They will be used by Me to bring forth judgment but they will not desire that. They will have a heart of reconciliation and it will grieve them to see judgment brought forth. They will cry out in pain as they see judgment dispensed for they will feel the others pain as though it were their own. Take strength my people for the day is at hand.

The day of your deliverance.

Justice Is Turned Back

Reuven Doron

PRAYER FOCUS
REUVEN DORON

"Why do the nations rage and imagine a vain thing?" (Psalms 2:1)

Life in and around Israel these days, for the intercessor, is an emphatic model of the life, which is called to be connected to both earth and heaven simultaneously. The person who lives in the gap, that distance between the way things are and the way things could be if God had His perfect way, is fully subject to the downward pull of the pain and wickedness which flood the natural creation, while at the same time never compromising on the hope and glory of heaven.

Such dichotomy is too much for any human heart, and only the life of the Messiah, God's chief intercessor, is sufficient for the task. Pray for us to so abide in the holy vine that no matter how horrifying and discouraging the surroundings may be, our eyes will still behold the King upon His throne!

Thank you for the many prayers, notes, and inquiries. The intercessory support from the nations is priceless, and all of us who serve God in this region know how depressing life here would be without that bright cloud of witnesses surrounding us. This is indeed a good time to sow faith, hope, love, and financial aid into the fields of harvest in our part of the world, as times of distress always produce a harvest, and the Lord of the Harvest is calling for His workers to be in position, ready, and equipped. Thank you for remembering us in your mission giving, especially after the "summer slump."

Many have written to us in recent days, following my latest prayer report of Oct 8, requesting more information and commentary of this kind. I thank you for your commitment and love. However, I have neither the time nor the grace to produce a daily news report, though the unfolding events in our part of the world are indeed significant and weighty. Rather, I will continue to provide the intercessors with timely articles sent in regular intervals addressing both natural and spiritual dynamics in our region that we deem important for the purpose of prayer.

However, for you who desire daily, reliable, and unbiased reporting of events, I recommend the International Christian Embassy in Jerusalem's E-bulletin that can be subscribed at: <<icej-news-service-subscribe@icej.org.il>>, as well as the Jerusalem Post E-version that can be found on the net under Jerusalem Post. Remember to pray as you read.

HARD TRUTHS

"Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far away; for truth has stumbled in the street, and uprightness cannot enter." (Isaiah 59:14 NASB)

In light of the significance and speed of the events that erupt and surface in our region daily, I want to shortly address in this writing some of the fundamental hard truths that have often been neglected or altogether forgotten in the avalanche of images, trauma, and deception. In this writing, for the sake of brevity, I will not expound on these points. A fuller examination of these and other neglected truths, can be found in a list of recommended books that can be obtained from our office.

The truths I will address here, as unpopular as they are, are nevertheless the seeds which produce the harvest we are now reaping in the Middle East, and the longer they are ignored, the worse the consequences will be. These truths will not go away, but rather continue to hold the plumb line over the crookedness of mankind, exacting the full price of dishonesty, lust, and pride.

"Middle East on fire." "Palestinians Spark The Arab World." "Arab/Israeli Conflict May Turn Into A Full-Scale War." "Is World War Three On The Horizon?" "World Leaders Convene For Desperate Attempt

To Restore Middle-East Peace." These past weeks' headlines seem like chapter headings from an apocalyptic novel, only without the person of the anti-Christ to save the world. I believe that at this last Rosh Hashanah (Feast of Trumpets), September 30, we crossed over into a new chapter in God's unfolding history, and I am afraid that there is no way back.

BEWARE OF COMPROMISE

Israel is a "light to the nations" in spite of herself, even in her blindness and distress. Israel's national history and God's dealings with her were always meant to be lessons and reminders of God's existence, truth, and purpose. Likewise, our present trials can teach all who have ears to hear, and especially the Church, an essential truth that is a warning to the wise.

Plainly, Israel's present suffering points to the painful lesson of compromise. Whenever truth is compromised, even for the noblest of reasons or the most humane of causes, the end result is not good. In fact, as this lesson will painfully prove in time, it is far better to remain in an unresolved yet "honest" conflict, rooted and grounded in reality, than to form unreliable alliances and enter into deceptive agreements.

The church in the nations should heed this warning. A political spirit has been drawing many in the Lord's body into unholy alliances, agreements based upon mutual benefits, and treaties anchored in joint interests. None of these please the Lord. They will not produce the fruit of His Kingdom, nor stand in the day of trial. All such bonds that are born of the mind and the heart of man, even for the best of intentions, face the risk of turning into soul-ties, selfish manipulations, and even demonic unions. Remember how seriously the Lord took the unsanctified unity of the builders of the Tower of Babel.

In her blindness toward God's purpose and her desperation to reach a peaceful existence with her neighbors, Israel is now awaking from a long nightmare of compromise and humanistic wishful thinking. She has been compromising her dignity, her cause, her character, and her destiny for acceptance among the nations. As a person heavily engaged in and committed to the cause of reconciliation, I, too, find it painful to track the recent events, draw the necessary conclusions, and call for honest applications.

ARAB VERSUS MUSLIM

To my Arab/Palestinian friends and brothers I extend my hand and my heart, as always, with a sincere desire to find each other in the Lord. Some of you occupy a special place in my heart, which neither political strife nor national interests can take away. However, we cannot sustain genuine relationships at the expense of the truth, and compromising essential truths at this strategic crossroad will only lead us further into the inevitable dead-ends we looked into these last weeks.

In fact, I am deeply concerned for my Arab Christian brothers and friends who, in the flood of ethnic passions and national frenzy, have become blinded to the reality surrounding them. This reality is that the moving force and controlling agenda of what is taking place in the Palestinian camp today is entirely and exclusively Muslim, and the most militant Islamic groups which are supported and associated with the Islamic terrorist state of Iran, are the ones leading the campaign.

Christian Arabs must know that they are not going to be treated any better than the "despised Jewish Zionists" the Islamic world so detests. The flags waved by Palestinian mobs on our television screens are the flags of the Islamic Revolution, the Hizballa Islamic terror organization, and other militant Islamic groups, not the flags of freedom or equality for the Christian. The same spirit, which haunts Israel in the political arena, is presently at work maiming Christians in Ethiopia, crucifying them in Egypt, enslaving their children in Sudan, and beheading them in Saudi Arabia.

Only a complete fool or a bewitched man will throw his lot with the Islamic camp. I hope and pray that our partners in the Faith in the Arab community will not forget the simple fact that God and His word are our only basis for fellowship, and should we be led by either politicians or mobs, we will lose our only foundation for unity which is the Word of God and His Spirit.

Considering the arguments for either the Israeli or the Palestinian positions from an undiscerning human viewpoint, they seem to cancel each other out. It is only as we view the conflict from God's perspective, as revealed in His covenant promises, without compromising the historical truths examined below, that we have a clue as to the ultimate solution for our region's ills. In the meantime, those opposing God's way must be contained.

PALESTINIAN CAUSE IN PROPER PERSPECTIVE

Before we look any further, we should recall that the Palestinian tragedy, though all encompassing and heart breaking for the Arabs who are caught in it, is but another episode of hardship and warfare that the Hebrew nation has to endure in her long and difficult journey. Our Palestinian neighbors, from a historical Jewish perspective, are but another flash point where the powers of the age come into direct conflict with the people of Israel, God's elect nation in the earthly domain.

While we acknowledge the pressing immediacy and pain of the Palestinian tragedy, a people group who only recently developed any sense of national identity and aspirations, still, from Israel's historical point of view the Palestinians are but a short chapter in the Hebrew nation's long tale of suffering, persecution, and hatred which long preceded the Palestinian cause, or even the modern Arab/Israeli conflict.

The fact is that the Hebrew nation, or Israel in modern times, since her divine inception 4500 years ago, has been in continual conflict with the powers of darkness and their representatives on earth. Isolation, persecution, humiliation, and warfare have been our daily bread for millennia. Chosen and called to testify of God's existence and truths, the Hebrew nation, even in her imperfection and sin, was time and again targeted for annihilation by Satan. Silence the messenger, the reasoning goes, and you get rid of the message.

And so, as painful and pressing as the Palestinian cause appears today, decorated with much international rhetoric and watered with the blood of martyrs, it is but a small case in point given Israel's total experience and age long mission. Arafat, his thugs, and the raging Islamic mobs come at the end of a very long line of oppressors and foes who have had their day, releasing the demonic fury against the nation of Israel. In fact, Arafat and the Islamic agenda (which hitched a ride on the legitimate Palestinian cause) dwarf in comparison to Hitler's nazism, Rome's globalization, Greece's hellenism, Haman's treachery, and Pharaoh's slavery, all strategically aimed at Israel's annihilation. And so, if we are to learn the lesson of history, this trial too, will pass.

Another truth that must be remembered is that of the vast difference between Arab and Muslim. One is an ethnic term that relates to language, culture, and society. The other is a demonized religion that opposes God, His word, and His purpose. It's a principle difference, which not only enables the intercessor to keep a clear head in the battle for souls, should also help our Arab/Christian brethren keep away from the rage and deception, which so often characterize Islamic approach to both Jew and Christian.

Having placed the Palestinian issue in perspective, let us now take an honest look at the actual claims and case in point: According to most media coverage and popular international opinion, the Palestinians want a homeland and the Muslims want control over the sites they consider holy. That sounds reasonable, even reasonable enough for most Israelis to support a peace agreement with such articles included in it. But is it really that simple? Or are these but shallow excuses for a deeper, spiritual agenda, which produces the violence, unending hatred, and lust for the land?

THE LAND

When my grandparents pioneered their way into the Promised Land in the early years of this century, the territory was named "Palestine." The origin of the name is traced to the Roman Emperor Hadrian who changed the name of the land from Judea to "Syria Palestina" after the final Roman victory in A.D. 135. At that time, half a million of the Jewish inhabitants were massacred and thousands exiled and sold into slavery. Their property was confiscated, national life and worship were forbidden, and territory was renamed and designated to the Roman district of Syria (which was not Arab at the time, as the Arab tribes were still a nomadic people group in the area of modern day Saudi Arabia).

Jerusalem itself was razed and rebuilt as a Roman city named Aelia Capitolina.

All these steps were taken as a deliberate attempt to obscure the truth, distort the facts of biblical history, and erase the Jewish territorial claim to the land of Israel. However, this diabolic plan, carried out through Roman policy to void the Word of God, was not successful. In fact, throughout all future centuries of foreign domination, there remained a Jewish presence in the land that often constituted the majority of its few inhabitants.

Foreign powers dominated the land of Israel in succession for centuries. After Judea was destroyed by the Romans and her name changed, the Roman rule continued until the breakup of their empire and the rise of the Byzantine Empire in A.D. 315. The region was then ruled by the Byzantines until the advent of Islam and the capture of the land in A.D. 637. From this point to A.D. 1072, the land was ruled by various Moslem caliphs whose capitals were established in other lands.

The Seljukes ruled for a brief period, then the land fell to the Crusaders in A.D. 1099, and was under their general rule until A.D. 1291. From this point until A.D. 1516 the land was dominated by the Mameluks from Egypt. After them, the Ottoman Turkish Empire took over and ruled the whole region until they were removed by the British in 1918.

Great Britain, which was commissioned by the League of Nations (the U.N. predecessor) to prepare part of that region as a national home for the Jewish people, ruled the region for a short period between WW1 and WW2, a period called the British Mandate. After much debate, struggle, and the horror of the holocaust, Israel was declared a sovereign independent state on May 14, 1948. Indeed, empires and kingdoms had their season; mighty armies rocked the whole region under their campaigns, yet they are all gone.

During the entire period of recorded history, the land called Palestine was never ruled by Palestinians. The fact is, that apart from the continuing Jewish presence in the land from A.D. 135 to 1948, its inhabitants consisted of the soldiers of each conquering army and their slaves. Century after century, the culture, social fabric and identity of these inhabitants changed as the rulers changed. The Jewish residents, on the other hand, were the sole survivors of the ancient population of the land, and they alone have maintained an uninterrupted national link with the land since the dawn of recorded history.

Israel's claim to the land goes back 4,000 years with many centuries filled with vital and consistent national life, which is supported by indisputable biblical and archeological proofs. For 3,000 years Jerusalem was the capital of the Hebrew nation, and the 35-acre Temple Mount summit, currently the center of the dispute, was rightfully purchased by King David from Ornan the Jebusite. In time, this became the site of the first and second Temples and the center of Jewish life and identity.

Zechariah, as he unfolds the prophetic scenario of God's great deliverance of Israel at the end of the age, said, "In that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot among pieces of wood and a flaming torch among sheaves, so they will consume on the right hand and on the left all the surrounding peoples, while the inhabitants of Jerusalem again dwell on their own sights in Jerusalem" (Zech 12:6). This last phrase in the original Hebrew text simply says that Jerusalem shall dwell where Jerusalem always was.

THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE

Though there were agrarians Arab communities scattered in the territory of biblical Israel during the last hundreds of years, there was never a nation called Palestine in the region, or anywhere. So who are the real Palestinians? History tells us that during the same time period, the Jewish communities living in the land also became known as Palestinians as this was the territorial title, and were consistently called Palestinians until the second half of this century.

My own father, blessed be his memory, a Jewish pioneer who arrived in the land in 1920 from Russia, carried a Palestinian identity card (provisional passport under the British Mandate) until 1948 when Israel was declared a sovereign state and all her residents became Israeli citizens.

During World War II, the British army drafted and operated a Palestinian Brigade made up entirely of Jewish troops. The Palestinian Symphony was all Jewish, and the Palestine Post (later named the Jerusalem Post) was an all Jewish newspaper. In other words, being a Palestinian had no bearing whatsoever regarding one's nationality, religion, or ethnic background. It merely pointed to the geographical point of residence and no more.

The ancestors of many of the Palestinian Arabs arrived in Palestine only within the past two centuries. It is well documented that Arab masses flooded into the region from all over the decaying Ottoman Empire, seeking jobs provided by Jewish commercial and developmental activities, which began in the late 1800s. The myth of a coherent national Arab Palestinian population which goes back for generations is a fallacy. And while there are Arab families and clans who can prove their roots in the land for many generations, they represent only a fraction of the whole of the Arab Palestinian population of today.

Palestine was never an established Arab nation wrestled away forcefully by the Zionists, as is so often presented by Arab propagandists. Rather, the Arab families who came for work felt no political ties to the land and, until the 1920s, no national community at all had even existed in Palestine. This is the reason why both the Balfour Declaration of England in 1917 and the League of Nations' Mandate following World War I charged the Jewish population in Palestine with guaranteeing the civil and religious rights of minorities in the land. No mention was made, whatsoever, of any distinct national rights of these minorities, as it was clearly recognized by all parties that the only national claim to the area was that of the Jewish population.

In fact, the Arabs themselves, in the first quarter of the century, recognized the land as being a home for the Jews and expressed, in general, a very cordial acceptance. This was demonstrated in an agreement between Emir Feisal of Arabia and Dr. Chaim Weizmann of the World Zionist Organization. The Emir, a respectable spokesman for the Arabs at the time, spoke with much favor of the future cooperation between the newly carved out Arab states and the Jewish one. In Article 1 the Emir said, "The Arab state and Palestine (the Jewish state), in all their relations and undertakings, shall be controlled by the most cordial good will and understanding."

The Emir identified and welcomed the emergence of a Jewish nation in Palestine, parallel to the emergence of Arab nations in the region such as Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Iraq, etc. under the British and French mandates. In his letter to Felix Frankfurter, a U.S. Supreme Court justice, in 1919, the Emir further wrote, "We feel that the Arabs and Jews are cousins in race, having suffered similar oppression . . . and by happy coincidence have been able to take the first step toward the attainment of their national ideals together. The Arabs . . . look with deepest sympathy on the Zionist movement . . . We will wish the Jews a hearty welcome home." Unfortunately, these sympathetic notions did not last long.

THE REFUGEE PROBLEM

In 1948, following the U.N. declaration of Israeli sovereignty and Israel's own declaration of independence, five Arab nations neighboring Israel attacked the young state. Closing in on Israel, they called for the Arab residents of the area to get out of the way in light of the anticipated invasion, promising them a quick plunder of Jewish property and homes following their victory. However, after eight months of fighting, tiny Israel prevailed, a tense cease-fire was established, and the Arabs who left their homes due to the fierce battles and their leadership's appeal were unable to return. This was the unfortunate beginning of the notorious and tragic Palestinian refugee problem.

Following the war, Jordan and Egypt took control over the West Bank and Gaza strip, with Jordan annexing the region illegally (without any outcry in the international community...). The Palestinian population, most living in their own villages, and some in U.N. constructed refugee camps, were in fact under the authority of neighboring friendly Arab countries, living in the very territory which was allotted them for statehood by U.N. resolution #181 of 1947 which apportioned them a land next to the Jewish state. This would have been an excellent time to establish the hoped for Arab Palestinian state, but it was never done. Why?

Cruelly and contrary to basic human compassion, the Arab residents of Judea, Samaria and the Gaza strip were kept as refugees by their own brethren in Jordan and Egypt, following the 1948 Arab defeat. For the purpose of political manipulation, the neighboring Arab states kept these Arab Palestinians underprivileged and unable to improve their conditions. These refugees who fled Israel, never to return to loot and spoil the abandoned Jewish communities as their leaders had promised, were now locked in a prison of dirty politics, selfish tyrants, poverty, and abuse. They were given no economic opportunities, little education, and no industrial infrastructure whatsoever. They had become a political card in the hands of evil men trying to deceive the world and pressure Israel into compromises.

Why were they kept in such impoverished conditions until 1967, when Israel captured those territories? Why were they not allowed to blend into the Arab societies surrounding them with which they were comfortable and familiar? Why did Jordan never establish an independent Palestinian state in the West Bank during the nineteen years she ruled the territory? All these and more are questions that must be answered. The tragedy and suffering of the Palestinian people could have been averted if handled properly by Arab leaders at the time. In fact, even if statehood was not permitted them, this could have been the simplest refugee problem of our century, given the fact that these refugees could have been easily absorbed into neighboring populations of like culture, religion, language, and customs.

We deal, however, not with human reasoning, but with demonic powers and principalities, which oppose God and His plan for the region. The chronic nature of the Palestinian cry, the intensifying pressure and stress it creates, and the deep deception surrounding it, all testify to the demonic force that hitched a ride on their tragedy. As Christians, we must maintain a heart of compassion and an attitude of intercession toward these suffering people, while at the same time realizing that further deception will not provide for them, or for Israel, a way out.

PALESTINIAN STATEHOOD

The fact is that the myth of the historic Palestinian state, so cleverly constructed over the years, has gained global authenticity, fooling even those who should know better. This mythical state has already been accepted and given observer status in the United Nations; Yasser Arafat has been named its president and, in several nations around the world, this mythical state has ambassadorial status.

However, there is a legitimate side to the Palestinian cry. Parallel to the emergence of Jewish national life in the region during the early years of the century, nationalistic aspirations in the Arab Palestinian community were also budding. In fact, as some would say, two national movements were maturing simultaneously side by side. I fully believe that, apart from the demonic rage bewitching the Arab masses, the two ethnic groups could have, and possibly will, in the future, coexist peacefully side by side.

Britain, under its mandate, made two sets of territorial promises, one to the Moslems and the other to the Jewish residents of the region. These official promises were originally fully reconcilable and attainable. However, British promises to the Arabs in the region were generously fulfilled, while their promises to the Jewish population were constantly violated. The Arabs were favored, as nearly twenty Arab sovereign states (such as Jordan, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Iraq, etc.) were artificially carved out and established by the British from the former Turkish Empire.

However, the development of the part of Palestine allocated by the major powers to the Jewish people took a different course. The first "land for peace" agreement took place when four-fifths of the promised Jewish homeland was given to the Hashamite family, an Arabian royal line imported from Saudi Arabia by the British. They were established as the ruling family in the present kingdom of Jordan in 1946, and were handed seventy-eight percent (78%) of the original land promised to the Jewish people by the League of Nations. In fact, the state of Israel today exists on the remaining one-fifth of the land originally promised. Yet, this loss of land provided no peace.

During the 1930s, as Hitler was rising into power in Germany, nearly 100,000 German Jewish refugees found shelter in Palestine. This caused great agitation among the Arab leadership, accompanied by murderous anti-Jewish campaigns lasting three consecutive years. The British, anxious to draw the Arabs away from Nazi Germany, put an absolute stop to the Jewish immigration.

Europe was ready to snare and destroy its Jewish population, and there was nowhere for them to go.

As millions of Jews were trapped in Europe, the leaders of the Jewish community in Israel demanded the end of the British Mandate. The Arabs, on the other hand, demanded that all of Palestine should become one nation with an Arab majority. And as the matter was debated and decided in the newly formed United Nations, the vote was cast for a sovereign Jewish state to be established.

However, there were serious problems with this U.N. plan, as this small territory, comprised only twenty-two percent of the original promised area, was further partitioned into two states, Palestinian and Jewish. This newly formed Jewish state was, in fact, made up of three disconnected regions, most of which were desert. Judea, Samaria, Gaza, and much of the Galilee were lost, while Jerusalem was to become an international city within the Palestinian state. Yet, in spite of this grim offer, after much agonizing debate, the leadership of the Jewish population accepted the U.N. plan, and on May 14, 1948, the new state was declared sovereign and was named Israel. However, this sacrifice of land did not produce the desired peace either.

While the Jewish population painfully accepted the international ruling, the Arabs rejected the U.N. partition plan, demanding the entire land, and on May 15 the armies of Lebanon, Jordan, Syria, Egypt and Iraq invaded the one-day-old state of Israel as the Mufti (an Arab religious leader) of Jerusalem who was Yasser Arafat's uncle, proclaimed, "I declare a holy war, my Moslem brothers! Murder the Jews! Murder them all!"

Ironically, these five neighboring Arab states, totaling an area of 1,200,000 square miles, attempted to swallow up tiny Israel consisting of 8000 square miles! Yet, after almost a year of fierce fighting, the small Jewish community in Israel, fighting at great odds, won back parts of the Galilee, Judea, Samaria, and liberated half of Jerusalem. In fact, many of the fighting soldiers were fresh arrivals from the European concentration and death camps with hardly any training and no command of Hebrew. Indeed, the victory of this untrained and poorly equipped army was the Lord's.

As the Arab armies retreated and agreed to an armistice, Jordan annexed Judea, Samaria and east Jerusalem as its own, an illegal act which was never dealt with by the U.N., and these territories soon became breeding grounds from which to launch terrorist attacks against Israel's civilian population. Ironically, Jordan and Egypt now occupied the West Bank and the Gaza strip, the very territories allotted to the Arab Palestinians under the U.N. Partition Plan of 1947, which they earlier rejected. Thus, the Arab inhabitants of these territories were virtually taken over by their own Moslem brethren and kept as subjugated people from that point on.

The "land for peace" formula never worked. It appears that the spirit, which is behind the territorial lust of Arab expansionism, is not at all interested in land, but in the total annihilation of the Jewish state. Thus, it will never be satisfied with partial settlements. The fact is that God, in His love for the Arab people, granted them great tracts of land. The territory of the sons of Ishmael is 672 times the size of the state of Israel. It is twice the size of the United States as it embraces all of Northern Africa and the Arabian peninsula, and has vast treasures of oil. Still, the driving spirit behind the blinded masses continues to push for and pursue the destruction of Israel. Land is not its goal, and peace is not an option!

JERUSALEM

Another truth which must be acknowledged is that Jerusalem was never an Arab or Palestinian capital, and that it was, until the Jewish settlers revitalized it in this century, a dusty provincial city that hardly played any economic, social, or political role in the region. Jerusalem is mentioned hundreds of times in the Bible and has been the center of Jewish identity and faith ever since David wrestled it from the Jebusites three thousand years ago. Not once is Jerusalem mentioned in the Koran.

As to "East Jerusalem," there is East Chicago, East Hampton, and there used to be East Berlin, but, until the Arab propaganda machine created the concept, there was never an East Jerusalem, let alone "Arab East Jerusalem." The eastern part of Jerusalem, which is now predominately Arab, became so because the Jordanians, who occupied this part of the city for nineteen years, destroyed all traces of Jewish presence and drove all the Jewish residents out.

ISLAMIC HOLY SITES

There are none in Jerusalem. You will ask, "what about the Al Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock? Aren't they the reason Jerusalem represents Islam's third most holy city?" The plain fact is that the Koran says nothing about Jerusalem. It mentions Mecca and Medina hundreds of times, but not once does it mention Jerusalem. And as for Muhammad's mystical visit to the city, there is no historical evidence to suggest that Mohammad ever visited Jerusalem.

So how did Jerusalem become the third holiest site of Islam? Muslims today cite a vague passage in the Koran, the seventeenth Sura, entitled "The Night Journey." It relates that in a dream or a vision Mohammed was carried by night "from the sacred temple to the temple that is most remote, whose precinct we have blessed, that we might show him our signs..." In the seventh century, Muslim mystics identified the two temples mentioned in this verse as being in Mecca and Jerusalem, and started the legend. This "evidence" is as close as Islam's connection with Jerusalem gets; myth, fantasy, and deception.

All Islamic claims to "holy sites" are based, therefore, on the unfounded claim of Muhammad, a demonized lunatic who opened the spring of this satanic deception. Most, if not all, Islamic mosques and religious places in the entire land of Israel are built on top of the ruins of Jewish synagogues, just as the Dome of the Rock was strategically erected where the Temple was. This is normal Islamic pattern whereby they raise their holy sites on top of the conquered people's ruined temples to display their spiritual superiority and valor.

THE ISLAMIC FAITH

I will not deal here with the origin and history of the Islamic religion. Its demonic conception and wicked precepts can be easily researched as well as Muhammad's insanity and perversity. However, for our purpose here I will shortly bring out the deep-seated hatred and vindictiveness of this religion toward the Jewish nation, as this is the force that is behind the military and political dilemma in the Middle East.

A basic premise of Islam is that it is the religion which Allah, the great God, has raised up to replace both Judaism and Christianity. Both religions, the Koran teaches, failed Allah, and he therefore raised the Arab race to replace these inferior groups and to bring the world into submission, which is the meaning of the word Islam. It is impossible to be a good Muslim and make peace with Israel. This is the main problem in the Middle East.

The Koran (Sura 9:19) says that there are three things that attract more rewards than all others: belief in Allah, belief in the Last Day, and Jihad, holy war. It is recorded in Hadith, the book covering Muhammad's precepts, actions, and life, which is second in authority only to the Koran, that "the last hour will not come before the Muslims fight the Jews and the Muslims kill them." It goes on to say that Jihad (holy war) is "the best method of earning (blessings) both spiritual and temporal. If victory is won, there is enormous booty... If there is defeat or death, there is everlasting paradise." The least one in the Muslim "paradise" is promised eighty thousand servants and seventy-two virgins for perpetual sexual pleasure.

Martyrdom is a great way out from the hopeless existence of many Palestinian, so they are told. The Palestinian leadership encourages the youth and children to be in the front of the clashes and, we were told, pays the families $300 for a child that is wounded, and $2,000 if they die. We need to pray with wisdom and compassion, and especially for the Arab youth as daily propaganda from Palestinian television and radio broadcasts feeds them statements like that of the late Ayatollah Khomeini of Iran who said, "The purest joy in Islam is to kill and be killed for Allah," accompanied with images of street fighting, burning tires, and angry mobs.

Islam is a militant bloodthirsty religion, and the end of Islam will be destruction, probably through the humiliation of a crushing military defeat. As some say, only then will the demonic hold be broken off the Arab masses, and the harvest will come in earnest.

THE ISLAMIC LEADERSHIP

Yasser Arafat was a terrorist, is a terrorist, and probably will always be one. His career is long and bloody, so bloody in fact, that he was driven out of Arab countries and placed on their wanted lists. He committed his first murder at age 20, masterminded the biggest hijacking (four aircraft at once), the largest number of hostages (3,000 at one time), the largest ransom extorted ($5 million from Lufthansa) and the greatest number and variety of targets (40 civilian aircraft, five passenger ships, and 30 embassies, diplomatic missions, and schools). He has never apologized or condemned any of these actions.

It would not be far from the truth to say that Israel made Arafat. Desperately needing a negotiating partner for the envisioned peace process, which so many Israelis longed for, Israeli diplomatic efforts actually raised Arafat from a lowly place, being an aging terrorist who was on the run for years, to a position of statesman and head of a national movement. Sadly, he wasn't able to make the transition and remained a terrorist whose word is as deceptive as his motives, and who resorts to violence as soon as he does not get his way.

The events that are taking place now in the Middle East are not spontaneous outbursts of anger. These events of violence and deadly anger are the fruit of evil seeds planted by Arafat and his thugs for years in the hearts of the suffering population, and the suffering was not exclusively Israel's responsibility. Much of it was a result of a selfish dictatorial leadership that used great sums of money for their own Swiss Bank accounts and palaces in the capitals of the world. Arafat reportedly has palatial homes in Amman, Bethlehem, Gaza, Jericho, and Paris.

In fact, some of the havoc in the Palestinian street is directly due to the fact that many do not trust nor like Arafat. His leadership was forced upon the Palestinian population through "mafia style" democratic procedures, and is maintained by sheer terror. His administration is grossly inflated, and too much of the funds that arrive at its treasury from international and Israeli sources vanish into private pockets.

Yasser Arafat has totally failed to inform his people that a final peace accord with Israel, if one is still possible, will not satisfy all Palestinian aspirations. Israeli leaders, on the other hand, have consistently made clear that the road to a permanent peace is inevitably paved with "painful concessions," such as abandoning control over much of Israel's biblical heartland. Despite intense protest from many, the Israeli leadership has gone far in implementing those difficult concessions when the new uprising exploded.

The news programs in Arafat's official Palestinian television broadcasts are still filled with mild to severe anti-Israel sentiment. Even more interesting, though, are the fillers that are frequently shown between regular programs. They feature graphic scenes of the original Palestinian uprising and the tunnel riots of 1996. Mournful female singers extol the virtues of the "jihad martyrs and heroes" who are seen hurling stones and firebombs at armed Israeli soldiers. Thus, it takes very little to get contemporary fighters out into the streets when it suits Arafat's whim. And, with Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak refusing to sign over the Temple Mount, it seems Arafat felt it was necessary to unleash his shock troops once again.

OUR PRESENT SITUATION

The "cease fire" agreement reached at the recent summit in the Sinai Peninsula is under daily assault itself. The land continues to be plagued with Palestinian violence, daily clashes, and civilian casualties. I will not burden you with the depressing details. Even though Arafat has now agreed to take "concrete steps" to halt the violence --however reluctantly-- it may be too late. With over 100 Arab funerals and several thousand wounded, Arafat's youthful warriors seem eager for vengeance.

The apex of the release of the spirit of perversion and murder came when two Israeli soldiers wandered into Palestinian controlled Ramallah by mistake, were taken in by the Palestinian Police force to their headquarters, beaten to death and mutilated on live TV with pictures of the murderers' blood covered hands waving in gleeful victory. During this mob "lynching" which was documented by foreign TV coverage, the wife of one of the murdered men called on his cell phone, only to hear the violent screams in the background and an Arab voice announcing to her, "we are murdering your husband!"

The Israeli military response was "conservative" at best, as "surgical" air to ground missiles were fired upon Palestinian Authority military and official targets, and that only after first warning the residents to evacuate the sites. Not one Palestinian was reported killed or wounded in these attacks.

As in previous days, the young jihad warriors continue to make their way outside of their cities and towns to attack Israeli positions located in relatively remote locations (IDF troops evacuated most parts of the Gaza strip in 1994, and most towns in the Judean and Samarian hills in 1995). The story is replayed in Ramallah, where daily clashes take place on the southern outskirts of town. That's the only place one can find Israeli soldiers since the city itself is under full Palestinian control.

Such is also the case in Bethlehem. No "Israeli occupation forces" patrol in the biblical town. Demonstrators must hike up to the northern outskirts of Bethlehem to find any IDF soldiers. And so they do, armed with fresh supply of children and youth leading the parades, and, of course, the TV crews. The only town where IDF soldiers are stationed is a small part of Hebron with its small Jewish enclave, which is there since this location is very precious to the Jewish people and is second only to the Temple Mount.

It will be wonderful should the land calm down, the spirits cool off together with the early winter rains we are presently receiving, and sane negotiations resume. However, it is likely to go the other way. How much time before the inevitable, no one knows. Meanwhile, however, our eyes are upon the Lord who always brings in His harvest during times of distress. And the harvest is plentiful around us.

As you pray, don't become lost in the Middle East "black hole." Our drama will go on for a while longer, and meanwhile God is busy on other fronts as well. Remember to watch and pray for the upcoming American elections as they are extremely important and will determine the entire direction this great nation will take in the coming generation. And pray for the workers in the Muslim world as their "work environment" is intensifying daily with the demons of Islam smelling blood. And, above all, pray for your own soul and family, as the coming days will test all of us, and we must take a clear and decisive stand in the spirit.

12-25-1999 PERSEVERANCE IN TIMES OF PERSECUTION

We Must Be In This For the Long Haul.

God never promised that our walk with Him would be easy. All who dare to live Godly shall suffer persecution. Persecution is being treated badly for doing good. It is a wise person who will advance in adversity. The testing of our faith is very precious, because faith that has not been tested is not faith at all. We must learn how to let our problems drive us closer to Jesus. As we learn how to respond in the correct manner great advancement can be accomplished. Paul warns us in 2 Timothy 3:12: "Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution."

The Word of God gives us very clear instructions on how to respond to persecution. Jesus said in John 16:33:

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

The secret of abiding in peace is to abide in Christ. "He is the Prince of Peace!"

It is most difficult to rejoice and be of good cheer when you are going through hard times. However, the key word is through. We are going to overcome, because Jesus has overcome. In Christ Jesus we are more than conquerors. Never forget, "Greater is HE who is in you, than all the evil power loose in the world" (1John 4:4).

The Cause of Christian Casualties Is...

It is sad to see so many fall by the wayside in their Christian walk. What could be the cause of such casualties?

...A Mis-representation of The Gospel

One of the answers could be the true gospel has been mis-represented. Christ Jesus did not promise to save us from our troubles, but He did promise to forgive us our sins.

...And By The Cares of This World

Many stop because of the pressures of this world. Jesus gives us a life lesson using seed and soil - Notice what Jesus teaches in Mark 4:15-19:

And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are they, which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

HE IS AUTHOR AND FINISHER

We need to understand much more about the wonderful grip of God's grace that will not let us go when times get difficult. One of the greatest promises in the scriptures is the promise that Jesus Christ finishes what He starts. Notice Paul's words of encouragement in Philippians 1:6: "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. . ." It is important to heed the name given Christ Jesus in Hebrews 12:2:

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The word used here for "author" is the Greek word archegos which means:

[1] The chief leader, prince; used of Christ

[2] One that takes the lead in anything and thus affords an example, a predecessor in a matter, a pioneer.

[3] The author

However, it is very important to know that Jesus is not only the "author," the one who starts, but He is also the "finisher." The Greek word is the word teleiotes - which speaks of completer or consummator, One who brings the matter to a complete close.

Live In Order To Hear These Words - "Well Done Thou Good and Faithful Servant."

Each of us should so conduct our lives that when we finish our race and cross the finish line we can stand before the Lord and hear HIM say these words, recorded in Matthew 25:23, to us: "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

The test of a true workman is that he finishes what he starts. Paul stated in 2 Timothy 4:7: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course..."

GOD - GIVE US SPIRITUAL BRIDGE BUILDERS

The Brooklyn Bridge, which links Brooklyn to Manhattan Island, is one of the most legendary bridges in the world. At the time it was first envisioned in 1883 however, bridge building experts throughout the world told the designer, an enterprising engineer by the name of John Roebling, that his idea would not work. Many scoffed and mocked at such an unconventional concept.

Roebling convinced his son Washington, who was also an engineer, that his idea had merit. The two of them developed the concept, resolved the problems others had fore-cast, and enthusiastically engaged a crew to build their bridge.

After only a few months of building, a devastating onsite accident took John's life and severely injured Washington, who became unable to talk or walk. Everyone speculated the project would have to be abandoned, since the Roeblings were the only ones who knew the dynamics of building such a bridge.

Washington, however, could still think and he had a burning desire to see the bridge finished. As he lay in his hospital bed, he had an inspiration. He would communicate with the engineers by using one finger to tap out in code on his wife's arm what he wanted her to tell them.

Washington tapped out his instructions for 13 years until the bridge was built. What an incredible lesson in steadfastness. One cannot begin to imagine the patience and fortitude it would take to communicate in such a restrictive manner. Yet, because of their teamwork and resolve, millions upon millions have traveled across this famous bridge with most never aware of the price paid to accomplish the task of linking people together.

THE NEED TO LEARN TO COMMUNICATE

Never has there been such an open attack against the Church in this arena of communication. Therefore, notice that Washington and his wife worked together in order for his vision and dream to become a reality. The Church of Jesus Christ must learn to work together because none of us can accomplish the task before us alone. We desperately need each other.

This type of leadership is needed in the Body of Christ. Leaders are not only to be self-starters, they are to be finishers. We must have a vision of finishing in order to have real perseverance. This is a time to finish, not faint. May God grant to each of us the grace to put our hands upon the plow and not look back but ever go forth with grace and determination, diligence and endurance in order to establish the Kingdom of God. God grant us grace to echo these words of Paul I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course I have kept the faith.

Keep Going!

Lorraine Robichau

What we see as failure and what God sees are two different things. Let me explain.

A few years ago I was going through an incredibly difficult situation. But the Lord had given me a promise of deliverance. I managed to walk in it fairly well but every so often I became very discouraged and doubtful. I kept having to force myself to keep going till I came to the place of faith again. It was always a struggle to get back there though.

During a time when I was struggling the worst, when I felt that all my faith was gone and I was overwhelmed with the problem, the Lord came to me in a vision.

I was sitting by myself feeling sorry for myself when all of the sudden the Presence of the Lord came into the room and I had a vision that lasted a long time...I saw the heavens open up and what looked like a large football stadium and all the angels of heaven were there and they were cheering and clapping. And I looked and there was the Lord God "high and lifted up" and HE was cheering and clapping. I said "Lord, what is this?" He replied "we are cheering you on". And I could hear them saying "keep going, don't stop now" It was awesome.

I watched this for awhile and then I began to weep I said "Lord, you must be so disappointed in my lack of faith". He replied "Not at all. Your faith has been that you kept going." Then His joy swept over me, and I realized that what I had seen as failure on my part, He saw as faith.

I saw that being an overcomer was not a life of constant victory and never stumbling and falling, but that it was a life of falling, getting up and going on, falling again and getting up again. Like Paul said "pressing on toward the mark of the high calling of Christ" Not NEVER falling, but always pressing on DESPITE the falling and the circumstances and the pain.

So my friend, remember that even if you feel like you have failed BIG TIME, the Lord and all His host are cheering you on "Keep going! Don't stop now!"

Blessings

Keepers Of The High Places

Judith Grobelny

(A global call) In a series of visions I have seen people emerging from the clouds that cover this earth, I have seen them running across the clouds, moving into the jet stream of God's purposes. I have heard the drumbeat calling us into His purpose now as His end-time army. Now, something further is beginning to emerge.

Last night as read what the Lord had shown to one of His prophets, I saw men and women of God, clothed in white garments, walking on the high places and STANDING there. Each one walked slowly and steadfastly, and each was totally equipped to STAND because they were clothed in white garments purchased to clothe their spiritual nakedness, they had been willing to approach the fire and receive what the Lord has promised to those who will do so. They had walked into the white-hot heart of the furnace, into the heart of God, where all that is not of Him had been consumed. They were quiet, unassuming, and totally unafraid! I saw a new breed such as has not been seen on the earth before - those covered now with the Lord's authority and righteousness - who will be a significant threat to the enemy and his plans.

These people are now walking towards their positions, they know who they are in the Lord and the authority He has placed upon their lives, even as I saw it He was telling me that they are the "Keepers of the High Places".

As prayer and intercession matures now it is undergoing massive change and those who hold to the old ways will miss this new authority which is not coming forth with many words or clever ways - these are the ones who have 'become prayer' and walk clothed in the garments of Christ, with His Spirit and His Character within them. Their very presence will be terrifying to the enemy.

Why now I asked the Lord.

This morning I read in the prayer prayed in synagogues on the Sabbath Eve from the Song of Songs and it reads: I adjure you, O nations who are destined to ascend to Jerusalem, when you see my Beloved on the future Day of Judgement, won't you tell Him that I bore all travails for love of Him?

In the NIV 5:8 Song of Songs reads: O daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you - if you find my lover, what will you tell him? Tell Him I am faint with love.

In this great call that is now going out across the nations of the earth, as men and women are being called to something no longer local but GLOBAL, and are coming to STAND on the high places, could it be that the Lord is speaking to us of our true function, to stand as the engrafted branches, and put the Lover of our Souls, in remembrance of the one He has pursued with such great love that she faints with need of Him now, and has borne her travails for love of Him. There would be no better time than now to proclaim it from the high places, and to STAND with our faces towards the Lord our God, holding firm to HIS revelation and HIS promises.

Key Issues for 2000

Chuck D. Pierce

Unlocking Covenant Treasures and Aligning for Transformation:

This is the year 5760 on the Jewish calendar. What does that mean? A good interpretation would be, "May this be the year of revealing hidden treasures, remedies, healing powers, or virtue needed to attain desire." Consequently, this will be a year of manifestation, transfer of wealth, and release of miracles. This also means that we must ask the Lord to cause His desires to become our desires or we will find ourselves attempting to satisfy desires that are not the best for our lives. Desire is a function of our emotions. How do we move forward in the Harvest? Joshua and God's covenant people had to gain daily strategy over how to advance and "possess" God's inheritance that had been promised to Abraham. In other words, if they were going up against their next obstacle, whether it be a city, people or whatever, they had to get their instructions from the Lord on how to advance and what to do with the spoils of war. These examples became types and shadows for us and produce principles of harvest that we should embrace today. Within every field on earth, there is a harvest. When you study harvest in the Bible, you find that there was a short window of opportunity to gather the crops of the field. I believe we are entering into that window of opportunity and must begin to pray accordingly.

There is an incredible principle throughout the Word concerning boundaries, dominion, and authority. When the Lord placed Adam and Eve in the garden, He told them to "tend" or "watch after" the garden boundaries. They did not do well in this assignment. Finally, we see the Lord finding a person ?? a man named Abraham. Abraham had been called out of Ur, a Chaldean city whose predominant worship was of the Queen of Heaven, to follow a Holy God into boundaries of liberty and prosperity. When Abraham responded to God's call to leave the form of worship he was practicing and follow Him, the Lord cut covenant with Abraham in Genesis 15. In this covenant, He established the boundaries of Abraham's inheritance. Therefore, this established a precedent. God has an inheritance for us. However, our inheritance or portion has physical boundaries determined with its allotment. In the New Testament we find the same example of boundaries. In 2 Corinthians 10, Paul is discussing spiritual warfare. He then begins to declare the reality of his apostolic authority and the limit of its territorial boundaries. Verse 13 says, "We however, will not boast beyond measure, but within the limits of the sphere that God appointed us ? a sphere that especially includes you." I like what the New International Version says: "We will confine our boasting to the field God has assigned to us." Therefore, going into the next millennium, it is important that each one of us know the boundaries and assignments that the Spirit of God has for us. Once these are established we can UNLOCK the inheritance within those boundaries. I see this year as a year of Unlocking! A key in our unlocking process is to understand timing. We are not just entering into this new season. Most of you who have followed my newsletter already know that I believe we entered into this season in October 1996. However, each new season has a transition time. The word transition means "crossing over." Therefore, I believe October 1996 started our new "chronos" season, and we are being disciplined and established in this new time frame. But now we are entering a shift that causes us to begin to look for key "kairos" times that will start breaking forth. "Kairos" means a set opportune time for spiritual breakthrough. This phrase also means a key time to unlock what has been held behind closed doors. Therefore, pray that your emotions are made whole. How do we enter into this season and what are some key issues for us to understand NOW?

This will be a year of re alignment and order. On December 30, 1999, the Spirit of God awakened me by saying: "This will be a year of realignment. I have been gathering my army. Now I will align and realign them for victory. I will create a new order. From this order many territories will be liberated." I immediately looked up the word realign. This word means to bring into a straight line or to rearrange so an agreement and close cooperation occur, or an arrangement of events that produces a proper ground plan. Realignment is linked with timing and place. "Order" is also an interesting word. Order is a mathematical and a military term. Order is also used in the defining of the law of arrangement. This law says that there is a sequence of events arranged or aligned in a definite plan and time that causes the proper functioning of a system, resulting in victory. Order is also linked with authority. When an authority gives a decree, order is produced, events are aligned, and victory occurs. I believe another key buzzword to understand in this new season is "transform." Transform means to change the condition or nature of something, particularly producing a change in outward appearance. There is one necessary condition to accomplish the heart of the Lord with this realignment, order, and transformation in each of our lives: hold on very loosely where you are because supernatural shifts are occurring. Review your line of authority and influence. Many who have felt displaced or out of place will find themselves connecting with leadership. Other leaders will find many connected with them that have not been their predominate associations of the past. The Lord is in the process of releasing new assignments to leadership. The earth is the Lord's and all of its fullness. Therefore the Lord is aligning and connecting the gifts of His Body in such a way that a new maturity will be displayed in His Kingdom and permeated to the world. This alignment will loose wisdom in the earth. Wisdom dismantles demons and releases harvest. Be careful not to resist this adjustment. When you think of order and alignment, one key verse is I Cor. 12:28. We are all members of the Body, but the Lord gives special abilities or gifts to maintain His headship on earth. We see God's order in this verse: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, and after that, gifts of miracles and healings...

There will be a release of God' power and demonstration. The order described above is not hierarchical, but a functioning order of gifting resulting in power evangelism. Have you ever noticed the instances in the Bible where one healing, one miracle, or one deliverance caused an entire region to be liberated? The Gospel spread rapidly after Aeneas was healed. He had been bedridden for eight years, and Peter decreed: "Jesus Christ heals you!" He immediately arose, and all of Lydia and Sharon then turned to the Lord (Acts 9:32-35). This will be a year in which apostolic order produces miracles, healings, and transformation.

The spirit of fear will be addressed in the Church. We must be a bold people. Even though there is a growing awareness of evil abounding around us, we must be bold. Daniel is a good example. He prayed three times a day and even went to the pit (with lions) for praying. However, he kept praying and ended up ruling in the midst of his enemies. Fear is an emotion and it is a spirit ?? a demon force (11 Tim. 1:7). When we agree with this spirit and allow it to embed in our emotions, we grow confused and unstable. Fear agrees with a spirit of poverty. The voice of fear says, "There is a lion on my path, I must hide out." This stops us from advancing. Poverty says, "God is not able to deal with what is ahead on my path." The Body has been bogged in this over the last two years? Even though plots of terrorism, financial instability, increasing legalities, and government oppression lay ahead of us, we can advance with confidence!

There will be a transference of wealth. When you study Canaanite history, you find that the ruling god of the Canaanites was mammon. You also find the Lord looking for a corporate people that could go into the covenant boundaries established with Abraham and unlock all the inheritance within those boundaries. The assignment or mission that Joshua and the tribes of Israel had to accomplish was a transference of the wealth from all the inhabitants of Canaan into God's covenant, Kingdom plan. Finally, 470 years after the Lord spoke to Abraham and promised him total victory within territorial boundaries, the god of mammon was defeated and the wealth held by its false worship transferred.

What is the wealth? There are several ways to look at wealth in the Bible. However, the Lord tells us in Deuteronomy 8:18, "... it is He who gives you power to get wealth that He may establish His covenant that He swore to your fathers ...". Power means vigor, strength, force, or capacity ?? whether physical, mental or spiritual. Wealth means material substance, strength, and the spoils of war necessary to accomplish God's plan on earth. The Bible has two basic attitudes towards wealth. Know that wealth is acknowledged to be a blessing from God. All the patriarchs became very wealthy. Solomon's wealth was seen as God's favor. Job had wealth, lost it, and then regained a double portion. Jesus also admonished us to multiply whatever we have (Luke 19). However, He did warn us that the pursuit of riches and pleasure could keep our faith from maturing. Jesus viewed money or wealth as a spiritual power (Matt. 6:24), therefore warning us not to let it become a rival with God. The issue of wealth should be only for the advancement of God's Kingdom. With one of the greatest spiritual Harvests ever witnessed by a generation on earth approaching, we need to begin seeing a transfer of wealth similar to what we read about in the book of Joshua. This is a season in history when wealth needs to be channeled into ministries that serve people and spread the Gospel.

There will be an increase in God's manifest glory that will produce harvest. The Third Day Church is arising. John 2 is a record of when the Lord first began to display His ministry and miracles on earth. He did this to manifest His glory and propel His Kingdom forward. We are at a shifting, changing season where this is going to happen again! Be ready! Be expectant! Be filled with joy! Transformation of society is on the way!

Kingdom Gospel

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

Back in 1978, after returning to the Land for the third time in two years, while living in Jerusalem, I woke up one morning, at about 4:30 a.m., and the following words were ringing through my mind:

“The Kingdom of God is at hand,
Calling out a people in (or to) His land,
Walking in the way of the life of the Truth,
Being the ripeness of first fruit.”

I wrote these words down, but later that morning, as I was pondering their significance, more lines were birthed.

“Yes, I’m calling out a people for My Name sake,
Calling them to pray, calling them to praise,
Calling them to walk in My Ways, in My ways”...
For the Kingdom of God is at hand etc.

“Yes, I’m calling out people who will stand by my side;
Will not compromise; will not fall aside,
A people who will stand and will know, and will know”... that the Kingdom of God is at hand etc.

“Yes, I’m calling out a people who will stand and say ‘no’
To the devil and all G-d’s foes, to the pride that Satan chose, a people who stay and will not go, will not go”...
For the Kingdom of God is at hand etc.

“Yes, I’m calling out a people for My Name sake,
Returning this earth, giving new birth;
Restoring the Kingdom of God to this world”...
for the Kingdom of God is at hand etc.

Certainly the “kingdom of this world” was well represented here in the Middle East just recently, with the visits of the main chieftain of politics and the other who holds one of its “priestly” scepters. Following their respective visits, the spiritual atmosphere here has taken a turn around the corner of prophetic history. I feel that lines have been drawn in the “heavenlies”, so to speak. Seriousness has descended upon those who are seeking first His Kingdom and His righteousness. Prayer and praise stations have already been established and are functioning in various parts of the country. No doubt, now their activities have been intensified. Believers are seeking for the truth that sets free. The call to come out of the Babylonian religious system and to be hidden bondservants in the true Body of Messiah (a restored nation), is resounding in hearts. We personally feel that now is the time, as it was for Esther, to go before the throne and touch the scepter of His Kingdom-authority, and to be about our Father’s business like never before, each according to the call that is upon his or her life. We appreciate the encouragement and prayers that some of you have sent our way. Thank-you!

I’m no poet, nor do I have that gifting or aspiration, but I would like to share with you a few more lines from my yester-years. .

Listen to the Gospel of the Kingdom of our L-rd.
It rings with salvation and life forevermore.
It tells of all His wonders, His gracious staff and rod,
But most of all it tells us of the precious Son of God.

In Bethlehem Judea, one cold and lonely night,
The Word of G-d came down to us and dwelt with us as light.
We beheld His grace and glory as of the only Son of G-d.
And He carried us out to victory on the cross of Golgotha.

He died upon the cross for me on that dark gloomy day.
He suffered, bled, and agonized; for the sins of all He paid,
But the Father raised His faithful Son to give us lasting life,
And now we have our victory by the Way of Jesus Christ.

Now is the time to preach and teach the Gospel of Elohim and the restoration of His Kingdom to Israel from the Torah and the Prophets. If the Gospel is not taught from the Torah and the Prophets it will be “another gospel”, or at best a distorted or an incomplete one. The issue of “another gospel” is dealt with very harshly by Shaul when reprimanding the believers in Corinth for tolerating he "who comes preaching another Yeshua whom we have not preached... or receive a different spirit...or a different gospel..." ( 2 Cor. 11:4).

In the Brit Hadasha (New Testament), Yochanan, Yeshua and the apostles preached the Gospel of the Kingdom (see Matt. 4:23; Mark 1:14, Acts 20:25); the Gospel of the grace of Elohim (Acts 20:24). But integral part of the Gospel of the Kingdom, are: the "Gospel of Elohim" (Rom.1:1); the "Gospel of His Son" Rom. (1:9); the "Gospel of Messiah" (Rom 1:16); the "Gospel of peace"(Rom.10:15); the "Gospel of the glory of Messiah" (2 Cor. 4:4); the "Gospel of your salvation" (Eph. 1:13); the "Gospel of Yeshua the Messiah" (2 Thes. 1:8). This is the “Gospel” "which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the Scriptures (Torah and the Prophets) (Rom. 1:1-2). Yeshua, Yochanan and the apostles all came to proclaim and to do the work of Elohim. They brought life and the release of the spirit of His word from the Torah and the Prophets to His people, those who were chosen by Him before the foundation of the world for His namesake, out of all nations. We are those very inheritors, thus the scriptures exhort us to “be steadfast and immovable, my beloved brothers, always abounding in the work OF the Elohim” (1Cor.15:58).

The central issue of the entire ministry of our Messiah was to restore the Kingdom of God to the house of Yacov. Why? Because, “the creation still groans, waiting for the revealing of the sons of Elohim” (Rom. 8:19). The prophet Hosea tells us who those sons are. YHVH addresses the House of Israel as “Lo-ammi” “not My people” (Hos. 1:9). Then in the very next verse, He turns around and declares one of the greatest and most awesome of His mysteries: "Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered. And it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, `You are not My people,' There it shall be said to them, `You are sons of the living God.'" (Hos.1: 10).

Shabbat Shalom,
Shevet Achim

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity" (Psa.133).

Kimberley

Bertus Oelofse

Reposted from Africa Prophecy: Alison Papenfus

Bertus Oelofse has send this word for Kimberley, a city in the Northern Cape, South Africa (yes, it has a Big Hole which used to be a diamond mine)

I see a light shining brightly in the dessert!

I believe the Lord is going to do a wonderful work in Kimberley. I see Him working through available leaders and opening the door for them to take the hands of fellow brothers and sisters in Christ(churches) to PRAYER walk certain areas in Kimberley and even around the city, in UNITY. I see the churches coming together initially in small numbers to PRAY for their city, then I see saints filling a stadium to PRAY and PRAISE. The word fasting also comes to mind.

I see principalities and powers, strongholds come tumbling down, falling from the sky, being dethroned as people pray. The battle is the Lord's and He overcame on Calvary. I see a free mason spirit, a spirit of divination and a rebellious spirit fall -> IN THE DUST, producing for a moment a cloud of dust. Saint's just close your physical eyes for a moment till the dust settles, but keep your spiritual eyes(by faith) on the One you worship, with all your heart. I see fire falling on Kimberley and a mighty wave of Grace(Rom. 5:20) break over it(waters of life), surf the wave, walk on the water! I see God pouring out His Spirit(joy and jubilation) all over Kimberley. Out of the dust, out of nothing("Is anything impossible for Me"), God will take men, women, children, also old folk and make them precious DIAMONDS in His Kingdom. He will fill them with light(His Spirit and His word) and Kimberley will shine. None of these DIAMONDS are big or huge, in fact they are very small diamonds, but they are of the best quality and awesome in beauty and reflect all 7 colours of the rainbow. Many of them were taken off the streets and minedumps. Many of them were rejected by society as their Saviour was. God, Himself, will polish these diamonds and raise them up and send them. I see the Lord sowing many of these precious diamonds(they go forth lifting the Name of Jesus high), to be a blessing to other cities and I see their light infiltrating these cities and countries and lighting them up. These diamonds will leave Kimberley as free gifts to Africa and the world(the cost was paid by Christ on the cross). I also see many people coming to visit Kimberley.

I see many saints in Kimberley honouring the Lord with their finances and I see the Lord blessing them with much finances. I hear the Lord say that natural diamonds are not the only source or treasure He has blessed Kimberley with, there are other hidden treasures which He will in due time reveal to His people and bless them with. In the dessert, He will bring prosperity. He will restore the years the locusts have eaten away and bless the saints with their inheritance. One of the keys the saints have is to honour Him with their finances (tithes and offerings), no amount is to small, be faithfull in the small things. Give into His Kingdom.

I see the Lord binding the serpent (thief, destroyer) and cast him into the pit (hole), removing the curses he placed on the town, through men AS GOD'S PEOPLE PRAY The Lord says demonstrate His love, by standing in the gap and repenting for others sin. I hear Jesus say: "Forgive them Father they know not what they have done"-> join Him! He wants to bless Kimberley(the cast out one->Isa.54:1-5) so much and have her occupy the place He predestined for her.

Kingdom Authority

Teresa Daly-Crews

Thy Kingdom Come, on earth as it is in heaven

[Mat 6:7] But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

[Mat 6:8] Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

[Mat 6:9] After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

[Mat 6:10] Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

[Mat 6:11] Give us this day our daily bread.

[Mat 6:12] And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

[Mat 6:13] And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

[Mat 6:14] For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

[Mat 6:15] But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. We utter this prayer time and time again throughout our life. But do we really understand the words that we speak. Have they become vain repetition with the Lord no longer hears or do we speak them in reverence and fear of the Lord. Are we pursuing holiness to become more like Jesus? Or are we merely repeating words taught to us as children. This prayer is prayed more than any other prayer in the Body of Christ. It is time for us to live what we pray. But to do this successfully we must have a proper understanding of what it means to be part of a kingdom.

I was in prayer and the Lord spoke to my heart and whispered, "My people err because they do not understand the principals and concepts behind what it means to live in a kingdom. It has caused great deception and blindness upon the Body and has made it difficult to enter in to My presence. Those who live in the United States are in the most bondage because of the personal freedoms and liberties they possess." As I meditated upon this statement the more I realized the depth and width of its impact.

In the United States we are born into freedom. So many other countries have a clearer understanding of what it is like to be under a dictatorship or sovereign rule. While it is true that our nation was founded upon religious principals, it does not mean every facet of our government is Godly. The freedom given in the areas of personal choice and freedom have actually hindered the ability to fulfill our commandment to live in the Kingdom of God. We are so used to having the "right" to voice our opinion and debate topics we have become blinded to the spiritual forces that control our lives. As we begin to look at every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the Lord we can see how our freedoms in democracy can inhibit our ability to worship and serve our Almighty Creator.

First lets get an understanding of what a democracy is verses a kingdom. In a democracy the Websters 1828 defines it as:

DEMOCRACY, n. [Gr. People, and to possess, to govern.] Government by the people; a form of government, in which the supreme power is lodged in the hands of the people collectively, or in which the people exercise the powers of legislation. Such was the government of Athens.

In a democracy the people set the government. It is a form of government that the people create and control. The supreme or ultimate power lies in the hands of the collective people. Personal opinion and the freedom to debate over such an opinion is a natural way of life. If anyone interferes with personal freedom or violates rights set by law we are quick to us the legal system to debate our cause. While these freedoms allow each person to choose their life style and religion they do a disservice by not teaching Kingdom mentality.

When we apply the principals of democracy to church structure it actually brings division and strife. Instead of sovereign authority being given to the Spirit of God it lies in the hands of men. The bible sets up a specific line of Kingdom biblical authority that contains cross checks and balances. Kingdom authority is very different from the standard norm used today in our churches and society. Generally when we are given the right to debate for personal desires it brings numerous unbiblical manifestations. Included among them are pride, contention, strife, variance, and envy. Every one of these is described in the Word as works of the flesh and is contrary to the Spirit. One of the most damaging is debate, as all manner of evil comes from this demonic root. This is why the Word forbids it use. We will discuss later just how wicked and destructive these are. First lets look at just what is required in Kingdom living.

A kingdom is set up very different from a democracy. When Jesus gave the teachings of the Kingdom of God to the disciples they were well aware of what it meant to be governed by a King. It was normal for their lives to be ruled by a single individual. The king was the final authority in all matters concerning situations and laws set down for the land. If you lived under the rule of the King, you did not have a choice of what you wanted to do, by his rule you had to obey. Disobedience meant imprisonment or even death. In our society today we do not have this form of government to show us how important it is to abide by the rule of the King. In Jesus' time there was no confusion over what was commanded. They knew when Jesus spoke about the Kingdom it meant they would not be in control. Without us having a clear understanding of Kingdom rules we have lost the example of the importance of respect and fear of the King. This is why so many of our churches are bound in the spirit, they are not set up by the Kings hand. For freedom to reign within our Body, we must submit to the guidance and rule of our Sovereign King, Jesus.

In a kingdom all authority pertaining to decisions is given to the King. He has sovereign control concerning those who are established under him. This means those who belong to the kingdom do not possess individual rights. The King lays laws for those who live there and unless their petition is granted they have no authority unless the King gives it.

Throughout history the position of a king has been abused. Because of this many societies were established where the common people came together in unity and established their own government. While this freedom has been beneficial to countries like our own, it is unacceptable in the kingdom of God. We are commanded to have full trust and faith in our Lords leading.

Now lets look at the definition of a kingdom:

KING'DOM, n. [king and dom, jurisdiction.]

1. The territory or country subject to a king; an undivided territory under the dominion of a king or monarch.
2. The inhabitants or population subject to a king.
5. In Scripture, the government or universal dominion of God. 1 Chron.29. Ps.145.
6. The power of supreme administration. 1 Sam.18.
7. A princely nation or state. Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests. Ex.19.
8. Heaven. Matt.26.
9. State of glory in heaven. Matt.5.
10. The reign of the Messiah. Matt.3.
11. Government; rule; supreme administration.

You can see included in definition number seven is the statement based upon exodus 19. When we look at the lives of the Children of Israel we are given biblical examples to live by. In this example we are given the reason we were created, to be a kingdom of priests. Looking back at this passage we see that after great persecution and bondage the children of Israel were lead out of Egypt by Moses. The Lord had just finished manifesting mighty signs and wonders through Moses, but that was not enough to have them respect who was placed in authority.

They were not being lead out of bondage for their own desires but instead God had called them out so that they could worship him in the wilderness. He desired an intimate relationship with the children of Israel and began to give Moses instruction on what the people needed to do to draw near unto Him. The Lord no longer wanted them to be ruled by the kings of this world but He wanted to be their God directing all their steps. They were not to set their own dictates or to be lead of man but instead He desired them to look to Him for their every need. The Lord desires the same for us today.

Now lets look at what the Lord told Moses when he ascended the mountain of God.

Exo 19:3 And Moses went up unto God, and the Lord called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

Exo 19:4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto MYSELF.

Exo 19:5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure UNTO ME above all people: for all the earth is mine:

Exo 19:6 And ye shall be UNTO ME a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

The Lord brought the children of Israel into the wilderness to learn of Him and obey His voice. He wanted an obedient people who would reverence Him in holy fear. He desired them to become a kingdom of priests, holy and blameless who would worship Him in the Beauty of Holiness. This same desire abides within the Father today. His desire to have intimate fellowship began long before the creation of Adam, male and female. He longed for a creation that would worship Him in Spirit and in Truth, not a creation who would set itself above God. Adam was created to walk and talk with the Lord in a holy fellowship. Adam fell from grace this is why the Lord sent us His son Jesus to place upon us a robe of righteousness. Allowing us to enter into His Holy presence.

Now we see that God has always had a Kingly appointed order. Not everyone was called and anointed to enter into the temple or approach the mountain of God. This still holds true in many respects today. God has appointed prophets, teachers, apostles, etc for the perfecting of the saints to bring forth unity in the Body. This does not negate the Blood of Jesus that allows us all to enter boldly unto the throne of Grace, as we all have a doorway to enter in. What this shows is that God does all things decently and in order. He has established spiritual eldership that in many denominations and churches is not properly recognized. Position and stature in the Kingdom is not necessarily established by age nor biblical degrees possessed by an individual. Many times the Lord will establish an individual into a position of authority that by human standards would not qualify.

Now when we continue in scripture we see that there were people who were established as elders of the people. That position did not gain them the right to ascend the mountain as Moses had. Moses was given the Words from the Lord to lay before them. Even when the Lord was to appear before the people, it was not to speak directly to them. The Lord only wanted them to see that Moses had indeed received the commandments from Him. He was to manifest Himself in a thick cloud to authenticate Moses before the people so that they would listen and respect Moses.

Exo 19:7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the Lord commanded him.

Exo 19:8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the Lord hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the Lord.

Exo 19:9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the Lord.

Exo 19:10 And the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes, Exo 19:11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the Lord will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

The Lord has set up sons and daughters to hear and speak the Word of the Lord today just as He did then. He is calling for God appointed leadership to sanctify the people so that they have garments unspotted, ready for the return of Jesus on the third day. For on that day He will return for a Bride, unspotted by the world. Holy and blameless to be a Holy priesthood unto Him.

Just as there was division because of the appointment of Moses, there is today. People do not like to surrender to the control and command of others. Because we were raised in a democracy we think we have the "right" to speak our opinion. Instead of allowing the Spirit of the Lord to appoint whom He desires, we tend to use the mindset of democratic rule to override Kingdom authority. In our churches there is great division because many desire appointment to position. There are envies, emulations and debates over personal opinion and desires, which often split churches into pieces. Unwillingness to accept a God appointed pastor or leader has lead to the ruin of others. While personal promotion of gifts, talents and desire add fuel to the fire. When we look to the Word we are warned against such practices, since it leads to the destruction of many.

In numbers 12:1, Miriam and Aaron came against the leadership of Moses. They had been established as prophets of God, but because Moses had married an Ethiopian woman they felt they could set themselves equal to his leadership. Since God appointed Moses, the consequence of such defiance was strong. Miriam became leprous and was exiled from the camp. It was this same defiance and self-promotion in the wilderness that brought death to many after they fell into idolatry. In Exodus 32 they felt Moses had been gone too long and called upon Aaron to produce an idol to worship. They did not have respect for Moses nor a fear of God so they prompted Aaron to listen to them. Instead of Aaron backing up Moses, he saw it as an opportunity to promote himself. Since God did not appoint Aaron to lead the people he was incapable of hearing the voice of God for direction. He became intimidated and obeyed the people, fashioning a golden calf. When God sent Moses down the mount he found them participating in all manner of sin. Because Aaron stepped past his appointed level of leadership, the people suffered. Great sin occurred in the camp and when Moses confronted them they still chose sin over the Lord. In Exodus 32:26 Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, 'Who is on the Lords side? Let him come unto me.' Only the sons of Levi stepped forward. Because of the great sin and subsequent defiance the Lord required the death of 3000 men that day.

In the previous examples we see the consequence of speaking against leadership and appointing who we feel is to be in charge can be deadly. Today if we use our emotions and human intellect to appoint individuals to leadership based upon "worldly qualifications" we can fall into the same trap. Sometimes it may appear to be the "right choice" but instead we will find we have created a golden calf, beautiful yet deadly. (Excerpt from "Kingdom Authority)

[Joel 2:11-18] And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: ..... Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach...."

Kingdom Warriors

Sharolyn Baldwin

Word Of The Lord.... To His Warriors

My Children, you know of the different ranks in your military service. You have heard about the different ranks of My Angels and you have heard about the different ranks in the realm of the enemy. In the world they call them...Special Forces units. I tell you this day. Even now, I have a group of My children that were born for this very purpose. They are My Special Forces Unit. They are called by My Name. They are called Kingdom Warriors. They are those I have been grooming since birth. They will be sent out against satan's hoard. There's fire in their eyes as they go forth. What is this fire in their eyes, you might ask ? It is the pure love of The Father, for His children. They will go out with a thunderous sound. You will hear them speak with a Resounding Cry, throughout this land. You will hear the Sound Of Thunder in their voice. the words you will hear is, Let My People Go !!

My children listen, can you hear the sound ? It is the sound of your heartbeat, beating in unison with Mine. Let My Children Go !!You are The Kingdom Warriors. Marching to the sound of My Heartbeat. Understand My children, this is faith working threw love. Yes there is fire in their eyes an All Consuming Fire Of Love. Saying Let My People go!! for I AM A Jealous God. Kingdom Warriors, I have given you...The Gift Of Love. You have carried this knowing deep within. There have been seasons in your life when you have asked , what is it for and how will it be used ? Listen My child, the time of the enemy's confusion is coming to an end. You will now see, clearer and clearer as the day comes forth. You have been through times of bondage, fear and doubt. You've been through the fire My Child. It is not the school of hard knocks as the world would call it, but you My children have been in the School Of The Spirit. I know there were seasons, you felt as though you would never come out but look up My children and listen for the sound of My Battle cry. The season of your purpose is now upon you. Just as it was with Moses, Joseph and with Me. The enemy has tried to kill your purpose at birth before it could reach the season of it's fullfillment. He has tried to keep fetters around your ankles, to keep your purpose from moving forth. They are being broken off you, even now. Yes My child, your vessel is still a usable vessel. It could never be broken in enough pieces that I could not repair it. They could never destroy My Purpose in you. It is more than just useable My child. I've filled you with My Love and My Love never fails. You are coming forth even now, out of those ashes of fear, doubt and despair. This will have nothing to do with your self-will or effort.(flesh ) Hear Me My child...you have not disappointed Me. I have always been preparing you but now I am doing a new thing. I am dressing you for the front line battle. Never-never fear My child. I am going forth with you and My Glory will cover you and you will march forth in My Power. To touch, heal and set the captives free. My Power is working in you and threw you. I AM A Mighty God. Nothing is impossible for Me. My child, no weapon formed against you shall ever prosper. You are in My hand. No longer will they cause you to have a mindset of seeing yourself as a grasshopper. There is a Mighty rushing river coming forth, rising up in you and will flow threw you. Listen! can you hear The Lion Of Judah Roaring ? He is Going forth to devour the enemy. You are a Mighty Warrior In Me, With Sword In Hand. Rise up My children!!! Your time is at hand.

Know My Ways and Thoughts

Doug Patterson

Sept. 5, 2000

Treasures of Heaven lie within the pages of My Living Word. Delight in your Lord as you seek His face. Rest at His feet, for that is a place of training, communion, and revelation. It is time to begin to know My ways and My thoughts.

You are so precious to Me, My children. This is a time for comfort, for reassurance that I have a call for you. I see the plan and I see the purpose. Allow Me to share a new pathway for you to walk upon. My heart is to bring increased blessing so that you can be a blessing to others. I desire to have a covenant relationship; to see My family gathered together in a spirit of unity and peace. It should be a joyous time of serving one another.

The pathway is there before you. It is written in the Word. The trumpet blast will send a call for the army of the Lord is to march soon. It is a family. A family that is filled with blessing, hope and prosperity. For My word is rich in every way. I desire that you be a prosperous people praising your God.

Knowing My Voice

Linda Patterson

Sept 6, 2000

For My eyes are constantly watching, looking for those whose hearts are open, hungry and leaning toward Me. I am searching for the ones whose agenda and time is set apart for Me.

There is a famine over the earth of hearing and truly recognizing My voice. To know Me, spend time with Me. Many voices clamor for your attention. Silence the enemy of distraction and doubt. Recognize the battle in the mind.

Be steadfast in your quest to know Me. Intimacy of heart to heart communication with Me is in that still small voice.

Revival fires will burn, My glory will increase, signs, wonders and miracles will follow, My beloved. But know, that all this I work through the hearts of those totally given to Me in that secret place of resting and abiding. My generals today know the voice of their commander-in-chief. With confidence they go forward knowing ultimate victory.

Come along with Me into the glorious light of day. For the intimacy of My voice, My truth, My imprint upon your life will illuminate the pathway and dispel the darkness of the hour.

Larry, Mo & Curly

Tom Heward

In December of 1999, about one month after Mike Roell, myself (Tom Heward) and Keith Loper had crossed the United States in our camouflaged vehicles, warning the American People that a Nuclear War was coming to the United States of America in the Fall of 1999 (the judgment of God on this Nation for becoming like Sodom and Gomorrah) Mike Roell had the following dream:

DREAM: I was standing in front of my parent's house on Long Island, New York when Larry and Mo (two of the three American Slapstick Comedy Team called "The Three Stooges") approached me. They were looking very old and tired with grey hair and they had a very somber and serious look about them, unlike the persons they portray in their usual comedy routines. They stepped up to me and said, "This is a very serious time in America, and no time to be laughing or joking." Then they said, "You thought it was coming and it didn't ... but it will." I thought about this for a moment, than said, "Where is Curly?" Just as I said this I saw Curly coming up the walkway. Then I looked to my right and parked in front of my parents house was my 4x4 camouflaged truck with the words "NUCLEAR WAR" stenciled on the side (this was the truck I had driven across the United States to portray the judgment God was threatening to bring upon America).

INTERPRETATION: To many who heard the message which God had given us to carry, either over the internet, out on the streets or on short-wave radio we were not genuine prophetic voices but more akin to the slapstick comedy team of Larry, Mo and Curly - The Three Stooges. But as this dream clearly depicts, this is no time for laughing or joking in America but a time in which God is calling His People to do some serious introspection and repentance. We have been regarded lightly by many and especially those in the established church. Although this judgment did not come as we had so often said it would - in the Fall of 99' (based on the revelation we had at that time) - it will.

Sincerely,

Tom, Mike and Keith w/Ground Zero Ministries

Laying Hold of Our Inheritance

Jim Rinker

Laying Hold of Our Inheritance

Romans 8:35-39 (emphasis added) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? [shall] tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor ANGELS, nor PRINCIPALITIES, nor POWERS, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

It is evident from the above passage of scripture that the Lord has ALREADY declared the victory for those who believe. So what then separates us from laying hold of our inheritance? The answer to that question is our unbelief for the Lord declares to us today that NOTHING shall be impossible to those who believe.

Matthew 17:19-20 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

Nothing EXTERNAL therefore can separate us from walking in the fullness of the inheritance that Jesus Christ has bought and paid for us at the cross. The only thing that now separated us from LAYING HOLD our full inheritance is UNBELIEF!

Hebrews 4:1 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left [us] of entering into his rest (full and complete inheritance), any of you should seem to come short of it. 2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard [it]. 3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh [day] on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. 5 And in this [place] again, If they shall enter into my rest. 6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief: 7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, Today, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

It is therefore not our enemies that the Lord is looking to conquer (yes there will be a day of vengeance were all enemies will be placed under His feet) but rather it is our unbelief He is looking to conquer for all things are possible to those who believe. We should not expect or look for our freedom (full inheritance, rest) to come via the Lord changing our circumstances by casting down principalities and powers but rather by the Lord raising us HIGH ABOVE all principalities and powers (all things that exalt themselves against the knowledge of God). In this way the Lord will make us OVERCOMERS by giving us OBSTACLES to overcome (rise above).

Revelation 12:11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. 12 Therefore rejoice, [ye] heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

The overcomer dwells in the HEAVENS (rising and abiding above his/her circumstances) while the unbeliever dwells on EARTH in unbelief. Our inheritance (all spiritual blessings) is IN HEAVENLY PLACES IN CHRIST JESUS. Those who believe and do not DESPISE the promises of the Lord will earnestly seek ENTRANCE into the HEAVENLY PLACES (kingdom of God) where our inheritance resides.

When the children of Israel crossed over Jordan they were given the promise of the Lord Himself going before them and defeating the enemy. The battle is not ours but rather the Lord's therefore victory is assured. As the children of Israel BELIEVED the Lord and OBEYED all that He commanded them to do the enemy could not stand before them. Their victory was INEVITABLE as long as their belief in His word (command to them) was maintained and they obeyed all that He commanded them to do. As they failed to believe the word of the Lord (failed to act on His command) they could not stand before their enemies and were defeated by them.

The Lord could have simply wiped out all the "giants" in the land and given the children of Israel their inheritance. In doing this, however, the sons of God (man-child or overcomers) would never be manifest. In the Lord's wisdom had to place a very real enemy in the place of their inheritance so the sons of God would be manifest. In doing so the believer and unbeliever (tares versus wheat) would be manifested.

Today is no different! This is the entire purpose of the coming tribulation, that the sons of God would be MANIFEST!

The children of Abraham (faith) in our generation will therefore not have their circumstances changed, they will only rise above them or better said have the Lord RAISE us above them as on the wings of an eagle. We therefore are not looking for a sign of some principality or religious spirit or antichrist spirit or Jezebel spirit or any other spirit to be cast down in order for us to gain our inheritance. None of these can or ever will separate us from our inheritance in Christ Jesus.

Rather, the Lord has made it evident that the promises will be given (laid hold of) to those who believe. As our unbelief is conquered WITHIN US there will be nothing EXTERNAL that can stand in our way for the Lord Himself will rise us far above all our enemies and seat us in heavenly places.

Luke 17:20-21 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

Let us therefore be careful that an evil heart of unbelief does not overtake us lest we too fall short of the promise of entering into our rest (inheritance). The battle currently lies primarily with our own evil heart of unbelief for when the overcomers arise in faith and the unbelief in our hearts is conquered and the kingdom of God is firmly established WITHIN us there is NOTHING that will be impossible for the Lord to accomplish for us and through us.

All the Lord's promises to us are yes and a-men if we would simply believe that what He has already purposed will be accomplished. Nothing shall be impossible for those who believe.

Lazarus Come Forth!

Sandy Warner

Sixteen years ago the Lord gave me a promise about Lazarus. He said, "I will raise him up." Now is the time! I want to tell you about Lazarus and his long journey, for you may have loved ones who fit this category. The following are the scriptures the Lord gave me at the time of the promise. They dove tail together to tell his story.

1) The story of Lazarus is likened unto the 200 men who stayed behind at the brook of Besor where David was told to take back what was stolen from them. When others were moving forward in the Lord and flourishing, "Lazarus" was too tired to go on.

"And the LORD told him, "Yes, go after them. You will surely recover everything that was taken from you!" So David and his six hundred men set out, and they soon came to Besor Brook. But two hundred of the men were too exhausted to cross the brook, so David continued the pursuit with his four hundred remaining troops." (1 Sam 30:8-10 NLT)

2) As the years grew, "Lazarus" grew dryer and without refreshment.

Besor was a dry water bed, and with the cloudbursts, it became a torrent. This is symbolic of where "Lazarus" has camped since the 80's, totally dependent upon the mercy of God's rain.

3) In the process of waiting for God's refreshing touch, "Lazarus" grew sick and hopeless. But the Lord gave "Lazarus" a promise.

"Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth." (Hos 6:1-3 KJV)

4) "Lazarus" grew so sick that his loved ones made desperate pleas to the Lord on his behalf. But even though the Lord heard the pleas, He delayed answering.

"So the two sisters sent a message to Jesus telling him, "Lord, the one you love is very sick." But when Jesus heard about it he said, "Lazarus's sickness will not end in death. No, it is for the glory of God. I, the Son of God, will receive glory from this." Although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, he stayed where he was for the next two days and did not go to them." (John 11:3-6 NLT)

5) In the process of waiting, "Lazarus" became so weary that he and his calling were finally put to spiritual sleep.

"Then he said, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up." (John 11:11 NLT)

6) This sleep caused great disappointment for those that loved "Lazarus." But the Lord continued to reassure with His promise.

"When Martha got word that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. But Mary stayed at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask." Jesus told her, "Your brother will rise again." (John 11:20-23 NLT)

7) When the day came, God sent His Word and the door of hope was opened. The tomb door opened by removing the stone of hopelessness. Hope was once again stirred among disappointed and waiting hearts.

"And again Jesus was deeply troubled. Then they came to the grave. It was a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. "Roll the stone aside," Jesus told them. Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that you will see God's glory if you believe?" So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, thank you for hearing me. You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so they will believe you sent me." (John 11:38-44 NLT)

"But I will court her again and bring her into the wilderness, and I will speak to her tenderly there. There I will give back her vineyards to her and transform her Valley of Troubles into a Door of Hope. She will respond to me there, singing with joy as in days long ago in her youth after I had freed her from captivity in Egypt. "In that coming day," says the Lord, "she will call me 'My Husband' instead of 'My Master.'" (Hos 2:14-16 TLB)

8) "Lazarus" rises to the Word of the Lord. He hears the Word, he obeys the Word, even though he is still bound in personal captivity.

"Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And Lazarus came out, bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" (John 11:43,44 NLT)

9) The company of "Lazarus" is bound in grave clothes.

"Lazarus" face is bound. He can not see what is going on, even though he knows something radical is taking place, for suddenly God is speaking into his life and he is once again responding. No one can see him either, for even though he is rising up to the Lord's Word, his calling is hidden to himself, and to the world.

He is wrapped with grave clothes symbolic of death and preservation. "Lazarus" followed the Lord's will even to the point of death to self. In the process of death, in order to preserve "Lazarus" from his own self destruction during the wait, "Lazarus" was allowed captivity, enough to severely restrict his movements.

10) And the Lord said, "Loose him and let him go!"

BINDING AND LOOSING: The following scriptures use the same Greek words:

And he that was dead came forth, bound [1210] hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose [3089] him, and let him go. (John 11:44 KJV)

And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound [1210], lo, these eighteen years, be loosed [3089] from this bond on the sabbath day? (Luke 13:16 KJV)

And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind [1210] on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose [3089] on earth shall be loosed in heaven. (Matt 16:19 KJV)

TO BIND: NT:1210 deo (deh'-o); a primary verb; to bind (in various applications, literally or figuratively): KJV - bind, be in bonds, knit, tie, wind. See also NT:1163, NT:1189.

[note the word wind here, as though to wind around like graveclothes.]

TO LOOSE: NT:3089 luo (loo'-o); a primary verb; to "loosen" (literally or figuratively): KJV - break (up), destroy, dissolve, (un-) loose, melt, put off. Compare NT:4486.

11) The reward given to Lazarus for waiting.

Just like the men who waited by the brook of Besor, the "Lazarus people" shall be given everything that was lost back to them and they shall have a part in the increased spoils of war.

"David got back everything the Amalekites had taken, and he rescued his two wives. Nothing was missing: small or great, son or daughter, nor anything else that had been taken. David brought everything back. His troops rounded up all the flocks and herds and drove them on ahead. "These all belong to David as his reward!" they said. When they reached Besor Brook and met the two hundred men who had been too tired to go with them, David greeted them joyfully. But some troublemakers among David's men said, "They didn't go with us, so they can't have any of the plunder. Give them their wives and children, and tell them to be gone." But David said, "No, my brothers! Don't be selfish with what the LORD has given us. He has kept us safe and helped us defeat the enemy. Do you think anyone will listen to you when you talk like this? We share and share alike--those who go to battle and those who guard the equipment." From then on David made this a law for all of Israel, and it is still followed." (1 Sam 30:18-25 NLT)

12) What is the purpose of "Lazarus" journey?

Why the miserable journey of sickness, is it only to be raised up healthy once again with the addition of spoils? NO. We find the purpose of "Lazarus" sickness hidden in both Jesus' promise and the meaning of Lazarus' name.

First, Jesus promises that the testimony of Lazarus' life, death and raising will be for the glory, honor, and testimony of Jesus Christ. "Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby." (John 11:3,4 KJV)

Second, his purpose is found in his name. We can see that its meaning is a direct opposite of his sickness. Lazarus' name comes from a Hebrew word that is built upon several layers of words, all based upon an original word. Following is a Word Study for you to see for yourself. However, for simplification, here is a condensed version:

The Hebrew words and origins of Lazarus literally means: God (is) helper; strength; mighty; especially the Almighty (but used also of any deity): strength; hence, anything strong; specifically a chief (politically); also a ram (from his strength); a pilaster (as a strong support); an oak or other strong tree: to twist, i.e. (by implication) be strong; the body (as being rolled together); also powerful: to surround, i.e. protect or aid.

The origins of the word Lazarus is translated as the following words: - God (god), goodly, great, idol, might (-y one), power, strong. mighty (man), lintel, oak, post, ram, tree, mighty, strength, help, succour.

So now we see the true calling and nature of "Lazarus." He was called to be a mighty one in the Lord's temple, and his very name was a challenge to the enemy. Because his calling and purpose are so important in last day events, his flesh had to be stripped so that he trusted not in his own strength, but the Lord.

13) Word Study

HEBREW LAZARUS OT:499 'El`azar (el-aw-zawr'); from OT:410 and OT:5826; God (is) helper; Elazar, the name of seven Israelites: KJV - Eleazar.

OT:410 'el (ale); shortened from OT:352; strength; as adjective, mighty; especially the Almighty (but used also of any deity): KJV - God (god), X goodly, X great, idol, might (-y one), power, strong. Compare names in "-el."

OT:352 'ayil (ah'-yil); from the same as OT:193; properly, strength; hence, anything strong; specifically a chief (politically); also a ram (from his strength); a pilaster (as a strong support); an oak or other strong tree: KJV - mighty (man), lintel, oak, post, ram, tree.

OT:193 'uwl (ool); from an unused root meaning to twist, i.e. (by implication) be strong; the body (as being rolled together); also powerful: KJV - mighty, strength.

OT:5826 `azar (aw-zar'); a primitive root; to surround, i.e. protect or aid: KJV - help, succour.

If you are among the statistics or have loved ones that fit this description, have hope! For Lazarus is stirring, as the Lord is calling, "Lazarus, come forth!"

LAZARUS - part 2

Dear Loved ones, There were so many responses to the Lazarus post and so many gripped my heart that I want to share with you some additional revelation that the Lord has shared with me concerning the last stages of Lazarus' deliverance. I hope that it will be helpful for your own healing, or the healing of your loved one. "Lazarus" has come SO VERY FAR to get to this final stage!

1) HOPE Loss of hope comes with a numbness that so shrouds the heart that it puts the pain of expectation to sleep. This is the flesh's natural response to "bury" the pain and find a way to adapt and survive through the pain of loss.

When hope has been cut off and you have learned to live with the word "No," it takes courage to hope once again. It takes more courage than anyone could even imagine unless they have been there. And when you begin to hope, hurt bubbles to the surface at the risk of once again facing more disappointment and more pain just because you dared to hope.

There are many things that were buried in the process of putting expectation to sleep and one of them was the fear of not having enough faith. As I thought about the many times the Lord healed someone and said, "Your faith has made you whole," I pondered why faith could have such a powerful anecdote to one's misery. I thought it unfair that someone so bound in hopeless conditions, who had already tried everything, would somehow have to muster up enough faith to be healed. The Holy Spirit came to me in that moment and revealed something as I was reading the following passage:

"As they approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was going by. So he began shouting, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" The crowds ahead of Jesus tried to hush the man, but he only shouted louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. Then Jesus asked the man, "What do you want me to do for you?" "Lord," he pleaded, "I want to see!" And Jesus said, "All right, you can see! Your faith has healed you." Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too." (Luke 18:35-43 NLT)

This poor blind man had no idea what all the commotion was and when he found out, he probably had no idea if Jesus would see or hear him. The Holy Spirit suddenly imparted the understanding that because he could not physically reach Jesus, naturally he did not have the faith that Jesus WOULD heal him, rather he believed that Jesus COULD heal him if he could get His attention. We think that our faith must believe that He will, when all He is asking is for us to believe that He can. I saw that all it takes is a tiny mustard seed of faith. Healing of hope is like that, it doesn't take some huge mountain of hope, all it takes is a glimmer or a response. Lazarus was dead, all he did was respond when the Lord called him.

2) OBEDIENCE "Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And Lazarus came out, bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" (John 11:43,44 NLT) In this passage, Lazarus rises to the Word of the Lord. He hears the Word, he obeys the Word, even though he is still bound in personal captivity.

It is important that when you hear the Lord begin to call your heart to renewed passion, that you respond, regardless of your personal circumstances. Lazarus was wrapped so tightly he could barely move, all he could smell was death, it was dark and it was cold. Yet Lazarus stood to his feet and began to move forward at the sound of the Lord's voice. Notice this happened before he was loosed. This stage stirs you awake, it rattles the weary bones and brings you to your feet, regardless of how miserable you are. Be willing to stand and see the salvation of God on your behalf! (2 Chron 20: 15-17)

3) UNWINDING As I was thinking about Lazarus' natural strength as a leader and his calling, and everything that the enemy had been allowed to do to "kill" it, I suddenly understood something about the process of unwinding. If the Lord had a purpose in the unwinding process, what would happen if He chose to do the process backwards? In other words, what would happen if Lazarus is free from captivity first and suddenly all the restraints upon his life are gone in one instant? Then the Lord says, "Stand still, I want to take you through a process and unwind some things that have hindered you on the inside." Knowing Lazarus' gifts and natural strength prior to the captivity, he probably would shoot out of that tomb like a rocket, grab the nearest ambitious idea at hand, and not even be around to hear the Lord say, "Please stand still for a moment and let Me work upon you!" I smile as I write this, for I know it is true, by the very nature of Lazarus' name (explained in the previous post).

The Lord in His infinite wisdom knows exactly how to work on Lazarus! He speaks hope, stirs him awake, makes him stand, and calls him to move forward, still bound and restrained - for His purpose.

There is some "stuff" to work through and that stuff is stinky grave clothes. Have hope in your heart that you ARE going to be healed and set free, and each moment from now until that day, He will be taking you through a process unwinding the layers. You may have to work through fear of believing, fear of failing, shame, shame of loss, shame of falling, shame of stinking, unforgiveness towards God, unforgiveness towards others, anger, bitterness, resentment, rebellion, stubbornness, control, judgment, criticism and thousands of other fruits that will come to the surface, a layer at a time. Remember when you are working through these things, that it is a sovereign work of the Holy Spirit in your life, and that you are becoming more and more free. As you comply with releasing these layers, you are getting lighter and your healing is coming to the surface.

There are yards and yards of material in grave clothes. It took years to be enshrouded in the dying process. It will not take years to unwind, but it will take time to be unraveled because it is a process. This is a process of waiting upon the Lord.

"But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." (Isa 40:31 KJV) The word wait in the Hebrew is an interesting concept. It means to bind together by twisting, like a 3 stranded cord, or like a vine on fence, or perhaps even something like the twisting of Lazarus' grave clothes.

OT:6960 qavah (kaw-vaw'); a primitive root; to bind together (perhaps by twisting), i.e. collect; (figuratively) to expect: KJV - gather (together), look, patiently, tarry, wait (for, on, upon).

Over and over again you will circle these layers and be given many chances to "get it right". It comes through repentance and yielding the stinky stuff and sloughing it off a layer at a time with each circumstance. If you are willing, these layers will begin to spin you around so fast that all you will smell for a while is your own stench. Rejoice, the closer you get to that old dead flesh, the smellier it will be and the Lord will be able to get to that stuff and clean it out! This is a supernatural work. It will start slowly, then move forward faster and faster as you begin to catch onto what the Lord is doing and comply with these layers.

4) HOW TO RELEASE THE LAYERS

- a) Keep the hope of your calling and healing before you and do not get caught up in the miles of unwinding, smelly grave clothes. Resist wallowing in a layer, rather confess it, pray over it, yield it, repent it, and move on. (Col 1:27)
- b) Forgiveness is a foundation principle that is totally necessary in healing. Read the following as a promise: "And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses." (Matt 18:34-35 KJV) This is a scriptural law that the devils are allowed access to those who do not forgive! If you are not able to forgive, then ask the Lord to teach you how to forgive. Forgiveness is releasing another from all debt, or penalty from debt; it is asking for mercy for another, because the penalty for their debt is very terrible. Learn to forgive as though your very life depended upon it. - Because it does.
- c) In each layer that comes to the surface, find a way through it with faith, hope and love. These things remain when all else burns. The greatest, most powerful, and yet simplest of these is to love. Love covers a multitude of sins, and love for Him, for others, and even for yourself as you see yourself through His love, will help slough off the dead weights. (I Cor 13:13)
- d) Wash yourself with the water of His Word. Pray that He will once again breath new life into it. Pray that your appetite will return, after a long famine of not hearing Him. Pray that He will give you new revelation as you search Him. (Eph 5:26)
- e) Resist the world's answers to inner healing. This work of reviving the dead and sloughing off the grave clothes is the work of the Holy Spirit. It is a supernatural work occurring as He brings you through circumstances whereby suddenly something "smelly" in your heart comes to the surface, and you wonder where that came from! It is in that moment of struggle that there is grace for the healing. You do not need to spend money and extensive time in counseling and books, you need Him. Take it to Him at that moment, and let Him do the surgery.

You may need some deliverance prayers, but even those will not work without your first going through the same process of yielding and letting go of the dead stuff. I believe that some of this smelly stuff is demonic infiltration, and these tormentors will leave on their own, simply by your going through a) and b) above.

f) Be willing to wait a while longer through this process, for you have waited years already and in comparison, this wait is much shorter. At least now you know you have a purpose and God is taking you to freedom. Moving forward is a whole lot better than lying dead in a dark cold tomb.

Thank you for all that shared your responses to the Lazarus post and for the many confirmations. I pray the Lord touches those of you who have died the long slow death of disappointment and that He releases you from the tomb to freedom. Lovingly, Sandy

Lazarus and Jonah

Joseph Herrin

Recently, as I read the word “Lazarus , Come Forth” by Sandy Warner I was struck by the similarities to what the Father was speaking to me through Jonah. I have felt like a candidate to be a Jonah or a Lazarus in recent days. I have felt that my steps and my ways have been confined by the Lord. Even as Lazarus was wrapped in grave clothes and placed in a tomb, and Jonah was confined to the belly of a fish, I have felt confined in my movements and activities.

Sandy Warner spoke of Lazarus having his head wrapped up with the windings of the grave cloths even as I was hearing of Jonah having his head wrapped about with seaweed. "Water encompassed me to the point of death. The great deep engulfed me, Weeds were wrapped around my head" (Jonah 2:5).

Sandy Warner gives these insights into the meaning of having the head wrapped up:

The company of "Lazarus" is bound in grave clothes. "Lazarus'" face is bound. He can not see what is going on, even though he knows something radical is taking place, for suddenly God is speaking into his life and he is once again responding. No one can see him either, for even though he is rising up to the Lord's Word, his calling is hidden to himself, and to the world.

He is wrapped with grave clothes symbolic of death and preservation. "Lazarus" followed the Lord's will even to the point of death to self. In the process of death, in order to preserve "Lazarus" from his own self destruction during the wait, "Lazarus" was allowed captivity, enough to severely restrict his movements. <end quote>

In my spirit the Father has been making known that great things are afoot. I have not perceived clearly what they are, but I know that things are transpiring out of sight, in realms unknown to the physical senses, that are beyond the scope of anything the world has seen previously. In a very real sense my head has been wrapped and my senses obscured. Part of this is the bringing about of a death to living by what the physical senses report. There is a realm of walking in the spirit that the Father is leading His chosen ones into in this day. Isaiah prophesied of Christ:

Isaiah 11:3 And He will delight in the fear of the LORD, and He will not judge by what His eyes see, nor make a decision by what His ears hear... (NAS)

As God prepares His chosen ones, He too will cut off our dependence upon our physical senses, forcing us to venture out in realms of the spirit. We are being conformed to Christ's image, so it could equally be said of us "he will not judge by what his eyes see, nor make a decision by what his ears hear."

This is a completely new paradigm for most of us. Our whole foundation for living, action, movement, word, and thought is being restructured. This is a difficult process and at times it produces fear as all that has been familiar and comfortable is removed from us.

It is similar to Abram being called to go to a land that he knew nothing about. After a while all of the familiar landmarks were gone and everything was new and mysterious. The only resource left to Abram to guide him was the voice of God. Interestingly, it was the voice of God that brought both Jonah and Lazarus out of their places of bondage and death. We are told that Jesus cried out, "Lazarus, come forth!" It was God's word that also brought Jonah forth.

Jonah 2:10-3:2

10 Then the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah up onto the dry land.

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

2 "Arise, go to Nineveh the great city and proclaim to it the proclamation which I am going to tell you." (NAS)

Sandy Warner states that "Lazarus followed the Lord's will even to the point of death to self." Part of this death to self is death to our own understanding and the habit of forming judgments and making decisions based upon what our senses are telling us. For a while it seems that confusion reigns because we hear God's Spirit speaking to us in one way and our mind speaking to us in another manner. We are placed in the grave and confined in our movements until we learn to bring the mind into submission to the Spirit. As Sandy Warner comments, this is for our own protection.

What is happening is that maturity is being brought forth. This maturity is described in the following scriptures.

Hebrews 5:14 But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil. (NAS)

Romans 8:14 For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are [mature] sons of God. (NAS)

As our heads are wrapped and our physical senses obscured we are coming to the place where we will no longer "judge by what [our] eyes see, nor make a decision by what [our] ears hear."

The Lord has described the process He has me in as both crucifixion and circumcision. It is both a putting to death of the flesh and a cutting away of the flesh. This process is preparation for promotion in the kingdom of God.

Many of God's children today know that they have a calling upon their lives. Many have known this from their youth. Moses sensed the calling of God on his life when he was young. When he slew the Egyptian he was attempting to fulfill this calling, wrongly assuming that others would recognize the calling on his life. Moses had not circumcised the flesh, yet, and flesh cannot accomplish the purposes of God.

It took forty years in the wilderness to bring Moses to the point where God could use him. It took forty years to bring Moses to the end of relying on his own strength, wisdom, and abilities. The wilderness was Moses' grave. It is where his flesh died. At the end of forty years Moses had no confidence left in his own abilities or talents. When God appeared before him at the burning bush Moses told God that he had chosen the wrong man for Moses had nothing in himself to qualify him for the task set before him. He asserted that he could not even speak.

This is the purpose of the watery grave, the tomb, the wilderness; to remove all reliance upon flesh and our innate abilities. God is seeking men and women who confess, "In my flesh dwells no good thing" and "apart from Christ I can do nothing." However, God wants us to add to this a confidence in His ability, so that we also say, "Through Christ I can do all things." When God calls us out of our graves He wants us to come forth dead to the flesh and alive to the spirit.

For a season, the Father allowed many of us to pursue our calling with a mixture of flesh and spirit. The results were not what we desired. After allowing us to see the utter failure that comes from this unwholesome mixture, He then told many of us that promotion was coming to us. This promotion comes only after the flesh has been circumcised.

After God told Moses of his new calling, his promotion, we are told that Moses set out to Egypt. The angel of God met him on the way and attempted to put him to death because he had not yet physically circumcised the flesh. Moses' wife Zipporah had to perform the circumcision. Outwardly, Moses had to indicate that his flesh was circumcised, that he was no longer relying upon his own strength to accomplish the task assigned to him. Indeed, it was God, not Moses, that delivered the children of Israel from the bondage of Egypt. Once the circumcision was performed, Moses was able to go forward and be used mightily of the Lord.

As Sandy Warner describes, this preparation is not very pleasant. At times we feel overcome by the stench and misery of our dying flesh. Jonah describes his experience in his watery grave in this way:

Jonah 2:2-7

2 and he said, "I called out of my distress to the LORD, and He answered me. I cried for help from the depth of Sheol; Thou didst hear my voice.

3 "For Thou hadst cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the current engulfed me. All Thy breakers and billows passed over me.

4 "So I said, 'I have been expelled from Thy sight. Nevertheless I will look again toward Thy holy temple.'

5 "Water encompassed me to the point of death. The great deep engulfed me, Weeds were wrapped around my head.

6 "I descended to the roots of the mountains. The earth with its bars was around me forever, but Thou hast brought up my life from the pit, O LORD my God.

7 "While I was fainting away, I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came to Thee, into Thy holy temple. (NAS)

If this describes your situation, if you seem to be "fainting away", then call out to God in your distress. Be assured that he will answer you. Great and mighty things are on the way.

1 Peter 5:10-11

10 And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen and establish you.

11 To Him be dominion forever and ever. Amen. (NAS)

Leaks

Mark DeVito

Greetings in Jesus Name. I trust that this e-mail finds you in good health and prospering in the things of the Lord.

I had a series of events over the Easter weekend that I felt have some prophetic implications. It may be just for Cornerstone, however, I thought that I would share them with you for your consideration.

Between Friday and Saturday I had a four different "leaks". Let me list those leaks and then give you my interpretation or what I feel the Lord is saying.

Friday - Cable men came out to repair leaks of signal in the underground cable

Dishwasher leaks from the top

Sat. - Hot water heater leaks

Bag of peat moss leaks

The general theme is that God can not be contained and will not be contained what ever kind of container we build to put the Lord in He will break out of. Being Easter weekend. I understood that we dig "graves" of theology, doctrine, experiences, ideas, programs, organizations, etc and "bury" Jesus in these graves. However, the Power of the Resurrection Spirit will not allow the Lord to be buried in these graves. He will arise and display His splendor and glory in spite of these. The "stones" that we roll in front of the "graves" that we dig are the "stones" of pride and "self preservation". I believe what God is saying is that He is about to break out whether we like it or not. He is no longer going to be contained.

Now for the specifics:

Cable Leak: The cable repairmen told me that the reasons that they have to go around and check for leaks is because when they get strong enough they will interfere with mobile phones, radios and other satellite oriented communications. The Lord wants to invade our communications with Him and with others. He does not want to be left out any more. He is going to interfere with our prayers, fastings, worship, fellowship. The cable also speaks of power. We are coming to a time when God's power is going to be displayed.

The last three deal with water

Dishwasher Leak: The dishwasher leaked from the top like it was full of water. It wasn't, however, I felt the Lord was saying that he was going to allow the river to leave it banks, flood was eminent. The banks being those things that we created to contain a river. Also, it speaks of being washed by the water of His Word - Ep. 5:26.

Hot Water Heater: The hot water heater is in the tool room which is accessed from the outside. When I went out to get the lawn mower there was water flowing out from underneath the door. I knew then that it was the hot water heater. Again this speaks of the river. Being that it was hot water it takes fire to make hot water - I have a gas hot water heater. I was reminded of two words that a pastor and friend of mine had received 8 or 9 months ago. He said that two different people had given him the same word about a river coming. The only difference was one was a river of water the other was a river of oil. He was asking me if had any insight on this because he could not reconcile the fact that oil and water do not mix. I said that's right, they are not suppose to mix. You see, oil floats on water.

And when fire from the altar touches the oil it will ignite and you will have a river of water and fire. In the process of cleaning out the tool room there was a bag of cement that I had to get out. When I picked it up it burst open and my feet was buried up to my ankles in cement - the powder. However, the Lord spoke to me and said I want you to stay in the river. If I have to I will cement your feet there.

The Peat Moss: My wife went to pick up two large bags of peat moss for the garden. Apparently, when the sales man put one of the bags in the back seat it split open and leaked all over the back seat. This was one that I could not understand until I read the outside package. It said, "Increases water retention of your soil." I believe the Lord is going to add things to us to help us in retaining the water we receive from the river of life that flows from the throne of God. Not only does he want us to stay in the water He wants to help us retain the water as well as having rivers of living water that flow thru us. What are these things? I believe them to be some of the basic Christian disciplines. Peat moss is a basic ingredient to good soil. Disciplines of prayer, fasting, worship, meditation to name a few.

There may be other interpretations. This is what I have received so far. I trust that this will minister to you.

Oh, there is one more event that you might find interesting. This happened on Palm Sunday. There was an abandoned black Berretta car that had been stripped in front of the church. It was blocking the handicap parking space. Here is what I received. Black has normally represented evil, darkness, Satan. Berretta has two meanings. First is the obvious which is a gun. I think that it is a nine millimeter automatic or semi-automatic. However, this is not the definition that the dictionary gives. Berretta is a variation of Biretta which is a cap worn by Catholic clergy. The priest wear a black biretta, the bishop wears a purple biretta and the cardinal wears a red biretta. I believe that the Lord is saying that He has truly disarmed the powers of darkness and religious spirits - Col. 2:15 "And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross." Being that it was in front of the handicap parking I believe that he has done this as it relates to healing. In other words, the Lord has disarmed that which stands in the way of the church ministering healing and restoration of the physical body.

Learning From The Holy Spirit

Jim Johnson

John 14:26 But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

Christ tells us that He will send the Holy Spirit to teach us all things. When we depend on what man thinks we sometimes end up with the wrong teaching. Man has taught us that there are errors and mistakes in the Bible. The only error and mistake is when we depend on man rather than the Holy Spirit. The following is a good example of the Holy Spirit teaching us in such a way that there is no doubt as to the meaning of His Word.

In Exodus 33:20 we have the words "you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live", compared to the words in Genesis 32:30 where it says "I saw God face to face, and yet my life was spared". Is this an error in the Bible? Absolutely not! All we have to do is ask the Holy Spirit to teach us. It took many years for me to learn this but I will not forget what I learned.

Exodus 33:20 But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live."

Genesis 32:30 So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "It is because I saw God face to face, and yet my life was spared."

The Holy Spirit also explained Jacob's struggling or wrestling with God in the form of a man and overcoming when He explained the seeing the face of God.

Genesis 32:28 Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome."

DYING TO SELF

Jim Johnson

About ten years ago I was working the night shift at a large natural gas plant. The plant separated the things out of natural gas that had value elsewhere. The plant also separated out things that are harmful when natural gas is used in the home. One of the harmful things was hydrogen sulfide - a poison. When hydrogen sulfide is separated out, the water must be drained off in order to burn the poison gas. This water had to be drained off several times a day to make the system work. This job takes from 5 to 10 minutes, so while the water is draining off, this place became a prayer closet for me.

About midnight as I walked to the place, I looked at the flare (a fire about 80 feet in the air that burns the poison). When I had set the valves and then looked at the flare again, part of the sky had become white except one area above the flare and a little farther away. In this area there was a figure that looked like a very large likeness of a man, except that the man looked like the negative of black and white film. Where there is usually light, it was dark. Where there is usually darkness, it was light. The likeness of a man was short and sort of round. I stared with my mouth open for about 5 minutes with the scene not changing until I heard the sound of gas rushing in as the water had left. I reached for the valve to close it and took my eyes off of the sky for 5-10 seconds while my hand found the valve handle.

During the 5-10 seconds the sky had changed. There then stood a much taller thin man dressed in a very long, very white garment that was from the neck to the feet. I could see His face. I stared for several minutes at this with the scene not changing a bit.

When I glanced at the valves again for 5-10 seconds the sky changed again. This time the sky was mostly white with what looked like a face. The next time I glanced away and then back, the sky returned to normal (a few clouds moon and stars). While I was looking at each image everything was completely still. This was not clouds just moving around. The white did not look like clouds.

I know that the first scene was the devil. I know that the second scene was Jesus Christ. For several years I was not sure about the third scene until the Lord through the Holy Spirit, explained to me what I had seen about 10 years later.

About six years after this vision, I got sick to the point of death. The doctors and specialist never had a clue. I was taking two kinds of strong antibiotics in high doses at the same time, alternating every 6 hours to control my blood pressure. I was in a church that traditionally did not follow the Bible concerning healing. In past times we did not do the laying on of hands and anointing with oil. That was said to be done by other denominations. We did believe strongly in prayer and many prayers had been prayed for me.

Two or three times I knew that I was going to die. As I was going into unconsciousness, I would fight and pray with everything that I had. When I got so bad I knew I would not last a few days more, I went to my pastor for prayers early one morning. After the traditional prayer, I told him that the Bible said we should lay on hands. He said that it also said it said we should anoint with oil, but he did not have any oil so we would ask for forgiveness for that. We had another prayer session with laying on of hands. That day the doctor found major infection in my body using methods other than the lab test. My body had quit fighting infection but the test did not show it. Two or three days later the Lord through the Holy Spirit, led me to read on the internet that aspartame would make people sick in many ways. Aspartame contains poisons in small amounts. It is a sweet tasting poison that a person's liver and kidneys should take care of. Aspartame is used in most diet drinks as well as many foods. I stopped eating all types of foods that had aspartame in them and within a month I was no longer taking either antibiotics and I was recovering. I later learned that the problem was the methanol (also known as wood alcohol) that formed in my body from the aspartame.

That day when I followed the simple instructions of the Bible about healing, the Lord answered my prayers and the prayers of others.

A couple of months ago I was studying "Israel" and how Jacob had wrestled with God in the form of a man (God's angel in Hosea). Jacob won and saw God's face and lived. I knew that the Bible tells us that anyone who looks at the face of God will die. I also knew that several times in the Bible, men did look on God's face and live. This was what some scholars have called a mistake or an error in the Bible.

After a lot of study I asked the Lord to help me understand this. Within a couple of days the Lord through the Holy Spirit, told me that the near death experience He had given me -- when I was slipping into unconsciousness -- was like the wrestling of Jacob with God. If I had not wrestled or struggled I too would have died. He also told me that I had seen God's face in the vision in the sky.

When I was talking to a pastor a few days ago, I was explaining this and I made the remark that I still did not understand the verses about seeing His Face and dying and my seeing God's Face and not dying. The Holy Spirit spoke to me during this conversation but I still did not completely understand. Later that day the Holy Spirit spoke again and told me that I had died -- I had died to self -- when I was so sick and finally obeyed His Word, not the traditions of man. Dying to self is living for God.

After I died to self, the Lord started me down another path. He made me trust in Him and what He tells me completely. He told me that I was going to have a heart attack and would be ok. I had it and knew exactly what was going on. Days later when I went to the Emergency Room for an allergic reaction, they did some test including an EKG. The EKG showed something had changed but could find anything else wrong.

Later He told me I was having a heart attack again. A couple of days after the heart attack, I went to the Emergency Room with an allergic reaction. The EKG showed that what was wrong before, had corrected itself and was better than before.

One day a TV preacher told the audience for each one to ask the Lord "what He had for them". When I did, the Lord through the Holy Spirit, showed me a casket. I thought it was me or my wife. It turned out to be my dad a short while later.

Last December the Lord through the Holy Spirit, showed me a man falling in our church. I could not see the face, but the man had on a very special jacket. That night at Wednesday night services my second grade Sunday school teacher, a man who gave much of my Bible basics, had on this special jacket. About a month later he was dead.

From these events I know that what the Lord is telling me will happen and that I can trust Him in everything that He tells me to do. I have also learned simple obedience to Him and His Word.

Those who say that the Bible contains errors and mistakes, and then pick out what they think are errors and mistakes are making themselves God's editor. This is a place reserved for Satan. Satan does not need any help.

The Holy Spirit has taught me many times in the past but never in such a dramatic way as this vision.

Thank You Jesus for sending the Holy Spirit to teach us all things.

Let Not The Egyptians Say

Karen B. Snyder

Exod 32:7-14

7 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

(KJV)

In prayer this morning, I was thinking on verse 12, which says: Wherefore, should the Egyptians speak, and say, "For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth?"

And I was contemplating our own situation where we have gone from one battle to the next becoming sicker and weaker in our bodies. And I was thinking...is this what the end will be? Will we die here in our apartment being poisoned by deadly methamphetamine chemicals? What glory is there in this? What will the world say when they see that our God has forsaken us?

Neither Jerry nor I have realized the ministry we have prayed and labored so many years toward. We have not seen the fulfillment of visions and promises we know have come from the throne of God directly to us. There are days we are so ill that it takes all our strength to function.

Where is the God who promised to heal us and to deliver us from our enemies? Why is heaven so silent? How many years must we wait for God to bring healing and deliverance? What is it that He needs to do in the refiner's fire with us?

And I realized that more than anything else that I wanted the world to know that my God IS a God of love and healing and deliverance and that He doesn't leave His children to die in the wilderness. That He does not consume us in His wrath and that because of Moses, Christ and all the intercessors from the beginning of time to the present, God remembers his promise to Abraham, Isaac and Israel that their seed will be as the stars of heaven and they shall inherit this land forever. And He repents of His anger toward us. Oh, the mercy of our Lord!

I also see that God's anger was kindled against them because they made a golden calf to worship and sacrifice to, directing their worship and attributing their salvation to it. We seem to think we can rely on our own flesh to "fix" our lives, families and homes. Instead of throwing ourselves upon God and His mercy, we trust in our works of the flesh and rely on our own strength. Thus, we have our own golden calf to contend with, the god of self, and the god of our own strength. God said, "thou shalt have NO other gods before thee".

Thus, His wrath has been kindled against me also, as I struggle to rely on myself to fix everything. If I wash it, can I fix it? What about if I move? What about calling the police? Will the manager do anything about our situation? Can I write my Senator and Representative?

Finally, we run out of options. Relying on the arm of flesh does not work. Now we must rely on the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel to come and deliver us out of our troubles as we face our Red Sea. There is no other way out! Oh, if we would learn this lesson well so that His wrath will never be kindled against us again. And the Egyptians will NEVER be able to say, "For mischief did He bring them out to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth?"

Let the Wheel Roll

THE COMING WHEEL OF REAWAKENING A PROPHETIC WORD FOR THE NORTHEAST OF AMERICA

February 18, 2000

THE NAZARETH STIGMA

I believe the Spirit of the Lord would have us know that He is the one who has allowed the Northeast of America to become as it's reputation says; a hard, dry spiritual place. Not that He issued orders for this to be, but more that He permitted it to happen much in the same way that He permitted Job to be tested.

He has allowed a "Nazareth Stigma" to arise over this area! The byword spoken by many major and well intentioned ministries has been; "Can any good thing come out of the Northeast?" And so, most of their efforts have been focused in other areas of America or the world considered to be more 'fruitful'.

"It has been my purpose to allow this place to become barren even though it was once a prosperous land spiritually. For I am about to visit this place again! When I do, no man will be able to claim the glory because they have avoided the Northeast like the plague for there was no obvious fruit to be seen.

But the fruit that I have been nurturing is only visible to spiritual eyes and is watered from a deep longing in the souls of a few desperate, faithful souls who have cried out to Me continually. I have stood by and watched their hunger grow in the dry, dark places as the enemy of their souls has done his worst to take them from Me. But I have watched over them as a shepherd stands guard over his flock and protected them when the wolf came to rob, steal and destroy.

The time has come! My visitation will not come by a man's method or strategy, but by My Spirit."

THE VISION OF THE BIG WHEEL

I saw a vision of a giant wheel towering above the land and everything in it. It was rolling slowly into the Northeast of America. This wheel had many teeth around its outer rim, like the teeth of a clock's internal gears. There were four thick spokes joining the outer rim to the hub.

God showed me that this huge structure represented THE COMING WHEEL OF REAWAKENING!

The teeth on the wheel represented all the ministries that have heard the call and in obedience, have already, or soon will relocate to the Northeast. Among the teeth were also many ministries from this area who are being sharpened and prepared.

The four thick spokes represented four ingredients that are the fruits of hunger and dryness. They were: PRAYER, PURPOSE, POWER AND PASSION. The hub they were attached to, and revolving around, was called UNITY! Every ingredient of this giant wheel was integrated and interdependent.

PRAYER to capture the attention of God! PURPOSE attained from hearing His heart! POWER to enable the outworking of His purposes! PASSION to move us out from apathy to activity!

UNITY to counteract the Spirit of Independence!

Lord, Let the wheel roll!

Letting Go

Priscilla Van Sutphin

As I watched the end of the Moses movie made by TNT, the Lord Impressed on me, how Moses, despite not being allowed to go on further was asked to pass the torch to Joshua and blessed him, and gave him the command of the Lord to lead his people. Joshua stood long at the side of Moses as a servant.

God at this time is going to be asking some who have held tight to their position of leadership to turn the reins of their churches back over to the Lord Jesus Christ, and to the younger generation. This will not be an easy task, yet as they are obedient when the Lord speaks to them, they will be greatly blessed, especially if they do so without constraint, and with gladness of heart.

"Let these words testify to you, says the Lord, that in this age full of GRACE, that, then I wish you to turn around and support the younger as I LEAD, and as I DID. They will walk in unprecedented power and you will be tempted towards jealousy when you see what I do. Generations have longed to see what you will see ! Set your eyes on ME and loose my church into the hands of the Holy Spirit to lead and guide you. Do NOT set your hearts against the young but help them and serve them. Let them draw on your wisdom.

Great grace will be given those who will rely on ME and NOT on their own opinions or theology. I AM against your man made theology, and I will OPPOSE all that sets itself against MY PLANS and revelation of them, for what to do.

I AM doing a new thing in the earth. Be aware that My glory will empower you to boldness as NEVER before in doing MY will alone. It is because of MY goodness I will give you MY GRACE AND GLORY, NOT because of YOUR goodness ! I ALONE am worthy of all honor and glory. Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. Humble yourselves and I will lift you up .

To those who resist MY wisdom, remember the words of Peter to Ananias, " Why has Satan filled your heart that you should lie to and Attempt to deceive the Holy Spirit?" (Amp) When you don't give control to the Most Holy Spirit, then you are walking in the deception that you can do as YOU like instead of doing what I want you to do ! Do not see this as a minor thing. Remove the thorns of rebellion and idolatry in your heart NOW while you can. Ask ME to come and remove them, and I will heal you and set you free.

On the tail of great power being poured out, the enemy always seeks to destroy those on whom I have poured out My glory. Know that I AM with you and will sustain you till your work on earth is done. Be BOLD, be STRONG, be courageous, be "bravehearts" for the Lord your God is with you ! Build MY CHURCH ! Reach out to the LOST ! Love one another as I have LOVED YOU ! Remember I am with you till the end of all time!

Live for Today

Katie Jordan

January 3, 2000

Thus Saith the Lord;

My people, I tell you not to look to the past; do not keep your eyes on the past; it is gone and should be forgotten. Do not look to the future and worry about the future for none of you were promised a tomorrow.

I want you to learn to live for today, LIVE FOR TODAY. When you arise come to Me, bend the knee to Me, yield to Me, get your eyes set on Me, and your heart attuned to My voice; AND STAY THAT WAY!

In the very difficult days ahead you will find that in reality the hard times will get your priorities straight. When you are forced to forego all worldly pleasure then you will find that there is pleasure in being with Me. As we walk in the garden together (as your song says) you will find there is pleasure and true joy in our fellowship.

Think about these things and meditate upon them for I want you to spend enough time with Me to truly find pleasure in simply being with Me. Remember that I am always here for you to come into My arms and let your joy be full!

Listen for the Roar

Cheryl McGrath

Listen! can you hear it? Does it sound like thunder to you? For the mighty and terrible Lion of the Tribe of Judah has roused Himself and begins to roar. To some it is like a distant rumbling too far off to be of any substance. To others it comes as an unrecognisable sound and one they have never heard or imagined could come from the Beloved Lamb.

"But to those who know Me, says the Lord, My roar arises and resounds throughout their inner hearts. The sound of My roar resonates with bittersweet impact through their spirits, bodies and minds. It is a sound of comfort to those who are Mine, but to those who contend with Me it will strike terror and panic.

For there is coming to My people a holy fear of Me, such as has not been witnessed for many generations. Beware the Lion's roar! For I am both a God of grace and a God of holiness, says the Lord. No longer will I contend with the flesh of man. If you are Mine, then I call you to a separation, a sanctification and a yielding to My Spirit of Burning within your souls. Don't hold back from Me any longer, My people. Yield to the purging of My Spirit and My holy Sword.

Oh, for I love you with an everlasting love, My children! Don't attempt to confine Me within the limits you have set for Me in your lives any longer. You are about to see and hear Me as you have not known Me before. And I will breathe upon you a holy, cleansing fire that will purge you of all that is not Mine in you. You are about to know what it is to fear the Lord, not that you will be afraid of Me, but that you will truly know Me in my holiness and absolute authority. It is time for Me to reveal Myself to My children as the Lion of Judah. So listen now! Lift up your ears for My roar, My little ones, and be not afraid, but be careful! I call you to holiness!"

Everett Triplett

My name is Everett Triplett and I am a servant for the Lord, (a general engineering contractor and a real estate broker), but suddenly; instantly a terrible disaster is upon me. I slip off the eave of a new metal roof and my left arm and my left leg are both shattered and I am in tremendous pain. All I want to do is work hard and give to God's kingdom as He prospers me. Now we know that all things work together for good for those who love the Lord, so I come home from the hospital after three days. The first thing I want to know is "God, where were my Guardian Angels?" "What good can I find in this?" I know that I have been very busy, but now Lord you have my undivided attention. I set my heart to hear God's voice. When I open God's Word, immediately I see a verse in Eze. 4:4 (NIV). "Lie on your Left side, and put the sin of the House of Israel upon yourself". Here I am, Lord, lying on my Left side, in intense pain, under siege with a broken Left arm and a broken Left leg. Amos 3:7 (NIV) says "Surely the Sovereign Lord does NOTHING without revealing his plans to his servants the prophets." He begins to show me what His plans are. Eze. 7:5 (ASV). Says "An end is coming, a UNIQUE DISASTER is coming. Ez. 5:9 says "because of all of your detestable practices I WILL DO TO YOU WHAT I HAVE NEVER DONE BEFORE, THE LIKE OF WHICH I WILL NEVER DO AGAIN!" This coming event is equal in magnitude to the Flood of Noah. But, it is not a flood, an earthquake, a volcano, an asteroid, a Hurricane; it is unique. In Daniel 9:12, (NIV) "...bringing upon us great disaster, under the whole Heaven NOTHING HAS EVER BEEN DONE LIKE WHAT HAS BEEN DONE .to Jerusa1em. Mark 13:19 says "those will be days of distress UNEQUALED FROM THE BEGINNING WHEN GOD CREATED THE WORLD, UNTIL NOW-AND NEVER TO BE EQUALED AGAIN. THESE ARE ALL REFERRING TO THE SAME DISASTER!

I was planning to refinance my house to purchase and develop a commercial property when this sudden and instant disaster occurred. One day when I opened my bible Jer. 45:5 jumps out at me. "Should you then seek great things for yourself? Seek them not. For I will bring disaster on all people, declares the Lord, but wherever you go I will let you escape with your life."

Ez. 1:4 [NIV] says, "I looked and saw a windstorm coming out of the North-an immense cloud with flashing lightning , and surrounded by brilliant light!" The KJV says "a great cloud and a fire infolding itself. This is totally characteristic of an Atomic Bomb. With this in mind, I began to find in three versions of the Bible, (the KJV, NIV, ASV), further evidence that supports this type of a disaster. Ez. 7:18 (KJV) "They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth and horror shall cover them; and shame upon all of their faces, and baldness upon all of their heads." Hair loss is a result of radiation sickness Contaminated water will not permit washing of clothes. It is a horrifying scenario. Isa. 28:19 "The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror." In Ez. 5:1-4 depicts the prophet making himself bald and burning one third of the hair in the fire at the center of the city. Our major cities will be destroyed? Ez. 7:14 (NIV) "though they blow the trumpet and get everything ready, no one will go into battle, for my wrath is upon the whole crowd." Who can fight in a radiation contaminated environment? Or will the concern for loved ones be greater than the call to report for duty? Ez. 3:24 ..."Go shut yourself up in your house,...thou shalt not go out among them." Strangely enough, the instructions to lie down on your left side are preceded by (ASV) Ez. 4:1-4... get a brick, set up camps, put up a brick wall around, build a ramp up to it, then get yourself an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between you and the city, and set your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. THIS IS A SIGN TO THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL. This is a bomb shelter. The instructions that follow are to get for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet and spelt. You will need to have food to eat for 390 days.

Because of the uniqueness of this event, it is easily recognizable, and many of the prophets are foretelling of it. Ez. 4:1-6 corresponds to Isa. 29: 1-6 (NIV) "Woe to you Ariel, Ariel, the city where David settled! Add year to year. (days of the siege correspond to the years of their sin, (390) similarity of words like siege/besiege; camp/encampment; brought low/lie down and thunder (the sound of the bombs exploding) and earthquake (the bomb will shake the earth) and windstorm (a 400 mph wind from the blast) and tempest and the flames of a devouring fire (the internal temperature of the mushroom cloud of the atomic bomb is ten million degrees). Isa. 33:12 (NIV) “The people will be burned as if to lime; vs. 14 says that the sinners of Zion are terrified; trembling grips the godless; “Who of us can dwell with the consuming fire? Who of us can dwell with everlasting burning? The answer is verse 15, the righteous man; verse 16 says that this the man who will dwell on the heights, whose refuge will be the mountain fortress. His bread will be supplied, and his water will not fail him. As fallout covers the land it will contaminate all bodies of water. With time passing, the rains will rinse the ground and carry the lightweight dust/ash that floated for many miles in the atmosphere down into the lower elevations and runoff into streams into rivers into lakes. The best place for survival is at the higher elevations. Mk. 13:14 [NIV] “ When you see the ABOMINATION THAT CAUSES DESOLATION .....let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains”. Ez. 7:16 [NIV] “All who survive and escape will be in the mountains...”.

Isa. 34:8-9 For the Lord has a day of vengeance, a year of retribution, to uphold Zion’s cause. Edom’s streams will be turned into pitch, and her dust into burning sulfur; her land will become blazing pitch!

Many names are used in referring to this same unique disaster. I’ve been told there is 147 different names used in the Old Testament talking about Jesus. When we focus on the description of the nation that God is angry with, you cannot help feeling that the United States is in a heap of trouble. As Shakespeare said “a rose by any other name would still smell the same”. In Rev. 11:8 names are being used not in reference physical places but spiritually speaking; having the same kindred spirit.

Then I think about the verse in Ez. 4:4-5 that says “... lie on your left side and put the sin of the Hs. of Israel upon yourself. You are to bear their sin the number of days you lie on your side. I have assigned you the same number of days as the YEARS of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the house of Israel. I ask myself when did the United States actually get started? In an American high school history book I read about the King of England granting a charter for the first colony of Jamestown in 1609. All previous attempts have failed. The greedy rich Englishmen came seeking gold in the New World. Upon landing they pursued treasure hunting instead of preparing for winter. That winter was harsh and came upon them suddenly. Few survive by the spring of 1610 when three ships full of more Englishmen arrive. It is the first colony that grows and remains established. The history book then says to everyone’s surprise tobacco saves the colony! By 1619 there are 1000 English tobacco farmers in Jamestown. With the tobacco being labor intensive slavery becomes prevalent. THAT WAS 390 YEARS AGO!

As in the dreams of Pharaoh foretelling of Egypt’s coming famine, he dreamt of fat cows and skinny cows, then he laid down a second time and slept and dreamt of the grain, we can see when God has an important message to tell He uses a double emphasis. So it is in Ez.4:6 [NIV] “After you have finished this, lie down again this time on your right side, and bear the sin of the Hs. of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. Now forty years ago we see changes taking place in our country. We have the hippy movement, immorality escalates, drug use spreads, eastern philosophies, yoga, T.M. grow in our predominate Christian culture. Our highest court in the land issues a nation wide decree; your children cannot pray in the schools. During a TV program about the significant changes over the last 100 years, along with man walking on the moon, they mention that in the year 1960 the FDA [ Food and Drug Admin.] approved the birth control pill and it fueled a sexual revolution.

Ez. 8 describes 25 men of the House of Judah between the porch and the altar, they are in the center of God’s house of worship, and they turn their backs on God (THE SUPREME COURT DECREE PROHIBITING PRAYER) and face the east, bowing down to the sun in the east. God is angry. This is the EASTERN RELIGIONS in our land. Next we see (ASV) they have filled the land with violence, and provoked Me repeatedly. For behold they are putting the twig to their nose. THIS IS THE DRUGS; (law enforcement statistics link 90% of violent crimes to drugs) Therefore I indeed will deal in wrath. My eye will have no pity nor will I spare; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not listen to them. THE BABYBOOMERS ARE THE HS. OF JUDAH! The PSYCHIC ADDS are practicing divination throughout the land. Ez. 13:23) You slaughtered my children and offered them up to idols by causing them to pass through. OUR SIN OF ABORTION (ASV Ez. 16:21) You acted more corruptly in all your conduct, you sister Sodom, she had arrogance, abundant food, careless ease, but she did not help the poor. In Rev.11:8 names of Sodom and Egypt are used not in reference to actual places but “spiritually speaking” meaning having the kindred spirit of those places. Isa. 2:6-8 they're fill with the influences from the east, (Yoga, T.M.) ...the land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures...their land is filled with Idols, they worship the work of their hands. Isa. 3:9 They parade their sin like Sodom, they do not hide it. GAY PRIDE PARADE IN RENO NV 1999

By adding year to year we know the day is near and the time is at hand. But Isa.32:8 says “ the noble man makes noble plans; and by noble plans he stands.” “Rise up, you women who are at ease, hear my voice; Give ear to my word, you complacent daughters. Within a year and a few days (390) you will be troubled. O complacent for the vintage is ended, and the fruit gathering will not come. Isa. 32:10. This tells us the time of this terrible day will be before the harvest. Jer. Is full of the same event Ch.4:6 ...I am bringing evil from the north, same as Ezekiel's 1:4...storm wind coming from the north. Jer.6:1...for disaster looms out of the north, even terrible destruction.

It will come in the night. (Jer6:5). The connection is the same, and destruction of atomic proportions. Jer48:44...The year of their punishment, vs. 37...every head is bald every beard cut short, there are gashes on all their hands...; vs. 32...upon the summer fruits and your grape harvest the destroyer has fallen. The end result of all this will be a holy people. See Dan. 12:10. This is the time of distress such as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; (Dan. 12:11) and those days will be a tribulation such as has not occurred since the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will. (Mark 13:19) the sound of the Thunder in Isa. 29:6 is the first seal in Rev. 6:1, followed by the war of the second seal, and the famine of the third seal, and the plague /pestilence of the fourth seal. The fifth seal's souls that were slain for the word of God, ( the church has a ways to go to be the bride without spot or wrinkle) . The sixth seal is atomic destruction..., the seventh seal contains the seven trumpets of intensifying atomic holocaust.

“Listen, I tell you a MYSTERY, (1Cor.15:51) we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, AT THE LAST TRUMPET. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: Death has been swallowed up in victory. Rev. 10:KJV 6-7 “...that there should be time no longer: But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel (LAST TRUMPET), when he shall begin to sound, the MYSTERY of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants, the prophets.” When you posses eternal life; immortality; time becomes irrelevant. Remember the song, ...when the trumpet of the Lord shall sound and time shall be no more, when the saved of the earth shall gather over on the other shore, when the roll is called up yonder I'll be there!

Be ware of the false doctrine, the pre-tribulation rapture tickling of the ear, it is the false doctrine of last days preached by false prophets who will deceive and lead even the elect astray.

The trials of Job are a type and shadow of the righteous in the end times. In one day, all his oxen and donkeys were raided by enemy attackers and his servants killed; fire falls from the sky and burns up his 7000 sheep, and his children are feasting (enjoying the peak of prosperity) at the eldest son's home, a great wind came across the desert and struck the house and all four corners of the house fell and killed everyone in it. Does this have a familiar sound to it? Next Job shaves his head. But in all this he sinned not. He fell to the ground in worship. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the Name of the Lord. Shall we indeed accept good from God and not accept adversity? (Job 2:10) God is requiring the same attitude in His people today. We may very well find ourselves experiencing Job's second trial as it is a symptom of radiation exposure. As in the words of Job we must also be able to say “though He slay me, yet will I serve Him.” After all of this, God blessed Job and gave him twice as much as he had before. Isa. 61:7 NIV states “Instead of their shame my people will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace, they will rejoice in their inheritance; and so they will inherit a DOUBLE PORTION in their land, and everlasting joy will be theirs. Isa. 11:9 ...For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

We find END TIME reference in Dan. 9 : 13 to the law of Moses, that all this (ASV) calamity has come on us. This is Daniel telling us that in the last days the 28th chapter of Deut. comes to pass. Deut 28:24 The Lord will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it shall come down on you until you are destroyed. This is the fallout dust from Atomic bombs and the preceding verses describe the all the symptoms of radiation sickness. Who is the House of Israel? It is the nation of people whose God is the Lord! The end times are nigh upon us. Look around you...what nation on earth is that nation? Who proclaims “IN GOD WE TRUST” on their money? Who is the NATION UNDER GOD, INDIVISIBLE, WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL? What nation is seen as HIGH ABOVE ALL THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH? (Deut. 28:1) You will lend to many nations, and borrow from none (Deut. 28:12) The U.S. is the richest nation on earth. (See Dan. 11:24 & Amos 6:1) Who is the foremost of nations? On WORLD NEWS TONIGHT Peter Jennings said about New York: “Times Square is considered by many to be the center of the Universe”. (12/30/99) God’s word says in Isa. 60:12 “The Nation and the kingdom which will not serve you will perish.”

Now Daniel 8:17 speaks of a vision that concerns the appointed time of the end. The two main players are the ram and the goat. At this time in the world there has been two world powers engaged in a cold war. The description fits the USSR as they advanced to the west as far as East Germany, to the north toward Finland, and to the south into Yugoslavia. They did this as they pleased, and became great.(ASV) The ram has two horns, one longer than the other; the goat has one prominent horn.

As I am confined to my house with injuries, at this time the bombing of Yugoslavia is on the news night and day so I watch and pray. The military experts are frustrated Because the Commander in Chief, Bill Clinton will not take their advice. He insists on only bombing from the air. They are telling him that is not how to conduct an offensive operation, in fact nothing like this has ever been done in all the history of military warfare. It becomes obvious the goat is NATO who comes from the west crossing the whole earth without touching the ground; slams into the ram in a furious rage and knocks him to the ground and tramples him; and the ram cannot defend himself. They are also saying on the news “make no mistake about it, whatever NATO does it is the United States that is doing it, the United States is calling all the shots. The continuous bombing leaves Yugoslavia completely destroyed. At the time I am meditating on this, I open my bible and read Isa. 33:1 “Woe to you, O destroyer, while you were not destroyed; Woe to you , O traitor, you who have not been betrayed! When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed; when you stop betraying you will be betrayed. The next thing you read about in Daniel is the goat gets it’s horn broken off! This will be the United States experiencing it’s long over due punishment for all the vile abominations in our land. When will God’s day of Punishment come? IT IS GOING TO COME WHEN THE HARVEST IS RIPENING ! It will never be done again. It is talking about atomic destruction. Ez.5:9.

Like when a key fits into a lock, it moves the pins or tumblers until they all line up, then the lock turns. In. Dan. 9:2 “I Daniel understood from the scriptures the NUMBER OF THE YEARS which was revealed as the word of the Lord to Jeremiah the prophet for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely seventy years.” In Isa. 23:15, Tyre, a city that all the merchants of the world , whose traders renowned on the earth, the market place of the nations: THIS IS NEW YORK CITY; THE HOME OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE, THE HOME OF THE WORLD TRADE CENTER THAT WAS BOMBED. WE REMEMBER WHAT HAPPENED SEVENTY YEARS AGO. WE SEE THE SAME SKYROCKETING PAPER ECONOMY AND RIGHT HERE IN VS. 17 OF ISA.23 SEVENTY YEARS LATER IT WILL BE A REPLAY.

ADD YEAR TO YEAR ARE THE INSTRUCTIONS OF ISAIAH 29:I

390+1610=2000. 40+1960=2000. 70+1930=2000. 1 DAY=1000YEARS

EZEKIEL 4:5 EZEKIEL 4:6 ISAIAH 23:17 2 PETER 3:8

From ADAM-NOAH=2000YRS. NOAH-JESUS=2000YRS. JESUS-NOW=2000YRS.

6000 YRS. THEN 1000YR. MILLINEUM= 6 DAYS WORK THEN A DAY OF REST

YOU SEE THE SIGNALS ARE ALL LINING UP, WE DON’T KNOW THE DAY OR THE HOUR BUT WE KNOW IT IS TIME

WHEN AMERICA IS BUYING AND SELLING: FEELING SECURE; ENJOYING UNPRECEDENTED PROSPERITY; IT WILL BE SUDDEN AND INSTANT; IN THE MIDDLE OF THE

NIGHT; ATOMIC DESTRUCTION WILL HIT THE CENTER OF THE CITIES; THE LAND WILL BE INVADED, PILLAGED, AND PLUNDERED; THEN VERY SOON GOD' ANGER AGAINST US WILL END AND HIS WRATH WILL BE DIRECTED TO THEIR DESTRUCTION, (ISA.10:25) THEN THE LORD WILL SEND A WASTING DISEASE UPON THEIR STURDY WARRIORS, (ISA.10:16)( radiation sickness.)

SEEK THE LORD ALL YOU HUMBLE OF THE EARTH, WHO HAVE CARRIED OUT HIS ORDINANCES; SEEK RIGHTEOUSNESS, SEEK HUMILITY. PERHAPS YOU WILL BE SHELTERED ON THE DAY OF THE LORD'S ANGER.

IF MY PEOPLE WHICH ARE CALLED BY MY NAME WILL HUMBLE THEMSELVES AND PRAY; SEEK MY FACE AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS, THEN WILL I HEAR FROM HEAVEN AND WILL FORGIVE THEIR SIN AND HEAL THEIR LAND. 2CHR. 7:14. THE LAND IS GOING TO BE IN NEED OF A HEALING.

THEY WILL BEAT THEIR SWORDS INTO PLOWSHARES AND THEIR SPEARS INTO PRUNING HOOKS. NATION WILL NOT TAKE UP SWORD AGAINST NATION, NOR WILL THEY TRAIN FOR WAR ANY MORE. PRAISE GOD IT WILL BE PEACE ON EARTH FOREVERMORE. ISA. 35 AND A HIGHWAY WILL BE THERE CALLED THE WAY OF HOLINESS. THE REDEEMED OF THE LORD SHALL RETURN AND COME WITH SINGING, AN EVERLASTING JOY SHALL BE ON THEIR HEADS AND THEY SHALL OBTAIN GLADNESS AND JOY, AND SORROW AND SIGHING SHALL FLEE AWAY! THE CHURCH WILL BE THE BRIDE; THE WEDDING FEAST IS GETTING READY. THEN HOSEA 2:16 "IN THAT DAY," DECLARES THE LORD "YOU WILL CALL ME 'MY HUSBAND' YOU WILL NO LONGER CALL ME 'MY MASTER' THE BRIDE WILL BE THE WIFE! BEHOLD THE TABERNACLE OF GOD IS WITH MEN, AND HE WILL DWELL WITH THEM AND THEY SHALL BE HIS PEOPLE; AND HE WILL WIPE AWAY EVERY TEAR FROM THEIR EYE; THERE WILL NO LONGER BE DEATH; THERE WILL NO LONGER BE MOURNING OR CRYING; OR PAIN; FOR THE FORMER THINGS ARE PASSED AWAY, BEHOLD I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW !!!

Lifted Up into the 3rd day Glory

Gloria Shepherd

9/17/00

I say to you child, I want you to come unto me with a heart of total surrender this day. I want you to surrender as willing sacrifices of love and obedience to heed my voice this day. I require free will offerings in this day. You must want to offer yourselves as willing sacrifices before me in order for this work to begin. It is in that sacrifice of willingness to obey me in giving up of all self will the flesh be crucified and be removed from you. There can not be any glory without the suffering and the willing sacrifice of the flesh to die at the cross. No flesh can enter into this place of glory. For it is in that habitation of glory that you will know my true heart and desires for you in this day.

First you must surrender as willing vessels coming to the cross and dying to the flesh and all self. For no corruption can enter into this place, for it is holy.

After all self has died then come lay your heart upon the altar of consuming fire, so I may burn up all that remains that is not of me in you. Out of that place, I will lift you up into the 3rd day of my glory and rest. For only in that place, can you know my true heart. It is a place where I will do the work in you and through you as you are obedient to follow my heart's desire and plan for this day through you. You cannot know my heart without entering into the Holy Place. For it is only in that place, where you are one with me, for all your soulish and selfish desires have been removed from you. No flesh can stand in this place and live. Only those who are fully given over to total obedience out of love can enter into this place. You cannot know my heart's desires, without entering into this place. It is in this 3rd day rest will all things be accomplished for the kingdom because of my work in my children who come into this place. This is a new day, for in this day, all of man's work will cease by his own hands, and I will do the work through my children who have been obedient to me to enter into this place.

Lightening and Judgment

Rose Everett

On three separate occasions over several days time, I saw lightening come from behind me and momentarily light up the area around me. After the third time, I asked The Lord what this meant.

The three lightening flashes are sent to you as a warning of things to come. Do not look behind you for the source of the lightening. Although you saw it appear to be coming from behind you, you cannot find the source. It is I who send the lightening.

This is a warning of tribulation. This is a warning of coming danger. This is a warning of a mighty storm. The storm is even now on the horizon. I AM shaking not only MY people, but also the whole earth.

I come in judgment because the world has failed to heed MY warnings and turn from their sinful ways. Even My Church has turned from worshipping and serving ME to worshipping and serving idols.

My warning is for you who abide in ME, so that you are not caught off guard, but remain in ME even as the storm rages. I AM your shield against the storm. Remain in ME and be safe! Though the storm rages around you, you will continue in MY Peace. As those around you witness your peace in the midst of the storm, they shall run to ME and repent of their sins. In this will I be glorified, and many will be saved!

As I live my life on this earth,
I've looked to Yeshua to help me walk strong in Him
I've asked for His nature and His character,
That His glory would shines bright
For all to see

As I live my life on this earth,
I've prayed that Yeshua would mold me and shape me
That His strength and His life would fill me
With His passion, and consuming fire
To understand the relationships He has brought into my life

To see beyond the present situations,
I've cried out for His Word and His Wisdom
I've learned to submit my life to the Master builder,

He has given me His vision and His purpose,
To build His house
According to His plans

Which He gave to me
As I walked through the doors
Of prayer

Down upon my knees
I humbly asked Yeshua...

To make me a person that would walk in His love, Knitting my heart to His

To make me a person who can forgive the offenses
That come my way

To give me His joy when I'm feeling rather down,
To run to Him
To press in to hear the truth...
He has for me
And not run to other's to hear a truth
From man's wisdom

I've come before the King of Kings
He has helped me and taught me to...
To bear all things,
Believe all things,
Hope in all things,
Endure all things
To walk in charity and the fruit of the Spirit
That His love would fill the temple

The Lion Not The Lamb

Olie Carden

I was caught up for a moment and I saw the Lord in Heaven and He changed the way He was sitting on the Throne, He moved around. This had never occurred to me before that the Lord actually moved around while He sat on the throne. I asked Him why did you move on the throne? He said "it was natural to move around in any chair." But this time He had also changed His position on the Throne as He sat there. The Lord is preparing the Heavenliness for His next move.

I sensed in the Spirit it was the shifting from the Lamb to the Lion. Now a lamb will harvest the bounty of any pasture. They have no regard to the marking of territories they graze where the grazing is good. But a Lion marks territories. They physically mark out areas they claim. They lay hold and claim that which they claim.

The Lord said, "The last time I came they missed Me because they were looking for the conquering Lion. Many will miss my coming again. They wait for the Lamb to return. But this time I come as the lion." He asked me, "Who do you expect to come to you in church while you pray, the lamb or the lion?" I said nothing knowing I expected the lamb. The Lord said "My people whom I have always loved think of Me as the lamb. But the Lion is appointed to return. I was sacrificed for the redemption of man and my blood shed upon the earth, but when I return it will be as the lion."

Blessings
Olie Carden

Love Covers, Mercy Triumphs

Stephen Morris

The Lord says to His Church:

The works of the fear mongering false prophets, those in the church and those in the world have been revealed and their works of darkness have been exposed in the light. The enemy has used those who succumbed to this spirit of fear and utilized it as a profiteering device in order to line their own pockets with ill-gotten gains from those who would listen to their false gospel.

But because many continued to herald the truth and to stand in faith and heed the words of warnings of those who spoke truth and applied their talents and spent their money to overcome the problems that have existed, now the fear and its agents have once again lost ground. For those things which have happened upon the earth in the natural are those things that continue to happen in the spiritual realm in the lives of the billions of people upon the earth.

Will you now continue to follow the teachings and the advice of those who have prophesied falsely unto you even while the fruits of your own foolishness continue to abide with you? Will you now hearken unto those who speak the truth in love, and who speak of things that are of eternal value and not those things that are of fleshly desire?

For many in My Church have heaped unto themselves teachers who have tickled their ears and who, even now, attempt to justify their foolish words to their disappointed followers. Those who continue to prophesy truthfully of that which I have spoken unto them, will you ignore them now? Or will you begin to measure their words by what I have spoken in My word and through My word, My Son Jesus Christ, and which I continue to teach you by My Holy Spirit? Will you continue in error or will you seek truth? Will you examine those things that are paraded before you as of Me, or will you continue to gullibly accept them because it is easier to accept them than to evaluate them and examine them for evidence of their truth?

For the time is coming, and is now upon you, when your ability to know My truth, and to know My word, and to know My voice shall be a standard in your life by which you choose life or death. Those things that go into your ears must be judged, and they must be correctly discerned as to their truthfulness. You must choose, you must make the choice of what you believe and what you attribute to the works of the flesh or the works of the devil. For it is by your choices, by your decisions, that you will continue to ensure your presence in My Kingdom.

There are many now who are back-pedaling from what they have publicly declared. But be warned, Church, although they are back-pedaling, I do not consider them backsliders. You are to obey My instructions and My word and restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness and meekness. For by your decisions, by your choices, you also could have erred by declaring that which is not of Me by failing to pray and seek My counsel and My Holy Spirit.

So let not the things that have occurred be unto you an excuse for hostility and bitterness and a wall of division between you and those who have so erred. But declare the truth of My Word and bring correction into My house and continue to be one body and go forward with the experiences that have been endured and build and continue to build the Kingdom of God, My Kingdom, here upon this earth. Continue to pursue My righteousness, not yours, but Mine, that I may continue to add unto you the things that are needful for you.

For love covers a multitude of sins, and may in fact cover the sins of those of you who think you have not sinned by your thoughts in judging the deeds of others. Be merciful unto those that you judge to be in error, for in My Kingdom, mercy triumphs over judgment.

Continue, living stone upon living stone, to build My Church. For My Church shall be mightily used in the face of more fear that the enemy would attempt to bring upon you. Know then, that the enemy has been a defeated foe and that he is under your feet, the feet of My Body on earth, the Body of My Son, Jesus Christ. Go in peace and remember that you will be known as My disciples by your love for one another.

Jonah Don't Go That Way

Kerry W. Knorr

Locust Warriors

Kerry W. Knorr

Drinking of spirits that come from a bottle, unmotivated to produce and a tendency to doddle, under siege but unaware, dabblers drink from bottles in their underwear, and stare at the task at hand.
This task requires originals instead of copies that are canned, and crammed down the throats of endless generations.
Their calling is the revelation, full manifestation;
of the sons of the Living God.

Rubber stamps of families and generations, cannot stop this holy nation;
from emerging with a force,
that changes the course,
of this world and it's revolution:
changes natural laws like gravity: that are institutions, and shakes the core of things.
It's not so much what an individual brings,
but this army is sons of the Living God!

They are sons and they are real,
not imaginary, they're the authentic deal, and they liberate double portion prophets: twice muzzled.
They are the missing pieces of creation's puzzles.
Their identity defies natural order.
Behavior hovers right there at the border; between rebellion and righteousness.
Their function is to make order of Satan's mess, and restore nature to the nature of the House of God.

Fighting through cob webs that mess with my thinking; focused man defies tokes with worshipful plinking;
standing in the gap,
suffering the handicap,
of bona fide vision without knowing how it all fits;
into today's reality mix.
Like deer caught in the headlights of shining glory, daily trials unfold bits and pieces of the story; about how common people emerge as heirs of heaven.

Who can ascend to the most holy place?
Who can stand there and look into God's face?
The one with clean hands, our hands we consecrate.
Those with pure hearts, with repentance we meditate.
Very much opposed;
to pepper shakers with small holes,
they revolutionize traditional thinking;
with playful activity that appears to be dinking, but is the empowering of the children of God.

Give holy fear to the fearless.
Amalekite eyes are completely tearless, and doors of heaven are closed to them.
Bountiful prosperity stems;
from fear of the Most High;
Lord of the earth, Lord of the sky.
For from him and for him all things have their being.
This army has ears that are hearing and eyes that are seeing, as children learn the ways of their Father.

David's flight from Saul, makes friends of Philistines and all;
of their cute little cousins, slime balls invade God's private places by the dozens, like cockroaches who flee from light; hireling mercenaries with no regard for the plight;
of wives and children,
and husbandmen;
of the flocks and household of God.

Son's anointing has chinks in excellence, maybe has to drive a car that has a few dents.
The beat of their heart is to worship his name, sometimes take up a cross by accepting ill gained blame.
Laying down lives for the love of a friend, willfull minds fall on the rock in order to bend.
Declaration of yielded tongues and lips, bring life to tormented minds on crash trips, and sons rise in adoration of their Father.

What kind of guilty embrace, fails to look full into his face?
See the love in his eyes,
that defies the enemy's lies, constantly edifies the glorious treasure inside;
fleshly pots, earthen vessels, heart's cries;
unto Most High: groanings and expressions, that cannot speak, but cancel transgression; against sonship, and selling of inheritance through adoption by the Living
God.

We struggle with appetites and lust of the flesh.
The seed of Abraham and vessels of clay must mesh.
They stop and share water from springs that give life, agreement in Beersheba brings an end to the strife;
between children of promise and mere beasts.
Partake of the fellowship of Tabernacle Feast!
Raise shouts of triumph throughout the promised land.
Receive the anointing that allows you to stand;
before his shining presence; as heirs and sons.

Locust Warriors in battle array, come meet with Yahway, in his presence to play.
Drink in of his glory, learn the sound of his voice.
Seeds sown in Judah with sounds that are choice;
reap of the benefits of harvest without measure.

Cups running over with bountiful treasure;
they learn true value of gold and of stones;
mere gifts sown into valley of dry bones;
where you shall be my people, and I shall be your God.

Jonah Don't Go That Way
Kerry W. Knorr

Jonah, don't go that way;
go and tell Ninevah what God has to say.
Where there is a will, there is a whale;
three days in the stomach makes your skin turn pale.
Oh man of God please guard your steps;
go and deliver Ninevah from sin and death.
Every man that lives, does so by the word of the Lord.
Fail to obey it, you could die by the sword, or by a fish be swallowed,
or crushed by a tree that is hollowed, or some such silly thing as that.
Obedience is truly where it is at.
When God shows mercy, why resist him?

Jonah don't go that route;
God doesn't care, go ahead and pout.
Take your place, do your deed;
wicked men of Ninevah, your words will heed.
You, Jonah become a sign.
Your attitude and effectiveness signal a time line;
like in the days of Noah, compassion divine.
Righteous indignance and condemnation;
dissolve in obedience and delivers whole nations, as in the place where it is said: "They are not my people";
sons gather, who need no steeples.

Yeah, Ol' Jonah is pretty much a law unto himself, thinks he can go his own way by what he owns, with wealth.
This kind of thing happens when you're used to getting your way;
telling instead of asking, in your closet when you pray.
Pain, affliction and sailors are your teachers; complaint of Almighty: "He doesn't listen to me either!"
So why would another prophet expect him to hear?
Jonah has his own ideas about Ninevah's atmosphere;
and it doesn't involve any grace!
It doesn't seem probable to him; that Ninevites have a place.
Data in his briefcase indicates the wrong race, and to bless them would abase;
the holiness of God! Wouldn't it?

Preconceived ideas and a willingness to curse;
stiff necked prophet expects nothing but a hearse.
What a surprise when there is mercy!
Deliverance for sinners is a source of great controversy!
It would be much more tidy if he would just kill them all.

But nOOooooo, he interrupts my vacation plans with an irrevocable call; to preach salvation to pagans with stars in their eyes and worshippers of comets.
The very thought of their sinful lives gags me, I want to vomit;
Yet rebellion turns me into such.
Waves, sailors, fish and God's touch;
spit me out on wet sand of humiliation.

This whole thing becomes an occasion, when willful heart bends from external persuasion, and a reassessment of priorities.
It wouldn't be so bad if he'd just kill me.
Three days of fish guts, and I'm still alive!
I suppose he'd protect me from committing suicide!
It seems God will have his way.
Despite my better judgment, I'd better speak what he wants to say.
Because God won't relent,
I'll tell Ninevah to repent;
I doubt it'll do any good anyway.

He makes up a booth, an observatory; wants to see for himself if there is something extraordinary;
about all of the attention God has paid.
Distracted by shade, a worm and God's challenge to tirade.
"You're angry with me for what you did not do?"
"You're mad because I show mercy to others through you?"
"What attitude! Just sit there and stew."
What a revelation! God almighty will do what he wants to do!

Loose Truth In The Heavens!

Alan Brooks

TO THE CHURCHES OF AMERICA:

The Lord would say Ephesians 6:12. It is time to pray, pray, and then pray some more, for this next two month season is a very important time for your country says the Lord. I am calling you to prayer. To pray for Godly leaders and to pray that the Glory of the Lord would shine forth from America. To not pray for or against anyone, but to pray for the truth to brought forth in the heavens. To demand that those things which are covered will become uncovered. To demand that the hidden darkness will become exposed to the light. To call forth the revival in the heavenly realms. To loose truth over this country.

THE TRUTH MAY MAKE MANY ANGRY

For I desire truth in the inward parts says the Lord, and I desire for the hidden things which keep revival from coming be exposed. For the Lord is about to release truth to this country, and the truth shall set you free. The truth may make many people angry, but it will set your country free. (I see a giant hypodermic needle with "truth" written on it and the Lord is injecting it into the veins of our country. And many people will be angry at the Lord about it). And the truth will start the river of God flowing. (I see a waterfall cascading over the steps of truth) And America will become a place where "nothing is hidden" and truth will reign.

ANGEL WAITING OT LOOSE THIS FLOOD OF TRUTH OVER AMERICA

For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God. I have given you the authority. It is now time to rise up and use it. (Lastly, I see a picture of a large pipeline with an angel at the end just waiting to loose this flood over America)

Finally, the word for you is "LOOSE TRUTH IN THE HEAVENS." Thousand Oaks, California

Lord Of The High Places

Luz Cintron

Time Of Prayer

While in prayer this week the Lord showed me in the Spirit all the High Places over the world, they were made a bright white and I understood they were made Holy, sanctified by the Lord. At once something inside almost said: but in the Old Testament, they were places of sin and rebellion, what are You saying?

Then He showed me that He is to take this places from all over the world and take them by force if necessary and transform all of them into Holy Places in which His Name will be honored and revered. . And then it was spoken to me in a visual way, that HE was going to reveal Himself as the Lord of the High Places, destroying all that was before and creating a new thing according to Who He is, right there, in the middle of places where rebellion once stood opposed to Him. They were to become standards Of Holiness unto Him.

Even though it still felt funny I found myself calling unto Him: "Lord Of The High Places, Most Holy One, Arise right there and establish Your ruling and Your Kingdom. Lordship on us, and make us Holy as You are Holy, that Your standard be unrivaled and sustained by Your own Might and Power in the midst of Your enemies. In the midst of rebellion, let Your Name stand revered in each and every one of those places, unconquered, unsundered to the attacks of your enemies, invincible as You are, because You Are." Amen,amen.

Blessed be the Lord our God and Savior for He never changes and in the fullness of times the revelation of His heart is coming upon this earth to cover it as a blanket covers the bed and envelope every heart that is willing to receive, every mind that is open in its heart to understand. There is no power, upon this earth there is no power that can oppose Him, no one can stop Him, He is coming to bring into completion the work He has begun.

Arise, Arise for battle Oh Mighty Arm of War, come descend upon us with a shout and with vengeance, deliver Your people who have patiently waited upon You. And the Spirit Of Might and Power will be seen in His Glory. Holiness unto the Lord! And blessed is he who stands for His Lord until the shedding of blood, but there is only one blood and all life comes from it, the blood of the Lamb Of God, holy blood upon us all. Blessed be the Faithful One.

In humbleness and meekness He will unfold His power upon all He created by His Word, and His enemies will be confused that such a meek and humble Spirit brandishes like a sword upon His thigh power above all powers to destroy, to plunder, to pluck, to crush until nothing stands before Him, until He bring back into nothing what from nothing was created. It is also with Him power to lift, to revive, to build and establish, to stand and overcome and there is no struggle, for no one can struggle with Him. Fear is afraid of Him and the strength flees from the Tyrant at His sight and their faces become pale with the paleness of death.

Holy One Of Israel, come, come, come. Burn and consume us with Your presence until You are all that is left in us. We belong to You.

Maranatha my Lord, for all those who have waited patiently while they have been scorned but never gave up the Hope Of Israel. Maranatha my Lord for all those of poor spirit and weak hands that have endured being broken just to let your power be perfected in their weaknesses. Maranatha merciful one for the sake of your flock. Hosanna!

The Lord for Himself, Not His Things

Linda Harrington

I saw a large snake with lumps and bumps like he had just eaten boxes or packages "things". He was fat and lethargic but totally aware, not really focused on the people before him but on what was coming to them that he could devour. He was weaving in and out among the people as they were looking at one another. The people changed; their focus from earthly things, each other, their wants and desires toward heaven seeking the Father's heart, His wants and desires. It was during this focus change that the darkness became light and the snake vomited out all that he had eaten. He could only operate in darkness and not see what was taking place between the Father and His children as the light blinded him. Prayer caused the snake to vomit up all that he had stolen but it was not automatically restored to all the people. There were people seeking the packages and there were others to whom it looked as though the packages were seeking after them.

The enemy (snake) is ever ready to devour us but he will be quite content to stay on the scene to devour or consume that which the Lord has destined for us.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: 1 Peter 5:8 (KJV)

We can become so focused on the things of the Lord that our relationship with him becomes biased in what He has for us to do; what He wants for us to have; what He has said that we miss ministering unto Him the glory due His name. We are created in His image, His Spirit; we are created to worship Him. If our focus is not totally on worshipping the Lord we will find ourselves worshiping His things and His people, what they say and what they do. The Lord is calling us totally unto Himself. The doing of the Lord's work is to be an outflow of our relationship with Him. He is Jealous of our worship.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matt 6:33 (KJV)

Our Father has called us to behold Him face to face and dwell in His presence. He has called us first unto Himself. His love and blessings do not hinge on what we do but on who we are in Him and who we allow Him to be in us. Most of our prayers are centered on what we desire, what we are doing and having our needs met. When we are seeking first the Lord our prayer agendas will change; our focus will be on giving honor, glory and worship to Him not reminding Him of what His word says about what He has promised.

The Father by the death of Jesus Christ has translated us out of the kingdom of darkness into His kingdom of light. It is in His light that we are to live and move and have our being. In His light as children of the light the enemy has no access as he is literally blinded by the light of the beauty of holiness and the glory of God that is revealed when He is worshipped.

For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. Eph 5:8-

We have authority over the enemy and can cause him to give up the things he has stolen but do we have what it takes to possess them? God has called us to possess our possessions. How do we do that? By walking in the light we have the Fruit of the Spirit.

The "things" of the Lord can be sought after but it is His heart that we seek after Him. By seeking after Him he will add all things to us. The blessings are attracted to the Fruit of the Spirit. The evidence of the Fruit of the Spirit in our lives will attract all the "things" of God like a magnet.

We can spend our time seeking to have His things come to us or we can focus our seeking on Him and He will cause all things to be added unto us. The world will not be drawn to the Lord by what we say but by what we demonstrate. When His kingdom is operating in us and through us He will be shown forth to be who He is. The world has heard our words, our prayers and our "stuff" it is time for us to become the word and demonstrate the truth.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. Gal 5:22-23 (KJV)

When we become the Fruit of the Spirit the world will know that we have been in His presence. When His presence is seen in our lives we will have a platform to speak forth His words. It is not enough to do the things of the Lord or to have the things of the Lord but the world will only be affected when we become as He is by knowing Him and by being known by Him.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Matt 7:22-23 (KJV)

It is by the fruit in our life that gives credibility to what we say. We can say many things in the name of the Lord but it is by His fruits that we are known. How are we known to our neighbors, our bank, or co-workers, our landlords, distant relatives, our creditors, etc? It is only being known and knowing that we become all that He created. Are we known by what we say; talk about or are we known by the "things" of the Lord that are demonstrated in our lives?

Lightning, Thunder, & Mount Zion

Vicki Camp

Feb. 29th., '00 I had a short dream/night vision. In the dream I was observing a large mountain somewhat in the distance. The mountain was dark and not distinct, more like I was only seeing the outline, as the sky was dark with storm cloud cover.

Then I heard thunder clap VERY loud. Some brief time passed and then came a huge lightning bolt - many forked. But the main big bolt was aiming for a direct hit on the upper 1/3 (approx.) area of this mountain. The lightening shot crosswise across the sky at about mountain top level. But instead of "striking" the mountain, the lightening did not connect to "ground" but swirled around, dividing up and going both directions the circumference of the top part of this mountain. Even in the dream I knew this was so odd - not normal lightning, and then too this giant lightning bolt did not dissipate and was never spent, but kept on flowing across the sky and then around and around the top portion of the mountain. repeatedly Thundering and lightening, illuminating and fire swirling.

As I was semi-awake, The Lord spoke to me then. I remember His words of instruction had to do with 'time' -- 'appointed time'. He was speaking and showing me that during a storm, there is a space of time between the lightning strike and then the clap of thunder.& that this time space 'length' was in relation to how close the storm is to the person that is seeing and hearing ( In a natural storm). But in my dream this natural phenomena was reversed (?), and the loud thunder came first, and then the lightning.

"Look and see. When My Voice thunders forth from My Mouth there is a space of time before the Lightning's of God show forth to you, in My paths appointed. A space of time, before you see the reality and truth of My power Word when I send it forth. When I speak both My Lightening bolts and Thundering flow out in unison. This 'time space' you see and hear, my child, are only in direct relation to how close you find yourself to my Throne Presence where My lightning's and thundering's are of origin.

Come now to My mountain and be engulfed and encircled. Do not stand afar off gazing, for this is where My heart is, this is where I AM, this is where My power and authority are to be transposed to you fully. Come righteously with My blood covering, my child, for you know that there is no other way to safely approach My Glory of the Heights.

This is the hour to trek forward and upward, not looking on in fear from a distance, but stepping lively, even as ones who walk bravely with feet ignited of the Fire of My Spirit, on wings of My Holy coals of enabling, in determined haste to the goal. I AM your goal, and the time and Our appointment is very soon now. For indeed My Word has already thundered forth from My Mouth, and My Voice of power will never be spent and will never dissipate, but flows forth eternally.

Come to the mountain and pitch your tent of dwelling in the High Places, and I will meet with you there and We will tabernacle together. This is My desire and this I have decreed from the times of old. Hear Me now, Look and see, and then come to the Mountain top."

"For you have not come to the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness and the tempest, and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that the word should not be spoken. ('And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.'). But you have come to Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem." Heb. 12:18 - 22a

I believe I heard the thunder first in the dream as we humans often hear His Word firstly, but only see the reality later. The human 'time space' we experience in our reality .and God was telling me that in actuality they flow forth from Him in unison. thunder / lightning power Word. One partial quote from a Prophet friend I shared this with: ".calling us closer to the throne room (Most Holy Place, Most Holy Faith). The closer we come to the center of His will and purpose it will be like the birthpangs, coming closer together; the Lightning and the Thunder, until all is one. That's what I see in this."

"The Lord your God in your midst, The Mighty One, will save; He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing." - Zeph. 3:17

The Living Stones of David

Jay Atkinson

June 21, 2000:

Remember the story of David and Goliath? Ever since you were a child.

David picked up five stones from the brook. He only needed one. The unity of the Five-Fold Ministry of Prophets, Pastors, Teachers, Evangelists and Apostles are in the arsenal of the Lord as the five stones of young David. The Giant Killers of this unity are about to rise up to do battle with the strongholds of satan. The Philistines have already gathered their armies, they have prepared their mighty men of war to come against the Lord's anointed. Why do they imagine such a vain thing? Pride, control, fleshly leadership, their authority is being threatened by upstart nobodies being prepared for revival and they are unable to throw their crowns at the feet of Jesus without a fight.

The Philistines had a champion in Goliath. All decked out with his helmet of brass and armor so great, this giant needed another to bear his shield. Goliath called out to the whole camp of Israel "Why are you dressed in battle array? Choose a man among you and let him come down to me."

Our man is Jesus and we are His army.

David, the son of Jesse was a pastor feeding his sheep. The war has already begun as this child is called to the trenches to feed his brethren. All Israel feared this Giant but not so this lad after God's own heart, he went to the King - "Let no man's heart fail because of him, your servant will go and fight this Philistine."

A helmet of brass was given David and metal armor and a great sword. It was not needed then and it is not needed now. All David needed was the staff of a shepherd and a slingshot. We already have the armor of God, the helmet of salvation and the breastplate of righteousness. Our feet have been prepared with the gospel of peace and our loins gird about with truth. With the sword of the spirit and the shield of faith, we do battle with the giants of the adversary, not the army of the Philistines. We need not stain our swords with flesh and blood because we have the power and authority of the Holy Spirit to bring down these strongholds in the heavenlies and cast out the powers of darkness.

With the staff in his hand, David went to the brook and took five smooth stones. We as precious living stones have been to the waters of eternal life and even now are being prepared for the victory to come.

Not by power, not by might but by My Spirit saith the Lord. Judgment is Mine. You are about to do battle with your minds, with your hearts and with your spirits, not with swords and spears and armor of iron but of My love. The prayer of faith is rising up with one voice unto Me to empower you and send you into battle and My army is being lifted up into the heavenlies. Arise, My people and shine, for your deliverance is near. I AM smoothing out the stones of My manifest sons.

One shot in the head - one stone and the mighty Giant falls. Not so difficult. Goliath had his armor and a great sword but he was vulnerable at the point of our strength; we have the Seal of God in our forehead to protect us. Just like David, we desire to rebuild the temple for the Lord to dwell in but we will be allowed, for we are not warriors of the flesh but of the spirit. We are the army of the restitution of all things, to build up Israel even as an army of infidels seeks to tear us down.

The champion of the Philistines lost his head. How? His own sword was used against him and the Philistines were routed. The edges of our swords are truth in love that divides soul and spirit for the lost, not to rise up against our brothers and sisters that come out to fight against us but to pray for them and get on with kingdom business. Our King has already won the war for us, we only need to gather in the spoils. Hallelujah. The Lord inhabits the praises of His people; we exalt your name, Jesus. Sanctify us and fill us with your spirit.

Let Us Make Us a Name

Bill Somers

Luke 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

Luke 14:29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

Luke 14:30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish

A recent article published here [End Time Prophetic Vision] by Mary Koons ended with a quote from Genesis and a closing comment by Mary. I wish to take up where she left off and share some further insights the Lord has granted me.

Gen 11:1 And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

Gen 11:2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

Gen 11:3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

Gen 11:4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

Gen 11:5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

Gen 11:6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

Gen 11:7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound (mix up, confuse) their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

Gen 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

Gen 11:9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; (meaning "confusion-by mixing"), because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

(Note - I felt STRONGLY that the Lord was impressing upon me that what is "really" represented here is a "pseudo-church" verses HIS TRUE CHURCH - who "will" speak the same language, and which will be built of "HIS LIVING STONES," and NOT "man-made brick!") '

Quoted from:

Confusion By Mixing

What really caught my attention here was the idea that Babel is a type of the pseudo-church; and the definition of 'Babel' as "confusion by mixing". You see confusion by mixing means something special to me.

Several years back, I went through a time of intensely studying the teachings of another Christian denomination. Being both amazed and appalled by some of what I had read, my heart cry to the Lord was to this effect. Lord, how can they have such precious nuggets of truth mixed in with such awful errors? He replied instantly with a rhema word that shocked me and has stayed with me ever since, making up a key part of my understanding.

"Do you think your doctrine is any better?"

Well this really blew me away. I figured we were light years ahead of this other group in our understanding of scripture and doctrinal matters. But from the Lord's viewpoint we really weren't any better! [It's the easiest thing in the world, for a Christian, to see the speck in your brothers eye.]

So I came to see that in any denomination you care to name, the teachings are a mixture; a mixture of God's truth and man's wisdom [error]. No wonder we have confusion!

It's almost as if God had said 'Go to, let us go down, and there confound (mix up, confuse) their Doctrine, that they may not understand one another's teachings.'

Now if we see Babel as a type of pseudo church, [after all Babel = Babylon!] then the confusion and division that follows is a type of denominationalism or sectarianism.

I think we can generalize even more. I see Babel as a type of religion itself. The patterns we see in Babel are common to all religions and not just Christian ones. That is, all religions tend to have sects and subgroups. All forms of religion are under the same curse, confusion by mixture leading to divisions among them.

Let's throw in one more grand sweeping generalization. Babel is the confusion that comes by mixing truth and error; it is Babylon; it is religion itself; it is being, or seeking to be, under the law; it is any turning away from fellowship with God and trying to earn salvation by your own efforts; it is self righteousness; it's the letter of the law, which worketh death; it is the tree of knowledge of good and evil; it is the fig tree. Can it ever bear fruit?

[John 1:48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.]

Let us make us a name

If we look at the passage from Genesis, one of their motivations there is expressed as "Let us make us a name". This same motivation is present in any religion or religious group you can find.

This very idea is present in the word 'denomination'. Its derived from Latin where 'nomine' is the word for 'name'. We use the word nominate or nomination when we select our political candidates.

So a denomination is a group that is known by their name. Better yet, it's a group that desires to be known by their name, even if that name is 'non-denominational'!

1 Cor 1:11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

1 Cor 1:12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

Now these contentions between religious groups are rooted in pride.

Prov 13:10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

And that pride comes from what they think is their special knowledge.

1 Cor 8:1 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

But we see that their special knowledge is their unique doctrine, which is really truth mixed with error i.e. confusion. Then the pride is shown [manifested] in this desire they have to 'Let us make us a name.'

A False Promise

Another parallel to religion is seen by considering carefully this phrase: ". . . let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven . . . ."

The notion that the top may reach into heaven speaks of a man made structure with the promise of getting to heaven by your own effort. But of course that promise is a false promise.

Heb 10:4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

These people were building on the basis of a false promise. That the tower may reach heaven. Religion operates on a False Promise. That if you follow their rules you will get to heaven. It's sort of like this false promise:

Gen 3:4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

Gen 3:5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

Let us build us a city

We see the Babelites [Babylonians?] desiring to build their own city. Babel used man made brick, that is man's efforts instead of the living stones from which the temple of God is built. They are like the Galatians who desired to be under the law.

Gal 3:23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

Gal 3:24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

Gal 3:25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

Rom 3:20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

But the Law [religion] was our schoolmaster till faith came. In Hebrews 11 we read of the heroes of faith who sought a better dwelling.

Heb 11:7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

Heb 11:8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

Heb 11:9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

Heb 11:10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Here desiring to be under the law, religion, is likened to wanting to build your own city. But faith, which is knowing, hearing and obeying The Lord, is to seek after a city already built, a heavenly city prepared by God. As Abraham, the father of faith, who lived in tents, not settling for men's cities for he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Heb 11:16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

A Stupid Idea

Another point is that the very idea of a tower reaching into heaven is impossible. It should have been obviously impossible. It should have been viewed as obviously a stupid idea. But it wasn't. This indicates that at this time it may have been possible to fool all of the people all of the time.

How were they all fooled?

The same way it is still done today. You start with something everyone agrees with and pull them in.

It works like this:

OK everybody, lets make bricks!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

OK everybody, lets kiln dry the bricks!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

OK everybody, lets use slime for mortar!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

OK everybody, lets use the brick for stones!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

OK everybody, lets make a city!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

OK everybody, lets make a tower!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

OK everybody, lets make the tower reach up to heaven!

Everybody goes along, saying: Yea, great idea!

And nobody stops and says 'wait a minute, that's impossible!'

So they are all led astray like sheep.

Isa 53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; . . .

So The Tower of Babel remains a monument to man's folly. This is in the natural and the spiritual, since Babel represents religion. And religion is man's folly.

It is man turning away from the tree of life and seeking after the tree of knowledge. It is man falling for false promises of special knowledge that only lead to confusion, pride and strife. And ultimate spiritual death.

Jonah 2:8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

Make A Choice

William Hawkins

9:20 P.M.--June 04, 2000

This is possibly the heaviest word I have ever received. have been "feeling" this coming now for several days.

The Lord said; " It is time to make a choice"

I asked what choice He was speaking about ?

"For generations those who call themselves by My name have lived with one foot in the world and one foot in My land, on solid ground, trying desperately to have the best of both worlds and refusing to make a total commitment to me.

They have reached the time when they must make a choice between the world and Me. I will NO longer tolerate My people playing Church!

Dare not even ask what I might do, as in your heart you already know.

Those who are intercessors for the land SHALL NOT call upon Me to stay My hand, but, shall pray for those who are undecided to begin to walk in obedience to Me.

The days are upon you when if you are walking outside the camp, NO protection shall be found, nor any provision made for you.

The Fire of My presence is Light and Warmth, but you shall only find it where My Spirit is.

This is the hour of great decision.

The weak shall put it off and shall fall by the wayside.

The strong in Me shall grow stronger and begin to do the exploits of the Latter Days"

In the midst of this I could feel the Frustration the Lord feels or maybe it was disappointment I felt. He was doing everything but shouting it loud enough for the whole world to hear- Then He said;

"I Am slow to anger and quick to give mercy, but, there are too many who are trying Me to see how close they can walk to the edge without falling in.

I Am a Holy God, given to Great Grace, but, I Am a Just God and Judgment is at the door.

Hear My words; Heed my call; answer Me with your love and leave the world behind."

I do not often comment on what the Lord says, but because I "Felt" this so strongly I will.

Body of Christ--The time has come to get your act together--or--loose it. The "church" has had chance after chance after chance to let go of the world and get ahold of God and for the greater part has failed to do so.

Gods word says today is the day of salvation; if you have never accepted Jesus as Savior--do it today

If you are a backslider--Repent --TODAY

If you are setting on the fence--get off it--TODAY.

There are tears on my face and a heaviness in my heart for all those who will read this and say:

NO--NOT ME---NOT TODAY

In the name of Jesus, before you do that, think of the consequences, read this again and pray for Gods most Holy Spirit to shine His light through it and give you revelation of what He has said before it is too late.

Your Brother in Christ

Manna For Today

Order Or Chaos

Land Which Produces A Crop

Stephen Hanson

MANNA FOR TODAY
Stephen Hanson

Jan. 17, 2000

Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test them and see whether they will follow my instructions. Ex. 16:4

There is much today that is available to the body of Christ in the way of teachings, prophecy, articles and messages. We are given much, and we are given it "daily." From the pulpit, to the Internet, to literature, to TV evangelists, we are bombarded with the word of God. And that is not to say that this is not good. For through these various "avenues" much of the world is then exposed to the word of God in a way that it may not be, if these various resources were not available. What I want to say in this article, or teaching, is that in the wilderness the Israelites were commanded to gather ONLY enough manna for that given day. Otherwise, when they began to take-in more than what they needed, then that food became moldy and was no longer useful to them.

Then Moses said to them, "No one is to keep any of it until morning." However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them. Exodus 16:19-20

21. "Each morning everyone gathered as much as he needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away. 22. On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much--two omers for each person--and the leaders of the community came and reported this to Moses. 23. He said to them, "This is what the LORD commanded: `Tomorrow is to be a day of rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. So bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left and keep it until morning.'" 24. So they saved it until morning, as Moses commanded, and it did not stink or get maggots in it. "

So each person gathered only what was "needed" for that day. When the sun was hot, it melted away. We are told by the Lord in Matt. 4:4: "It is written: 'Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

And also, in our Lord's prayer:

"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our DAILY bread.... Matt. 6:9-11

(It is the DAILY bread or word, which we need to live by. It is the word which "proceeds from the mouth of the Lord" which will sustain us. Otherwise, what I am proposing here, is that anything else will turn rotten and will not supply our DAILY NEEDS. ) Now, this is something, which I am still in the process of considering. Obviously, we learn truths from scripture and from our times of prayer and reflection, and being in the presence of God, which is foundational and crucial to us as fellow citizens and members of the body of Christ. This is not to say that those times are not "still important." What we have learned over the years in our various walks with Him, is indeed important, and nothing can take that away from us. And indeed, the wisdom gleaned through those times is paramount to our maturity and fruitfulness as a child of God. What I am saying, simply is this: That we gather only enough bread for that given day, and no more. God will not without from us what we need to be sustained:

20. "You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water for their thirst."

We are told that He will give us bread without price, and that our soul will delight itself in the richest of fare:

"Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy? Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good, and your soul will delight in the richest of fare." Is. 55:1-3

Why then are many of us looking for that bread which does not satisfy? We don't seek the bread of heaven, but seek a poor imitation. We don't realize that what He can give to us DAILY, will be sufficient. It will perhaps be different in appearance and may not be what we would expect. The Israelites didn't know what this thing was at first on the ground. It was strange in appearance at first, but in time, I'm certain, that they grew to "expect" to find it there for their provision:

14. When the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost on the ground appeared on the desert floor. 15. When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat. Ex. 16

Many of them complained about leaving Egypt, and being left without the luxuries and delicacies, which they had when they were there. The Lord had heard their "grumbling," against Him. And because of this, He then gives them meat and bread EVERY DAY!

Ex. 16:

3. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the LORD's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death." 6. So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt, 7. and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?" 8. Moses also said, "You will know that it was the LORD when he gives you meat to eat in the evening and all the bread you want in the morning, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we? You are not grumbling against us, but against the LORD." 9. Then Moses told Aaron, "Say to the entire Israelite community, 'Come before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling.'" 10. While Aaron was speaking to the whole Israelite community, they looked toward the desert, and there was the glory of the LORD appearing in the cloud. 11. The LORD said to Moses, 12. "I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, 'At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.'"

Many did not know that Christ was this "bread which came down from heaven," but He was, and still is. Many of the various leaders at that time, and even today, looked for the words, the bread, which was written down for them by their fathers. It was the bread of "tradition," the bread of the "law." He came to be that "living bread." They couldn't begin to fathom the idea that He was this bread. Wouldn't the bread that they would need be a philosophy or a law which would give them freedom, and help them rule against their present injustices? How could this person embody the very things, which could give them a freedom far more profound and alive than what they could even imagine?

31. Our forefathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' 32. Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. 33. For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34. "Sir," they said, "from now on give us this bread." Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. 52. Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53. Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. 57. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. 58. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Our forefathers ate manna and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live forever."

It is interesting to note that the day after the Israelites ate some of the produce of the land; unleavened bread and roasted grain that the manna stopped. They looked for food on their own, and thought that they could do this on their own. Are we any different today?

11. The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain. 12. The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate of the produce of Canaan.

My wife received a bread maker this past Christmas. This type of bread far exceeds the mediocre kind you can get at your local Supermarket. Even if it might be a whole-grain variety J This is the type of bread that I'm looking for. It sustains my bones and gives life to my Spirit. In conclusion, as we come to Him DAILY, to that life-giving stream, may we know that He will give us "all things," and that He longs to give us the bread that satisfies:

17.He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it.

Stephen Hanson

ORDER OR CHAOS?

Stephen Hanson

Jan. 21 Evening, 2000

"For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy." Col. 1:16-18

In this article, or teaching, my intention is to draw attention to how the world around us, and in our daily lives, shows forth a certain type of order or design, if you will. We see this from how the universe and Solar System is laid out, to even the smallest of things, an atom. For if one were to observe how the planets and heavenly bodies revolve around a central point, they would most certainly, see God's order and design ever present. With the sun being a pivotal and central point, all of the planets can be found to revolve around this heavenly body. We all know about the force of gravity and how then in this way, these various planets have varying orbits encircling around the Sun. The same type of order can be found in how a simple atom is set-up. At the core or center of this very small piece of reality, is found the nucleus. Revolving around this central core are electrons, (any of the nonnuclear, negatively very charged particles that form a part of all atoms.) They are very minute and they travel in a customary way, a path that is laid out for them. Closer to the center, one would find protons: (a fundamental particle of the nuclei of all atoms, carrying a unit positive charge of electricity,) and neutrons, (another one of the fundamental particles of an atom, with these being uncharged and having approximately the same mass as protons.) Both of these make up the general "weight" and structure of the inside of these building blocks of what we call reality. For everything is made-up of molecules and atoms, from the earth, to the ocean, to the air we breath, to our bodies, and outwardly, into the universe and deep space.

So then, if there is a definite order to be seen in this way, from a simple atom to the Solar System and the universe, is there to be found an order for us in our days in this life of ours? Is there not only a "design" for God's plan for each of us, but is there also an order in how each day is even planned; to how a house and daily work schedules can be finished? (That is, if they ever are finished) J Is there a certain "order" which is important in how a church is operated and governed? And then, what may that order be, and how can we know how to follow His order there? Now, it becomes obvious that when a person has a prophetic word to give in a church setting, that there is a time and place for this, and that just blurting out a word when someone else is talking, or when a song is being sung, then we recognize that the "timing was off," and there was "disorder" instead.

I Co. 14: 32. "The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets.

33. For God is not a God of disorder but of peace."

I Co. 14: 39. "Therefore, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40. But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way."

However, perhaps some of us have been in churches where we come in and sit down in our pews, and remain silent until the service begins. We follow a definite schedule and bulletin, about EVERYTHING. We stand up to sing a song, and then sit down. Someone reads a portion of scripture from the front, and then immediately, the choir begins to sing. A prayer of confession, and an Apostle's Creed is repeated rotely and said in unison by all. You then stand up and sing another chorus of song #221, but only the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd verses. Then you immediately sit down, and the sermon will begin. This is the type of "order" which I am not referring to. This type of "order" then becomes "control," for there is no freedom or spontaneity for the Spirit to even exist. "For where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." Now, then, our "freedom" should not cause us to exercise our own selfish whims. We need to consider how our actions may affect the over-all group or setting. And that is not to say that God may not choose to have the "apple cart upset." There are times and places for the norm to be changed, and God has in His designs sometimes, for a change in the river. Many things that are said in the Spirit which are given to a church or a group of people, whether from the pulpit, or prophetically, may well lead those people in an opposite direction from where they had been earlier, and this for their growth, rather than for their demise. I have heard it said that it may well be good for us to learn how to swim "upstream like the salmon do," so that we aren't always following the same current that has dug a trench of tradition and mediocrity. God is a creative and a "spontaneous" God, and there are times and places for His Spirit to be exercised and for us to follow His leading even when it may not be the norm, and may appear to not follow the regular "schedule" of events. To this end then, great care and sensitivity is a must, and something, which we as the body of Christ need to come into maturity about I believe. There are seemingly so many guidelines and templates which are out there, and which perhaps we "don't" need to follow to the tee.

"He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life." II. Co. 3:6

A rigid schedule and format may well enslave us, and hold us back from what the Father would have us reach towards. On the other hand, it becomes very confusing when a house is filled with disorder, and you can't find what you are looking for. An old adage says: "A place for everything and everything in its place." And certainly, this is true, I believe. One can become quite familiar with this wisdom when having small children, or even teenagers living in your home. Someone wonders where the keys are, or where that bill is that needs to be paid. If it happens to be under the bed, and it is due that day, and it is time to go to work, and the baby is crying, well... need I say more? So a certain "rhythm" can be sought in our daily lives, perhaps very much like how God has set order in His creation. We have a pattern, which we can follow, and one, which is there for us to see around us:

Job 25 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

2. "Dominion and awe belong to God; he establishes order in the heights of heaven.

Lastly, as there needs to be a certain order in our homes, and in our lives, God has set a certain order in the church, and I have mentioned the need for order, but also the need to follow the Spirit, and to be sensitive to it. Many of us are perhaps familiar with the Eph. 4 passage, which speaks about how He came to give gifts to men, in order to fill the whole universe:

"It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ." Eph. 4:11-13

What I believe to be true here is that Christ has set order in the house here, and He is the one who is Head. I believe that He has set order in the church and has given that order out. A shepherd may well be in charge of His or her flock, but they need to recognize their limitations and allow others who are gifted in other ways to "come along side them" and be fellow laborers with them. There are different "types" of shepherds, and different ways of "shepherding." Actually, Christ is the Great Shepherd, and He is the one who "shepherds" His flock. Again, the analogy of the hand is important to note here. The ring finger or pastor/teacher, is no more important than the thumb, or apostle, and likewise, the index finger or prophet, along with the middle finger of the evangelist, needs the other "members" and fingers to help complete the task at hand. So, then the "order" follows as the Spirit enables and gives life and credence as each "part" does his or her work.

In time I believe, pastors and prophets and apostles will work together, with teachers and evangelists, and others, with each uplifting the other, going about their business in their own way, building-up the body of Christ, and thus, bringing us unto completion, and unto maturity in Him who is the Head.

Stephen Hanson

LAND WHICH PRODUCES A CROP

Stephen Hanson

Jan. 22, 2000

"Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God. But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned." Heb. 6:7-8

"The rain has brought forth a fruit in the land. There will be a shower of blessing for those who have obeyed Me, but the very land which some have planted in, will bring forth weeds and thistles. "

(I saw a scene of a man who was working in his yard. He was mowing the grass, and it was cut clean, and seemed to be kept up. Alongside this, off to the left, was a field of very tall and unkempt weeds and grasses. They had been left for some time, and had become very tall. I noticed also, trees of different kinds in the other yard, the first one, which had grown tall, and seemed to be of different varieties and types. They were "fruitful" each in their own way.)

"There will become a very marked distinction between some people in these days. The fruitfulness and blessing of my hand will be seen in some. The very activities which this group does, will be things which have been "sown" into them. They, like the seed which fell, produced a crop, and this crop grew in abundance. It was nourished by my word. But there was also seed which fell along the path. The very cares of this world have "strangled" this seed from producing. The birds of the air have come and eaten it away. "

(Then I was shown a scene of a house, which at first seemed to be kept-up and taken care of, but as I looked further, the weeds and grass along the sidewalk up to it, had overgrown, and filled-up around it. At the top of these weeds they were purple in appearance and had the shape of a thistle, and were very prickly. There was a metal gate which had fallen down, and the steps and porch which went up to this house, were old and weathered, and had not been taken care of in a long time.)

"I have said that 'Through much slothfulness, the house decayeth,' and without a "continued" effort to study my word, and giving heed to it, then your own individual "houses" will fall into disrepair. Take care of the things which are in your lives. Tend the garden of your souls, for in time it will produce a crop of great fruit. I AM letting all "grow-up" until the end of the age, and then at that time, some will be thrown into the fire, and then the others will receive their rewards. See to it that your land is well cared for."

Matt. 13: 3. "Then he told them many things in parables, saying: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. 5. Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. 6. But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7. Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. 8. Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop--a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown. "

Man's Structure vs. God's spirit

Don Hawley

April 20, 2000

The starry heavens declare that God is a God of order. Man, however, is everlastingly determined to improve on whatever comes from the hand of divinity.

The Bible begins by stating that the Holy Spirit is the architect of God's grand design.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was empty, a formless mass cloaked in darkness. And the Spirit of God was hovering over its surface. Gen. 1:1, 2.

A wise creator placed Adam and Eve in a stress-free environment.

Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he placed the man he had created. Gen. 2:8.

The Birth of the Inner City

Cain, the world's first murderer, decided that God's agrarian plan for mankind was faulty. It wasn't sufficiently structured. He had a better idea.

So Cain left the LORD'S presence and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden. Then Cain's wife became pregnant and gave birth to a son, and they named him Enoch. When Cain founded a city, he named it Enoch after his son. Gen. 4:16, 17.

From the beginning cities were like magnets drawing all kinds of human depravity. Finally God sent a great flood and started over with Noah and his family. It wasn't long after the deluge, however, before men came up with the most notable and arrogant human structure yet devised.

As the people migrated eastward, they found a plain in the land of Babylonia and settled there. They began to talk about construction projects. "Come," they said, "let's make great piles of burnt brick and collect natural asphalt to use as mortar. Let's build a great city with a tower that reaches to the skies—a monument to our greatness! Gen. 11:1-4.

God wasn't impressed, at least not favorably. When men come up with their own structuring, it's usually designed to glorify themselves instead of their Creator. God took a long look at the Tower of Babel and said, "Enough."

The LORD scattered them all over the earth; and that ended the building of the city. Gen. 11:8.

Show and Tell

God isn't opposed to structure as long as he's the designer. When the children of Israel came out of Egypt they were an ignorant rabble of slaves. In mercy God gave his people a big "show and tell" to carry with them through their desert sandbox. By observing the order of the Tabernacle and its services, the Israelites began to comprehend God's plan of salvation for mankind. The Lord gave Moses construction plans covering every little detail.

Be sure that you make everything according to the pattern I have shown you here on the mountain. Ex. 25:40.

Man's yearning to do his own structuring wasn't confined to the physical. Even more ardently he wanted to create and control his own culture. The Holy Spirit had, from the beginning, been appointed as the all-sufficient guide for God's people. However, they decided on another plan.

The leaders of Israel met at Ramah to discuss the matter with Samuel. "Look," they told him, "you are now old, and your sons are not like you. Give us a king like all the other nations have."

Samuel was very upset with their request and went to the LORD for advice. "Do as they say," the LORD replied, "for it is me they are rejecting, not you. They don't want me to be their king any longer. Ever since I brought them from Egypt they have continually forsaken me and followed other gods. And now they are giving you the same treatment. Do as they ask, but solemnly warn them about how a king will treat them." 1 Sam. 8:4-9.

The people got their way, and with it a new era of misery. The Old Testament is a sad history of God's chosen ones turning away from his divine wisdom to conjure up their own structuring.

New Testament Order

In the time of Christ religious leaders were so intent on imposing their own structuring on the people, that they took their manmade activities right into the Temple. Such arrogance made Christ angry.

When they arrived back in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the merchants and their customers. He knocked over the tables of the moneychangers and the stalls of those selling doves, and he stopped everyone from bringing in merchandise. He taught them, "The Scriptures declare, 'My Temple will be called a place of prayer for all nations,' but you have turned it into a den of thieves." Mark 11:15-17.

The next verse tells us that some religious leaders were so determined to have their own way that they even resorted to murder.

When the leading priests and teachers of religious law heard what Jesus had done, they began planning how to kill him. Vs. 18.

It's no exaggeration to say that Jesus died because he refused to give way to man's deep-felt need to run his own show, to set up his own structures in place of those devised by God.

Many of the people who were with Mary believed in Jesus when they saw this happen. But some went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. Then the leading priests and Pharisees called the high council together to discuss the situation. "What are we going to do?" they asked each other. "This man certainly performs many miraculous signs. If we leave him alone, the whole nation will follow him, and then the Roman army will come and destroy both our Temple and our nation."

And one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said, "How can you be so stupid? Why should the whole nation be destroyed? Let this one man die for the people." John 11:45-50.

For the word "nation" read "apparatus." The religious leaders had set up a corrupt system that gave them immense power at the expense of the people. They were ready to do whatever it took to protect their vested interests.

The Torn Veil

One of the most underrated events in history took place at the moment Jesus died on the cross.

Then Jesus uttered another loud cry and breathed his last. And the curtain in the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. Mark 15:37, 38.

This dramatic event signaled that history had been torn in two; nothing would ever be the same again. Ever protective of their beloved religious structure, the leaders merely sewed up the veil and carried on as usual. But their actions were meaningless. No longer was it necessary for the people to approach God through the priesthood. Now they could, on their own, come boldly before the throne of grace. Now they themselves were priests, and their bodies temples of the living God.

The Christian Church

A careful study of the early church reveals it was largely structure free. The Holy Spirit had come at Pentecost according to Christ's promise, and that's what really mattered. The little house churches with their anointed leaders were so empowered that they "turned the world upside down."

Unfortunately, Christian believers once again yearned after worldly patterns. Steadily they added structure upon structure until they spawned the great Roman Catholic Church, and mankind descended into the Dark Ages. Truth seemed almost eclipsed until a monk named Luther stood against the pomp and ceremony of the church. The Protestant Reformation opened a long, arduous journey from darkness into light.

Sadly the journey has been a slow one. In leaving the monolithic Roman church, Christians fell into another organizational pattern not of God's design—denominationalism. This new form of structuring kept the Body of Christ fragmented and at war with itself for centuries.

God's End-time Plan

Satan always counterfeits significant moves of God, and as a student of Scripture he knows in advance what to anticipate. Sometimes, then, by taking note of what the devil is up to, we can learn something of what God is about to do.

Perhaps nothing the devil is doing today is more effective for his kingdom than pushing the New Age movement. It's so clever that it has infiltrated virtually every aspect of our society. And yet it has no discernable structure! There is no world headquarters, no president, and no human hierarchy. It's powerful because, instead of being structured, it's a loose network presided over by Satan himself.

Can we not learn from this pattern? Instead of dreaming up more and more human organizational masterpieces to usher in the Kingdom, let's see what God prefers. He has clearly stated his intention.

For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. Rom. 9:28

It is time to move away from constricting human structures, and recognize the Body of Christ. That assembly is not to be an organization, but simply a network under the direction of the Holy Spirit! It's difficult for many leaders to pull back and allow the Spirit free reign. However, that is precisely what God calls for today. It's time to meet in the Upper Room of worship and watch for the move of God.

The Church Family

At this moment in time there are two proper, and biblical, church entities. The first is the Body of Christ, consisting of every person in the world who believes in salvation in Christ and desires to walk with him. That constitutes the overall family of God, those who Jesus will take with him at his imminent return.

The other significant entity is the local congregation, the immediate family. God knew that we need to fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ on a regular basis.

And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage and warn each other, especially now that the day of his coming back again is drawing near. Heb. 10:25.

The arrangement in the local congregation is to be the same one that God ordained for the newly-born Christian church.

He is the one who gave these gifts to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ, until we come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature and full grown in the Lord, measuring up to the full stature of Christ. Eph 4:11-13.

Though neglected by the church in past centuries, many congregations have reinstated these special gifts during the past few decades. Are they appreciated and utilized in your local church family? This has always been God's New Testament plan for church governance.

The Present Ministry of the Holy Spirit

Since Pentecost we've been living in the dispensation of the Holy Spirit—although most Christians have been unaware of that vital fact. Now God intends to remedy the problem, and few texts are as important for our day as the following:

The time is coming and is already here when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for anyone who will worship him that way. For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth." John 4:23, 24.

No matter what your worship pattern may have been in the past, this describes what it needs to be today. This is not an option. God says that true worshipers must worship in both truth and spirit. With Christ's return at hand, dare we be anything but a "true worshiper?"

Many Flows In The River

Bob Neumann

There is a river that flows from the mountain of god to the hearts Of those who drink of me. All know of it in some way. Some have seen it. Some have heard it. Few fight against it in vain. But there are those few Who are called and chosen to flow with me and to move with me. They are the River.

To know this not only must you be in the river, but to be one with me in all Things. So few indeed are those who abide in me as surely as the river flows To the sea. So many watch the river and believe they are one in me. They see But little of the surface and nothing of the currents beneath that deepen The channel and widen the banks.

There are many currents and channels that cannot be perceived by the Multitudes who plan someday to "gather at the river". Nor do those who stand On the shore are anymore aware from where the river comes and where it goes Than those who have simply known of the river.

The river is a living manifestation of my word in the walk and witness of my Saints. The river is my word that cuts sharp and deep through the land. The river is my beloved who sees my hand, hears my voice, and obeys because She loves me. The river is my body made up of many diverse and unique parts. Some work Together to do the specific duties they were created to do. Some work very Well alone and unnoticed to the casual observer. The river is life to the thirsty and death to those who foolishly built on Their own sand against my advice.

So take notice of my river and all those who I show you that flow in me. Of those who seek to be noticed and I do not reveal them to you, flee from Quickly. Those who flow deeply in me who I do not reveal you will not Notice. But you will be aware that the channel was cut for you so you may Flow more easily. That is the way of my river that flows from the throne Eternally.

Be blessed

Shemuel

Maturity In The Prophetic

Stephen Hanson

"COMING UNTO MATURITY IN THE PROPHETIC"

Feb. 15, 00

Here are some thoughts concerning various aspects of the prophetic. There has been a mention about the "two streams" which often flow. Earlier, past October, the Lord shared with me a particular word concerning that very thing. I have included that word along with one which speaks about getting rid of the earwigs which have infiltrated some of the prophets, so that they could not "hear" properly. (These are at the bottom along with a teaching concerning the inception of a word and when it is received, along with the delivery of that word. Understand that this is not always a "cut-and dry" method. These are simply some things which I have seen that may prove to be helpful.

Responsibility of the prophetic community:

What is the responsibility we have to the body of Christ when it comes to the "prophetic community"? I'll simply say, that we must preserve the true word of the Lord, and not to presume to speak anything, unless it comes from His Spirit. Will there be a mixture? Perhaps some....However, we need to keep the water untainted and free from anything which might cause a mixture, and pollute the stream. Yes, I do believe, that it is time to come unto maturity, and maturity means to "grow-up in these things of the Lord." He has been training, and refining, and directing. Part of this process I believe, is to bring about a greater discernment in the body as to what is pure and what is not. We can't just accept everything which comes to us in the form of a supposed word from the Lord. It will convict, it will discern between the soul and Spirit, and yes, it will build-up and give hope, even when judgment may be pronounced. There are words, and then, there are words. We need to be quite careful in how we administer them. We need to develop our facilities of Spirit to the point which we know that we know that we know, that this indeed is something from the throneroom.

Jeremiah 23:

- 16. This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.
- 17. They keep saying to those who despise me, 'The LORD says: You will have peace.' And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts they say, 'No harm will come to you.'
- 18. But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear his word? Who has listened and heard his word?
- 19. See, the storm of the LORD will burst out in wrath, a whirlwind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.
- 20. The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes the purposes of his heart. In days to come you will understand it clearly.
- 21. I did not send these prophets, yet they have run with their message; I did not speak to them, yet they have prophesied.
- 22. But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.
- 23. "Am I only a God nearby," declares the LORD, "and not a God far away?"
- 24. Can anyone hide in secret places so that I cannot see him?" declares the LORD. "Do not I fill heaven and earth?" declares the LORD.
- 25. "I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in my name. They say, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!'
- 26. How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds?
- 27. They think the dreams they tell one another will make my people forget my name, just as their fathers forgot my name through Baal worship.
- 28. Let the prophet who has a dream tell his dream, but let the one who has my word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?" declares the LORD.
- 29. "Is not my word like fire," declares the LORD, "and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?"
- 30. "Therefore," declares the LORD, "I am against the prophets who steal from one another words supposedly from me.

31. Yes," declares the LORD, "I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare, 'The LORD declares.'

32. Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams," declares the LORD. "They tell them and lead my people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least," declares the LORD.

33. "When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask you, 'What is the oracle of the LORD?' say to them, 'What oracle? I will forsake you, declares the LORD.'

34. If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims, 'This is the oracle of the LORD,' I will punish that man and his household.

35. This is what each of you keeps on saying to his friend or relative: 'What is the LORD's answer?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?'

36. But you must not mention 'the oracle of the LORD' again, because every man's own word becomes his oracle and so you distort the words of the living God, the LORD Almighty, our God.

37. This is what you keep saying to a prophet: 'What is the LORD's answer to you?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?'

38. Although you claim, 'This is the oracle of the LORD,' this is what the LORD says: You used the words, 'This is the oracle of the LORD,' even though I told you that you must not claim, 'This is the oracle of the LORD.'

39. Therefore, I will surely forget you and cast you out of my presence along with the city I gave to you and your fathers.

40. I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace--everlasting shame that will not be forgotten."

What type of word is it?

We also need to know and distinguish between what may well be for ourselves and not for the body of Christ at large. Also, is this a word for a particular church, a particular group of people, or is it universal in theme. Is there something in the content and essence of this word that would speak and build-up the body of Christ universal? When a gun is shot, and if that gun is a shot gun, then the spray of that ammunition can go in a wide area. We need to know how to properly handle this ammunition which He has placed within our care. On the other hand, we need not "quench the Spirit," and quickly throw-out something which may be for our benefit.

19. Do not put out the Spirit's fire;

20. do not treat prophecies with contempt.

Also, is this word simply a word of comfort or edification, or is it a directional or confrontive word? I believe that great carefulness is needed when delivering either a directional, correctional, or even one which is illuminating. We all know about the simple word of prophecy, but I am talking about something else here.

Write the Vision Down:

I thought of sending my testimony as a helpful and perhaps educational thing in this endeavor, but decided against it, partly because this forum or discussion seems to be confined to something other than just "testimonials," even if those testimonies include and have aspects of a prophetic call and life in them. What I have decided to do though, is include some aspects of some things which I have learned and gone through. One of those aspects is this: what Habakkuk 2:2 says, "Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablet so that a herald may run with it." Simply said that there is an importance sometimes, perhaps even often, to write down what He has spoken, and to make it "plain on stone tablets." What does that mean? Well, I believe that when He gives a word to me, oftentimes, it has been given to me beforehand, and it proves necessary then, to write the vision down, and then, to know "when to give it." Not only "when," but perhaps, also, "how." Most certainly, God is a creative God, and He doesn't always do things the same way....We need to allow Him to use us, or someone else in a way that perhaps we hadn't considered. If we have is all figured out, then it can easily become mechanical. And we know that the "letter killeth," but the Spirit gives "life." So in essence, here what I am saying is that there is a wisdom in writing down what He speaks to us, and then knowing how to "deliver" what He gives to us. (Below is a portion of some things from my testimony which may prove helpful. I had spent some time going to various churches in the area here, and being led to either speak or to watch and listen. Now He has led us to a particular church body. I spent a short while leaving a particular church body which was not "Spirit-filled," and God called me out, while I had to wait for my wife to join me. This was a difficult time, but one which was necessary, for in time, she came to join me in this quest, and learned that this was indeed, the right thing to do. )

The Journey Continues: Going by Faith

So, the journey continues, and He has led me to several different churches in the area here to give a "word" for them as a church. This has been received, and opened doors for fellowship, worship and communication between me and them. Now, Carol my wife, has decided to join me in this quest for following Him wherever He would lead. I knew that she would, largely in part, because He told me that she would. She has wanted to find a "church home", and I have prayed about this. It seems at least for this season, there is a purpose in "moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling." I remember at least more than once, hearing the Lord repeat to me that portion of scripture which was spoken to David through Nathan, saying: "Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in? I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling." 2 Samuel 7:5-7. I am accountable to others I know, and am part of the body, and knitted together with it wherever we go. I have found several friends and connections on the Internet. Through a national Apostolic and Prophetic Newsletter, which is moderated by a gifted lady from the state of Washington, and through various Christian friends and ministries across this nation, and around the world, I have come to realize that we as the body of Christ, are joined together as one large community in Him. He is leading His body forward as an endtime army, being equipped to battle against the forces of darkness. His Apostles and Prophets are being raised-up in these days, as never before, and new life is being breathed into the church. Will we be ready for His soon return? Will we be about the Father's business, or will we continue with the stagnant traditions of men? We need to be alert and ready, and always be listening to that "still small voice," which calls us ever forward in this day and age. I for one, will not look back, but desire to heed the high calling of God, and press on to this high calling in Him.

Possible procedures for giving prophetic words:

We have finally found another church home and family over the last few months. I had kept seeking Him for where that place might be, and always "listening to that still small voice" within me when we went to a particular church. It seems that He would lead me somewhere, and in the midst of the service, while waiting upon Him, He then would speak and confirm that that was not the place for us. My wife has learned to accept this, and now, her patience has been rewarded. I sense that this will be our home for a while now. There seem to be few places that still accept the prophetic office in their midst. There is a right and a wrong way to approach a church. I have found for me, that when the Lord directs me to a particular church, He oftentimes, then gives me a word "beforehand." This I write down and pray over, asking Him to confirm what has been spoken to me, so that I am certain as to its content and anointing. Then comes the time for "when" to give it. This also is something which I believe, is crucial to the prophet, or the prophetic minister. Knowing what to say, and when to say it, are "key" I believe. Remember that there is a "time for everything, and a purpose for everything under heaven." As mentioned earlier, the Lord has seemed to give me something to say "beforehand," and I write this down. If the church or pastor does not know me, and even if they do, I usually approach the pastor and say that "I have a word from the Lord," and believe that it needs to be shared today." This is a good way to approach a church, and I think, adds credibility to the prophetic.

Who is the word for?

Now, that is not to say that the Lord has not given me something or shown me something, while in the midst of a service--He has. One needs to be sensitive to what He is speaking and sharing with you at the time. Is it something personal which concerns only you, or is it something which would benefit the body of Christ? These are important considerations to make, and ones which perhaps, are learned over time, through trial and error. Also, is this word specifically for that particular church, or is this something for the body of Christ at large? Obviously, there may well be something in every word which has application to the body of Christ at large, but is the real "meat" and content for someone or some church only? Also, and perhaps, finally, how does one then conduct themselves in giving personal words from the Lord to those in their midst at a church? Here again, I believe, wisdom is key, and important. Obviously, if someone is praying for you, and suddenly has a word from the Lord, and then speaks it out, this is something which needs to be weighed carefully. There may be other times when He speaks to you in the midst of a service concerning someone there in your midst. I usually then ask Him when would be a good time to share this with the person, and He will let me know. (These then, are just simply some good rules of conduct for those involved in the prophetic, and hopefully, helpful guidelines to follow. Remember that He is a God of order and not disorder, but that there is also freedom where the Spirit is, and He is also a creative God, and doesn't always do things the same way. He wants us to grow in our ability to trust Him, and not lean unto our own understanding.)

Final Thoughts:

To conclude, I believe that the Lord sometimes gives us a word which He then asks us to "embody." What I mean simply by that is this: That there are times when God asks his servants to be an example of His word. We see this in the example of Hosea and how his wife had become a prostitute to the people, and yet Hosea was asked to continually take her back. They as a nation, had prostituted themselves with the love of other gods, so this was an analogy in the life of Hosea to the people of Israel. Recently the Lord gave me a word concerning "THE EYE OF THE HURRICANE," and in this word was seen how if we stay within this "eye," there is then peace from the storm. My wife and I have dealt with the "storms" of our foster child, Destiny, and the continued saga of court dealings, visitations with the blood mother, etc. So, this word then, was important for me to stay within that "eye," and not to venture out into the abyss of the storm and become entangled there in those "winds." What am I saying? Simply that we as prophetic people and prophets, then must be willing to learn and embrace from the words which we speak, and to then, "embody" them. To learn from them, and then, to let that learning become a teaching tool, or simply said, to let the truth of that word sink down into our spirits, so that it becomes part of us. Otherwise then, we are like the house which is built upon sand and not upon the rock. We need to be "doers of the word," and not just "hearers" or "speakers" of that word only.

1. The LORD said to me, "Go, show your love to your wife again, though she is loved by another and is an adulteress. Love her as the LORD loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and love the sacred raisin cakes."
2. So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and about a homer and a lethek of barley.
3. Then I told her, "You are to live with me many days; you must not be a prostitute or be intimate with any man, and I will live with you." Hosea 3

We need to work together

(Let us not forget the importance of the body of Christ. We are not "lone rangers," and we need each other's gift and we need each other. We need to work together at this time in the church with fellow believers, fellow five-fold ministers, fellow members of the household of faith. Lastly, and hopefully, finally, I have include a teaching which I did 1-2 years ago, which includes the aspect of "timing" as to when to deliver what He has given.)

Part II.

Further information about prophets and prophecy:

(And along with "lastly," one other thing: We still need training as to what a prophet is and is not, and to be able to distinguish between the "gift thereof," and the office. ***Below is the teaching about when and how a word is given and then spoken. Below that are the two words which concern either mixing something as in "two streams," and also, "training our ears so that they can hear.")

Here are two links which speak in great detail about those very things:

<http://www.angelfire.com/in/HisTruth/aboutprophets.html>

RO'EH-HOZEH AND NABBI

I thought it might be good to talk about the "reception" or the "receiving" of a prophetic word, vs. the "speaking" of that prophetic message or word. The two words being used here are RO'EH-HOZEH, and nabbi'. Nabbi' refers to the "speaking forth" of a prophetic message, or to "bubble up."

Also, in looking at I Sam. 9:9, it states, "He that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer." The thought is that the person who was called a "seer" (ro'eh) in the time of Samuel came later to be called "prophet" (nabbi) in the time when I Sam. was written. It also needs to be pointed out that both terms mean "to see." However, many of us involved in prophetic ministry would realize that oftentimes, a message comes to us beforehand, we "receive" it, we listen as the Lord is saying these things to us. This reception is called in Hebrew RO'EH-HOZEH. There may be a matter of time between when we hear God speaking a word to us, and when we actually "speak" it forth.

I found myself this last Sunday going to a particular church in town here to deliver a "word" for the congregation. I had "received" the message about a week beforehand, and had come to the church, but no one was there that Sunday. This made me wonder at the time, what I should do with it. This word was one of which had been submitted to the AP list, (an Apostolic/Prophetic newsletter group). The word was, entitled, MY SHEEP. At the time, I knew that it had significance for this church, partly because it began speaking about Zion being the home of God, and that in ages past he dwelt among his people, but now in these days, he dwells with us in our spirits. The name of the church was Zion Full Gospel Church, a relatively small church, but filled with people who had a zeal and fervor for serving the Lord.

As mentioned before, I submitted this word for the AP because it seemed to have some "universal" application. But I knew that somehow, I needed to take it, and run with it. There is a "waiting" upon the Lord for His timing in these matters I believe. When God speaks to us, remember that we need to consider how and when the message should be "delivered." When worshiping and praising the Most High God in a service or worship time in a church, and a word is "received," then usually it is delivered very soon afterwards, or immediately, during the time of worship. But perhaps, during the week, and in our prayer time, we "receive" a word or message for a particular individual or church. Inquire of the Lord as to "how" and "when", or even "if" we should deliver this message. It may or may not be immediately.

Timing becomes very important for prophetic people, especially when they must consider when and how to deliver a particular word. The God we serve is one in which we can continually seek for guidance and wisdom in these matters. He not only is there to give the word, but is there to enlighten and guide us every step of the way, so that we know how and when to speak it. This scripture then, can become our guiding light when considering these things:

"There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven:

a time to be born and a time to die,

a time to plant and a time to uproot,

a time to kill and a time to heal,

a time to tear down and a time to build,

a time to weep and a time to laugh,

a time to mourn and a time to dance,

a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,

a time to embrace and a time to refrain,

a time to search and a time to give up,

a time to keep and a time to throw away,

a time to tear and a time to mend,

a time to be silent and a time to speak,

a time to love and a time to hate,

a time for war and a time for peace. Ecc. 3:1-8

"TRAIN YOUR EARS SO THAT THEY CAN HEAR"

Nov. 24, 1999

"Hear, you deaf; look, you blind, and see! Who is blind but my servant, and deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one committed to me, blind like the servant of the Lord? You have seen many things, but have paid no attention; your ears are open, but you hear nothing." Isaiah 42:18-20

"Why is it that the sons of God do not seek Me with their whole hearts?"

"I will tell you why--"

(The Lord began to show me something, and I knew that it was to be something strange, just by the way He was preparing to speak with me. He showed me a caterpillar, or a worm-like insect, and I watched as this insect "wiggled" in front of me. Then I was shown an ear, and the insect was beginning to go into the ear, and travel inward through this ear of this person. As I looked further, I was shown the various "canals" of the ear, and it appeared to look like a cavern which has various twists and turns in it. Then I saw the eardrum, and knew that this insect had not come all the way, and that the entrance past this point was "blocked.")

He then had said: "The ear-wig has gone into the ears of some of my prophets."

"This has caused "madness" and confusion in some of them. For when they think they have heard from Me, they have not. This worm has "enticed them; for it has spread its filth in them. I will blow my horn, and through my Spirit, it will "loosen" this insect. Oh, my servants, you must have your ears "clean." The oil of my Spirit will penetrate and obliterate this insect. If you are to hear from Me, then you need to hear rightly. For your eyes are the windows of the soul, but your ears are the chambers of my messages. Enlarge the capacity to hear from Me. Open-up the canals of your ears so that you can hear. Then you will have no question in your heart. Then you will know that that "still-small voice" is Me. Again I say...."Train your ears so that they can hear."

"TWO STREAMS WHICH FLOW"

Oct. 2, 1999

"Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring?" James 3:11

(The Lord showed me a picture of an eagle with its wings spread out, facing me. It was in a stationary position, and when continuing to look at it, there was a net spread throughout both of the wings, and it wasn't able to move or fly freely.)

"The wings of my prophets have become tied-up in other affairs."

"There are many in my body today who have mixed the things of the world with the things of my Spirit. Some of this has even become manifested even in my prophets. How can you speak my decrees? I say, go up....go further up the mountain.

(The Lord again showed me some things. I saw water coming down off of the mountain, flowing freely, seemingly clean and pure. But upon looking at it further, there were various things in it: limbs, twigs, and other debris. As this continued, the water which was flowing from off of the mountain, was being filled-up into a slender glass decanter. Then a few drops of something were added to this water, as if to change it, or purify it.)

(One other scene was shown to me of water which was gushing out of a section of a rock. It was coming out in full force, and then it seemed that I was under water watching as the water was coming towards me, and I was caught-up and a part of the scene. Then again, another scene was shown, and this time the water was gushing out, but upon looking at the water closer, there were other things present there. Various fish seemed to be lying in the water, dead, and I also saw flies and other insects in the water, seeming to indicate to me that the water was not clean. The water was falling onto the ground, and the ground seemed to be also a map.)

"There are two streams which flow: one has the pure things of my Spirit, and the other one comes from things which have been mixed with the things of this world. There are various places where my word has gone out. It has gone out in various places in the United States. Sometimes the words which are spoken are not completely pure. Judge the message by the fruit which is left behind. Does it give promise of new things to come? Does it give life to your bones? Seek that stream which flows directly from my throne. Judge the water which you see around you. You will know them by their fruits. My word is pure and unadulterated. When it flows it flows freely, and it is not a mixture. Again I say, test the waters which are being poured out in this hour. These are important times for this."

Maturity On The Way To The Holy City.

Deborah Voetberg

Remember...we walk by faith, not by sight! 2 Cor. 5:7

MATURITY ON THE WAY TO THE HOLY CITY.

VISION:

I saw a man wearing dark thick glasses. He was blind and walking forward, but was not using a cane. He had his right hand up in front of him, feeling the way before him. His left hand was holding on to the hand of a child, who was holding the hand of another child and so on. He came to a fork in the road. To his left was a narrow dirt road with no vegetation along the side of it. It was a rolling road with many hills and valleys but the road led to the Holy City. On his right was a beautiful road full of fragrant flowers leading to lush green grass and tall trees. Because he was blind and had no cane or lead dog, he leaned on his senses to find the way. His nose picked up the scent of the flowers and he decided this was the correct path.

There was a cord going from the Holy City to the man's naval and as he became farther away from the City the cord began to hinder his progress. He took this as opposition from his enemies and struggled until he broke free from the cord. With the hindrance removed he received this as confirmation that he was on the right path. He led the children to a park where he laid out a blanket and opened a picnic basket full of food that he had prepared to feed them. The children all sat excited on the blanket, they could see but were unaware of the blind state of their leader. As the children ate the food that he had prepared they became thin...it was a slow process, but instead of gaining life they began to starve.

Then I saw another man approach the fork in the road. His eyes could see and they were fixed on the Holy City. He was unaware of the condition of the road to his left, because he did not walk by his senses but by the drawing of the cord that was within him. If the cord became slack or would pull he would correct his course until the cord had the right amount of tension to draw him easily toward his destination. He had others with him also, but he carried them upon his shoulders, and had more following behind him. They were different ages, and the older ones carried the younger ones. The closer they came to the Holy City, those following began to grow, the stronger ones continually helping the weaker ones until they reached the Holy City and they were ALL the same age...mature.

INTERPRETATION:

This vision speaks very much for its self. The church has always been exhorted by the Word to walk in the spirit...not according to the flesh or our senses. Romans 8:7 says, "... that the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be." When our minds are operating according to the flesh, which is under the law of sin & death, it can only produce death. Anything we prepare ourselves will bring forth death. Apart from the Spirit of God we can do nothing.

Don't let the smells that are pleasing to your senses be your guide. By becoming skilled in the righteousness of Jesus through the use of His principles in our lives, we exercise our senses to discern both good and evil. ( Hebrews 5:12 - 14 ) We find the peace and rest that comes by following the leading of His Spirit, the peace that passes our understanding and passes our senses. We are on the road to spiritual maturity.

1 John 2:27... " But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him. "

Together we proclaim that we will all live and walk by His Spirit!

Great Grace! Deborah Voetberg

Never Be Apart From Me!

Dan Root

Everything I have given you is to be used for My glory. All that you are is for My possession. You are to be a steward of that which is Mine. I Am your God and the One you come from. "Never be apart from Me," is My longing for you.

Constant fellowship is My desire for you. The joy and bliss of My Kingdom is My true wish for your heart. Come to Me in the morning and let your spirit mount its wings in Me. Let your soul glide in My winds of affection and direction.

Each event throughout the day is known by Me and I want you to go forth in the power of My joy as you face them. My heart is for you to enjoy your life to the fullest and be complete in Me. Let no matter be apart from Me whether great or small.

Only let My Spirit guide and direct you and you will enjoy the path of life forever.

Through many sufferings and hardships you will find your peace in Me. Through many trials you will know that your Judge favors your life. If you will practice gratitude and breathe my Son's name, you will enjoy the power of My resurrection through every event and My Son's name will be known in you. And many will see that you have been with Him.

And many will be drawn to Him because you lifted Him up instead of yourself. And afterward, I will lift your precious soul up to Me to be in My heavenly Kingdom with My people and with Me forever. Then I will dress you in heavenly robes.

Received from the LORD by Dan Root, April 30, 2000

Mega-Trends in the New Millennium

Rick Joyner

Copy right MorningStar Ministries <http://www.morningstarministries.org>

We are in one of the greatest watershed periods in human history. There has never been a more exciting time to be alive. Great sweeping historical events are cascading down upon us at an increasing rate. However, the church is not only called to perceive future trends, but to start them and set their course. One of the greatest changes coming will be the result of the church giving birth to leaders who do not just follow the world's trends, but who start trends that the world will follow. Before the end there will be a church that is the true light of the world. Now is the time for the church to arise and walk in her great destiny.

The Sword And Cup

There has never been greater opportunities, or stumbling blocks, in the path of mankind. Even if the world is determined to stumble over the stumbling blocks, we are here to point them out and save as many as we can. The church is called to be a prophet to the nations. To accomplish this I saw the Lord giving her a sword and a cup. The church did not immediately understand either of these, but when she did she began to use them. Now is the time for us to understand the great authority that has been given to us.

There will be a great famine for hearing the word of the Lord. This will come as a judgment because the church has had so little esteem for His Word. Judgment always begins with His household because He cannot judge the world when His own people are bound by the same sins that are bringing His judgment. Even so, this famine for hearing His words will stun the whole earth. The heathen are going to understand how tragic it is not to have His Word. When the church repents, she will be given the cup of His Word to both drink and serve. Then she will be given the sword of His Word. This sword will be raised and have the attention of the nations. It will strike terror in the hearts of those who do evil, and it will be a beacon to those who do good. There is a time coming when the Word of God will be so esteemed among the nations that those who know it will be as Solomon, with people coming from the far corners of the earth to hear the wisdom of God with which they have been entrusted.

The cup that was given to the church was the cup of His word that brings refreshing and hope. It was a hope so great that it brought refreshing to all nations, opening many to the gospel of salvation. Because of this cup, the church will be able to give direction and purpose to much of the world. The church throughout the earth will experience a time of great esteem. This is from the Lord, and will be a great opportunity for the gospel, but it will also come with many stumbling blocks for believers. Only the grace of humility will keep us on the path of life during these times, which in some ways can be more dangerous than the great times of darkness that will also come.

This period of great esteem for the church is like a parallel of the first years of the church in Jerusalem. Then the people held believers in high esteem, but also feared them. We must be prepared for this time as it will be a great opportunity for leading multitudes to the Lord, and to give direction to the nations. However, this does not negate the fact that there will also be times of great darkness sweeping the earth, just as great destruction later came upon Jerusalem.

The Greatest Reformation

In preparation for these great events, the church is about to go through a metamorphosis. She is going to change from a worm into a butterfly. A caterpillar in confined to the earth, and its path must conform to the contour of the earth. Likewise, for nearly two thousand years the church has often conformed more to the ways of the world than to the ways of the Spirit. Soon the church will go through a change so dramatic that it will seem to emerge as an entirely different creature. It will be like another birth. This time we will have wings to soar high above the ways of the world.

Possibly the greatest struggle that a butterfly will ever experience is freeing itself from the cocoon where the great transformation has taken place. However, if it were not for the strengthening of the butterfly that takes place during this struggle, it would never be able to flap its great wings and fly. Not only does the church have a transformation to undergo, but it must then prevail through the struggle of freeing itself from the place of the transformation.

The church has been bound by forces that have greatly inhibited her from becoming all that she was created to be. Evil religious spirits have become substitutes for the Holy Spirit. Control spirits have dominated and crushed creativity. The basic nature of God and those who have His Spirit is creativity. Political spirits have caused the church to cower under the fear of man so tightly binding the church, that both the devil and the world are convinced that she will never be anything but a worm. However, even under this extreme pressure, a transformation is taking place on the inside of this worm. Even though she is still imprisoned, wings are growing! There is about to be a jailbreak!

The church is about to bust out of the prison that the devil and the world have tried to keep her in. The church is about to come forth both beautiful and strong. And she will be able to fly! The sky will be her home, and the wind of the Spirit will be her guide.

When this new church emerges, she will be so different from what is now perceived to be the church, that the whole world will not even recognize that there was ever a connection between the two. As the new creation church begins to soar, the old forms will become filled with every evil thing. The corruption of the old will be total, and it will no longer be possible for the righteous to stay in the old.

The Spiritual Civil War

Years ago I was shown that a spiritual civil war was coming upon the church. This was a war of brothers fighting brothers. This great conflict was fought over spiritual issues that reflected the natural ones that the American Civil War was fought over, such as the "plantation mentality" of some church leaders, slavery versus freedom, union versus rebellion, etc. This war is approaching, and preliminary skirmishes are now breaking out. Even so, there are things that we can do that will greatly lessen both the scope and endurance of this conflict, just as the American Civil War could have been greatly shortened by strong, decisive leadership in the beginning. We must pray that the Lord raises up strong decisive leadership so that truth can prevail quickly. This war is coming, but it does not have to be a long, drawn out affair such as the American Civil War.

The Power Of Creation

The power of creativity is going to be released through the church so that even the world 's greatest inventors, artists and visionaries stand and marvel at the church. Christians, who know the Creator should be the most creative people on the face of the earth. We have a well of living water in us that can never be exhausted. However, it is a river, not a lake. A river is always flowing, going somewhere. True Christianity is the most exciting, invigorating life that can be experienced, and that river is about to become an irresistible force. If we are going to work with Lord through these times, we must break free from the shackles and fears that pressure believers into conformity. This is one of the most devastating strongholds that have exalted themselves against the true knowledge of God.

For example, when the Lord Jesus performed miracles, it seems that He never did them the same way twice. One of the reasons why the church has had only sporadic power for healing has been our tendency to depend on methods and formulas more than on the Holy Spirit. If the Lord heals one way, we usually try to duplicate the way, such as praying the same prayers, doing it in the same setting, even getting the same people together to pray rather than looking to the Healer. It is obviously the very nature of the Lord to be creative. He is even creative in the way that He heals.

Using formulas and patterns is actually a form of witchcraft, which is counterfeit spiritual authority. There is a true authority about to be released in the church that will release a level of creativity in believers that is literally unprecedented in human history. This will actually release such faith in the church that powerful miracles will be the result.

The common denominator of the great heroes of faith listed in Hebrews 11 is that they all did something that no one had ever done before. To press beyond the present limits of thought or action is a demonstration of great faith. That is why Abraham, who is called "the father of faith," was compelled to leave behind all that he had known to seek God in unknown regions. True faith still requires a walk far beyond our comfort zones. When we do this, we are no longer putting our trust in our environment, or in other people, but in God.

It is in this way that a great people are about to emerge from the present forms of church that have been built upon the ways of men, and they will risk everything to seek that which God is building. This will threaten the forces of status quo, the powers that are now oppressing the saints, and will be the fundamental cause of the coming spiritual civil war. However, a true union of the church is not possible until the forces of spiritual slavery are defeated and all people are set free to follow the Lord in their own quest.

This is not the license to depart from sound doctrine, or to rebel against God's established authorities. However, there is about to be a clear distinction between those who have received their authority from above, and those who have promoted themselves, or been promoted by institutions. The latter authorities will be increasingly revealed as operating in the control, political and religious spirits. This is Satan's "cord of three strands" that he has used to bind the church. That cord will soon be broken, and the true liberty of the Spirit released in the world, and the church which will fall into increasing tyranny and bondage to evil. "Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty" (II Corinthians 3:17).

True faith is also true liberty. The freedom of faith is about to be released. As stated, this will also result in unprecedented miracles. Just as the Spirit moved upon that which was "formless and void" (Genesis 1:2) in the beginning, and brought forth such a glorious creation, the Spirit will move through believers to bring forth glorious new creations even out of the greatest chaos. The Holy Spirit is not intimidated by chaos, and neither must we be. Rather we must see chaos as opportunities for the Holy Spirit to work. It will be in the most desperate situations that His greatest works will be revealed. The truth must be sown deep within us to see meltdowns of authority and civil order as an opportunity to see His great work.

The Children are for Signs and Wonders

There is an increasing onslaught of the devil against children and youth. The confusion and disorientation of youth will continue to increase dramatically. The enemy of all life has released his greatest darkness against youth because he knows that this is the generation of God's deliverers. In the midst of this onslaught, great and noble leaders will begin to emerge, with some of them being very young children. Their fierce resolution to follow the Lord will lead many out of the darkness. God will do great miracles through them. We must learn from these children; we must become like them to enter the kingdom.

Children and youth ministries must be given our highest priorities. These ministries are often given a low priority because children and youth do not have much to give financially, so many only do enough to occupy the children while the parents can receive ministry. Those who are going to be a part of the coming move of God will understand that the most important ministry right now is to equip and train children and youth for their callings in Christ, and they will begin releasing them into ministry now. Their generation is going to enter the kingdom. There will be some "Joshua's and Caleb's" from the previous generation, but we must put our highest priority on preparing the coming generation. Those who do not do this will quickly begin to fall from their place.

Because so many children have been reared more on television than by instruction, they are often conditioned to respond only to sound bites. Many of their attention spans have been reduced to just a few seconds. They are addicted to constant bold stimulation and anything less than this cannot break through to them. However, God is going to break through this.

We see in the Book of Acts that the first Christians were continually in awe concerning the great things that God did among them. That is the nature of true church life. There is nothing on this earth more interesting, fulfilling and exciting than God! The next move of God is not going to just be built around another doctrine. The next great move of God is simply going to be God moving. The Lord is going to suddenly come into His temple, and the whole world is going to know it. When His glory fills His temple -the church- no flesh will be able to minister, but will flee.

Children and youth are about to become much more interested in God than in all of the distractions and traps that the enemy has set for this generation. They will be drawn to God, but they will never be drawn to dead forms of religion and programs. We cannot compete with the world on the level of entertainment, and do not need to. The anointing of the Holy Spirit is much more interesting and compelling than anything that the devil has. We must stop trying to entertain the kids and simply draw near to God. If we are drawing near to Him so that He is truly lifted up, all will come to Him. Those who are getting near to God will be the most contagious people on the earth. Those who are simply offering religious programs will look increasingly ridiculous and out of step with the times. It is God whom the children want, and nothing else will substitute for Him.

Strong Foundations

With all of our excitement about the new, we must fulfill the commandment to honor our fathers and mothers, in the spiritual as well as the natural. We must also esteem the aged, refined wine that they can serve us. If we are able to go another step it is only because of how well the ones who went before us have prepared the way. They too will partake of the fruit. They have earned the right to be a part of the great company of witnesses whom God the Father will sit with to behold the dawning of the day of Jesus Christ. Our Lord has conquered. He is about to take His rightful place as the King who rules over all nations. Those who have gone on to be with the Lord will be coming back with Him. It is right that they are honored.

In Malachi 4:5-6 the Lord states, "Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD. And he will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse." Elijah is the ministry that prepares the way for the Lord. One of the greatest things that we can do to help prepare the way for Him is to restore the hearts of the fathers to their children.

We must also understand that one of the follies that brings the greatest curses on any land is the departure of the fathers from their families. This is especially a curse upon the West at this time. Families are breaking down, and it is almost always the father who leaves the family. Mothers seldom need to be restored to their children because they are seldom estranged. I Timothy 5:8 says, "But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever." Note that this word is not to "she," but rather to "he." Providing for our own is not just paying child support, it is being a father.

There is a kind of leadership and nurturing that only mothers can give, and there is a kind that only fathers can give. Children need both in a family. Fathers who leave their families for selfish reasons are departing from the faith in a very basic way, and their judgment will be most severe. Church leaders who do not take a stand on this truth are also denying their calling. Thank God for Promise Keepers and the other great family ministries that have been raised up because they are certainly worthy of our support. However, the local church is always the front line of the battle, and it is the local church that must fight for the family, especially in restoring the hearts of the fathers to the children. To not do this will bring the greatest curse of all on our land.

Jesus Is Knocking

Revelation 3:20 is a crucial message for our time, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me." This describes how He is on the outside knocking, seeking to enter His own church. In this scripture we see both the unfathomable patience and mercy of our God, and the unfathomable tragedy of the church that does not even know that the Lord is not with them.

As Revelation 3:20 states, it is not those who hear His knock who open the door to Him, but those who hear His voice. One of the key issues of our time will be whether or not we know the voice of the Lord or not. Because of this there will continue to be an increasing crescendo of attacks by the enemy to try to turn people away from seeking to know the voice of the Lord.

In Acts 2:17-18 the Lord says, "And it shall be in the last days,' God says, 'That I will pour forth of My Spirit upon all mankind; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; Even upon My bond slaves, both men and women, I will in those days pour forth of My Spirit And they shall prophesy." It is clear that one of the primary signs of the last days is that the Lord will pour out His Spirit and that dreams, visions and prophecy will come upon the old and young, men and women, which obviously includes everyone. If you are going to receive His Holy Spirit at the end these signs are obviously coming with Him. These are ways that the Lord has spoken to His people from the beginning, and we are assured that it will also be so in "the last days." If we are going to understand what He is doing at the end, it is obvious that we will need to understand dreams, visions and prophecy.

It is no accident that the prophetic ministry has been under almost a continuous assault for the last ten years. Some of the most vicious attacks have come from those who claim to be friends of the prophetic. However, we should not think that this is strange. John Wesley was condemned by many church leaders of his own time for the "unspeakable presumption" of referring to himself as an evangelist. The restoration of every ministry to the church has come with a greater opposition from the church than it did from the world. Some will reject restoration out of jealousy, some out of fear, and most will try to find anything wrong with it that they can in order to justify their rejection of it, but it is still coming.

The prophetic ministry is being restored to the church at this time, and it is coming with increasing power and credibility. The hand may continue to say that it has no need of the eyes, but it is clear from the Scriptures that we cannot accomplish our last day mandate without the prophetic. The prophetic gifts are going to be poured out on everyone who walks in the Holy Spirit. Don't let the attacks discourage you, but determine to sink your roots even deeper into sound biblical truth, and determine that you are going to know the voice of the Lord even better.

As the Lord Himself stated in John 10:4 when He referred to Himself as the Good Shepherd, "When he puts forth all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice." The sheep "follow Him because they know His voice." We will only be able to follow Him to the degree that we know His voice. We must never compromise this devotion to know His voice, regardless of how friends or foes seek to deter us from it. The call that the Lord made to every one of the churches in Revelation was to those who overcome. We must let every attack only increase our resolve.

The Lord allows such attacks to separate those with true faith from the pretenders. Every test is for the purpose of promotion. As Francis Frangipane likes to say, "We never fail one of God's tests. We just keep taking them until we pass." We also seldom pass with a perfect score. However, every one that we pass enables Him to release a greater anointing and authority to us. Likewise, the prophetic ministry is growing dramatically in both anointing and authority on a worldwide basis. More than anything right now we need the humility that will keep us in the grace of God. We must never close ourselves to correction from legitimate sources, and we must accept accusations and slander as opportunities to die a little more to the pride that can be the most dangerous stumbling block of all.

Church is not a Spectator Sport

One of the spiritual megatrends that will quickly have a radical impact on the church is the rising devotion to seeing the mandate of Ephesians 4 accomplished. The entire book of Ephesians describes a church life that probably has not been fully experienced since the first century. However, it is a mandate that we know will be fulfilled before the end comes. For this alone to happen the change would be even more radical than that which was called "The Reformation." Ephesians 4:13-14 describes the result of the church functioning as it is designed, which is our calling and which we must pursue:

until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.

As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming;

Is there even a congregation on the earth that has come to the unity of the faith, the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man that is "the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ"? Is there even a congregation that still has life but is not constantly tossed about by every new wind of doctrine? I have not seen or heard of one. However, we cannot settle for less than this. How do we get there? The two verses previous to those just quoted tell us:

And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ (verses 11-12).

Here we see that the ministry of the church is not centered on just one person or ministry, but on a team. We also see that those who have these callings are not to just do the ministry, but are to equip the people to do it. Twentieth century Christianity has generally had a greater resemblance to a spectator sport than to the church life described in The New Testament. Twenty-first century Christianity will break free of the terrible shackles that have so limited the true life of the Spirit. Change is coming.

"Spectator sport" Christianity is another cause for much of the lukewarmness that now prevails in the church. It is also a primary reason for many of the problems that churches experience with people becoming disgruntled, or even worse, bored. Every Christian has been given a calling, a ministry. They were known before the creation of the world and called with a purpose. The frustration of not being equipped or given the place to fulfill what we were created for is causing many of the church splits and other problems many experience today.

I have asked several audiences of thousands of Christians how many even knew what their calling was. With but a few exceptions the answer is consistently less than 5%. When I ask how many are actually functioning, it usually drops considerably. How well could we live if only 5% of our body was functioning? Is this the way that the Lord designed His body? This has been one of the tragic failures for which we must repent of if we are going to be true New Testament ministries in the church.

Freedom is coming. A new breed of leader is going to arise who will fulfill the mandate of true New Testament ministry to equip the people, and allow them to do the ministry. This will probably come in many forms, but it will come. It must. A true New Testament church leader is only successful if he or she is raising up others who can do what they do. Is that not the model that the Lord gave us for leadership? Then we will also have true church growth, which is not just growing fat, but growing strong as well.

Future church life is not going to be built on meetings, but on the moving of the Holy Spirit through His people. Church will not even continue to be thought of as the meeting place, or the meetings. The Holy Spirit will be as free to flow through His people as much on Monday morning as Sunday morning.

New Church Life and Government

There is room in the New Testament for a diversity of church governments. However, a system of church government has evolved in many denominations and movements that perverts ministry. It is to the point where it is difficult for a true pastoral ministry to function in it, and nearly impossible for the others. Therefore the Holy Spirit has placed some of the most effective and anointed pastors in secular positions where they can actually do their job better. Many are school teachers, business leaders and workers in almost every field. These people are truly pastoring their students, employees and co-workers. If you are one of these, the church may not now recognize your ministry, but God does. Be faithful to your calling because you are more in harmony with the future of the church than much of what is now thought to be church. You are a part of the new breed of ministry that is coming forth.

The purest form of church life we have in the Scriptures is found in the gospels. When Jesus walked the earth, He showed us the way that He wants us to live. He did go to the temple to teach occasionally, but mostly He ministered where the people were to be found in their daily lives. He seemed much more at home sitting by a seashore, or in someone's house, than He did in the temple.

Our greatest times of fellowship with the Lord, and with each other, will usually come in such natural settings. The new church will not continue to be identified with buildings, but with life.

This is not to say that church meetings are not important. There are times for teaching and special ministry which is much more effective in such designated settings. Even so, as the church in the Book of Acts met in the temple and from house to house, we must recognize that the "house to house" meetings are just as much church as those that take place in our buildings. Just as Jesus met and called most of His followers from the midst of their every day activities, He has not changed and still is far more prone to meet with people where they live and not in some artificial pseudo-spiritual setting.

If the church is to be relevant to our times we must break out of the prison made by four walls of our designated church buildings. If we can only move in the Holy Spirit in our designated buildings, we should question the authenticity of what we are doing. Just as Jesus did the bulk of His ministry in the settings of every day life, He will still do His greatest works in the midst of everyday life, in everyday settings.

New Breed of Leader

The new church leaders will also be chosen and prepared very differently than those of the past. We must learn to recognize true spiritual leadership as the Lord did. He did not go to the great religious institutions of His time to find His leaders for the church, but He went to common people who were being prepared by common, everyday life. Life does more to prepare us for ministry than any institution. Institutional preparation for ministry can bring forth the most unrealistic leadership that is out of touch with real life. This is one of the reasons why the church has become increasingly out of touch with the times.

While I still believe that seminaries can have a place in ministry preparation, they were never intended to be the primary place. Seminaries are dying, but they can have a great contribution to the future of the church if they will allow their purpose to be redefined. As one of the great theologians and visionaries of our times, C. Peter Wagner, related to me several years ago, conferences have displaced seminaries as the primary place of equipping for the future leaders of the church. I believe that this is true, but the primary Biblical way to prepare leader- discipleship is yet to be recovered. Many still cringe at the word "discipleship" because of some of the excesses of the past, but we must not reject this crucial form of leadership preparation. We will not get to where we are called to go without it.

Discipleship is God ' s primary way to prepare future leaders and ministries, and another great movement toward recovering this is coming to the church. However, it must not become a separate stream and emphasis, which will cause the corruption of any truth. It must flow within the life of the present churches and movements. Every "Paul" who does not have a "Timothy" is wasting a good part of their ministry, and failing to make what could be their greatest lasting contribution to the church.

The Great Battle Of Our Times

The Lord Jesus warned us in Matthew 24:12-13, "And because lawlessness is increased, most people's love will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end, he shall be saved." This is now! Many Christians are growing cold. Studies now show that there is very little difference between the morality of those who claim to be born again Christians and unbelievers. The Scripture exhorts us II Corinthians 13:5: "Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you- unless indeed you fail the test?" If there is no difference between the way that we live and the way that others live who do not know the Lord, then we have failed the test!

If we are lukewarm in our faith, it is time to get in or get out. We are better off departing from the church than staying in it if we are not on fire for God. If we are not on fire for God, we are hurting ourselves by becoming a hypocrite, and we are hurting the church with our presence. True church life is not an appendage that we add onto our lives for a couple of hours a week so that we can feel better about ourselves. If we have not given our lives to the Lord, and not just a few hours a week, then we are the one to whom this applies. If this is true of us, and if we do not remove ourselves, then the Lord will soon spit us out of His mouth as we are told in Revelation 3:16.

However, there is another option. Get hot! He is the Lord of all; He gave His own life to purchase ours, and He is deserving all of our devotion, day and night. How many of us would have married our spouses if on our wedding day they had said to us, "Darling, I love you so much I am going to be faithful to you three hundred and sixty-four days a year. I will only be unfaithful to you one day a year." Is the Lord worthy of a bride for whom the reverse is actually more true that she is only faithful a few days a year?

The Lord is coming. Before the end the Lord will have a bride who is so passionately in love with Him that she will make herself ready. Like the bride who so loves her bridegroom that she is determined for her dress be without a single spot or wrinkle, the bride of Christ is about to return to her first love. She will be known by her love, first for the Lord, and then for one another. That will be a radical change. That is the nature of radical Christianity.

Mentoring of the Prophet!

Deborah Voetberg

THE OFFICE OF PROPHET

The prophetic ministry is a burning desire for the absolute, the true, the just and the righteous. The fruit of the prophetic is the bringing back of the children of God into the ways and the absolutes of the Lord. The Prophetic office is about turning the hearts of the fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to their fathers. ( Malachi 4:6 ) The Prophet sees through the dimension of the Father. A Prophet is recognized by his pursuit of truth! THE PROPHETIC DIMENSION IS A COVENANT DIMENSION.

If you would approach a Christian and asked him to define the Prophet to you, he would probably say, ” Someone who tells me where I stand with God”, or something similar to that. No...that is the gift of Knowledge or Wisdom being manifested! The Prophetic office is by calling rather than gifting. The gift is not a calling. The office is permanent & abiding.

Anyone can become prophetic, anyone can move in the prophetic dimension, it’s a matter of obedience, but being obedient does not make you a Prophet. When you obey and act on a word given to you from the Lord, you are moving in the prophetic realm.

The Prophetic office is a matter of revealing & cutting off any spiritual source pretending to produce life. The Prophetic office provokes by its sheer existence, what lies at the heart of a matter. A Prophet speaks to the heart rather than the ear. Their words give life to the listener, they apply remedies at the roots. The Prophet’s words invite the refiners fire. ...does not tickle the ear but produce inner growth. The revelation leaves no room for man’s passivity and complacency. It will challenge you to act upon it!

To understand the Mentoring of the Prophet, you must understand the nature and character of a Prophet. Without this understanding, it would be easy to become offended and miss the equipping for your life that can only come through that Office. Jesus gave His body five Offices for the equipping for His saints. They do not function the same!

Here are some examples:

Pastor = Shepherding, Nurturing, Guiding

Evangelist = Revival, Healing, Deliverance

Prophet = Wisdom, Correction, Revelation

Teacher = Doctrine, Disciple, Clarity

Apostle = Foundation, Authority, Establish

The churches of the last twenty five years have been lead by the Teacher, with an Apostolic anointing. Just look around...

The Prophetic office of the New Testament can be as rugged and radical as the former. The ruggedness stems from crucifixion, death to self and death to the world. A Prophet has embraced the cross of Jesus Christ. A Prophet has experienced being fully accepted of God and totally rejected by men. A Prophet has lived and lives Gal. 2:20!God alone is his object of attention.

A Prophet understands that.....

W/O holiness =we cannot see God,

W/O seeing God = we can not intercede,

W/O intercession = no harvest!

A Prophet understands that it is all about SOULS!!!!

A Prophet recovers what was lost! Luke 19:10.A Seer who comes to lead the blind, he faces God before he faces men!( Elijah – 1 Kings 17:1 )”...As the Lord God of Israel lives, before whom I stand...”A Prophet’s life is a life of Intercession.

The Mentoring

In 1 Kings 18:21... Elijah came to all the people, and said...." How long will you falter between two options? If the Lord is God, follow Him, but if Baal, follow him. "

The Prophet sees through the dimension of the Father. To him the choice is clear. The counsel of the Prophet will be based on this statement...” How long will you falter...Choose this day whom you will serve! ” In 1Kings 19:4 Elijah cries out after a great victory... “ It is enough! Now Lord, take my life, For I am no better than my fathers!“ (Weak points – blind spots...keep us humble & dependant on God. ) Throughout the life of a Prophet, God is faithful to reveal the weakness of the flesh. His Grace is what sustains all of His children. ( 2 Cor.12:7-10 )

Elijah moved in the supernatural to where it was natural for him.1. He out ran chariots. 2. Was fed by Angels.3. Ate food that sustained him 40 days! Yet he plunged into the depths of depression after his greatest victory. God asked him twice in that cave what he was doing? God knew! He was trying to get Elijah to see the folly of his self-pity. Even the revelation of God in the still small voice could not break the hold. God granted his request, gives Him an assignment and sends him to his replacement. Elisha! It would take many years to raise up Elisha to carry the double portion.

God will choose your mentor. You must answer the call.1Kings 19:21Elisha followed after Elijah. The call was from God, not Elijah. ..“ What have I done to you? ”It was God who had called Elisha and Elijah was always pointing that out. Elisha had to answer to God yes or no. He said goodbye to his family and Elisha’s actions showed his answer. Freely choose whether you will answer the call and follow the mentors God brings across your path. God didn’t say to judge, criticize or get an attitude...He said to follow!

In Mark 10:17-22 we find Jesus and the Rich Young Ruler. The Rich Young Ruler thought he could buy eternal life through his good works...but Jesus said he was lacking! He was sad and turned from Jesus when he found that to follow Jesus was to follow the cross! To walk as He walked! To be Mentored in the ways of the Kingdom!

Elisha’s 1st miracle was not until he had completed years of serving. The time of preparation will always equal the call! A Mentor teaches you through his life. A friend will be content to leave you the way you are. A Mentor speaks truth to take you where you need to be.

Prophets understand the ways and economy of God...it defies the logic of man. The Prophet will take you back to the only possible freedom...the freedom of obedience. ( Psalm 119:1&2)The freedom of the cross.

“Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel’s will save it. “ Mark 8:34&35

Blessings & Great Grace !!!

Mercy Triumphs

Linda Royce

Little ones, many of you have been crying out to Me against the injustice, against the oppression, and against the sin in this world. You lament, “How long, O Lord, how long will we have to endure? When, O Lord, will this end?”

My children, there is something you must understand. As long as this age continues, MERCY ALWAYS TRIUMPHS OVER JUDGMENT.

(Lam 3:22 KJV) It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

Receive this word into your spirit once and for all... it is indeed of My mercies that you are not all consumed... THIS MEANS ALL OF YOU! Think not higher of yourselves than you ought.

(Luke 9:51-56 KJV) And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

My children, I love you; but many of you do not know what manner of spirit you are of. My word very plainly states that I did not come to destroy or condemn, but to save. You need My heart for My church and the lost. Do you not yet understand that the longsuffering of the Lord is salvation? (2 Peter 3:15) Do you not understand that once the door closes on this age, it's over? Men will no longer have the choice to repent and come to Me. I want them all to come unto Me. I love them all. I died for them all. You look at the vilest of the vile with disdain. You look at the oppressors and the abusers with contempt. Don't you understand that My heart longs for them? When will you ask for My heart? When will weep with Me? When will you contend with the forces of darkness that have them in chains?

Forget about your plans. There isn't much time. I am returning soon.

(John 4:35 KJV) Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

Children of God, there are some fields that are whiter than others are. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession (Psa 2:8 KJV). This is a promise, and I always keep My promises. Try me. Ask of Me. I am going to open doors to nations that have never been reached with the gospel. Many of the lost sheep are in these nations. Watch Me open impossible doors in this day. Watch Me bring multitudes into the Kingdom. Will you be with Me? Will you be a part of what I am doing in this hour? This will be a quick work. Will you be awake and listening for My voice? Or will you be distracted by your own plans? You can be a part of the greatest harvest this world has ever seen, or you can hear about it. The choice is yours.

My children, don't miss what I am doing NOW. I exhort you, be a NOW people. Don't bemoan the past and don't look longingly into the future. I want people saved, healed and delivered NOW. Will you join Me? Cry out for Me to break your hard hearts in this day. This is what you need. Cry out for My character. Cry out for the fruit of My Holy Spirit to manifest in your life. Cry out to be the greatest in the kingdom... a servant. Cry out! These are the "higher" gifts. Refuse to leave My throne room without being changed. My Holy Spirit will transform you. I am a rewarder of those who diligently seek Me. Do you really want to reflect Me? Do you really want to re-present Me? Ask Me, and I will change you.

You will not be qualified to speak of My coming judgment until you understand My mercy. You will not be able to adequately depict My anger until you understand My love. My dear, precious, children, many of you should make this coming year a study only of My love. Some of you I must soften and others I must break, before you can carry the words that must be brought to your nation. Do you not understand that the stronger the word, the greater the love that must be flowing from the vessel? My love can be the only motive for My ministers in this day, lest they be utterly consumed.

The church has a distorted view of My love. My love has been perverted and counterfeited. Cry out for My love. Cry out for My compassion. Ask Me to teach you My love and My compassion. I will forever change you, My church, and your nation.

(John 13:15 KJV) For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

Middle East: Ready

Friday Fax 2000/2

Friday Fax 2000 issue 2, 14 January

Middle East: ready to pay the price? Not long ago, we spoke with a Christian media manager with an uncommon vision and passion for people in the Middle East. His aim: they should get to know Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Earlier, while a Muslim, he had great plans to spread Islam throughout the world via satellite TV. Today, as a follower of Jesus, he is excited about spreading the gospel via satellite and encouraging the viewers to start house churches. Over 70 million households in the Arab world have satellite TV. He told us his story. It was not cheap.

Success is not everything Ibrahim Yousef James (name changed) looked at his reflection in the mirror. "Perhaps there really is something wrong with my life," he thought to himself. He was a dedicated 24-year-old Muslim, with a religious hat and a long beard as signs of his faith. He was born in India, but his family moved to Kuwait when he was 6 years old. He and his brother founded a TV production company, and he was rich by the age of 20. His TV company became the largest in Kuwait. Ibrahim studied the Koran, learning long passages by heart, gave to the poor and made seven pilgrimages to Mecca. There was only one thing he could never do right: commit suicide. He had already tried four times. "Why can't I find peace?" he asked himself over and over.

The God who speaks In 1985, he studied in Europe. During the last week of Ramadan, the Muslim month of fasting, he could not sleep. Even sleeping pills had no effect. He cried out to Allah "God, why are you punishing me?". He found a Gideon bible in his hotel room. Opening it, he discovered the words "Where to find help in a time of need" and a number of other topics, including "If you need sleep, read Psalm 4". Ibrahim was astonished. He read, and prayed "I know that there are people who believe this book. If you are the God of this book, let me fall asleep." He lay down and fell into a deep, dreamless sleep. However, he soon forgot his experience. During street evangelisation, he heard Christians saying "Jesus is the only way to God, he is the Prince of Peace." Ibrahim asked "How do you know that Christianity is the only way? Or that the Bible is God's Word, not the Koran?" "If you want to know the answers to those questions, ask God. He loves you and will show you the way," he was told. "I was completely astonished. I had never heard of anyone saying that God spoke to him!" he said. For all his life, he had served a judgmental God, not a loving one. Uncomfortable, Ibrahim prayed: "God, you must be able to speak to me. If you do not, I will reject you." The five following nights, he had a dream of a very bright light in the sky. As it approached, he recognised it as a cross, then heard a voice from heaven saying "This is my way. Jesus is my son. I give you my peace, and will leave my joy with you." Ibrahim woke up, almost unable to believe it: God had spoken to him!

Peace which no man can give "The following day, I considered the cost, what it would mean for me to follow Jesus. I knew that I would be expelled from my family. My company was in the Arab world, and it was clear that I could lose everything, including my life." He visited some other Christians of whom he had heard, and decided to follow Jesus. "From that day, a Godly joy filled my heart," he says. "Joy and a great peace..."

"Whoever leaves father and mother for my sake..." He immediately wanted to proclaim his new faith. He called his family, who had returned to India. "You must be joking!" exclaimed his father. "No, dad, it is no joke." "Recant!" his father demanded. As Ibrahim refused, his father told him "From this moment on, we have nothing more to do with you. We do not want to hear from you. Do not write, and do not call." His family confiscated all his wealth and his company. He had nothing left. A few months later, he received a letter from his parents, telling him that his mother was ill. "You are killing her. Give up your faith." He married in 1986, and in 1987, he received a telegram from India, inviting him to his sister's wedding. "Do not take your wife with you," he heard God telling him. Instead, he took his brother-in-law Jim with him. When he arrived, the reception was friendly, and everything looked good for 30 minutes. Then the atmosphere changed, and the whole family started hitting and kicking him, even his mother. "Recant Christ and convert to Islam!" demanded his father. As Ibrahim again refused, his father asked "Who then will rescue you from my hand?" Ibrahim replied "My God is great enough to protect me. But I would rather die with Jesus than live on without him!" His father fetched a gun, and was about to shoot when Ibrahim's uncle knocked his arm aside. "They kept me prisoner, with guards everywhere. They destroyed my Bible, my wedding photographs and all of my books, and chased Jim out of town." Desperate, he was only able to pray under the shower. After some time, his family started to take him out on visits. Suddenly, Jesus spoke to him, telling him that the day had come for him to leave his family. "Go now!" he heard, and the moment was opportune. He could jump into a taxi and flee back to his wife.

"Now I know that your God is real" Some years later, he was able to speak with his mother on the telephone. His sister's child lay dying. The family had been to the mosque to pray, but in vain, and the doctors had also given up hope. "What should I do?" asked Ibrahim. His mother asked him to pray, "pray in the name of Jesus for the child yourself," he replied, "and Jesus will heal her. But don't let yourself be caught, because you know what would happen." His mother prayed, and the child was miraculously healed. Ibrahim recently spoke with his father, who told him "I now know that your God is real, and that you know him, because our plans to destroy you have failed for 10 years."

"The price of following Jesus is high," says Ibrahim, "but Jesus paid it!" Source: name and address withheld

Mergers

J. Scott Thompson

Mergers and Strategic Alliances for Global Evangelism

Hello friends,

Last week, I heard in the Spirit the terms "strategic alliances" and "synergy." I then went to a Pastor's prayer meeting in our city and heard the same thing. Then, I received an e-mail from Chuck Pierce and he wrote of "synergy." So at that point, after hearing these terms three times in a couple of hours, I thought it would be prudent to seek the Lord for what He was trying to tell me. Here is what I found, I pray that this will benefit you.

1. "Strategic Alliances": The Season for Mergers & Acquisitions
2. "Synergy": The Purpose of Mergers
3. The Importance of "Connecting" for the Prophetic Purposes of God
4. The Days of Individualism and Sectarianism are Over!

Strategic Alliances: The Season for Mergers & Acquisitions

Maybe you have noticed in the news the recent acquisition by United Airlines of US Air? And just today, British Airways is looking at buying KLM Airlines. This then caused American Airlines to talk with Northwest to consider merging into one larger company. From banking to transportation, nearly every sector of the global economy has been affected by the wave of "mega-mergers." Some of the other "mega-mergers" have included Nations Bank with Bank of America, World Communications with MCI, Boeing and McDonnell Douglas, CitiBank and Travelers. In 1988 alone, mergers involving just American companies totaled 1 trillion dollars.

What is happening in the natural realm is a byproduct of what has already happened or is happening in the spiritual realm? In the spirit realm, God is strategically aligning (or realigning) His people in the earth. He is shifting His forces in place. He is putting reinforcements behind the front lines. He is combining smaller battalions into larger battalions. He is connecting the go-ers with the prayers and senders. He wants us to operate from a position of "maximum impact" in the kingdom. He is showing us that we can be more effective, operating with a greater strength and cover more ground as we work together for the advancement of the kingdom.

Synergy: The Purpose of Mergers

"Synergy" is a term that means that whenever people, drugs, animals or muscles cooperate, the result of their efforts will be greater than the sum of what they could do separately. One horse, for example, can pull six tons of weight but two harnessed together can pull not twelve but 32 tons! The Old Testament tells us that, "If one can chase a thousand, two can put two thousand to flight."

Why are there are so many mega-mergers going on? Dr. Fred Weston, Professor of Economics at UCLA, cited the "globalization of competition" as a major reason for the recent merger craze. He went on to say, "with the emergence of a global economy, companies have been forced to seek new ways to become more competitive on an international scale." These merging companies are concluding that they can better maintain controllable operating costs, increase efficiency and obtain a greater global reach.

Lets analyze what he said. First, he stated that the recent merger craze was do to the emergence of a "global economy." To be successful and impact globally, the companies are merging together and unifying efforts. I believe that this is the direction that Spirit of God is giving to His Church in these times. God is calling His people to FINISH the Great Commission. This includes preaching the gospel to every creature in every nation. In the 10/40 window alone there are nearly 1.3 billion people that have not heard the gospel one time! To reach these people it is going to take a CONCERTED EFFORT.

Many, many ministries are realizing this and are working together in these days. Some will even lay down there titles, positions and salaries to answer this call. They are hearing the Spirit reveal the truth in this hour that finishing the purposes of God is more important than building big ministries or our "own thing." The grace to lay these down for the cause and purposes of God for this hour is in the earth.

Dr. Weston then said that these merging companies could better control operating costs, increase efficiency and obtain a greater global reach. As ministries and churches merge together their efforts for World Evangelism, the same will happen. Those weaknesses of some ministries, when working together, will be overcame by the strengths of others (and visa versa). Examples of this is the Lighthouse Movement and Celebrate Jesus 2000 facilitated by Mission America. Working together for the evangelism of America! What we have not been able to do apart in the past, we can do together in the future!

The Importance of Connecting for the Prophetic Purposes of God

These are the days of working together. These are the days of "divine networking." The connections that God is wanting to make of people, networks, churches and ministries can be LIFE OR DEATH for some. There are people and people groups that God wants reached, but divine connections must be made first.

Remember the connection of Peter and Cornelius? God divinely connected them for His purpose. BECAUSE OF THIS CONNECTION THE GENTILES RECEIVED THE GIFT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT (Acts 10). What if this connection would not have been made. What if Cornelius would not have been obedient to the vision of the angel of God? What if Peter in his bewilderment at the vision he saw, would not have gone to see Cornelius? Because of their obedience, because they pressed though "denominational titles," even through fear and pride, THE GENTILES RECEIVED THE HOLY SPIRIT. Are there connections in your life or ministry that the Spirit has been directing you to make? Remember, it may be life or death that YOU make that connection!

I remember two years ago when the Lord dropped into my Spirit to go to Indiana to visit a ministry friend (who I had only met once). I went in obedience (and by faith) not knowing why. During that weekend God opened up a door to begin ministering in the nation of India. Now two years later, we have ongoing ministry there. Let the connections be made!

The Days of Individualism and Sectarianism are Over!

The days of individualism and sectarianism are over. It has not worked thus far. IT WILL NOT WORK. In the case of World Evangelism, Jesus said the world would believe WHEN WE ARE ONE. "That they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they may be ONE in US, THAT THE WORLD MAY BELIEVE THAT YOU SENT ME. And the glory which You gave Me, I have given them, THAT THEY MAY BE ONE JUST AS WE ARE ONE." (John 17:21-22) Notice the glory is not given to make us feel good but to UNITE US!

David Barrett and James Reapsome reported in their AD 2000 Series Seven Hundred Plans To Evangelize the World. Of the 788 active plans profiled by the authors, NEARLY TWO-THIRDS WERE EITHER NON-COOPERATING OR PARTIALLY COOPERATING WITH OTHER GROUPS AND ONLY 10.5 PERCENT CONSIDERED COOPERATION WITH LIKE-MINDED TRADITIONS AND BODIES INDISPENSABLE. I believe that God is dealing with the fear and pride in our hearts that has kept us from working together and has kept us separated.

This is the hour for global evangelism. This is the generation to FINISH the Great Commission. There is a people coming forth that will take the gospel to every nook and cranny on planet earth. BUT IT WILL ONLY BE DONE TOGETHER! Where the WHOLE BODY is joined and knit together by what EVERY JOINT SUPPLIES, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, CAUSES GROWTH of the body for the edifying of itself in love. (Eph. 4:16)

"Individuality" when kept separate will produce starvation in the rest of the body. Too much of the body of Christ has experienced spiritual famine because the nourishment for it has been provided by God, but it has been kept separated from rest of the body. But when individuality is coupled and joined with the body, GROWTH and HEALTH will take place. We have all been given a "MEASURE" and when these measures are combined the FULLNESS (Eph. 4:13) WILL become a reality!

So go for it! The nations are waiting!

Sharing the Love. Touching the Nations.

My Grace Is Sufficient

Katie Jordan

My people, I tell you again and again of My great love for you. Now let Me ask you, HOW MUCH DO YOU LOVE ME? Do you love Me enough to let go of the world and worldly pleasures? Do you love Me enough to come aside with Me and be My peculiar people set apart to be My own? If you are not separate from the world how can those in the world recognize you as MY OWN PEOPLE?

Daily the world is growing more evil so it is true that you will stand out as different if you refuse to live like the worldly live, but that is what I expect of each one of you. THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION AS TO WHO YOU BELONG TO. FOR I WANT IT TO BE OBVIOUS THAT YOU ARE GOD'S PEOPLE.

REMEMBER, REGARDLESS OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH YOU FIND YOURSELF, MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT!

Ministry of the Apostle

I offer the following portions of an article distributed by Bill Britton, written by John Noble for your edification and discernment. Doug Fortune

The Ministry of the Apostle by John Noble

PREFACE

We have come to the page in Church history when the message on the following pages should be received by all of God's people, as it has great import for our times. This message was written by our Brother John Noble, from Romford in Essex, England, and was reprinted from a paper published by Fellowship of Believers, Grand Rapids, Minn.

This message of the restoration of Apostolic ministry in the End-time Church of Jesus Christ on earth, swept across the land in a new way in 1948-49. It caused great spiritual upheavals, and set up shock waves throughout the Pentecostal movement. No Pentecostal denomination at that time would receive the idea of Apostles and Prophets set in the Church by divine appointment, for it struck at the very heart of their religious political system. Popularity contests, with leaders and officers of denominations set in by democratic ballot, had always been the method of choosing divine government. No one was about to change to the helter-skelter method of letting God choose His own men, and set them in by the laying on of hands with prophecy. No one, that is, except those who were hearing from God at that time. Fortunately, God aimed His trumpet at me, and I heard the message. It called me out of the denominational system, with its politics and static theology. I was a young man, just 30 years of age, an ordained pastor, a writer for Headquarters publications, and my future secured in the organization. I had no where else to go. But the truth of God could not be ignored. I had to make a choice, and I chose to follow the Spirit into the deeper recesses of the Word of God, into the treasure house of God's divine purposes. It was not easy for my wife and I to make this choice and walk this lonely path, but we have never been sorry. It has been a glorious way, filled with Holy Ghost surprises. It has been an upward calling, from glory to glory, bringing us to mountain tops of divine revelations, and beautiful spiritual experiences. Yes, God's divine government is being set in, by God's methods. His Body is being built up, coming to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Apostles are needed today, and God has them. Now open your heart, and read this much needed message of truth. In Christ Bill Britton

WHAT SAITH THE WORD OF GOD?

And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: (Eph 4:11-13) And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. (I Cor 12:28)

For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. (I Cor 4:9)

INTRODUCTION

My concern is to arouse my fellow Christians to look for apostles to shape church life in our day. I am convinced that the rediscovery of the truth concerning the apostolic and prophetic ministries, will play a vital role in establishing and bringing to fullness the body of Christ in preparation for the return of Jesus. It will also be an essential step leading up to the final great evangelistic thrust before this glorious climax of history. Every trace of unbelief concerning the appearance of apostles must be dealt with, so that we may watch and pray with faith for the men of God's appointment to come forth in power. These men will move through the church subduing the evil forces which divide- and strip the saints of their true glory. They will unite and release an army under God which will accomplish His purpose in these end-times.

If the apostles are to function in this way they will have understood one simple, fundamental lesson from the example of Jesus. They will know that a man can only exercise authority when he has first put himself under authority. (Luke 7:6-8). Jesus learned this submission to authority as a boy, when His evident gift first appeared during His talks in the temple (Luke 2:46-47). He immediately went about His Heavenly Father's business by subjecting Himself to His earthly parents who had just made the mistake of leaving Him behind in Jerusalem. With such obedience He rapidly grew in stature and in wisdom (Luce 2:51-52; Phil 2:5-9). Leaders in the church will also have learned to be subject to the Father by submitting to one another even in weakness, growing in favor with God and men. In this way they will earn the right to raise up other men of authority from amongst those who have come to recognize and to trust the ministry. So the body will become healthy once again, being renewed internally by "that which every joint supplies" (Eph. 4:16).

FIRST AND LAST APOSTLES

The tide of recovery in the church continues to rise, despite the seemingly long pauses between rollers. Almost unnoticed, year by year, day by day, God moves forward with relentless precision in His program to draw all things together to Himself, engulfing creation in His love.

The ebbing tide took about three or four hundred years to withdraw into the obscurity of the dark ages of church history. Then it settled back into the doubtful comfort of formal religion. But during the last four centuries, at the close of this age, the winds of light and revelation are blowing again as strongly as ever. The mighty floods of His love are sweeping into empty lives once more.

These surges of blessing began their inward trek when the great Bible translators set to work, risking their lives to bring the word of God to the masses in a language they would understand. This quickly led to the opening up of a succession of glorious truths, such as justification by faith, holiness, social responsibility, the priesthood of all believers, the baptism in the Holy Spirit, and lately the truth concerning the body of Christ and the structure of the church. It does not require a great deal of study to see that the progress of this renewal is similar to that of the decline in reverse. In the past three or four centuries we have recovered much of the ground that was lost.

In the early church the loss of authority, or authority getting into the wrong hands, brought divisions which caused a leakage of power. As a result of this the needs of body and soul could not be met and miracles ceased. The brightness of the gospel sun was overshadowed by clouds of apathy and worldliness which crept into the lives of the saints. Even the Scriptures became buried under the words of dying language which, like falling autumn leaves, obscured the path of truth. Only a thin cord of grace, wound lovingly around a few warm hearts, traced the way forward through the long winter of apostasy.

To ignore these facts and to sit quietly by, waiting to see what God will do next, like some armchair prophet, would be denying our Christian responsibility. We must respond to the forgiveness of God extended to us for our part in all this, so it will be our joy to seek Him afresh until He pours out the Spirit in latter rains (Hos. 10: 12). The Lord Jesus always reaches out meeting hungry, thirsty souls with His spring-time renewing grace (Matt. 5:6). So let us set our hearts on recovery. Let us determine by grace to go through with God whatever the cost. Then we shall begin to hear what the Spirit is saying to our generation. With His help we shall find practical ways to put the truth to work in our families and fellowships.

When the church was born at Pentecost, the Lord had created a delicate structure to support the body and allow growth. He wanted a mature man with whom He could complete the work of building the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. He wanted a united people who, like His Son, would obey and serve Him faithfully in showing His love to a dying world. The structure has not been altered. The Lord is working right now to bring us into the same life and style that the first Christians enjoyed. He desires that we should press beyond even this to a fullness which the majority never knew.

Now in terms of recovery, what was first to disappear will be last to reappear in order that the heavenly program may be completed. Jesus Himself is, of course, both First and Last; the Alpha and Omega (Rev 1-11); the Author and Finisher (Heb. 12:2); the Foundation and the Topstone (I Cor. 3..11; Matt. 21:42). The One who left the scene first will be the last to return, it is His privilege and our joy, and we look forward hopefully to this great event. Next to Himself He set "first" apostles a Cor. 12:28); when these men died they left a vacuum of authority into which the wrong men stepped. The leading elders o rbishops in the larger congregations waxed stronger and stronger, filling the place which until then had belonged to the apostles. A central organization emerged making way for an over all leader or pope. These bishops were neither given (Eph. 4:11) nor gifted for the work, so the decline began and hundreds of years of darkness followed. In spite of all this we can praise the Lord that at last His people are being prepared again to receive apostolic ministry which will lay the foundations of the latter house, the glory of which will exceed that of the first (Hag. 2:9). The Spirit of truth has been welcomed in and we can be certain that He will lead us into all truth (John 16:13).

So it's first apostles and last apostles, the master builders who have seen the plans and are gifted by God to put His work on a right basis with the help of the other ministries.

VANISHING APOSTLES

One major problem standing between many sincere Christians and the truth concerning the apostolic ministries is an ingenious teaching known to some as "the theory of the vanishing apostles." This teaching is responsible for a great deal of misunderstanding. The idea that Paul was the last apostle is quite unfounded as there are a number of others mentioned in Scripture and still others implied. We can find a few without too much trouble. For example in Acts 14:4 Barnabas is called an apostle, together with Paul; in Galatians 1:19 James the Lord's brother is named an apostle; Thessalonians 2:6 refers to Paul, Silas (or Silvanus) and Timothy as apostles. Other references will need a little research but they are there to be found by the inquiring mind. Ephesians 4 points out that all ministries, apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers will function until the body of Christ is come to the unity of faith and the full stature of Jesus Christ. I do not think we can claim to have quite reached that position yet in Christendom. You will also note that the evangelist (the ministry which, together with the pastor, is more in evidence today in the church than any other) is only ascribed to one man in the whole of the New Testament! We will certainly not use this as an argument to suggest that the evangelist was only around at the start to get the church off the ground, as some say concerning the apostles. J. B. Lightfoot in his commentary on Galatians says that the word apostle "is not so used as to lend any countenance to the idea that it is in any way restricted to the twelve."

ORDINARY MEN TODAY

By placing the apostles in an elevated position we have made it impossible to recognize the calling in ordinary men today. Jesus really did call simple fishermen and made them founders of the church. He wants to do similar things again, but we have robbed ourselves of this vital ministry through false humility and unbelief. Because we expect all apostles to be like Paul we have lost the benefit of the Timothys and the Barnabases. The Lord will change this as we encourage one another and recognize all the gifts and callings in the body of Christ. The two extremes of Catholicism and Protestantism have both equally failed to produce the right kind of authority in the church. The one by investing absolute authority in one man, the other by giving every individual the right to rule in the church. This was never God's way. He intended that, through prayer and recognition, we should see a plurality of leadership emerge at every level, which will become evident as folk wait upon God and will be based on true acknowledgment of gifts coupled with submission to those gifts. It will begin amongst groups of Christians who, through fellowship, have come to love and trust one another. The "one-man ministry" will be banished for good and there will be a real security in the church. Ministries will respect and submit to each other, working together within the limits of their commissionings. Local elders will be covered by the ministries and will themselves be a true covering to the sheep because of their mutual trust.

VANISHING EFFECTIVENESS

With the disappearance of the apostles and prophets from the early church she soon lost her power and forward thrust. Divisions arose, and as we have seen, she was plunged into the darkest night of her history. Except during fleeting revivals, miracles were almost unheard of, but the fire of truth was never completely extinguished, praise God! Nevertheless, however much we may thank God for past revivals, they were more often than not a salvage operation to save extinction, rather than a crisis experience to lift the church to a higher plane. A generation must be born and grow up steadily under the authority and discipline of the ministries and offices, taking all of God's interventions as means of reaching maturity or the full measure of life in Jesus (Eph. 4:11-13). Truly this people will mount up with wings as eagles...

Today we have a situation parallel to that which existed during the days of the Judges. From time to time men were specially raised up to rescue Israel from extermination. In between times, it seems, every man did that which was right in his own eyes (Judg. 21:25). There was no king, no consistent authority in Israel, and so the people went from one trauma to another. Likewise, the church has been staggering between one revival and another. Certainly these revivals were led by men who knew God, and His truth has been recovered, but it was His desire that His people should be changed from one degree of glory to another. He still longs that we should know consistent refining, encouraged by His stirrings, until at last He sees His own image perfectly mirrored in the church.

The Scripture says "first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles etc. etc.".. (I Cor. 12:28). The Lord has a reason for giving Paul this sequence. You see, these ministries will lay the foundations of character on to which can be built the house of power. It has been observed in many places where there have been manifestations of power without the foundation of character, that a work has grown up overnight like Jonah's gourd. But because there is no ability to resist the subtlety of Satan's attack it withers just as quickly as it sprouts. No wonder we have seen so little continued blessing in the church. No wonder we have failed to consolidate the blessings and move on to the greater heights of experience and depths of love God has in store for us.

In the Corinthian passage quoted above and more clearly in Romans 12 the ministries, supernatural gifts and natural gifts are mixed up together and called "charismata" or grace gifts. Romans 12:6 says, "having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us. . . " The word gift here is charisma as in I Corinthians 12:4, and is applied in various ways, for example - prophecy (v. 6) is a gift of the Spirit, teaching (v. 7) is a ministry gift, showing mercy (v. 8) is a character gift. So then the gifts are all grace gifts. The first are created in us by Jesus, the second are formed in us through experience and by the discipline of the ministries, the third are given by the Holy Spirit as He decides for the blessing, development and expansion of the church. All are gifts from God which we do not deserve. All are for the body that each joint may effectively supply others; the whole is then built up and edified from within itself. Without this the evangelistic program of Matthew 24:14 during the last times will not be possible. The gospel of the Kingdom is not just the message that Jesus died on the cross for sinners; nor is it even simply a message accompanied by signs; but it is a message accompanied by signs and changed lives. The powers of darkness will then be driven back and held back. Every corner of the earth will see and hear that Jesus really is alive. Christ being alive in the church, will be seen by the world; the church being alive in Christ will be preserved from the final outpouring of judgment. As darkness covers the earth her light will shine brighter and brighter and persecution will only add fuel to her fire. She will know overwhelming joy in the midst of suffering, and tremendous victory when her defeat seems inevitable. Let us work together according to God's order and together we shall know a consistent walk with ever-increasing effectiveness.

FIRM FOUNDATIONS

The special work of the apostle and prophet is one of foundation laying, but notice they are the foundation and they lay the foundation (Eph 2:20-22). Jesus makes them the foundation of His city (Rev 21:14) and they make Him the foundation of all that they build (I Cor 3:11). So it is with the local church; the elders in this case are the pillars on which it is raised up and they put Christ into the lives of the sheep. Shepherds must be like Jesus, rock-like in their commitment, unmoveable, not continually changing direction or running from one thing to another.

When Jesus spoke to Peter (Matt. 16-15-18), He first made Himself the rock on which Peter' s life was to be built, and then He made Peter a foundation stone in the church. Once again both Catholics and Protestants have missed the full implication of these verses. The former having built everything on Peter and the latter not using him at all in the foundations. The church is built through men and on men who have a revelation of who Jesus is. We can see the infinite wisdom and mercy of God in making it so.

Today the work of the apostle and prophet is not quite so easy to understand, as there is already a church in existence. Or perhaps we should rather say the materials for building the church have been gathered together. It's the difference between Hai and Bethel in the story of Abraham, the one was "a heap of stone" the other "the house of God" (Gen 13:3). Men have piled up converts on the wrong foundation; they have built on doctrines and creeds instead of friendship and revelation. We are not called to associate with one another simply because we accept the same teachings; our gathering together is to Jesus. We are to look for Him in each other, not just a mental appreciation of truth. We are to relate to people because we are born into the same family, sharing the same life and spirit, with the same Father who makes us joint heirs with Jesus, the first of many sons. There is nothing to join, no ultimate denomination, nor final statement of faith. We are joined together by the Spirit in true and lasting relationships.

No one can join my group, but someone may be joined to me or my family. Whole families may be joined to others by God. Even whole congregations can be joined together when we are willing for the Spirit to do it in His way and time.

Today, the church is torn with division because men have built on the wrong foundations. They have built on theology and not on God Himself. They have taught men's minds without changing their hearts. We have converts or proselytes, not disciples. The Lord Jesus and the new birth are the starting point of fellowship and building, not doctrine. So the work of an apostle here is to untangle the knots, to clear the site and bring things back, beginning again right at grass-roots level. In order to achieve this a vision is necessary, coupled with a clear knowledge of the pattern and purpose of God. Because of the nature of this work apostles will always be misunderstood. They will be accused of meddling and constantly under reproach, but the thrill of seeing the body built up will be more than an adequate reward. When proper foundations are laid (Heb 6:1,2), as the Lord permits, there can be a moving on to other truth for the final stages of equipping in preparation for the last great battle. During this onslaught the church will stand in all her glory, more than conquerors through His great love.

APPOINTED TO APPOINT

In many ways the apostle is like a father (I Thes. 2:11; 1 Cor. 4:15). It is his desire to bring those entrusted to his care to the point where they are able to stand as mature people in their own right. A good father is not possessive; he wants to work himself out of a job. Just as the gifts of the Spirit become superfluous when that which is perfect is come (Cor. 13:10), so the apostles work in the church is finished when maturity is reached. In God's family, authority is a means to an end, not an end in itself. God exercises His authority over us to bring us into the full expression of His kingdom, but if He had to exercise authority to keep us there He would have failed in His job. Once we have come of "spiritual age," authority becomes redundant. The Lord will not need to close the gates of heaven to make sure we don't all run away. So leaders in the church must be prepared to lay down their authority at the right time, remembering that underneath it all we are just brothers together. Unlike so many present-day missionaries, the apostle does not seek to bring new converts under the authority of an outside organization or mother church. He encourages them to care for themselves and to find their structure within the new company. He is, therefore, authorized by the Lord to appoint elders by the laying on of hands (Titus 1:5; Acts 14:23; 6:6). He will only do this in fellowships where the saints recognize that the line of His apostolic authority extends to them. For whilst the apostle may take authority over evil forces or powers without their consent, he may not do this in the church. He will only build with those who give him the right to do so! The apostle does not lay his hands on just anyone who might happen to seem suitable. Nor does he get names from the air, but he will know the people in his care. When he appoints there will be the confirmation of the Spirit in his heart and an "amen" from the believers, who will have already seen their brethren functioning by serving in one way or another.

These elders must be prepared to stand alongside the qualifications in Scripture (I Tim. 3:1-7; Titus 1:6-9), and will continue their office so long as they wish and so long as it can be seen that they are serving the congregation and are free from habitual sin. They will not be men who move around a great deal, but in every sense will be pillars of the local church. They will always be a plurality, except where the church is very small, and they will be submissive and deeply committed to one another in life. Like the ministry who appoints them they will deal with those under them with both grace and truth, fervent in love and discipline. The whole success of the structuring of leadership in the church will depend on a true spirit of recognition and submission. Indeed, every Christian must seek to recognize and acknowledge what is of God in his brethren, and when it is seen he must learn to submit. In this way the whole church will be structured. Submission does not really begin, either, until there is a willingness to yield over issues which, in the natural, we would rebel against. The word is quite clear, "obey them that have the rule over you" (Heb. 13:17). This is not a dictatorship (I Pet. 5:3), but free and willing submission to the men who serve us and whom we have learned to love. As we keep rank in this way and accept one another for what we are in God, then the kingdom will begin to be seen in a wonderful way here on earth.

Missing The 'J' Stones

Reuven Doron

THE ONE-ROOM CHURCH BEGAN TO DETERIORATE

I would like to submit a word (vision) I received from the Lord last year while praying for a Passover Seder we were doing at our church in Toronto.

PRAYING FOR THE PASSOVER

As I began praying for the upcoming Passover Seder at our church, I began to have a vision of a small stone one-room church. As I looked closer at this building I began to see the deterioration and weakness in the structure, at the far rear of the building the foundations were disintegrating and the building was leaning to one side. I also noticed that through out the structure there was many stones missing, and the integrity of the building was very weak as a result of these missing stones. I also noticed that the parking lot was in bad shape and that, most of the asphalt had given way to weeds and crabgrass.

SPEAKING TO THE STONES

As I began to consider what I was seeing, a man walked on the scene. He was dressed in work clothes and had a white hard hat on, he proceeded to walk around the building and survey the condition of the building. After he had circled the building he stopped, and facing the building he began speaking to the stones: explaining to the building the reason for it's condition, He said you are structurally and foundationally weak because you are missing the "J" stones. At this point I began to realize that the man in the white hard hat was Yeshua (Jesus), and that the stones were alive and listening to what he was saying to them. I immediately understood then that the "J" stones that Jesus was referring to, represented the Jewish people, and that all the holes in the walls and foundations were there because of the absence of the Jewish people in the body of Messiah (the church).

COMFORT MY PEOPLE

At this point the stones, realizing the pain of heart this condition caused the Lord, cried out: "Lord forgive us for not pursuing and asking you to share your love and burden for the Jewish people, how can we begin to rebuild and correct this void in our midst?" And I heard the Lord answer with these words, spoken in such awesome passion with tears in His eyes; "Comfort, comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her hard service has been completed, that her sin has been paid for, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins." Isaiah 40:1-2

Such a Holy silence fell upon the stones, as the Glory of God began to come. And I understood that the Lord was about to begin a season in the midst of His children, showing and teaching them His unconditional love for the Jewish people. I understood this not to be a soulish kind of love based on temporal visible elements but rather based on the Lord's love and covenant that He made with the Patriarchs. This was not because of their goodness but because of His unfailing love.

THE ONE NEW MAN

At this the vision ended, and further understanding began to come into my heart and spirit. As the Holy Spirit began to direct me to the book of Ephesians 2:11-22 which speaks so clearly of the "One New Man." This one new man is made up of both Jew and gentile as in verse 15b where it says "His purpose was to create in himself one new man out of the two (the two being Jew and gentile), thus making peace," and again in verse 19 where it says "Consequently you (meaning the gentiles) are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people (meaning Israel)." And in verse 21 He confirmed to me why He used the picture of the weak structured building; "In him (Yeshua) the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord." And then again in 1Peter 2:5 where Peter talks about the believers being living stones.

My prayer since that vision has been, Lord bring revelation to your church about the "One New Man," Lord show the church your love for the Jewish people, and how their redemption will lead to the greatest revival in all the earth. Romans 11:15 "For if their (the Jewish people) rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?"

TO MAKE THE JEWISH PEOPLE ENVIOUS

The church has missed so much blessing and opportunity because of their misunderstanding of their need to "make the Jewish people envious", but I believe the Lord is restoring and bringing about deep revelation and understanding of "The One New Man" in Yeshua.

I have, since this vision last year, had such a beautiful vision of this church fully restored and standing upright and there was no more missing stones, and all the stones were just sparkling in the glory of God.

Church, rise up, and begin to sparkle the glory of the Lord.

Ministers' Wives

Holly Moody

I had a vision this morning (Feb. 5th, 2000; Saturday; approximately 11 am). Afterwards, I was overwhelmed with a feeling of uncertainty and fear that maybe what I had seen wasn't really of the Lord. I wasn't sure at all how to proceed with this possible vision.

When I began to pray more about it, and seek the Lord about it, this is what I felt He replied (please judge it for me in your own spirits, whether it is of the Lord or not and let His Spirit either confirm or not confirm it to you)

"This is of Me. Take it and run with it."

Then, a hand with something that looked like a rolled-up book resembling a baton that racers use in races, was extended to me. Reluctantly, I took the baton.

"What do I do with it now, Lord?" I asked.

"Take it and run with it. For some, it is already almost too late."

I stood still for a moment; feeling very afraid and uncertain. Then, the hand touched me, and I felt the fear leave me. I began to run. I would run up to men, whom I somehow recognized as men of God. To each man of God I ran up to, I would extend the baton to them.

Some of the men of God took the baton from me, and they also began to run with it. Other men of God, laughed at me and refused the baton.

Each time, after I would either give the baton to a man of God, or have the man of God refuse the baton, I would once again take off running.

(Here is the vision I had on Feb. 5th, 2000; at approximately 11am) ~~

"Attack Against Wives in The Ministry And Against God's Bride, The Church"

In the vision, I was in a church. The pastor was standing on the platform, behind the podium. His wife was standing next to Him. She was dressed as a bride. They were holding hands.

The ministers and their wives in this church were circled around the congregation. The ministers and their wives were holding hands and were praying in their spirits for the congregation. The ministers and their wives were all holding hands; so that the congregation was completely enclosed in the circle of the clasped hands of the ministers and their wives. Each of the wives, was also dressed as a bride.

The pastor was preaching, and exhorting the congregation. He was looking beyond the walls of the church. Beyond the walls of the church, the pastor could see a field. Angels were in the fields, harvesting. As the angels harvested, they would reach down and scoop up what they had harvested.

Each time the angels did this, their arms would be filled with a newborn baby. The baby would be crying. The angels then would turn to men standing next to them, place the babies in the arms of these men, and tell them to take the babies to their mothers. Then these men who were holding the newborn babies, would quickly head for a church.

The pastor could see this transpiring beyond the walls of His church. He was telling the congregation, "The babies are coming !!! The babies are coming !!!! Prepare for the babies !!!"

People in the church busily began to prepare a nursery with which to receive the coming newborn babies. While the nursery was being prepared, I noticed that the pastor's wife began to have many people start coming to her. She was being asked all types of questions.

Demands were being made of her. She began to appear overwhelmed, confused and dismayed. She let go of her husband's hand. Slowly, the press of those crowded around her began to push her back and away from beside her husband.

The pastor's wife began to try and retreat and withdraw herself from the press of the crowd around her. Finally, she was in a corner up on the platform. She was crying and seemed very upset. Even though there was a crowd around her, there was a space between her and the crowd. She appeared isolated and alienated.

The pastor had been preaching and exhorting the congregation to prepare for the babies. At first, he hadn't noticed that His wife's hand had slipped from his. In fact, he appeared at first to have greater freedom to preach and exhort His congregation after His wife's hand slipped from His. For now, he could use both His free hands to gesture as he preached, without being weighted down with having to hold onto his wife's hand.

But then, he heard his wife cry out. He glanced over his shoulder to his left and saw his wife weeping and alone, yet surrounded by a clamoring crowd, in a corner of the platform. He began to call to her to come back and join him. She only shook her head helplessly. She couldn't get through the crowd around her. She began to appear ill, and continued to cry.

As the pastor took his undivided attention from the congregation and began to be distracted by what was happening to his wife, I saw the same thing beginning to happen to the minister's wives who were holding hands, and standing in a circle around the congregation.

The wives also began to slowly let go of their husband's hands and slip further and further away from their husbands. It was like something was causing them to become apart from each other, and isolated and alienated from each other.

The minister's wives also began to cry, and also began to appear ill. When their husbands noticed that their wives were no longer at their sides and holding onto their hands, they also took their focus from the congregation and began to look around for their wives.

When the circle around the congregation was broken, and the attention of the pastor and the ministers of the church was diverted, I saw wolves begin to slip past the gaps created in the circle around the congregation. The congregation was beginning to become fearful, confused, and restless.

When the wolves entered the congregation, they began to injure people in the congregation. Those who had been preparing the nursery stopped doing so. While this was happening within the walls of the church, I saw beyond the walls of the church.

The men who had been given the newborn babies had finally reached the doors of the church. When they came into the church with the newborns cradled in their arms, there was chaos and confusion. The men with the newborns began to look frantically around the church, and cry out, "Where is the nursery? Where is the nursery? These babies need a nursery."

Then, the vision ended.

When I asked the Lord what this vision meant, I feel this is what He replied. I ask you to please prayerfully consider this, and to judge for yourself if you feel a confirmation.

What I feel the Lord answered me when I asked Him what this vision meant, was:

"This is how it will be when I send My angels to reap the harvest. The souls are ready to be brought into My Kingdom. The men standing next to the angels, are evangelists. They will help to usher in My revival, and seek to have a safe place in which to entrust the souls which will be birthed during this time of reaping and harvesting and birthing.

"Many shepherds are aware in their spirits that this day is upon us, and are beginning to prepare for the harvest.

"The enemy is also aware that the time of reaping, harvesting and birthing has come to the church. The enemy is seeking to prevent a safe place for the newborns to receive nourishment. The enemy is doing this by attacking the wives of pastors, and by attacking the wives of ministers.

"Many pastor's wives and the wives of many ministers are already feeling overwhelmed with those things which are required and demanded of them. They feel isolated and alone and misunderstood. Many of these wives have been attacked with sickness, weakened health and emotional problems. Their marriages are being attacked. Their health is being attacked. Their emotional well-being is being attacked. Many of these wives are surrendering to being overwhelmed by this attack.

There are some who have left their husbands, left their churches, left their faith. There are even some of these wives who have been hospitalized, who have died, and who have even attempted to take their own lives. The enemy knows that if he can distract the men through attacking their wives, there will be no nurseries prepared for the souls of those being born into the kingdom."

"What can we do?" I asked the Lord.

"Do it My way," the Lord replied.

"What is Your way?" I asked the Lord.

"The circle wasn't prepared correctly," the Lord replied. "I will show you how I would have the circle of protection to be in place correctly in congregations."

Then, I saw the same church once again. Instead of being up on the platform behind his podium, the pastor was in the midst of the church. His wife was holding his hand, standing next to him, dressed as a bride. Around the pastor and his wife, the ministers and their wives were gathered in a circle. They were then surrounded by the congregation. The congregation was surrounded by a circle of angels with swords.

"When the ministry is in place correctly," the Lord said to me, "it will be well with the congregation."

"Why are the wives dressed as brides?" I asked the Lord.

"Just as these women are the brides of this pastor and these ministers, the church is My bride. Just as the wives of pastors and the wives of ministers are being attacked by the enemy, and the men rush to defend and protect their wives; even so is it with Me.

"The church is My bride. I will defend her and protect her. I gave Myself for her. I will not leave her unprotected or undefended. As it is in the natural realm, so is it in the spiritual realm.

As the wives of pastor's and the wives of minister's are being attacked in the physical, even so is My Church, My Bride, being attacked in the spiritual. I would have My shepherds and those in the ministry to be aware of this, and to work at thwarting the plans of the enemy.

The wives of pastors and ministers need intercessors to arise up on their behalf. This will enable the ministry to stay focused upon the vision I have granted unto them of a coming revival, and to begin to prepare for it. If the wives can be eliminated at the outset, the birth of many souls will be aborted and miscarried at the very beginning, and those brought to the actual birth will have no place prepared for them in which they will receive strength and nourishment.

The attack is already being waged against the wives of pastors and ministers. They need to be shown what is actually transpiring in the spiritual realm so that they can work against this attack of the enemy.

Take the vision, My child, and run with it."

My Jealous Love

Angel Howard

(5/24/2000)

My prophets Must be pure. To many have held their protective pride to long.

For surely look around - your brothers who have wondered off and been led astray are many. And why? Because they have these footholds that Satan has permission in.

The pride and anger that others hear you justify as righteous anger but you do not know that my jealous love is even fiercer then my prophets' righteous anger.

Embrace my jealous love, cast aside the idolatry of zeal.

One degree off course and over time the path I had you on is beyond sight, no longer seen.

Oh how I grieve and cry out for you, who cast up walls of false righteousness.

You say you are not accountable to anyone DID I NOT put you in a body? Do I not surround you with others to whom I have entrusted your soul?

In protecting yourself and justifying your zeal, You have put up walls that not only keep me out but your brothers and sisters as well.

Listen to me you wondering prophets, cast aside your vengeful righteousness and embrace my jealous Love."

My Kingdom Is Coming

Judy Curmi

My children will receive the Victory I prepared for them. As with other things it is not far off, but SOON. Don't be deceived by what is happening in the world! My Plan is unfolding perfectly. It is right on schedule for the salvation of many souls.

The false prophets will be exposed, as will my true prophets. My prophets do not have an agenda. Nor do they use my name to glorify or bring glory to themselves.

You will begin to see the division soon, as people begin to come out of the Valley of Decision and decide whether they are for me or against me. People are not always going to go the way you expect them to, either. I have been knocking on many hearts throughout the world.

The blind will go into deeper darkness, but each of those who truly want to see will be given or shown the light in a manner that they personally can understand so that they can say "Yes" to me. Again, this is far beyond you, but my Plan is perfect and immutable.

People think they can argue with me, but they are so wrong. My goal for MY people is righteousness. I do not wink at or condone sin. Throughout eternity this benchmark will not change. It is the call for My People to be holy, sanctified and set apart from the world for me.*

Never, never will I ease my standards to suit the whims of man. To do so would make my Son's sacrifice null and void, useless and of no account! Such a thing I will never do. No again I say, men must turn from their wicked ways and seek the highway to holiness. They must desire and long for ME.

My Word says: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and soul and mind, and thy NEIGHBOR as thyself. [Mark 12:30-31] Everyone is "thy neighbor," not just those who belong to your political, social, racial or religious group.

Intolerance and bigotry have no place in My Kingdom. Neither do backbiting or covetousness. My Word makes this very, very clear.

My desire and my Plan is NOT to fill my children with the things of earth, which will distract them and take them away from me, but to fill them with myself. Only I can satisfy. THE WORLD CAN NOT. Its satisfactions always have been and always will be a Mirage, slight of hand, a seductive trick.

Even walking in My Power does not satisfy. It is only MY PRESENCE, (your relationship and intimacy with me) that brings fullness of joy. Did my Son not say to his disciples, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work?" [John 4:34] If this is true for my very own Son why would it be different for you?

In fact, it is not different, but many "ministers of the Gospel" have turned me into a "Bless me" machine, where they try to manipulate me into spitting out carnal blessings on them like a slot machine! Put in your dollar, pull the handle, and out gushes your winnings! Is this what My Word says? No, it does not, but it doesn't keep people from making the same mistakes and following after the same idols that my chosen people did.

Have my judgements changed? No, they have not changed either. My desire is still for SOULS and those who have defiled themselves must be cleansed and repent.

My son's death covered those who repent. It does not cover those who defile themselves and turn away from me to live their own lives or build their own kingdoms.

These "kingdoms" are built on shifting sand. I am going to start shifting this sand. I will EXPOSE. These kingdoms, which are not of me, will come down soon. I, myself, will flatten them totally. What I did before, I can and WILL do again.

My sheep know the voice of their shepherd and they follow him. My people are humble, not arrogant, proud or boastful. They reach out to the poor and broken. They care for the downtrodden. Their word is their bond. They can be trusted and depended upon.

In conclusion, let me say this: My Kingdom is not and never has been of this world. As I promised in My Word, the old will be destroyed in order to make room for the new. Life as you know it is about to change in ways you could never imagine. For some that will be bad and for others, good.

THE WHOLE OF THE EARTH IS DEFILED. I am about to removed the old and usher in the NEW, My Everlasting Kingdom. That is: you are about to see "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done" be fulfilled.

The Most High

* Ex. 19:5-6a Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be a special treasure to me above all people; for all the earth is Mine. And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. (NKJ)

1 Pet. 2:9 But you are a chosen people, ministers to the kingdom, a holy people, a congregation redeemed to proclaim the glories of him who has called you out of darkness to his marvelous light.

My Love Is The Passion

Chad Taylor

My love is like a fire that burns inside of you,
My love is like the roar of the waves crashing through,
My love is the power to sustain -
To relieve you of your toil and strain,
My love is the thunder that breaks the expanse of time and space.

My love is the passion for the burdened,
To tear through the veil and the curtain,
Then the world will know for certain -
That I am in you...

The world is about to see the manifestation,
The consummation and the fruition,
Nations will come to the brightness of its rising,
Kings to the glory shining,
My Bride in Her attire,
Without spot or wrinkle burning with fire.

My love is the passion for the children,
To tear through the veil and the curtain,
Then the world will know for certain -
That I am in you...

My love is like the roar of the lion,
Coming like thunder out of Mt. Zion,
Now without restraint -
I will pour out My glory like the rain,
As kings and princes contemplate -

My love for all the nations,
Billions of races and faces,
Coming with anticipation,
To find Me in you...

My love is like a fire that burns inside of you,
My love is like the roar of the waves crashing through,
My love is the power to sustain -
To relieve you of your toil and strain,
My love is the thunder that breaks the expanse of time and space.

My Most Treasured Army

Ching Co

MY MOST TREASURED ARMY--MANY WILL NOT RECOGNIZE THEM January 22, 2000

This morning I began to see in my mind the vision of a big crowd beginning to gather coming from a far distance, I felt that God was showing me something so I began to seek Him more. As I waited and watched, I heard this voice whispering to me, "What you will see coming is my most treasured remnant army- personally trained by me." I was so excited and began to watch more closely. I wanted to see what the army of God look like in close-up.

WOUNDED AND LIMPING

When they come into closer view, I was stunned by what I saw. In the midst of the crowd coming in, I saw people dressed so drably that many of their clothes are torn and old. Also, I found many are wounded and limping, some even without arms or legs and many with scars in their body, there was a myriad mixture of men and women and very young children. They all looked so helpless on the surface and does not in any way resembled what I perceived an army will look like. So I went back to the Lord to asked Him for some explanation.

Then the Lord give me a sunglass and asked me to put it on. And when I did, suddenly my eyes were open and I began to see something else, I began to see the light coming forth from the people . . . . and out from them flows rays of different colors like those of a rainbow and with each color I see words written on them, like "love, healing, grace, wisdom, " and many others words which are reflective of the nature of God.

At this point, I felt the Lord speaking to me these words. . . .

"Take heed and consider carefully. . . .

"I am raising up in the midst of the nations a very special remnant. They will not be attractive from the outside, but you have to see them through my eyes of faith to known them. For many of them have been through many battles and have won. . .

. . . some have been traveling the path of Daniel and his friends, trained and molded in captivity . . . . . some are like Hannah who has just come out from years of great anguish and travail. . . . . some are like Naomi who loss husband & children and called herself "Mara". . . . . some like Paul have battled with physical "thorn" in their bodies and have found "grace" in Me. . . . . some have walked the path of Abraham giving to and giving in to the many "Lot" that has come through their lives . . . some of them are like David who has to run away from Saul and live in caves

THEY HAVE GIVEN UP THEIR BEST AND THEIR ALL

"Each one of these precious ones have given up their best and their all as they pass through many rivers, raging fires, wild storms, and great whirlwind. All of them in one way or another have walked as JOB walked. The path has not been easy but now THEY HAVE ARRIVED. They are the one that I have chosen to represent me before the nations and out of them will flow my blessings for my glory rest upon them.

"Many awaiting for the unveiling of my army will not recognize when they come, but to those who are continually seeking me. They will recognize who they are and will welcome my army with open arms and great will be the blessings that will come to them. Many of them will speak not with eloquent words or act in glamorous ways, and in fact their physical appearance, their ways and their manner will be offensive to many . But they are mine and I will confirm the words that they speak with a mighty show of my power and majesty as in the days of old.

1 Corinthians 1:25, 27-29

FOR THE FOOLISHNESS OF GOD IS WISER THAN MAN'S WISDOM, AND THE WEAKNESS OF GOD IS STRONGER THAN MAN'S STRENGTH. BUT GOD CHOSE THE FOOLISH THINGS OF THE WORLD TO SHAME THE WISE; GOD CHOSE THE WEAK THINGS OF TE WORLD TO SHAME THE STRONG. HE CHOSE THE LOWLY THINGS OF THIS WORLD AND THE DESPISED THINGS - AND THE THINGS THAT ARE NOT - TO NULLIFY THE THINGS THAT ARE, SO THAT NO ONE MAY BOAST BEFORE THEM.

"Father, forgive us your people for our worldly ways and give us a new understanding of who you are and what you desires to be in our lives. Amen!"

Minnesota

Chad Taylor

A Word to Minnesota

For I see the old wells being re-dug. The old wells of revival. Stopped up by years of tradition and religion, now pouring, producing, new oil and wine! New wine and oil for the healing of the ones left for dead on the side of the road! New oil and wine for those backslidden and embittered against the church. I am breaking up the fallow ground in you Minnesota. For there is a remnant of intercession that have kept the candles and incense burning. Their prayers have come as a memorial to Me says the Lord. I have remembered My covenant with those that have prayed before them. Revival was their cry, revival shall be My reply.

A great move shall occur in your youth. They will be the ones that tear down the idols and high place. They will be My Gideon to do these things. They will blaze a trail of revival and reformations through your midst. They will dig the old wells with the passion of their devotion and praise. Make room for them! Make way for them! For in them is the strength to sustain these things says the Lord. In them is the strength to "endure hardness and a good soldier of Jesus Christ." (2nd Timothy 2:3).

The oppression that has enslaved your women in the church is being broken. The shackles of slavery on My handmaidens are being loosed in this hour says the Lord. No longer will them be your footstool or subservient says the Lord. For in this hour, the servant will be the greatest of all, and the uncomely part given more honor. The Saul spirit that has killed and disobeyed Me will now be destroyed, and the heart of Jonathan will emerge from this battle field.

The control and witchcraft that have kept My David's in the wilderness will now be destroyed says the Lord. The kings and priests will now walk side by side in this coming revival. They will not break rank or thrust one another. They will supply My Spirit with out preference or partiality. "Freely you have received, freely give." The old wells will now overflow. I am breaking up the fountains of the deep. I am sending the rain. Even now you can see a cloud in the shape of a man's hand. A sound of an abundance of rain! RUN! RUN! RUN! For a day of visitation is upon you! I will hasten these things to come to pass says the Lord! I will hasten these things to come to pass!

For Minnesota shall be an epi-center in these coming days. An apostolic headquarters. From this place they shall go to the uttermost parts of the earth. Building bridges of revival between the nations. The head waters will come from this place. It's cup shall overflow. A prophetic river, running deep, will come from this place. "I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water..." (Is.41:18). I will hasten this to come to pass says the Lord. I will hasten all these things to come to pass.

Now These Were More Noble-Minded

Rick Joyner

From: <http://www.morningstarministries.org/>

This is a time when the Lord will bless His people with the faith of the Bereans. It was said of the Bereans, "Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily, to see whether these things were so." (Acts 17:11).

It is right to listen to new things with openness and eagerness. We are old wineskins if we are not open to that which is new. However, as eager as we should be for the Lord's new wine, we must always take what we hear to the Scriptures and verify it. Most Christians know what they believe, but few seem to know why they believe it.

This is a year for establishing the truths that we believe, on a solid biblical foundation. Without this, regardless of how accurate what we believe is, the foundation of our faith will be weak.

When people dig a footing, we know that a house or small building will be going up. However, when an entire block is fenced off downtown, and beyond that fence a deep hole is being dug, we know that something of significance is going to be built there. If we want our lives to be significant, we must also dig before we build up.

We must establish for ourselves every truth that we believe, or we will be limited in how much we can be used in this life. The more effort that we put into the foundation of our spiritual lives, the more that can be built upon them. The church is about to enter some of its most challenging times, so that it can then enter into its most fruitful times.

The darkness is gathering, but so is the light. Every challenge or attack upon our faith is allowed by God to strengthen our faith. Trials always strengthen true believers, and remove those who are pretenders. There is a great pruning coming, but it is coming so that we can bear more fruit.

The enemy will attempt to steal every seed that God plants in our life--- --the greatest defense against the enemy is "IT IS WRITTEN (Matthew 4:4,6,7,10).

If the Lord Jesus, the Word Himself, used "It is written" as His defense against the temptations of the enemy, how much more should we?

This year the Holy Spirit is moving upon the hearts of Christians everywhere to sink their roots deeper into the written Word. A deep passion for the Scriptures will spread over the church this year. It will bring forth a love for truth, and a love for righteousness that will begin to radically affect congregations everywhere. If just one or two in a congregation catch this passion, it will spread to the whole.

As our foundations become stronger, it will enable the Lord to give us more power and more spiritual authority. However, let us always remember that we seek truth in order to live it, not just know it. Jesus was full of grace and truth (John 1:14). Truth without grace brings a form of godliness that has no power. Love changes truth into grace that gives life. We must seek truth because we love the truth, and we want to please the One who is the Truth. We must not seek to love so that we can be trusted with power, but power is a means by which God expresses His love. Love is always the goal, not the means.

We read in I Timothy 1:5: "But the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. Therefore, let us do all that we do out of love. Let us search the Scriptures because we love them, we love the truth, and we love the One whose truth it is.

My Name Is Sacrosanct

Mary Koons

July 30, 2000

From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its young shoots become soft and tender and it puts out its leaves, you know of a surety that summer is near.

So also when you see these signs [of His return] all taken together coming to pass, you may know of a surety that He is near, at the very doors. (Matthew 24: 32-33)

MY NAME IS SACROSANCT

For this day and hour I call forth an anointing upon the nations to be STEADFAST.. Holding on firmly to the lampstand I have given them. For My Word is a LAMP UNTO YOUR FEET and a LIGHT UNTO YOUR PATH! Do not allow the kingdoms of darkness entry - block ALL areas where the enemy has stolen the key, came in and made off with the SPOIL!

BE STEADFAST,.....Beloved - HOLD ON TO WHAT I HAVE GIVEN YOU also for it IS not in vain, saith the Lord. I WILL DO as I have promised - I WILL call forth those of My Children who have NOT bowed their knee to Baal, but have bowed their knee to their Sovereign Lord and King. Would you feel such peace at this time were this not so? MY NAME is sacrosanct* - commanding obedience in those I LOVE.... for I will not have ANY "lift themselves" as though they were "something" or "someone..." ALL HAVE SINNED AND FALLEN SHORT OF MY GLORY..... Do you not know it?

It is out of My great mercy that I carry you into the banqueting hall that awaits! It is out of My great love that I say - "SEARCH YOUR HEARTS...." Ask Me If there is "anything lacking in you.... that needs My touch. Bring Me fruits of repentance for when the fig leaves shake, it will THEN be too late. Choose.... THIS DAY - WHOM you will serve! Remember - I am a HARD TASKMASTER.... reaping where I did not sow, and gathering where I have not winnowed..... The Valley of Decision has multitudes who STILL have chosen to be anxious, covetous and bitter, vengeful, prideful and lustful and are flattened by the enemy who uses their OWN WEAKNESSES AGAIN THEM! It is for THIS REASON that I say - "ASK OF ME... what you are lacking... ASK OF ME - "What do I need??"

For soon those areas that you have "kept barred" in your heart and not allowed My Spirit to penetrate will be VISIBLE TO ALL..... and there will no longer be "a hiding place" for what you have kept hidden from ALL BUT ME.

BLESSED are you to be living in this day and hour My Children... My beloved! For "if" you are willing to undergo my most delicate touch and allow My Spirit to remove those areas, THEN will you find a "newness" within you of My Spirit that you have NEVER experienced before. I reward those who are diligent to SEEK MY FACE AND HUMBLE THEMSELVES BEFORE ME.... Who choose NOT to give their alms in the daylight, and do not let their left hand know what their right hand is doing. Who choose to "empty themselves" so that the KING OF GLORY MAY COME IN!!!

BE PREPARED to "CLING" to the ROCK of your salvation....
BE PREPARED to "GIVE UP ALL"..... for the sake of HIS GOSPEL.
BE PREPARED TO GO AND DO...
BE PREPARED TO SIT AND LISTEN....
BE PREPARED TO PRAY AND INTERCEDE.....
BE PREPARED TO ALLOW ME - "FULL ENTRANCE INTO YOUR HEARTS.....

...TRY ME THEN..... AND SEE WHAT I WILL DO!"

Missouri River

Mary Owen

I live very near the Missouri River. As you probably know it is called the big muddy because in reality it is not blue.

My Dream April 15, 2000, 3:30 am.

I looked out from my porch and saw the river. It looked especially wide and was running very fast. At an incredible speed. I walked over nearer the water take a better look. It was a perfectly beautiful, sunny day. The water was a beautiful blue. There were several people sitting on the bank fishing. I walked around them and was looking for a more secluded spot. As I neared the edge of the river, approximately 50-75 feet from me. I looked at the edge of the water. I could see it creeping up the bank. The river was rising at such a rate that you could see it rising with your eyes. I then realized that it was coming so fast that if I didn't get out of there I would be trapped in and not be able to get out. I ran to the house and had a thought to run in and get some cash but the danger was so imminent that I didn't think that I could take the few seconds it would take to run into the house and must get in my car and get out that second or the road would be impassable because there was a low spot. The dream ended.

When I awoke I knew the dream was from the Lord. I started to pray for the answer of what it meant. God told me to warn those that I knew.

I believe that something very devastating is very soon coming upon this country. I believe it will be on a beautiful day when all looks wonderful. It will come at a pace that will envelope many people. I adjure you to pray and ask God to show you what you should do. God loves his own and he takes good care of us too. I believe that He showed me this to help us all. God will show you what to do with this. He's faithful and prayer changes things, and if you need to make preparations for anything He will show you that.

Love in Christ,

Mary

Mine Or Yours?

Jon Arno

In the visions of the night I found myself walking up before the Lord carrying something in my hands.

I looked at what I was carrying and it was a particular form of ministry. (Kinda like feeding the poor is a ministry)

As I approached the Lord, I laid the ministry down at his feet and then stepped back. "Is this mine or yours?" The Lord said.

I was taken back by this and began to describe to the Lord how I was serving the Lord in this particular form of ministry and that how much it was helping His people. I went on and on for quite some time explaining and justifying how that this ministry was doing a great work for Him.

The longer I went on talking I began to see that the ministry that I was saying was His, was actually looking more like mine and less like His. The longer I went on, the worse it got till I could only say. "Lord, this ministry is mine and not yours."

Instantly at that moment, the Lord consumed my ministry! Gone, nothing left!

Well, after being shocked at seeing something I had worked so hard at totally consumed I began to walk away only to see myself coming again with another ministry.

Well, this went on and on. Ministry after ministry was consumed.

All He would say was "Is this mine or yours?" And each time I would talk about that ministry until I could no longer say it was His.

Finally I brought a particular ministry with me and placed it also at His feet.

Again the Lord said "Is this mine or yours?"

Well, with this ministry I knew that it was not mine. The fact that I was still involved with it was convincing proof that it was indeed His. This ministry was a very frustrating ministry. Many untold hours had been invested into what seemed to yield so little. I was very aggressive with my answer to the Lord. I reminded Him of all the trials and troubles I had had with it and that only through much prayer and seeking Him was I able to do the work. I said, "Yes Lord, this one is yours!" and stepped back to see if the Lord would consume this one also.

Well, time went by and nothing happened. I kept looking to see the ministry consumed like the others but nothing happened. It just lay there before the Lord just as I had placed it.

As I thought on things, and after a lot of soul searching, I felt that the only thing I could do at this point was to lay myself down at His feet and if the Lord consumed me, that was what needed to happen. I walked up to the Lord and lay before His feet.

Well, much time went by and nothing happened. I was laying there wondering if I was about to be consumed but nothing seemed to happen.

Finally I stood upon my feet and turned to see the Lord smiling. He stretched forth His hands and said, " You are mine also!" and the dream was over.

Let me encourage you to lay your ministries down at the feet of the Lord. Allow the Lord to show you what you should keep and what you should lay aside.

Don't be discouraged by what you see or at the difficulty in accomplishing the work. When you are weak, He is strong!

God wants us to be totally dependant on Him for the results of that work. He wants us to surely know and understand that the ministry is His and that we have been chosen to fulfill that ministry in His strength.

He would never have involved you in that ministry unless His plan was for you to be the one to accomplish His will in reaching His people.

Let all works be judged by the Holy One and let all that is ours be consumed into nothingness.

The Lord says to you....."Is this mine or yours?"

My Presence Is Coming Forth

Mark Wattenford

I was writing and doing something else and the Spirit interrupted me just now and said, "write"...

The spirit of the Lord is upon me. We shall not see through a glass darkly in the days ahead... we shall see in clarity, says the Lord... you shall walk in the fulness of my spirit and the promises that I have promised you shall come before you.

Things shall open up before you that will overtake your imagination. Treasures will be laid at your feet. The clouds will open up their rain upon you and the waters of my spirit and of my washings shall come upon you.

Clarity, I say, clarity like you have never known shall be of your portion, to minister to my people and to know the path I have set for you. The words of my speaking shall intensify and sound in clarity... my voice shall you hear and not question.

The Day shall shine bright and rejoicing shall rise up as a loud and victories cry of redemption and deliverance. I have said to you "soon"..., but now watch as I unfold one thing after another increasingly in your life and the bounds of which shall not all be explored before I set up my kingdom on earth again.

The time of the Gentiles is over... the transition of all things and the possession of all things back into my rightful hands is the work I do. I shall do nothing but that I tell the prophets first and I have spoken to the prophets of what I am doing. This is the hour that is called the "The Song of the Prophets" "The Joy of The Prophets". Nothing is accomplished by the flesh for my glory.

Watch as I bring all things into me and into my order. I have said, I will come and dwell in my house... shall I not first put all things in order in my house before I dwell in it? Shall a man even live in a house that he has not first put in order. The songs of praise increasingly shall rise up in you, praises ever more pure and in spirit and in truth. My plan I shall not hide from my prophets. I am commissioning each vessel according to my purposes to go forth into the fields and bring in the harvest. My arm is risen up as a mighty arm to both sustain and give power to my vessels and to strike blows to my enemies.

Rejoice in all things for this is the day of my presence among my people and the living temple I am raising up, and my living stones am I putting in place. The Love of my Father shall fill you, my spirit shall be in you in fulness, my thoughts shall overtake your own. My desires shall overtake your own. My compassion shall overtake your own and reach out to the lost and wounded.

Rejoice, I am coming to be with my own. The yearning in your hearts for me will be fulfilled and the yearning I have to indwell my vessels shall I rejoice in. All things are given unto me by the Father and all things are being brought into and under my kingship, and with me all that are mine shall reign and rule with me forever as kings and priests.

Watch now how I shall shuffle things in the earth and know that as you see these things it is I that am doing it for my purposes. The earth does not belong to man as he thinks... it is mine. I shall do with it as it pleases me. Government is mine and is upon my shoulders, and those of men were only ordained to be for six days. The seventh Day is Mine! Says the Lord!...

Rejoice... I have conquered all things, even death. Watch as I bring in the harvest as an ocean brings in mighty waves. Will you have need to fish and tarry for a catch. NO!.. says the Lord... THE CATCH SHALL OVERTAKE AND CATCH YOU! The wave of my Glory is upon you and shall overtake you and my own joy shall rise up in me in laughter. My Bride... you shall soon hear the laughter of my own rejoicing. I shall sit with my people and speak with them openly and not as behind a veil any longer.

As Jerusalem was, so is the church today... they do not see me coming... and KNOW that when I say "church" I DO NOT say my Body. I would that they were the same, but they are not. The one is blind, rebellious, self centered and is a whore.

As yet, my anger has not risen up in me fully for her, as I yet have compassion upon her, but I must strip her and expose her and I would rather she turned away from her ways. Her way, is that I am NOT her husband or groom... she is the "head of herself" and she seeks to remove the head of my true bride so that she may have her way... how she does not know she is without a head and seeks to remove the head of the true Bride... she does not perceive that she is tampering with me... not my Bride. I am the head. She is a jealous one, full of envy and full of wrath. She hates that I love my Bride. She would by force, take all that is bestowed upon my Bride for herself. It was all offered her in the first place, but she rejected my love and scorned my ways and scorned me. My Bride is brought before me as was the desire of My Father to do, and by the Spirit was she brought forth.

My prophets shall take hold of her, the jealous one, and remove her from my house. Unless she repents she shall be cast out from my presence all together.

Behold the banquet I have set before you. It shall not end before I return again. I AM COME!

My Prophets

Judy Curmi

I am establishing my prophets against all earthly odds. The world thinks I can not do it. The world thinks I don't even exist! The world is BETTING that I don't exist! The world is mistaken. WOE to the world!

You do not listen to my prophets anymore now that you did in ancient times. Is it not amazing how little things change?

False prophets still prophesy falsely, while no one wants to listen to my true prophets. Their words are displeasing. Their appearance(s) and demeanor do not satisfy those caught up in vain, self-flattering or fleshly pursuits. So the world proceeds merrily along, as always, never looking to see where the road is heading or what the final destination might be.

Anything that entails effort is discarded, unless it satisfies the lusts of the flesh or the pride of life. Laziness is rampant. Sacrifice is a byword and to be avoided at all costs.

Look to your future, children! The days of wine and roses are about to end. My prophets prophesy, but no one takes heed. Therefore, the wine will be poured out as blood and the roses trampled underfoot. The end is very near.

So my prophets continue to warn, but no one listens. As Noah built his boat, no one took heed. They mocked him instead. When he climbed into the ark and the storm came, it was too late for those who mocked him. Every drop of rain stored in the clouds fell to the ground. No one could stop or alter the flow.

So it will be in this day. As the water would flow if Hoover Dam suddenly burst, so will be the tidal wave of events soon to come. No one will be able to stop it. No one will be able to hold it back. No "law" or "executive order" will make the least impression. As no one could stop the rain in Noah's day, so no man will be able to stop me when I move.

MY prophets WILL prophesy, and all they say WILL come to pass.

Love, Daddy

Making Room For Change

Sandy Warner

9/9/00

Hi Loved Ones, This week two Words came to me that were significant and I want to share them with you. One was, "A change is coming." The other was, "A changing of the guards." When the Lord breathes upon His Words, there are as many applications as there are people to apply them. His Word is alive and bears witness at so many levels that we can barely touch the surface. However, I would like to share with you what these Words mean to me, in hopes that it will touch and encourage some of you.

This year the Lord gave Bobby Conner a Word that said something like, "Brace yourselves, the hand of God is coming down to uproot everything He has not planted, in order to establish His government." This has proven true in my life, for it is as though He has been peeling away layers of old, dead and buried things. I made mention to this in 4 other postings this year. (Circumcision at Gilgal, stripping Lazarus' grave clothes, and peeling away band-aides and barnacles.) As He carefully exposed old wounds it was as though He gave me a 2nd chance to respond to them appropriately with forgiveness when necessary, and also personal repentance. He has even taken me back to my foundations before I was born, to repent for the sins of my ancestors.

Sometimes when we are in the midst of a cleansing process, the enemy confuses us, and we are overcome by dirt and grime and can't see the forest through the trees. I was ready for a change. I have a friend who has been house cleaning after years of collection, and has taken several trips to the dump. I kept telling her the Lord was removing the garbage from her life, so that she could have room for the new when it comes. She had a dream this week that was quickened to me concerning a prophetic experience I'd just had.

In the dream she saw this horse running around whinnying to all the animals in the field. It was beautifully free as it shook its head. Then in the next scene she saw this huge, pile of excess baggage being carted off. Above and below the baggage were moving captions like on the tail end of a movie. She kept trying to read the captions, but they were moving too fast to read them.

I felt the Lord was saying that we were trying to focus on the old garbage, and it was already being removed. We wanted to linger and figure it all out, but He was already moving on towards this coming change. A few days ago, I was feeling quite slimed from the enemy. I was more upside down then right side up, after having so many layers removed this year. This brought me to a place where I was starting to flinch. Sometimes when we go through a great battle, we come out the other end, gun shy and jumping at the least little thing. That is how I was feeling. So this strange experience occurs.

I was at my desk and needed to go to the restroom. I grabbed my reading glasses to put them on my desk. My hand was in midair before I realized my glasses were not on my face. I stared at my empty hand, wondering why I would do such a strange thing and started to giggle. A couple minutes later in the restroom I grabbed the toilet paper and pulled it down. Only the toilet paper is not there either! My husband had torn out the bathroom floor a few days before (layers peeled away, exposing foundations) and the toilet paper roll had not yet been remounted on the wall. I stared at my empty hand and laughed as I understood the Word of the Lord, given to me with such clarity.

WORD TO PONDER

"I have removed the old dead layers in your life. I did not expose them for you to linger over them. They are GONE. They are but filthy rags and they are GONE. You are still trying to see through old lenses, but they are GONE. You are shadow boxing with nothing. They are GONE. You are wincing. They are GONE. You are trying to figure it all out. They are GONE. Your past is GONE. Yes, it takes time for you to make the adjustment while old patterns repeat themselves. But you will soon see they are just empty motions.

For I have brought you into a new place. A place of freedom. A place of purity, where the dry rot of flesh has been purged, where the smelly places have been removed. You remember the shame, the filth, the slime, and yet I have already installed a new foundation beneath your feet. It is already in place and you have yet to realize it.

Even now, I want to bring a new change to your door. Places where you have been the tail, I will make you the head. And where you have been trampled upon by the enemy, you will suddenly rise and place him beneath you. The enemy thought he could take advantage of what I have been stripping in your life. But I AM Sovereign and nothing, no not anything shall by any means hurt you! I AM the Master Surgeon, and I restore, making all things beautiful. Fear not, for I have done a good thing. Let the past go, remove it. For now I bring to you My change. If you wince and stay buried in the past, it hinders this new thing I want to do in your midst. Rejoice with Me, and laugh hilariously, for all of heaven laughs with Me as we see the enemy beneath your feet.

"The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision." Ps 2:2-4 KJV [end of Word to Ponder]

So how does this fit with a changing of the guards? I believe this powerful change is going to filter down from the very top levels of government to the very bottom of our personal lives. In the spiritual realm, in the places where we have stood in the heat of battle, where we have earnestly interceded and humbly repented, we are going to see long standing, territorial enemy occupations being moved away and these places suddenly being occupied by angels. The ramifications of such will filter down through every area of life. He is moving out the old, making room for the new. He is cleaning the filthy house, to fill it with His righteousness. He is removing the dross and keeping the gold. He is blowing away the chaff to harvest the grain.

"But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness." (Mal 3:2-3 NKJV)

Even so, come Lord and do Your work among us. Lovingly,
Sandy

My Sister Giving Birth

Hollie Moody

A Prophetic Dream

I had a dream last night (June 3rd, 2000; Saturday).

In the dream, my husband and I were in a delivery room with my older sister. The room actually appeared to be, not in a hospital, but in a regular house. My older sister, who is 40 years old, was in labor, and about to give birth. I thought this strange, since my sister had a hysterectomy years ago, making it impossible for her to have anymore children. After being in the birthing room for quite some time, my sister suggested that my husband and I leave for a while and get something to eat. She said it looked like the birth of the baby would take some time.

So my husband and I went into the next room; which appeared to be a dining room. We sat down at the table and began to eat. There were other people with us at the table, but I really couldn't say who they were. As we were eating, I suddenly stopped eating and said, "Listen to how quiet it is. I think my sister had her baby."

We rushed from the table and ran into the delivery room. My sister had a large, beautiful newborn baby boy nursing at her breast. One of her arms (the one that wasn't holding the baby) was thrown across her eyes. She was half off the table from the waist down. The afterbirth and also blood were in a basin on the floor next to the bed. My sister was trying to make sure the bed stayed clean. The baby was still connected to the placenta. My husband cut the umbilical cord of the baby. I took the baby gently from my sister so that the "experts" (and this is the word that came to my mind as people came into the birthing room to tend to my sister) could come in and clean her up and make sure everything was all right with her.

As I held the baby, I made the comment that this was a very large baby, and must be any- where from 10 to 12 pounds. I also commented how beautiful and healthy this baby was. I took the baby out of the birthing room as my sister was being tended to. The people in the other room had brought in new, beautiful garments for the baby to wear, and we were all admiring these outfits.

Then, the dream ended.

My older sister has had tragic and unfortunate experiences with the churches she once attended. I won't point fingers, or cast blame on anyone; except to say that in the process of all that happened in her churches, my sister was seriously wounded emotionally and spiritually.

This dream I had, I at first thought was a prophetic dream only for my sister. I knew the birthing process and giving birth represented God's church about to bring forth and give birth to spiritual babies. I felt this meant that my sister would someday be healed of the wounds she has from past experiences in churches she attended. I felt it meant that my sister would one day be spiritually fruitful again.

But as I thought and pondered more about this dream, I felt this dream was prophetic for the worldwide church, and applied to those who had been or have been injured in the house of the Lord.

My sister's hysterectomy makes it totally impossible for her to get pregnant or to give birth to a baby. I feel this symbolizes the wounds of many who have been injured in God's house and have left their churches, or backslid, or are still carrying the scars and memories of those wounds. Many of us who have continued to intercede for backsliders or for the injured ones in our midst, may at times have shaken our heads, and thought to ourselves, "No way will this person ever be fruitful again. They are too bitter, too hurt, too wounded, too negative." But what is impossible with man is very possible with God.

My sister gave birth in private (in this dream), with no one there to witness or coach her along as she gave birth. I feel this may mean that many of those who have backslid or left their churches, or are still at their churches yet are still wounded, will be touched in private, away from the eyes of others. God will heal them in the privacy of their homes and their hearts, as they cry out to Him in the solitude of their own prayer closet. (Which I feel was represented by my sister having one of her arms thrown over her eyes when my husband and I came back into the delivery room.)

But after they give birth (perhaps in private) and become fruitful once again, they will need the care and attention of the "experts." Then will need to be tended to. While they are being taken care of by the "experts," (and this could represent those in our midst, in our churches, with a healing ministry for the wounded), others of us need to take care of the baby (clothe it, hold it, etc.).

If you or someone you know and love has been wounded in God's house, and have wandered away, or isolated themselves even in their churches because of how hurt they are, I hope and pray that this dream I had for and about my sister will comfort and encourage you. Continue to intercede for the lost, for the backslidden, for the wounded. They can be fruitful once again.

In Him,
Hollie L. Moody

Message for the Millenium

Jane Clark

"Who among you fears the Lord, who obeys the voice of His servant, who walks in darkness and has no light, let him trust in the name of the Lord and rely on his God." Is 50 :10

"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than a light and safer than a known way."

This was King George the sixth's statement of faith at the start of another year. Few in Britain could identify with this encouragement either because of lack of personal knowledge of God, or because in our affluent society we have become independent.

In the times that are coming it will be different. Learn to walk that way now. Learn from the father of faith, Abraham, who, after being given the promise, journeyed by faith, not knowing where he was going. Abraham looked at the stars and then put his hand into God's and went out into the darkness. The stars were a nightly reminder of God's power and sovereignty as he journeyed in the dark. And remember that here we have no continuing city, but look for one to come.

Mountain Of Prayer

Larry Brinker

While considering the littleness and seemingly insignificance of my prayer life the Lord showed me in a vision the following scene.

I saw myself standing at the foot of a very huge mountain, it appeared to be extremely tall, as I looked upward it seemed that the top was out of sight. The base was very wide, the entire mountain side was covered with rocks, some were large boulders others were as small as sand, and stones of all sizes and shapes in between these two extremes could be seen, no vegetation, just rocks.

Everywhere you looked was some type of stone.

As I stood before this mountain feeling dwarfed by the hugeness of it, I was impressed with the knowledge that it was my duty, my very job to tear this obstacle down.

Without bending over (I was that close to the mountain) I reached out and picked up a stone about the size of a softball, and thought how foolish for me to even start to tear this mountain down because it was so big; it seemed to overwhelm everything around it.

I tossed the rock over my shoulder and as I reached for another stone I was immediately taken out of this setting and removed around to the side of the mountain to a position of ninety degrees from where I originally stood but at a greater distance from the mountain.

I could still see the awesome mountain standing before me, and as I looked I could see myself at the original place, I was there working, removing stones. This picture was different from the first for now I could see the opposite side of the this mountain where an enormous machine resembling a backhoe was removing tons of rock in a single sweep of its giant arm.

I then noticed a similarity between the machine and me working, as I worked, it worked; when I stopped it also stopped.

As I realized this action immediately the vision was no more. I prayed to the Lord and asked for understanding.

Upon asking it seemed that immediately I was shaken by my shoulders by unseen hands and I heard a voice say “that is not you standing at the foot of that mountain but it is my people. Tell them that no matter what they think of the littleness of their prayers that I will only work as they pray.”

When I heard these words I was again at the side of the mountain and could now see what I had not originally perceived, and that was from the Lords side of he mountain it was almost completely removed, and that only a shell was left standing, which was what I had originally observed as being of such great size.

Prophecy:

Take heart my people and do not be discouraged by what you think is small little prayers on your part but know that each stone, each problem you face, on matter what size, no matter what weight, has significance in the kingdom, Press on and do not be discouraged for you may not see your Gods hand moving at this time but rest assured that the problems you face will be revealed in due time for what they really were.. Press on and again I say press on.

Larry Brinker.

Mule-Like Religion

Don Hawley

If someone calls you a “donkey,” an “ass,” or a “jackass,” don’t take it as a compliment. According to the dictionary the synonym “stupid” applies to all three.

Now suppose you own a jackass, and he is somewhat stupid. In order to improve the situation, you decide to mate him with a beautiful, swift racehorse. Of course when you breed a horse and a jackass, you end up with a mule. This latter hybrid definitely is not going to be as graceful and swift as a horse, and furthermore it almost certainly will be sterile. Dead end.

ANCIENT ISRAEL

From ancient times God has made it clear that he’s less than enthused about hybrids.

Obey my laws: Do not mate your cattle with a different kind; don't sow your field with two kinds of seed; don't wear clothes made of half wool and half linen. Lev. 19:19.

Of course these physical restrictions were to teach a spiritual truth, one that Israel didn’t comprehend. In spite of its wealth and power, God considered the idolatrous nation of Egypt “stupid.” The children of God did come out of Egypt physically, but they left part of their heart behind. They couldn’t bring themselves to make a full break.

That was bad enough, but Israel also refused to obey God’s command to go on into Canaan land. They longed for the “milk and honey” of that place, but fear of what else they might find kept them from claiming their right. And so they became a hybrid, part Egypt and part Canaan—a mule. The result was a sterility that kept them from being a blessing either to themselves or others. They died in the desert of compromise.

MODERN SPIRITUAL ISRAEL

Today, many spiritual Israelites are making a similar mistake. They hear God calling them out of cultism, denominationalism, and other manmade organizations, but can’t seem to make a clean break. Though they actually leave physically, they still retain strong emotional ties to their past.

Such congregations want some experience in what God is doing through the Holy Spirit today, but fear keeps them from full acceptance. They get into the river up to their knees, and then refuse to go wherever God wants to take them.

Some of these compromised groups actually call themselves “half-way houses.” The idea is that if they only come out part way, then they can encourage others to make a break. They refuse to move fully in the Spirit lest it frighten those coming out of dead religious forms. Though sincere, such groups are sterile when it comes to ministering in fullness. They have only a half loaf of the Bread of Life.

DECISION TIME

Time is running out for compromise, it's decision time. The One who is coming soon says:

"I know you well--you are neither hot nor cold; I wish you were one or the other! But since you are merely lukewarm, I will spit you out of my mouth!

"You say, 'I am rich, with everything I want; I don't need a thing!' And you don't realize that spiritually you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. My advice to you is to buy pure gold from me, gold purified by fire--only then will you truly be rich. And to purchase from me white garments, clean and pure, so you won't be naked and ashamed; and to get medicine from me to heal your eyes and give you back your sight. Rev. 3:15-18.

If you've been wandering in the desert of compromise, it's time to cut all ties with a failed past, and move fully into what God is doing right now through his Holy Spirit. You can be part of the final move of God, but only if you're fully committed to him.

My Word Will Stand Forever

I have spoken and I will not be silenced. The time is here for you, My children, to rise up in My name and go forth mightily doing the will of your Father. I am calling you into a holy place. I want you to walk before Me unblemished by the world. I want you to walk before Me in an attitude of worship. Now is the time to hear the word of your Lord God and respond to His call. Now is the time to come before Me in an attitude of holy worship and let Me know the desire of your heart. Hear Me when I tell you that I have looked on you with the kindest intent and want you to advance into the place of holiness, wonder and awe.

I have placed you, at this hour, in the main stream of things. I have placed you where activity is of the essence in your progress. I want you to know that I guide and direct the steps of My willing children. I guide and direct you into the territory of My choosing to bring forth My most pronounced will in your lives. I am extending to you at this hour a great possibility. I want you to know that nothing is impossible with your God. Your God is establishing you in the place where you will see wonders and live out His plans and purposes in your lives. Dear children, hear Me when I speak. Your God is speaking His truth this night. He is speaking His heart to His beloved. Count on Me to lead you and guide you into this eternal place-this place of My glory manifesting in your life and placing you in your calling. I am moving you ahead, beloved. I am moving you right along at this present moment into the design of My will. I have spoken My words of truth. I have spoken My will. I will not be denied. My word will stand. My word will stand forever!!!

"A WORD TO MY PRESENT-DAY DEBORAH'S"

March 6, 2000

This morning during my worship time, the Lord keep on bringing back to my mind faces of women.

ON THEIR KNEES

Many women and many of them were on their knees and their faces were to the ground and they were not moving at all. With that, I felt a great wave of love and compassion flowed over me and washed over me as if engulfing all of my being.

I can heard in the spirit silent groans, cries coming forth from these women and they ascended to the heavens like mists and smokes, incense that were brought before the throne room of God.

Then I felt the Lord impressing these thoughts and words to me. I am sharing them as I heard them which will be in a "Thus says the Lord" and I humbly seek your prayer and discernment to these words.

"LOOK AT MY PRECIOUS DAUGHTERS"

"Look at my precious daughters. Oh, how my heart cry out to them. So many of them have become my present day Deborah's (Judges 4). They have found themselves in places and situations where they have to rise up. Many of them have become like Abigail who acted to avert a disaster (1 Samuel 25:18). Many of them have become like my Naomi who called herself 'Mara' and Ruth who have to labor and work in the fields. (Ruth 1:20, 2:3)

"I've been watching them for a long time. I've known all the details of their coming in and their going out. I understand all their pain and heard all their cries. Many of them have been forced to carry a yoke that should not be there.

"HOW MY TEARS FLOW WHEN I BEHOLD THEM"

"Say to them this day, to my present days Deborah's : How blessed their labor have become to me. How precious and valuable they are to me. The love, the sacrifices and the labor they have poured out for me have become like masterpiece in my gallery. How my tears flowed when I behold them. They have become like sweet smelling incense that purifies my throne. Tell them that their labor will not be in vain. Tell them that I will be coming to them soon. I will be enough for all their need. I am their sufficiency. Let me wipe away those tears from your eyes. Let me carry the yoke that is upon your shoulder. Let me comfort you and draw you close to my arms. Let me be everything that your heart has ever desired. I will be your father, your husband, your son, your friend, your brother. One who loves you beyond words.

"Come and arise my daughters for My scepter is extended unto you. Come and enter into your rest. Come and take your place with me. As I have rewarded Deborah so will I reward you my present day's Deborah."

RHEMA PROMISES

"Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes. For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will dispossess nations and settle in their desolate cities. Do not be afraid; you will not suffer shame. Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated. You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood. For your Maker is your husband - the Lord Almighty is his name - the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; he is called the God of all the earth. The Lord will call you back as if you were a wife deserted and distressed in spirit - a wife who married young, only to be rejected, " says your God. " For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back. . . . I hid my face from you for a moment, but with refreshing kindness I will have compassion on you. " says the Lord your Redeemer. (Isaiah 54:2-8)

Mighty Deborah's of the most high, Arise. . .

Blessings,

My Glorious Temple

Harley Hickling

I was reading from Isaiah 60 this morning, which like for many of you, is one of my favorite chapters in the whole Bible. I was reading the New Living Translation, which I admit reads quite differently than many of the more popular translations. The last portion of verse 7 reads "In that day I will make my Temple glorious." And as I read this short phrase my inner man leaped with excitement within me and the words I had just read seemed to almost dance before my eyes. During the day, as I revisited this phrase, Abba began to speak to me:

Have I not said My beloved, that you are My Temple, a most Holy Temple made without human hands? And is this not the very day of The Lord you are living in that Isaiah was addressing? The answer to both questions is a resounding yes for many of you are indeed My Temple in which I have chosen to reside. The Most Holy Spirit has been very busy with each of you My beloved children cleaning you out thoroughly with broom and scrub brush from top to bottom. At times His cleansing has seemed harsh and has been painful to receive, yet because you have determined in your hearts to serve Me, you did not turn aside from the cleansing process though it would have been easy enough to do. Instead you remain steadfast and say in your hearts "Holy Spirit do not leave me until you have made out of me a vessel suitable for my Father's habitation!" Yes, I hear the cry of your heart and it pleases Me greatly. It is also true that to a limited measure I have been residing in My beloved since you demonstrated a desire to serve me with everything that is you. But this limited residence is not that which I have intended for you for My desires concerning you entails much, much, more! For it is My intention to make My Temple Glorious beyond anything which you can imagine! A Glory that ALL will see and ALL will know instantly that My Presence is strong within each of you for this Glory of mine can neither be restrained nor contained once I come with power to reside within you! As you have nailed your flesh to your cross daily you have aided and abetted the Most Holy Spirit in His cleansing work within you and for many of you that work is nearly complete. Yes indeed many of you are quickly becoming worthy vessels indeed. When your flesh is finally made completely dead to this world, I will then, and only then, come and reside within you with truly great power and might. You shall become a people that has never before been seen upon the face of the Earth. A people of great power radiating My indwelling Glory, a people who I cherish and love beyond belief. Oh how I love each of you and what a great time We shall have together serving the King and His Kingdom!

The world today is in the waking moments of that great and terrible day that has been long foretold and the time is only momentarily away when I shall call forth "Arise My People! Shine Forth My Temple! For the Glory of the Lord is indeed risen and is strong upon you!" What a glorious Temple you shall be! What power shall emanate forth from you as you go about representing My authority and doing My bidding during this time of great tumult! Each of you shall reach out and have great impact upon multitudes for this is all part of the many plans that I have established for each of you. Plans that you cannot even conceive of because of limitations that currently exist within you. Limitations that shall diminish and eventually be swept away as We go forth together in true newness of power and might for this is definitely the will of God concerning you!

My Heart Today

Becky McLendon

Dear ones: This message is birthed out of a lengthy conversation I have had with a sister in Canada. The Lord really moved in that conversation. Please read and go before the LORD in earnest intercession for the unfolding of His plan of the ages. Get a vision of what He is doing from a heavenly perspective. We are in a very crucial age right NOW. Becky : The Lord whispered something to me Saturday while lunching with prayer partners:

He said "The STENCH has reached my nostrils."

Amos 4:10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

Revelation 18:5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. That is the stench within the "church" as well as the sin of the wicked

That is world wide

I have become intolerant of religious platitudes and insipid whiny religious talk.

I have no tolerance for even one single comment that is spoken religiously

I prayed the other day that the tongues of stupid sheep would cleave to the roof of their mouths. For they frustrate God's plan with the attempts to "Help " Him.

That they would be struck DUMB until God's plan is fulfilled : I am dead serious about this

We are about the business of binding up the BROKEN hearts and NOT the BLEEDING hearts

Also we are to be praying for Him to shut ALL lying mouths

We have been so occupied watching the garbage on CNN. I thank God that I dont have TV anymore..the tornado saw to that.

I hear bleeding hearts say we were in danger of "dividing the church " over this election..whine whine whine..and we need to try to get along and be more tolerant of others. That makes me want to vomit That mentality is strange...in light of the fact that God Himself is doing the dividing.

We are in the era of the separating of wheat and tares.

But most don't see that...They are running around rebuking the DEVIL .thinking they are doing God's business He said many would blame the devil, CALLING WHAT IS EVIL GOOD AND WHAT IS GOOD EVIL.

But I saw HIS finger draw the LINE!

He has said..I am bringing to the FOREFRONT righteousness AND evil

NO GRAY AREAS

A chasm opens between the righteous and the wicked. And it widens. And the gray area whiners fall into the abyss of confusion and darkness.

The line was drawn in every nation No nation is spared from God's finger. This is NOT strictly an America thing..it is worldwide.

I tell folks to get their noses out of their little local situations and look on the horizon but..not many people see beyond their own back yard and they spend all their energy wringing their hands about it.

They are blind to what is really happening

They are going to be ever so grateful to God when He sends His mighty army to rescue them from the pit. We are told to .snatch them from the fire. Hating even the STENCH of their garments.

It is a plan in motion

A sister I know sent me a vision about JONAH, since she knew God had shown me "the Sign of Jonah"

It is about Jonah's VINE that the Lord prepared...to overshadow him. but then He killed the vine

Another sent me a vision of a fist offering a "gift." But the gift appeared to offer HOPE then it was taken away and the fist shook in the peoples' faces.

The fist offered the "promise" and then turned to a shaking fist.

Many are caught up in "IF BUSH GETS IN WE ARE SAFE"...not so

They are still trusting in MAN. Forgetting that GOD has a plan and HE will fulfill it.

The VINE of Jonah could be the fist that has the "HOPE" Gift in it.

God will allow us a short time of "hope" but that will be taken. This hope could also symbolize the American Constitution. This is all in the NATURAL if that is stolen so is our freedom

Jonah was seeking "natural" hope at that time. And God sheltered him temporarily with the VINE.

The "gray area" believers are still looking to physical institutions and to man for their hope.

They will see Bush as the answer to that hope and get more "gray" in their trust and obedience to God.

Then the HOPE ( Bush and what he stands for (the constitution) etc). will be taken away by God The "vine will dry up" and all hell will be loosed on the earth as the beast comes up out of the bottomless pit to wage war on the SAINTS.

This shows our ultimate trust is to be in God and God alone : And when I prayed that the LORD would shut up the mouths of stupid sheep it was SO HE COULD FULFILL HIS PLAN.

Many hardships are coming because of this. The remnant will be equipped in their spirits to endure this the rest will be in total chaos. This election may be the stage being set

The remnant will be established..to point the blind, deaf sheep to their true Provider .Build the bridge to ZION. Many things are lining up....naturally and spiritually They are coming together

Not to be taken as a religious platitude: IT IS AN EXCITING TIME TO BE ALIVE, AMEN?

We are living prophecy

.He did say to fasten our seatbelts...there is turbulence ahead.

That is why the remnant must be established in righteousness, peace and joy of the Holy Ghost : We will know what is happening...but that is only the beginning...we will have to make major adjustments...and our flesh will not like it either

We need each other in these times big time and we must hold one another up We will need each other more and more as the days go by. God will see to it that we can continue to be connected.:

It is so sad to hear the "peace and safety" prophets in the midst of such a serious time : I don't want to hear about the great "party" of "revival" the church is having. While sheep are dying of starvation to hear the sure word of God.

That is the STENCH that has reached God's nostrils I get in my spirit the scripture "they sat down and ate, and then rose up to play"

I feel like a spectator right now watching everything unfold exactly like He has spoken it God is saying this one is MINE

In wisdom we will keep our mouths shut unless HE opens them then when HE opens them we are not "loved" by the religious. However, the time for speaking will come

God and HIS Kingdom and the MARRIAGE of the LAMB is all I care about now May we teach AND DEMONSTRATE the Fear of the Lord and the return to the First Love to others

And many will look at you like the "deer in the headlights". They look at you...not understanding one bit what you are saying and continue holding to their idols...form of worship, type of worship music, cliches and habits And praise God for the revival they are having. and tell us we are "Missing God." because we weren't at the meeting or we are "backslid" because we are not coming to the service. especially the meetings and service at THEIR building. Because GOD cannot be anywhere else but THERE.

Come get your gold filling

Come get a miracle from Brother Blessedness

And bring a big purse

.SOW into this mans hand to become RICH

Come fall on the floor with US and ONLY US to be holy.

This is sad. It is idol worship

No one says REPENT AND RETURN TO YOUR FIRST LOVE

No one says FEAR GOD AND LIVE

It is so shallow

No one says WISDOM IS THE MAIN THING, THEREFORE GET WISDOM..and IN ALL YOUR GETTING GET UNDERSTANDING

No one says the KINGDOM OF GOD IS NOW

No one says YOU HAVE BEEN WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE AND HAVE BEEN FOUND LACKING
. Because they think the church building and all it represents is His Wisdom and His Kingdom: and His Authority..especially THEIR church building.

It is the tragedy of the ages...and was prophesied milleniums ago

Moses WEPT over this

Jeremiah WEPT over this

Jesus WEPT over this

That is why we the remnant weep

"Weep and mourn between the porch and the altar for the sake of My people," saith the LORD

For GREAT is their iniquity.: .because they won't see Him again...until they receive the One He has sent to them who is Christ Himself.

Where two or more are gathered IN HIS NAME, and NOT necessarily in a building, ... THERE HE IS

He will prepare Goshen for His remnant, those who have sought Him and received Him openly. : He showed me that so clearly when the y2 K freaks were all panicking and sowing seeds of fear in the church and taking up huge OFFERINGS doing so.

Anything to get more money for their own agendas. .Money changers.

So what do we pray as His remnant?. That we Humble ourselves, Pray, Seek His face and TURN FROM OUR WICKED WAYS ..THEN will He hear from heaven, forgive our sins and heal our land We will sigh and groan over the iniquity in His sanctuary. We will weep for Zion's sake. There is the whole wrap up..ZION. AMEN

Becky

Myths

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

The other day we took a little trip to Jerusalem's Western Wall. No, it wasn't for praying purposes, but in order to 'journey' underground, along the 488 meters (approx. 550 yards) of the Western Wall, which is almost the entire length of the western side of the Temple Mount compound built by Herod. Our guide was a religious young woman, and very knowledgeable about the area. However, while questioning her about the First Temple, she said that there was no physical evidence that it ever existed. I couldn't believe my ears! I then proceeded to tell her about our visits to Joshua's altar on the Mount of Curse (Eval). Again, she was refuting the authenticity of that site too. In my shock, I told her that her fellow orthodox Zionist settlers, who live in the area of Shechem, stake their claim for being there on such archeological evidence. She sat down for a moment on the mother rock of Mount Moriah, and confessed that she too believed that the altar was truly dated to Joshua's time, but... After returning home and pondering for a while why this government employee would try so hard to explain away her own biblical history, I was struck by a word - "myth". A myth, as defined by the American Heritage Dictionary, is a traditional story presenting supernatural beings, ancestors or heroes that serve a primordial types in a primitive view of the world; a fictitious or imaginary story, person, or thing; a false belief.

The enemy of the Word of God has basically one weapon that he uses for blinding and binding the people; deceiving his victims into believing lies. This is why Yeshua called him "the father of lies". "You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it" (John 8:44).

If the so-called peace process, or land for peace, is going to succeed, an atmosphere of deception, against some basic truths must be created. One such deception in particular, which is very subtle, has to do with the most important issues of legal and legitimate claims to Judea, Samaria, and Jerusalem; in other words, the entire land of Israel. The world, using its most educated experts in the professions of archeology and history, has come to the conclusion that there is no physical evidence of an ancient people called the Hebrews; no Exodus from Egypt; no First Temple in Jerusalem; no Joshua's altar, etc. rendering any historical claim to the land null and void. If they manage to convince enough people in this generation to believe their lie, our children and grandchildren may just learn that the stories of the Torah are nothing more than mythology, and the God of Avraham, Yitzchak and Ya'acov will simply join the ranks of the rest of the gods of the Greek beast.

The Islamic religious authorities of the Temple Mount (the Wakf) just dumped 900 truckloads of debris, which were hauled from that area, into the valley below. Our government (and the powerful Antiquities Department) purposely turned their back on this, and as a matter of fact arrested a student of archeology, for taking ("stealing") from the dump precious artifacts of the Second and possibly First Temple Periods. Why is there such a blatant attempt to get rid of any, if not all, of these facts and evidence?

The land of Israel, our inheritance, is being contested like never before. Why? For the same reason that our identity is being warred against. This piece of real estate here in the Middle East is just as important to God's plan of redemption as are the people. We cannot separate one from the other. Whether we find one archeological object or not, we still have the Word of Truth as written down by Moses and the prophets. This will stand as the one eternal testimony that God is who He says He is. Our heavenly Father wants us to be His witness on this earth, and has given us His Spirit for this purpose, to lead and guide us into all truth; a truth which will prove to be more than mere 'head knowledge', but rather will become a revelation of Him, through a people living in His land.

We, who have found our true spiritual identity in the Messiah and now also in 'the natural', as the seed of Israel, are also being challenged by the enemy; he wants us to continue to live as if we are not who God says we are. YHVH says that this nation, Israel, is to be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation in the land, one that will show forth His righteousness and justice, as light to the other nations. Yeshua has come to set up His Father's kingdom in us, the restored House of Jacob. Thus, to know whom we are and to be sure of our calling, are vital matters. This truth of our identity as a redeemed first fruit people puts us back into a position that was lost in the Garden. We now stand, individually and corporately, through faith in what is true, as a beacon of light and as a sword in the hand of our God to destroy all the strongholds in the heavenly places. The lies and deceptions that have covered our souls like filthy rags are being removed in and through the death and resurrected life of our Messiah, who is replacing the lie with truth.

"Beware lest anyone deceive you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the myths of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to the anointing of Messiah (Colossians 2:8), Who is "the living way, truth and life".

Shabbat Shalom, Ume'vorach,

Shevet Achim

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for the house Judah and the house of Ephraim to dwell and walk together in unity.

Myths of the Middle East

© 2000 WorldNetDaily.com

I've been quiet since Israel erupted in fighting spurred by disputes over the Temple Mount. Until now, I haven't even bothered to say, "See, I told you so." But I can't resist any longer. I feel compelled to remind you of the column I wrote just a couple weeks before the latest uprising. Yeah, folks, I predicted it. That's OK. Hold your applause.

After all, I wish I had been wrong. More than 80 people have been killed since the current fighting in and around Jerusalem began. And for what?

If you believe what you read in most news sources, Palestinians want a homeland and Muslims want control over sites they consider holy. Simple, right?

Well, as an Arab-American journalist who has spent some time in the Middle East dodging more than my share of rocks and mortar shells, I've got to tell you that these are just phony excuses for the rioting, trouble-making and land-grabbing.

Isn't it interesting that prior to the 1967 Arab-Israeli war, there was no serious movement for a Palestinian homeland?

"Well, Farah," you might say, "that was before the Israelis seized the West Bank and Old Jerusalem."

That's true. In the Six-Day War, Israel captured Judea, Samaria and East Jerusalem. But they didn't capture these territories from Yasser Arafat. They captured them from Jordan's King Hussein. I can't help but wonder why all these Palestinians suddenly discovered their national identity after Israel won the war.

The truth is that Palestine is no more real than Never-Never Land. The first time the name was used was in 70 A.D. when the Romans committed genocide against the Jews, smashed the Temple and declared the land of Israel would be no more. From then on, the Romans promised, it would be known as Palestine. The name was derived from the Philistines, a Goliathian people conquered by the Jews centuries earlier. It was a way for the Romans to add insult to injury. They also tried to change the name of Jerusalem to Aelia Capitolina, but that had even less staying power.

Palestine has never existed -- before or since -- as an autonomous entity. It was ruled alternately by Rome, by Islamic and Christian crusaders, by the Ottoman Empire and, briefly, by the British after World War I. The British agreed to restore at least part of the land to the Jewish people as their homeland.

There is no language known as Palestinian. There is no distinct Palestinian culture. There has never been a land known as Palestine governed by Palestinians. Palestinians are Arabs, indistinguishable from Jordanians (another recent invention), Syrians, Lebanese, Iraqis, etc. Keep in mind that the Arabs control 99.9 percent of the Middle East lands. Israel represents one-tenth of 1 percent of the landmass.

But that's too much for the Arabs. They want it all. And that is ultimately what the fighting in Israel is about today. Greed. Pride. Envy. Covetousness. No matter how many land concessions the Israelis make, it will never be enough.

What about Islam's holy sites? There are none in Jerusalem.

Shocked? You should be. I don't expect you will ever hear this brutal truth from anyone else in the international media. It's just not politically correct.

I know what you're going to say: "Farah, the Al Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock in Jerusalem represent Islam's third most holy sites."

Not true. In fact, the Koran says nothing about Jerusalem. It mentions Mecca hundreds of times. It mentions Medina countless times. It never mentions Jerusalem. With good reason. There is no historical evidence to suggest Mohammad ever visited Jerusalem.

So how did Jerusalem become the third holiest site of Islam? Muslims today cite a vague passage in the Koran, the seventeenth Sura, entitled "The Night Journey." It relates that in a dream or a vision Mohammed was carried by night "from the sacred temple to the temple that is most remote, whose precinct we have blessed, that we might show him our signs. ..." In the seventh century, some Muslims identified the two temples mentioned in this verse as being in Mecca and Jerusalem. And that's as close as Islam's connection with Jerusalem gets -- myth, fantasy, wishful thinking. Meanwhile, Jews can trace their roots in Jerusalem back to the days of Abraham.

The latest round of violence in Israel erupted when Likud Party leader Ariel Sharon tried to visit the Temple Mount, the foundation of the Temple built by Solomon. It is the holiest site for Jews. Sharon and his entourage were met with stones and threats. I know what it's like. I've been there. Can you imagine what it is like for Jews to be threatened, stoned and physically kept out of the holiest site in Judaism?

So what's the solution to the Middle East mayhem? Well, frankly, I don't think there is a man-made solution to the violence. But, if there is one, it needs to begin with truth. Pretending will only lead to more chaos. Treating a 5,000-year-old birthright backed by overwhelming historical and archaeological evidence equally with illegitimate claims, wishes and wants gives diplomacy and peacekeeping a bad name.

Hi Loved Ones,

In 1995 I had a vision of a catapult and I heard the Lord say that He was going to hurl me forward through time and space. That same week my son drew a picture of a battle scene where there were warriors fighting in the sky and on the ground. One of the warriors was being hurled through the air by a catapult. I was quite amazed as I looked at the various parts of the picture and realized how it identified with my life. The catapult certainly caught my interest as well as what the Lord had said but I was not sure exactly what it meant. Now I have more understanding.

There are many of us who have been in a long battle. In one way or another, most have become wounded in the fight. (These wounds are nothing to be ashamed of, for in the heavenlies they are like hero badges or medals of honor. As we rise again, and the Lord heals these wounds, they will become healing ground for others in the same place.) Some of the wounded have found themselves placed in situations that would best be called predicaments. It's called being stuck; unable to move forward, unable to move backward. And instead of the offensive stand against the enemy, their battle cry has become, "HELP GOD!" They have been stuck in this wounded place for a long time. They have wrestled and fought against the enemy, against their own pain and circumstance, and still not found a way out. It is in this place He prepares the catapult.

David prayed, "Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me." (Ps 59:1) That word deliver in the Hebrew (natsal) means to 'snatch away'. [Strong's #5337]

Paul said, "But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that the message might be preached fully through me, and that all the Gentiles might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for His heavenly kingdom. To Him be glory forever and ever. Amen!" (2 Tim 4:17-18 NKJV) In this scripture, the Greek word for deliver (rhomai) means to rush like a strong current of water, or draw out and rescue. [Strong's # 4506]

My last post spoke about a coming change and also a changing of the guards. There are many aspects of change that will work its way down through the body of Christ and into our personal lives. One of these changes will be deliverance. There are two kinds of deliverance. One is where our enemies are driven from us. The other is where we are snatched from them. We will see both kinds of deliverance in the days to come. However this post is about the latter.

If you find yourself stuck in a place and you are unable to find your way out, this is not a time to let go or give up in despair. Rather it is a time to seek His face, pray, cry out, press in and call upon the Lord like never before. A key buzz word that I am hearing a lot lately is, "Desperate." It is a time to ask, seek and knock until He answers. It is a time to press in. Some have become so used to waiting, and praying haphazardly from time to time, that they do not realize that the Lord is already making plans to snatch them out of "prison." And when they are snatched, they may be very surprised where they land!

Without our knowing it, expectation, preconceived ideas and presumption can sometimes keep us in "prison" and from receiving God's best. We have preconceived ideas of what the Lord is wanting to do for us, and therefore it keeps us from actually receiving what He is wanting us to step into. That is why He sometimes brings us to desperate places, so that we are willing to receive what He wants. He wants to give us good gifts but sometimes we become our own worst enemy and unintentionally resist Him.

The following is a precious story sent to me via email. It's one of those perfect quickened Words that the Lord fills with life. ("It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." John 6:63 KJV)

"Kitten From Heaven"

A pastor had a kitten that climbed up a tree in his backyard and then was afraid to come down. The pastor coaxed, offered warm milk, etc. The kitty would not come down. The tree was not sturdy enough to climb, so the pastor decided that if he tied a rope [from the tree] to his car and drove away so that the tree bent down, he could then reach up and get the kitten. He did all this, checking his progress in the car frequently, then figured if he went just a little bit further, the tree would be bent sufficiently for him to reach the kitten. But as he moved a little further forward ... the rope broke.

The tree went "boing!" and the kitten instantly sailed through the air-out of sight. The pastor felt terrible. He walked all over the neighborhood asking people if they'd seen a little kitten. Nobody had seen a stray kitten. So, he prayed, "Lord, I just commit this kitten to Your keeping," and went on about his business. A few days later he was at the grocery store, and met one of his church members. He happened to look into her shopping cart and was amazed to see cat food. Now this woman was a cat hater and everyone knew it, so he asked her, "Why are you buying cat food when you hate cats so much?" She replied, "You won't believe this," and told him how her little girl had been begging her for a cat, but she kept refusing. Then a few days before, the child had begged again, so the Mom finally told her little girl, "Well, if the Lord gives you a cat, I'll let you keep it." She told the pastor, "I watched my child go out in the yard, get on her knees, and ask the Lord for a cat. And really, Pastor, you won't believe this, but I saw it with my own eyes. A kitten suddenly came flying out of the blue sky, with its paws spread out, and landed right in front of her."

Lovingly,

Sandy

"But this is a people robbed and spoiled, they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses, they are for a prey, and none delivers, for a spoil, and none cries, "RESTORE!" (Isaiah 42:22).

I hear the words "recompense" and "restitution." I hear the voice of Lord say, 'it is time for restoration. Now is the time for the barren to sing and the grieved to be consoled. For the wounded to be healed and the outcast to come home. Now is the time says the Lord.

I see those forsaken and forgotten relieved. I see those in chains being set free. Those that have been rejected and scorned, now healed and richly adorned. Those that sat in dung hills now sitting with princes. Now is the time, now is the season. A wind of refreshing is blowing across your land, the weak and the feeble I will cause to stand. I will put my weapons in their hands. They will possess the land.

The Spirit of the Warrior and the Eagle I am now releasing, the lame will walk and the blind will see. The ones in prison cells will cry out to Me. A wind of refreshing I am sending to the First Nation, I will give them My love and My compassion. They will bridge the gap between nations. They will bring reconciliation.

Stand and watch O peoples, as I pour out My Spirit on your children. Now is the season, now is the time. My glory will be seen upon you, arise and shine! "Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising." (Is.60:3). Now a new star is shining. Like the glory of the Son you will shine bright, all nations will know that you are Mine.

Your chiefs will sit with presidents and kings, their gifts and riches they will bring, to lay at your feet. I will prepare a table for you in the midst of your enemies. I will open a fountain in desolate heights, I will give your children the will to fight. I will remove the fear and the shame, they will be ambassadors for My name. In foreign nations they will proclaim, "JESUS REIGNS!"

I will give you back the stolen land. I will restore it with My right hand. You will stand on the ancient places, I will wipe the tears off your elders faces. Your children shall run and not be weary, walk and not faint. I will take from your hearts the scars and pain. I will bring to your land the latter rain. The former and latter rain.

Prepare yourselves for war. I am mending what I have torn. I will give you the keys of My Kingdom to set nations free, to tear down the strongholds and crush principalities. Wherever the soles of your feet tread you will possess the land. On the high and ancient places you will stand. To proclaim liberty and command, "RESTORE!" We will not be robbed and spoiled no more! For the Judge stands at the door. The Judge stands at the door.'

"Arise and Shine"

I hear the cries of your children, the cries in the night, I hear the groans of your elders who have grown weary from the fight, I hear the cries of innocent blood from the ground, I see your children in prison cells chained, bitter, and bound.

I see your mothers barren unable to confide, I see your warriors broken and without the will to fight, But now is the season and now is the time, For My children to "arise and shine."

Arise and shine, My bride it is time to arise, Adorned in white, With the strength to fight, Arise and shine...

Now is the time of restitution, I am pouring out My Spirit on your children, I will bind up their hearts and heal up their wounds, and the barren will now bring forth her fruit.

Your elders will sing a new song, Recompense to you all that has been done wrong, Restore what has been devoured, My children this your most glorious hour!

Arise and shine, My bride it is time to arise, Adorned in white, With the strength to fight, Arise and shine...

Nations As Your Inheritance

Todd Bentley

I have a quickening in my spirit that this is the year of the nations. We as a ministry have been bombarded with invitations and Macedonia calls to the nations in the last six months! I believe that it is a prophetic sign that God is truly about to give us whole regions and Nations for his Glory.

Ps 2:8 declares: Ask of Me and I will give you the nations for your inheritance! In this day and Hour as Christ releases the Kingly Oil, his mantle of Authority and power, we will see not only the release of resources but opportunities to go and to reap in the nations of the earth. There will be a Missions Evangelism explosion and the release of the Glory and gold to launch missionaries forward into their destiny because He shall rule as King. In this outpouring many that are not in ministry at this time will quickly be released as labourers in His vineyard.

I see Nations that have been closed to the Gospel even Muslim countries opening a door wide, and I also see many of those at one time who pioneered a missions movement, being thrust back into the ministry and seeing the Godly Heritage being fulfilled in their Children's children. Those who sowed much into the nations and saw little fruit will reap!!!

One such nation I see beginning to explode in revival is Holland spreading throughout Europe. As I was under the power of the Spirit recently in Marysville, Washington, I had this Word come to me:

Holland Rise!!!

Holland, Rise and Shine for your light has come and the Glory of the Lord is risen upon you. Gentiles shall come to your light and Kings of nations to the brightness of your rising.

Holland, lift up your gates and the King of Glory will come in. I sense that the Spirit of the Lord is about to favour you in a way that you have not been favoured for hundreds of years since your last Outpouring. Dig up those wells!!!!

Through the gate that you are to Europe and the world so you shall be a spiritual Gate. I will bring the nations to you to experience a mighty healing revival, I want to release that which will sweep through the country healing the sick in their homes. Even as I moved through Wales, I will move through you a sweeping revival of Power Signs and Wonders. I see a spiritual reproach of Unbelief being rolled back and the fountains of the deep giving forth her living water again.

Amsterdam, city of sexual sin, I will take your prostitution and reputation of sin city life {red light district} and even as I made Rahab the prostitute a part of my redemptive plan I shall not forget you in Salvation. I will sweep your streets with a conviction of sin and visit you with My purity. As the nations desired that of what I did in Toronto, shall they not also desire you, Holland?

I see large healing Campaigns and a fruitfulness in areas of ministry where the ground has been hard and not productive. Where ministries have failed in the past and have even left you they shall return with the coals of revival.

My love will bring a unity into you and the surrounding countries. It is Time for you to take your place and sit back no longer for what I desire to do in you will be a sign in the earth.

Remember the upcoming Miracle, Signs and Wonders Healing Conference. # North Carolina

Kathryn Walters

"SUDDENLY I WAS LIFTED UP AND FOUND MY SELF LOOKING DOWN UPON NORTH CAROLINA."

A Vision and Word for North Carolina

Through: Kathryn Walters 3.12.00

I was praying and waiting on the Lord. Suddenly I was lifted up and then found myself looking down upon North Carolina. I saw a river from the border of S. Carolina begin to wind its way up right through the center of North Carolina on toward Virginia. As I looked at the river, I could see the golden sheen on it - then it seemed to turn silver and then back to gold again, depending on the reflection of the light.

OLD MINES

Then I saw flashes of light here and there. When the flashes of light came they illuminated the area where they were. The illumination showed up the entrance of old mines. The mines had been boarded up but some angels had begun to take the boards down. The entrances were uncovered and people began to go in and mine the gold that was in them. When I saw this I thought it was a similar thing to the re-digging of the wells that people have been prophesying about for a while.

HIDDEN AND BOARDED UP PEOPLE, MINISTRIES, GIFTS

Of course the mines also represent things (people/ministries/gifts) that have been hidden - but now they are going to come out and be used and spread around so the whole body of Christ can prosper. There must have been local movements of the spirit in previous days in N C that may not be widely known but nevertheless they are there. These are areas where there were old "spiritual mines."

SHOT BETWEEN CHARLOTTE AND GREENSBORO--A CALL TO NORTH CAROLINA INTERCESSORS

Then I saw three large black birds flying across N C from the west coast across toward Tennessee.

The black birds were major spirits of witchcraft. As I saw the birds fly I saw them get shot out of the sky somewhere between Charlotte and Greensboro. I believe there are some intercessors in that area who have the anointing to do that - so go for it N C intercessor friends.

I had an awesome time in Scotland and Wales. Going back soon - Thanks for praying EVERYONE.

The Name Of This Nectar Is: 'Heart's Desire'

kapmando@davesworld.net 2/1/2000

TAKE YOUR PLACES

Rev. 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down."

This morning as I was praying, I saw a picture of satan streaking through space towards the Earth. He was full of fire, burning up the same way a returning space ship would if it took to direct a path through the Earth's atmosphere.

While I was pondering this, I had the impression of saints flying up from the Earth at the same speed and also burning up in the atmosphere. Only it was not the Earth's atmosphere that was causing them to be aflame, but the atmosphere of God that was burning them up.

HEART'S DESIRE FOR HOLINESS

Although the fire was somewhat painful, they did not care. They were being pulled by a force far greater then the gravity of Earth and its ways. They were being pulled by their hearts' desire to be "holy" and "fully" pure and immersed in the Love and Presence of their Father God.

THE FATHER ASKS FOR YOUR BOLDNESS

I felt the Father saying, "When you come boldly before My throne, through the gift of grace My Son has afforded you, you leave no room for the enemy to stand. Come stand before me, stand face to face. Allow me to burn from you the threads that keep you in the ways of the world. Too many through deception have allowed the enemy to stand in their place before Me.

Give him no room. I do not desire to hear his accusations concerning you and I hate that they keep you from Me. Give him no place. Come into the fullness of My Love. Embrace the cross of my Son, but do not hang there. It is not a stopping point but a door. As you pass through the door leave all else behind you. Come into the new creation that has been provided for you".

THE BOWL IS FILLED WITH NECTAR

There is a new more powerful and intimate worship coming to the saints on this Earth. I see a angel passing back and forth with a huge bowl, pouring it out wherever saints are gathered. The bowl is filled with a nectar so sweet that those tasting it loose their taste for all else. The name of the this nectar is "Heart's Desire".

Let it do its work in you. Give up all other tastes and drink of it alone. Those who do will be like a arrow in the bow of the Lord. They will travel straight and fast to the course He has set for them.

TAKE YOUR PLACE

Take your place before the Father and send the enemy to his. Give him no room, give him no quarter. Drink fully of the Lord and His goodness towards you till it washes all else from your heart and leaves you with but one desire. To know Him as you are known, to love Him as you are Loved, and to be one with Him.

Negotiating with the Hearts of Men

Russ Walden

I hear the Lord saying....

I have enabled you to negotiate with the hearts of men and cause them to transact with my spirit to enter into my kingdom and my power in a new and fresh way. I have hidden in the folds of your being the implements of my power and my glory. These, in the days ahead you shall produce and display to the hungry and the needy, and they shall be willing therefore to lay aside the hurts and the pain that has hindered them and move on in my purpose.

You won't have to war with the objections of the mind and their carnal religious thinking. I will part the veil of their natural mind and cause your words to enter directly into the depths of their hearts. And this is your responsibility and your charge to speak only what I've called you to speak, not your opinions, your experience, or your bias. For many of you are speaking from your own angst and frustration at the religious crowd that have slighted you and abused you. Don't let be the well that you dip you pen in, for it is poison that will destroy and mislead. Dip your quill in the light of my Spirit and your words will illuminate their way to ME, for it is TO ME that I am drawing men in this day. And you can have a part of that if you will hear what I am saying to you today.

New Creation Man

Doug Fortune

“Therefore if any person is ingrafted in Christ, he is a new creature altogether, a new creation...”(2Cor.5:17) We are hearing much of the New Creation Man today...

I believe that God is defining a new species, spiritually speaking. I believe that the spiritual DNA, if I may call it that, of this new species is different than that of most of Christendom today... yes, it has always been present, just not prevalent. Gal. 6:15 speaks of this New Creation as it says, “neither is circumcision of any importance, nor uncircumcision, but only a New Creation, the result of a new BIRTH and a new NATURE in Christ...”. Gal. 3:27-28 tells us more, “...as many as were baptized into Christ - into a SPIRITUAL UNION and communion with Christ - have put on, CLOTHED yourselves with Christ. There is now NO DISTINCTION, neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, there is NOT male or female, for you are all ONE in Christ Jesus.” 1Cor.12:12 says, “...just as the body is a unity and yet has many parts, and all the parts though many, form only ONE BODY, so IT IS with Christ... for by ONE SPIRIT we were ALL, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free, baptized into ONE BODY and ALL made to drink of ONE SPIRIT.” It is interesting to note that the same word ‘creation’ for the New Creation Man is used of Jesus in Col.1:15, “Now He is the exact likeness of the unseen God; He is the FIRSTBORN of all CREATION... whether thrones, dominions, rulers or authorities... He also is the HEAD of His BODY, the Church; seeing He is the Beginning, the FIRSTBORN...”. James sheds more light also in chapter 1:18, “...He gave us birth as sons by His Word of Truth, so that we should be a kind of firstfruits of His CREATURES - a sample of what He created to be consecrated to Himself...”.

I believe that this is the fulfillment of Gen.1:27, “So God created man in His own image and likeness... male and female He created them.” Can you see this New Creation Man?... He is immersed or BAPTIZED in Christ; He has put on, or is CLOTHED with Christ; He has the same NATURE as Christ; He is ONE SPIRIT and ONE BODY with Christ; He is not bound by GENDER for He is MANY members, male and female; He is of the same spiritual DNA of Jesus Christ... because it IS Christ living His Life through a many-membered corporate Man.

Am I saying that WE somehow BECOME Christ?... absolutely NOT, that is the self-deism that plagued Adam and Eve, “...YE shall be as God...”(Gen.3:5). I AM saying that WE are crucified, dead and buried!... IN CHRIST we are quickened, ascended and seated at the right hand of the Father... the ONLY life we have a right to is Christ living His Life through us as the New Creation Man. Do you see the difference between this and the self-deism of the garden?... the thought that by partaking of the Tree of KNOWLEDGE of Good and Evil we can become as God. Yes, the thought that by partaking of knowledge, by learning facts from our Bible we can become like Jesus... the thought that our mind can give us the NATURE, the character of Christ. Even the Pharisees had the right information, “...you search the Scriptures diligently because you suppose and trust that you have eternal life through THEM. And these very Scriptures testify about Me!”(John 5:39). Do you see the fallacy, do you see the deception of the serpent in this thinking (it’s an old trick!)... do you see that unfortunately THIS is the spiritual DNA of much of modern Christianity! It’s NOT an INFORMATION/ KNOWLEDGE thing... it’s a new NATURE/ character thing!.. ONLY Christ can live like Christ!

Am I saying that studying the Bible is bad?... certainly NOT, I spend much time every day in study and meditation, but it is so the Father “...may grant me a spirit of wisdom and REVELATION in the deep and intimate knowledge OF HIM...”(Eph.1:17). REVELATION knowledge OF HIM, Christ revealing Himself... THAT is a different Tree, the Tree of Life! Christ is the Tree of Life that the New Creation Man partakes of... like a branch, his Life comes from the Root. John 15:4 says, "...live in Me and I will live IN YOU. Just as no branch can bear fruit of itself without abiding in, vitally UNITED to the Vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you abide IN ME. I am the Vine, YOU are the BRANCHES...". This is the New Creation Man, the Branch spoken of in Isaiah 60:21, "Your people shall also all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the BRANCH of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be GLORIFIED.". And what of the verses in Isaiah chapter 11 that speak of the Branch?... do they apply only to Jesus Christ? Remember that 1Cor.12:12 spoke of many parts or members forming only ONE BODY and it says "... so IT IS with Christ...". Yes, Jesus is the "...Head of the Body, the Church... that in all things He might have the preeminence..."(Col.1:18), but what is true of the Head is true of the rest of the Body. His blood-line is now my blood-line, His spiritual heritage is now my spiritual heritage... He is NOT a dismembered Head! He is ONE with His Body... but that is NOT a result of partaking of KNOWLEDGE. It is a result of His Life flowing through His Body. It is the REVEALING of Christ in us, His Body!

A new species, a different spiritual DNA than the first man... THIS is the spiritual DNA of the second man... we can read of this second man in 1Cor. 15:45-50. The Last Adam was Jesus Christ as He took on the "...likeness of sinful flesh..."(Rom.8:3), fully capable of sin yet without sin, but the sinful Adam nature was nailed to the cross with Jesus Christ (Rom.6:6). The second man is described as the "Lord from heaven"... yes, the word Lord (the letter L capitalized by the translators), kurios in Greek, is used very frequently when speaking of the Lord Jesus Christ, but it is also translated 42 other times in the New Testament as lord (lower case letter L) when speaking of someone in authority. Keep in mind also that Jesus told Nicodemus that we must be 'born from above' and Phil.3:20 says the WE are "...citizens OF heaven and FROM IT also we await...". I believe that the New Creation Man is the second man, the lord (walking in spiritual authority) from heaven (born from heaven, walking in a higher realm); and as we have borne the nature of the earthly (Adam), "...so shall we and so let us also bear the image (nature) of heaven..."(1Cor.15:49).

God is birthing this New Creation Man into the earth now! This is the BIRTH that so many of the prophets are sensing today. Some are calling it a fresh anointing, a revival, a new era, awakening of young people; it IS all those things, but it is more... it is the mystery hidden for ages being REVEALED, which is Christ IN US, the New Creation Man, the manifestation of Christ in the earth. "Watch the MAN whose name is the Branch... he shall build the true temple of the Lord... he shall bear the honor and the glory... and shall be a PRIEST upon his THRONE..."(Zech.6:12-13).

King and Priest, the New Creation Man, Christ manifest in His Body, Jesus as the Head of the Body that in all things He might have the preeminence.

A Time For New Songs

Mark Dupont

The Lord says that a New Song is being released to His people this year. God is breathing a fresh wind of prophetic creativity on the artists and worship leaders. This wind will fill the sails of many congregations with a deeper understanding in their hearts of the goodness and the purposes of God for His people and the world at this time.

The Lord showed me a funnel of His light coming down from Heaven towards those who have been seeking His face and waiting on Him. The funnel was coming in a downward spiral. All who were underneath it and around it began to be caught up in a greater clarity of the light of His Presence. A great freedom came to many to loose themselves in the love and freedom of the Holy Spirit. But, as this funnel landed on many I could see musical notes like on a song sheet begin to blow back up the funnel towards heaven.

The Lord says the Tabernacle of David is in the process of restoration. The Holy Spirit is releasing a hunger for the wisdom of worship that David and the Levites who ministered at David's tabernacle walked in. Many who have never had an appetite for extended periods of prayer and worship are going to begin having a burning heart for ministering to the Lord, as Mary did, with extravagant worship. They are going to learn to take the precious perfume of the passion of their hearts and waste it on Jesus' feet. But as they do this the perfume of the sweetness of Jesus' Presence is going to begin to fill houses of worship in a deeper way. Many congregations are going to start spending what formerly would have seemed inordinate amounts time singing, praying, dancing, and just being in His Presence.

In this fresh wind there is also going to be a great release of creativity. New songs are going to be stirred up in the hearts of artists and worship leaders. They will be prophetic in that they are going to help the Bride of Christ understand and perceive the heart, majesty, grace, and love of her lover- the King of Kings. And just as leaders need like David to pay the price of building their own alters the Lords says those leaders need to begin to make room in the sanctuaries for the people to minister to God. A shift is coming in these months and years we are now in. Many churches are no longer going to be centered solely on attracting man and ministering to man. The Father is pursuing those who will worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. He is pursuing those who desire to make a resting place, not merely a work place, for His Holy Spirit.

Just as David established a tabernacle of worship twenty four hours a day, seven days a week, so many churches are going to start establishing places continually open for prayer and meetings lasting all night of celebrating God and raising up a canopy of worship for God's Spirit to enjoy. And just as David's tabernacle had no veil, so in these places of worship the glory of God will be greatly known.

This a time and season for the artists and worship leaders to more fully enter their priesthood. For, the Lord says that if they shall be like Obed-edom, who loved God's glory, they shall, indeed, not just sing the songs, and play the instruments but they shall become Gatekeepers for many to help them move past the gates of thanksgiving and the courts of praise and into the glory of His Presence. They shall, in fact, help the people build a resting place with a canopy of worship for His majesty.

It is time for the singers to sing a new song. It is time for the painters to paint with fresh colors. It is time for the dancers to dance as David did. It is time for the Levites to emerge and to offer up sacrifices of hearts burning for Him and the incense of true worship and prayer. It is time for the tent of His Glory to be reestablished.

New Wine

Linda Patterson

January 27, 2000

Get ready My people for I am about to pour out My new wine. It is fresh, active and alive. For I have been preparing your wineskins. They are soft and supple. The time has come for the party to begin. Go forth and usher the guests into My banqueting table. Rejoice! Rejoice! For I have saved the best wine for the last. Come waltz with Me!

I usher you into My inner chamber and as you cross the threshold I pour out My joy. I mix the joy with My glory. You are My delight. As I fill you up, I pour you forth. Many are waiting for the golden vessels to pour forth a mixture of My healing power. Signs, wonders and miracles are coming forth from My golden vessels. For My overcoming, glorious ones I delight to be poured forth through you.

And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say "Come!" And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely. Rev. 22:17

New Zealand

Cindy Jacobs

http://www.generals.org/word\_main\_1.htm

The following prophecies were given during the Breakthrough 2000 Congress in New Zealand. Mike Knott, a New Zealand pastor who recently convened the conference, shared the following insights along with a transcript of prophetic words given by Cindy Jacobs.

Here are some very special features in this Breakthrough 2000 Congress, held here in Wellington, the Capital City of New Zealand:

It was held in the Town Hall where, in 1922, Smith Wigglesworth first brought Pentecost to New Zealand.

It was a unique gathering of Christian Leaders and Intercessors from throughout the nation.

There was a powerful blend of ministry as Mike and Cindy were wonderfully complemented by Harold Caballeros from Guatemala, and Kevin Scott, a saxophonist from Orlando.

It has resulted in envisioning leaders for new national strategies of intercession and spiritual warfare.

We also had lots of fun!!!

Breakthrough 2000 Prophecies

God's glory in New Zealand Cindy Jacobs

As I was sitting during the worship, the Holy Spirit showed me a vision of the anointing of God radiating from New Zealand. The intensity of the anointing of God was getting stronger and stronger to the point that there will be a day when people will come from all over the world to receive of God's glory.

I saw people planting their feet on the ground and falling under the power of God at the airport. I saw wicked people touching their feet on the ground of New Zealand and falling on their faces and saying, "What do I need to do to be saved?" The convicting power, the fire of God, will come from New Zealand.

When God's power comes, He comes with conviction. He comes with the refiner's fire. Righteousness must rule over injustice. You re going to see God rise up in this land. There's going to be such an anointing of justice and mercy, and people will come here from the nations of the earth to find out about mercy.

VISION OF A CELEBRATION

I had a vision of a celebration. It seemed to be about Easter, where the streets were filled with flowers. There were processional, and so many people were praising God. Thousands and thousands of people would come in from all over the world and just watch the praises of God. God will anoint someone to do the festival.

PLANES COMING IN AND GOING OUT

I not only saw planes coming in, I saw planes going out full of missionaries. I saw this nation printing books. There is an anointing upon the leaders of this nation to write books -- books on revival, teaching books, books for children's ministries. I saw printing presses sending literature across the nations in language after language, and I saw business leaders greatly prospering and the wealth of the sinner being transferred into the bank account of the righteous, and I saw prosperity coming. I saw Christians buying banks. I saw Christians buying all kinds of businesses and franchises. The Lord is showing me that there is an anointing of creativity and innovation upon the business leaders of this nation, and I see the connections that God is going to bring in computer systems, and there is even going to be inventions that people will use that is going to impact Asians.

ASIANS BORN AGAIN IN NEW ZEALAND

God is going to bring Asians here that will get born again. There's going to be such a move of God upon Asian people here. God says that when the influx of Asians comes, don't despise them and don't turn them away, because I have brought them here for My purposes, to send them to China, to India to have influence. There is such an influence on China from this nation.

The Lord is showing me Vietnam; that there is an anointing upon Vietnam from this nation; that you will touch Vietnam, Cambodia, Bangladesh and Southern Asia. The Lord is showing me that there is going to be release from this nation; that you're going to feed the poor in Southeast Asia. The Lord shows me that there's going to be medical clinics established; that an army of medical doctors will rise up out of these islands. And they're going to have not only anointing for medicine in the natural, but also they're going to be Luke Physicians, and God is going to send an anointing like Luke the Physician.

UNIVERSITY REVIVAL

The Lord is showing me that there's going to be a revival at the university. God is going to pour out His Spirit on the university students of New Zealand. The Spirit of God is going to shake up the students and they're either going to bow their knee or they'll bow through crisis, so you'd better pray for the universities.

GOD COMING TO THE FIVE, SIX, AND SEVEN-YEAR OLDS

The Lord is showing me amazing things regarding children. I see little children falling on their knees at the ovals at their schools, crying out to God early in the morning. There will be times when the Spirit of God is going to visit the classroom-- and these little five year olds, six year olds and seven year olds with a prophetic gift upon their lives, they are going to stand up and prophesy to their teachers; they're going to speak the word of the Lord; that there's an excellence coming such as not previously seen. God is raising up a Samuel generation that will hear the word of the Lord unlike any other generation we have known.

PRAYER AND RETREAT CENTER Cindy Jacobs

I saw a prayer mountain and it was so high that when people came to Wellington Harbor they could see it. The Lord showed me a beautiful garden, and God is going to give you property. It's going to be one of the most lovely pieces of property, and I see you're going to build roads. God will give you the money to build roads and a retreat center, and people are going to come to pray here, because the glory of God is going to be so evident.

TONGA Cindy Jacobs

I prophesy that there will be such a healing anointing in Tonga that people will say it is hard to find a sick person on the island of Tonga.

ARISE, DAVID NATION! NEW LEVEL OF PROPHETIC Call for 24/7 Prayer Cindy Jacobs

I believe that New Zealand has a gift of prophetic teaching and for some reason, perhaps because of Satan trying to push you down, you didn't realize that you were small but mighty. Dynamite comes in little sticks, but dynamite blows up mountains. God is bringing a great healing to this nation and to who you are so you can rise up. I feel like the Holy Spirit is saying in all these things don't take on Saul's armor.

AN INDIGENOUS SOUND

I prophesy that in the next few years there's going to be such a healing coming to the people of New Zealand that you're going to rise up. And it's happening already in the music, it's happening in the messages, and there is an indigenous sound that's going to come. The new wave sound is going to rise up from this nation for revival.

I prophesy this new wave will be the glory; it will be the fire, the glory fire. It's coming up in a great wave you cannot imagine, so there is a wave gathering here, and you will ride the crest of the wave just like a surfer, riding in the anointing. It's coming that way, but the word of the Lord for this has been, Shake off that apathy.

God is saying to New Zealand, "How big is your God? How big is your God?" God is able to bring a revival to this nation that will shake the nations of the earth, and so you have to believe it, and you have to rise up and take it.

All these words that have been spoken could fall to the ground. The Lord is saying to New Zealand, Take your gifts out of the ground where you buried them. I am not a mean taskmaster. I am a loving Father, and there is a multiplication that will come if you will take those gifts out of the ground.

A MESSAGE TO THE NATIONS

God wants to pour out His Spirit of revelation. There is a message here to be sent to the nations. Just ask God to give it to you. You may not have it at this moment; but that's what it takes to be a David nation. Did you hear the Holy Spirit say that?

You're a David nation. You're a nation with kingly authority for the nations of the earth. You have been in a stage where you have been just like a young boy tending the sheep, but you've been killing bears and you've been killing lions, and the Lord saw that which you have learned in your individual churches. Now rise up for the nation, and the Saul spirit will be taken down, and those who would be Sauls will come down, and I prophesy that those who will not go with the flow of the Holy Spirit, who try to keep their own kingdom and try to keep what they have built, will be like Saul and truly they will fall.

THE FEAR OF THE LORD

And God is going to bring that fear of the Lord, which is the beginning of wisdom. It's going to rise up in your midst, and so God says shake off the apathy, but realize the reason you have been complacent in some ways, and apathetic, is because you didn't believe in yourself.

Another thing I'm hearing the Holy Spirit saying is that there's a new commitment to the Land; that like John Knox you will say, "Give me New Zealand or I die." And you're going to hear this in the generation of young people, and you're going to hear it rise up in the youth.

THE RACIST SPIRIT WILL BE KILLED

There's going to be a fierce love for the Land, a fierce love; and I feel we are just like John the Baptists preparing the way of the Lord. There will be a day our sons and daughters will rise up and they will prophesy, and prophets will go from New Zealand to the nations of the earth. There is a new prophetic unction coming to New Zealand. God is going to raise up prophets in the land. They're fifteen years old, sixteen years old, and seventeen years old. They're going to rise up with the word of the Lord. I think of John Dawson, how even as a young man he was always the youngest in his peer group, and God has used him to bring healing to the nations, and the Lord says you're going to see double that; you're going to come forth and the racist spirit is going to be killed in this land.

And right now I can see prophetically a marriage of a religious spirit and a political spirit that have combined together to stop the move of God. That means that you will only get a certain distance in your planning, and all these leaders will say We're with you, we're with you, but in the end they will bail out because they are permission holding, rather than permission granting. If they can't control, it won't happen. God is going to deal with the spirit of control.

PROPHETIC PRAYER NETWORK

If you will put together a prophetic prayer network, there will come a day when there will be one sound in New Zealand. There needs to be one sound, a trumpeting sound, says the Lord, and God wants there to be a time when it's not this network or that network, when the people will rise up and say, And what did the Holy Spirit say? And as the 24-hour prayer watch goes, God is going to start talking.

You need to harvest it. You need to harvest the intercessors. You need to harvest the prophetic. The water level of the prophetic will rise and rise and rise and rise. You'd better harvest it in the youth groups too, because the youth groups are going to speak. You'd better harvest from the children. God is going to give the Sunday School children dreams and visions.

ANGELIC VISITATIONS - TWO YEAR OLDS

There's going to be angelic visitations coming to the children of New Zealand. There will be two-year-old children waking up and telling mum There's angels in my room. There's going to be three year old daughters visited, two, three, four and five year olds. They're going to hear the way of the Lord. They're going to rise up as Samuels. God is bringing the word of the Lord back in this nation.

PROPHETIC CALL FOR GATHERING SOLEMN ASSEMBLY

Mike Jacobs: God is calling the leaders of New Zealand to begin to come together to hear God for the strategies He wants to impart.

Cindy Jacobs: New Zealand, says the Lord, shake off your apathy. Are you all awake, or will you wake up to a nightmare that you don't want to wake up to? I have already warned, says the Lord. I have spoken to my Intercessors and I have given warning. Listen and pray. The walls are broken down, says the Lord. It is time to repair the breeches of the ruined cities.

A GIFT OF TEARS

The Lord told me He was going to give this nation a gift of tears; that you're a Jeremiah nation. Declare a fast, says the Lord, and cry out to Me; declare a fast and call a solemn assembly. The Lord says I'm calling this nation to a Joel Assembly. I'm calling this nation to weep between the porch and the altar. I'm calling this nation to cry out to Me, says the Lord your God, to rend your hearts and not your garments.

The Lord says, this day I have given you a wake-up call. Now hear the word of the Lord and believe the word of the Lord. The Lord says He will catapult you to a new place; He will catalyze you to a new place that you have never been before.

REDEEMING THE LAND, BLESSING ISRAEL Cindy Jacobs

There will be new discoveries here in New Zealand. It seems to me that there will be new discoveries of oil. The Lord is also going to bring-- In the Spirit realm other nations have tried to take from you and rape the land and take what is yours. Is that true? But the Lord is going to redeem it and bring it back, and you're going to see a shift in power, a balance of power because the economy is going to get stronger here in New Zealand. As the revival rises so is the economy.

And God is going to do a great healing. Those who have taken from the land when it wasn't theirs to take will not only have to give it back, but also the Lord is saying to me that there's going to be restitution. In other words, they're going to have to pay money for that which they have taken. Some of it they have taken illegally. The Lord is showing me that there's been some corruption and graft, some money under the table to let some companies in.

A NEW WAY OF PROCESSING ORE

And I also see new elements, minerals that are going to open up. In mountain places there are pockets of ore that have not been brought forth in light. And the Scripture the Lord has given me is Isaiah 45:3 - And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places. God is going to open up treasures of darkness and you're going to see it happen. A new way of processing ore is going to be invented in New Zealand, and it's going to be able to extract the ore quicker and faster.

CREATIVE INVENTIONS

And the Lord is going to bring forth His knowledge of great creative inventions for the nations. And there is a new creativity that even though Satan has tried to wound you through marginalizing you and pushing you down--this has happened so many times. I have to say the way that I can liken it to is you know how Israel is, they are small but mighty, the nation of Israel. That's what New Zealand is going to be like. And also I feel God is going to use New Zealand in a great way to protect Israel. Even in the United Nations, there's going to be a fight and you'll be standing up for Israel. And you know, as you bless Israel so you will be blessed. I don't know what your position has been concerning Israel and the United Nations, but the Lord is saying to me, He is going to make you a champion.

DAVID FIGHTS GIANTS

You're a David nation, and David fights giants. And with the five stones-- which I believe is the five-fold that's going to rise up in this nation in a great and powerful way coming to the forefront-- so you going to see that happen. And God is going to use you to kill some giants. And so, first, you must pray for the healing of the economy, if you're not already praying for that. It's time to find out what legal rights Satan has to wound the economy. I recommend you do more spiritual mapping.

Remember I said to you, you're a prophetic nation? Now I see that you are as a nation of seers. God is opening up a gate. Do you know what that gate opens up? It's to the prophetic. It's a seeing anointing. It's also the Daniel anointing. As God opened Daniel's eyes and sent Gabriel and He said, "Gabriel make this man understand," so God is giving a spirit of revelation.

BREATH OF GOD REVIVING NEW ZEALAND Mike Jacobs

(The Lord is reminding me of) I Kings 17 - Elijah, the widow woman and her son. There have been things that have taken the breath, the soul of New Zealand out, and He Himself is going to come face-to-face, prostrate over New Zealand, and He is going to breathe over this nation.

Cindy Jacobs DEBORAH'S ARE GOING TO ARISE IN THE LAND

Men's Prayer Movement Cindy Jacobs

This is what the Lord says: I m getting ready to wake up the men of New Zealand. I m going to start a men's prayer movement in New Zealand, and they' re going to get up at the rising of the sun and the Lord says, I'm going to light the family altars, and there's going to be a new move of the Holy Spirit. They're going to bless their children and they're going to bless their families. We prophesy this and we declare this in the Name of Jesus.

UNITY OF NORTH AND SOUTH Cindy Jacobs

I saw a picture of the two islands coming together, and I saw that if they were connected, then Wellington would be the connecting place, to make a boot, a shoe. For the Lord says I'm going to bring together the North and the South, and that's why I have gathered you here to Wellington, for you will tread upon the nations of the earth for my glory , and the Lord says, "to you New Zealand, wherever you put your feet, I will give it to you, unlike any other generation that is known."

No More Fear of Being Broken

Kris Poole

During worship tonight I saw a herd of wild horses, and a man was out in the field with his rope to catch one, then as this unfolded, I saw the man begin to train this wild horse, not wanting to lose it's freedom, the horse resisted. It appeared to be fighting for what he thought it needed. The man was very patient, and was gently talking and teaching, and over time, building trust with this horse, until he had him very well trained. Then he began to prepare this horse, with beautiful attire, saddle, bridle, armor, royal blue's and purples' and gold was covering this horse. He had that horse so well trained that the slightest nudge, the horse knew and responded to the man, because he now trusted him.

The man then fully attired himself mounted this now stunning horse, and this is what the Lord spoke to me.

This horse is you...I found you, searched and brought you to me. But you fear me, you fear being broken by me. I love you and wont hurt you, or injure you as you fear.

I need you, to be able to hear and obey, because you will carry My glory. It will follow you, it will be seen in and around you. What I'm doing in you is glorious. So no longer fear being broken! Allow me to freely do with you as I see necessary, and trust me!

A few minutes later, my daughter came out (she's been having visions that God's given her to draw, and she's 10) and she didn't know about the horse, and she started to draw, and she drew a horse, with a rider. And about it she wrote,, "Jesus rides his white horse."

No Flesh Shall Stand Before Him

Robert Holmes

There are two kinds of people who approach God. There are also two kinds of fear they manifest. One kind is attracted to God, even when he is manifest is His holiness, majesty, power and might. The other shuns the gravity, sobriety, depth and terror of such a God. The manifestation of God in this way aggravates fear and distress in the heart of the unprepared, and causes them to run from Him.

Did you know there is a dark-ness about God? There is something about God that is terrifying to touch, and causes 'flesh' to run from His presence. We must remember that God created the light and the dark. He is the one who created thistles and thorns after the curse not Satan. God is the one who created 'black holes' - imploded stars that manifest such gravity that they suck in all light around them and even bend space and time! How would you react if you saw God in glory - true awesome and raw power? How will you react when He returns on the Day of the Lord?

As the last days draw upon us we know they will contain a manifest darkness - not just the darkness of sin or evil or the devil. No Amos was right - that day belongs to God, "Will not the day of the Lord be darkness instead of light, even gloom with no brightness in it?" (Amos 5:20). The coming of the Lord on the great and dreadful day will bring out our true heart condition before God. Though darkness ensues, though He seems to be hidden in a dark place - will we seek Him or run from Him?

David knew that place of darkness God dwells in:

"Clouds and thick darkness surround Him" (Psalms 97:2) "He made darkness His secret place" (Psalms 18: 11) "He bowed the heavens also and came down with thick clouds under His feet" (Psalms 18:9).

That darkness was first encountered on the mountain in the days of Moses. "You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain while it blazed with fire to the very heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness. Then the LORD spoke to you out of that place..." (Deut 4:11,12). God speaks to us from the fire and from the depths of darkness! It is His hiding place. "The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud. To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain. Then Moses entered..." (Exod 24:16-18)

The reaction of the people

As I said before, there are two kinds of people, and two ways to react to God. Admittedly most of us have never met the God of this brooding dark mountain. We have never met the One who dwells 'in the depths of the fire'. Moses was the kind of man who 'entered in'. The Israelites were the kind who fled. Moses had godly fear - a healthy respect for the one who could snuff his life in a heartbeat. The Israelites had an unhealthy fear - a terror, fright or trepidation.

Do you find yourself recoiling from God sometimes? There is a look in His eye, a tone in His voice, a sensation to His presence that sends you reeling. You come to realise and declare with Job "I am undone!". How did the people react at the mountain when God came down? "When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance" (Exod 20:18). This "God of the dark" - who let us note is NOT the devil - brought to some an overwhelming trepidation and confusion. Their desire was to run, to flee from His manifest presence. This was their flesh manifesting, their sin wanting to be hidden before the eyes of the all-knowing God.

His servants

When God gets hold of a person - when a Moses enters that dark cloud and touches God, when God touches a person and starts to transform them - the same presence begins to be seen in their life. Such people have an attribute we call 'enigma', which simply means "a dark riddle, puzzling or perplexing". Some respond with healthy respect (godly fear), such as David fearing 'touch not the Lord's anointed'. Others would melt through the carpet and dissipate through the floorboards, if they could.

Consider Moses - whose face shone when he returned from God's presence. The people said to him, "Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die ... The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was." (Exod 20:19&21).

Moses returned from the dark place of meeting with God and "when Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him." (Exod 34:30). Why was this? Because Moses spoke with God face to face. You cannot walk with God and talk with God and come away unchanged. Moses was touched and transformed by being near to God and that made the people afraid.

Consider Samuel. Samuel had an itinerant ministry. He regularly visited five places of worship and as God's prophet he brought the word of the Lord to the elders and rulers of the city. He would offer sacrifice on their behalf. He would organise prophetic gatherings and call forth others to speak His word. He is also the man who hacked Agag to death by the sword. Imagine the elders' reaction as Samuel approached the city. One year he would come with blessing, the next with a sword of judgement, and the next with a message of repentance.

They did not know what to expect. "Samuel did what the LORD said. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of the town trembled when they met him. They asked, "Do you come in peace?" (1 Sam 16:4). People reacted to Samuel in different ways. Eli held him in high esteem, his sons despised and feared him.

Consider Elijah. Elijah had a close relationship with the God of the dark stormy clouds - and spoke to him from the cave. Elijah was a man who carried the presence of God! The people saw the fire fall from heaven at his word and "they fell prostrate and cried". They were terrified that he might turn that wrath upon them for their backslidings. One might say they had an unhealthy fear of their own demise.

Two captains held Elijah in contempt, but the wise third captain, knowing that Elijah was a man who walked with God, "fell on his knees before Elijah.... and begged, "Man of God, please have respect for my life". There was a healthy fear, a respect toward God's servant. Note again the two kinds of fear, and the two kinds of people - one running from God, the other drawing near to His servant.

Consider our Lord, the man Christ Jesus. To stand in his council was to be known utterly, "For he knew all men. He did not need man's testimony about any man, for he knew what was in them" (John 2:25 c.f. Mark 2:8). The facts about his ministry and miracles struck awe, wonder and fear into peoples hearts, "Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region." (Mark 5:17).

Some reacted to God's servant by kindly asking Him to leave. He made their flesh uneasy! Others reacted with reverence and fear - struck by the fact that He was God. His disciples uttered in hushed tones, "Who is this man, that even the elements obey Him?"

How will you react when you meet with the Christ John described, "winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire"? Will you draw near to be refined, or run from the wrath you know you deserve. Will you hold Him in reverential fear, or be terrified at His manifest power?

The apostles - who walked with God, and talked with God, performed many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. The believers used to meet together in Solomon's Colonnade and from house to house. We are told, "Everyone was filled with awe" because of the way God used them (Acts 2:43). "No one dared to join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people" (Acts 5:12).

That word 'awe' in Greek actually means "to be put in fear, alarm or fright, -to be afraid, exceedingly terrified"! The people were terrified of the manifest presence of God in the apostles, so much so that they feared to join with them!

Discerning fear

Yes the devil can make you scared. Yes the devil fathers fear and terror in our hearts. Saul, before he met Christ, had the same effect on people - they ran from him, not because of God, but because they thought he would kill them! (Acts 9:26). Not all fear comes from God, but neither is all fear created by the devil.

Fear is no place to discern God's will. It is no platform from which to discern. You cannot know - simply by the manifestation of fear in your heart - whether something is of God or not. But please note, and I want to stress this fact, that there is terror for all 'flesh' (sin) in the presence of God - either directly, or in the person of one of his servants.

"It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the Almighty and living God" (Heb 10:31). That word terrifying means "frightful, formidable: --fearful, horrible." It is the same emotion expressed by the soldiers who stood in fear and awe of Goliath. It is the same gut wrenching uncertainty that the enemies of God will experience as they await judgment and the raging fire that will consume them (Heb 10:27).

And yes - it is the very same terror experienced by the Israelites before the smoldering mountain ablaze with the brooding presence of God (Heb 12:21). Those who respond in this way ought to question just what sort of fear they are manifesting. If the urge is to run - then something is wrong. Godly fear will endue healthy respect - leading you to enter the dark cloud of God's presence even as Moses was drawn to the Mountain.

Kids Do Not Have A "Junior" Jesus

Faith Walters

(The kids had been at a Rodney Howard- Browne meeting)

"We arrived back at Jessica's home, where I was to spend the night. We spent more time praying and waiting on the Lord. Suddenly everyone got drunk in the Spirit at the same time. (My friend and I, three adults and four other children). One three year old boy got a strong anointing and began to blow on everyone. We all fell out in the Spirit. For a while we could only speak in tongues to one another.

During this time I had a vision of myself. I was running through a jungle with natives all around me. Then I saw tens of thousands of African people gathered together praising the Lord. Then I saw myself building something with my hands.

Each one of us was touched in some special way. My feet began to burn. Then another lady, her little girl and I, ran around the house praising God.

THE ANOINTING STAYED UPON THE CHILDREN

The anointing stayed upon the children and teens all evening until we went to bed. Jessica and I slept in her living room as there were so many people in the house. About 11:30pm a young boy, Josh, who was staying also in the house, came out of his room into the living room, where Jessica and I were trying to sleep. He was shaking and said, "I saw an angel." We asked him about it and he explained further, "The angel had a white robe with gold trim and he was blowing a golden trumpet, there were two other angels standing with him, with their hands raised.' We prayed, and the Lord gave me the word, "Jubilee.'

We asked Jesus to reveal Himself to us, as we desired to see Him with our natural eyes. Suddenly, Josh and I began to shake. We became terrified - not scared - but terrified. Josh said that he felt the presence of the Lord and that Jesus was there. We then began to shake violently. I had never felt like that in my whole life.

JESUS REVEALED HIMSELF, BUT NOT AS THE GENTLE JESUS WE EXPECTED TO SEE

Jesus began to reveal Himself to us, but not as the gentle, loving Jesus that we expected to see. What we began to see was the Jesus of Revelation, Chapter one. The Jesus that John saw on the Isle of Patmos, with hair like wool and eyes like fire and a two edged sword in His mouth. We could not look upon Him, but we knew He was there and we could feel His Presence.

I felt that If I looked up and saw Him, I would not be able to live through it. We then began to pray, "Oh Lord, please do not reveal yourself to us, we are not worthy to behold you." All three of us began to weep as we cried this prayer out to God. We asked Him to prepare our hearts so that one day we may look upon Him. Then our cries turned into worship and we told Him how beautiful He was and how much we loved Him.

When we looked up again, we saw a silver mist a short distance from us. For a moment, it took the shape of a man. We just looked and worshiped God. We got up from the floor trembling. We moved toward the mist. Before we reached it, Josh and I fell to our knees. Jessica went down with her face on the floor.

We stayed there worshipping and praying, then it lifted. We were too overwhelmed to say anything and so we just went back to bed.

The following morning at Jessica's church, the Holy Spirit told me a number of things.

YOU CANNOT MAKE YOURSELF READY

First, He told me not to be quick to be ready. "You cannot make yourself ready by your own actions." He said to be ready, I have to NOT BE READY, so that HE can make me ready.

Second, He told me that my ministry would carry praise to the nations and the nations would run with Jubilee.

Third, He said that I was to be greedy for Him, but not selfish. Then the Lord began to speak more and I wrote it down (as if the Lord was speaking):

"I WANT TO ANOINT YOU FOR THE NATIONS. I WANT TO USE YOU LIKE I'VE NEVER USED YOU BEFORE. YIELD TO ME. WORSHIP ME. YOU WILL DO MANY WORKS IN MANY NATIONS. YOU WILL BE INVOLVED, YOU WILL BE BLESSED. MANY CHILDREN SHALL CALL YOU BY NAME. THEY SHALL INHERIT MY KINGDOM. THEY SHALL BE THE LAST GENERATION TO BE CHALLENGED. THEY WILL GO OUT AND CALL ME 'LORD.' THEY SHALL SEE VISIONS AND RIDE IN CHARIOTS. THEY SHALL WALK ON THE WATER AND HEAL THE SICK.

THIS WILL BE THEIR DAILY LIVES. THIS WILL BE NORMAL. MY SPIRIT WILL BE POURED OUT SO STRONG, PEOPLE THAT RESIST ME WILL BE STRUCK DEAD. THESE DAYS ARE SERIOUS. THESE DAYS ARE COMING TO AN END, MY JUDGMENT WILL BE COMING SOON - IT'S ON ITS WAY, IF THE PEOPLE ARE NOT BLESSED, THEN THEY ARE CONDEMNED. MY MERCY WILL ONLY BE FOR THOSE WHO SEEK ME. THOSE WHO DON'T, WILL BE DESTROYED. THEY SHALL CEASE TO WALK, TO LIVE, TO BE. EVERYONE WILL KNOW THAT I AM GOD."

I am still filled, but I have to learn to walk in it. I pray this experience stays with me always. It is so exciting and challenging: It is the only way to live. God can use anyone. He proved that when He used three year old Nathan, in such a powerful way. God can show you things in the supernatural and use you mightily for His glory. All we have to do is submit ourselves to Him and believe Him.

It is the most awesome adventure to be a Christian who is fired up and in tune with God. A dead Christian is no Christian at all. God is moving on the young people today, He is calling them, anointing them and using them. My sister, Lisa has been in so many nations, witnessing and preaching the gospel. She just returned from China, where she led a team of young people, two of whom were only twelve years old. She is waiting for her next mission adventure. She is only fifteen years old.

Don't be one who misses out on what God is doing in these days. Give yourself to Him and your life will never be the Same.

Not Always

Jana alcorn

Proverbs 15:22 NIV -- Plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers they succeed.

A WORD FROM PASTOR

Leader, many things are not always as they may seem. And one chapter does not make the whole book. I'd like to share some principles for your consideration.

1. A QUESTION IS NOT ALWAYS A CHALLENGE

Leader, when John the Baptist asked Jesus, "Are you he that should come or do we look for another?" , he was not challenging the Lord, he simply wanted to be sure of his own position in his purpose as it related to the Lord. There is nothing wrong with an honest question.

2. OMISSION OF YOUR PROPER TITLE IS NOT ALWAYS DISRESPECT

Jesus said, "Ye are MY FRIENDS if you do whatsoever I command you." Actually, one of Paul's favorite titles was "bondslave". (I don't know how it would look to put UNWORTHY SLAVE on your PH.D. hanging on the wall of your office, but if any of you want to try....)

3. A SUGGESTION IS NOT ALWAYS MANIPULATION

A recommendation could be just what you need. There is not one of us as smart as all of us. God has put people around you, not just because they need you, but because you need them, as well. Remember, God has put the members in the Body....

4. REPOSITIONING OF TEAM MEMBERS IS NOT ALWAYS BAD

In the ministry of Jesus we find different levels of commitment to Him. Each level of closeness to Him required more and higher commitment to Him. Not all team members will make the commitment to get closer to your heart. Judas put his hand on the table, but John laid his head on his heart.

5. MINISTRY DEATH DOES NOT ALWAYS MEAN IT'S OVER

As Jesus hung on the cross, He was not just hours away from death, He was 72 hours away from resurrection! Change your perspective and know the cycles of all ministry--the birth of the ministry, the death of the ministry, and the resurrection of the ministry. As you know, it may be Friday, but.....Sunday's on the way!

6. HINDRANCES WILL NOT ALWAYS BE THERE

Let hope be renewed. After Paul fought with all manner of beasts (could this have been his demon board?) at Ephesus, then he finally came to a place of strength and rest in the Spirit and dwelt two whole years with no man hindering him! (Acts 28)

Leader, some things that are obstacles in your mind today will NOT ALWAYS be obstacles-- they will be stepping stones! Don't make a wrong decision.

It's amazing what can happen in just 72 short hours! Rejoice in the Lord, and again I say, Rejoice!

INSIDE THE SEED

Proverbs 14:7 -- Leave the presence of a stubborn fool when you hear no knowledge from his lips.

This scripture commands us to not closely associate with stubborn fools. If such relationships are not avoided, one begins to speak and act just like the stubborn fool that has influenced him!

LEADERSHIP LINES

If you need a change of scenery, MOVE THE MOUNTAIN!

Don't analyze 'til you paralyze!

Your faith works by BELIEVING AND SPEAKING!

If you knew what was on the other side of your mountain, you'd move it!

Start talking to your mountain today!

Tell your mountain how big your God is!

Let the Master master your money!

PROPHETIC WORD

I am bringing you to a new place of security in Me, says the Lord. You will no longer battle from a position of uncertainty and weakness. But as you find your place in Me, says the Lord, I will allow you to experience the Rock of My Presence as you have never before. None of these things will move you.

Come up in Me and know Me. There will be security in Me, says the Lord. You must spend more time in My Presence. A spirit of confidence will come from the relationship that we have and the confidence that you develop in Who I AM to you!

Have not I given you all things already? Have not I already paid the price? Haven't I already told you of My plans for you? Haven't I moved for you in the past when all hope was gone?

Believe Me now with confidence, for I am aware and I AM here, says the Lord.

Not All True Food

Vision

I needed a job and was hired to work in a church. The Pastor appeared normal to me (i.e. clothes, manners, etc.). He was willing to pay me nicely. I was so happy and felt that God had surely blessed me.

I started my work which was cleaning in the church. People were there. They were all wandering around. Appeared to be waiting for something or someone. Some were very definite in what was to be done as far as the preparation.

This young man comes over to me. He starts rebuking for working in the church. I tell him that I need the money and that the pastor hired me.

The young man tells me that I cannot work in the Lord's house while the Pastor is there.

I then sit down to think.

I notice that people are running to and fro all around me. Excitement surrounds me. The young man comes running through shouting, "He is here!!! He is here!!!"

Then the Pastor walks in. However, it is not the man that hired me. This man is wearing expensive Armani suit, fine jewelry, and flaunting great wealth. His eyes are dull and his smile is fake.

The people all clamor to him. They want to touch him and be near him.

A service starts. the people are mesmerized.

I start my job away from the people. The people start shouting and singing. they are throwing money unto the man.

I turn and look out the window and see a long powder blue stretch limousine. Men of the church are wheeling out 5 dead bodies and put them into the limo. I turn and ask the young man if the limo belongs to the Pastor. At first he denies it. Then he tells me how good and holy the pastor is.

Then he admits the car does belong to the pastor, but, justifies him having it. I inquire about the dead bodies being put into it. He tells me that is how the pastor keeps it running. I then noticed that each body had a dollar sign on it. The young man then looks at me and says, "The people are faithful. They give because the pastor tells them they have to give. In return, pastor feeds them with the Word." *

I then challenge the young man and say, "It is not all true food. It is manipulated to appear as such."

The young man replies, "This is true. But, by the time the people realize it, it is too late. They have given all. The bodies being put into the limo are those people. For as they were blindly led on their way, they gave their money faithfully. Yet, they spiritually died because they were malnourished by the man. And the man becomes bigger and bigger."

Then the young man looks at me and say, "You do not fit in here. You work here because for a while you believed. However, you work away from among the people because you see pure and holy truth. You can never mix in with these people lest you expose the pure truth and ruin it for the man. So, you are cast away from them. However, you will never be put into the limo because you see the truth and it has set you free."

No One There

Silvana Lupetti / John McDonnell

Greetings in Jesus, our beloved. We received this letter today regarding the prophecy "No One There" and wanted to pass it on to each of you.

Table of the Remnant

Sent: Tuesday, October 10, 2000 8:28 PM

Subject: "No One There"

Dear Silvana:

I recognize the divine authority of your prophecy "No One There".

I have just sent the following to the editor of The Washington Weekly. Whether or not he chooses to share it with his readers, I think it is important that it be called to his attention.

On October 10, 2000, a pair of photographs was added to the Rush Limbaugh web site under the caption "God votes...".

http://www.rushlimbaugh.com/home/site\_101000/godvotes.html

One photo shows a rainbow in the sky as George W. Bush and his wife were disembarking an airplane. The other photo shows blackening clouds behind Al Gore, also standing next to an airplane. Such a light-hearted comparison is typical for the popular and entertaining king of talk radio.

The day before the "God votes..." photographs appeared on Rush's web site, a tiny Christian group called Table of the Remnant sent out the following message to their e-mail list:

Greetings in Jesus' name.

Bill Clinton and Al Gore leave behind a legacy, a mantle with which they surrounded themselves. Here are the words of a prophet who wept and fasted before the Father for this nation and its children, and who looks to the future for a people under God.

NO ONE THERE

Let the mantle fall with no arms to catch it.
The mantle of "no standard".
The mantle of our shame.

We brought forth the wicked,
the dissembler, the liar, the adulterer, with all those following in their train, and placed them in our nation's seat.

The mantle of partial birth abortion, while all can see the fully formed wonder of a human body - created by God.
The "blob of tissue" excuse; exposed.

We gladly took the mantle and made it our own, and our schools ran with blood, and our children live in fear.

Let their mantle fall to the ground underfoot, without a backwards glance.
Let those who want to pass it on,
find no one there to take it.

Prophecy by Silvana Lupetti
October 9, 2000

This is a somber statement, but it does indicate, for those who can believe it, who God does not want to be elected President. It might be better understood if studied in conjunction with a message Table of the Remnant sent out in July of 2000 (my interpretations are in brackets):

"Yesterday, while in the Spirit, we [part of the remnant] gathered together in the presence of the Father and He spoke to us. 'Get ready for battle, the Republican Convention is the first shot in the upcoming struggle to reclaim what was taken.' What WAS taken? We [Americans] had a heritage, which began with the founding Fathers who loved God, and looked to Him for the welfare of the nation. We [Americans] have nothing 'under God' any longer, except the money on which we printed 'IN GOD WE TRUST'.

The Father stands at the threshold of judgment. What we [Americans] do, here and now, beginning at the Convention [and continuing through the November elections] will determine the severity of that judgment."

Sincerely,
John McDonnell

MY Coming Again Not Too Slow, And Your Ascending To Meet ME Not Too Fast!

While I was out walking Cinnamon this afternoon, a small airplane flew over. My attention was drawn to it because it was loud, and because it seemed to be flying sooooo sloooooowly! As I watched it, I was thinking that it was going much too slow, and wondered how it can possibly be staying up in the air going this slow. I kept looking to see if it would fall out of the sky.

Jesus spoke to my spirit and said "Just as you think this airplane is flying too slowly, and wonder how it is staying up in the air, many of My Children think My coming back is too slow, and because life just continues along as it always has, they wonder if I could possibly come back now. I tell you the truth, Child, that the airplane can and is staying up in the air at that speed, and that it is not really going as slowly as it appears to you. Just as this is truth, My coming again is truth and is going to happen exactly when I ordained that it should happen. It is not as slow as it appears to you!"

"It is important for you to know that I AM returning and that I AM even at the door, but you should not be slack in thinking that I will not come anytime soon. Neither should you be totally consumed with wondering just when I will return. You are here on this earth for a reason and for a specified time. As My children, one reason for you being on this earth is to bring into My kingdom as many souls as you can in your allotted time, and to minister to others according to the needs set before you."

"Go now to the Book of Acts and read the first chapter beginning at verse 6. "So when they were assembled they ask Him, Lord, is this the time when you will re-establish the kingdom and restore it to Israel? He said to them, it is not for you to become acquainted with and know what time brings - the things and events of time and their definite periods - fixed years and seasons (their critical nick of time), which the Father has appointed (fixed and reserved) by His own choice and authority and personal power." The Amplified Bible

"Father has told you what He wants you to know about Jesus' coming again, and about what He wants you to be concerned with at this time."

While I am at it let me share with you what Holy Spirit said about the rapture.

Many of us believe that when Christ returns, and calls us to come up hither, that we will instantly be up there with Him.

He said it is true that our bodies will be changed instantly from mortal to immortal, but that our rising in the air will not be instantaneous...it will be slow enough that people will be able to see us ascend up to meet Jesus in the air. Christ is our example for how it will happen. In Acts chapter 1 beginning at verse 9, we read "And when He had said this, He was caught up, and a cloud received and carried Him away out of their sight. And while they were gazing intently into Heaven as He went, behold, two men [dressed] in white robes suddenly stood beside them, Who said, men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing into Heaven? This same Jesus, Who was caught away and lifted up from among you into Heaven, will return in [just] the same way in which you saw Him go into Heaven." The Amplified Bible

The Apostles, who were with Jesus, saw Him ascend up into Heaven, and those who are with us at the time of our rapture will see us ascend up to meet Christ in the air.

An Important NEW and URGENT ALERT for National Prayer by all Believers in All Denominations

NEW NATIONAL PRAYER ALERT -- OCTOBER 31ST, 2000

Thank you for your overwhelming response to the "Prayer Alert For This Nation." We appreciate the hundreds of responses received in our office, but please understand that it is impossible for us to respond individually. The wonderful way the Body of Christ has banded together to intercede for this purpose has been extremely impressive. Millions have joined together to fast and pray as this alert has circulated throughout this nation and even into other parts of the world. It has crossed denominational lines, bringing unity to our prayers. I know our intercession has had an impact.

However, we must not let up at this critical point. I am extremely concerned as we enter into this last week before Election Day. We are in danger of apathy and fatigue keeping us from faithfully interceding until the end. We cannot stop; we have not yet prevailed in this endeavor. There is a great, great urgency that we intensify our intercession during this last week. It is not a time to decrease and let down our guard because we are approaching the finish line. Rather, it is a time to press forward with even greater strength to see the goal accomplished. Once again, I am asking PLEASE, INTERCEDE FOR THIS ELECTION!

Pastors, please hold daily prayer meetings in your churches and devote time for prayer during your regular services. ---

Church members, please give this alert to your pastors and plead with them to call their people together for concerted prayer. ---

I am strongly encouraging that from Wednesday, November 1st, through Election Day, Tuesday, November 7th, 24-hour prayer chains be put into effect. ---

Also, I believe we must continue to fast in whatever form the Lord leads during these critical days, and, if possible, do a water or juice only fast Sunday through Tuesday.

As stated in the initial "Prayer Alert For This Nation," I firmly believe this is the most critical election in decades. The results of this election will not only drastically influence America, but other countries as well. I believe Israel will be especially impacted, and what God wants to do in the rest of the world will also be greatly affected by the outcome of next Tuesday's voting.

Please, increase your intercession and fasting. Join together with the Body of Christ for this purpose; there is great power in unity. We must not let down our guard. Encourage others to vote for righteousness and life, and be sure to vote yourself. It is extremely urgent that we fulfill our responsibility next Tuesday.

Please pass this on to your contacts and ask them to do the same. This prayer alert, as well as the previous alert, are available at my website www.dutchsheets.org

Standing with you to see God's purposes accomplished, Dutch Sheets

Debra Westbrook

October 25, 2000

This is God's kairos time. A time for God's church to have a "coming out" party. A time to display the manifold wisdom of God to principalities and powers in the heavenly realm. For that now is now.

A time for the kingdom of heaven to advance with a violent faith as a prophetic army emerging from the shadows of God's wing. For that now is now.

A time to explode upon the scene of human history, released from a bystander and spectator mentality, empowered to change the world with a fiery passion for Jesus. For that now is now.

For now is the time whereby the mystery of Christ will be unraveled before our very eyes through His church. That which has been hidden shall be hidden no more as the Church of Jesus Christ arises into the glorious splendor of her eternal purpose. This eternal purpose has been foreordained of God before the world began. That now is now.

For eye has not seen, nor has ear heard the glorious church that will arise displaying the multifaceted nature of Christ which is hidden in the heart of the Father. Such as diamonds, we have been formed through the fire, cleansed through the trials and oppositions, and chiseled by the hand of God.

These diamonds shall emerge to showcase the beauty of My Son. The full expression of My Bride will be released through the revelation that will be released to those who have an ear to hear what the Spirit is saying. That now is now.

Come out! Come out! Come out! Into the fullness of your inheritance in Christ Jesus.

Our time in the wilderness has released us from the bondage and death of religion. The veil has been lifted off of our eyes as we have learned to step forth and travel upon a path that we had not walked on before - a great paradigm shift releasing us from the old into the new.

We have appropriated by faith promises which were always there but hidden from our eyes until God could trust us with His eternal purpose, knowing we would not steal His glory or covet what another has. We are a church coming out. Now, we have arrived at a point of release. For that now is now.

Venture into the land of promise with your hands empty of personal desire and dreams but your heart full of passion for more of Jesus. Corporately arise as an army, dead of personal ambition, pride, and well doing to have a single purpose of pursuing a clear revelation of the outworking of the eternal purpose of My church through My remnant.

Do not be deceived for not all will see your true purpose or your true form at this time. I will form you and shape you as My body in the days ahead upon this path of release. This is your first step out, walking forth by faith into a glorious inheritance that has been destined for you before the foundations of the world hidden in my Son. Now is now.

Now Is The Time To Arise Isaiah 33:6 And there shall be stability in your times, an abundance of Salvation, Wisdom, and knowledge. The reverent fear and worship of the Lord is your Treasure and His

Now is the time to arise. Now is the time for My Spirit to be magnified in My people. Now is the time to live in the fullness of My Life and in the boundaries of my Love. You will experience much more of what I have for you. Come into deeper fellowship with Me. Come and know Me as I Am. Come and be in friendship with Me, so I can share the secrets of My heart. Be not slothful or ignorant, for I Am your God and I desire for you to live as my sons. My only begotten Son was the for-runner of how my children should live. For He plowed the way for you to walk. Be not misled into thinking that I don't want you or you can't walk as My Son walked. I Am your God, your creator, your very life. Be not ignorant of who I Am. I desire a Father and son relationship. I want my sons to mature, to walk even as I have planned for them to walk.

Be not afraid of what others will say. Know that I Am He who brought you out of your mother's womb and I gathered you into My Arms, and I allowed for you to wonder in your own willful way, until you cried out in the heat of the desert. Come be my Lord, be my Salvation. For truly until you acknowledged Me, I allowed you to experience a great sorrow, but that sorrow led you back to Me, where I was waiting for your return. My heart ached to see what you had to go through, and to see you in your stubborn way, but, oh, how My heart rejoiced when I heard your thoughts about returning back to me. I waited in such Joy to think of the time you turned and faced Me and I ran to you and put My loving arms around you, and put new clothes on you and put new walking shoes on your feet, and prepared a Lamb for you to eat to the full and the rejoicing was so great.

But now your heart after awhile started to look back at some things, and again I saw within you things that had to be removed and cleansed out, and again I allowed you to go your own will and way, to get you to the place where you would absolutely abhor all your self-will, all of your past, and as My heart was sore and ached with such love. I had to let you experience things to bring such a complete hatred for all of self-life and to allow you to see what a horrible thing self really is. Then again I saw you turning and I ran to you with My Arms wide open, and again I clothe you with My Love. Now * have you within the boundaries of My Love.

Now it is time to mature into sons which all of creation is longing to see. You shall walk in the peace of your God. You shall become what I have created you for, I Am your Creator. I Am the One Who causes you to hate what is wicked and to love righteousness. My Joy will fill your heart and your joy will bubble over. Come into the loins of My Love and I will walk in and speak within you, and you shall be my sons and daughters. I have decreed. Now cleanse your spirit and flesh of all defilement and walk in the holiness I have prepared for you, and in My fear you will walk.

Look to me and be saved from all that would keep you in bondage, that which would hinder you from doing all that is in my heart. Why look to man to get approval, and not unto me, and why are you so busy that you cannot have the time for me and why do you carry idols in your heart? I know the best way for you and I have already prepared it for you to walk in will you not let my Spirit, the very Holy Spirit lead and guide you into this very realm that I am speaking to you about. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid, for I am your God, and I will keep you in the day of trouble, I will take you from the jaws of trouble and lead and guide you into my truth, and you will see that the very thing that I have laid out before you was good and not to be refused.

Do you see what is on the horizon? Look and see from where I live and you will be able to go through anything that is coming your way. Be not troubled, right Now, be not troubled, for I am the living God and I hold this world by the word of my power. I am shaking everything, but when you trust and lean on me in the shaking you will find that my word is true that I can hide you in the day of the storm and that I can keep you from falling and being afraid. I speak to you Now, that when the time comes you will know that I already told you and what to do. Am I not the God that created all what you see and I uphold it by the word of my power.

Isaiah 43:10 You are my witnesses says the Lord. And My servant whom I have chosen, that you may know Me, believe me and remain steadfast to Me and understand that I am He. Before Me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after Me.

Isaiah 44:8 Fear not, nor be afraid [in the coming violent upheavals]; have I not told it to you from of old and declared it? And you are My witnesses! Is there a God besides Me? There is no other, Rock; I know not any.

New River/New Temple

Nita Johnson

The New River

Nita (LaFond) Johnson

August 4, 2000 I had a most wonderful dream. I found myself standing on the beach of what I initially thought to be an ocean. It was incredibly deep and wide. The waves were so great I couldn't see the other side. The water was so blue that I marveled at the uniqueness and beauty of its color.

Suddenly, I realized that there was a man standing next to me. So, I asked him, "What is this?" as I pointed toward the beautiful water. He replied, "This is the 'River of Holiness flowing down from the throne of Yahveh.'"

I then noticed huge ships traveling down this vast river. I also observed many types of waterfowl such as ducks, herons and swans. As beautiful as they each were, they would immediately be transformed both in size and appearance, as they would sweep down and land upon the water. Suddenly, they would become much larger and even more beautiful. For instance, I think ducks are good looking birds. Many are even beautiful. But, when a duck would land upon the river, it would become the size of a swan, and eminently more beautiful. I was so amazed by what I was seeing, that without thought I asked the man who had appeared beside me, "Why are the birds being transformed as they touch the water?" The man answered: "Everything the river touches is both increased and beautified by its power." After a time of watching so many different kinds of birds touch the water and enter into this same metamorphosis, my new friend informed me that the many different birds speak of the many nations soon to be touched by this great river.

My attention was drawn back to the huge ships that were cruising down the river. I noticed numerous men and women on board, some standing, some walking and all conversing with one another. Strangely, they were dressed in evening attire. The men were dressed in tuxedos and the women were dressed in lovely evening gowns. Everyone we saw looked unusually happy.

Then the scene changed and I found myself on one of these ships. Standing next to me on the deck of the stern, was the same man who had miraculously joined me on the beach. By now I realized that he was an angel and had been sent to be my guide. Our ship was among many that were trekking down these beautiful blue waters. Our particular ship was hugging the shoreline as we crawled along.

I noticed many homes along the shore. The people who lived in these homes were for some reason standing in their yards. I watched as one by one they seemed, as if for the first time, to notice the river that was flowing outside their homes. Some were surrounded by a denser, brighter light, which varied in degree from person to person. Others had no light at all. The level of brightness seemed to indicate the spiritual condition of its bearer. My guide told me that those who bore a very faint light were currently in a back-slidden condition. Contrariwise, the purer the Christian, the brighter and denser their light would be. Although the brighter light would be more desirable, most were surrounded by a light that was medium to dim. Those who had no light were not even saved.

As they stood outside their homes watching the river, I noticed that each one was dressed in the garb depicting their profession. I saw housewives, gardeners, technicians, and doctors, blue-collar workers, CEOs, scientists and so on. There seemed to be people from every conceivable line of employment.

Some, upon noticing the river, would simply turn away and go about their business. Some of which had no light at all, while others who bore some dimension of light, responded in like manner and would then immediately begin to lose what little light they had.

Others, upon noticing the river, would run into their homes and pull extravagant evening wear out of their closets. The men would pull out handsome tuxedos and the women would take out beautiful evening gowns. The age of the apparel and the level of light that each person had were all very distinct from one another, yet the two did not seem to correspond. I asked my guide why the evening wear seemed to vary in age. He answered, “The age of the apparel indicated when each person entered into the kingdom. The new garments were indicative of the fact that they were just recently born into the kingdom. As each person adorned himself or herself with the evening wear, I saw an immediate transformation begin to take place.

I had not noticed before that these people were overweight. Some were moderately overweight while others were grossly overweight. I took note of this when I saw the strange transformation begin. As each person would adorn himself or herself with this evening apparel, they would immediately begin to lose weight. At the end of this metamorphosis, the people would be slim and sleek and a new youthfulness would become apparent. For instance, one woman looked as though she was about 60 years old and was grossly overweight. However, after changing her garment she became very slender and took on the appearance of a woman of 40. Her countenance was radiant.

What I saw overwhelmed me, and I found it difficult to understand. Consequently, I asked my guide for help. He explained, “The evening wear is indicative of the holiness of the eleventh hour outpouring. The reason people were overweight prior to changing their garments is that each one at some point in time had eaten the Word of Yahveh then turned to the indulgences of the world. The degree that they had ingested the world was evidenced in the weight they gained. Now that they have put on the garments of holiness and through repentance, the world is falling away and the weight that came with it is disappearing. The Bible speaks of this in Numbers chapter 5. “Do you not remember also that the Bible says to worship Him in the beauty of holiness?”

Once the people went through this amazing transformation they would begin to board the ships that were waiting all along the shore. When the ships were full they would head into the flow of the great river.

After traveling for a while on this beautiful, vast river, we came to a place where the water dumped into a pool, forming a mammoth lake. Extending from this lake were tributaries. These tributaries seemed to flow directly into huge buildings along the shore. Next to the tributaries one could see docks where these great ships would stop and unload their precious cargo. Once empty, they would head back out onto the river and gather waiting passengers in order to bring them to this same landing place.

At length we pulled into one of these docks and were able to get off the ship. My guide led me on an exciting tour of this area. When we approached one of the tributaries, I could see that there were words along this stream that read, “Healings and Miracles”. I then followed him into a great building wherein incredible things were happening. He said to me, “All the buildings you will see, and many more, are healing rooms prepared for this great outpouring of holiness and evangelism. The anointing that is flowing down from the throne of the Lord into these buildings is called the ‘Great Jubilee Anointing’ as mentioned in Isaiah 61.”

As we entered into the actual sanctuary wherein all the wonders were taking place, I was amazed. My guide instructed, “This is the room where healings and miracles concerning the body take place.” These rooms were large enough to accommodate perhaps 40 to 50 thousand people. As I looked toward the platform I noticed many ministers who were nameless and faceless ministering to the people. I could see healings and miracles of every conceivable kind occurring. Limbs were growing out or being restored. The maimed were being healed; the lame, the crippled and those who had spastic disorders were being healed. Diseases of all kinds were being healed. The blind eyes were being opened and the deaf ears could now hear. I was so excited for the recipients of Yeshua’s great mercy that I wept tears of joy. None who came into this place left without their healing. I then remembered that the Lord had spoken to me nearly 20 years ago and promised me that the day would come when there would be no feeble or sick among His people. Now I was seeing it with my own eyes.

After awhile we left that building and set out on our tour once again. Within a short distance we came across another tributary. The words that ran along side of this stream were "Healing of Emotions and Memories." Again the stream seemed to flow into a huge auditorium. As we walked through the entrance, I saw that people everywhere were being freed of inner wounds and bad memories. Many deliverances were also taking place. Longstanding strongholds were being uprooted in people all over this great room. People were praising the Lord for their newly found freedom.

Before long, my guide led me out and past another tributary. The words that ran along side of this tributary were "Healing of Relationships." We crossed over the stream and entered the auditorium. Inside this vast meeting room we saw marriages, families, friendships and all sorts of relationships, at every level, being healed and restored. Tears of joy and shouts of praise could be heard echoing throughout the building and would rise to a crescendo. Then more healing would occur, and the rejoicing would be repeated.

We watched for awhile, then departed. My guide once again led me past another tributary and into another great building. The words running along side the stream read "Healing of Finances." In this building, thousands of people were seeing the healing stream of Yahveh touch their finances. Many of which, received restoration of great sums of money and vast fortunes. In this room, I saw people giving as never before to the work of the Lord.

After we left this great auditorium we passed by another tributary. The words that ran along side of it were "Kingdom Apostles and Prophets." We didn't enter this place. However, as we walked by it, my guide shared with me that in this room there was deep teaching going on in order to instruct the hearers about the Apostolic and Prophetic offices. As the speakers conclude their teachings, the Ruach Ha Kodesh (Spirit of the Holy One) would release New Kingdom mantels upon those for whom it is ordained for the sake of the commonwealth of the Great King.

We then came upon another tributary. The word along side this stream was, "Sonship." As my guide pointed at the great conference center at the head of the stream he said: "In this place those who have been prepared for this high honor are being granted 'Sonship' by the Great King. This is the highest of all rooms of healing. For in it the greatest of all restorations are taking place. This is the restoration of The Father to those who have wholly abandoned the world and proven their worthiness to become 'adult sons' in the Kingdom." My guide went on to explain, "Everyone who comes up the great river of holiness will enter into one or more of these great rooms. It will be according to their need." I saw many such rooms, all set aside for different purposes.

Suddenly, I noticed that people from every continent of the world would, upon leaving these great rooms, be sent out to various nations of the world to share the Gospel. Some, however, would return to their hometowns and their jobs carrying with them the glad tidings. While some would travel across their own nation, others went to foreign nations. All would carry the power of the good news wherever they traveled.

Then my guide looked over at me and said: "This is a picture of the great outpouring of glory reserved for the eleventh hour.

Ezk.34:16 & chap.41: Numbers 5:21-31: Ps. 110: Ps. 96:9: Rev. 22

Nita (Lafond) Johnson

The Lord is in the process of building a new temple. As Peter says, a temple not built with hands. This temple is a holy temple comprised of holy vessels of the Lord. Yeshua has recently spoken three things to me. All three are from the Scripture.

I Kings 10:18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

And

I Kings 10:20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom

And

I Kings 10:21 And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing account- of in the days of Solomon.

In this temple will dwell the mediatorial authority of the Melchizedek priesthood and the reigning authority of the King of kings.

This temple will be comprised of holy living stones of pure gold: stones who have been tried, tested, and purified in the fire of Messiah. They will be devout people who have separated themselves from the world and are pleased to live wholly for Yahveh. Through these transparent living stones, our Father will show forth His glory. Yes, they will shine in the radiant splendor of holiness. They will be fully equipped with the fruits of righteousness and the gifts of the Spirit to minister in the glorious love of Yahveh.

The first Scripture tells us that Yeshua is building a throne of ivory overlaid with gold. This speaks of the beauty of a divine purity that the vessels that will bear the great King's authority will know. The gold speaks of the highest authority available to man through Messiah. They will have experienced such a deep firing process which purged them of the lower elements of the world so that the Holy King can afford to grace them with such authority. They will have the highest authority in the body of Messiah. Further, they will have authority over high levels of principalities and powers, over nations, and over the elements of nature. As the Bible says They will be crowned with glory and honor. However, although they will sit in this high and lofty place, they will be men and women of deep humility and meekness. The Bible says that Yeshua's throne is established in righteousness. Surely these devout people will give righteous judgement. Their judgement will be sure and will be attested to by Yahveh Himself with great signs and wonders. So great will these signs be that the world itself will stand in fear of them.

The second Scripture tells us that descending from the throne were twelve lions, six lions on each side. I have been the subject of several visitations from the Lion of Judah. In each visitation I have been given to see His great power and holiness. I am always filled with the fear of the Lord when I am in His presence. Even so, these lions speak of a peculiar mantel that the future leadership will bear. It is the mantel of the seven Spirits of Yahveh. It speaks of the perfect government of the Lord in His Church.

Spirit of Yahveh: this is not the same as say the baptism of the Holy Spirit. It is indicative of entrance into the adult sonship. Comparatively few will therein enter as the price to be an adult son is very high. This sonship bears with it the creative word and the great working of miracles. Spirit of wisdom: This is a high wisdom that comes from having the mind of Messiah. In fact, the understanding and knowledge that is associated with this mantle all are derived from having the mind and revelation of Messiah. None but those who enter this high and holy place of abiding called the adult sonship will experience the value of these graces. Those who bear it will experience frequent visitations for the purpose of building up the body of Messiah and bringing judgement upon the world. Spirit of counsel and might speak of the divine counsel coming from behind the veil. Counsel that is usually given through divine instruction and can by no means be obtained by matters of the flesh or natural thinking. With this counsel comes a divine might to fulfill the plans and purposes of the Lord. Finally, the fear of the Lord wraps this mantle in perfect harmony. The fear of the Lord, rests upon them in such a manner that they walk in perfect obedience. When they speak the word of the Lord, their words will bear this same anointing causing their hearers to fear the Lord in holiness.

The third Scripture tells us that all the drinking vessels will be of gold. Those who will be vessels of honor in this great move will be vessels of gold through which Yeshua will pour out His greatest and highest wine. Vessels of silver may experience the anointing and be used by Yeshua. But only those who have experienced the purging fires deeply and thoroughly enough to make them vessels of gold will be used to deliver the best wine for the Church and the world.

My admonition based upon the revelation is to quickly prepare for the great coming presence of the Lord while there is still time. In this way you will not be left behind when He begins to demonstrate His glory through prepared vessels.

May Yahveh Bless You,

Nita (Lafond) Johnson

Not To Faint

TaMara Williams

Today I sensed a great need to encourage the believer in their faith. There is a war raging in the spirit because the enemy is trying to weaken the faith of the believer to FAINT...However we must DECLARE WITH A FIERCE BLOW THAT WE ARE NOT OF THOSE WHO FAINT. "AND LET US NOT LOSE HEART AND GROW WEARY AND FAINT IN ACTING NOBLY AND DOING RIGHT.FOR IN DUE TIME AND AT THE APPOINTED SEASON WE SHALL REAP, IF WE DO NOT LOOSEN AND RELAX OUR COURAGE AND FAINT." GAL. 6: 9

The enemy is trying to mock Abba, Jesus, The Holy Ghost, by making us think we have no strength to continue on. " If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small" Prov. 24:10

The seeking believer has now come to their appointed time and due season, they have allowed the furnace of affliction Isaiah 48:10 to refine them that the enemy knows that no longer is it about us. We have crossed over into the place where we really, really understand that only in Him we live, move, and have our being. No longer are we seeking to be known or seen as a great wonder, we have finally recognized that. "I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me [I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self-sufficient in Christ's sufficiency." Phil. 4:13

This morning in prayer I could only hear the words how MIGHTY God is. The songs What a MIGHTY GOD WE SERVE: YOU ARE AWESOME IN THIS PLACE MIGHTY GOD: GREAT AND MIGHTY IS THE LORD OUR GOD GREAT AND MIGHTY IS HE.

The Holy Ghost was saying remember your God is MIGHTY to defeat any foe. Whatever we are faced with this is the HOUR, TIME, MOMENT, know that if we ascribe to the Lord the Glory due Him, we shall in return see Him move in the realm of what will seem miraculous to us and the world, but it will be Him just being Who He is God Almighty.

Read Psalms 27 the Lord will speak to your heart to understand that "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid" (read it all)

The Lord would say that those that have fought against you that now. " Let their way be dark and slippery; and let the angel of the Lord persecute them" Psalms 35:6

O yes this is the time of the Almighty God to speak and say to all The earth is mine and the fullness thereof...Psalm 24

The fullness means EVERYTHING, YES EVERYTHING THAT LIVES, MOVES, BREATHES, EXIST, CELESTIAL, TERRESTRIAL, EVERYTHING BELONGS TO ME.

God did not call us to defeat the enemy JESUS HAS ALREADY DONE THAT! He called us to FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT OF FAITH...HE HAS CALLED US TO ALLOW THE CHRIST IN US TO HAVE PREEMINENCE IN EVERYTHING THAT PERTAINS TO OUR LIVES.

What does that mean?

It means that today you may be troubled on every side. but open your mouth and DECLARE yet not distressed: We may be perplexed...but open your mouth and say DESPAIR IS NOT MY PORTION. We may be persecuted...but open your mouth and say, I AM NOT FORSAKEN, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR ME TO BE FORSAKEN, FOR HE SAID I WILL NEVER LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU. We may be cast down, but open you mouth and say I CANNOT BE DESTROYED. FOR THE SAME POWER THAT RAISED JESUS FROM THE DEAD WILL CAUSE ME TO ARISE. IF JESUS COULD HAVE BEEN DESTROYED ONLY THEN COULD I BE DESTROYED.

This is not the time to cower under. Remember Paul and Silas in Acts:16 when they were brought before the magistrates and they LAID ON THEM MANY STRIPES, AND CAST THEM INTO PRISON, AND TIED THEIR FEET IN STOCKS. Does that sound like some of us? Paul and Silas were men as we are, however they made a decision to allow GOD TO BE MIGHTY WHEREVER THEY WERE. That's what God is waiting for from the BELIEVER, they didn't question God about how they hurt, how they felt, they didn't think what happened we were doing what God told us. They remembered the God on the inside The God who supplies strength for His people. What a slap in the face as their onlookers watched them begin to pray and sing at their hour of MIDNIGHT. People of God we must begin to not only recognize the enemy but we must make sure we MAKE HIM FACE THE ONE WHO WILL CAUSE HIM TO RUN IN TERROR...When we begin to declare the Mightiness of God through prayer, praise, song, preaching, we demonstrate that Jesus is the answer for all life's situations and circumstances. " LIFT UP YOUR HEADS, O YE GATES; AND BE YE LIFT UP YE EVERLASTING DOORS: AND THE KING OF GLORY SHALL COME IN. WHO IS THIS KING OF GLORY? THE LORD STRONG AND MIGHTY, THE LORD MIGHTY IN BATTLE" PSALMS 24:7-8

As never before I sense that we must now take on the words of Esther; IF I PERISH I PERISH, We must be like the Hebrew Boys I WILL NOT WORSHIP FEAR, LACK, SICKNESS ETC. When situation come I will be like Daniel though I go into the lions den I will continue to pray, for in doing so we call for the MIGHTY GOD OF ALL CREATION TO SHOW UP...We must be like Elisha during the worst famine of Samaria we must stand in the Gate and Declare the Prophetic voice of God and Declare that There shall be provision. Be blessed people of God, Stand with the sword in your mouth.

Nevertheless, I Have Somewhat Against Thee..."

Hollie Moody

It is with a very heavy heart that I felt the Lord speaking the following word unto me. I sought to close my ears to it, and turn away from it. When I finally sat down to write down these words, and the heaviness remained within my heart and tears dripped down my cheeks, at the same time as I felt this sorrow within myself, I also felt it as the sorrow the Lord experiences over us as our love for Him cools down from a blazing fire into a dim ember.

The Lord is jealous over us, and over our love for Him. He will accept nothing less than being first and being number One in our hearts and in our lives. If He isn't the only One on the throne in our heart, He isn't on the throne at all. If this is the case with any of us, let us hear what the Spirit may be speaking unto us, and repent and return unto our first love for the Lord, and let us do the first works of that first love for the Lord once again.

NEVERTHELESS, I HAVE SOMEWHAT AGAINST THEE...

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says unto the church....

I am He Who stands as the cornerstone and the foundation of your faith. You have built upon Me. What you have built has withstood the persecution of ages. What you have built upon Me has overcome adversities and temptations and the tests of time.

Yet I have a few things against thee.

You have become increased with the knowledge of Me. You have had faith in Me, and through faith in My Name and in My shed blood you have spoken the word of faith and raised those who were dead in trespasses and sins. You have spoken health and healing to those bound by spirits of infirmity. You have ministered to the wounded through My Name, and have bound up the broken hearted.

You labor for Me, and suffer persecution and reproach for My sake. You have been patient through your trials and times of testing.

I know you. I know your works for Me. I know the great love you have for Truth. You serve Me so diligently. I see all these things. I see what you accomplish for the Kingdom.

Yet I have a few things against thee.

The great and wonderful things you do for Me, you no longer do with the fierce burning passionate love you once held for Me. I find no fault in what you do on My behalf. I find fault with the fervency which is lacking while you do these things. I would rather have your passionate love than your lukewarm service. I can accomplish more through you if you fall in love with Me once again.

I continue to use you because you are Mine, and I am bound by My Word to honor and answer your faith. And you have much faith.

Yet surely I testify unto you, that unless you return unto Me with all your heart and mind and soul and strength, and repent that you have left your first love of Me, I will come quickly and will move you aside and pass over you to those who will seek after Me with all their heart and mind and soul and strength. They will be a people despised by many. They will be a people esteemed by many to be of no reputation. Yet it will be their relationship with Me which will allow Me to work and to flow through them in ways that will touch those who come into their presence in even the most casual of circumstances.

As many as I love, I reveal their faults to them and show them ways to correct those faults. I counsel you to earnestly repent, lest I remove you.

He who has an ear, let him hear what My Spirit says unto the churches.

In Him,

New Boldness

Ching Co

THE NEW ANOINTING OF BOLDNESS ---DO NOT GIVE THE LORD REST UNTIL . . .

A NEW ANOINTING

The past few days I have sense a new boldness rising within my heart as I began to pray and remember the various needs around me. I was surprised by the new passion and zeal that I felt rising up in me when I bring a petition before the King. Somehow I felt that I'm not alone in this and was led to share this message with the body of Christ. So if any of you happens to be led in the same manner, let us encourage one another and praise God for His wonderful ways.

CONFIRMATIONS:

God began to brought back to my minds these verses and they have become very real to me and have become my own battle cry in prayer most days.

I become like the watchman in Isaiah who will never give the Lord rest until He fulfills and establishes His promises to us.

"I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the Lord, give yourselves no rest, and give Him no rest till He establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth." (Isaiah 62:6-7)

Like Elisha , I cry to God in the same manner. Where then is the God of Miracles that I've read about from the Bible. I want to see Him act on behalf of His people NOW.

"He (Elisha) picked up the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. Then he took the cloak that had fallen from him and stuck the water with it. ' Where now is the Lord, the God of Elijah?' he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over." (2 Kings 2:13-14)

Like Jacob, as I wrestled with our God in prayer, I will not let Him go unless He blesses us and come to our aid and bring to fulfillment all that He has promise to do and give to us.

" Then the man said, ' Let me go, for it will be daybreak.' But Jacob replied, ' I will not let you go unless you bless me.'" (Genesis 32:26)

THE MEANING OF ALL THIS

I felt that God is pouring on His body a spirit of boldness and zealousness in prayer. In the past, when we pray, we might be led to end our prayer "If it be thy will." But the time has come for us to be bold in staking our claim in prayers for the fulfillment of all the promises that God has given to us individually and corporately.

That season of passiveness is over and we need to "throw the ball" so to speak back to God's court and not to be afraid to demand that God establishes His covenant with us and fulfills His promises to us.

THE ENEMY'S STRATEGY

The enemy will be exerting all efforts to discourage us from speaking in this manner and would attempt to make us feel that these actions are prideful and our Heavenly Father will look down with disdain for us. But this is a lie. . . .

PRAYER

"Heavenly Father, you have called us to come boldly and enter into your throne and lay our petitions before You. And this is what we intend to do. We intend to bombard heaven with our prayers and petitions, the very words, thoughts, impressions that You've been laying upon our hearts. This day, we ask that You began to bring all these into reality.

"Summon Your power O God, show us Your strength as You have done before. We want to see the God of Moses who went before His people and open the red sea for them. We want to see the God of Peter, whose anointing was so strong that even Peter's shadow brings healing to those that he passed by.

"Arise O God and come to our rescue, why should your children be trampled down by the enemy. You have promised that we will be the head and not the tail. Come down from heaven and show us how You move on behalf of Your children.

"Father, the time is now. We can't wait much longer. Unless you come, many of Your children will not see light . Come to our aid, come for the sake of Your name. We speak these things standing on the righteousness that is in Christ and we are asking You to do these things for us in Jesus Christ name. Amen!"

Blessings to you all,

New Years

William Hawkins

Is the end near ?

The Jewish year 5760 begins on the religious calendar on March 21--22 of 2000, This is also "Purim", the day the deliverance of the Jews is celebrated. The book of "Esther" is read on that day and the observance can not be understood without it.

The "Kabbalists" (Jewish Mystics) for centuries have given MUCH attention to this particular Jubilee Year. "The days of MAN are the measure of Miqvah" (The Miqvah is the Jewish Baptistry) The measure of a Miqvah is 40 Sheahs. One sheah is 12 dozen or 144 eggs. The Kabbalists liken one 12 month orbit of the Earth around the Sun as "one egg of time " . Hence  $144 \times 40 = 5760$ . A jubilee year.

An observation: in reading the Hebrew 5760 in reverse, reveals the entire creation of Matter, Energy, Space and Time.

The "0" depicts the Eyin-Sof or infinity before creation

The "6" reveals the 6 days of creation. Each day of creation projects Six Creations of 6000 years each. A millennial Sabbath separates all six Creations. The final 6th creation will end in the Kingdom of God, the Age of Ages, The world without end. (Eternity)

The "7" designates the Holy Shabbath of days, Sabbath of weeks(Shavout), the Sabbath of years(Shmitah) and the Sabbath of Sabbatical Years (jubilee). The prophet Daniel's Minyan of 10 Jubilees is the Epoch of his 70 Shmitah weeks. Seventy, 7 year periods = 490 years.. The year 3328 brought the destruction of the First temple. The destruction of the second temple came in 3828 or exactly 490 years later. The Holy Sabbaths are the Pivotal, radical axis of Space and Time that affects all Matter and Energy.

The "5" in 5760 represents the 5th Millennium since ADAM. Obviously this is the first and the last time since creation that this inverted sequence has occurred.

The great creator has granted mankind almost 6 millennia to dress and to keep the garden. Mankind to the contrary has corrupted, polluted, destroyed and totally ravished the earth. Left un-checked, mankind will soon die from its own hands.

The legalization of gross amorality has become the norm. The devout Christian has become the enemy. The legal systems operation is corrupt as lawyers ravage and devour the widows houses. Mankind has sown to the whirlwind, stored up wrath against the great day of wrath and the time is ripe for judgment.

The almighty God will extend his Left-hand of Judgment against the wicked of this generation. At the same time , His Right hand of Mercy will be outstretched redeeming the righteous. His day of judgment and the hour of redemption will begin in the land of Israel. Soon after His Glory will fill the Earth, as the waters cover the seas.

What you have just read came from the News letter of Vendyl Jones--December ,1999.

What follows is from my heart.

If you are quietly sitting, doing nothing, waiting for the rapture----SHAME ON YOU !

The time is short and countless thousands are going to HELL every day.

An atheist on his death bed once said "if Christians really believed what they say they believe they would crawl on broken glass in bare knees to tell me about it".

The Lord now for several months has spoken only things to me that relate to HOLINESS in the Body of Christ. I see only in part and then thru a glass darkly. It has been so compelling to me that all I can see is the lack of Holiness in my life and in the body of Christ at large. The Holiness He is speaking of is not related to outward appearances, dress codes or conduct, but, to how much we have become like His Son Jesus Christ.

In reading material just recently from the church of the first 200 years after Christ, I was appalled to realize that most of us who consider ourselves as committed Christians would have been considered "Marginal Christians" at best in that time when they were taught first hand by the Apostles of the Lord.

God help us all in the days just ahead, to walk ever closer to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

ISAIAH CHAPTER 61 VERSE 10

Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth

1 CORINTHIANS CHAPTER 4 VERSE 21

What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and [in] the spirit of meekness?

O BELOVED O BETROTHED HOW LONG SHALL I WAIT, WITH EXCEEDING PATIENCE I HAVE WAITED FOR YOU TO RETURN TO ME, YET YOU PURSUE OTHER LOVERS.

ALL NIGHT LONG I WAIT UPON THE DOOR STEP IN THE HOPE THAT YOU MAY OPEN, YOUR HEART AND LET ME IN. DO YOU NOT KNOW AND UNDERSTAND HOW I LOVE YOU ! HOW I CHERISH AND ADMIRE YOUR INTRICATE WORKINGS. YET YOU PREFER THE PRAISE AND LOVE OF THOSE WHO TRULY KNOW YOU NOT.

THE GOLD AND THE SILVER OF THE EARTH ARE TEMPORAL AND THEIR RICHES ARE NOTHING IN COMPARISON TO MINE. DO YOU NOT COMPREHEND HOW BEAUTIFUL AND EXQUISITE YOU ARE TO ME, AND HOW I DESIRE TO ADORN YOU WITH RUBIES AND PEARLS OF GREAT PRICE.

JEREMIAH CHAPTER 2 VERSE 32

Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number

O BELOVED MY BEAUTIFUL ONE COME AWAY WITH ME, FOR I HAVE PREPARED A FEAST FOR YOU ! A FEAST FIT FOR A QUEEN, A FEAST LIKE NO OTHER !

DO YOU NOT KNOW I AM THE ONE WHO WILL DRESS YOU IN FINE LINEN, WITH A FABRIC CRAFTED IN LOVE AND WASHED AND MADE CLEAN BY MY BLOOD.

ALL DAY LONG I STAND WAITING FOR YOU O BELOVED BRIDE, YET YOU REFUSE TO ACKNOWLEDGE ME AS YOUR TRUE LOVE, AND SAY MY GROOM HAS BEEN GONE FOR TO LONG. THEREFORE YOU SAY, I WILL COMFORT MYSELF WITH THE LOVE FROM OTHERS WHO WILL ATTEND UNTO MY NEEDS.

YET I STAND AT THE DOOR WAITING TO BE LET IN ! I CALL OUT UNTO YOU O MY BELOVED BRIDE, YET YOU HEAR ME NOT ! THEREFORE IN A LITTLE WHILE, I WILL STRIKE YOUR LOVERS

WITH THE ROD OF AFFLICTION.

JEREMIAH CHAPTER 50 VERSE 44

Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

IN A LITTLE WHILE O BELOVED BRIDE OF MINE, I WILL COUNSEL YOU TO PURCHASE FROM ME, RUBIES AND PEARLS OF GREAT PRICE, SO THAT YOU MAY UNDERSTAND OUR MARRIAGE COVENANT IS NO LIGHT MATTER.

WEIGHTY AND BURDENSOME THOUGHTS SHALL RUN THROUGH YOUR HEART, WHEN YOU FIND YOURSELF ABANDONED BY THOSE WHO KNOW YOU NOT. WITH TEARS OF SHAME OVER YOUR FORMER FOLLY, YOU SHALL COME BACK TO ME, AND SAY IN YOUR HEART. THE LORD IS MY BETROTHED, IN HIM I WILL PUT MY TRUST.

ALL WHO HAVE SAID THEY LOVED ME, HAVE BEEN AFFLICTED AND HAVE GONE ASTRAY, YET KNOW THIS, I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD AND THE SHEEP KNOW MY VOICE.

HEARKEN UNTO MY VOICE SAITH THE LORD.

JOHN CHAPTER 10 VERSE 14

Overcoming the World

Russell Walden

Overcoming The World

Russell Walden

<http://www.geocities.com/rwalden492/index.html>

rwalden492@hotmail.com

Introduction

1Joh 5:4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, [even] our faith.

Day by day we conduct our affairs, interacting with the people and the world around us. Our associations, interactions and involvements lend continuity and texture to life. This dynamic of community taken as a whole, makes up civilization as we know it. We live out our lives bounded by and defined by the societal structures and norms we are born to. The world, our relational environment, defines us, expresses the conduct of our lives. It is the backdrop and context for all aspects of life, social, economic, educational, etc.

This is the human experience, the common denominator of the human condition.

In the tidal pool of the community of men there are concentric influences continually interacting and coalescing around us. Art, Business, Education, Government, all are component parts of a harmonious whole the Greeks called "the Cosmos". Driven by human passion and pursuit, these eddies and currents govern and segment our time on earth. These structures, or worlds find expression in definable subsystems, or aggregate components that make up human society. These parts are quite identifiable as to their role, function and place in the fabric of human history. Economy, Government, Education, Art, etc., all make up the sum of human society, culture and civilization. This is the WORLD of men, the world in which most live and move and have their being. This is the world of which we must become masters, rising above subservience and slavery to find God's higher creative purpose, i.e. our reason for being and mission in life. If we let the immediacy of life, and its urgent demands devour our time, resources and attention, then we will drown in ignominy, mere cogs in the MACHINE that man has been seeking to build since his ill fated project on the plains of Babel.

What are the underpinnings of this world we live in? What are its foundations? When were they laid? Is it even important for us to know? Society didn't just happen as an outgrowth of evolutionary development. Society was founded through a seminal effort at a given point in time, with a specific purpose, and a determinate end in mind. The Christian scriptures speaking from antiquity record for us the foundation of the world, of society, history, and civilization as we know it. This is the foundation we must excavate and clear away from our lives if we are to build on the true Rock Christ Jesus, else we lay stone upon stone thinking we are participating in the Kingdom of God, only to find we are merely expressing the spirit of the world.

Society and the world around us are not static but dynamic. The world around us will respond to specific stimuli. It can be governed, even mastered by a person willing to step back from the blinding mendacity of every day life, to look past the past the broad, surface strokes of daily activity and discern underneath the canvas our world view is painted on. From that perspective you may then cease to be a piece of flotsam on the sea of humanity and become a mariner on the waves of life, cutting across the currents of chance and happenstance, striking the sails of your purpose toward the shores of true substance and significance in a transcendent human condition, in union with God through his Son Jesus Christ.

God and Christ, you might ask? Yes, the manifest creator who inaugurated our corporeal existence and initiated the human family. The creator who of necessity intervened in the course of history, the course of the world, and remediated its purpose by the Man Christ Jesus who came to redirect the hearts of men to their true destiny, not in the course of the world, but in the way of the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God? The Kingdom of God is not a religious nomenclature for a higher ascetic. The god of religion, the Great Opiate surely exists, impersonates, and often even seeks to pre-empt the God of the Kingdom. But the God of the Kingdom is the Self Existent Sentience who having made himself known through religion, nonetheless did not hesitate there or pause there. Religion was his entry point, but quickly passing that threshold he seeks through his Son Jesus Christ and his mortal followers to infuse his purpose, his character and his rule on every facet of society and the human condition.

For every component aspect of the world of men, there is an answering dynamic of the kingdom that lays siege to the world, society and systems of mortal construction. Do men Govern? God will further govern, and one day the kingdoms of the earth will become the kingdoms of our God and his Christ. Do men pursue commerce and traffic in materialism and this realm's resources? God also traffics in the human marketplace, not in natural currency, but in the currency of the Kingdom, the souls of men, through servants, brokers of his presence and truth who have bound themselves to be about their Father's business. Do men war? God also wars, in the heavens, in the unseen realm the scriptures speak of as "principalities and powers". This is the realm of which God is calling his people to be conversant and familiar.

Too long religious men have pursued spiritual ends through natural means. The world cannot reform the world. And religion is of the world. We must lay down religion and embrace the kingdom. In fact we must put our foot in the neck of religion and subjugate it to the purposes of the Kingdom. Likewise the realm of business, finance, education, government, etc. We do not peacefully co-exist with these aggregate components of the world system. Nor do we seek to parallel them with a religious twist or enhancement. No, we must acknowledge that we are not of this world, not in our character, our efforts or our pursuits. We are in the world, and our victory is that we are not of the world.

What must you do? To ask that question is to validate that you are yet of the world and not of the kingdom. So don't hesitate. Let us seek to become students of the kingdom, vassals of the king. Let us delve deeply in to the sonship the Father has afforded us, and seek his path for our lives. Not a path of accommodation with the world. Nor a path to circumvent the world. Conflict is not to be avoided. He came to bring a sword. The sword of the mouths that speak present, anointed truth. May that sword be in your heart and in your mouth, bared, without scabbard, until the day the Government rests fully upon his shoulders.

Paul Bell

Dear brothers and sisters

So much has been happening in the Spirit and the Kingdom of our God. I would like to tell you of one such interesting thing that I and others of our local fellowship believe has a very neat prophetic message to us all.

The wife of one of our worship leaders was expecting. The day finally came and both mom and dad were there in the delivery room together as the baby came forth. Sir, you are the proud father of a healthy little girl...and.....and....and you are the proud father of another healthy little girl, the doctor might have said. Oh my, no one was expecting this. Yes, in this modern day no one, not even the doctor, was aware that there were two, very identical twins. The first girl they called Ruth Clara and the second unexpected daughter's name is Abigail Joy. Abigail means according to some books, Father's joy, so her name is Fathers Joy Joy. Also to be noted, her father danced in the delivery room at her appearance (filled with joy).

Now, to the point. I believe that God is doing a much bigger work (some have called this work "birthing") than what we see taking place right now. For the doctor to have missed the two heart beats those heart beats had to have been in total sync. The two had to have been one. Talk about Unity!!!! They came from one egg, those two did, and split to become two very much the same but totally different children. A real double blessing, hence the double name of Father's Joy Joy. Can you see it? Our Father we know is drawing those who have the heart to know Him into such a deep and wonderful intimate relationship but there is more going on than just that. A double blessing is on the way. I know that the very last month of pregnancy seems to both the mom and dad to be so much longer than the other eight months combined. Will the time ever come? Fear of the unknown. Will it be healthy? And so the time seems to take forever. But do not be deceived. The time comes. Birth comes. The day arrives, the hour, minute and second falls upon the mother with such force that all else matters nothing. Yes, for a season pain rules but after that transition the birth overshadows the pain and the JOY of the offspring can never be compared to the then seemingly short wait and pain. A new life has come forth.

I tell you that what we are seeking we will see come forth but it will be a wonderful surprise of double Joy when it comes. God is doing more, way above and far beyond our greatest dreams. Do not despair of doing good for your reward is soon to come.

Next, I want to say this with as much passion as is within me. The Holy Spirit came, according to Jesus, (John 16:8-15) to do these three things. Read them if you have forgotten but my point is that the Holy Spirit was not sent to "just" overpower human beings with manifestations. Stop right now for if you know me you know that not only do I shake with the best but have the reputation of being a Fire Starter so I am not disrespecting what the Holy Spirit is doing. But to compare what is going on today in the church would be like saying that when a woman becomes pregnant it is only to change the shape of her body. Now the shape does change drastically but that is only the physical evidence of the life that is growing on the inside. And so too, it is what our Holy Spirit is doing in the church today. Yes, the outside is going through changes. Bodies are being affected and signs and wonders are falling from the sky. Gold and diamond dust and so many other things too numerous to mention are getting the attention. All good and well but the Lord is doing much more. There is a new life that is coming forth. It is the very TESTIMONY OF JESUS that awaits the church. Jesus' words will take life within us. WE will be what He has said we would be and be doing what He foretold. I see that the "greater things" that Jesus said we would do will be the result of being LIKE Him. We too will do and say what we see and hear from the Father. To be like Him. We will talk TO Him and FOR Him not just about Him. John 16 tells us that the Holy Spirit has come to disclose the THINGS OF JESUS to us and not to do His own thing. What the Holy Spirit is doing is like John the Baptist calling out to "REPENT, FOR THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND" and "MAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD". The Holy Spirit's desire is to manifest Jesus and to bring forth Christ within us.

So I want to encourage you to press into what our Father has in store for us: He Himself. Let us not be content with the signs of pregnancy but let us look to and hasten the blessing of birth and the Joy of our Father.

A Bride is being made ready and her lover awaits. The Holy One of Israel. The King of all Kings. He has declared His Love for us. Let us be ready for Him. Let our hearts burn with passion towards Him. This will draw others to Him. This will result in offspring. The nets will be full because the harvest is ripe but it is the harvesters that are being made ready. Lovers of Him.

Paul

Off With Their Heads!

Mary Koons

Dear Ones,

This one is "bizarre" - even I realize that; nevertheless, I've been up 3 times during the night and the LORD "continues" to bring it back to me to re-read... and to "post.."

I would assume that when you equate it with the scriptures that He led me to, it becomes somewhat "less bizarre" and makes more sense. I hope it speaks to ALL OF US that the "days grow short" and that "false religion and false prophets" are on the rise again; to me, truly indicative of the "last" of the last days.

Love in Christ, Mary

September 24, 2000

And [the angel] bore me away [rapt] in the Spirit into a desert (wilderness), and I saw a woman seated on a scarlet beast that was all covered with blasphemous titles (names) and he had seven heads and ten horns.

The woman was robed in purple and scarlet, and bedecked with gold, precious stones and pearls, [and she was] holding in her hand a cup of gold full of the accursed offenses and the filth of her lewdness and vice.

And on her forehead there was inscribed a name of mystery - with a secret symbolic meaning: Babylon the great, the mother of prostitutes [idolatresses] and of the filth and atrocities and abominations of the earth.

I also saw that the woman was drunk, with the blood of the saints (God's people), and the blood of the martyrs [who witnessed] for Jesus. And when I saw her I was utterly amazed, and wondered greatly.

(Revelation 17:3-6)

Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

(Revelation 2:20)

"OFF WITH THEIR HEADS!" by Mary (Koons) Wattenford

For the last few nights while in prayer.... I have seen in the Spirit a "large" gold plated, old style keyhole... and known that I was to "peek" through it. Each time - what I have seen is reminiscent to me of "Alice in Wonderland..." for directly in front of my view is a woman, who is wearing a crown.. and who is "A QUEEN..." She isn't dressed however, in "royal clothing," but INSTEAD has over her [as a placard] a large "playing card" - the "eight of hearts." She is saying, "OFF WITH THEIR HEADS!" every time I've "peeked through the keyhole." Off to the right, is the "MAD HATTER..." only instead of being a rabbit - what I see resembles more *JACK* of "JACK IN THE BOX" fast food fame. The Styrofoam round head, long carrot type nose - BUT wearing a tall stove-top hat.

Well, seeing something like this "once" - I was more than "tempted" to equate it to "BAD PIZZA!"... but to see it several nights in a row? Always this rather "bizarre" conglomeration of characters - and always with this "Alice in Wonderland" type theme and feel to it? Tonight I asked the Lord, just "what" all of this was representative of... and He said:

This "queen" is the false queen - apostasy. She, like Jezebel, wants to "ANNIHILATE" those who are serving Me out of their LOVE FOR ME... to "destroy" the true prophets of the land so that her "false prophets" can go forth. The "queen" wears the eight of hearts. [Eight means new beginnings.... Hearts - would represent "love..."] Yet, this "QUEEN" does not "reign" in love - but in pride. You have heard her say "ONLY" one thing.. "OFF WITH THEIR HEADS!" each time you have seen her. Who would do such a thing while wearing "hearts?" Who considers herself royalty and "wraps itself in what it terms LOVE" but says, "OFF WITH THEIR HEADS?"

The "Mad Hatter" that you are so puzzled by is representative of those who "seek" to follow her bidding... He has large eyes - but sees nothing, a large nose - but "smells not" the stench of death as "heads roll" at his queen's bidding.

He does not question - merely follows her orders... He does not seek to "understand" for himself "why" this queen is able to wield so much power, NOR DOES HE CARE. He is a "false prophet" that the queen has chosen and USES; for "if" he is obedient to her, his "own head" will remain on his shoulders.

You perceive this to be an "ALICE IN WONDERLAND" type vision; and in fact, it is so.. it is a "caricature*" of "MYSTERY BABYLON..." and the woman who "rides the beast..." She too, comes clothed as one who is LOVE, but make no mistake, My Daughter - what she is TRULY CLOTHED IN - is apostasy, and ridding herself of those who would "stand in HER WAY!" She wears a crown.... She has power.... and.... She is "not" loathe to use it. She instills no fear in you when you watch her, but more amazement as her words never change, nor her demeanor. She is almost "surreal" to you... but this "queen" is "VERY REAL!" She is the woman who RIDES THE BEAST... who comes to power through the "false religion" she perpetrates and receives her power from her followers; even as Jezebel did. She demands TOTAL OBEDIENCE... and nothing LESS WILL BE TOLERATED. She is corrupt, but incorruptible; determined to have HER WAY AT ANY COST. This "queen" rides a beast; and to her is given the freedom to take the life's blood of My precious ones. "OFF WITH THEIR HEADS!" she cries, and none dare resist her - for she is too powerful, and there are too few who would even TRY to be as Elijah was and stand up against her... OR against the "false religion" she perpetrates, and the "false doctrines" she has successfully used in the past. This "queen" is very dangerous, My beloved... "very dangerous"... for her response is IMMEDIATE and there is "no recourse" but to obey - or "loose your head.."

Do you know My daughter what your looking through the large keyhole represents?

... it represents LOOKING IN THE FUTURE.

"OFF WITH THEIR HEADS!"

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and [I saw] the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received [his] mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

*car-i-ca-ture n. - 1.a. A representation, especially pictorial or literary, in which the subject's distinctive features or peculiarities are deliberately exaggerated to produce a comic or grotesque effect. b. The art of creating such representations. 2. A grotesque imitation or misrepresentation: The trial was a caricature of justice. To represent or imitate in an exaggerated, distorted manner.

WORD HISTORY: The history of the word caricature takes us back through the centuries to a time when the Romans occupied Gaul, offering the blessings of civilization to the Gauls but also borrowing from them as well. One such borrowing, the Gaulish word ·karros, meaning “a wagon or cart,” became Latin carrus, “a Gallic type of wagon.” This Latin word has continued to roll through the English language, giving us car, career, cargo, carry, and charge, among others. Caricature, another offspring of carrus, came to us via French from Italian, in which caricatura, the source of the French word, was derived from Italian caricare, “to load, burden, or exaggerate.” Caricare in turn came from Late Latin carrie're, “to load,” derived from the Romans' Gaulish borrowing carrus.

SYNONYMS: caricature, burlesque, parody, travesty, satire, lampoon. These nouns denote artistic forms in which someone or something is imitated in an amusing and generally critical manner. A caricature grossly exaggerates a distinctive or striking feature, as of a person or group, with intent to ridicule.

Okay Corral

Bob Neumann

THE GUNFIGHT AT THE OKAY CORRAL

I was suddenly in the "VALLEY OF VISION" with a melody playing in the wind. The wind was blowing a lot of dust. I was walking down a "western" street just like in many old cowboy films. I passed many wooden buildings and hitching posts. Eventually I came to the "edge of town" and came to the corral. Like in the movies it was a simple "fence" made of wooden rails. It was dark and eerie. Then I realized the "music" was similar to the Italian spaghetti westerns from the 60's. I wondered how many times I had watched the confrontation between "GOOD" and "EVIL" on either the "silver screen" or the "boob tube". But now I found myself "walking it out" in a surreal and timeless place.

Unlike the gunfight at the OKAY CORRAL I had walked in alone. Instead of seeing the Clantons on one side and the Earps and Doc Holliday on the other the "antagonists" were standing in a circle facing the center...and all the others.

There was a place in the circle and I new it was "left for me". So there I was, trigger finger itchin, and the reality hit me...who am I shooting at? Whose side am I on? And we all stood waiting.... watching. And I thought a lot of fast and useless thoughts waiting "TO HEAR" something.... anything...from THE THRONE.

After waiting awhile I finally heard THE CAPTAIN speak.... "WHO ARE THE GOOD GUYS?"...

And as I realized it was impossible to tell...who were who?

I was baffled.... then I remembered the problems I have had this last year concerning many "dreams", "visions", and "prophetic words" that I had come across on the Internet. I also remembered the images from a year ago after a conference in Kremmling Colorado that THE LORD gave to me concerning the lack of TRUE HEROES in the eyes of the apostate church. That anything that was heroic in any way was denigrated and attacked. And then I began to look at the faces of the "hombres" in the circle. And I began to recognize old "actors" .... Gary Cooper...Alan Ladd...Henry Fonda...Jimmy Stewart...a young John Wayne...Harry Carey Jr.

.... Ben Johnson.... and many others.... depending on their roles they could wear either black hats...or white hats...situations changed.... so did they. Just like the "modern" idea of "situational ethics" within both the world and the church seem to prefer over THE WORD OF GOD. Recently my friend and brother Bill Burns, an anointed servant of my LORD wrote about "DOCTRINE DEFINED" and the concept that THE DOCTRINE OF THE KINGDOM will come forth to oppose the Doctrines of Men and Demons that hold forth today. Already many "prophets" and "apostles" are rising up to the attack. Many who are doing so have long preached and prophesied about a coming "unity" of THE SPIRIT in the bond of peace. That is Ephesians 4:3. Yet here is Bill Burns calling for Ephesians 4:13 and the attacks are from all directions.

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: 14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: 16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

There are many voices talking about unity and gatherings.... yet when you hear with your spiritual ear it is not THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT speaking...it is man. So when THE CAPTAIN AGAIN SPOKE I again pondered.

For then I heard THE CAPTAIN say "BUT YOU ALWAYS KNOW WHICH SIDE THE CAVALRY IS ON...OR DO YOU?". It was another question that had no answer. I remembered DANCES WITH WOLVES.... LITTLE BIG MAN.... other movies where THE TRUTH.... to a degree.... did not fit the accepted "reality". And suddenly the reality I was in abruptly changed and I was watching MEL GIBSON ride up to a line of motley looking men in kilts.... and I was "watching again" the first battle scene in BRAVEHEART. Where one man dared to stand and to speak the TRUTH. Only that man did not look like our PRECONCEPTION of a hero.

For this hero wore a kilt, had long flying hair, and said the word "arse" with humor. With his face "painted" blue he stood and kept the "motley rabble" from running from the battle. Across from him was the line of shiny armored knights.... banners waving.... banners with crosses on them. Shields and breastplates with crosses emblazoned for the world to see exactly whose side GOD WAS ON....

But if that were TRUE.... then GOD was on the side of the invaders...the side of THE TYRANT.... the side that stole, raped, and murdered.... brother Christians....

So.... who are the GOOD GUYS...

Who is THE ENEMY?

Do we know who serves THE MOST HIGH GOD.... or who comes to lie, steal, and kill?

Old Business

Lois Karengin

I have recently had two experiences in my life that very clearly point to the fact that we need to make sure that old business is taken care of completely. This takes two forms. The first is doing things that we have left undone. Things like reconciliation with someone, forgiving a past hurt, fulfilling a promise, making a phone call, reaching out to a neighbor, repairing something that is broken, tuning up something that isn't working as well as it could be, buying something for a friend, sending that money. There are an endless number of little stirrings that we forget to act upon. Time robs us of doing the little things. The bigger more pressing needs always get our attention. God is in the big things but He is also a God of the little details. In Exodus 4:24-26, God sought to kill Moses because he had not circumcised his son. Moses had not fulfilled the sign of the covenant right on his first born. This seems like a small detail, but a person who is not circumcised was to be cut off from his people (Gen 17:14) The law of blessing and curses goes back one generation from the one it is pronounced on. (That is why Noah cursed Canaan to affect his son Ham, who had looked and laughed on Noah's nakedness. Gen 9:18-27) If Moses's son was not a part of the covenant and cut off from his people, how could God exalt Moses in front of all of Israel? The son had to be made part of the covenant for Moses to fulfill his own destiny. Moses could stand on all the promises God had given to him, but until he fulfilled all the conditions, they could not be made manifest. It was a matter of the life or death of Moses that the small detail be taken care of immediately. So it is today, it is the small details that don't always seem of a high priority that unlock the door of opportunity to a major change in the direction of our own life.

The second form of old business that trips us up if left unheeded is things that have been dealt with that we allow to remain; old sin that has been confessed that we still carry guilt or condemnation for, old wounds that we keep pulling the scab off instead of letting it heal, living in the past instead of the present, replaying the "Old moves" of God instead of being aware of what God is doing today. The past is just that - the past. We can look at it and learn from it. It provides valuable lessons that cannot be learned any other way. We need to deal with unfinished events, to bring them to completion. The past is not to be used to beat ourselves up with. If we have done wrong confess, repent, and move on. We may have to revisit old sins as we see new aspects of the sin. This will be a specific area not a general uneasiness. We treat the specific like any other sin and move on. A general feeling of uneasiness is usually a forerunner of an attack of guilt or condemnation we don't need. If an old wound is being "picked at" look for the lie the enemy has attached to it, seek God for the truth of the situation, move on. If we are looking back to "what was", look for the fear that stops you going forward. Find what God has to say about that fear, stand on His word, and face the present and the future. If you are looking to the "past moves of God" instead of tuned in to what He is doing now look at life and see if you are running away from God and find out why. We were never meant to live in the past. We are made in God's image, The "I am that I am."

Motives and attitudes have to be examined and adjusted consistently. I can clean a gas burner on a stove, which is a very good thing; but if I don't rinse the old soap off it will clog the burner and prevent it from functioning as it is meant to. It can even become a hazard, if the gas is turned on but the pilot light can not ignite the gas because old soap is blocking the holes. So it is with the moves of God. We will not be able to catch the new fire if the old soap is blocking the way.

Old Pot

David Howe

This is a Word I had back in November 1996 - This had a big impact on the fellowship I was in at the time because of what a visiting pastor was about to preach on.

I feel that giving this to the body now is right thing to do for it will speak into what many people are now going through.

I can see a pot - Its a misshapen pot that is scratched and damaged.

This pot is not much good for anything except to be thrown away onto the rubbish heap for the clay has become hard - old and brittle.

The damaged pot is being picked up and put onto a potters wheel.

I can see the potters hands sprinkling water onto the damaged pot to soften the hardened clay.

The water that the potter is using is not like ordinary water for ordinary water would not soften clay that has gone hard and brittle - The water the potter is using is living water.

This living water beginning to soften the pot to make the clay new again so that the potter can make a new pot out of the clay - The living water is making all things new.

I see the potter is now working on the now made new clay sprinkling more living water onto it as he does so.

A new and perfectly formed pot being made upon the wheel - A pot fit for the masters use - A pot ready to be filled with the very living water that the potter used to soften the old hard clay to bring life back to it.

This is what the Lord is going to do for his people - Do in this land that has for so long being hard against the Word of the Lord.

For the Lord would say unto you that I am going to make all things new in you - Make all things New in this land.

For the Lord is going to sprinkle his living water upon you - Upon this land to soften and make it ready for the masters hand to work on it - Just like that old pot.

For I am going to make all things new says the Lord.

Yes the Lord is making this land ready to pour out his spirit.

For this land shall once again be made fit for the masters use like the pot for I am a God of mercy.

For I will pick you up and make you into a pot ready for me to pour my Glory into you says the Lord - A pot fit for the masters use.

For the Glory of the Lord will cover the earth like the waters cover the sea.

On to Perfection

Doug Fortune

Perfection... that word makes most Christians cringe, it's a very uncomfortable word! Now before you start looking for rocks to stone me with after reading the title above, keep in mind I'm just quoting Heb.6:1 "...let us go on unto perfection..." (KJV). Actually, I prefer the Amplified Bible version, "Therefore let us go on...advancing steadily toward the completeness and perfection that belongs to spiritual maturity." Part of our aversion with that word lies in an inaccurate understanding of perfection. The Greek word used in Heb.6:1 is 'teleiotes'; it means 'a completer, consummator, finisher'... there you go, you probably feel better already. It comes from the word 'teleios' which means 'complete in various applications of labor, growth, mental and moral character, of full age, man' (as opposed to child). Now that you've heaved a sigh of relief, let's proceed! Paul is urging us in this passage to move on past the elementary into this maturity and completeness... now why would he do that? Eph.4:11-13 gives us the answer as it speaks of the five-fold ministries of Christ and the PURPOSE of these ministries; "...His intention (PURPOSE) was the PERFECTING of the saints... unto a PERFECT (teleios) man..." The recent restoration of the five fold with apostles and prophets is NOT so that we can have a nifty new hierarchy structure and change our title from Reverend to Apostle so we have a better self-image... the PURPOSE is to bring forth the PERFECT TELEIOS MAN, of which Christ is the Head and WE are the Body! Why does God have so much emphasis on this completed teleios MAN?... because "...it continues to rise into a holy temple in the Lord... you yourselves also are being BUILT UP (sounds like what the five fold does!) with the rest, to form a FIXED ABODE-dwelling place - of God in the Spirit..."(Eph 2:21-22). THAT is God's PURPOSE; to have a perfected and completed TELEIOS temple to dwell in!

Unfortunately the church has, for the most part, thought that God's ultimate PURPOSE in Christ was ATONEMENT and NOT perfection. If atonement was God's ultimate purpose, then the Old Covenant was sufficient for atonement with the blood sacrifices. Hebrews 7:11 tells us the reason a New Covenant was necessary; "Now if PERFECTION- that is a perfect fellowship between God and the worshipper- had been attainable by the Levitical priesthood, for under it the people here given the Law, why was it further necessary that there should arise another kind of Priest, one after the order of Melchizedek...?" Verse 19 goes on to say, "For the Law never made anything PERFECT, but instead a better hope is introduced...". Why is it a better hope?... because the work of Christ provides far more than atonement (forgiveness of sins), His provision is "...that we might arrive at really mature manhood - the completeness of personality which is nothing less than the standard height of Christ's own PERFECTION (teleios) - the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ, and the completeness found in Him"(Eph. 4:13). I often see a bumper sticker that says, 'Christians aren't perfect, just forgiven'... I do understand what that is trying to communicate, but at the same time I want to challenge an inaccurate mentality. It SHOULD read, 'Christians are forgiven AND being perfected!'. Unfortunately the first bumper sticker is a closer expression of Christianity today... for the most part Christians are NOT being perfected because we have been taught that atonement and nothing else was God's ultimate purpose in Christ.

Rom. 5:10 states it clearly, “For if while we were enemies we were RECONCILED to God through the DEATH of His Son, it is much MORE CERTAIN now that we are reconciled, that we SHALL BE SAVED through His resurrection LIFE...”. We have been taught that we were saved by His death when actually we are saved by His LIFE, living through us. We need to define salvation though, otherwise it brings confusion. “Therefore He is able also to SAVE to the uttermost - completely perfectly, finally and for all time and eternity - those who came to God through Him...”(Heb. 7:25); “...work out- cultivate, carry out to the goal and fully COMPLETE- your own salvation...”(Phil.2:12); “...salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed...”(Rom. 13:11). It would seem that the ‘salvation’ spoken of here differs from the spiritual transformation that happens instantaneously at our conversion. This ‘salvation’ comes from the Greek word ‘sozo’ which means ‘to deliver or protect, heal, preserve, make whole’. It would seem that this ‘working out’ of our salvation is the process of working out into the SOUL that which is already perfected in our SPIRIT... it has to do with the way we live. In fact if you read on in Rom.13 to verse 12 it says “Let us then drop-throw away - the works and deeds of darkness and put on the full armor of Light...”. It goes on to talk about lifestyle and then says “...clothe yourself with the Lord Jesus Christ...”, because He IS the armor of LIGHT, He IS our ‘salvation’ (not just our atonement) as He lives through us... Christ IS the perfect TELEIOS Man as He lives His perfect teleios Zoe Life through us!

In Gal.4:19 Paul speaks of “... again suffering birth pangs until Christ is completely and permanently formed - molded within you!”. THIS is the ‘salvation’ spoken of, that which Paul labored for “...that we may present every person mature - full grown, fully initiated, COMPLETE and PERFECT - in Christ...”(Col. 1:28).

God’s ultimate purpose is NOT just to give birth through the ATONEMENT provided by the DEATH of His Son, rather it is to bring us to PERFECTION, full SALVATION to the uttermost through the LIFE of Christ. This is the mystery hid for ages “...which is Christ WITHIN and AMONG YOU the hope of realizing the glory...”(Col. 1:27). This was God’s original intention when He said “...let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness...”(Gen 1:26) and it continues to be His intention as we become “...a FIXED ABODE - dwelling place- of God in the Spirit...”(Eph. 2:22). He is bringing forth a completed perfected temple and it is by the LIFE of Christ within us. Friends, let us go on to perfection!

Out of a job!

Doug Fortune

I want to work myself out of a job! I stated in an earlier writing that I believe my calling is that of an 'apostolic prophet' but my desire is to become obsolete in that calling... I'll explain...

'...He gave some to be apostles, some prophets... His intention was the PERFECTING of the saints, to do the work of ministering toward building up Christ's body, UNTIL we all attain oneness in the faith and in the comprehension of the full and accurate knowledge of the Son of God; that we might arrive at really mature manhood- the completeness of personality which is NOTHING LESS than the standard height of CHRIST'S OWN PERFECTION- the measure of the stature of the FULLNESS of the Christ, and the completeness found in Him...' (Eph.4:11-13 Amplified Bible). THAT'S where my desire is, that we enter into the FULLNESS of Christ, not to remain in the 'in-part' ministry of the five-fold. Don't get me wrong, I'm NOT saying we lay aside the emphasis of the five-fold, for THAT is part of what brings us to the FULLNESS. Rather, I'm saying that the restoration of the five-fold is not an end unto itself, but rather a means to bringing us to the Perfect Man, Christ embodied in the earth. There are many exciting things happening all over the earth... revivals, signs, wonders, miracles, a great release of the gifts of the Spirit... I am very thankful for all of this and have been impacted deeply by it. Let us keep in focus though that all this is really the 'earnest' (or down payment) of the Spirit, it is 'in-part' (we know in part, we prophesy in part)... the FULLNESS is yet coming! Let's don't get so wrapped up in the 'down payment' that we loose sight of the ultimate purposes of God, which is the Kingdom manifesting. I look forward to the day we will no longer need the gift of prophecy, when we will walk as Jesus walked- not in the 'gifts' but in the 'fullness'... when we will no longer need to exhort our brothers saying, 'know the Lord' for ALL shall know Him, from the smallest to the greatest. And I don't believe we can really walk in the 'fullness' of the FULLNESS as individuals, but rather as members of the BODY, fitly JOINED TOGETHER. We NEED each other! This is why 'networking' is so crucial... we are seeing apostolic 'joinings' happening everywhere, ministries 'joining' together in spirit and releasing a synergy that surpasses an individual anointing.

We really need each other in this time of transitioning from refreshing / revival to REFORMATION. I have always believed and still believe that spiritual 'power encounters' (like we're seeing in the current revival movements) are an important aspect of our being conformed into the image of Christ. I have seen many times, even in my own life, where a genuine 'power encounter' has not led to a lasting change, although they certainly can and sometimes do. This is where REFORMATION comes in... the systematic, sometimes uneventful pulling down of strongholds of thought and doctrines that are inaccurate in the ultimate purposes of God. This is the strength of the Apostle... laying accurate foundations upon which the Kingdom advances with God's ultimate purposes in mind. I would rather see a person being quietly reformed to manifest the FULLNESS of Christ by the pulling down of inaccurate religious strongholds than the person who is in the excitement of revival... I'm NOT saying that both cannot happen simultaneously either, it is just my observation that it too often does not. Revival is a step on the way to Restoration... in our journey, let's not forget our destination which is CHRIST IN US the hope of glory... Christ embodied in the earth in the many-membered MAN of whom Jesus is the Head and WE are the Body. Let us move TOGETHER toward God's ultimate purposes as the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

Our Reactions to Death

Richard Chiammaichella

8-10-00

This is something that has been heavy on my heart for a long time now.

Physical death of Christians.

Lately, it seems that our brothers and sisters are dying one way or another. They are dying from sickness or martyrdom. We seem to get very disturbed, depressed, and upset when this happens.

Please do not get me wrong, I am not being morbid or apathetic or callous. I care very much, but being a Christian, death means something else to me, and I am very surprised that others do not have this meaning.

But Jesus had a different view of death. Lately a lot of our elderly family members are dying, or our Christian leaders are dying. When this happens here is what the Lord says to me.

John 12:23 Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. [24] I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. [25] The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. [26] Whoever serves Me must follow Me; and where I am, My servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves Me.

JN 12:27 "Now My heart is troubled, and what shall I say? `Father, save Me from this hour'? No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour.

[28] Father, glorify Your Name!" Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and will glorify it again." [29] The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to Him.

JN 12:30 Jesus said, "This voice was for your benefit, not Mine. [31] Now is the time for judgement on this world; now the prince of this world will be driven out. [32] But I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself." [33] He said this to show the kind of death He was going to die."

Again He is very strongly feel that death is necessary.

"Mark 8:31 He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that He must be killed and after three days rise again. [32] He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

MK 8:33 But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, He rebuked Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" He said. "You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

MK 8:34 Then He called the crowd to Him along with His disciples and said: "If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.

[35] For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me and for the gospel will save it. [36] What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? [37] Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? [38] If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels."

MK 9:1 And He said to them, "I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power."

Death is not an evil or bad thing to Jesus; it is the glory of God. To die is to go home. To die is to be out of this corrupt body and be transformed in to the Lord's spiritual body.

Like Paul says in Phillipians 1:20

"Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,
[19] for I know that through your prayers and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.
[20] I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.
[21] For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.
[22] If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!
[23] I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far;
[24] but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.
[25] Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,
[26] so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me."

Philippians 3:17 "Join with others in following my example, brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you.
[18] For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.
[19] Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things.
[20] But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, [21] who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under His control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body."

The Lord's point of view of death shows here what is really important in Matthew 10:26. "So do not be afraid of them. There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.
[27] What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs.
[28] Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell.
[29] Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from the will of your Father.
[30] And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
[31] So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows."

or

REV 20:11 "Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them.
[12] And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books.
[13] The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done.
[14] Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death.
[15] If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

The second death is the one to fear, not the physical death.

John 5:24 "I tell you the truth, whoever hears My word and believes Him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life.
[25] I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live.
[26] For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have life in Himself.
[27] And He has given Him authority to judge because He is the Son of Man.

John 5:28 "Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice [29] and come out--those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.

[30] By Myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and My judgment is just, for I seek not to please Myself but Him who sent Me."

Many think that death will hold a lot of suffering. But with Jesus as our Lord He ensures that we do not suffer, as in Acts 7:59

"While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." [60] Then he fell on his knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he fell asleep."

To the Lord physical death is sleep.

See John 11:11

"After He had said this, He went on to tell them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up."

JN 11:12 His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better."

[13] Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.
JN 11:14 So then He told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, [15] and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

JN 11:16 Then Thomas (called Didymus) said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

JN 11:17 On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.
[18] Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem,
[19] and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother.
[20] When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet Him, but Mary stayed at home.

JN 11:21 "Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died.
[22] But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask."

JN 11:23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."
JN 11:24 Martha answered, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."
JN 11:25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies;

[26] and whoever lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"

JN 11:27 "Yes, Lord," she told him, "I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world."

So the full truth is that He holds the keys to live and death.

"REV 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last.
[18] I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades."

WE need to TRUST the Lord.

John 16:31 "You believe at last!" Jesus answered.
[32] "But a time is coming, and has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me.

[33] "I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

So These things must come to pass before the Lord returns.

- LK 21:12 "But before all this, they will lay hands on you and persecute you. They will deliver you to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors, and all on account of my name.
- [13] This will result in your being witnesses to them.
- [14] But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves.
- [15] For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict.
- [16] You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death.
- [17] All men will hate you because of me.
- [18] But not a hair of your head will perish.
- [19] By standing firm you will gain life..

This is the real warning for Christians.

- Luke 21:34 "Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap.
- [35] For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth.
- [36] Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man."

AND

- Matthew 24:42 "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.
- [43] But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into.
- [44] So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

- MT 24:45 "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time?
- [46] It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns.
- [47] I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.
- [48] But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time,'
- [49] and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards.
- [50] The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of.
- [51] He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

- MT 25:1 "At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
- [2] Five of them were foolish and five were wise.
- [3] The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them.
- [4] The wise, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps.
- [5] The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

- MT 25:6 "At midnight the cry rang out: 'Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!'
- MT 25:7 "Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.

- [8] The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.'
- MT 25:9 " 'No,' they replied, 'there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.'
- MT 25:10 "But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.
- MT 25:11 "Later the others also came. 'Sir! Sir!' they said. 'Open the door for us!'
- MT 25:12 "But he replied, 'I tell you the truth, I don't know you.'
- MT 25:13 "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

So we must be wise Children of God who watch and are prepared. Here is what we need to pray for our brothers and sisters. This is to ensure that they do not fall into the second death.

As Paul says in Ephesians 5:15

"Be very careful, then, how you live--not as unwise but as wise, [16] making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.
[17] Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.
[18] Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit.
[19] Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, [20] always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

But rather that the Lord would have us pray for the ones who are doing the killing. We need to pray for their salvation. They are the ones who have a greater chance of going through the second death and really die. If we prayed and saved all those doing the killing, then the killing will stop. I am not saying that we should not pray for those brothers and sisters that are being killed, but they are saved. Jesus came to save the sinner not one who is already saved.

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.
[17] For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him.
[18] Whoever believes in Him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because He has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.
[19] This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of Light because their deeds were evil.
[20] Everyone who does evil hates the Light, and will not come into the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.
[21] But whoever lives by the truth comes into the Light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God."

So we need to have prayer groups and prayer time for the sinners.

We need to turn on the Light and not spend time driving out the dark. Evil will leave when we turn on Jesus the Light of the world.

God bless you and your family

Order is Coming

Brett Hofstee

Blessed Children of the Father, and brothers and sisters to the King of kings, and Lord of lords, our savior Jesus Christ, Hold onto the rock for the Lord is about to tear down the kingdoms of this world with the revelation of who our Father is. It will be like a great earthquake inside of us, but it is the only way the Father can set His children's minds (crystal sea) free. Every last one of His children is going to be shook, and for anyone of us to think we are not is complete and total arrogance. Brothers and sisters, this is not doom and gloom. But this is the truth and the truth is what will set us free. Don't mistake a God given repentant heart for someone who is trying to lay condemnation on you with the bondage of works. Isaiah 64:6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousness are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. Without a repentant heart there will never be a true reverence for His holiness.

Once the truth begins to clear our mind, then we can begin to see the throne of God (our heart), and begin to see the idolatry in us, and idolatry is in us all. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. We shall see God if we choose to be judged by fire, and not run from it. The darkness hidden in us will try to tell us to run from it, and tell us that we don't have to go through the fire (Baptism of Repentance). There is no other route into the kingdom of God. It will be painful to see ourselves as we are. It will cause us to be undone as Isaiah was (Isaiah 6:5). When we are undone, our kingdom toppled within us, then the Lord can begin to rebuild His eternal kingdom within us, that has been hidden from us due to our rebellion.

If anyone thinks they are going to hold onto their so-called ministries, they are full of self. The mutual admiration society (man pleasers) will come to an end. No longer will God allow men to praise each other. We will begin to prefer each other in love. No flesh will be glorified. The way things look today will be totally different very soon. No longer will He strive with man and man glorifying himself in front of man. His will, will be done in earth as it is in heaven. We, His children, are heaven, we are His building blocks to His eternal kingdom. Once we, His children (heaven) are purified in mind (crystal sea) and heart (the throne of God) by a great earthquake in the mind (the spirit of judgment), and fire for the heart (the spirit of burning) we shall bring heaven to this earth. My ministry (self) will be a thing of the past, and the ministry and testimony of our precious Lord Jesus Christ will reside in us. Jesus' ministry is to be a servant to all. God's authority is not the same as this world's authority where people want to lord over one another.

We have none of the Father's compassion for the poor, the sick and broken hearted, the drug addicted, prostitutes and homosexuals because of the wicked self that is in us, and self righteousness (pride), the same spirit that resided in the Pharisees. We cannot bring healing to these people when we think we are better than they are. We are a wicked generation. Lord, please rescue us from ourselves.

Our God has His perfect order coming to this earth. Man and woman have been walking out of order. Man has abused his authority and woman has tried to usurp man's authority. Both man and woman are wicked. God's men are effeminate. God's women are controlling and have Jezebel in them, especially in this country. Instead of us (man) being lions, we have become cowards (effeminate). We worship and lust after the apple of the Lord's eye (woman) just as Adam did. Women, instead of rejecting man's worship, demand it. Wake up mighty men of war and gird up your loins and walk in a pure authority, for a bloody war is upon us. Wake up beautiful daughter of Zion and bring forth the beautiful praise and worship that shall topple the giants in the land. The manifest sons of God are going to be the covering of the daughters of Zion. Effeminate and Jezebel you are done, saith the Lord.

I Corinthians 6:9 Know ye not that the unrighteousness shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor [effeminate], nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

I Corinthians 11:7-9 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

Lamentations 2:18 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

Revelations 2:18-24 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass; I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first. Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works. But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

Brothers and sisters, head my warning. Our God's order is coming to this earth and not one thing will be out of place. It will be more glorious than any place we can imagine once the sons and daughters are purified. Lord, please help us not to reject your order.

Order In The Homes

Ching Co

ching@gsilink.com

February 21, 2000

In the past few days, every time that I prepared and geared myself for intercession, I will hear these words being whispered softly behind my ears. "My child, get ready for it's pay back time." Immediately I can sense excitement welling inside of me. I waited for more directions as I desired to be more specific as I pray. I longed to see more clearly what specific area is ripe for reaping so that I can know for certainty what I'm claiming forth.

GOD IS RESTORING ORDER IN THE HOMES

After sometime of waiting. The Lord showed me the first vision. He is about to restore the order in the homes. The enemy has been seeking to destroy the structure of the family by DISTORTING the order of the family. This means that in the past generations, he has been seeking to CONFUSE THE ROLE OF MEN AND WOMEN. Through movements arising from various lobby groups and even from the laws decreed by government, it has sought to destroy the HEADSHIP OF MEN IN THE HOME. And in some degree the enemy has succeeded and we have seen a manifestation of the JEZEBEL AND AHAB SYNDROME now present in many homes even in Christian homes. We see that women are taking over many roles which have been originally assigned to men , and we see many men voluntarily surrendering their birthright to women. Resulting from this distortion has been curses upon the homes overtaking everyone without excuse for in uncertain ways by "sleeping with the enemy", we have turned over the keys of many homes to him.

BUT ALL THIS IS GOING TO CHANGE SOON. THE FATHER IS RELEASING AN ANOINTING THAT WILL BREAK THE YOKE OF THE STRONGMEN UPON THE HOMES. ORDER WILL SOON BE RESTORED TO THE FAMILY AND HOMES. AS THIS ANOINTING SWEEP THROUGH THE NATIONS, WE WILL BEGAN TO SEE A GREAT NUMBER OF MEN FALL UNDER THIS ANOINTING AND WHEN THEY RISE UP, THEY WILL FOREVER BE CHANGED. GOD WILL GIVE THEM A NEW HEART AND A NEW MIND, AND ALL THINGS WILL BECOME CLEAR TO THEM. THEIR CALL, THEIR ROLE AND THEY WILL VERY QUICKLY RISE UP TO TAKE THEIR PLACES IN THE HOMES AND IN THE COMMUNITY WHERE GOD HAS PLACED THEM.

Intercessors arise, the Lord is giving us an order to began proclaiming and declaring these truths. As you pray for your churches and fellowships, the Lord will began to show you faces of men (married or single, young or old) as we see these faces, we are to call them forth by names. God is calling forth for His men of valor and He is releasing new life unto them.

The Lord showed me a second vision. In that vision I saw soldiers in full armor and they were standing in one perfect circle. This army was glowing and I knew that they are heavenly messengers that the Lord has sent forth for His people. They were surrounding the earth and like a wall they protected those inside the circle. Then, when I look outside I can see many demons and unclean spirits and even principalities with crowns on their heads with the names of nations written on them and they were all outside gnashing and caught by the suddenlies of what has taken place.

Inside the circle, I began seeing men and women whom I knew are intercessors and suddenly a great sounds began to emanates from them. What I see was like a scene from a trading floor of the stock exchanges where traders are shouting back and forth and there is such a great commotion and fury of activities taking place. The whole place just come alive and there was such an excitement. As these intercessors began speaking, I also saw that there were heavenly hosts hovering over them like waiting to take their order. When I listen closely, I heard names being called, cities being called, nations being called, families being called, and with each call the heavenly hosts were very quick to respond.

THE FATHER'S WORD

Wake up my people, rise up from the dust where the enemy has trampled you down. For it's definitely pay back time. One of you will route a thousand, five of you ten thousands. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decisions. Call them forth my precious ones for they are ready to be brought in.

Order , order is falling unto your midst. What I've planned since the beginning of time will surely be made manifested in your midst. I have set a line that the enemy cannot cross over. I've assigned my army to guard that line. There is a wall of fire surrounding the earth. For I will allow the whole world to see the unveiling of my heart and my intent in the midst of my people. For the first time since the foundation of the world, there will be a manifestation of the clarity of my purpose and design. The blueprint of my heart will be made clear to everyone to see. Not only will they see it, they will experience it taking form in their very midst.

Rise up sons of thunder, I decree this day that you will take your places in me. No longer will you be trampled asunder. Rise up my beloved daughter to the warmth and security of your places in me. No longer will you have to labor and toil but you will feel the warmth of the security that I've longed for you to enjoy and experience and you will blossom in the gardens where I've planted you. Rise up my children for you will be able to behold for the first time the beauty of what I've prepared for you. You will see the fullness and experience the guidance and support and love which has been deprived to many of you.

Wholeness is coming. Wholeness is what I will bring to your midst. I've been working individually in many of your lives. Now, I am bringing it all together. I am calling forth for family, I am restoring homes, I will repair societies. I am setting firmly all the structures and foundations that have been destroyed through the generations.

This day a proclamation has been signed, I declare that Jezebel has been cast down from her throne. No longer will she control and make Ahabs of my men. Her reign of terror is over. Her lies will be exposed, her deceit and her schemes will be uncovered and they will become clear for all people to see.

Rejoice , rejoice for a new season of birthing and growth is coming upon you. The sound of great uproars is spreading over the whole earth as my proclamation is being spread back and forth like flashes of lightning.

A new day is dawning, it has come, soon you will all see it and taste it and know it and experience it and feel it. And you will come running to me and you will bow down before me and the whole earth will know and see of my glory.

Open The Eyes Of Our Hearts Lord

The LORDS Judges

Teresa Daly-Crews

Open The Eyes Of Our Hearts Lord

Teresa Daly-Crews

While waiting on the Lord today I heard one word. It was dissimulation. According to the Webster's 1828 the definition is as follows.

DISSIMULATION, n. [L., to make like; like.] The act of dissembling; a hiding under a false appearance; a feigning; false pretension; hypocrisy. Dissimulation may be simply concealment of the opinions, sentiments or purpose; but it includes also the assuming of a false or counterfeit appearance, which conceals the real opinions or purpose.

Dissimulation is hypocrisy. No one ever wants to think they have been walking a walk that is less than perfect. But we must face it, we ALL have done it at some time or another. Generally we as Believers have looked at others judging whether we feel others are living a pure life, when in fact this practice of fault finding places us in the category of hypocrisy. The Lord is NOT HAPPY with the way so many in the Body are fault finding and finger pointing when they themselves have hidden evil in their own hearts.

We cannot afford to waste any more time defending our "personal rights" to debate over our opinion of who is right and wrong. There is not one among us who is perfect. We must throw ourselves down at the feet of the Lord and ask forgiveness for us a people. We have profaned the sanctuary of God not separating the holy from the common.

I am including the definitions of hypocrisy and feigning in this post so that we all may know the true meaning of the word. Read each word with an open heart and mind to the direction of the Spirit of God. Allow Him to reveal any hidden areas of your walk so that you may lay it upon the alter with a repentant heart. This feigned condition is common to everyone in the Body and for us to be whole we must pray for healing as a WHOLE, starting with the HEART. If you say "not I" your own heart deceives you, for there is not one of us who is perfect as of yet.

HYPOCRISY, n. [L. hypocrisis; Gr. simulation; to feign; to separate, discern or judge.] 1. Simulation; a feigning to be what one is not; or dissimulation, a concealment of one's real character or motives. More generally, hypocrisy is simulation, or the assuming of a false appearance of virtue or religion; a deceitful show of a good character, in morals or religion; a counterfeiting of religion. Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. Luke 12. 2. Simulation; deceitful appearance; false pretense. Hypocrisy is the necessary burden of villainy.

HYPOCRITE, n. 1. One who feigns to be what he is not; one who has the form of godliness without the power, or who assumes an appearance of piety and virtue, when he is destitute of true religion. 2. A dissembler; one who assumes a false appearance.

FEIGN, v.t. fane. [L. fingo. The Latin forms fictum, fictus, whence figura, figure, also fucus.] 1. To invent or imagine; to form an idea or conception of something not real. There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. Neh. 6. 2. To make a show of; to pretend; to assume a false appearance; to counterfeit. 3. To represent falsely; to pretend; to form and relate a fictitious tale. 4. To dissemble; to conceal. Obs.

As I write this message for the Body, I feel such urgency in the spirit. We are being warned by the Spirit of God to stop lying to ourselves and to Him. If we will SEEK HIS FACE and place our shortcomings upon God's altar, He will change us.

The LORDS Judges

Teresa Daly-Crews

The Lord is establishing HIS Judges in the land. Do not be surprised at who these individuals are as they will be those who have been LEAST esteemed in the Body of Christ. They will possess wisdom and knowledge that could have only been given by the Spirit of God. Watch for them, as the Father HIMSELF is establishing them.

[Joel 2:11-18] And the Lord shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: ..... Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach...."

On the Subject of Apostles

Meri Burlingame

Apostles along with the other Eph 4 equipping ministries are CALLED. They aren't trained, they aren't chosen, they don't qualify. They are called. They can be trained for ministry, they can be trained to fill "roles", but the calling is not subject to training or education.

The best we can do is to help people learn "what the call is" and what their own role in relationship to that call (dying of course) will be, and how essential the development of character is to the fulfilling of the calling of God.

The anointing of God relates to the pressing out of the oil, and like the ingredients in the anointing oil, the five fold ministry comes to it's own through the process of being pressed out.

One doesn't arrive, one grows, and one can grow with character or without character. And the character that an apostle or prophet has today may be different, hopefully better, tomorrow, if they are growing in the Lord, dying daily.

Prophets and Apostles don't "qualify" for their call, they were qualified by the Lord Jesus Christ, but working out that call, walking in that sanctification, letting God be in us who He is, those things are worked out. We grow in them, and face it, both prophets and apostles carry heavy weight of authority and power, and yet both will always be found to have clay feet, sooner or later, mixed motives, see things "wrong."

The question is how we will respond when the "mighty apostles" are found to be human beings of frail nature just like us, yet bearers of awesome power and authority, This will be the test of our own character and ministries.

IF we thought the prophetic had troubles with pastoral leadership, wait until you see the problems the apostolic have with the prophetic as they go through this process of growing up, balancing this awesome power and near absolute authority with the servanthood that they are called to.

Prophetic ministers, be prepared to call your fellow prophets into the most intense times of intercession that you have ever known on behalf of apostolic leadership. They are forerunners, and there is no "pattern", just the revealed Word of the Lord, there's no way to go from point A to point B except through death, and you just might be the stone which they step on between those two points, and if you be dead, then it will be your "privilege" to so be stepped on!

Ministering Out of Our Lack

Jim Rinker

Mark 12:41

And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called [unto him] his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all [they] did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, [even] all her living.

The sweetest offering that we could possibly give unto the Lord is ministry out of our lack. This is what is referred to as the "sacrifice" of our praises. How easy is it to minister to other people when we from our abundance offer to them what we have. And so often we try and offer from our abundance when others do not need what we are abundant in. But how much more difficult is it to try and give another person from that area of our lives were we lack?

It is relatively easy to give a prophetic word of blessing to another when we our self have received an abundance of these words. But how much more of a sacrifice is it to give when we ourselves have never been allowed to receive an abundance of words of comfort or blessing yet we in turn are able to give them from our lack? It is relatively easy to minister to another couple and bless them when you yourself have a loving and caring companion. But how much more of a sacrifice is it to minister when you yourself lack a loving and caring relationship with your spouse and minister to those who many times have an abundance of this very thing in their lives? Or how easy it is to bless another ministry financially when we ourselves have received an abundance of monetary blessing but how much more of a sacrifice is it to bless another ministry when we ourselves have had a lack financially and the Lord has not allowed us to be blessed in this way?

Philippians 3:10

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the FELLOWSHIP OF HIS SUFFERINGS, being made conformable unto his death

To be completely dependant on Jesus means it is an impossibility for ourselves to bring whatever the Lord has called us to bring forth to come to pass. To fellowship with Him means to suffer with Him and be completely dependant on the father for all things just as He was. God had to bring Abraham past the age of fertility and make it impossible in the flesh for the promise of Isaac to come about. Then and only then could the Lord truly receive glory for bringing about the promise. Many are watching their life pass by thinking the Lord will not use them when in reality He is seeking to first make His promises UNABLE to come to pass in the flesh that in the Spirit He may then be able to birth them. This is the PATIENCE of the saints! What is said about Abraham?

Hebrews 6:15

And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

Do you feel empty in certain areas of your life? Are you weak as I am weak? Then you and I are perfectly positioned to completely lean on our beloved to allow His strength to flow through us.

2 Corinthians 12:

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

How easy it is to give from our abundance. And how dependant on His strength are we when we give out our abundance? But Paul teaches us here that His strength is made PERFECT (complete, mature) in us through weakness. How much more do we have to lean on our beloved to give others that which we lack. I would have to say TOTALLY AND COMPLETELY!

{As a side note then SPIRITUAL MATURITY or PERFECTION is not based on what we POSSESS or how "anointed" or "gifted" we are but rather on how DEPENDANT we have become on Jesus to supply our every need (weakness)}

John 15:2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every [branch] that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Every branch that bears fruit He PURGES that it may bring forth more fruit. Many of us have been given much in a certain area of our lives. That "abundance" (spiritual gifting) served to raise us up to a certain spiritual level of maturity. It was never meant to be PERMANENT in our lives but only served as a "schoolmaster" to bring us to a certain place. Many are now being called to lay down on the altar those things that were TEMPORAL (be purged) that we may bear more fruit. The Lord is calling many of us to lay down our Isaac's on the altar, those things that "seemed" to be necessary for us to complete the race or climb the mountain or see the promises fulfilled in our lives that He may now do a work in us that we are unable to complete.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Charity never faileth: but whether [there be] prophecies, they shall fail; whether [there be] tongues, they shall cease; whether [there be] knowledge, it shall vanish away. 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

Love (fruit of the spirit) never fails! This is the "fruit that will remain". But were there is prophecy (the greatest of the gifts of the spirit thus representing all of the gifts of the spirit by analogy) it will cease. Many of us are STRONG in the anointing and gifting but WEAK in patience and forbearance (fruit of the spirit). That which we "thought" was necessary really wasn't but was put in place in our lives to bring us to the point (raise us up) so we would be able to receive the greater. John the Baptist (being a prophet he represents the gifts of the Spirit) paved the way for Jesus (represents the kingdom or fruit of the Spirit, nature and character of God).

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

The powerful prophetic anointing likewise only prepares the way for the nature and character of Christ to be formed in us. Then after it has served it's purpose it ceases, it is purged away. John's ministry only lasted six months, Jesus ministry is eternal. Jesus is coming back to reap FRUIT, not gifts! Paul speaks of the gifts by analogy in 1 Corinthians 13 as "childish things" in comparison to the fruit of the spirit being formed in him. When he became a man he put away the childish things that were milk in his life (yes necessary for his growth in his youth but no longer of use in maturity).

Many of us are abundant in certain areas of our lives. Our natural tendency is to minister from our strength but the Lord is coming to many of us and "confounding" our natural minds. He is calling us to count those things as dung (worthless) and calling us to FULL MATURITY in which we minister and offer up sacrifices unto the Lord from those areas that which we are lacking and weak in. He is calling on us to be completely dependant on Him to minister from those areas in which we lack. He is coming to a fruitful tree near you to purge it that it may bring forth more fruit that from our weakness we may come into full maturity being totally dependant on the Lord to minister from that which we lack.

Our Lives a Legacy unto God

Roseanne G. Harney

I am seeing an old cabin in the woods. The wood that was used to build the cabin is parched and dry and very old. The front steps have holes in the floor and there are weeds and flowers growing up through the holes. But I can see the sun streaming through the trees and I can feel the warmth.

For what had once been a beautiful home years before was now a home that had clearly been abandoned. I can see a covered front porch and old wicker chairs. Also an old chair attached to the ceiling can be seen. The breeze was slight as I watched the chair swaying back and forth. I can also smell the sweetness of clover and feel great peace.

I heard the words; great love and compassion for one another were seen throughout this home. It was during the time of building that the right foundations were laid. Of coming together before me in prayer that enabled them to build a solid home that withstood the storms of life.

The Spirit of God showed me that what remains when we die: Is a legacy unto Him that speaks to future generations.

While we live and breathe and walk this earth we are his representatives and his ambassadors. The actions that we take and the words that we speak touch lives for the Kingdom of God. Sharing His Word and giving His love will cause many to hunger for his presence and find his Grace to receive Salvation. The strength seen through his children that know Him and understand his goodness that testifies of His great love for us that believe in Him- (Psalms 136) His love endures forever.

By praising Him and giving Him thanks He will dwell within the walls of the cities and in the midst of His people. God will bring security to the places where the walls have fallen. He will bring strength to those that are weak and have fear of the enemy. God will sustain those who cry out for His righteousness and they will begin to know the Love of the Father that rebuilds the walls that have been torn down through the storms of life.

For our destiny's must be to do the will of the Father in heaven and not our own. (Matthew 7:21) "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven."

It is only through hearing His Words and putting them into practice, by pressing in through prayer and giving Him praises that they be able to stand on the rock. For the test of the rains and deep waters will come, in that day will you be ready?

(Matthew 7:24-27) "Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

Remember, that Christ is over God's house and that we are his house, if we hold on to our courage and the hope of which we boast. (Hebrews 3:3)

Overcomers

Kerry W. Knorr

Overcomers

God wants us to be overcomers. He takes a great deal of joy in our overcoming. He has not designed our lives in a way that calls for his rescue of us out of each set of circumstances. He called us to overcome the world. He did what was necessary for a once and for all deliverance from the penalty for sin which is death. Why would we bother Him with our petty daily troubles? He provided the power and authority to us to walk through our own lives with the same kinds of miraculous results that Jesus walked in. Frankly, He said we would do greater things than He did. (Jn 14:12)

I want to express an attitude here. We have not been called to an impossible task! We have not been told to do something that is an accomplishment that will escape us. We must realize that God has empowered us to walk in victory, and miracles are the evidence of that victory! We are called to walk in a new nature, the very nature of God. We can do nothing in our own power, but we can do all things through Him who strengthens us. (Phil 4:13) Again, "we are more than conquerors through him who loved us" (Rm 8:37). Once more in I Cor. 15:57, we are told: "... He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." "Death has been swallowed up in victory" (I Cor. 15:54)

The following passages use a form of the verb 'nikao' or the noun 'nike' in the Greek. 'Nike' means victory. 'Nikao' means: to overcome; to conquer; to overpower; to triumph; to prevail; to be victorious. [Nike poieo - just do the victory!]

Jn 16:33 "I have overcome the world".

Jesus had been teaching the disciples, trying to clue them in to the fact that his crucifixion might look like a bad thing, but in it is veiled a huge victory. (Jn 16:17-33) He explains to them that they can ask the Father directly for anything in his name. He says: "Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be made complete". (vs 24). The blank check has been signed by the Christ, and it will be honored by the Father.

In Acts 3:12-16 Peter says: "...why does this (the healing of the beggar) surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed him over to be killed, and you disowned him before Pilot, though he had decided to let him go. You disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. You killed the author of Life but God raised him from the dead. We are witnesses of this. By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has given this complete healing to him, as you can all see."

We are fooling ourselves if we want to believe that Jesus has placed us in a position of complete immunity from the world. He wants us to overcome the world. He said in Mt 10:34-39 "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to turn: 'a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter in law against her mother in law, a man's enemies will be the members of his own household'. Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and anyone who does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Who ever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

Let's stop here and notice that Jesus spoke of taking up a cross and following him, long before the cross was considered as the form of execution he would suffer!

Rm. 12:21 "do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good"

When the rest of the believers heard the report of Peter and John about their meeting (inquisition) with the Sanhedrin, they rose in unity and prayed (Acts 4:24-31): "...Sovereign Lord ... you made Heaven and earth and the sea and everything in them. You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David: 'Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord, against his Anointed One. Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed. They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen. Now Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. Stretch out your hand to heal and perform miraculous signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

"Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each another so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective." Jms.5:16

Get this: "After they had prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly." They had an overcoming experience! You see, they did not pray against their enemies, they prayed for boldness for themselves and prayed for healing and other signs. The Romans 12 reference is one of living as sacrifices, of being transformed by the renewing of your mind, of thinking in the measure of faith that has been given. Paul outlines gifts of the Holy Spirit and then talks about love. He says to love one another, but more than that, he reiterates that mysterious love for our enemies that Jesus talked about in Matthew 5:38-47. Jesus' final comment in that passage was "Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect." Wow!

1Jn 2:13&14 "you have overcome the evil one" 1Jn 4:4 "You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world." 1Jn 5:4&5 "And his commands are not burdensome, for everyone born of God has overcome the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world? Only he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God."

In all of John's writings, he clearly had a grasp on love, and what it is. He had a higher appreciation of what that love means than any other biblical writer, and constantly marveled that he was loved by God, he referred to himself as the "one Jesus loved" (Jn 13:23). It's an awareness of that intimate relationship with God that empowers us. 1 John 5:1-5 summarizes some thoughts for us here. Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and so is everyone loves the Father. Children of God are evidenced by their love for God and their obedience to him. Everyone who is born of God has overcome the world, those that believe that Jesus is the Son of God, have overcome the world.

Paul, in his letter to Colossians (Ch. 3, vs 3&4) said: "For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory."

Overcoming Evil With Good

Mike Forest

"Be not overcome with evil, but overcome evil with good." (Romans 12:21).

The normal Christian life should be a victorious life because the greater One has taken up residence within the believer. "Ye are of God little children, and have overcome them: because greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world." (1John 4:4).

The Christian is a overcomer not through struggling and striving against sin, but by his very nature. "For whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world." (1John 5:4). The born again child of God should not see himself as being the defeated that is striving to overcome and to live a life of victory. In reality the Christian is a victorious one by virtue of the fact that he is born of God, and the enemy is working relentlessly to bring us to a place of defeat and discouragement. It is a matter of perspective, and the view is much better when we are viewing things from His vantage point, seated together with Him in heavenly places.

I lived in Romans 7 for many years as a Christian. I knew the truths concerning who I was in Christ, but these truths were not a reality in my life. The turning point for me came about when I saw the truths concerning the cross of Christ, and the victorious life that was in and through our Lord Jesus Christ. When I saw that my old sin nature had already been put to death, that our Lord's death was my death, because we are in Him. Now He has come to dwell within us in the Person of the Holy Spirit, and now overcoming is a matter of abiding in Him and having Him as my victory over all of the forces of evil.

The nature of God always overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil. Light always overcomes darkness. Life always overcomes death. Good always overcomes evil. The Spirit always overcomes the flesh, because Jesus always overcomes the evil one.

The Word of God says to "walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfil the lust of the flesh." The positive (walking in the Spirit) always overcomes the negative (fulfilling the lusts of the flesh). The way to overcome the lusts of the flesh is not by continuous striving against the flesh, but by the development of the fruit of the Spirit in our lives. "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such is no law." (Galatians 5:22,23) The fruit of the Spirit is the divine nature that we have been made partakers of. Every one of these fruits must be developed, and to the degree that we abide in Christ and have His Word dwelling within us will be the degree that we are bearing fruit. Little abiding and little Word means little fruit. A deep abiding fellowship with "The Vine" and "His Word" means much fruit in both quantity and quality. There is a fruit of the Spirit that will counteract and overcome every work of the flesh.

The two great commandments that Jesus gave us to live by are "Thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. And, "Thou shall love thy neighbour as thyself." (Matt.22:37-39). If we are walking in love towards God and our neighbor then we will not sin against God or our neighbour. Walking in the Spirit means that we are allowing the Holy Spirit through our spirit to have dominion and control over our soul and body. Walking in the Spirit is allowing Christ to live His life in us and through us. Just as it is impossible for our Lord to sin, it is equally impossible for the believer to live and walk in the Spirit to sin. I didn't say that it was impossible for the believer to sin, but it is impossible for us to sin and walk in the Spirit at the same time. It would be impossible to walk in light and darkness at the same time. It would be just as impossible to walk in love and envy at the same time, because love envies not. It would be impossible to walk in fear and in love at the same time because "there is no fear in love: but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has torment." (1John 4:18).

The Word of God does tell us that if we resist the devil then he will flee, but we must give heed to the preceding verse or we will not have any power or authority to resist the devil with. The verse that proceeds "resist the devil and he will flee" is "submit yourselves therefore to God." The devil is not going to flee from us if there are areas in our life that are not surrendered to God. Repentance and surrender to God removes the legal ground that the enemy has to any area of our lives. The enemy can only work in the uncrucified areas of our lives that are kept in darkness. Confession of sin is bringing the sin out into the light where the blood of Jesus can cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Don't ever think that the world, the flesh, and the devil are any match for the child of God that is abiding in Christ and has made Jesus Christ Lord of every area of his life. It is true that in ourselves we are no match for the enemies power, but the good news is that we are not in ourselves, but we have died and our lives are now hid with Christ in God.

Pray for The Peace Of Jerusalem!

Bobby Conner

Saturday October 7, 2000

We are instructed in Psalms 122:6-9 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May they prosper who love you. Peace be within your walls, prosperity within your palaces." For the sake of my brethren and companions, I will now say, "Peace be within you." Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek your good.

The Church must rise up and pray. This is a very crucial, and critical time in Israel's history. We must cry-out, interceding seeking God to intervene for the peace of Jerusalem. We cannot be silent, our cry must come up before our Father. Asking the Lord to intervene. Never will mankind produce a lasting peace. The peace that will come will not be negotiated, it will not be brought about by the pen of the political, but from the prayers of the Saints. The promise is clear... "Call unto me and I will answer you and show you great and mighty things that you have not idea about.(Jer. 33:3).

In Psalm 137:5-6 we discover how serious the Lord is about our call to pray for Jerusalem. Hear these warnings. .... "If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill! If I do not remember you, let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth-- if I do not exalt Jerusalem above my chief joy". It is imperative that as pray, now during this is pivotal time, during these dangerous days. Do not take this situation lightly. There are forces at work here that seek the destruction of Kingdom of God.

The Prophet Isaiah gives us the correct response to the request for our prayers for the Middle East. In Isa. 62:1-12 we read.... " For Zion's sake I will not hold My peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns. The Gentiles shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory. You shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD will name. You shall also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no longer be termed Forsaken, nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you. I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day or night. You who make mention of the LORD, do not keep silent, And give Him no rest till He establishes and till He makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. The LORD has sworn by His right hand and by the arm of His strength: "Surely I will no longer give your grain as food for your enemies; and the sons of the foreigner shall not drink your new wine, for which you have labored. But those who have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; those who have brought it together shall drink it in My holy courts." Go through, go through the gates! Prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway! Take out the stones, lift up a banner for the peoples! Indeed the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the world: "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Surely your salvation is coming; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him.'" And they shall call them The Holy People, the Redeemed of the LORD; and you shall be called Sought Out, a City Not Forsaken.

God Has Promised To Bless All Who Bless Israel.

I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

This is a time to seek the Lord, and intervene, your prayers can and will make a difference. Prayer moves the hand of God.

May we not sin, in our neglect to pray.

This word is for all of those who are being called into this work. . . .

For the Lord would say - "Come into the Plan that I have for you!"

For the Lord would say, "Come into the work that I have for you. I know that you have been downtrodden and that you have seen bits and pieces of the vision, bits and pieces of what I want to do in this region and I do not give these things out vainly in the hope that they will or will not occur, for I know that they will occur," says the Spirit of the Lord.

The Lord says, "Come in - for I know that you are beaten and abused and discouraged," and the Lord says, "Come in, Come in! Come in and come unto Me because I WILL complete the vision that I AM has given you - I WILL complete the vision that I have for this region."

The Lord says, "Come in and be blessed! Come in and be put to use - come in And be put to work. Come in and find your destiny in what I have planned for you For I have called you to be apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers and evangelists. I have called you to this region and I have ordained you and I have set you in this place for a time and a season SUCH AS THIS," says the Lord. "I WILL fulfill what I have promised you in your personal lives as well as in the vision for the region."

"Come in," says the Lord. "Come in and do not delay. Come in and make it a work of speed and in haste. Come into the tent of the Lord. Come into the shadow of His wings. Come in and rest and reside and I will build you up! I will remove that which is not of Me and I will replace it with that - that IS OF ME," says the Lord. "And I will open the door for the you.... I WILL OPEN THE DOOR FOR YOU!" says the Lord.

Poison Of The Adder

Deborah Voetberg

The Poison Of The Adder vs. The Blood Of Jesus Christ

“ The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent; they are like the deaf Adder that stops its ear, which will not heed the voice of charmers, charming ever so skillfully.” ( Psalm 58:3-5 )

The poison of the Adder has been in the world since the beginning of the fall. The Lord has been speaking to my spirit this past year, concerning the importance of our need to recognize the fruit of this poison and understand how it enters our lives, church and the world. Once we understand why and how God uses this viper, we will know how to avoid it's bite and come into the fullness of the blood of Jesus Christ that has freed us from all judgment.

Let me start with a vision I received from the Lord just a few weeks ago in December.

Vision:

I saw a boy about 12 years of age standing in front of a dyke. The dyke was cracked in many places and ready to collapse under the weight of the water that was forcibly pressing against it. The boy was calm and raised his hand to put his finger in a hole where the water was leaking through. He was unaware that the level of water was already higher than the dyke and I could see the force of the water coming in great waves over the top as the dyke started to give way. There was nothing that could be done to stop it.

The next scene was of a great body of water, as far as the eye could see. The boy was now standing in the water up to his neck. Not moving...just standing. There was behind him to his right a 'fin' swimming around out of his range of sight. My attention kept going to the 'fin'. The water was calm, and the boy was unaware of the 'fin' that was circling behind him, just waiting.

Interpretation:

The water represents the great-powerful-forceful move of God that is about to break forth, bringing Healing & Life. The dyke represents the wall that the church has built to contain the Power & Spirit of God. The young boy represents the maturity of the church. As a whole, an adolescent in understanding the Ways & Spirit of Almighty God.

The Spirit of God is coming as never before and nothing can stop it. The ways and understanding of man will be consumed by the Ways and Spirit of God. This is the River that the church has been referring to in Ezekiel 47. This is verse 4 where the river was too deep to cross by foot and so one must swim with the current to get to his destination. The destination determined by the River. In Ezekiel 36:26 & 27, God says He will give us a new heart and put a new spirit within us, and we will keep His judgments and do them. All flesh must come under submission to the Spirit of God. The calm waters represent the healing, rest, peace and life that will be found in His presence.

But there was a warning of predators in the water. Out of the sight of the adolescent church is the spirit of Antichrist. Lawlessness...Great darkness...The Great Falling Away that 2 Thessalonians speaks of in chapter 2:3. The revealing of the son of perdition! This must come and the church must understand and overcome; to rise up as the Light & Salt that Jesus called us to be.

God is Light, and the Father of lights! Jesus said in John 12:36 “ While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.” His Spirit is at work in our hearts judging, purifying and eliminating anything that will dim His light that must come forth from our spirits!

According to Proverbs 20:27, " The spirit of man is the lamp of the Lord ..." and Psalm 18:28 says, “ The Lord will light my lamp; The Lord my God will enlighten my darkness.” If you have not allowed the Holy Spirit to do His work of preparation in your spirit then you will not be filled with enough of His light and the darkness coming to the world will over take you. ( John 12:35 ) But if you have humbled yourself under the mighty hand of God, how great will be the light that will shine forth from you in the darkness!

God Himself will send delusion on the sons of disobedience. 2 Thessalonians 2:11 " For this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie. " The reason is mentioned in verse 10 "... because they did not receive the love of the truth that they might be saved.” Isaiah 66:4 “ So I will choose their delusions; and bring their fears on them; because, when I called, no one answered, when I spoke they did not hear; but they did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I do not delight.” Isaiah 66:2... " But on this one will I look; on him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word." Trembles at His: cause, plan, judgment, purpose, report, advice, answer, council & decree!

Ezekiel 18:4,20&23 “ Behold, all souls are mine! ....The soul who sins shall die....The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself...Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?” says the Lord God, “ and not that he should turn from his ways and live?” Each individual will be faced with the revelation that he must accept personal responsibility for his own life and choices. God is going to make the difference between darkness & light and life & death very plain. The gray will be eliminated and the choice set before them. God’s cry to them is “Turn & Live!”

The Adder is used for judgment, and works through the spirit of Antichrist. Jesus was before all things and in Him ALL things consist ( Colossians 1:17 ) " For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of ALL principality and power!" ( Colossians 2:9&10 ) Jesus is the head over the spirit of Antichrist! That spirit can do nothing apart from Jesus.

In Genesis 49:17 we have the first mention of the bite of the Adder being used by God to bring judgment. “ An Adder by the path that bites the horse’s heels, so that it’s rider falls backward.” This was given to the tribe of Dan. Dan was to judge his people. The increase of Antichrist is not the plan of the enemy but the plan of Almighty God to wield His sword of justice! Antichrist is only able to exist because of the plan of the Father to execute judgment on the sons of disobedience!

Judgment has been in the house of the Lord and will continue until we have become the sons of light that He will use to His glory in a dark world. There will be predators in this time, but their works will be exposed by the sons of light! ( Ephesians 5:11-13 ) When we are able to recognize the fruit of the Adder in our lives, that works through the spirit of Antichrist, then we will submit ourselves under God’s mighty hand and allow Him to removed what is displeasing to Him in our lives. The exposing in our lives, bringing us into His righteousness, is the only reason God allows that spirit to come near us. To exposed what is not of Him!

Let’s examine some fruit!

Character of Antichrist & the fruit of the poison that is released through the Adder:

Fruit in the world & church: Confusion, distraction, twisting & coiling of the truth, control, fury, anger, rage, rebellion, indignation, panic, anxiety, fear, jealousy, clouding of vision, unteachable, stopped up ears... ( 1 John 2:22, Esther 3:5 & 5:9, Proverbs 6:34, Psalm 140:1-5 )

Character of Antichrist: Vile, odd-humored, rude, boisterous, sordid. Identifies with the common people to obtain favor. Comes into power through deceit, not with a sword, but through the manipulation of peace. Obtains the kingdom through flattery & seducing of the people. Makes false covenant with the people to obtain favor. ( Daniel 11:21-45 )

Character of Jesus & the fruit of the Holy Spirit that is released through the blood:

Fruit in the world & church: Soundness of mind, truth, wisdom, liberty, peace, grace, mercy, justice, humility, love, joy, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control...( Galatians 5:22& 23 ), teachable, eyes to see, ears to hear.....

Character of Jesus: Brings forth justice and truth, will not break a bruised reed or quench a smoking flax. ( Isaiah 42:1-4 ) Loose the bonds of wickedness, undo heavy burdens, let the oppressed go free, breaks every yoke...( Isaiah 58:6-9 ) Comes into power through the blood. Obtains the kingdom through an everlasting covenant of truth!

The poison of the Adder will not decrease. It will increase to bring forth the Antichrist. If we understand the fruit of its poison then we can identify the bite and through repentance and the blood of Jesus Christ remove the poison from our life and the church. The blood of Jesus Christ overcomes the poison of the Adder. The church cannot stop the spreading of the poison of the Adder or the Antichrist spirit in the world, only God will remove him. When we have removed its effect upon our lives, we will be able to stand in the gap for the world, pleading the blood of Jesus Christ for mercy and grace.

How we war against this spirit is to understand that it bites our flesh! If our flesh is not crucified on the cross we will feel the bite, scratch it, spreading the poison through our soul and spirit. God is showing us, what part of our flesh is still vulnerable to attack! If your flesh is dead, you will not feel the bite, but shake it off as Paul did the bite of the Adder in Acts 28:3-5. Even the natives knew that the bite of a viper was to bring justice on the wicked! But Paul knew the cross and had died on it long ago. He shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm! Paul was covered by the blood of Jesus Christ and nothing could penetrate that blood!

Finally God wants us to have ears that hear His call! Hearing clearly the voice of God will be critical in these last days. When Jesus spoke about Elijah and John the Baptist in Matthew 11:15 - He said, He who has ears to hear, let him hear...

About the Sower in Matthew 13:9 - He who has ears....

About Tares in Matthew 13:43 - He who has ears...

About Light & hidden things exposed in Mark 4:21-23 - He who has ears...

About Tradition in Mark 7:16 - He who has ears...

About Salt losing it flavor in Luke 14:35 - He who has ears...

To the seven churches in Revelation 2:7-3:23 - He who has ears!

Jesus over and over says...." Have ears to hear! " Psalm 58:4 says that the Adder stops its ears, and that those who thought they were in control of the Adder will find they have been skillfully charmed. The poison of the Adder stops the ears from hearing, the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses the ears to hear once again!

The victory is always with Jesus! We must be covered & cleansed by the blood, hidden in Christ and under the shadow of Almighty God! Psalm 91 describes the benefits of abiding in the presence of God. Verse 13 says that you will tread upon the lion and the Adder, the young lion and the dragon you shall trample underfoot! When we come into the understanding of God's ways, which can only be found in His presence, we will manifest the treasures of His wisdom & knowledge to the world! ( Colossians 2:2&3 )

I close with these verses from 1 John. 1 John 4:1-6 " Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confessed that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world. You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them. We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error."

And 1 John 5:19 & 20 " We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one. And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life! "

Blessings in the new year!

Paradigm Shift is Coming

Lesley Murphy

Today as I was sensing the Father's presence around me I heard a phrase..."paradigm shift". As I questioned this in my heart I felt the Lord impress this upon me and I submit it to you for you to consider, judge and discern. May the Lord minister to us in his faithfulness and truth....

A paradigm shift is coming. Even as the winds change when a storm is approaching, so is the wind of My Spirit changing to affect all who seek Me. This paradigm shift will move mountains in your way. This paradigm shift will make bridges over chasms. This paradigm shift will provide where the provision was nil. Many have sat down and thought that the time of the refreshing was passing them by. Many have hung their harps on the willow tree and cried out to Me asking "how can we sing in a strange land?" and this is what I want you to know.... the paradigm shift that is occurring will begin with a changing of the guard. I have called those who have been steadfast in their commitment to me to step down into a place of rest. I am bringing them into a hiding place and those who have been in the hiding place I am sending forth to stand the guard. They have waited patiently for me to bring them forth and now I say that this is the time and watch as I make a way where you thought there would be no way. Your time to stand the post has come. Take up your sword and stand fast in the place that I put you. Take up your shield and stand fast in the place that I put you. Take up your stance and do not let the enemy distract you from the commission I put before you. Stand fast.

Once the guard changes then I will move in the "heads of state" and the paradigm shift will move in and among them. There will be such a shifting that many who have fasted, prayed, interceded for this day will be amazed. They have cried out to me for so long that it has become almost a habit and their hopes have dwindled... so much that when it happens it will truly amaze them, but watch the "heads of state" while I move in and among them. Don't you know that I am the paradigm? I am the one who will move the hearts of men? If I could move pharaoh to let my people go then, don't you think I can move the "heads of state" now to let my people go? Don't look at the outward signs. Look instead to Me and wait for Me with a joy and a peace. I have heard the many cries of my people so much so that I am willing to answer you. Wait for me. Watch for me. Feel the shift in the wind. It's almost imperceptible, but it's there. Press in even more because the shift is beginning this very day.

Paradigm Shift

Ephraim Frank

Dear Israelite,

I'm sure you all have been following the news and are aware of the shifting sands of our history-in-the-making. We no sooner blew the shofar of the 1st of the 7th month on the mo'ed of Yom T'ruah, and violence broke out not only in Judea, Samaria and Gaza, but also in the Arab communities of what is termed 'Israel proper'. To those with a keen sense of the prophetic, or even to those with a little common sense and knowledge, this did not come as a surprise.

When I awoke this morning I had a strong feeling that we are experiencing a paradigm shift. One which will take us from 'the Moses wilderness anointing and ministry' to the 'Yehoshua (Joshua) call'; from 'the Saul government' to the 'Davidic'; from 'the Elijah mantle' to that of 'Elishah'; from 'the Zerubabel and Joshua' to 'the Ezra'. No matter which way we look at the change, there is an overlapping time period. Just like the waves of the sea, each of these waves also has its time and space to reach the sands of the sea (Israel was to be like the sand of the sea).

Back in 1977, just before going to Israel the second time, scriptures from Ezekiel 2 and 3 stirred my innermost being. I do not remember if the following dream came before the trip, during or after. Anyhow, what I saw was a huge black rock mountain with the waves of the sea pounding up against it. Suddenly a large wave came in from the sea, which had faces in it, among whom were the leaders of the Reformation such as Luther, Calvin, Zwingli and others that I did not recognize. The wave covered the top of the mountain, but when it retreated back out to the sea, the massive rock had been broken up into very large boulders. As that wave receded, the waters of the next wave began to swell and it was actually formed from the very resistance of the first. This second wave seemed larger than the first. Once again, there were faces of men in the wave. But this time I did not recognize any of them. As that wave moved up over the boulders and back out to sea, the large stones had been broken up into smaller stones and pebbles, whose color was no longer black but much lighter. Again, this wave resisted the next one but at the same time helped build it into an even larger wave.

As the third wave came in, again it had faces, this time of Oral Roberts, Billy Graham, Derek Prince and others. It washed over the stones of the beach and as it retreated to the sea these stones became small pebbles of varying colors. Then, as before, this wave resisted the one that was arising behind it. As the fourth wave grew it looked like a wave of seed, either wheat or barley. As it passed over the pebbles and receded from the shore, they (the pebbles) turned into a beautiful white sandy beach. This wave too, like the others, resisted the next one, but helped bolster it. This one looked like fire. As this wave of fire descended up the white sand it covered it for only a short time, and then receded back out to where it had come from. But this time there was not another wave to resist it, thus the sea became calm and still, as it and the white sand became like one sheet of glass.

This is the time of a paradigm shift, when one wave is moving off of the shore and another is forming.

Will we be riding in on the next wave or will we be resisting it?

Repentance and consecration always proceeded the next move of the Spirit.

Let's not be found sitting on what was, but what is and will be, in the words of Peter: "be established in present truth" (2Pet.1:12).

Shabbat Shalom and have a meaningful Yom Kippur.

Shevet Achim

And now, Israel, what does YHVH require from you, but to fear YHVH your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve YHVH with all your heart and with all your soul, to keep YHVH's commandments and His statutes (Deut. 10:12).

Paradigm Shifts for the 21st Century

May, 2000 <http://www.ministrytothenations.org/>

As we approach the threshold of a new millennium, there will be a lot of shifting taking place in the church and the world. It is the time of completing unfinished business, a time of cleansing, and a time to get prepared for a spiritual churchquake to transpire in the life of what some prophetic voices call the Third Day Church. With this view in mind, let me present some bullets on Paradigm Shifts for the 21st Century.

APOSTOLIC MANDATE

An Apostolic Relational Mandate will be released emphasizing networking versus vertical authority structures. This fresh emphasis on cross-pollination will replace much of the inbred church associations, which are strife ridden by the spirit of competition and control.

While in worship I was given the following phases: When the Apostolic is Made Personal (AMP) there will be Mighty Authority in the Prophetic (MAP) in that day. The Lord will amplify His voice in those relational renewal centers and the Holy Spirit will put them on His map.)

CONFRONTING THE POLITICAL SPIRIT

Confrontation shall come with the political spirit as a post sectarian era begins to be ushered in. Even as the prophetic movement exposed and confronted the religious spirit in the church, so an apostolic movement of grace will expose and lay an axe at the historical root of the political spirit in the church.

The restoration of David's Tabernacle as prophesied in Amos 9:12 and Acts 15: 16 - 18 shall come forth resulting in authentic 24 hour Houses of Prayer and Praise, Worship and Intercession sprinkled across the nations. New creative songs and sounds shall emerge as it was with the radical ministry of William and Catherine Booth's Salvation Army Bands. Praise once again, will not be confined to the four walls of the church but will spill out into the open-air arena.

CEASING CESSATIONISM

In the church world, there will be a continued theological shift away from the false theory of cessationism (spiritual gifts passed away with the closing of the canon of scriptures and/or the second generation apostles of the early church.) In other words, cessationism is going to cease!

A new signs and wonders movement is emerging. Healing Rooms and Centers will be instituted in many cities devoted to praying for the sick and casting of evil spirits (Lk 10). Parades of people healed of various diseases will once again occur as in the days of life of John G. Lake in the 1920's.

STADIUMS FILLING

This move of God will be so powerful that the church will gather in stadiums to worship - both the collective church in given regions as well as some local congregations will grow so large that they will fill stadiums for their celebration worship services.

There will be a great move of the Holy Spirit among women. Many women will be released into the five-fold ministry and they will be used in the worldwide revival, which is coming, and upon us. Ultimately, the issue will not primarily be doctrinal - it will be one of necessity due to the volume of need for laborers for the Harvest. The coming period could easily be termed the Decade of Women of Preachers.

THE SECRET PLACE

A renewed Quietist Movement will emerge as believers in Christ find the Secret Place of the Most High to truly be their dwelling place (Ps. 91). A fresh revelation of intimacy with God, communion with their lover/husbandman and master will come forth. A generation of Mary of Bethanys will arise and gladly waste their life on the Lord!

A fresh Holiness Movement will spring up in the church worldwide. It's emphasis shall be one of the Father's mercy mixed with an authentic spirit of conviction of sin (John 16:) causing many to repent and their stained garments to be experientially cleansed by the power and blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE POOR

The body of Christ will awaken to her call and responsibility to reach and lift up the poor and oppressed as stated in Isaiah 58: 7-12. Finances will be released to care for the widow and the orphan as declared in James 1:27. Chains of orphanages will come forth as the church awakens from her self centered life styles and hilarious, joyful giving is restored.

TRANSFER OF WEALTH

We will see tremendous transfers of wealth into the Kingdom of God through the ministry of market place apostles and prophets. Those with anointing for business, administration and creativity shall be blessed - not resisted - by the church. The wall between clergy and laity; secular market place and spiritual ministry shall come down.

EXTRAVAGANT YOUTH MOVEMENT

An extravagant Youth Movement is coming to the global body of Christ that will rock the nations. Public events will be led by youth to pray and fast for revival which will spread rapidly around the nations. This will be a trans-generational anointing where the hearts of the fathers are turned to the children and the hearts of the children to the Father (Mal. 4: 5,6). Such events as THE CALL in Washington D.C. this September 2, 2000 shall ripple across the nations.

IDENTIFICATIONAL REPENTANCE

A wave of Identificational Repentance will overwhelm a remnant of the gentile church causing her to repent of her historical wrongs against the Jewish people. In response to this, a revelation of the sabbath rest shall be released from the throne of grace that will be non-legalistic and result in healing to many.

HARVEST AMONG THE JEWISH PEOPLE

There will be a great harvest amongst the Jewish people which will escalate this decade. This will particularly affect the Russian Jews around the world. There will be what some missiologists term a People Movement among them. There will also be a parallel persecution of the Jews in the land of the north and potentially other lands that could occur.

It is the devil's strategy to precipitate another type of holocaust - but God will raise up trumpeters like Mordacai who shall prepare the corporate Esther (the church) for such a time as this. Radical prayers will open a window of escape for those Jewish people who feel called to leave and a hedge of protection to those who are temporarily called to stay (Jer. 16: 14 - 16).

CONVERGENCE OF THE AGES

A convergence of the ages shall come upon us. The anointing of the Pentecostal Fire, the Healing and Deliverance Crusades, the Latter Rain Presence, the Evangelical Burden for the Lost, the Charismatic Giftings, the Third Wave Credibility, the Revelation of the Prophetic Movement and the relational networking of the Apostolic Reformation shall all merge together into a tidal wave that will eclipse the impact of reformation of 500 years ago and create what could be called The Great Revolution.

The Lord will give the church an opportunity to re-write her stained and spotted history. Radical deeds of identificational repentance, acts of mercy to the poor and the oppressed, presence and power encounters to the sick and the demonized, warrior praise and intercession arising over cities will mount as a Revolution comes upon the global body of Christ and creating a great societal awakening! If history books are written of the years that lie ahead, they might be termed The Days of His Glorious Presence.

Partake In The Battles

Stephen Hanson

April 30, 00

8. Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Ps. 24

31. The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but victory rests with the LORD. Prov. 21

9. Raise the war cry, you nations, and be shattered! Listen, all you distant lands. Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Is. 8

14. "How can you say, 'We are warriors, men valiant in battle'? Jer. 48

(The Lord showed me a man in armor who was sitting on a horse. He was dressed very much like one would be during the time of the Middle Ages. He appeared to be equipped and ready. His horse also was large and appeared to be strong and ready. He had a lance and was ready for battle. As I continued to watch this, thinking that he would move into battle, he climbed down from his horse, and found a place on a ground. Here a blanket was spread out and he laid down to rest.)

"This man which you have been watching, represents my body ready for battle. Many of you have been poised and ready for battle, but instead you have chosen to get down from your horse and not partake of it. You do not know that these battles were meant to refine you. So, when the real important ones come you will not be ready for them. When you run from trials and battles you are lacking. In the days ahead many of my soldiers will be getting ready. Your times of resting have come to a place of an end. There are many schemes which the enemy is planning. One of his schemes is to catch you unaware. He prowls around looking for whom he can devour. So, when you are not ready for him, then he can come up from behind. "

"The battle of the ages is approaching. My angels have been fighting behind the scenes, and they have held back many of these attacks. 'Fortify your armor, oh you strong ones.' Pay special attention to the sword which you are carrying. Notice how it can drive away the enemy."

"Get back up on your horses and get ready. Train yourselves, for I make your arms strong and ready."

(Here I saw the Lord himself walking before me. He was carrying a scepter, and on his head was a crown of many crowns. He was very stern and majestic in appearance, and yet, was also compassionate. )

"I go before you, and face these battles with you. I AM the first and the last, the Alpha and the Omega, and the Bright and Morning Star, and I AM the Commander and Chief, I go before you in these battles."

Participating In The Kingdom Of God

Russel Walden

In this article:

The kingdom of God is not a future realm, it is a present participation.. If we don't learned this we are doomed to suffer the fate of John the Baptist, and as Moses, to come directly up to the threshold of the unfolding purpose of God and miss out because of offenses of the past ... The purpose of God is not an event, it is a person, His name is Jesus, he is here and he is NOW. If you will participate with him NOW, he will participate with you, in you and through you, bringing his kingdom forth in your life.

THE KINGDOM HAS COME . IN THE PERSON OF JESUS CHRIST

Matt 11:1 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

There are many analogies, types and shadows throughout the Bible and the life of Jesus is no exception. Matt 13:34 tells us "without a parable spake he not unto them". In Matthew chapter 11 Jesus is addressing the mind-set of the Prevailing Religious System of his day. His actions, his words and his demeanor spoke not only to the religious leaders of the Jewish Religious System of the first century, but also the religious leaders of the Prevailing Religious System of our day (known as Christianity).

So we see in this verse the Lord's ministry is beginning, and all those in Judaism at that time who where WAITING ON THE MESSIAH WITH A TRUE HEART were getting a "heads up" and looking after him. At last their ANSWER HAD COME. Can you imaging the expectations that John the Baptist and all the faithful had upon Jesus as he emerged from obscurity to inaugurate the kingdom of God in the earth?

These expectations were the first thing Jesus dealt with, then as today there are thousands waiting on the coming of Christ. But he is not coming to address you spiritual agenda. You need to let him speak to you and deal with your expectations upon him in this hour. They could be the very things that exclude you from his ongoing purpose.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

In the midst of this continuing ministry of Jesus we find John the Baptist in prison. Isn't this true of those who walk in the spirit of Elijah in the midst of a corrupt, self obsessed religious system?

Is this not true of Christianity itself. If the Spirit of Elijah works in you today, if you are of the End-time Elijah Company, the constraints of the Prevailing Religious System are as binding as chains upon your spirit and your life.

Why was John in prison? Because he told Herod (a type of religious leadership) that he couldn't have his brother's (a type of Jesus) wife (a type of the church). In the CRS (Christian Religious System) the pastoral / priest class takes prerogatives with the bride of Christ, the church that only belong to the bridegroom.

The Elijah Company, those moving in the Spirit of John the Baptist in our day are crying out against the shepherds, many of them modern day "Herods" that it "is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife". They cry out from the housetops that the Lord is coming and he wants his bride back!

And as a result these faithful prophets have been rejected, cast out, and imprisoned by the prejudices and pride of the traditional church, and their salacious pastors and elders.

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

John the Baptist had expectations no doubt on the Messiah. And apparently Jesus didn't measure up. Can you hear the corrective tone in his inquiry? Where did this come from?

As then, so today many John the Baptists arising in the earth, an Elijah Company crying out in the wilderness "how long oh Lord?" So many of God's faithful are languishing outside of fellowship, isolated in a religious wilderness. They've been kicked out over every self-respecting church in driving distance, they've been maligned, rejected, attacked, They sit in their homes on the Lord's day longing for fellowship and finding none because of the ignominy of the burning message in their hearts that finds no resting place in the CRS.

Occasionally they might look out across the spiritual landscape and see a revival breaking forth in the land and they inquire "Is that you Lord?", "Art thou he that should come or do we look for another?"

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

The question Johns asks betrays his spiritual condition. It shows just how far he had fallen in under the intense pressure of his ministry. He had gone from participating in the Kingdom of God to simply looking and waiting for something to happen. No doubt he felt there was no point to carry on with his ministry of preparing the way for the king. He had faced failure on every hand. Why continue? The conflicts with the prevailing religious system had ground upon him, DECREASING HIM until there was no ministry left, just his person, wounded, hurting, waiting on SOMETHING to happen to validate a lifetime spent in the wilderness. Is this you? Then read on.

Even today there are many rising up as Jesus warned saying "Lo here is Christ" (or the anointing) .

Matt 24:23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here [is] Christ, or there; believe [it] not.

Why this warning? I don't think we have looked closely enough at this. Remember in Luke 17:20 Jesus said, "The Kingdom of God comes not with observation"?

The problem is not there aren't any anointed men out there moving in the Spirit of Christ. The problem is that John's whole attitude had ruled him out of the ongoing purpose of God. (And indeed, he lost his life without participating further in the unfolding of the Kingdom in his day).

John the Baptist DIDN'T HAVE TO DIE ... but he had come to the place, due to his suffering, the hardness of the way, its impact on his life, that he couldn't go any further. He wasn't PREPARING THE WAY (as was his calling) he was simply LOOKING OUT FROM THE THEATER SEATS OF OBSERVATION, waiting for something to happen.

THE KINGDOM WON'T COME THAT WAY. You won't find the kingdom of God by observation. You won't find the Kingdom of God by standing in the wings and waiting for something to happen. One backlash of this today are those who believe its "all come to pass" and no prophecy yet to be fulfilled, but they've missed it also. They are the flip side of the coin, they are NOT LOOKING - - the kingdom doesn't come that way either.

Both those who are looking and those who are not looking have assumed a passive role and will miss what the Father is doing.

Jesus answers these disciples in essence saying, "If John wants to look at something go show him what you have seen and heard...."

BUT better to realize that the KINGDOM DOESN'T COME WITH OBSERVATION and make the heart change to participate in the PURPOSE OF GOD effectively.

Can you hear what the Father is saying to you? Quit waiting for revival. Quit waiting for the "next move of God". Quit waiting for the "next wave".

The purpose of God is not an event, it is a person, His name is Jesus, he is here and he is NOW. If you will participate with him NOW, he will participate with you, in you and through you, bringing his kingdom forth in your life. Irrespective of the timelines of man or the theology of the scholars with their prophetic charts and dispensational foolishness.

99% of Christian eschatology is simply a justification for the passivity of the Christian Religious System as they wallow like swine in their spiritual obesity waiting for the curtain to rise so God will get on with the show; as they stuff their swollen lips with greasy hands full of the "so called" deep trues of the Word of God.

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

Jesus didn't answer John directly. The answer he did give in effect said, "Look, John, I'm not concerned with your prophetic timetable. The blind are being healed, the lame are walking, people's needs are being met and the GOOD NEWS is being preached. I'm not waiting and looking for the Kingdom" Jesus is saying, "I'm doing what the Father says do, that IS THE KINGDOM".

You see the KINGDOM is not a FUTURE REALM it is a PRESENT PARTICIPATION. So many faithful today have lost all energy to participate in anything. They have spent their years in vain religious activity. They have spent themselves against the shoals and rocks of dead religion and they have no heart to give another day's labor in the things of God.

This is true of the ELIJAH COMPANY, the faithful who are waiting on the consolation of Israel, as it were, and so much more so the Pharisees and Sadducees whose only motivation or zealous affectation is only to build their own kingdoms. In THAT they are extremely active, spending themselves to their last ounce of strength, bankrupting their marriages, destroying their families, all in the name of "MINISTRY". What a SHAM!

They have spent their lives ingratiating themselves upon the affections of another man's wife (the Church, the bride of Christ), and in the day of his coming, they wipe their mouths and smile at the Lord saying, "she's all yours...." God help us when we call THIS "the ministry".

6 And blessed is [he], whosoever shall not be offended in me.

Here Jesus gets to the heart of John's problem. Anytime you go from PARTICIPATION IN THE KINGDOM to waiting for the kingdom, "observing the wind" as it were (Eccl 11:4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. ) you WILL ENTER INTO OFFENSE AGAINST GOD.

Those who have assumed passivity before God in the earth have demonstrated they are offended at God, they feel they have done "THEIR PART" and they think they have paid their dues and are waiting on God to do his part... We need to repent of this attitude in the church today.

What are you waiting for? Are you as the impotent man at the pool of Bethesda - - waiting on the troubling of the water? Forget that, you can move that fast to be the first one in and God is NOT going to send you a man to put you in the water. BUT Jesus is standing before you now, the INDWELLING SON OF GOD HIMSELF saying . . .

John 5:6 (KJS) When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time [in that case], he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

You've suffered a long time my brother and sister. You've diligently prayed and waiting on the outpouring of God's spirit. But it won't come that way. The kingdom doesn't come with observation. The Kingdom of God is not a future event but a present participation. Ask the Father right now to help you find the strength to work past your hurts and disappointments and begin afresh and anew to participate with HIM as he manifests the KINGDOM you have been waiting for IN YOU and THROUGH YOU in new, vital ministry to a lost and hurting humanity.

End Time Prophetic Vision

Parable Of Vessels

Bill Burns

March 8, 2000:

Once again in the midnight hour, the Master calls and a vision of old comes again to my memory. Again, I saw the vision, and the voice of the Master came, "Write the vision for now is the time; now the hour of restoration is at hand."

In this vision, I saw a very large wooden table, its name was "The Table of the Lord." On this table were many clay pots. They were all different colors, shapes and sizes, and no two were the same. These clay pots were unique, and they were hand-made and beautiful in their own right. However, each one had a flaw somewhere on it's surface. These flaws seemed to be like those that an artist would leave on His creation to identify the work as His own.

Again, the voice of the Master, "These are My vessels formed by the hand of the Potter (Father), and I have set them on My table in the order that has pleased Me. Watch now what I am about to do." Then, I saw the Master's hand holding a beautiful pitcher of crystal, and within the pitcher was pure water that bubbled with life. The Master then filled each of His earthen vessels with the treasure of His pure water, clear as crystal.

The Master then set the pitcher down and said, "Now watch the work of My Spirit." As I watched, these vessels, pure water in each one began to overflow, and out of their innermost being a flow of water issued forth.

These waters then began to cover the top of the table of the Lord, and the table and the vessels seemed to be a living being. The sound of these many waters were like unto the song of a mountain stream, and this sound pleased the Master.

This was the vision of old, but now this scene faded, and a new vision was presented to me. In the vision, I again saw the Master's table, and yes, those same earthen vessels were still there. Yet, somehow it was not the same as it once was. Some of the vessels had no flow of water, some were discolored, some had cracks, and some had been chipped and pieces broken from them.

The Master again spoke, "Many of My vessels have become dry, and many have been hurt as they have served Me. They have been dropped and cracked and can no longer hold the treasure that I put in them. Some still contain the living waters, but they are unable to produce an overflow."

This vision saddened me, but as I beheld the Master's face, a smile appeared, and He said, "Do not worry, for these are still My chosen vessels. Now I will take them down to the Potter's House and make each one again as it seems good to Me." Then He said, "Come and watch, for now is the time of transformation, and I will make each of these marred vessels into vessels of honor. This I will do because they have suffered for Me. Now, I will make known the riches of My glory on these vessels of mercy. Because they have been prepared before hand by My process, now I will make them vessels of glory, for they shall now be vessels of gold, and My glory shall be poured forth from them even as the living waters flowed from them."

As I watched, the Master Potter took each vessel in His hands and soaked them in living water until they were softened. Then, He repaired each one and made them again into an even more beautiful vessel than they were before. He then dipped each vessel into a golden pot filled with golden oil, and with hands the color of fine brass, He placed each one in His refining fire. This fire of His Spirit purified the faith of each vessel, and the golden oil became a tempered glazing of pure gold.

The Master examined each one, and then He said, "The work is done, and these are now My vessels of gold, and I will now honor them because they have honored Me. Come and watch."

The Master lovingly gathered His golden vessels, and I followed Him back to His table. Once again, as He had done before, He placed each one on His table as it pleased Him. Then, He spoke in a voice as loud as thunder, "Behold now the sons of My glory, for now is the hour for which the whole of My creation has groaned and waited for. Now comes the revealing of sons and daughters of God, and My glory shall be revealed in and through each one."

Then the Master picked up a golden pitcher and filled each vessel with His golden oil. Again, as it had been in the beginning, the golden oil began to overflow each vessel and cover His table. So much oil came forth that it covered the table and then flowed forth to cover the whole earth. The sound of the flow of oil was not like unto the gentle mountain stream that I first heard. The sound of this flow of golden oil was like the sound of a mighty trumpet as it flowed from the table. And, with a voice like thunder, the Master spoke, "My glory shall cover the earth. My golden oil shall flow forth and become a trumpet in the land. My cup will now run over, and My golden vessels will not longer be weak, for they shall now be strong in spirit and the power of My might. These are those who stand by the Lord of the whole earth. Arise, My sons and My daughters, for I have come to restore you. I have come to anoint your heads with My oil, and you will be found at My table. You shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Amen."

Peace! Peace! Where There Is No Peace!

By Jo Ann Glasco

The Lord God of hosts is not willing to boast of the fulfilling of ongoing prophesy.
But the papers and media are full of confirmation of things already gone, and are to be for all men to see

We can see the signs of old Palestine and Jerusalem, that great city.
Failing right in line with what the prophets of old proclaimed and wrote many lines in this Biblical book of Mine.

Nation against nation, rage and war.
With problems that really don't matter to anyone anymore.

Little do they see,
they are conveniently controlled by the same demonic host of old that plundered old Jerusalem, Nineveh, and Babylon.
All now destroyed for evermore

The Philistines, Assyrians, Hittites, and Chaldeans plundered so many people, cities, and dwellings that the ancient writers lost score.

Inhabitants of the earth.
Look to the old prophets and see that the Lord God of Israel, still considers our great worth.
Even though we are still only a vapor on this great creation.
He still cares for each soul in every nation.

Dear readers don't you see?
That leaves are now changing colors on the fig tree?
The tiny country of Israel (peacefully) has now surrendered her borders to the New World Order.
She has given away that great territory that the Holy One of Israel gave her as an inheritance,
In the Abrahamic Covenant of the former days.

The word from the Creator blasts through the country
From every kind of trumpet known to man.
Yet, they still bend their necks as their stubborn ancestors beforehand, and eventually the enemy comes to shackle
the arms and legs with bands.

The Israelites had one last Jew who stood in the gap as one chosen to be true.
God gave favor to this man whose lineage ran back to the leaders of old.

This man was Benjamin Netanyahu whose true value is beyond gold.

Netanyahu's name is written in God's book of life and his good deeds are recorded in the divine book of remembrances. Past sins and faults are erased and to God, his errors appear to be only as a common mortal man's mistakes.

Yet he, Netanyahu, will go down in later history, as Israel's true, full armored Jew. For he was wise, and didn't compromise. He stepped down, and in eternity will wear a crown..... Selah!

Peace, peace, land for peace!

Haven't Arafat, Mubarak, Assad, Hussein, Gadhafi, and Barak learned? There will be no peace in now what is called the Middle East.

While looking at ancient maps.

One could see that this vast territory was God's gift to his 12 tribes.

An inheritance that was so precious.

It has now been stolen and demolished by mans greed and bribes.

Oh where are the Gideons, Moses, and Abrahams?

King David had the lineage of the greatest man on earth.

Where are our Joshuas and Calebs?

Who took every foot of ground by Father Gods Holy Word?

Would God choose a natural man once again,
to raise up and posses the Land?

This land that has slipped from the Jewish hand?

That has now become the enemies habitation?

This vast country of rock and sand?

Which will once again hold the children of Israel in captivity?

God did send his Son, His name is Jesus.

To seek and find the lost sheep of Israel.

He sent his Son to seek and save a dying world from a dark and endless grave.

The true Jew is alive and well and is still looking for laborers to tell, the gospel to mortal man.

Who is bound for a burning hell? Who knows?

I can feel the tribulation waters lapping around my toes and the soft brush of the Apocalyptic horses velvety nose.

It Is Time

by Jo Ann Glasco

It is time for the nation to bow down to God and His existing creation acknowledge Him and behold His majesty

The salvation message has been preached to the four corners of the earth.
Everyone that is accountable and still alive has had an opportunity to hear of our Christ's birth.

He would now say unto the world
Come unto Me and receive Me
And I will set you free.
Your blinded eyes will be open and the god of this world that darkens your mind will have to release his hold on your life and your soul will be set free from torment, trouble, and strife.

Modern man is no different than the ancients of old
They always desire the good life and keep their personal gods
My Word is the standard and the majority won't walk in what they've been told

If you are acquainted with someone sleeping
Shake them, shout, call to alert, blow the trumpet in their ears.

Tell them to repent and acknowledge My Word Warn them that a time of destruction is near and their ability to stand and survive will depend on their ability to hear

This is the time of the gathering up of the Spiritual Jew People in My remnant prepare for the separating of the firmament.

Oh precious ones, enjoy these hours for the ministers are few.
I have a special word for some of you
Those of you who still have to choose the clock is ticking away

Remember how to work and walk
While it is still day
How much will you give?
When it takes all to live
How much will you save for me?

When there are so many things in the world tempting thee
How much of the self life will you yield?
When so much of your time, the enemy does steal.

Get a revelation for the bride groom does come Without an invitation
Jesus is coming back
Do you have your bags packed?

The Overcomer's Reward - (Heaven)

by Jo Ann Glasco

There is a new day coming!
A day when all the doubts and fears
That were accumulated by us throughout all these years will be blown away by the Spirit wind
A new land I give to you
A new place that I will take you to

There will be a rest in the arms of the Almighty and human cares and sorrows will disappear as it precedes a storm, thunder, and lightning

For some, a remnant
I will calm all turbulence in the breast and bring to the realization and transformation
This special place in me that brings true trust and rest

I will be your supplier
Spiritual and worldly weights will be removed
As I bring about the comforts and rewards due to a Spiritual Jew
You will see me
I AM THE ALMIGHTY

I will take you through the fire
And I will carry you on My back to a safe place where there will be no lack

Do not fear as the judgments bring great destruction to some
For you are My people the ones that I love, the pupil of My eye
Wouldn't I surely see you live and not die?

You will see My glory
as you have heard and read about in the old, old story
You will be traveling in a realm where your feet are placed on higher ground

As He travels the King's highway with the raiment of the royal priesthood Wars and worldly frays will not be a problem in this day.

THE NEW DECADE

By JoAnn Glasco

Know ye not that this is the time for Y2K?

My blessed children it is not very far away
This has been a very troubled year and yet haven't I brought you through -- even in tears?

Y2K is a state of mind leading people to preparedness
Yes, there is going to be a change upon the earth
The time will be soon after my son's birth
There will be fear, there will be panic
But those who live in Me and I in them, need not to be frantic

Consider all that I've done for my chosen ones
Think on the covenant and the conditional promises that I've made
If you know them, and have them in your heart
The grounds for survival have already been laid
For it is still not time for the ark to depart Carrying these children of mine to a place, point in time

As you watch the media scenes and the broadcasters scream
Lean into Me and I will guide you by My eye and by My Spirit for surely you will hear it.
For your hearts have been prepared and now, you are to continue to battle the prince of the air for He has staged great warfare
No one is exempt from the diabolical snares and darts of this imp.

The hour is so late
Do not hesitate
Instructions will be on the way
And when you hear them, don't delay!

The seriousness of the times is printed in this rhyme.
Yes, there is still some time
Consider the harvest, for it will be great many new ones will come through the gates
Though the hour is very late
IT IS TIME
To gather them in from a life of sin

This is not a time of hoarding, barricading, and boarding
This is not at time of foolishness and looking at the circumstance
This is not a time of staying glued to the television and internet
For sons and daughters I did beget Servants will be sent out to bring in those Who await in the highways and hedges.
They are still there yet
Those who have been considered throw a ways
I will bypass those who have been too busy
To heed and hearken to My voice in these last days

DO NOT FEAR this New Year
For you have a call and each one has a purpose
Things are not always as they appear to be on the surface.

Look ahead, not to the left and to the right for surely you will sink out of sight unless a Good Samaritan comes by and pulls you into the light.

Now, I have most everyone's attention
There are only a few things that I would mention
My watchmen have been crying out loudly this decade
Mortal man is still in denial, and would like to hide their heads in the sand.

For those of My people who have made the right choice
I would say, Rejoice! Rejoice!
Your Redeemer is here. He is near.
All that you must do is receive Me.
Take My hand and I will hold you as you obey My commands. Selah!

Prophetic Encouragement

Bill Hardaway

I desire to deliver you

I have desired to set my children free for so long. But now I am moving towards you, your deliverance is at hand. I have heard your cries and listened to each and every request that you have made of me. Know that I am not slow or unable to perform all that I have promised. But I have waited until the time was right for each of you. Continue to trust and believe that I am able to accomplish all that I have promised you. Soon I will deliver you from the hands of the enemy and from the bondage of the flesh. Son I will deliver and give you the freedom you have long sought for.

I am coming to set you free

A time of great rejoicing is coming. You are about to put aside your earthly tents and be clothed with Heavenly ones. Expect me to move mightily in your lives. Expect me to do the unexpected! I will deliver you from all your pain and suffering, I am coming to set you free!

Jesus

My kingdom is at hand

Get ready for a mighty move of My Spirit. I have longed to display my power and glory. Time as you know it, is coming to an end. Trust Me to deliver you from the storms and tribulations that you are not facing. My Kingdom is at hand!

Reach to Me, I long to love and hold you deeply in My arms. I am bringing peace and healing to your earthly vessels. A time is coming when there will be no sickness or death. A time is coming that will exceed all your expectations. Now trust me to bring to pass all that I have planned for your life.

Soon you will be with Me forever

Time as you know it will come to an end. All things that I have created are about to be made new. I am about to restore all that I have created. I am about to create a new Heaven and a new earth. All things will be restored as I had intended them to be. Let nothing hinder you from coming to Me. Soon you will be with Me in paradise. Soon you will be with me forever.

Do not be troubled

Do not let your heart be troubled or be afraid. I am with you and will guide you ever step of the way. Fear is something the enemy will try to make you believe. But it is like everything he says or does, it is a lie! I will keep you safe from danger. I will surround you with my presence and drive the enemy away. I will not allow anything to harm you. For I love you and will protect you. After all, who can move my foot once I have placed it?

Look not to yourself

Look not to yourself to fulfill the things I have promised to give you. Lay yourself at my feet, rest in my love and allow my presence to transform you. I have special plans for each of you. Now allow Me to bring them about in due season.

Look not to your own understanding, My ways are not your ways. Trying to figure out what I have prepared for you will only bring about frustration. I am bring about My will in your life. Please trust Me to fulfill all that I have promised.

Come to me when I call

Seek Me while I may be found. There is a time not far off that you will hear My voice as I call to you. I will not be found in the ways of this world. I will not be found in the prideful heart of man. I will not be found when you seek Me for your own pleasures. But call on Me and ask for My will to be done in your life and see if I do not answer you.

I seek a heart that is open to my call, I seek a will that has been molded by Me. I seek more than anything someone who is open to what I desire to do in them. It is only when I complete my work in you, can I use you as I have desired. Listen to My voice when I call out to you, come running to Me. I will use you as I have planned and promised to. You only need to listen to Me when I call.

Prophetic Equilibrium

d.westbrook@att.net June 21, 2000

When there is an imbalance in the inner ear due to infection, the whole body loses its balance or its state of equilibrium. As it is in the natural, there is an important spiritual message to be grasped here that God is speaking to His prophetic community in this season. We must come into balance by helping the Body of Christ maintain their equilibrium in Him. Our inner ear must be attuned to the still small voice of the Lord. Throughout the Gospels, it is said that Jesus often withdrew to solitary, lonely places to pray and hear what His Father was speaking. So must we.

There appears at times to be a frenzy these days for a "cutting edge" prophetic word, yet many of these words have proceeded out before their time. It is as if they reached the "outer ear" of the prophets and immediately, there is a tendency to "run with it" rather than letting it be meditated upon in the secret place so that the Father can bring further revelation to what He has spoken. Many times what we hear initially will be enlarged and further revealed as we wait upon the Lord.

There appears to be an analogy with the prophet Elijah in 1 Kings 19 as he stands upon the mountain. As the manifestations that were outwardly apparent presented themselves in the form of the wind, the earthquake, and the fire, God stated that He was not in any of them. Yet, God then spoke in His still small voice. Once again, God is wanting His prophets to forsake the clamor that reaches the outer ear, so to speak, and to be still so that we can hear Him in the inner ear which is analogous to the place of sensitivity to His still small voice.

Could it be that in our frenzy of passionate pursuit of the Lord and to seek what He is saying today that we have settled upon bringing forth that which is good rather than wait for that which is excellent? There is a time to speak and a time to be silent. Those called with a forerunner spirit must maintain an inner equilibrium of balance in God that comes when we listen to His still small voice. It is in these quiet places that all over this world right now, God is maturing and refining His prophetic people to rise up in unity with one voice in His time to proclaim His heart for this generation. The Lord would caution us today to not be quick to speak but to allow time to meditate and ponder as Mary did when presented with the divine revelation of the future Messiah that would be birthed through her womb. So it is with us today. God is wanting to bring forth a greater revelation of Jesus Christ to this world but we must be still and listen as this word grows within our beings.

Do not run with the word when it is immediately given to us, but allow that word to expand within you to bring forth a greater revelation of the Son. God is never in a hurry and there is always a divine "kairos" moment for birth to come forth. His timing is impeccable. Isaiah 40:31 tells us: "...they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Let us wait for God's proper timing to soar once again. May we heed the call to retreat into the secret places of the Most High. We will then come forth with a greater prophetic accuracy in His timing! This accuracy will bring forth words of boldness and power that will resound with one voice of unity that will shake this nation and this world with the reality of the Kingdom of God in our midst. Be still and know that He is God.

It is a time to re-access our calling, reevaluate our position, and realign ourselves under the hand of God.

In Christ

Praying For Ireland

A VISION WHILE PRAYING FOR IRELAND - Through Kathie Walters

Kathie's email: kathiewalters@mindspring.com

I wanted to tell you about a vision I had this morning when I was praying for Ireland. Sunday 19th March, 2000

BURNING ARROWS INTO THE EARTH

"I saw green hills and then I saw some burning arrows come down from heaven. I saw one of them (a huge arrow) strike the ground and it went right down into the earth. Under the earth there was a lot of oil.

A STONE CHURCH

Then I was moved to another place and I saw a stone church. I could draw the church but I will try and describe it. On one end it had a square block which was a tower at the top. The rest was the usual church shape. Then suddenly water spouted out from the ground underneath the tower part. The water was so forceful that it lifted the tower off the ground. Then I saw people running toward the church from every direction.

OIL DRILLED A LONG TIME AGO

Two things I thought - The oil under the ground is what the prophets of old (just struck me that the words 'oiled' and 'old' are so similar) drilled long ago but they by no means used up the resources!

"He gives the Spirit without measure.."

WHAT GOD WILL DO WITH THE TRADITIONAL CHURCH

This water gushed up under a traditional looking church. I do believe there are new out-pourings of the Spirit but there are old wells under the traditional churches too! I recently re-read Ian Paisley's, "The Fifty-Nine revival." Telling of the awesome move of God in Ulster in 1859- Come on Americans - go and help the Ulster saints unstop all that blessing.

Pray For Our Military

Sharon Lampros

I would like to share a dream with you that I had the other night. I believe that there is an important and urgent prayer request being given by the Lord in this dream and I believe He wants me to share it with the World Prayer Center.

This is the dream: I was watching TV and I was UNDERGROUND. The reception on the TV was not great because I was underground. There was a cartoon showing a ship sinking and all of the cargo and ships items were falling down the decks as the ship sank. It reminded me very much of the TITANIC. (There is an important prophetic message in the movie the Titanic regarding the world and the economy. )

Suddenly, President Clinton came on the screen and said that we needed a miracle and that the people would have to bring forth a miracle, as the nation was in a state of disaster and not even he, as president, or our government could bring forth the solutions. What was happening would take a miracle to resolve.

Then the scene changed and a woman came to me in the dream. I was still underground and whatever was taking place above the ground was not effecting the people underground, which I believe were the CHURCH. Underground the people were calm and at peace with no worry or anxiety over the things going on in the world above.

The woman that came to me in the dream was from a foreign land. She came with money to buy OIL. She was very nervous and she was not telling the truth. I told her that she was lying and she would have to tell us the truth in order for us to trust her. She was relieved and told us the truth. I took her into a room filled with wall safes. I went to one of the safes and turned the combination lock and opened the safe and gave her the oil.

I believe that the oil she was asking for was both the Holy Spirit and also fuel oil. I think that the crisis going on in the world had to do with the oil being shut off, both spiritually and naturally. Actually, I think we may be in the beginning of this situation as we listen to news of escalating oil prices and the high cost of gasoline.

I think the part about the ship sinking was shown as a cartoon because people were not taking it seriously and thought it just a joke or something to view only lightly till the President came on with a serious plea. I think the plea was going to the intercessors. Help....we need a Miracle and the government, nor the president could do anything about changing the situation.

The last scene in the dream concerned me even more. I went into a room in this underground area and went to a cabinet and opened it. Inside were toy army men and tanks and army warfare articles. They were covered with cobwebs and spiders and there were spider cocoons with live spiders in them, some large and some small. I removed these army men and weapons from the cabinet and shook off the spiders and webs.

When I recounted this dream to my husband. The Lord said "we need to break off the curses that have been placed upon our military by other nations and pray for their protection".

Pray for Unity and Against Terrorist Attack

Joy Abney

Pray for Unity and Against Terrorist Attack

Dear Bill:

I've never written you before but felt compelled by the Lord to pass this along to you and also Steve Shultz. I am the head of Intercession for Christ the Redeemer Church in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL and a Deacon in our church, ordained in the Apostolic succession. A small group of Deacons, Elders, Pastors and Intercessors were gathered for a house blessing and we felt led to intercede for the nation after we finished a generational-healing Eucharist and cleansing of the house.

I was hit by a deep knowing that drove me to my knees and made me feel like my insides were melting like wax. I felt physically sick from the impact of the word.

We as a Nation will be brought to unity through submission to God and the peaceful transfer of power to his man, or we will be brought to unity through a national judgment of unparalleled severity.

I saw holes in our national armor and Islamic terrorist and other enemies looking with relish for opportunity to strike us while we are in confusion. I saw everything shaken that can be shaken: civil unrest, attack from within and without. Chaos. Nothing will ever be the same if this is not stopped by God's intervention on our behalf.

We repented for our national sins and cried to the Lord for MERCY. For the sake of the elect, mercy for the US.

I'm calling the intercessors to prayer again today. Are you getting anything else like this?

In His Divine Love and Mercy,

Joy Abney

Pharaoh Calling

Bryan Hupperts

Many in the Christian community are speaking of a great shaking that will come to the church. It is believed that God is going to do something shocking to shake his church. Many are shouting this coming event in a party-like hoopla not realizing that it is both a promise of blessing and judgement. I believe that for those who have been faithful in the dark, hard, often unjust places who have patiently waiting for Gods' vindication, Pharaoh will soon be calling.

Genesis 41:14, "Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon and came to Pharaoh." Joseph was the favored son of Jacob. His jealous brothers, enraged by the divine blessings on his life, faked his murder and sold him into slavery. They dipped his robe in blood and pretended that an animal had killed him. How those who wallow in darkness love to taint those who walk in God's life with the staining touch of death!

Joseph's brothers cast him into a waterless cistern - a type of grave - and ignored his pleas for clemency and restoration. His crime? Daring to repeat the dreams of divine favor given to him by God in the night. He dreamed - by the Spirit of God no less - that he would be honored above his brothers with a special calling and unique purpose that would set him apart. Ignorant accusers call that kind of spiritual knowledge pride, but God calls it faith.

Psalms 105: 17-21, "He sent a man before them--Joseph--who was sold as a slave. They hurt his feet with fetters, his soul was laid in irons. Until the time that his word came to pass, the word of the LORD tested him. The king sent and released him... He made him lord."

Joseph's soul was laid in irons. That is, his circumstances went contrary to every promise of God. He was demoted from favored son to slave, to accused rapist, to prisoner in a dungeon - another kind of grave from which there was no escape. Yet twice the Bible declares that "the LORD was with Joseph." Once when he was a slave and again when he was a prisoner in Pharaoh's dungeon.

How many divinely favored servants of God have been betrayed by their brothers? The church of his day refused to let Wesley preach in their pulpits so he took to the fields - and won multitudes to Christ. Luther, Calvin, and many others have a heritage of similar horror stories to tell yet "what men intended for evil God intended for good." Favor with God often means misunderstanding and can mark you for persecution from your own brothers. At the appointed time God arranged the circumstances where Joseph's unusual gifting was needed. Pharaoh called for him and he gave the needed answers. He was promoted to Governor of Egypt, the second most powerful man in the world. Not only that, he became as a "father to Pharaoh, and his whole household." In one passing circumstance, Joseph inherited the promise of God and was exalted not only over his brothers, but the whole earth, and was made "lord." Truly, Proverbs 18:16, "A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men."

Pharaoh shook up his entire kingdom with promotion of a slave to be the master of Egypt. I suspect that in the coming prophesied shaking, we'll see God's revealed hand of divine favor on many who have been wrongly accused, cast aside, robbed of their reputations, and left for dead. Great mantles of leadership and authority will be granted to faithful little nobodies to the shock of much of the church. But until God's time of vindication comes, until Pharaoh calls, rest in this: Luke 21:19, "By your patience possess your souls."

Let the word of God test you while you remain faithful to him. He will vindicate his choosing you and soon the whole world will know God's calling and favor are genuine in your life, and are not just boastful, empty dreaming. All will be revealed and set aright when Pharaoh calls.

Picking up Stones

Roseanne Harney

Vision:

I am seeing people walking down a dry riverbed and they are looking for water. They are tired and thirsty. Looking at their faces and clothing, I can see that some have been traveling for quite sometime.

I can see them lifting up stones and all that is underneath is just sand...some people are actually putting the stones into backpacks and continuing on walking down the dry riverbed. I can't see anyone talking to each other, they all seem to have their own purpose and needs that they are determined to get taken care of and completed. They seem driven to continue on...

I hear the Holy Spirit say,

Many travel all over the earth to find direction and satisfaction for their lives. They have walked with purpose and expectation wanting the riches of the world. They have wanted a fuller and more complete existence without God in their lives. The path they have walked down is a path called SELF it also includes POWER.

Many other's have walked down another path called the path of JUDGMENT. As they have gone through life they were determined to look under the stones around them. Instead of searching for, The Rock that was missing in their own lives they began looking and searching for stones of sin that were in those around them. They found the stones and then raised them in the air and quickly cast them down to the ground for all to see. Their purpose, was to further their own personal careers or ministries to go to the next level with God. But had they taken the time to see, they would have realized they were walking alone and were separated from God. As they walked along they became the accuser of the brethren and were self-righteous.

Other people have allowed pride and jealousy to enter into they're hearts. They have longed to covet other people's stones. Wanting their talents and gifts even families for themselves. They have not been satisfied with what they have been given, instead they desire another person's walk and destiny. The path they decided to take was ENVY and JEALOUSY.

At the bottom of the dry riverbed these paths were seen, all of them lead to DEATH. There is only one path that leads to life and that is following JESUS CHRIST. As you seek to know Him you will begin to learn about His GRACE...filled with his ETERNAL LOVE. You will be walking down His path of FAITH for your life. Romans 3:21-25

Picture of the Church

Shelly Owens

I woke up this morning with one thought - the Lord is saying that what we are seeing in Florida is a reflection of the church.

We see a group refusing to follow the electoral process set forth by our Constitution. They are looking for every imaginable loophole to excuse themselves from submitting to the law of our land. The very same people who twist and use the constitution to champion their "rights" have now found it expedient to ignore it because it does not agree with their agenda.

Does that sound a bit familiar? As I watched the news in exasperation, I cried out to the Lord to right this wrong. I heard His answer - How can you ask for a higher standard for the nation than you have for the church! How many prophetic words have been given that the Lord will allow NO COMPROMISE from His people? How many times have we been admonished to "choose this day whom you will serve?" Yet, we look for loopholes in the Word. We said "Yes, the Bible says that - if you want to take it LITERALLY - but that doesn't apply to my situation...

"We want to pick and choose our Scripture to support our pet doctrines. We want to claim all the scriptures about healing and prosperity and revival but how many of us have the one about not bearing false witness against our neighbor framed and hanging in the living room? Or the one about esteeming others more highly than ourselves? Or the one about the sin in giving the rich man the best seat while we say to the poor man "Sit here on the floor"...

I wait in repentance, crying out once again for the mercy and the grace of which we are all so undeserving.

Prophetic Insights Into The Coming Decade

Jill Austin

<http://www.jillaustin.org/>

From: Passion & Fire Jill's e-mail: jillaustin@eudoramail.com January 2, 2000

Subject: Jill Austin's January 2000 Special Friends Letter

Dear Special Friends of Master Potter,

We are about to set foot into another millennium and we find our hearts filled with gratitude for who God is and what He has done in this past year for us personally as well as the ministry of Master Potter. I wanted to give you prophetic insights into what I believe the Lord is going to be doing in this coming decade.

GLOBAL PRAYER MOVEMENT – Multiple expressions of the tidal wave of prayer will explode around the world. These 24 hour houses of prayer will bring the harp and bowl (worship & intercession) into a marriage with the apostolic and the prophetic. Many of them will become Command Intelligence Centers for Strategic Warfare networking across the globe.

Strategic Beachheads of Prayer – A powerful emergence of the Daniel and Mary of Bethany anointing will be birthed out of the prayer movement. This prophetic company will come before the Lord in extravagant worship and strategic intercession, operating governmentally in the city gates and in the courts of man, changing the hearts of kings and affecting the course of nations.

TIDAL WAVES OF HIS GLORY AND POWER – The altar of incense will become center stage in the earth in the next several years. The Lord will respond to the prayers and worship with open heavens and glimpses into the Holy of Holies, bringing fresh visitations and revelation.

CONFERENCE FORMATS WILL CHANGE - The apostolic and prophetic objective will be to break open the heavens. It will not be the name and fame of man, but the roar of God, as individuals no longer come for their one or two hours to cast their vision, but they will move in a common goal to see the atmosphere change over whole territories and people groups.

Counsels of War – Will be unlocking gates, possessing the land, taking a city or nation by layers of revelation, special assignments, and undercover espionage. In the Spirit realm, the "Navy Seals" are hidden but strategic behind the scenes; the "Air Force" is engaged in prophetic intercession and worship, bringing "air cover" for the "ground troops", giving military information and taking out satanic strongholds.

Mantles of Fire and Glory - Different mantles will be blending together into a company of men and women with different mantle mixes, different streams, different races, and different nations - all coming together, united, moving in strategic warfare, and taking cities, nations, and continents for Jesus.

Emergence of Women Leaders – They will be coming into their rightful place in the government of the church and the secular arena. Powerful mentoring will be released as fathers and mothers come together to co-labor as joint heirs.

Generational Blessing and Anointing – A Company of Anna's and Simeon's will emerge and co-labor with the youth. Prophetic promises will be freshly ignited and set on fire as prodigals return and finish the race they started. These older saints will come forth into their destiny and link arms with the younger generation as persecution and revival breaks forth.

Youth Explosion and Revival – It will surpass the Jesus People Revolution.

Miraculous Signs and Wonders – This will not only happen in stadiums, but God will be on the move in our homes, schools, businesses, drug houses, bars, etc., bringing in a historic revival and global harvest.

Revival Among the Jewish People – Another great exodus will come from the North – Russia - as great persecution increases. The Lord will touch the Jews in the Northeast part of the United States, especially in New York.

A Menorah Lit in the Church – I feel the praying church is going to be the catalyst to bring Jews to the Messiah in the end times but a dividing line will also be drawn in the church with those who are for and against Israel.

The Apostolic City – A circle of revival fires igniting the Northeast states, surrounding Washington D.C., are beginning to take the land and will bring revival to our capitol as God gathers and mobilizes the apostolic and the prophetic. They will move governmentally not only in the church, but as power brokers in the political, business and financial sectors of society as well.

Revival with the Latinos – It will "explode" not only in South and Central America, but also in North America among the Spanish speaking people.

Explosion of Books Released - Cutting edge revelation from the libraries of heaven will be released for end time revelation and strategies.

Intercession and Strategic Warfare – This is imperative as the rage of Satan is unleashed and the temporal judgments of God are loosed on the earth. Shakings of nations, governments, and geographical disasters will increase, but so will revival and a great harvest of souls coming into the Kingdom. Do not fear as martyrdom and persecution increases. God's grace is sufficient even unto death!

Increased Warfare with Jezebel – A standard of holiness, repentance and humility is being required of the emerging apostolic and prophetic. To fight the Jezebel spirit, you need the Manifest Presence and power of Holy Spirit. The Lord will bring a fresh baptism of fire (a refiner's fire) to clean His temple ... to those who are willing.

Pilot of My Life!

Sharon Marks

Father showed me a sail boat (very large). The sails were torn and battered, the rudder and compass broken. The only means to propel the boat was 2 oars. He then showed me many, many people out in the sea, a far distance away. Their only hope was this broken down sail boat.

I began to repair the sails and the mast. I put in a new compass and repaired the rudder. I looked at the boat and it looked like new. I climbed in and made ready to set sail and Father stopped me.

He spoke and said "You have done well for as far as you have gone, but are you fully prepared for what lies ahead once you head out?"

I thought a moment and said, "Father, what have I forgotten?" He pointed to the sails and said, "ASK Me for a fresh wind to give You haste in Your journey."

He pointed to the compass. "Keep your eyes on Me, do not rely on things that you can read falsely or can misinform you."

He pointed to the rudder and said "Whose hand rests upon that rudder? Yours--or the Father's??!?"

Then He pointed to the ship's wheel. "Who will steer this ship in rough seas? Who is in control of the ship of your life? You or I? Will you rely on My wind to fill your sails or are those oars there because your faith isn't as it should be in me?

"When navigating through the sea to find the lost and bring them in, are you skilled enough in Me and the way you should go, not to make them casualties instead? I have supplied you with all you need and you have done well as far as you have gone.

"Now trust in me to lead you, to guide you, to steer you through all the seas and storms ahead. Take away all the crutches of the world-- SET SAIL!--My hand is on the wheel, My Spirit brings the wind to Your sails, and My father's hand rest upon the rudder.

"I have never left you. I will never leave nor forsake you. You have been prepared for this time; keep your heart and eyes steadfast on me My child.

Get ready !! For soon I will send My Wind. When I call You to 'come forth in Me' will you? WILL you?!!?

"How strong IS your faith? Can I bend you? -how far? Will you stop Me when it begins to hurt or will you trust Me to mend what needs mending and bend what needs bending? Remember child--I will not give you what you cannot handle.

Do not go before Me but do not stay when I call. Obey My every command and you WILL prosper in what I have ordained for you and sent you to do.

Do you HEAR it? Can you FEEL it? My WIND comes!"

Prophetic Intercession

Cindy Jacobs

Given 12/19/99, Springs Harvest Fellowship

I saw a vision and the vision was of a field. It seems as though I could see some of you looking back at the year 1999 and you are saying, "I didn't think my field would look like this at the end of 1999. I thought it would have a lot more fruit produced. I thought that I was going to see abundance."

I began to feel the heart of God for some of you that you almost feel like you have failed, that you have almost failed God. The Holy Spirit began to speak to me, "No, no, no, it is not so." Then He said, "Now look at this field like I look at this field." I began to see a field and the Lord said, "What do you notice?" I said, "I don't see too much. I just see ground." He said, "Yes, but do you see weeds?" And I said, "No, I don't see weeds." And He said, "You don't see weeds because my people this year allowed me to go into their lives and begin to deal with their character and begin to pull up those weeds, those things that didn't please me."

Can you feel the Holy Spirit on this? And I said well, Lord. And He said, "What else do you see? Do you see snakes?" And I said, "No, I don't see any snakes." He said, "Because my people allowed me to cast out demons from their lives and my people allowed me to put them in the fire." I knew the Lord was pleased with you; that even though it has been a hard, hard year, that you have a field that is prepared for harvest.

I began to take a closer look at that field and I could see there were just furrows in that field and the Lord said, "Cindy, what else do you see? Do you see that my people allowed me to break up the fallow ground, their hard hearts, that in the midst of trials and temptation and satanic opposition, that when I cut that plow into their hearts and lives, they said Yes, Lord? That they said, 'I am not going to murmur, I'm not going to complain, I am just going to say be it unto me according to your word, oh God!'"

So I began to see a field prepared for harvest and he said, "Cindy, what else do you see?" And the Lord said there are seeds in these furrows. Many of you think your life is dormant. The Lord began to show me visions that were dormant, things that you thought you would accomplish and dreams you had even ten, fifteen years ago, five years ago. And they just didn't happen and you think they are dead and the Lord says, "All those seeds are not dead, my children. I want you to take another look, for in that seed is life, and I'm going to call that life forth." And I saw the Holy Spirit cause it to rain. The power of God began to cause a mighty outpouring of the Spirit of God, the latter and the former rain began to fall on that seed.

The Lord said to me, "Look Cindy, I want you to see something else." I saw transplant. I saw Him putting this crop here and that crop there and moving plants around, protecting and nurturing this and that little plant. I saw him putting this crop here and that crop there and moving plants around, protecting and nurturing this and that little plant. Then I saw a miraculous thing. I saw acorns that were planted in the ground and they just sprang up like that. It was so suddenly and the Lord says in the year 2000 it is going to be a time of suddenlies. That if you will believe that I am going to send the rain, if you believe that I am a good God, if you will believe that those seeds aren't dead, if you will believe that the Spirit of God is for you and not against you, you are going to begin to see everything you have dreamed spring up. The Lord says I am sending the rain. I am sending what you need. I am sending provision. I am going to protect you.

I began to see warriors that stood and beat off the fowls of the air. Those birds that would come and pluck up the seed and the Lord says, "I am going to protect you in this year. I'm going to put my hand upon you. You are coming to a new day and a new place that you have never dreamed. So the Lord says you must see your field like I see your field. You must see your life like I see your life. You must understand that I am for you and not against you. Don't look at those things that yet need to change. I want you to see your field in your life like I see you. I say to you well done, children, well done!"

Perfected In Unity

Rick Joyner

From Morningstar Ministries Word of the Week

http://www.morningstarministries.org/Articles/word/June19\_2000.htm

"But we have the mind of Christ (I Corinthians 2:16b). Note here that the apostle said "we" have the mind of Christ, not "I." No one person can have the whole mind of Christ, but each of us have been given a part. Therefore, we must come together in unity to have His complete mind. To the degree that we are connected in fellowship with the rest of His church is to the degree that we will have His whole council. Unity is not an ideal, it is essential if we are to have the whole truth or walk in the whole council of God. This is why, on the last night that the Lord was to be on the earth in His human form, He prayed that we would be "perfected in unity" (John 17:23).

Several years ago it became popular to recognize and try to get free of what has been called "co-dependence." This is an unhealthy attachment to another person, or group, in which our own personality is swallowed up in the identity of another. This can be done with a spouse, friend, boss, parent, child, or groups such as clubs, associations, etc. We can also have an unhealthy, co-dependent relationship with the church. Cults are usually composed of co-dependent people who are seeking their own identity through the group. Domineering leaders who are decisive and seem to know where they are going do attract weak, co-dependent people.

The point has been rightly made that to get free of our tendency toward co-dependence we must go through a period of independence when we really find out who we are. This is true, but we must not stop there. The highest attainment is not independence, but interdependence. In fact, we cannot fully know our own identity until we are properly related to other people.

Co-dependence is not true unity. It is dominance of the weak by the strong. We do each need to have a period in our life when we seek our own gifts and callings and become secure in who we are and what we have been called to do. Only then is true unity possible. Unity is not the melding together of people so that personal identity is lost, but it is the recognition and working together of the different and unique parts of the body so that it functions as a unit.

For my body to function right, my heart has to be a heart and I do not want it to ever try to become a lung. To function right, my heart needs the lungs, kidneys, liver, and blood vessels, but it must not ever try to be anything but a heart. I can have five of the most healthy hearts in the world, but if they are not attached to at least one good lung, those hearts are going to die. The Lord has composed His body, the church, in the same way. It is supposed to be many different, unique parts that know their own identities, but also know their places in the whole.

I have asked a number of large groups of Christians in churches and conferences how many knew their calling or ministry in the body. Most of the time the response was less than 5 percent. The highest it has ever been is about 20 percent. How well could you make it if only 5 percent of your body was functioning, or even 20 percent? This is the state of the body of Christ. We are in need of unity, but we must first go through the stage where each member of the body comes to know their place and purpose in the body.

I have contended for years that at the present time there is a need for different denominations and movements within the church. Because the members of the body have not graduated from the “independence” stage of maturity in which identity is fundamentally established, we need to stay there until it is. However, we have been there for centuries now. It is time to get the job completed and press on toward the ultimate fulfillment that can only be found in interdependence with the rest of the church.

A heart “knows” that it is a heart and not a lung because it recognizes the place of the lung, and works together with it. Even though we need to go through the independent stage, we will not fully know who we are and our place until we are firmly established in interdependence. All true New Testament ministry is a team of different parts that function together as a unit. Barnabus had to go and find Saul (who later became Paul), and then both of them had to get in the right place, Antioch, before they could be released into their own ultimate callings as apostles. In the same way, we too must seek out those who we are called to be joined with in the Lord before we can be released into our ultimate purpose.

I have heard an alarming number of Christians say that they love the Lord but they just do not like the church. As John wrote, this is not possible. We do not really love the Lord if we do not love our brothers. The Lord Himself said that as we treat the least of His people it is counted as the way that we treat Him. We do not have to love the state that the church is in, but we must love His church. If we do not love the church, we will never be useful in helping her attain her purpose, which can only be accomplished as we come into unity. The Scriptures are clear that the church will attain to it before the end comes. The Lord’s prayer will be answered, and we will be perfected in unity. Let us all consider that we will be a part of helping this come to pass, and not a stumbling block to it.

Planted By Living Waters

Homer Owen

I was so blessed the other morning reading Psalm 1:1-3. "How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers! But his delight is in the law of the Lord, And in His law he meditates day and night. And he will be like a tree firmly planted by streams of water, Which yields its fruit in its season, And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers."

These verses are loaded with promises of being blessed even to the point of whatever we do we prosper. All of God's promises have conditions that we must meet and the conditions here are pretty simple. (1) Don't walk in the counsel of the wicked. (2) Don't hang around sinners. (3) Don't sit with the scornful or scoffers. God really does want to bless us and here He is showing us how to get ourselves into a position for Him to bless us abundantly.

The other afternoon as I was driving across town and meditating on this passage of scripture the Holy Spirit showed me that I fairly regularly set in the seat of the scornful when I turned on my radio to listen to Rush a little bit. "Reproofs of instruction are the way of life." (Proverbs 6:23) I have to be honest with you that I have enjoyed listening to Rush over the years, but by the grace of God I will refrain myself from tuning him in and others like him as the Lord shows me. I want to be blessed and see the things that I do prosper.

I looked up the word scornful and find that it is an emotion involving both anger and disgust, vigorous contempt, to show disdain or to despise. "Do not be deceived: Bad company corrupts good morals. Become sober-minded as you ought, and stop sinning; for some have no knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame." (1 Corinthians 15:33-34)

I guess if we expect God to give us His blessings we are going to have to become like Him and become holy as He is holy. I praise Him for His mercy that is fresh each day and His long suffering to put up with us as we journey along each day. Without Him we are nothing and with Him we shall become like Him in everything.

Lord thank you for not leaving us to our own foolishness and thank you that you love us enough to discipline us. Grant us grace that we not faint in the process of being made son's. Lord we really do want to be pleasing to you in all that we say and do and we are trusting You to bring us unto Yourself.

This is coming to you from Homer Owen in Waco, Texas. My home page will give you a little glimpse of me and it can be found at: <http://home.earthlink.net/~homerowen/>

Political Praying

Becky McLendon

Over the past few decades the scripture "Professing to be wise, they became fools" has come to fruition. We are seeing the fruits of the exchange of the Truth for a lie in our young people. Many are blinded to truth and commit acts that make no sense to anyone with a shred of moral values or purpose.

The Lord kept bringing the phrase "they became fools" to me this past weekend. At first I thought He was referring to the foolishness of so many of our young people, but then He turned my focus on the adults of this society (my generation and my parents' generation. When we pushed God out of our everyday lives and embraced humanism, and every other kind of ism and called it GOOD, we became fools! The foolishness of the youthful generation is a visual demonstration to us as to what we have become. We are being told: "What you see these young people doing with their promiscuity, their open anarchy, their blatant lack of respect for authority, their failure to care about education or anything of eternal value is WHAT YOU HAVE BECOME!"

The opposite of foolishness is WISDOM. We are to pray for the WISDOM of GOD in our lives and subsequently in the lives of others ESPECIALLY our leaders in High Government places.

NOW the KEY for US as believers is THIS. ASK GOD TO PUT THE RIGHT MAN IN OFFICE. If we fail to do so, we will get the WRONG man (at God's choosing)

He has shown that one candidate has the mantle of righteousness on his shoulders and will do a work of Josiah, that is, he will read the word of God and find it to be true and be smitten with a true repentance. He will lead his servants into the same repentance and begin a work of righteousness from the top on down.

If you will look at Proverbs 29: 12 and 16 you will see a principle in effect. If the "CEO" hearkens to lies, his whole cabinet and all under them will hearken to lies too. If the CEO hearkens to the word of GOD, righteousness will be established and the HIGH ALTARS of evil will be torn down! IF WE PRAY FOR OUR LEADERS IN AUTHORITY, they will not hearken to lies and the LIE will not prevail over our country. IF WE DO NOT, consider the atmosphere our country has to produce more LOSTness in many.

Since the LOST is our primary concern, we are bound by the Word to Pray for those in authority. And PRAY for the right man to be placed in office where righteousness will be established at the top.

So let our prayers be effectual and RIGHTEOUS concerning the next 15 days..(since early voting started yesterday.) AMEN

Potion or Portion?

Potion or Portion?
Mary (Koons) Wattenford
mkoons15@hotmail.com

I just heard the Spirit say for the third time today – “potion or portion?”

And the Lord said:

Too many of My children think if they “work enough,” – “say enough of the right sounding words,” like a wizard’s incantation over a “potion” that it will be enough for Me. To others like them – it IS ENOUGH, but it is not enough for ME.....for by doing so – by reciting like-sounding words, by carrying forth words that repeat over and over again, am I GLORIFIED?? Is My name lifted up – or has the “same words” been repeated so many times that they hold NO POWER – NO LIFE WITHIN THEM? Are they lifeless and dull, drab and colorless.....and mean LESS each time they are repeated!? PERSISTENCE DOES NOT MEAN REPETITION!

A “potion” is bought IN HOPE that it will perform as desired. A “potion” is chosen to accomplish a particular purpose that has not yet taken place...by a person who has resorted to a “worldy” way of solving the problem. Far too many look with “greedy eyes” at “potions,” rather than rejoicing that they have been given a PORTION IN MY KINGDOM! Far too many seek to find Me in their “tiring repetitive” statements that weary Me – more than them. Is your FAITH in Me so meaningless – that there is no “spark of life” no “inner witness,” to what you are saying? Do you NOT believe that I will provide and care for My Own? Am I NOT the “Good Shepherd?” Yet – I seek not to have “alms” brought to Me – by any whose heart seeks their own “portion,” with get rich quick schemes that defraud and harm my flock... I look for those who have stored up treasure in Heaven! Did I praise the man who put the “large sum” in the box at the treasury? NO!!!!!! It took no FAITH – no HOPE in the Promises of the Father – for he HAD substantial wealth. I rejoiced in the lowly widow, who gave EVERYTHING SHE HAD – everything she had to LIVE ON! This showed her HOPE AND FAITH in Divine Protection and Provision!

Do you seek “YOUR portion” in this day and hour? If you want YOUR PORTION – then don’t neglect the widow, the orphan, the lowly – who CAN NOT REPAY YOU! Don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. Those who have “stored up their treasure” in the heavenlies will NOT be disappointed in this day and hour for it IS THE TIME for “all things” to be has “IT IS WRITTEN!” And when the storm beats against the house you have built – will it flounder and be washed away? AND when the storm comes, and the wind blows – and the heavenlies are shaken – WHO will you look too then? Will you seek a “magic potion,” or “seek to be FOUND IN ME?” Do you think your repetitive words will save you - THEN? Will you look on the world events in terror – or IN FAITH that you have a “safe haven” reserved JUST for you? That your “portion” is as a son or daughter of the LIVING GOD – the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob who is not ashamed to be called “Abba!”... Father to those who love Him.

Rest in KNOWING that whatever “portion” you are given My children – it is from the One who is YOUR Creator – and who brings forth “ONLY GOOD THINGS” to His Children. Let NOT your heart be troubled..... FEAR NOT! For I AM is with thee EVEN UNTIL THE END OF THE WORLD....AND I WILL never, NEVER - NO! NEVER!! LEAVE YOU NOR FORSAKE YOU!!

Post-Election Words (4 Posts)

Post-Election Words

Jim Buchan is a national speaker and formerly the Editor of the Morningstar Journal. Here is a post-election word that is worthy of our consideration.

November 9, 2000

Hello there.

One thing that grieved my heart as I prayed today was the realization that THE CHURCH was actually the most important and most hotly contested battlefield of this election. This is clearly true, though you won't find it reported by any of the news networks.

In the weeks prior to the election, Al Gore and Bill Clinton could both be seen regularly in churches, proclaiming their false message of "justice" and release from oppression---which according to them can only be accomplished from Washington, DC. Sadly, these were primarily black churches, and exit polls showed that around 90% of black voters ended up supporting Gore.

How could so many professing Christians be fooled by this deceitful message, which sets up government as a false god, the source of all peace and prosperity? It is likely that just as the country was evenly divided between Bush and Gore, the professing Christians were also split roughly 50/50. This issue transcends questions of political ideology, for Gore openly boasted of supporting "a woman's right to choose," even in cases of the horrendous practice of partial birth abortion.

Like a Trojan Horse, the deceptive message of reliance on government was allowed into our churches as never before. At its core, this is an antichrist message---a substitute for Christ. The issue is not only Democratic vs. Republican, for in some cases the Republican candidates might slip into the same mode. It also is not only an issue of division between the black and the white church in America, for in 1976 the white Christians were largely responsible for electing Jimmy Carter, who proclaimed himself a born-again believer.

The closeness of the election shows the growing cultural divide in our country. This would be sad enough, but the even greater tragedy is that the church is so unable to discern truth and fiction, those with true compassion vs. those who manipulate the weak by promising to "fight for them." Christians could easily have sent a clear message in this election, but our own division made it impossible for us to do so. As a consequence, we just got lumped together with other polling categories: black/white, rich/poor, male/female, etc.

Forgive us, Lord, for being so easily deceived by people who operate in antichrist and Jezebel spirits. May the spirit of Jehu rise up and bring a wave of truth and cleansing to our nation.

GOD IS IN CONTROL

Cheri Henderson

I just read the following news headline: "Bush Leads Florida Recount by 327 Votes, AP Says".

Immediately I was impressed to look up John 3:27.

It reads: "A man can receive only what is given him from heaven."

I believe the Lord showed me this to give me peace about this entire situation. He IS in control - no matter the outcome.

Just wanted to share this in case any of you are feeling uneasy about what's going on. God is in control!

A pipe line of forgiveness
Terri Derocher

I submit this as a prayer and hope for our country. In the Love of Jesus Christ,

I am so utterly grieved today and will try to pour my heart into this media so you can join me in prayer and supplication to Adonai, our Lord Jesus Christ and the Ruach Ha Kodesh (the Holy Spirit who is utterly grieved). We are entwined in ropes of sin - We - being the United States of America.

Many in this country voted because of a lack of faith in God, they chose to protect their pocket books and they voted in fear because they saw giants in the land (Deut.1:19-46). These giants were fears, a fear for their precious economy which made them rich, a fear for our educational system, a fear of racial strongholds being established. WHO IS GOD? You choose. Do you believe His arm is too short to SAVE? Do you believe our God, Adonai, Jesus our Messiah, the Ruach Ha Kodesh does not care enough for you precious one that he would not go before you and fight your battles for YOU? Some of you are Pastors (shepherds of the most High God) who chose to vote in such a way. Some of you are Rabbis (teachers to the unlearned). You voted out of fear, not faith!

Some of you believed if you voted for the man (George W. Bush) who promised to tear down the strongholds from hell established in the last 30 years (the tearing down of prayer, the legal right to kill our own unborn children, even as they slip from the womb to take their first breath, the condoning and encouragement of same sex unions, the dishonoring of parents encouraged in our society) you would be risking your own security and comfort. You trust your own minds and hearts more than you trust your God. REPENT of your unbelief. REPENT of your sin which has thrown this country into such unrest. Rabbis--You have protected the Law of God through all these centuries, so that not one jot or tittle has changed, so that we can see with our own eyes the sin that God calls sin. You have not allowed the least change in the Torah so that we can see that murder is sin, so that we can see that same sex unions are an abomination to God. Praise God for your faithfulness in this matter to protect the word of God in ALL times, even throughout the holocaust and yet to ACCOMMODATE man and his sin you have perverted the word of God and have voted liberally so as not to offend man. YOU OFFEND your GOD!!!!

You precious grieved ones who know the truth, we have just been delivered a great tool from God. Take a good look at our country after this election. Take a good look at the media coverage virtually everywhere on the major channels. Cry out to God!!!! We NOW know the extent of our nation's sin. We now know the condition of our brothers' hearts. Have mercy on them as you pray and ask our God to show them their sin. Ask Him to show us OUR SIN!!! Change us Lord. Break our hearts with what breaks yours. Some of these people are our own relatives.---- Forgive us Lord God for not being bold enough in our convictions to have shouted the truth from the highest mountain. Forgive us Lord God for fearing man instead of fearing you. Forgive us Holy Spirit for squelching you and going our own way!! Forgive us my Lord Jesus for taking your atonement on Calvary, your shed Blood as less than sufficient to meet all our needs. YOU ARE OUR NEED!! Help us Lord God to pray. WE ASK FOR MORE FAITH!! These people are our brothers and sisters, blinded by the enemy. Help us to lead the blind, not shove them over the cliff. Fill us with your perfect love that casts out all Fear.----- We ask all these things in your name Lord Jesus.-----

Our battle is against principalities and powers, not against our own flesh and blood. Stay on your faces saints of God!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I proclaim in Jesus Name that such a refining, such a cleaning is coming!! Our Lord God himself will reach down and clean the unlovely. He will perfect the vessels and create and build a new foundation in the United States of America. This foundation will be a pipe line to the poverty stricken. This pipe line will carry love. It will carry food. It will carry forgiveness. It will carry the gold and silver needed to establish God's mandates for countries all over this world. This pipe line will carry hope. This pipeline will carry forgiveness..... Let it be so Lord Jesus.

Trust Me!
Delta Vines

I was thinking and praying....having read "words" posted online from others, some of which I know have ministered to many. This time, something within was just "not right" on this....and what God showed me you probably won't find on some "lists". Yet, I believe it is truth, and a harsh one at that.

Hebrews 7:28 "For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak; but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect forever."

The SON, JESUS, is in charge.

Daniel 2:19 - 21 "During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven and said: "Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his. He changes times and seasons; he sets up kings and deposes them. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning."

Although what Daniel was given regarding the future of Babylon and Nebuchadnezzar, it surely can apply to us morally and physically as a nation. And what Daniel faced in giving that interpretation, or in NOT giving it, is what we are facing. If he had not said anything, ALL the wise men would be put to death (Godly and un-godly).

I am concerned about how "Christians" will react if Gore is declared President. I see spiritual pride here, and it bothers me. IF Gore is placed in office, he is the man God places there. Do we not believe God's Word TOTALLY? Do we not believe it is God who allows leaders to be placed? Even the un-Godly ones? If we don't accept whatever the outcome of this election. If it's Bush, or Gore, we must accept it.

There is a camp of Christians who are acting as if God has no say so in this. I know there is a spiritual and moral warfare going on. We need to pray for God's perfect will to be accomplished. But to pray that one man or the other represents that, and to pray for one man or the other to be in office, is AWFULLY close to "witchcraft prayer". We need to pray and trust God to work it to HIS glory. This is where faith vs. works comes in. If HE is God, then HE IS GOD!

HERE IS THE WARNING: for we are allowing ourselves to be set up by the enemy.

Spiritually, in thinking our prayers "control" our lives to the way WE want it. (Again, "witchcraft prayer").

Physically: If the Christians in this country aren't careful, we will see ourselves being set up as an enemy to democracy. This is already a civil war of politics and morality. We will find ourselves labeled as even more fanatical than we already are, to the point we will be uprooted and placed in places to keep us in line (can you say "persecution"?). Christians will also be categorized as anti-Semitic, because Lieberman is Gore's running mate. That will be an attempt to keep many Jewish people from opening their hearts to Messiah!

God will use this to strip pride from Christians, because if they keep pushing HIM (and they are), instead of trusting Him, we will see persecution sooner than we care to. He's giving us the chance to see HIM rule, and we are crying out for a man. Just as Israel had God ruling over them, and despite the warnings from God what would happen if they had a king, the Israelites insisted they wanted to be like other countries and have a king. We want to not wait on God, not trust Him. He's only asking us to trust Him for a WEEK to be in charge. To trust Him for the outcome.

WORD:

For how will you trust Me in times to come if you do not trust me now? Can you not cease from your labor and rest in Me? Can you not let Me do that battle? Your prayers of faith are sweet to me. Your prayers of restful warfare are pleasing to me. Your prayers of works are unpleasant, for it is faith that pleases me. For what has happened has already happened. Rest in Me as you wait. Can you not wait one hour? Can you not wait one day? Can you not wait one week? Daniel waited 21 days, praying, knowing I would hear his prayers. Can you not wait? Can you not let the fruit of longsuffering be worked in you? Not just patience, but long-suffering?

Did I not tell you everything that can be shaken will? Let Me shake up your faith! Let me shake YOU! I require more of YOU. Stop trying to take the speck out of the eyes of others when your own eyes are clouded! Trust Me. Just trust ME! Take it out of your own hands and trust ME.

Pray for MY way, pray for MY will. My Son did not want to go to the cross, but He prayed for MY will to be done. He has said for you to take up your cross and follow Him. I am telling you now, you still are not willing to TAKE UP YOUR CROSS! Woe to you who do not trust me now! I tell you truthfully, if you do not trust Me in this little thing, you will not trust me in the larger things to come. I am still here! Do you not know this? I am still in charge! Can you not feel this? There is NO power that can come against me! Not even your works!

Rest in Me. Trust Me. Pray for My will, not yours. And then....repent. I will hear from heaven. I will heal you. I will heal your lack of faith. I will give you ability to rest in Me. And then, you can be My example to others who need Me. Love Me for Me! For when you do, then the healing of the church can begin. The healing of My Chosen can begin. The healing of My People can begin.

Trust Me.

(Thank You Lord! In Y'shua....Delta)

Power and Wisdom

Ron McGatlin

Power and wisdom are directly and proportionately related to innocence.

We may have read many times Mat 10:16 NIV, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. Or in the KJV, Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. I have always noticed the contrast of being as wise or shrewd as a snake and as innocent or harmless as a dove and never before understood the relationship of these things.

Power and wisdom of God come to the innocent.

The harmless and innocent ones will hear and receive wisdom and revelation to function powerfully (shrewdly) in this perverse world. Only the innocent and harmless can be trusted with the great secrets of power and strategy from God. Only the innocent sheep can have the shrewd wisdom to deal with the wolves of this world and not become contaminated by the ways of the wicked.

The Body of Christ is now beginning to awaken to the potential power of purity. Our innocence will become the source of power to fuel the great revolution bringing an end to man centered and devil enhanced religious systems of the world.

Now is the time to seek Him with our whole heart and to lay down quickly those things He brings to our attention. We must enter collectively in the power of all in unity corporately to experience the glorious presence of God that changes us from glory to glory. We are becoming more like Him and He shall roar out of Zion in the unlimited power of innocence. The world is waiting and groaning for you and me and an army of young people to become innocent and harmless that we may be wise and shrewd -- the innocent army of God bringing a revolution of reformation establishing the kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven.

From positional righteousness to real purity of innocence.

My heart was broken because of my sinful condition when as a young man of twenty one I encountered the saving grace of our Lord Jesus. My heart's desire was to be different, to be like Him and to be pleasing in His sight. Some things about me did change very quickly. I felt very bad every time a curse word leaked out of my mouth from my not yet renewed mind and soon I was mostly free of that profane habit. Yet many other things within and about me were not like Him.

My concerns about my debauchery were greatly eased by theological teachings of positional righteousness. Basically I was taught that my depravity was normal and that my disgraceful unholy inner life was covered by the blood of Jesus. Everyone was a sinner and now I was a saved sinner and would be in heaven because of what Jesus had done on the cross for me. My position was that of now being seated at the right hand of God with Christ, redeemed by the blood. When God looked at me He did not see my sinfulness but the righteousness of Christ. Certainly, I was to try to do my best but I could never expect to overcome sin in this life because of my sin nature. We all are sinners only some are saved sinners and some are lost sinners.

According to this teaching I was positionally innocent before God because Jesus had died for me and my sins past, present, and future were under the blood of Jesus. Because I believed in Jesus as the Son of God and had received Him as saviour I was secure and could not be plucked from His hand. Yet, my experience continued to be a roller coaster type of spiritual ups and sinful downs. Although I sought diligently to hide my lust and to overcome sinful habits and addictions my life was a battle of bitter frustration. Zealousness characterized my life. I fought hard against my own inner impurities and was severely harsh against sin in others.

I taught Sunday School, became an elder in the church, attended Bible College, began preaching, witnessed in the streets, and visited for the church. Yet, in all my zealousness, impurities remained within my own heart. I was not innocent and harmless as a dove and often wondered how and why most everyone close to me seemed to get hurt or offended by me. The intent of my heart was pure but it is from the abundance of the heart that the life speaks. (Luke 6:45)

Like many others around the world, My soul cried out, "there must be more."

The "more" has now come. The outpouring of the Spirit has brought power from God to change our inner being to eradicate our sinful ways and fill us with His purity and power. No longer must we suffer in frustration as sin takes its toll upon the strength and glory of God within our souls. Freedom is upon us as the spiritual outpouring of God is bringing revival to our souls and reformation to the blessed Body of Christ who is becoming His purified Bride. No longer must we attempt to replace our lack of spiritual power with soulish zealousness. (Rom 10:2-3)

We can now be filled with the power of His presence cleansing our hearts and destroying our desire for the old ways. No longer are we focused upon our own lives and filled with needs. His love flowing in and through us is making us innocent and harmless. His presence has so filled us that we have no frustrating needs but are filled with abundant life to flow to others.

No longer must we devise doctrines to make room for our sinful hearts. Christ is not just a covering for our sin filled heart. Now, when God looks at us He can look directly into a pure heart filled with the innocence and glory of Christ Himself. The reality of God has come and the shadows are passing away.

The army of God is being formed. Pure hearts of ordinary believers have become the temple of God on earth and the attributes of God are becoming a reality in the innocent and harmless people of God's army. Truly nothing is impossible as pure hearts are filled with great faith and ability to know God and discern His will. Clearly receiving His instruction and having the faith to act upon it provides unlimited power to accomplish the will of God on earth as it is in heaven.

The outpouring of God coming forth in spots around the world in this time is not just for the purpose of our having a Holy Ghost party. The joy of the Lord is real and the excitement of miracles and manifestations along with the awesome praise and worship music are indeed producing many occasions of gloriously wonderful gatherings. The many testimonies of miracles and healing of bodies and lives is exciting. The stories told by those being saved and delivered as well as those returning to the Lord after straying away are uplifting. All of this is joyful and is indeed a part of the purpose for the great outpouring of God in the world today. But, if it does not lead to inner purity and innocence, God's purpose is not fulfilled. If we can experience God and His blessings and still leave the gathering to return to our old thought patterns and our old ways of doing and being, God's purpose is not yet fulfilled. If our lifestyle continues to be mixed with the spirit of the world, we are missing the purpose of God.

This is a new day for the church. The church that taught us self improvement, self love, prosperity for the sake of our blessing and tolerance for our sinful lifestyles is now over. The twelve o'clock whistle has blown, the final amen has been said and the entire church has gone to lunch. We must come to the realization that church as usual is over and is not coming back. Yes, many will hang on to the man centered gospel and the old ways of the church until they themselves pass away in the wilderness. Many will continue to carry forth the empty traditions of the past until they breathe their last natural breath. They have already breathed their last spiritual breath and are only waiting to die in their wilderness experience while seeking to prevent others from entering the promised land.

These are our spiritual mothers and fathers and there is a reality of honor for them. Yet, we must hate their ways and the ungodly part of the things they have taught us and demanded that we continue. Is this a part of what Jesus meant when He said in Luke 14:26 that we could not be His disciple if we did not hate our father and mother? We know that we are not to hate the church or our parents. But we must hate what they are saying to us that prevents us from going on with Jesus and being a part of what He is doing in this day. We must hate the encouragement to continue in our mixed ways of inner impurity and tolerance for sin. We must hate the thing that continues to tell us that we are doing well when inside we are filled with death and are not concerned about living a truly consecrated life unto the Lord.

Just as long as we are reasonably healthy and doing well financially we tend to be satisfied and don't really mind our immoral lifestyles and lack of the true presence of God in our midst. Much of the church today is yet saying, as long as we have really nice cars, the finest church buildings ever, time for the golf course, and plenty of entertainment why rock the boat. Why start a revolution bringing reformation and revival.

Only when the true presence of God shows up and begins to expose the bankrupt spiritual condition of the powerless church does it become obvious that something is terribly wrong. The lukewarm half hearted people who are mixed with the ways of the world will either be changed or deny the work of God and flee from His presence.

Pinpoint Accuracy

Mary Clark

9/16/00 During the conference, the Lord told me that He wished to elaborate on the idea of His pinpoint accuracy. Here is what He has to say: *** The Lord God Almighty is calling His children into a uniform line of precision. I have equipped you to ride to victory, beloved, and I have fortified you with all you will need for the trip.

Let Me speak to you tonight, concerning My pinpoint accuracy. The Lord God Almighty is fortifying His troops with great strength and stamina. There will be no weaklings in My battalion. No! The army of the living God will be fortified with the great strength and power of the Lord God Almighty. Look on this time and shout a shout of victory.

For it is in this present hour that many of you are doubting. You are wondering if you are hearing the word of the Lord correctly. You are getting tired of waiting. You are looking at the clock and patting your foot impatiently.

I wish to tell you this, beloved. Your God has a plan that He is bringing forth with pinpoint accuracy. There is no amount of foot-patting that will speed up this process. No! Nothing will speed up the process of My will, coming forth except that you trust in Me and maintain your focus on Me. This is what will do the job in that area, beloved.

I am seeing a great many of My children sighing a sigh of discontentment over the passing of time. To you I have these words. Rise up and go forth in My name in total trust. You have sworn your allegiance to Me. You have given testimony of your love for Me. This is the hour that you must walk in the words you have spoken to your Master. I want no foot patting and sighing in My army.

I want all erect with their attention toward the Commanding Officer. Now, beloved, that I have spoken these words of correction, let Me tell you that My plans are developing nicely. All is looking good in the Master's eyes. All is coming forth according to MY will with pinpoint accuracy. Trust Me in this, beloved. I am trusting in you to stay in the line of duty, and face the enemy head on. I am calling you to rise up strong in Me, knowing that I have equipped you for battle. Don't let the enemy get you sidetracked.

Don't, beloved, be watching the clock when you should be watching Me. Don't be patting your foot when you should be marching. Now is the time to give Me your full attention. Don't let your mind wander from hearing My direction. Don't let your heart wander from My path of love. I want you to stay on target with Me. I want you focused on Me with pinpoint accuracy. Give your attention to the Beloved. Give your focus to Me. I need you to stay in the direction of your calling. I need you to right all that has turned lopsided. I want all erect and facing front and center. I want all focused on the task the Master is calling you to at this hour. Don't get sidetracked, beloved. Don't get caught up in murmuring the words of the enemy. Keep focused on Me - the Beloved. Stay focused with pinpoint accuracy on Me and My cause. Then you will see that your God has stilled your heart and pronounced on you the peace that will settle your heart. I want to settle your heart. I want you in peace. This is the call of the hour. Don't listen to the enemy, and keep your focus on Me - the One with pinpoint accuracy, who delights in moving His children forward - not backward - into the sound and glorious place of His love. Step into My line of vision, Beloved. Step into the place of peace and safety in My heart. I want you rested and content. No more impatience. No more clock-watching. Wait on Me. Wait on your Lord, and see My pinpoint accuracy develop and place you in that place of wonder and excitement in Me. It is coming, beloved. It is waiting to arrive at My decided time. So don't get impatient, and look too far ahead for tomorrow. Look at today, and know that your God is directing your steps into that place of trust and assurance of His work. Know that your God has established your walk, and is moving you forward into the glories of His awaited work. This is the time to trust in Me. This is the time to stay focused on Me, and accept your assignment without flinching. This is the time to know the work of your God as it emanates from His heart to you.

Beloved, I have spoken to you today about pinpoint accuracy. No other possesses this skill - only the Lord God Almighty. So walk in this knowledge, beloved. Walk in this glorious realization of your God's power!!!

Prayer Alert

Dutch Sheets

Sent By Doug Fortune

I received this, this morning from my friend Chuck Pierce
<http://www.glory-of-zion.org> of the World Prayer Center
<http://www.wpcps.org> and Global Harvest Ministries, and I ask you to please heed this call to prayer in the power of the Spirit.

Dear Doug, Pastor Dutch Sheets is a dear and trusted friend of mine. Above that, I believe he has a call to spearhead change in this nation. He called and visited with me Thursday. I could hear his heart, and from his heart I could hear the heartbeat of God. The Lord had released a prayer burden from heaven upon him for this great nation, the United States of America, for the changes and posterity of our future. I fully agree that we must press in. I pressed in one week in January this year, then three days in August. I asked the Lord when and if He would give me a call or urgency to press in immediately before the elections this year. After our conversation and receiving what Dutch wrote below, I know this is that extended call. Please read this carefully and move forward as the Spirit of God leads you.

Blessings,
Chuck Pierce

PRAYER ALERT FOR THIS NATION from Dutch Sheets

During our Wednesday night service on October 4, 2000, the Holy Spirit moved upon me with the greatest prayer burden I have ever experienced. It would be impossible for me to exaggerate the depth of the prayer burden I was given. This time of intense, overwhelming travail for our nation lasted for three and a half hours. During that time, I wept off and on harder than I even knew was possible.

The Lord began to speak to my heart about the upcoming Presidential election, which is the most critical in decades. There must be a turning in this nation toward righteousness, and this will only happen if God's man is elected into office. It is not so much that this man is now ready spiritually to take the nation where God wants, but rather that he has a heart upon which God can effectively move. I believe that if the election was held now, God's purposes would not be established. (I am not basing this on polls or debates, but solely on what the Lord revealed to me that night.) In fact, the results would be such that His purposes for this nation would be set back for many, many years, possibly decades.

During this intense time on Wednesday night, God led me to Daniel 10 where the account is given of great warfare in the heavenlies between the forces of darkness and light. He showed me that the outcome of the current battle regarding this election will be determined by the prayer of the Church. If there is enough prayer and fasting, God's person will be elected, righteousness will prevail and God's plan will be established. If there is not enough prayer, God's person will lose the election and the turning of this nation will be drastically delayed.

I realize that what I am about to say could sound presumptuous, but I believe God witnessed to my heart that one of the greatest prayer efforts in the history of our nation must be mobilized immediately. The amount of prayer that would normally be done for the election is absolutely not enough. I have never before attempted something such as this, but after seeking confirmation from trusted national leaders in the Body of Christ, I believe the Holy Spirit earnestly desires that I issue an alert regarding the seriousness of this hour. I am asking for those who feel this warning is from the Lord to intensify their prayer efforts by doing several things:

*Incorporate significant amounts of prayer into church services. Perhaps turn some entire services (Wednesday nights, Sunday nights, even Sunday mornings) into times of intercession for this purpose. If not entire services, at least give major blocks of time to prayer.

*Additional prayer meetings, both day and evening, be orchestrated for this purpose.

*A national fast be held during the last 21 days before election day. (This would begin October 17th and continue through November 6th.) Prayer meetings on each of these 21 nights are needed.

Daniel 2:21 states: 'He changes the times and the seasons, He removes kings and sets up kings, He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.' This can and must happen. It will be realized, however, only if we heed this imperative call to intensified, fervent prayer. If you agree with the urgency of this message, please pass it on to your contacts and ask them to do the same. Let us unite in this cause and see God turn our nation back to Him.

Sincerely in Christ, Dutch Sheets

Prayer for the Prophets

Paulete Smith

Shalom,

My name is Paulete (Deborah) Smith. I am a prophetess living on the island of Jamaica in the Caribbean. God has been speaking to me quite frequently in the past couple of weeks. Each word, urgently coming to :

Keep His congregation on the straight and narrow.

Make us aware of the His plans for each season ahead.

Make us aware of the plans of Satan.

Speak specifics into certain areas of the body of Christ.

To help complete the preparation of His Bride for His Return.

Below you will find His Word for his prophets given on August 11th, 2000. Read, judge, and take seriously. Thank You.

LET THE PROPHETS PRAY FOR THE PROPHETS

A CALL FROM YAHVEH...12TH AUGUST, 2000

A PROPHETESS PRAYS AS YAHVEH DIRECTS

O Yahveh, forgive your prophets, for we have taken Your Name onto ourselves. O Creator of excellence, we are but your messengers, your courier service. Our job is to take your message and deliver it. To hand it over and return to the Sender, ready to be dispatched again. I cry out to you to have mercy on us, Yahveh our Elohim, For we have sought to take on the HaShem (The Name above all other names). We have sought to have men bow to us, esteem us and see us as great.

Where we have defiled the Office of the Prophet, and caused shame, Where we have had wrong allegiance, loyalty and obeisance, have mercy on us our Elohim. I lift up your prophets before you, all of us, every one of us. I bring us before your throne and I throw us at your feet, as I cry out to the El of the heavens. Yahveh, Elohim, the Great HaShem, do not smite us and pulverize us to ashes. Have mercy on us O Yahveh, and teach us how to set our way straight. Lest we be destroyed by your anger, for you are jealous of your name.

If we have become as like enchanters, horoscopists, diviners, soothsayers, magi of Babel, Have mercy Eternal Father, and allow us to fall at your feet, to confess and repent. O God, if we have trodden the floor of divination, walked on the runways of the psychic, and if we have said in our hearts, " We are great men", and have misused your power to bring reverence to our name, then wash us and we shall be clean, redirect us into the path that is straight and narrow. When we have caused men and women, boys and girls to fall prostrate at our feet, to lift up their hearts in exaltation of us, O Abba, have mercy, for in your anger you can cut us off if we cause a people to run after idols.

We are your people, O the sheep of your pasture, set our hearts straight, let your rod and your staff stand firm in our lives. Have we climbed your holy hill and set up our flags flying high? Or have we come like ordinary men to bow with all creation at the foot of the Most High's dwelling? Yahveh, Elohim, your patience is long towards us, your loving-kindness extends like an unending river, giving us opportunity after opportunity to look into your face and see ourselves as we are.

Are we not here to lead men into the fear of Yahveh, to bring men into the love of Elohim? To expose evil, tear down the desecrated places, times and things, and to help set up righteousness and truth in the earth? To lead men to the throne of grace, to caution and speak of the times, seasons and architecture of Elohim? O Almighty, let us run the race you have already set and as prophets not create our own. Let every thing that we deliver come straight from You, the Sender.

O Yahveh, remind us that it is You who have gifted us and to You belongs the honor for this gift. I pray O Yahveh Sabaoth for your prophets, that as we stand, that we stand in You. That we set aside ourselves, when You set us on Your podium. And when we speak, instruct, admonish, exhort, reprove, men may be able to see, hear, feel and be touched by you O Almighty Eternal Yah.

As we speak O Elohim, that you will come and block us, as if with a partition, so that they will come face to face with only you, seeing only the face of Adonai, as we stand in your anointing, stripped of ourselves. And as they walk away, they do so without our faces in their minds, our words on their hearts, or our voices in their ears, But they will walk away with Your face in their minds, Your words on their hearts, Your voice in their ears. Almighty Elohim Elyon, crucify that which must die in us and raise us up in your righteousness.

Let us tread cautiously, o prophets, the path set before us and handle our gifts with respect. For on that Day we will have to give account of every word we have spoken, for every knee we have caused to bow before us, for lives lost because we refused to speak.

Have we taken that which was given freely and sold it for our own honor, glory and profits? For woe be unto us if we are found wanting in Elohim's balance. Shall we hear him say, "You have done much in the name of HaShem, but iniquity was never far from you. You walked in it, you slept in it, depart from me, traitor to my name. You sat in my house, drank at my table, ate from my plate and sold me for thirty pieces of silver. You sat on my right side and on my left, laid your head on my breast, but all the while you were scheming in my very midst. You stole from me, in my very house and used that which was given you to build my house, to go off in secret and build a house of your own. And now you stand before me on the final Day, to cry out for mercy? Take your coins I shall say, and go, buy yourself eternal life somewhere else."

Woe be unto the sheep who listens to a strange voice and follow after it. I AM has given us the written Word made alive in us through the Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) of I AM, that we may be able to discern, all things, to know the wheat from the tares, to know when the man has vacated his position, whose heart has risen against me. I cry out to us, the prophets, let us return to our first love, return to Yahveh, before we have gone too far, before we become stuck like a Judas.

I speak into the heavens and I say: Release your hold. You evil atmosphere over the sons of Yisra El, over the sons of YahHudah, let the prophets go. I block on this day, the 11th August, 2000, ten minutes to nine, every plan of haSatan to bring destruction to the prophets of Yahveh. I block the effort of straying prophets to take up allegiance with the prince of darkness and I call them to return home. I stand up against greed, fame, idolatry, in the company of the prophets. I come against the spirit of being a master instead of being a servant in the house of the Master. I come against all this in the name and the authority of the one who went on the stake, descended into the pit, and rose triumphant, Yeshua HaMashiach.

I come against a lying spirit, a false spirit, a spirit of divination, a spirit of Babel. I come against immorality, lasciviousness, sexual perversion in the camp of the prophets. I come against adultery, fornication, homosexuality, sodomy in the camp of the prophets. I come against segregation and caste systems, in the camp of the prophets.

I come against deception between the old prophet and the young prophet in the camp of the prophets. I come against the spirit of Balaam, which walks on both side of the camp, who will not choose this day to serve only Yahveh, but speaking wherever there is gain.

In the name of Yeshua the Messiah, I cut off the prophets from deception and I declare that every false prophet will be removed from amongst us. I say to the prophets in the camp of the prophets, you who are thinking to stepping over on the other side.....beware of Yahveh. Fear Him. May our hearts never be led astray.

I let loose the anointing for power and precision as we develop a mature intimate relationship with Elohim, as we remain servants to you. Let our words tingle like a spoon hit to a crystal wineglass. We know O Yahveh, that we are fallible. I pray that as we rest in you, we will know when to say no, when to pull back, when to fire full force.

Remove us from the market for the 'Spiritual Psychic God Prophets'. Let us walk hand in hand with the teacher, the evangelist, the shepherd, the emissary, and the rest of the congregation of Yahveh. Teach us the true walk that we may not become palm readers, turning over tarot cards, and looking into crystal balls, or the false TV healer/evangelist working off an investigated prophetic word of knowledge. Let us remember the Prophets of Old and those that walked among the renewed congregation of Rabbi Yeshua, to follow their examples.

I declare we are not a psychic network. I declare that we are the prophets of the Most High, who will not fall to the tricks of the enemy, who will know our calling, as our Elohim would dictate to us. I declare that we would not compromise our gifting, or be dominated by any other member of the five fold ministry or the body of Yeshua. I declare that we will stand firm on the Rock, and not fall in the trap of many who have gone before us, who have brought disgrace to themselves while in the household of the Almighty.

I declare that all prophets will obey Yahveh's Torah (His teachings, directions for healthy, safe community life within the body of Yeshua.), His mitzvoth (commandments), precepts, statutes. For those who love Yahveh, will by the help of the Holy Spirit of Yahveh and by the example of his only begotten Son Yeshua HaMashiach, keep His commandments, now written also on our hearts, for they are spiritual.

I declare that we will no longer partake in the 'Hollywood Prophetic Movement', but we will truly walk as sons of Israel, as true prophets, not manipulated or bought, but totally sold out to you our Elohim. I declare that, whether we gain earthly riches or not, we will do our work according to the job description You have individually given us, within the boundaries You have set.

Strengthen us O El of the heavens, when we are tortured, not accepting deliverance that we might obtain a better resurrection. Strengthen us O Elohim, in times of cruel trials of mocking and scourging, bonds and imprisonment. Have mercy on us O Yahveh, when we are afflicted, tormented, cut in two, murdered for the sake of Truth, as we bring it to all men. Help us to realize that each time we stand for You, this might be the last time we speak, because You have the power of life and death in Your Hand. I declare that we will stand before you in reverence, in the fear of Adonai, and not bow to the pressure of men or might.

I thank you for your love towards us and love you in return. I thank you for calling us and gifting us with the ability to prophecy as Prophets. I speak this word and pray this prayer on behalf of all prophets of the Most High, the El of the heavens.

Amen

Prepare To Do My Bidding

Carylann Hartley

And I will be with you and I will bring you to new places and new heights and show you things that you have not even imagined. I will do this as you set your face toward me and as you go forth in MY name and MY power to do all that I am commanding you to do. I will not share MY Glory with anyone nor will I have the name of MY Son defamed or trampled on anymore. You will not see all that I am doing until after much of it is finished. If I were to show you all that is to take place you could not contain it. I am about to do things in new ways and through people and in places that will seem very unlikely to the natural man but I do not move in the natural. I will bring forth ALL that I have said and much more. It is for now and not just for a future time.

Yes, the time is short but do not look for the supernatural, look for Me for then you will find ALL that you need or could ever desire! Draw close and do not hold back or be afraid of what is to come. Do not look to man but only to me. Do not fear nor tarry but go forth with a new boldness and a new vigor. I will give you the energy that you need and will sustain you in all that you will have to do. Now is still a time of change and rest but SOON it will be a time of action and a time to bring forth that which has been hidden in Me. People that I have been preparing and things that I have been preparing will suddenly be before you and you will wonder why you never saw these people or these things happening before. I will bring it all forth in due season.

Prepare yourself for a holiness that seems impossible. Do this by turning completely to me! Turn the eyes of your heart toward Me and My Son, then the Spirit will fill you to overflowing and you will go forth as pure gold having been through the refiner's fire. You will go forth as a stream in the desert, pure and clear, to give drink to the thirsty and as food, manna, to feed the hungry. It will be My food and My drink that you will take to them as I lead. Prepare yourself and stay in the FIRE so that you will be able to do this when the time comes. Look not to yourself but to Me and then to others. Keep your eyes off of yourself or you will not be in a place to feed and give drink to My people when the time comes.

Preparing to Possess

Scott Hofstee

January 8, 2000

The Lord would say, there are many in the valley of decision. Many who must choose whom they will serve. I speak to the chosen seed and ask, whom will you serve? Will you pursue your vanity, your dreams? Or will you yield to the workings of My hand, as it passes over you. The wind is blowing beloved ones and it has but begun to blow. The wind is increasing day by day, minute by minute. You feel it as it picks up the dust and blows out the debris of your life. I AM preparing you for what must come. Fire is about to fall and it will take the chosen vessels to a degree of exposure they thought never existed. You will see yourselves as you are but do not fear, for I will then show you Myself, as I AM. I do love my beloved ones, that is why I prepare them to possess their inheritance. For the spies are in the land, a harlot now shelters them but I will soon visit this harlot with My love and fully prepare her for My appearance. My spies will see the land and they will report to Me. For now the time has come to move towards the enemy. The mighty men are about to arise and their foes will scatter. I have ordered their footsteps, says the Lord. They are prepared by My hand. Love is their banner, humility their garment, My word is in their mouth and it will quickly divide, who will stand in the day of their appearing? Who will oppose this people? For My authority is with them and none will stand when My power is manifest through them. I tell you to stand fast in the things I have established in you. Do not fear the enemy of your souls, for I tell you, I will not lose even one I have chosen. Seek My voice in this hour, for the voice of My enemy is all around you. But if you will seek My voice to guide, I will lead you. Do not go before Me, for there is danger, but stand by Me and you shall see the deliverance of the Lord of Hosts.

Predictions for the New Year

Pam Clark

As I noticed everyone else going for their words of the Lord, I decided I would too, not knowing if I would get anything but I did.

I submit this humbly and respectfully, giving honor to His Holy Word above all.

1. The year 2000 will be "a year of fireworks." The skies will be lit up. The New Year's celebrations we have just seen were symbolic and prophetic.
2. It will be a year of "apostasy and prayer."
3. There will also be "a spirit of mourning" "as for an only son" for the faith. People will be grieving for those who have turned away.
4. It will be a year for the "land of the free and home of the brave." Bravery will be an important commodity in holding onto our freedoms.
5. It will be "a year of the baby" (not sure exactly what that means) - but holding on to the preciousness of life. It will be going back to the "tender things", with values placed once again upon that. There was also a double meaning in that tender means tender and gentle and delicate, like a baby, but also as one who tends. I also saw baby clothes and heard the words "dress warm" as for cold times. I also saw a spit up towel which I think meant to allow for the mess ups, it's all ok.
6. I heard bells and sirens going. Alarms will be heard but I did not hear them as approaching dangers as much as for -warnings- of things to come. If we know what to do when we hear the alarm, we can respond appropriately and ward off the danger. In other words, take notice and respond. Be a people of timing.
7. If we are faithful, we can avoid war.
8. There will be increased holy worship, especially in the churches, but in the homes as well.
9. There will be a somber spirit as we enter into the year 2001. Many things will be changed. It will be quite the opposite of the revelry we experienced this New Year.
10. The Church will carry the hope, and the focus of the Church will be on the developing and building up of the Mid East.

11. The Mid East will have the attention of the world. There will be a cultural shift and change in the nations. Instead of the focus being on American ways, it will be on the contemporary Middle Eastern ways. Prosperity will come to the Mid East.

12. There will be clearer and more distinctive ministry paths. This is because they have been prayed through and walked through, and what works will be plainly seen.

13. There will be "a building excitement," a new hope, different from the hope today, especially toward the end of the year.

14. There will be a "felt nearness" of the Return of the Lord. Not so "imminent" as much as it is felt "close at hand."

15. There will be "increased distinctions" - and will be seen in the ministry; ministries will work together for the good of the whole. We will see more group ministries working together with other group ministries to get things done. More like kinds will have gathered together in unity in their functions. These coming together will be noticed more as well toward the end of the year. A "building momentum." That word also may have a double meaning with events in Israel.

Preparing For His Presence

Bob Jones And Keith Davis

http://www.bobjones.org/articles/Preparing\_for\_His\_Presence.htm

Since this last Day of Atonement, the Lord has released a number of visions and revelations emphasizing the season of the Spirit in which we are living. These revelations have underscored portions of Scripture necessary in our preparation to fulfill our great destiny foretold in Scripture. With the Lord's help, this article and others to follow will stress the biblical mandates and preparatory instructions highlighting the attributes essential to enter and abide in His manifest Presence.

There are clearly prescribed directives necessary for us to come before His divine Presence. Those who have been granted this privilege have uniformly returned with one overwhelming truth... you do not come into His Manifest Presence presumptuously nor carelessly. His power and majesty are grand beyond the description of words. He is our loving Father, true enough...He is also a Consuming Fire and overwhelmingly Holy and Awesome. We can only bear His Presence when we have come before Him according to His prescribed manner...adorned in the garments provided for us through His redemption. Many in the Body of Christ have been experiencing this sanctifying work. This process is typically illustrated through the Levitical priesthood and the meticulous procedure followed by the High Priest before entering the Most Holy Place.

OUR INVITATION

For there was a tabernacle prepared, the outer one, in which were the lampstand and the table and the sacred bread; this is called the holy place. And behind the second veil, there was a tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, having a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which {was} a golden jar holding the manna, and Aaron's rod which budded, and the tables of the covenant. (Heb 9:2-4)

There is presently an invitation to meet with the Lord in the Holy Place for intimate relationship. Here introduction is made and development inaugurated for an even higher place. It is in this sacred domain, preparation is secured to fortify one to enter the most Holy of all places, the Holy of Holies and Union with God. Although the veil separating the two was rent on the day of the Lord's crucifixion, great reverence and awe surround this place in God. One dare not enter the Most Holy Place until full understanding of the instruments in the Holy Place are residing deep within the believer. The priesthood established by Moses fully understood this reality.

One of the predominant colors woven into the linen used in the Holy Place is blue. Blue is typically symbolic of revelation. It is in the Holy place that we are able to sit at His feet and partake of Him through the revelation of His nature and character through the "Light" of His Spirit. The invitation is to come by revelation into the Holy Place to become acquainted with the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord's desire is that we become free so that in our freedom we can partake of the intimate relationship that He longs to have with His people. That has always been the heart of the Father...to have a people for His own possession with whom He can have relationship and through whom He can express His divine attributes.

In the Holy Place, one of the first instruments we are able to observe is the lampstand.

This is representative of the light being shed abroad in our hearts to bring us the revelation of the Lord. He is lighting our candle to illuminate our dark places. For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness. (Ps 18:28) Without His light we are blinded by the spirit of this world to our true condition and the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ and our inheritance in Him. Foremost in our birthright is the opportunity, through his great grace, to be free from our own carnality and the sins which so easily beset us and separate us from Him. "The god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God...For God, who said, "Light shall shine out of darkness," is the One who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. (2 Cor 4:4&6)

The lampstand is the only source of Light in the Holy Place and is fueled by pure olive oil speaking of His anointing for this purpose. (Zec. 4:1-7) Our invitation in this hour is to enter the Holy Place and allow the light of His Spirit to shine upon our seeds of corruption so they can be uprooted as we cry out to Him for deliverance. As we allow this process, we will likewise receive the impartation of the attributes essential to enter and maintain His divine Presence without grieving His Holy Spirit. Once our conscience is clear and we are walking in the Light, we likewise become the light of the world, as Jesus described in Matthew 5:14-16. We can shine for the Lord in the midst of this dark and corrupt generation drawing others to Him, not because of any virtue of our own but because of His manifestation in us. (Philippians 2:15). That is the gospel of Jesus Christ...Christ in us the hope of Glory.

When the candlestick was lighted it produced illumination in the Holy Place. When our candle has been lighted it will produce an illumination and glory that will emanate from us as described in the life of Peter. The scriptures portray Peter so clothed in the Glory of God that the mere casting of the glory-shadow over the people produced healing and allowed them to touch the resources of heaven for their great need. The sevenfold spirit of God resting in us will provide the same great illumination that will make us the exceptional light shining in a dark place.

THE BREAD OF HIS PRESENCE

Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, dedicating it to Him, to burn fragrant incense before Him, and to set out the showbread continually, and to offer burnt offerings morning and evening, on sabbaths and on new moons and on the appointed feasts of the LORD our God, this {being required} forever in Israel. And the house which I am about to build {will be} great; for greater is our God than all the gods. But who is able to build a house for Him, for the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain Him? So who am I, that I should build a house for Him, except to burn {incense} before Him? (2 Chr 2:4-6)

Man does not live by bread alone but by every word that continually proceeds from the mouth of God. The Lord has delegated "manna" for each generation displaying perpetual depths of His greatness and Truth. He is the very fountain of ALL wisdom and the source of ALL knowledge. He expects His people who possess His Spirit to embrace every word that He utters and the continual unfolding of Biblical Truth. In the Holy Place the table of Shewbread (Bread of His Presence) was a symbol of thanksgiving for His Divine provision. After serving its purpose in the Holy Place it was then consumed by the priests. We must consume every revelation of the Lord to be molded into His image and bear His attributes.

The Lord Jesus was the Word incarnate in flesh. To partake of Him is to share in the revelation of God. Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me shall not hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst. (John 6:35) The message for this hour is to be careful to receive the full revelation of Jesus Christ as revealed to us by the Holy Spirit through the Word of God. The Light of the Lampstand provides the illumination of the Shewbread and the full revelation of God. Paul once announced that he did not shun to declare the whole counsel of God in his preaching of the gospel. We need the “whole counsel” to be presented to the Lord Jesus and to enter the Most Holy place and union with our God. To deny any portion of the sacred scriptures is to embrace unbelief, the sin that kept the children of Israel from entering the promise land after their deliverance from Egypt.

In Him is the Bread of Life which He freely imparts to those who come to him unbridled and hungry for His Presence. However, we cannot come to Him cloaked in worldly conformity but clothed in His righteousness bearing His image and likeness. We are sanctified in Truth and His Word is Truth. (John 17:17)

ABIDING IN THE FEAR OF THE LORD

One of the scriptures greatly emphasized for this season conveys the seven eyes of God which range to and fro throughout the earth. These “eyes” are symbolic of the Lord’s omniscience and represented by the menorah. For us to accomplish the destiny of the church, we must be joined with Him partaking of this divine insight so we can focus our efforts in the direction the Lord desires. The seven spirits of God standing before the throne of God bringing the full manifestation of the sevenfold spirit of God resting in God’s people producing the life of Christ as portrayed in the ministry of Christ while He lived on the earth in human form.

Among the seven Spirits of God, there is an emphasis on— the fear of the Lord. The fear of the Lord is a corridor through which so many divine attributes are released through the church and essential to entering and maintaining His Empowering Presence. It is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge and living understanding concerning the Lord’s ways in heaven and on the earth. It is essential in the operation of the manifest Presence of God through our lives in accordance with the nature and character displayed throughout the life of Christ.

We must come to understand the great significance of the fear of the Lord and our utter inability to produce it in the “soulish” realm of man. It is strictly an impartation from the divine nature worn as a mantle, resting upon those who have sought Him with their whole heart and have overcome the spirit of this world. Our fervent prayer should be for the “fear of the Lord” to rest in us in full measure.

LIVING IN MEEKNESS

The fear of the Lord manifested in the spirit of a person will always produce meekness. Meekness is primarily being teachable and willing to change when confronted with issues contrary to the character of God. Meekness is by no means a sign of weakness. It is simply the willingness to be molded into the image of Christ. It is characterized in gentleness of spirit and mildness of disposition. Blessed are the meek (gentle, mild), for they shall inherit the earth. (Matt 5:5)

If we are to be yoked with the Lord in nature and purpose, then we will come before the Father in the same manner as the Lord...in gentleness (meekness) and humility. When we are able to approach the throne of God according to this posture, we will then begin to experience His manifest Presence. Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you shall find rest for your souls. (Matt 11:29)

When this takes place we must overcome the great tendency to “do something” and merely remain still and reverential in His presence. This will produce a heart of admiration and worship beyond anything we could ever imagine. There is a time to be busy about the Lord’s work and a time to be still with our faces pressed to His feet in worship and adoration. The illumination of the Holy Spirit in us will provide the discernment between the two. Those who have experienced His manifest presence can readily testify that the power of such a Presence will produce an awe and worship beyond the comprehension of man. The truly faithful will be afraid to move, much less stand in this awesome Presence and attempt to speak or do ministry.

The “fear of the Lord” will awaken us to the time to be “hushed” and sit in silent admiration.

The scriptures admonish us to grieve not the Holy Spirit of God whereby we are sealed until the day of our redemption. Carelessness and presumption clearly grieve the Holy Spirit. We must overcome these soulish tendencies if we are to enter into His glory and advance to even higher realms of glory. But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit. (2 Cor 3:18)

The scriptures entreat us to go from glory to glory. A review of past outpourings of the Spirit will affirm that historically we have been unable to maintain the glory wondrously released to the Church thus preventing us from moving into even higher realms of glory. We must understand the divine principles that will allow us to sustain the glory released to us so we can then proceed further to greater realms of glory that he desires to display in us.

The Lord is desiring to come to us to examine our innermost being and begin to make changes in us and fashion us to be compatible with His Holy Spirit. In this process, if we will passionately call upon Him, He will release the strength to us in our weaknesses to help us change the areas we are unable to change on our own. This will allow us to return to the innocence of “babes” thus pleasing in the sight of the Father. Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like children, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever then humbles himself as this child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (Matt 18:3-4) A child is totally dependent upon his parents to provide care and protection. It is at this place of reliance we will begin to grow up and develop in His likeness.

Preparing Our Hearts For 2000

Homer Owen

Here we are three days from the beginning of 2000 and the Lord wants us to turn our hearts towards Him for what lies ahead. "Behold, the former things have come to pass, Now I declare new things; Before they spring forth, I proclaim them to you." (Isaiah 42:9). What a promise to each of us from the throne of God. Lord, give us ears to hear You, and a heart to obey Your wonderful instructions.

"Do not call to mind the former things, Or ponder things of the past. Behold, I will do something new, Now it will spring forth; Will you not be aware of it? I will even make a roadway in the wilderness, Rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:18-19).

The God that has redeemed us is not a God of doom and gloom. He is a God of Praise and Glory that has plans for us to prosper in every way in 2000.

Thirty years ago I was facing a new year and was working on a list of new year's resolutions when the Lord spoke to my heart to throw my list away and let Him give me His list. He quickened the following passage that has been my new year's verse's now for thirty years.

"But as God is faithful, our word to you is not yes and no. For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was preached among you by us-by me and Silvanus and Timothy-was not yes and no, but is yes in Him. For as many as may be the promises of God, in Him they are yes; wherefore also by Him is our Amen to the glory of God through us." (2 Corinthians 1: 18-20).

Every promise in the book is mine, ever chapter, ever verse, ever line. Aren't you glad that you have been saved by a God that has good plans for you and is not a yes and no God. When He speaks to our hearts He is going to say Yes and our response is to say Amen!

I spoke to a group of men last week and I quoted a passage of scripture taken from The Message out of Romans 12. I noticed that a few of the men were writing down part of the verse and so I had all of them write down the following. "So here's what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday, ordinary life--your sleeping, eating, going to-work, and walking-around life--and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for Him." (Romans 12:1).

"EMBRACING WHAT GOD DOES FOR YOU IS THE BEST THING YOU CAN DO FOR HIM."

Released 10-20-00

I saw a bracelet of gold with hearts connecting....in a vision and I wondered at it when the Lord spoke...

Love and Compassion are the trademarks of My true prophets regardless of their message. A Father often has to correct His children.

Do not despise My correction.

The oil of purification is being poured out on My people that the BRIDE may be prepared to receive her Bridegroom in that Day that I will come for her.

Only the purest gold will be used for the great task that lies ahead, so do not despise the trials and tribulations that have come upon you.

The Refiner's fire is burning off all that cannot contain My glory !

Darkness cannot abide with light. see Luke 11: 34-36

Open up My bride to Your Beloved. Do not hold back, lest any darkness remain.

Be not afraid to disclose those things that cause you to fear. I will not destroy you ! I am a God of restoration, not destruction.

Let go of distractions. Let go of what you can hold in your hands and hold on only to things that are ETERNAL. Store up treasures in heaven, not on earth, where moth and rust decay.

Open your eyes to the signs of the times. Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away before you see the Son of Man revealed; as never before.

This fire is for a time, so that greater glory may be revealed.

Purify your tongue. Take away the pointing of the finger. Judge NOT lest you be judged.

Love one another as I have loved you, and laid down My life for you.

No greater love has man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend.

Will you lay down your life, that I alone may be revealed in you and through you?

Will you surrender to the One who loves you as no other loves you?

Will you lay down your life that the Fountain of Living Waters may be poured out through you to My garden which has become a barren desert? And to the lost who don't know the Well-Spring of Life ?

Come away with Me.

Spend yourselves on Me and I will reveal the secrets of My heart to you.

Spend yourselves on Me and I will reveal the secrets of men's hearts to you.

Time with ME is time well spent.

Would that you would come to Me for all that ails you. Don't hold back !

all that I have is Yours, if you would just come. Come to Me for all your needs.

Be as a little child, for such is the kingdom of heaven.

The Kingdom of God is NOT in self-sufficiency but in dependency on Me!

It is NOT in other dependency, but dependency on Me alone.

Come to Me in your hurt, in your pain, in your rejection and persecution. I AM

Your Comforter ! For I care FOR you !

I love you !

I love you !

I love you !

I will NEVER leave you or forsake you.

My sheep hear My voice. I know them and they know Me. And No one shall by any means snatch them out of My hand.

I AM the First and the Last !

I AM the great I AM !

I AM the Lord God ALMIGHTY !

Preparation Time

Ros Henderson-Hobson

AS I HAVE BEEN STUDYING THE WORD INTENSELY FOR THE LAST FEW DAYS THE HOLY SPIRIT HAS SPOKEN MUCH TO ME AND AGAIN, REMINDED ME OF THE NEED TO PREPARE BELIEVERS FOR THE DAYS THAT LAY AHEAD OF US. THERE IS MUCH WORKMANSHIP NEEDED IN OUR LIVES, TO BE COMPETENT WORKERS IN THE LORDS SERVICE. THERE IS MUCH NEED FOR SPIRITUAL DISCERNMENT, AND MUCH LEARNING IN HOW TO WEAR AND UTILIZE THE WHOLE ARMOR OF GOD. THIS PROPHECY BELOW WAS GIVEN TO ME, EARLIER ON IN THE YEAR BY THE HOLY SPIRIT AND AGAIN HE HAS BROUGHT THE WORDS TO MY ATTENTION.

Whilst meditating over the word of the lord concerning Salvation and revival. The Lord gave me an inspired vision. Like horses dressed for battle ready to go out and face the enemy, many of us are chafing at the bit to be released let loosed out into battle. We fear not the battle we face or the challenges that lay ahead. But first like all warriors and soldiers we must be ready to meet every challenge and battle we face. We must be able to win the coming war that lays ahead. Like all soldiers and warriors we must become adept at wielding the sword of the Holy Spirit, with skill and much practice we will become refined to the point of great expertise. Our armor is heavenly and like all armor if our bodies (spiritual) are not ready to carry the weight of our battle gear ! we will stumble and fall and become easy prey to the enemy. as we develop our muscles (spiritual) our armor will become well worn and easy to bear ! As we practice and joust with one another (righteously) we will learn how to refine our battle techniques. As in all armies there is plenty of preparation time, and plenty of training done. God knows the time is near ! and so do we ! Let us prepare for the coming battle that lays ahead, as skilled warriors dressed for battle ready to follow Jesus in every way ! let us cast off all fear aside ! and meet our enemy the destroyer who seeks to take the lives of many ! let us win them (the Lost ) for Jesus our Savior ! Let us gird ourselves up in Faith ! let us be mighty warriors dressed and ready for battle ! let us be bold and courageous in our faith ! and stand in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior ! let us declare to the world that Satan is a defeated foe ! for the Captain of the Hosts is Jesus ! and we will follow him into victory !

Like all great athletes let us run the race to victory ! For now many of us are on the starting blocks, stretching and flexing our muscles (spiritual) For we are all about to run the greatest race of our lives in Jesus name ! and let us all be winners for Jesus ! whether great or small ! let us not stumble or fall ! for we are prepared and ready ! to face the coming days ahead!

Joel Chapter 2

Blow the trumpet in Zion, sound the alarm on my holy mount [Zion] Let al the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the Lord is coming, it is close at hand. A day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and of thick mists and darkness, like the morning dawn spread upon the mountains; so there comes a people numerous and mighty, the like of which has never been seen before and shall not be again even to the years of many generations. A fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns; the land is the garden of Eden before them, and behind them is a desolate wilderness; yes and none has escaped. Their appearance is the like the appearance of horses, as war horses and horsemen do they run. Like chariots on the tops of mountains, they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like mighty people set in battle array. Before them the peoples are in anguish, all faces become pale. They run like mighty men, they climb the wall like men of war, they march everyone [straight ahead] on his ways, and they do not break their ranks. Neither do they thrust another, they walk everyone in in his path, and they burst through and upon weapons, yet they are not wounded and they do not change their course. They leap upon the city, they run upon the wall, they climb up on and into the windows like a thief. The earth quakes before them, the Heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. And the Lord utters his voice before the army, for his host is very great, for [the enemy is] strong and powerful who executes Gods word. For the day of the Lord is great and very terrible, and who can endure it ? Therefore also now says the Lord turn and keep on coming to me with all your heart, with fasting, and weeping, and with mourning [ until every hindrance is removed and the broken fellowship is restored] Rend your garments, and return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in loving-kindness, and revokes his sentence of evil [when his conditions are met]

I BELIEVE THAT WE WILL SEE THE GREATEST OUT POURING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT AS SPOKEN ABOUT BY THE APOSTLE PETER IN THE BOOK OF ACTS BY THE PROPHET JOEL. BUT WE MUST BE READY AND PREPARED NOT ONLY FOR THE GREAT OUTPOURING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, BUT ALSO FOR THE TIME OF PERSECUTION. NOW IT WAS EVIDENT THAT THERE, WAS MUCH PERSECUTION DURING THE DAYS OF THE APOSTLES. YET BOTH NON BELIEVERS AND BELIEVERS WITNESSED MANY EVIDENT SIGNS AND WONDERS, DURING THE DAYS OF GREAT HARDSHIP, AND ON A DAILY BASIS MANY WERE ADDED TO THEIR NUMBER. THE TIME IS COMING AGAIN WHEN WE WHO ARE READY AND PREPARED TO PAY WHAT EVER PENALTY WE MUST FACE, IN ORDER THAT THOSE WHO NEED SAVING, HEAR AND SEE THE EVIDENCE OF GODS GREAT WORKMANSHIP IN OUR LIVES. THE LAST WAVE IS COMING, THE FINAL OUTPOURING WILL SOON BE UPON US ! LET US CASTE ASIDE ALL MANNER OF UNRIGHTEOUS LIVING AND SERIOUSLY AND EARNESTLY WITH GREAT PERSEVERANCE AND UNWAVERING HOPE PRAY AND INTERCEDE ON BEHALF OF ALL SAINTS. SO THAT ALL ARE READY AND PREPARED FOR THE COMING DAYS AHEAD.

GOD BLESS

Press Forward!!

Doug Fortune

Subject: WE HAVE NOT YET PREVAILED- Press FORWARD!!

From: Trumpet Call Bulletin <info@DougFortune.org> Date: Wed, 08 Nov 2000 09:27:22 -0600

We all thought by now we would know who the next president of the United States would be... instead we have a recount of votes in Florida. We MUST continue to press forward in prayer! I am sending out a portion of a reminder from Dutch Sheets, a word through Joanne Gavlick <eaglegav@msn.com> entitled Master of Breakthrough, and a portion of an article of mine entitled STRATEGIC OFFENSIVE. This is NO time to retreat, it is time to raise the banner of the Lion of Judah in the midst of battle and see the Kingdom forcefully advanced... the kingdom of the heavenlies, the spiritual atmosphere suffers violence, and the violent take it by force!

"WE HAVE NOT YET PREVAILED IN THIS ENDEAVOR!"

By DUTCH SHEETS

We must not let up at this critical point. I am extremely concerned as we enter into this last week before Election Day. We are in danger of apathy and fatigue keeping us from faithfully interceding until the end. We cannot stop; we have not yet prevailed in this endeavor. There is a great, great urgency that we intensify our intercession during this last week. It is not a time to decrease and let down our guard because we re approaching the finish line. Rather, it is a time to press forward with even greater strength to see the goal accomplished. Once again, I am asking PLEASE, INTERCEDE FOR THIS ELECTION!

As stated in the initial "Prayer Alert For This Nation," I firmly believe this is the most critical election in decades. The results of this election will not only drastically influence America, but other countries as well. I believe Israel will be especially impacted, and what God wants to do in the rest of the world will also be greatly affected by the outcome of next Tuesday's voting.

Please, increase your intercession and fasting. Join together with the Body of Christ for this purpose; there is great power in unity. We must not let down our guard.

Standing with you to see God s purposes accomplished, Dutch Sheets

The Master of Breakthrough

by Joanne Gavlick

Many of you have been entailing unusual warfare, one of such intensity and impact that you have asked, "God how much more can I take? How long, O LORD? When will this end? You have promised, yet my eyes have yet to see the fulfillment of your Word, LORD . . . I don't know how much more I can take."

And the LORD OF HOSTS says to you, "Just as my servant, King David, inquired of Me when he was up against the Philistines, so shall you inquire of Me. Seek, and you shall find. Ask, and you shall be given. Seek Me and ask, 'Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?' As I said to David, I say to you, "Go up to Baal-perazim, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand. For I the LORD have broken through your enemies before you like the BREAK-THROUGH of the waters. Therefore, you shall name this place of defeat Baal-perazim -- THE MASTER OF BREAKTHROUGH!"

"And know this, My friends, the Philistines will return again, and spread themselves about you, so inquire of Me again, and I shall give you the necessary strategy and tactics to flank your enemies as I did for David. You shall not go directly up, but circle around behind them and come at them in front of the balsam trees. And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marchings of horses' hooves in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall act promptly, for then the LORD will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines. As you do as I have commanded, you will know that I am THE MASTER OF BREAKTHROUGH!"

"My WAR CHARIOT is on the way, beloved I am riding upon a cherub that flies with wings of the wind, and My throne comes with Me to defeat your enemies. At the place of Baal-perazim (THE MASTER OF BREAKTHROUGH) I will meet you as a mighty WAR CHARIOT and give your enemies into your hand!"

And know this, that with every BREAKTHROUGH comes another, for each BREAKTHROUGH TRIGGERS ANOTHER BREAKTHROUGH So BREAK THROUGH, Church! Inquire of Me and I will tell you! Look for Me, and you will see Me! Obey My command, and I will BREAK THROUGH your enemies! I am THE MASTER OF BREAKTHROUGH!"

STRATEGIC OFFENSIVE (a portion)
by Doug Fortune

Name me an overcomer who has not overcome something... I didn't think you could. That is the nature of being an overcomer, it is characterized by OVERCOMING! All of us want to be overcomers, few of us want something to overcome.

We are in a season of increased spiritual attack, it seems that the enemy is "...coming in like a flood..." (Is.59:19). We must understand that satan is not God's enemy, he is OUR enemy... he is a pawn in the hand of the Almighty Sovereign God and can do only what God allows or what man, through the forfeited spiritual authority of harboring iniquity, allows. God is now allowing a season of increased attack, and it is intended to ultimately bring forth the purposes of God. Normally when many of us come under attack, we turn tail and run or do everything we can to cause the attack to cease. We go into a DEFENSIVE mode and never enter into the ultimate purpose of God that is found in the MIDST of an attack.

The Word declares to us that He has "...blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ..."(Eph.1:3); so the blessing or increase that manifests in the natural begins in the spiritual realm. Ever notice how the enemy will seek to steal or delay your increase? My friend, it is at that point of attack that we must step forward in an offensive and command the release of that which God has destined for us. Often our blessing or increase is disguised as a 'land full of giants'... and all too often we end up seeing ourselves as grasshoppers and missing our God-ordained increase. We must begin to look at spiritual attacks as OPPORTUNITIES to launch a strategic offensive. If you find yourself under constant attack, it may very well be the grace of God providing many opportunities to advance the Kingdom. Remember, according to Eph. 6 there is no armor on our back side, we are equipped to move forward!

After I had been meditating and writing on this subject, I saw a colonial war movie and I was stirred by a particular scene. The colonists were faltering in the heat of battle and some were starting to retreat as their enemy was beginning to get the upper hand. Suddenly their leader took their flag and rode on horseback through the battle waving the flag and shouting, "Hold the line and ADVANCE!"... well, you can figure the rest of the story. It was a major turning point, and victory was wrought. I'm reminded of Is.59:19 as it says. "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard (flag or banner) against him...". This is what God desires, that we raise the banner of the Lion of Judah in the midst of battle and see the Kingdom forcefully advanced... the kingdom of the heavenlies, the spiritual atmosphere suffers violence, and the violent take it by force!

All of us want to be more than conquerors in Christ... few of us want something to conquer... God will graciously provide both. Let us move FORWARD, releasing the power that is only found in the midst of battle.

Prophecy For The Body At This Time

Don Hawley

We are only hours away from a new millennium, and as perhaps never before in human history people are tuned in. They vary as to what they think will transpire in the near future, but nearly all expect something far out of the ordinary. I don't believe they'll be disappointed.

This prophecy is not mine; it was given to Kathy Kallen, a lady in Michigan. I believe it's a special message for this moment, especially for those who've been involved in the Renewal of the Holy Spirit that began in North America early in 1994.

The Renewal was a joyful experience because it was designed to bring back to spiritual life the dry bones of the church, languishing for centuries. It accomplished its task, but the party was not designed to go on indefinitely. The final, climatic events of the end time call for something more.

As the eyes of the church the prophets are expected to see what God is bringing to pass, and inform the Body. In April, 1997, Marc Dupont was the first one I noted to point out a new direction for the Renewal movement. He said that God was calling his people to a desert experience, where they would be fitted for end time service. In the summer of 1998 Graham Cooke presented a similar message. About that same time I was at a luncheon where Paul Cain was taking questions. I asked him if he had noticed a change in the direction of Renewal, and he replied, "Definitely. God is calling his people to a new standard of holiness." There were other prophetic voices as well.

Many, myself included, heard and understood the call for desert dwelling, but somehow the time never seemed quite appropriate. So a loving God allowed many of us to experience such difficulties that we found ourselves driven into the desert. A merciful God had to do this, because there is no way to prepare for the final events except in such a setting. The gifts of the Spirit will increase even more in time, but the major focus just now must be on the fruit of the Spirit. Only those who reflect the character of Christ will be safe to empower for serious service. The fullness of Pentecost came only after a time of soul dedication in the upper room.

The desert can be a hard place, and we need to understand the meaning and goals of such an experience. We also need to be encouraged in regards to what lies ahead. I believe the following prophecy speaks to that need. Keep in mind that this prophecy was given a little over a year ago.

God Bless!

Prophetic Exploits

"Prophetic Exploits" at Brownsville.

The following is a report sent out by a former student of the Brownsville Revival School of Ministry, reporting of last Saturday night, when Keith Gerner, Gil Hiltbrunner and I visited the meeting and ended up prophesying. (it was a blast!)

Another Awesome God Night @ Brownsville Revival

BROWNSVILLE REVIVAL REPORT 1/29/2000

Well it has been eight months since I graduated from Brownsville Revival School of Revival and moved to Panama City away from Pensacola and Brownsville Assembly of God. Tonight I came home to Pensacola to attend what I had hoped would be another awesome night of God's manifest presence. I was not disappointed. As I walked up the stairway to the balcony section and took my seat, it all seemed so right. I could feel the presence of God like I had not felt since going to the church I am associate pastor at.

I knew from the start I was in for a treat when I saw Lindell Cooley sitting in the seat normally occupied by Steve Hill. Steve was out of town and Lindell was to bring us tonight's message. Mike Motley led us into the throne room of God tonight. Song after song of awesome worship swept by. The HAPPY SONG was just as the title describes. As happy song of praise with words such "I could sing 1000 years of how you saved me soul". What a way to praise our King.

Looking over the balcony I could see the familiar site of hundreds of hands raised as they twirled, leaped and shouted praises again and again as the HAPPY SONG continued. The sweet scent of the Breath of God seemed to emanate all around. Mike had learned well from his mentor Lindell Cooley as he took us to the peak of praise and right into the throne room of God with intimate worship. "Open the eyes of my heart Lord, open the eyes of my heart, I want to see you, I want to see you" we sang with all the sincerity we could muster.

This was a piece of Heaven inside the walls of this fortress known as Brownsville Assembly of God, safe from the evil that lurked outside the glass doors of the massive building. When I was sure this was the height of tonight's worship, we took the next step and moved into a small drop of His Glory. The songs left the schedule and took on a trail of their own. Without a cue from Mike or Lindell the congregation began to worship in a sustained note or praise all across the building.

Holy Spirit was sweeping the building, many were on their faces before the most High God prostrate before him. Pastor Kilpatrick came to the podium and felt led of the Spirit of God to begin praying for the worship team on the platform. As he did Lindell came to the microphone and began to sing " Send your rain oh Lord, to your people". As he finished Mike Motley addressed the keys and sang "And my heart burns for you". As I closed my eyes and worship I saw the people on the down on the floor all standing on a beach slowly walking into a pool of crystal clear water. It seemed to be only about knee deep at this point. They were walking ever so slowly and gently into the pool. As I opened my eyes I could see again Lindell taking the microphone and beginning to sing and worship.

Pastor Kilpatrick started praying for the musicians and as he finished Holy Spirit led him again to the worship team to pray over them again. Soon he finished and announced that he and the worship team and pastoral staff were coming down to the front of the platform and begin praying for the revival attendees. He said that the prayer team was coming down to also pray for the people. That was my cue to get back to the prayer team were my wife and I were members and took our places on the floor. The anointing tonight was so strong as I prayed for people, I had a hard time standing up myself. The Lord showed up again tonight at Brownsville Assembly of God and as always He was an Awesome God.

It was indeed a time of anointing and refreshing. One additional detail was that during the worship, Pastor Kilpatrick felt led to ask two prophets that are known to him to be walking in the gift of prophecy. Pastor Jim Wies from Florida and Keith Gerner from Ireland came to the platform and gave a word that the Lord gave them for the body of Christ and for Pastor Kilpatrick. A third man from Texas had a prophetic song for the church as well but I was not able to get a copy of it. I was able to obtain a rather close copy of what was prophesied that night from Pastor Wies. Keith Gerner followed with a picture of Isaiah chapter 6, showing that out of holiness and an encounter with God, He was sending out men. The following is the prophesy from Pastor Wies. I pray they will bless you as much as they blessed us last Saturday night. ~ Terry L. Richardson

Jim Wies----- The Lord says. “Do not despise the day of small beginnings” But you say, “what small beginnings? Has not this been big, has not this been glorious and wonderful?” But the Lord says “This is a small thing compared to what I intend to do, and the things that shall be seen in the day of My glory and the hour of My power that is about to come. For surely out of the womb if this place has come a prototype of what I intend to do on a larger scale across the body of Christ. For I have called you to multiply, multiply, multiply” says the Lord.

And to Pastor John Kilpatrick the Lord says... and even to he who, in reality, wears the calling of “apostle” John, the Lord says, “Truly I have been doing a work deep inside you and I have formed a message in you and I have birthed in you an understanding of the pattern, even as one who knows how to build according to the pattern.

For even as in the days when my Son came into the ‘House’ riding on a donkey; came riding in on the wings of praise, and he donned his apostolic mantle – that of a master builder, come to set the ‘house’ in order; the first thing that was declared was that “My house shall be a house of prayer” . And the house was set in order and the house was declared to be a house of prayer, and a house of purity, and then a house of power for then they began to see power and miracles and countless signs and wonders in that place.

So you shall be sent to reproduce, reproduce, reproduce. I’ve birthed the pattern in you and I am going to send you to imprint the pattern upon other places, even the wider Body of Christ. And do not be distressed or concerned that as you spread the fire abroad, the fire at home shall diminish, for truly, it is the principle in My kingdom that as you give, it shall be given, and as you sow abroad, so shall it come back to you,” So the Lord says “I will perpetuate the fire at home, as you spread the fire abroad” says the Lord - Pastor Jim Wies

Keith Gerner----- ...I followed with a picture of Isaiah chapter 6, showing that out of holiness and an encounter with God, He was sending out men. The Texan friend then shared in song that God was seeking a weeping people, and meetings not dominated by programs. After further praise, we all then were asked to minister individually to the people! Jim flowed in personal prophecy for nearly two hours, until they switched out the lights on us, and I was able to hand over the personal prophetic tape I had made on our pocket recorder for copies made on the spot for him and the Church staff. There were tremendous reactions, and we saw some tears and some pain leave bodies! Most were seeking guidance and callings, and many got praise for decisions they already had made before the Lord. We could not pray for everyone, but covered many of the dedicated staff there in this huge main auditorium with seating for 3,500 and a Ministry school with 1,100 currently enrolled. The building was well filled even with diminished attendance due to the weather and the implications of this Word from the Lord are staggering for His future plans! I had a vision of domino effect right down the Eastern coast of USA...

Protective Covering

Ros Henderson-Hobson

The Protective Covering of the Almighty God

Last night as I lay upon my bed, my thoughts began to turn towards what the days of persecution and tribulation would be like. A picture began to unfold before my eyes of a small group of travelers who were taking shelter in the forest for the night.

The people were of mixed ages, all sat around the warmth of the fire talking quietly, when one man began to speak of why he had left his family and home.

I stood listening to his testimony and watched while the group of people began to tire.

I said to the Lord who is going to cover these people from the elements, and who is going to protect them from the enemy ?

Then my eyes opened again to see a circle of angels with outstretched wings encamped around about the outside of the travelers.

Their wings touched each other, so that no-one could see into the camp, where the travelers lay

The enemies view was blocked completely from seeing the and-and the Travelers were sheltered by the wings of the Almighty.

This scene was simple yet very profound and showed my the great covering wings of the Almighty God----Psalm 91 verses 1-11

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty

I will say of the LORD, [He is] my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, [and] from the noisome pestilence

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth [shall be thy] shield and buckler

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; [nor] for the arrow [that] flieth by day

[Nor] for the pestilence [that] walketh in darkness; [nor] for the destruction [that] wasteth at noonday

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; [but] it shall not come nigh thee

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the LORD, [which is] my refuge, [even] the most High, thy habitation

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways

There are many who fear the coming days ahead and worry about their lives. Fear not for God is with us and will lead and guide us in all our ways. He is a God of Grace and Peace and Mercy, and his love knows no depths or bounds. He is our covering, he is our shelter from all the storms. It is our God in whom we shall trust ! Fear not the enemy or his plans, for greater is he that is in us and with us, than he that is in the world.

As the Lord sustained the Israelites in the wilderness, he is faithful and will sustain us in all our ways. Glory be to God, the most High God who is and is to come !

Let your kingdom come, let your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven ! let us be faithful to your word, and obedient to your voice ! Let us hearken unto the voice of the Master for he returneth soon.

God Bless all

The Prophet's Value

Jim Rapalje & Wayne Barto.

Dream by Jim Rapalje on 1 March 1998 and interpretation [in italics] by Wayne Barto.

Mon., 09 Mar 1998

RE: D&V LIST NO.98 THE PROPHET'S VALUE OF BEING CONNECTED TO A LOCAL BODY DESPITE DISCOURAGEMENT FOR HE IS ABSOLUTELY NEEDED TO "RESTORE ALL THINGS."

Circumstances: The one thing that may have something to do with this dream is our present forage into the Assembly of God church that we have attended over the last five weeks . It hasn't been a good experience, and there are a lot of internal problems there.

The Dream:

I found myself on a soccer field at my son's soccer game. The soccer field seemed to be part of a church complex.

---

It appears there is a direct connection between the soccer field and the church that the dreamer has been recently attending. It provides the setting for the dreamer's experience.

---

After watching the game for awhile, I had an undeniable urge to clean up the field. Next thing I am walking around the field while the game is going on picking up papers and trash with one of those nail on a stick instruments

---

The "game" is on - and being soccer - perhaps the dreamer views the game as a lot of "back and forth" without much "scoring" - in a spiritual sense. This may be frustrating to him and he may be perceiving things wrong with the way the "game" is played and even desirous of correcting certain situations - therefore in his dream he has an undeniable urge to clean-up the field which is representative of the church in question. The dreamer represents the Spirit of Elijah that must come to "restore all things" prior to the return of the Lord! (Mt 17:11, Mr 9:12, Mal 4:5,6)

---

No one seemed to pay any attention to this and the game went on as usual.

---

This indicates the frustration and the lack of recognition that the church has given to the restoring mission of the true prophetic and the prophets the Lord has given to the Body. This is something that the prophets of the Lord must guard against - discouragement and rejection. Elijah himself suffered from this syndrome and the prophets must recognize this as a weapon the enemy WILL use against them. Even though it looks like the "game is going on as usual" - the prophets of the Lord are to rise up and prophesy to the dry bones so that they will come to life (Ezek. 37).

Next scene, my brother in law, who is an elder of a New Testament fellowship, was driving me home after the game, but, he ends up delivering me to the same church that the soccer field was connected to. -

---

This indicates that the dreamer desires a true "New Testament" recognition of the prophetic gifting that the Father has entrusted him with. He expects to be delivered from the "game" and the fellowship where the game is played. The brother in law represents the "true elder" of our faith and the New Testament church - the Lord Jesus Christ! He brings him back to what he is frustrated with - the church connected with the "back and forth" of the soccer game. The Lord is strategically positioning His Elijahs for a restorative work in the latter days and will put them where they truly can be used to restore all things and speak life to the dry bones!

I go inside and downstairs to the basement and it turns out to be a restaurant. Except the ambiance of the restaurant is dirty, dark, cellar like and smelled of mold. I was taken back by this and yet at the same time it seemed that this appearance and presentation was purposeful, and had even been planned. -

---

Here the prophet is brought to the "foundation level" of the church by Jesus Himself to examine what is going on. He finds that the foundation has been laid correctly "the appearance and presentation was purposeful, and had even been planned" however there needed to be more purity and holiness "it was dirty", more light "it was dark", and it needed the fresh wind of the Spirit moving through it "it was moldy". The restaurant nature of this church indicates that at the foundation level this church considers the "feeding and nurturing" of the Word as an important part of their doctrine in there on-going work. It just needs to be cleaned up, restored and prophesied to!!

---

I leave there and find myself in the back seat of an auto traveling down an expressway at a high rate of speed. I complain to the driver that he is going too fast and he replies that if I think I can do it better, than drive. I do and next thing I am driving down the road at 80 miles an hour, and cars are weaving in and out and coming at us from the other direction and I am sure we are to be killed.

---

The dreamer now finds himself in the back seat of an auto indicating that he is an observer "not an active participant" in the forward moving of the "prophetic vehicle". It is moving at a high rate of speed on the "expressway of the Spirit". God is placing a high priority on the coming forth of the prophetic movement and the prophetic church. The dreamer knows that he can navigate this expressway (he has the gifts and calling) and therefore suddenly finds himself in the driver's seat. The sudden change from "non-active" to "active" participant alarms the dreamer however it is important to note that he does not have any accidents in this dream - despite the things coming at him from all angles at high rates of speed ! Are his concerns about surely being killed unfounded?

---

Right in the middle of that, we get a message (I don't know how, just realized, I guess ) that a tragedy had occurred at the church / restaurant . We head right back there and it seems that a "worker " has been killed by an explosion of the furnace down in this "restaurant ."

---

The calling of the prophet is confirmed to the local Body when he receives revelation in the midst of navigating the flow of the "Expressway of the Spirit". He heads back to the church, following the previous precedent of his "brother in law", who represents Jesus in this dream. There are elements and evidence of the "watchman" and even "pastoral" anointings here. His return to the church is over a killed "worker" and his concern for the foundational integrity of the church "explosion of the furnace down in this restaurant".

---

Everyone is distraught and walking around trying to figure out how this may have happened. I especially notice one man sitting at a table throughout the ordeal who is studying something and not interacting with the rest of the people at all.

---

It seems that the sheep have been scattered - they are "distraught and walking around". In this condition of the church, the dreamer acts as the perceiver/watchman to discern what the true nature of the "explosion" is in the church. This is important in that it has happened on the foundational level of the church and is connected to where the sheep are feed (restaurant). The prophet must "see" the true nature of what is happening in the local Body he is connected to - and discern where the attack or the enemy has come from.

---

I snoop around for awhile, seem to be investigating the scene and realize that the man who was killed had actually been murdered ! I then start to go up the stairs to the first floor, and I turn in time to see a man come out of a side door downstairs. I immediately sense that he is the man responsible, and he has a machine gun in his hands. I knew that he had killed the man and tried to cover it up by setting the explosion. I woke up.

Here the prophet/dreamer shows maturity in not making "snap" judgments as he "is snooping around for awhile" and "investigating the scene". In doing so, the prophet discovers the true nature of the attack of the enemy " he had actually been murdered". The prophet/dreamer then is going to the first floor which represents the responsibility of the watchman to take his revelation and information to the elders and not to take things into his own hands or force the issue. In so doing, and in his obedience, he is given further confirmation and even more revelation regarding this attack of the enemy. The man exiting the door downstairs may indicate that the perpetrator was "foundational" to the church. The machine gun may represent the ability of this person to "take out more than one" in rapid succession if allowed to continue unabated. The cover-up is typical of the enemy's work in concealing the true nature of his actions.

Through this dream, I believe that God is speaking to Jim and other prophets like him about the value of being "connected" to a local Body. Do not let discouragement or rejection keep you separated from God's purposes and plans for you. You are absolutely needed to "restore" all things. For you shall "build up the old waste places; raise up the foundations of many generations". "You shall be called the Repairers of the Breach, The Restorer of Streets to Dwell in." (Isaiah 58:12) The enemy's plan is to get the prophets offended, separated, discouraged and feeling like they have been rejected. Don't let him succeed! -

Principalities & Powers

Deborah Voetberg

As we draw closer to our Lord and come to know the greatness of His majesty...we become changed...transformed...and find it easier to live according to His ways and principals.

Let's us examine our hearts with the Spirit of the Lord as our guide and see whose principals we are following.

Great Grace! Deborah

PRINCIPALITIES AND POWERS, WHOSE KINGDOM IS RULING YOUR LIFE?

Ephesians Chapter 3 speaks of the mystery of God: the revealing, purpose and appreciation of it; the mystery, hidden for ages, now revealed by the Spirit of God to His Apostles and Prophets. The mystery revealing that.." The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19:10...and that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs of the same body and partakers of His promise in Christ. That through Jesus Christ, the 2nd Adam, a new creation, one new man from two, has come thus making peace. That because of what Jesus suffered in His body through the cross; hatred between the two was put to death. ( Eph. 2:15 & 16 )

The mystery of the New Creation is freedom from the Law of Sin and Death and through Christ we are now under the Law of the Spirit of Life and Grace. We are strengthened by His might, through His Spirit in the inner man, rooted and grounded in His love.

Paul says that grace was given to him to preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. That the whole family in heaven and earth is named after the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. That we are all to be rooted and grounded in love to be able to comprehend and be filled with all the fullness of God. All of this and more, we the church (living stones), are to make known the manifold wisdom of God to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places. (Ephesians 3:10)

We cannot make known something we haven't received and had written upon our hearts. We cannot search what is unsearchable apart from Christ. The fact that the Holy Spirit revealed this to Paul states plainly that it is ours not only to search out because of Jesus Christ, but also to proclaim. Who is unable to search out these riches? Those who are not in Christ.

We have the Holy Spirit living within us as a down payment & guarantee that God's purpose for us is to be further clothed by His Spirit with His life and to come into the fullness of our inheritance. The Holy Spirit has come to guide us into all truth and He only speaks to us what the Father tells Him to speak. All the riches that are in Christ Jesus, that are unsearchable to those who do not know Him, are revealed by the Holy Spirit to those who abide in Christ. Wisdom and knowledge are some of the riches that are in God.

The Word says in Romans 11:29 that the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. What God planned for your life before the foundation of the world will never change. He will never cancel His divine plan for your life. His purpose will always be that you become holy and without blame before Him in love, that this was according to His good pleasure of His will to the praise of His glory. He will make you holy for His namesake. He will give you a new heart and a new spirit. The Holy Spirit...His Holy Spirit that lives in you, will lead you into all truth and transform you into the likeness of Jesus Christ. His purpose is to fill you with the manifold wisdom of God that can only be revealed through His Spirit. Your very life will make known and proclaim to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places the manifold wisdom of God...that they cannot search out for themselves!

We need to understand that the wisdom and knowledge that Satan and his army function in is the wisdom and knowledge of this world...which is far lower than the wisdom and knowledge of Almighty God that is made known freely to those who are in Christ: to those who believe in their heart that He is Lord and seek Him with their whole life and being! Had the rulers of this age known the knowledge of God they would have never crucified Christ! (1 Cor. 2:6-8)

To better understand how we make known the manifold wisdom of God, we need to have the understanding of what and who are the principalities and powers.

PRINCIPLE: A basic truth, law, assumption, rule or standard of conduct. Fixed, predetermined rule or policy.

PRINCIPALITIES: Territories, jurisdiction of a prince, sovereignty...also...a beginning, cornerstone, first, magistrate and a ranking order.

POWERS: Authority, jurisdiction, liberty, strength, delegated influence, lawful... Also...Violent, mighty, miraculous, abundance & dunamis.

So we are talking about basic truths, laws, assumptions, standards of conduct & policies. And we are speaking of the powers that legally rule lives and territories through them.

If we look closely at the word of God we will see that some of the early church stumbled on this lack of understanding concerning principles and the principalities and powers that ruled. Even to this day, we have lacked the fullness of this understanding that God predetermined us to walk in.

Paul in his letter to the Colossians said in Chapter 2:8..." Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ. "

ACCORDING...a very important word to understand! It is used in many places in the Word and means...'after the manner of and in the distribution of"! So Paul is saying 'BEWARE' of anyone who comes to you in the manner and distribution of men and in the manner and distribution of the basic rules of the world! Those who do not come to you in the manner and distribution of Christ but of the rulers of this age! Has the church become so mingled with the world and its rules and standard of conduct that we can no longer discern the principles of the world from the principles of Christ?

The church is once again hearing from the Spirit of God the words written in Hebrews 5:12-14 & 6:1&2. " For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the FIRST PRINCIPLES of the oracles ( sayings – words ) of God; and you have come to need milk and not solid food. For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of RIGHTEOUSNESS, for he is a babe. BUT solid food belongs to those who are full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. Therefore, leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ, let us go on to perfection, NOT laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, of the doctrine of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. "

Paul was saying that these first principles of God had been laid in their lives, and by reason of use their senses should have been exercised and they should have been skilled in the word of righteousness. They had been taught and should have been walking in the elementary principles of Christ. But they were once again having to be taught the first principles, because he was not seeing or hearing of the evidence of them walking in righteousness. ( We shall be known by our fruits!)

The Lord, by His Spirit, is saying this again to His children. Is He angry with us? No...just pointing out to us from His Mercy and Grace, that we still have the tendency to put ourselves under the letter of the law instead of accepting the Spirit of Life!

In the Word you will find one reference to 'rulers of darkness', two of 'rulers of this age', one of 'spiritual hosts of wickedness, but eleven references to 'principalities & powers'. And principalities & powers are mentioned in connection to the church and the power they no longer have over the church because of Jesus Christ.

Before we were saved our nature was that of a branch of a wild olive tree. By the grace of God he found us when we were not looking for him and grafted us into the cultivated olive tree contrary to our nature! (Romans 11:24) CONTRARY TO OUR NATURE! Can the branch change its own nature? NO. Only what is found in the sap of the cultivated tree will change the nature of the branch. Can you by your own works of the flesh change your nature? NO. Only by the spirit of the tree can you be changed. BUT you must be grafted in and stay there allowing the Spirit to transform you according to the word of the Lord.

Our flesh has been conditioned to follow the principles of this world and act according to its ways. Lawlessness surrounds us and will abound as long as the principles of lawlessness are followed. God has given us grace to live according to His principles and ways. This life we now live in the flesh we live by faith in the Son of God who died for us. We are not to set aside the very grace that the Father gave to us through the sacrifice of His Son so that we may be free to live according to His principles. His principles are found in His Righteousness.

We put on the Righteousness of Jesus Christ because nothing we can ever do in our flesh will ever be considered righteous in the eyes of the Father. Our flesh is not subject to the law of God! Its very nature is of the law of sin & death. (Romans 8:7) So we crucify it because our bodies are dead because of sin, but the Spirit of God brings life because of righteousness! Through His Spirit we are raised from the dead walking and living according ( after the distribution and manner of His Spirit ) and through His Spirit that now dwells in us! ( Romans 8:10&11)

So what is our warfare? It is the tearing down of strongholds that have been built in our minds and hearts by following the principles of this world and not God's. And our weapons are not carnal (of the flesh) but mighty in God. Strongholds are fortresses that keep wounds and lawlessness locked away in our hearts and minds and the truth of God out. His principles will tear those down. But we must cast down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. (2 Cor. 10:3-6) Our part is to walk and live according to His principles. Then He will be the power in your life that brings forth transformation!

What principles have you been living by? What power is behind those principles? The principalities and powers in heavenly places can only have power over your life if you are walking and living according to their lawlessness. God said He would punish all disobedience when our obedience is fulfilled.

When you are walking and living according to His principles and ways, His Spirit will lead you into all truth and your very life will become a living testimony of His manifold wisdom that is far above any wisdom the prince of this world can ever come up with! You will always be ahead of any plan the Devil tries to set in motion concerning your life and call! Am I saying the Devil isn't intelligent? NO. He has been watching mankind for thousands of years and is expert in the workings of the flesh. Mankind makes his job easy because of our habitual sinful nature. The solution...crucify the very flesh that cannot please God.

Your stronghold is Jesus Christ! He is your Hightower! He is your Power! Apart from Him you can do nothing. Let us become skilled in His Righteousness! By reason of use (choosing His principles and ways in our daily lives) we exercise our senses to discern both good and evil. The more we walk according to His principles the sharper our discernment becomes. We are no longer babes but mature in the ways of our Lord. His Righteousness flowing through our lives will push back any lawlessness that we encounter and we will see to the praise of His Glory our lives, homes, cities and nations won for Christ!

Blessings to all! Deborah Voetberg

Pruning the Prophetic

David White

"Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit." (John 15:2)

The Spirit of God is allowing, and bringing the prophetic ministry into a season of pruning. The prophetic ministry, like everything else, will be shaken so that only that which was birthed of God may remain (Heb. 12:27). Truly, "whatever is born of God overcomes the world" (1 Jn. 5:4), however whatever is not born of God will not survive the challenges and confrontations ahead.

There are at least three reactions those involved in prophetic ministry, or really any ministry, can have to this season of pruning. First we can simply pay no attention to it. However, since Jesus Himself is the one doing the pruning this will not likely work for to long. Second, we could become offended. However being offended would only reveal that indeed something exist that allowed the offense to be received in the first place. Third, those involved in prophetic ministry can give thanks for the pruning, understanding that pruning is required to bear more fruit. Just as Proverbs 27:6 reminds us that "faithful are the wounds of a friend", so we must remember that the pruning process, is not a foe, but a friend.

The Apostle Paul, under the unction of the Holy Spirit, encouraged the church at Corinth, and therefore us today, to "Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves." (II Cor. 13:5) Testing ourselves includes our reexamining if what we are currently doing is that which is God's highest and best. To walk in the best requires a continual forsaking of that which is only good. Therefore, keeping this verse and command in mind, lets look at some of the ways God is currently dealing with the church and in particular the prophetic ministry. As we do this, we will focus on these four words: pruning, purifying, proving and purpose.

First, the Lord is, as we have already partially mentioned, pruning the prophetic ministry.

All that is associated with, or is in some way related to the prophetic ministry today, can be placed into one of two different categories. First, there is that which Jesus described as not bearing fruit and as a result is being taken away. Then there is that which has and continues to bear fruit and therefore is undergoing the process called pruning.

Webster's dictionary defines the word to 'prune', as that which relates to, 'the part which is cut off or cut back for better shape or more fruitful growth'; 'the process of reducing or eliminating superfluous matter'; and 'to cut away what is unwanted'. The Greek word used for prune literally means to 'clean'.

In this present season the Lord is 'cutting off' or 'cutting back' much from the prophetic ministry for a better shape and more fruitful growth. He is reducing, and in some cases eliminating the 'superfluous' matter. The Lord is pruning back all that is unwanted by Him. Everyone involved in ministry, regardless of the nature, needs to be reminded at least daily, that the church is not ours but fully belongs to the Lord. Jesus really is the Head of His church.

It's the Lord's intention, that those who have faithfully borne fruit in the prophetic ministry begin to bear much more fruit. The days that are upon the church, will demand that those involved in any ministry, and in particular the prophetic ministry, bear much more fruit than we have in the past. Because of His love and purposes for the prophetic ministry, He is pruning it, or to put it another way, He is 'cleaning it up'.

Second, the Lord is purifying the prophetic ministry.

Malachi reminds us, "And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant (Jesus), in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming," Says the Lord of hosts. "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire and like launderers' soap. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord and offering in righteousness." (Malachi 3:1b-3)

The Lord is coming! However He is first coming to the church before He comes for the church. His coming to the church also includes His coming to that part of His church, which represents the prophetic ministry. He is coming to purify it.

The Hebrew word translated, 'purify' means, 'pure; sound; clear; unadulterated; uncontaminated; and holy'. The Lord desires that those involved in the prophetic ministry bring to Him, "an offering in righteousness", or that which has been tested and is pure. He desires that which is biblically sound, that which is clear and unadulterated, and that which is uncontaminated by human opinion and that which is holy. To do this requires that the prophetic ministry, or any ministry, be purged and purified.

I remember as a little boy, many threats from my mother to wash my mouth out with soap. Then came that fateful day when the threat became a reality. After that experience, I had a certain fear about what came out of my mouth. God is restoring the fear about what comes out of the mouth of those who have, and in the coming days, will speak for Him. Proverbs 30:5-6 says, "Every word of God is pure; (tested, refined)...Do not add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar."

Third, the Lord is proving the prophetic ministry.

"And Moses said to the people, "Do not fear, for God has come to test (prove) you, and that His fear may be before you, so that you may not sin." (Exodus 20:20)

"Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; Try my mind and my heart." (Psalm 26:2)

Just as every word of God has been tested and proved, so every man or woman of God must walk through a number of prophetic proving grounds as preparation for the challenges ahead.

Before Elijah was entrusted with the authority to successfully confront the prophet's of Baal at Mount Carmel, he first had to walk through the prophetic proving ground called the Brook Cherith. "Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "Get away from here and turn eastward and hide by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan." (I Kings 17:2-3)

The name Cherith, comes from a Hebrew word which means, 'to cut, destroy, or consume'.

After having received and spoken the word of the Lord, Elijah's ministry seemed to be, 'cut off, destroyed, and consumed'. He had to lay down seeing the fulfillment of the word he had given Ahab and go and hide in a place of total isolation. Yet it was there that Elijah learned a lesson regarding the faithfulness of God to provide all that he needed wherever he was sent.

Elijah then had to pass through another prophetic proving ground called Zarephath, which happens to mean, 'refinement'. "Then the word of the Lord came to him saying, "Arise, go to Zarephath," (I Kings 17:8-9a)

It wasn't just Ahab that had heard the voice of Elijah, but God had to hear Elijah's voice calling out to Him. The Lord was waiting for Elijah to obtain that holy desperation that would not let go. "Then the Lord heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he revived." (I Kings 17:22)

Elijah in his desperation to see life come back into the body of a widow's only child, passionately cried out to God and as a result witnessed first hand the power of God to raise the dead. In so doing, Elijah was proven to be the man God had called him to be and was now ready for the challenges ahead. "Then the women said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is the truth." (Elijah 17:24)

The Lord is now coming to His house to judge between the sheep and the goats, between sheep ministries and goat ministries. The names of the cities or places may be different from Cherith and Zarephath nevertheless they are the prophetic proving grounds intended to produce proven prophetic ministries ready for the Mount Carmels ahead.

Fourth, God is bringing the prophetic ministry into a season of pruning, purifying and proving that it might be prepared for purposes ordained of God for the end of the age.

After passing through the Lord's proving grounds, Elijah was prepared for the confrontation with the prophets of Baal at Mount Carmel. The name Carmel literally means, 'fruitful field'. God brought Elijah through a season of pruning, (the Brook Cherith), and purifying, (Zarephath), that he might be prepared to be fruitful on Mount Carmel.

Before confronting the prophets of Baal, Elijah first addressed the children of Israel who had also been gathered at Mount Carmel. "So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel. And Elijah came to all the people, and said, "How long will you falter between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; but if Baal, then follow him." But the people answered him not a word." (I Kings 18:20-21)

The confrontation that occurred on Mount Carmel was ordained to touch and change the heart of a nation. Israel had been faltering between two opinions. When Elijah asked the people to choose between following Baal or following God, they could not even answer him with one word. Israel was in a crisis, but God had ordained a confrontation designed to turn their hearts back to Him.

"Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. "And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken down." (I Kings 18:30) After repairing the altar, (the place of worship), that had been broken down, Elijah demonstrated in the sight of all of Israel who really was the Lord God in Israel. "And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word. Hear me, O Lord, hear me, that this people may know that You are the Lord God, and that You have turned their hearts back to you again." (I Kings 18:36-37)

Immediately after Elijah finished crying out to God, the fire of God fell in the sight of all of Israel causing Israel to cease their faltering between two opinions. "Now when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces, and they said, "The Lord, He is God! The Lord, He is God!" (I Kings 18:39) God used His prophet to turn the hearts of the people back to Him.

A People Prepared for the Lord

"And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord." (Luke 1:16-17)

John the Baptist came in the spirit and power of Elijah, who generations before him, saw the heart of a generation turn back from following their own gods, to following the one true and living God.

God has ordained that the prophetic ministry, in the same spirit and power that Elijah possessed, turn the heart of a nation and a generation back to Him. To get to the place of fruitfulness that God has ordained, the prophetic ministry, and indeed the church, must pass through this current season of pruning, purifying and proving. It will be worth it.

A generation is waiting.

Peace and Safety

Steve Quail

April 6, 1999

You are a divided house. You shall not stand. Divide and conquer has always been used by the devil as his major strategy against My people. My people, I have given you eyes to see and ears to hear and My Spirit have I placed within you to lead and guide you. But alas, there is no knowledge of truth and righteousness in the land and My shepherds have acquired the taste of lamb in their mouths.

The political leaders of your land are deceived and know not that the time of their exposure is near, for as I live, saith the Lord, the dainty and pleasurable, the false and unreal are soon to be exposed to the entire world. A land, fair and lovely is soon to be over run with the armies of the wicked one. You must use the short time that remains to strengthen yourselves in Me. Yea, I will tell you what to do and where to go if you will but seek Me with your whole heart. If you would seek Me, in brokenness and repentance, then would I be found of you and you would be refreshed and restored by My power.

Now I speak concerning the nations that are posed to spring upon your country like fire ants...striking, killing and devouring everything in their path. Russia, the bear, has not been silent or in the background. On the contrary, like the conductor of a symphony, they have been orchestrating every movement and every note of America's funeral dirge. Do you not see? Do you not understand? China, the great dragon, has seduced many of your highest elected officials and now stands ready to launch its fiery missiles against you. Those who worship the crescent moon take counsel against you and have pre-positioned their assassins ready to unleash mayhem and destruction. Your southern and northern borders are armed camps. The soldiers openly divide their spoil in their hearts, saying, soon all will be ours. Oh that My people would understand the lateness of the hour and would return to Me.

Now I speak concerning the financial market of the world. Seduction, seduction, seduction will lead to their total destruction. The golden calf is now matured into a raging bull market bestowing upon its worshippers a blinding greed, heretofore not seen. I have used the tactics of the enemy to expose the hidden works of darkness that are being manifest in a reckless abandonment of the truth and the obvious before My people. Oh, how the rich will weep and bellow like a suckling calf separated from its mother, when over night their financial altars are destroyed from before their eyes. Where will they turn? What will they do as the world's financial markets convulse in a volatile and perilous fashion? Yet, into this end time arena, will My beloved children be thrust, with the power of All Mighty God working in them. You, My beloved, will have the answers. You, My beloved, will work miracles in My name, confirming, showing and manifesting My love for as many as will listen.

Prophets, Seers And Rulers

Lloyd Phillips

Prophets, Seers And Rulers

---And Twelve Expressions of Inspiration
(All scripture is NKJV except where noted)

There is currently a lot of interest in the prophetic gift of the seer, but not an equal amount of understanding. I believe that the Lord is beginning to raise the level of understanding concerning this gift to the Body in order to take us to another level of maturity.

The scripture is our best source for understanding what the Spirit is accomplishing.

WORD OF KNOWLEDGE AND WORD OF WISDOM

Word of knowledge, (1 Cor 12:8) , is the ability to receive information through the Spirit which could not be known or ascertained by the senses. There are even those who operate at a level of ministry of word of knowledge. There is likewise the manifestation of a word of wisdom, also in 1 Cor 12:8. This is the supernatural ability to receive information of what action may or may not be taken about a particular situation which is known by the Spirit, and not by the senses. Likewise there are those who walk at a ministry level in word of wisdom. Perhaps this empowerment is more needed in the Church today than ever before. It is often associated with those who rule well, as it is most needed in order to govern and guide.

MINISTRY OF KNOWLEDGE AND PROPHET OVERLAP, BUT NOT THE SAME

While both of these manifestations may be functioning fluently in the prophetic ministry, they are not to be confused as one and the same. While a ministry of word of knowledge and the ministry of a prophet may over-lap, one may have a ministry of word of knowledge and not of a prophet, and vice versa. Also we may receive words of knowledge, or prophecy for that matter, and not have a ministry in either area.

The Sprit of Christ makes this available in the New Testament administration. Biblically there are different categories of prophets, and even different categories of the seer ministry. There is one type of seer who is fluent in visions and discernment, which is word of wisdom. If I may suggest it as such, I believe this is an apostolic level of seer, very much needed in the Church today if we are to approach the level of perfection that the Lord wants to require of us.

LEADERSHIP AUTHORITY

Isaiah 29:10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. (KJV) The word translated ruler here, and head in other translations, literally means to "shake ones head", as in yes, or no. It is always used in light of those in leadership authority. When the apostle Paul said in 1 Cor 3:10 that he was a wise master builder he was referring to this anointing. The word translated as master builder in this verse is "architekton" from the Greek words arche and tecton. We get our English word architect from this Greek word.

BUILDER WITH A VISION

The architect being the one builder who must have a vision of the completed building even before its foundation is laid. He or she must have the ability and wisdom to see the project through from beginning to end and even assign work to those who are specialized in a particular field. An architect must have the ability to see the vision of the completed project even before the first shovel is placed in the ground. The Greek word "arche" is recognizable as the word translated chief, ruler, and principality.

APOSTOLIC MINISTRY

Paul was pointing out that the apostolic ministry in Gods Kingdom parallels what principalities are in the devils Kingdom. Hence the importance of seeing the seers being raised up, so that those called to apostolic authority will pull down principalities and powers and replace them with God's authority on the earth.

NOT EVERY SEER IS APOSTOLIC

Please do not misunderstand me as saying that every seer has an apostolic anointing, or vice versa. But I am trying to communicate that there is a level of seer with word of wisdom that is being released into the apostolic these days, as well as other seers who walk in word of knowledge. Both are needed, and both are being raised up today, but we must understand the differences in order that we may mature according to the will of the Lord.

ONE WHO "SEES"

I am one who feels it is counter productive to redefine Biblical terms with non Biblical descriptions or definitions. Biblically a seer simply is a prophet who "sees". Early on all prophets were called seers, but due to the false prophets' misusing the term, the people of God used the word prophet, and seer was a specific term for those prophets who saw visions.

1 Sam 9:9b "for he who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer." 2 Chron 9:29 "Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?"

JEREMIAH, WHAT DO YOU SEE?

Iddo was called a seer simply because he had visions, in opposition to Nathan who also was a prophet, but not a seer. Seers have visions and when God spoke to Jeremiah, who was a seer, He asked him, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree." (Jer 1:11) He did not ask Jeremiah "what do you feel", or "what do you think". What do you see is a question for a seer.

Jesus also was a seer. "Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."" (John 1:48), "And He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven." (Luke 10:18)

THE SEEING GIFT

Some understand a gift where you sense through touch as a "seeing" gift, but others see the seeing gift more as simply one who "sees" things. Despite current ideas, the Bible should be our source for describing the prophetic.

Biblically there are three Hebrew words that are translated as a prophet, two of which are translated as a seer. There is "raah" which is translated "seer," meaning someone who sees open visions. That same word is used for someone who sees with natural eyes. Then there is "chozeh." This word emphasizes spiritual apprehension, of internal visions. And lastly "nabiy" which is the most common biblical word in terms of the prophetic. It means someone who has the Spirit working within them. It is a word for inspiration. Every prophet receives this type of inspiration. Every prophet will be the "nabiy" kind, but not every prophet will be the "raah" or "chozeh" kind. I'll have more to say on this shortly.

PROPHESYING DOESN'T NECESSARILY MAKE ONE A PROPHET

Having the ability to prophesy or to receive a word of knowledge for that matter does not make one a prophet in light of the ministry of a prophet.

REVELATION, INTERPRETATION, AND APPLICATION

There are different stages of revelation. Any prophecy or prophetic word has three parts to it. The first part is the revelation, dream, or vision itself. The second is the interpretation, answering the question "what does the revelation mean?" The interpretation can come in increments, over a period of time. And the third part is the application. It can be immediate or it can be long term.

DARK SAYINGS OR FACE TO FACE

In regards to dreams or visions, God might use dark sayings or He may show us plainly face to face. In Numbers 12:6 God said, "Hear now My words: If there is a prophet among you, I, the LORD, make Myself known to him in a vision; I speak to him in a dream. (7) Not so with My servant Moses; He is faithful in all My house. (8) I speak with him face to face, Even plainly, and not in dark sayings; And he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid To speak against My servant Moses?" There are a diversity of ways that God speaks. He spoke to Moses face to face. Although we 'see through a glass darkly', if we will submit ourselves to those dreams and visions and dark sayings, if we will pursue God, He will reveal their meaning to us.

NO ONE WILL EVER PROPHECY ALL THINGS

He wants us to come to Him for the interpretation. He wants us to come to Him for the information. He wants us to come to Him for the application. He wants us to be dependent upon Him. A word of knowledge or a prophecy can change a life. None of us will ever prophesy all things or have all knowledge. It will not happen. We know in part and we prophecy in part. (1 Cor 13:9) We are a body. He will give one of us a part, and then He will give a part to another one. He wants us depending upon Him. As we train ourselves to come back to Him, we will begin to see God more and more face to face.

GOD COMMUNICATES DIFFERENTLY WITH EACH PERSON--BECAUSE WE ARE DIFFERENT

How does He communicate with you? Different than how He speaks to me because you are you. He speaks to you in a language that you understand. One that touches your heart. In Isaiah 30:21 it says, "Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, 'This is the way, walk in it, whenever you turn to the right hand or whenever you turn to the left'". Mostly He directs us by His peaceful voice that says, "This is the way." In Jeremiah 32:6 Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying", (it told him what to do and he carried it out). Then in verse 8 it says, "and then I knew that this was the Word of the Lord". Jeremiah received the word and was obedient to carry it out and believe it, but only after he obeyed did he know it was the Lord. If Jeremiah sometimes was not clear until after he had obeyed, what about us?

FIRST OBEY--AND THEN YOU WILL KNOW THE WORD IS TRUE

God spoke to Moses and said for him to go down to Egypt and tell Pharaoh to let My people go, and that he would do many miracles. Moses asked for a sign to know if these things were true. God said after you go down there and all these miracles happen, Pharaoh will resist you but he will eventually let the people go and you are going to bring them back here and you are going to worship Me on this mountain. Then you will know it was Me. (Ex 3:12) That was his sign. Go do it.

"YOU DO NOT NEED TO UNDERSTAND IN ORDER TO OBEY," THE LORD SAID

When you come back that will be the sign. This is not the kind of sign we like, is it? However, this is often Gods way. He expects us to walk in faith, and rewards us for doing His will. Confirmation is according to His will, and if we always require confirmation before obeying, we will one day find our selves missing God. The Lord once spoke to me "you do not need to understand in order to obey. If you wait until you understand before obeying, you will remain behind while others go forward." God will always confirm His word, often by the fruit it produces after it is carried out and not before.

UNDERSTANDING AS LOUVERS IN A BLIND

I like to describe understanding as the louvers in a blind. From one angle you cannot see out. As you change your position the view becomes unobstructed. From the new angle you can look outside and can see everything clearly. What has changed? Nothing but your position. When we go out in faith we have changed our position.

We can receive from the Lord and we can say like Jeremiah did, "Now I know it is the Lord." One of the three Hebrew words that are translated as a prophet in the Bible, "raah" is one that has the calling of a seer. Someone with this anointing will be someone who sees open visions and is also able to interpret them. That same word is used for someone who sees with natural eyes and understands. This level of prophet sees in the spirit with deeper understanding.

INTERNAL VISIONS

There are not that many prophets in the scriptures who see open visions in proportion to the other types listed. The second type is called "chozeh." This meaning emphasizes spiritual apprehension, of internal visions. The word "chozeh" is translated as prophet or seer but appears to be subordinate to the "raah" type of seer, because of the authority that comes through understanding available at to the "raah" seer.

I believe that this view is contained in the verse, Isaiah 29:10 "For the LORD has poured out on you The spirit of deep sleep, And has closed your eyes, namely, the prophets (chozeh); And He has covered your heads, namely, the seers (raah). Those considered seers in he higher sense, raah, are usually given a preeminence over the other types of prophets.

Samuel, a "raah" type of seer was regarded above other prophets and seers of his day. He was not only a prophet sent with a message, but often had a deeper understanding and insight to go along with the vision he carried. Daniel was esteemed above all the other prophets and wise men of his time because of the understanding which accompanied his prophetic gifts. Dan 1:17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. Seers have visions.

THE SPIRIT WORKING WITHIN--FOR ALL PROPHETS---FOR ALL BELIEVERS

Lastly there is the Hebrew word "nabiy" which is the most common biblical word in terms of the prophetic. It means someone who has the Spirit working within them. It is a word for inspiration. Every prophet receives this type of inspiration and in the New Testament all believers can and should operate at this level at least in its elementary levels. Every prophet will be the nabiy kind, but not every prophet will be the raah kind.

ALL THREE TYPES IN ONE SCRIPTURE PASSAGE

1 Chron. 29:29 contains all three of these Hebrew words: "Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer (raah), in the book of Nathan the prophet (nabiy), and in the book of Gad the seer (chozeh)".

MANY AND VARIED WAYS FOR PROPHETS TO RECEIVE THEIR REVELATION

Any given prophet will have different long suits in regard to these three types of inspiration. Some will see open visions, some will have angelic visitations, some dreams, visions and trances, and some or all will have inspirations and leadings of the inner witness. Those who walk with authority in the empowerment of words of knowledge, usually fall into the category of a chozeh prophet or seer. Those that walk powerfully in words of wisdom generally fall into the category of the raah prophet or seer. Also many times operating as a prophet to prophets, because of the wisdom and understanding which is manifested through this type of ministry. All who walk in the prophetic must learn nabiy inspiration. This is generally the first that we should become proficient with. I like to call this category of the prophetic, the still small voice.

TWELVE EXPRESSIONS OF INSPIRATION:

1. IMPRESSION. An impression is like a feeling or intuition. Often I get the sense that the Spirit pressing upon me in a certain way. This is a form of discernment. The still small voice really is under this category. In Numbers 11:29 Moses said to Joshua, "Are you zealous (or envious or upset for me?) for my sake? Oh, that all the Lord's people were prophets and that the Lord would put His Spirit upon them!" Nabiy is the Hebrew word used here. Everyone who is born again is in this category now. Paul said we all may prophesy. This is exactly what he meant. We are all in that category as far as we can receive through inspiration and we can receive through the voice of God and then speak it.
2. A KNOWING OR WITNESS. Romans 9:1 says, "I tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit". We all have an inner witness. It is called Christ in you. It is the mind of Christ that tells us what we ought to do or ought not to do. 1 John 5:10 says, "He who believes in the Son of God has a witness in himself". All believers have this. If we have confessed Jesus as Lord, we have an inner witness that is ours that will lead us in the way that we should go. The Spirit may witness with our spirit information about another individual or situation which we have no way of knowing in our senses. Take action, in love, upon these witnesses of the Spirit. This is often how we enter the realm of word of knowledge, word of wisdom, and discerning of spirits.

3. WE CAN FEEL THINGS. We can receive things in the emotions of our soul and in our bodies. This is why it is so important to sanctify ourselves. 1 Peter 3:15, "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts and always be ready to give a defense of everyone who asks you the reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear". The word does not come through your flesh, but the word can effect the flesh. Often I have had the sense that the Spirit is touching a part of my body in order to communicate a message to me. There may be other times, however, when one might say, "Well, I just felt it was God" and it was not God at all. It was the lusts that are in our flesh and we ascribe it to Him. It is important to allow ourselves room to grow. If we have the attitude that we can not be wrong in our interpretation, or feel the need to always say "God told me", then we will hinder our ability to mature. This is why we need mentoring and to submit ourselves and what we are receiving to other proven people who are committed to assisting us in our growth.

4. VISIONS. The first and most common manifestation of visions are visions of the spirit in the heart. The eyes can be open or closed. Seeing a vision and interpreting what is being seen are not one and the same. The prophet Daniel, one of scriptures greatest seers, often had to seek the Lord for long periods of time to receive the understanding of the vision. Interpretations belong to the Lord, as Joseph stated while still in the Egyptian prison.

5. SUPERNATURAL SENSES. In this level the five senses are amplified in sensitivity and ability. One can experience 'x-ray vision' giving the ability to see through something or a heightened sense of smell or hearing. A "foul spirit" may be discerned through spiritual smell. One may hear a sound of conversation across a distance which could not be heard with your physical senses. One can have a taste to communicate something spiritual to you. There is a record in the Old Testament where Elisha's prophets in training were making up some porridge and tasted "death in the pot." (2 Kings 4:40) How did they know there was death in the pot? Nobody had died. God communicated supernaturally through their sense of taste.

6. DREAMS. The next level is dreams. They are seen all through the Bible. Jacob at Bethel saw the angels go up and down a ladder. Joseph saw the vision or dream of the moon and the stars. He saw the dream of the sheaves bowing down and got himself in big trouble by telling his family about it. Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls upon men, While slumbering on their beds, 16 Then He opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction. 17 In order to turn man from his deed, And conceal pride from man."

God will often use dreams to communicate warnings and other important information to us in order to avoid as much interference from our senses as possible.

7. OPEN VISIONS. This is where the eyes are open and one sees spiritual things as if they appeared normal to the natural eyes. It is possible for the open vision to be so real to our eyes that it is only later understood that it was an open vision at all. It is likewise possible to actually be involved in the physical sense in a spiritual phenomenon only to realize later that it was not a vision. This happened to Peter in Acts 12:11.

8. TRANCES. This manifestation is distinct from visions because in a vision one is still aware of ones surroundings. In a trance ones surroundings are blotted out temporarily, unless God wants them to be observed. This also occurred to Peter in Acts 10.

9. AUDIBLE VOICES. Acts 9 is the account of Paul's encounter with the Lord while traveling to Damascus. He was knocked to the ground and a conversation occurred between he and the Lord. In verse 7 it says the other men stood by and heard a voice but they did not see anyone. To Paul it was an audible voice. In my experience, the audible voice of God will always be life changing no matter the length or brevity of the conversation.

10. VISITATIONS FROM ANGELS. Angels can bring us information. An angel came to Daniel to bring him understanding. Angels came to Abraham because there was something important that needed to happen that he needed to be informed about. Mary spoke with the angel Gabriel, the same archangel who communicated to Daniel. Joseph was ministered by an angel through a dream, as was Jacob.

11. VISITATIONS FROM THE LORD. At times there may be a commissioning that the Lord Jesus Himself will administer. It is often difficult for the person to communicate what happened in human words. It may not be something they want people to know about, especially since many people would not believe it. The Lord may come at other times, and He said that He would manifest Himself to those who love him (Jn 14:21).

12. CAUGHT UP INTO THE THIRD HEAVEN. Both Paul and John were caught up into the third heaven. They were used to doing service for the Body of Christ, to bringing the Word of God so that the Body would prosper, so that they could adjust and prepare for the things that are ahead. When we have a servant's heart like that, willing to give our life as living sacrifice, then we will grow up in all things unto Him who is the Head. We will grow up to the place where we can see Him face to face like Moses did and be able to receive that sure word of prophecy which will change lives and change the nations as we give them the prophetic word.

Personal Testimony part 2

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

I would like to continue my personal testimony (from letter 66) of YHVVH's mercy-filled faithfulness to this seed of Ya'acov, that is to "me", Ephraim. "The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; Israel when it went to find its rest..." (Jer. 31:2).

Toward the end of my time in the army, YHVVH had another surprise waiting for me. I received a notice to go to a special meeting for high school dropouts. It had to do with an Army initiated program to help soldiers readjust to civilian life, before being discharged. I did not qualify for the program, as I had a college degree but a friend at work challenged me to go in spite of the obvious mistake.

A Lieutenant Colonel interviewed me about my interests. I told him that I had hoped to go into genetic research, specifically in the area of retardation. He looked at me with surprise, as he thought I was a high school drop out, and then proceeded to question me about my education. Upon finding out the facts he immediately folded the paper that he was taking notes on, and politely said that they had no such work, and secondly that this was not designed for personnel like me. I was a little embarrassed for making an assumption, and returned to my work place. About a week later, I received a notice that the Colonel wanted to see me again. To my surprise he told me that an officer friend of his (whom he had run into after my interview), had a retarded son. After talking to him about me, his friend put him in touch with the director of Special Education of the Monterey County. The County had a school for trainable mentally retarded on the base, and if I were interested in working with them I was to see the director at the school.

The day after meeting with Dr. Bill, the director of Special Education and school staff, the colonel called me in and said that I had been accepted into the program to work at that school. Sgt Smith was a little distraught at the thought of losing one of his staff, and placed a condition on my leaving; a replacement had to be found. This could mean at least a month or more. Well, on the morrow such a fellow showed up at my desk from Vietnam! He was assigned to take my place, and because he already knew the job I was at the school the following day.

After my discharge from the Army, the County hired me on a full time basis. I found it natural to work and play with multi-handicapped children. One of my first duties was to toilet-train the 4 and 5 year olds. On the third day at work, one of the children messed up her diaper, so to me was given the task of cleaning and changing. I gently took off the loaded diaper and placed it on the floor, right behind me. With my back to the door, I did not see one of the other little ones walk up and grab the dirty nappy and start swinging it around. Needless to say, I had my baptism into Special Ed. With that experience literally behind me, I went back to school during the following summers, obtaining a degree in Special Education. Later on I became the director of the County Child Development Center.

As a young man in his twenties and living in California, my eyes were open to a completely different way of life. I was hungry to experience the Californian life style. One of those pursuits was in the area of philosophy. I had a strong desire to know and understand truth. The search for my true identity began. Just as a great Greek philosopher had done, I too posed the question: "Who am I?". The Church did not seem to offer any answers to my questions, and besides, I have already mentioned that I had found the bible boring. First, I was presented with the mystics, followed by clairvoyancy, astrology, Hatha Yoga and lastly the 'great white brotherhoods'. After a couple of years of dabbling in different, although mainly Eastern philosophies, I was introduced by a friend, Bob, to 'Christ the great white light'. This philosophy was based on the study of virtues and their application in daily life, in order to perfect the righteousness of the inner 'Christ'. I was assigned two spirit guides as teachers of the enlightened way. The hidden secrets into the principles and laws that govern the universe were to be revealed to me through study and meditation. Application of those principle (some of them biblical), along with the virtues, was supposed to ultimately lead to high government positions in the New World Order (like those of Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed and Moses).

For almost 4 years I walked as best I could in the way of the "good", of the Tree of Knowledge. The demand to walk out righteousness to its perfection always seemed to be out of reach. I would fail to apply the principles in many of life's situations. The deceiver is no fool; he knows that man cannot become "like God" in character, because there is an inherent flaw in his heart called "lust". However, to get around the hurdle of this little problem, Satan had built into the training process his doctrine of reincarnation. Through this means of getting more than one chance, one could ultimately attain the next level of "godship" in one of the next 'lives'. But we were told that those who were really serious seekers of righteousness could invite the masters, or spirit guides, during meditation, to enter their body, in order to help work out this unattainable righteousness. I was determined to succeed. One night during the meditation, I decided to overcome my fear and allow the 'spirit guide' to take charge of my mind and physical body.

About three months before my attempt at the 'astral exchange', my friend Bob went to his dentist, who happened to be a Spirit-filled Christian. As Bob sat in the dentist chair, looking up at the ceiling, he saw posters with the salvation message. That day he not only had a tooth filled, but was also saved and Holy Spirit filled. I ran into him a couple of days later and had noticed that he was aglow. He gave me a big hug and started to share with me this 'Christian stuff'. I thought he had gone 'off his rocker'. I couldn't believe that he would give up the philosophy and the New World Order for something so out-dated and unenlightened. Needless to say I did not have anything to do with him after that.

Three months went by, it was between 8 and 9 in the evening (as this was the time for all devotees to retrospect and meditate on righteousness). I was frustrated in that I wasn't making progress in what was supposed to be my 'Christ-like walk'. I was even starting to accept homosexuality, which up till then had been abhorrent to me, and definitely not a part of the 'code of righteousness' I had espoused. With this struggle going on, in my desperation I was about to allow the ethereal guide to take over. I had memorized many of the teachings of Jesus from the New Testament, along with many psalms from the 'Old', as this was all part of the training of the 'Western mindset'. But before this special meeting with the 'masters', certain prayers of protection against. . . demons were to be recited. Two of them were the Lord's Prayer, and the 91st psalm. After the prayers of preparation, I went as usual into the meditation, sitting in a Yoga position on my bed. I soon entered the ethereal realm, losing all body consciousness. However, suddenly I felt as though something was jumping on my bed, but as I did not want to come out of this meditation without succeeding in the 'exchange', I just kept on sitting with my eyes closed. I had been warned about demons who supposedly try to distract the process through fear tactics, and so I did not relent. All at once I saw a brilliant light, although my eyes were shut and it was dark in the room. I immediately snapped out of the state of oblivion that I was in. The peace in the room was absolutely incredible. I was sitting, looking at my hands and thinking: "I'm still here!" At the same time I was wondering in amazement at the sudden peace which descended upon me. That night I went to bed with an awesome feeling that bordered on tranquility.

It was about 4 a.m. when I woke up. I was instantly alert. I had a strong urge to read the bible. I opened it randomly to the first chapter of Romans and started reading: "Although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Professing to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man (vs 21-23)... "who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator" (v.25)... "Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting, being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving, unmerciful; who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are deserving of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them” (vs. 27-32).

In that moment, in the early hours of the morning, I saw myself for what I really was. I fell on the floor in my room and wept bitterly for over an hour, repenting before a merciful God. I did not go to work that day, but spent the entire morning reading the rest of the New Testament. I knew beyond a shadow of a doubt what the apostle meant when he wrote “by Grace are you saved through faith”...” it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "the righteous shall live by faith" (Rom.1:16-17).

In the afternoon I drove over to Bob’s house. When I arrived, he hadn’t arrived yet from work, so I just went in and sat on the living room couch and waited. When he returned he was very surprised to see me sitting there. I jumped to my feet and hurriedly walked over to him. Grabbing him by his big shoulders I began to shake him, crying: “Jesus is alive! Jesus is alive!” Big tears began to roll down his cheeks, and as we embraced we wept on each other’s shoulders. Finally, half-crying and half-laughing, he asked me what had happen. I shared with him what had taken place the night before in my room. With tears still streaming down his naturally rosey cheeks, he responded in a most amazing way: “Last night at our prayer meeting, the Holy Spirit came upon us mightily to bind the spirits that were working in your life”. We compared the times of the prayer and the time that I was blinded by light that popped in my closed eyes, like a flash from a camera, and there was no mistake; it was God’s grace! Thus, another testimony of His Mercy of saving a self-righteous wretch like me got underway. Needless to say, my life was no longer the same. The Avrahamic seed of faith in me had at last sprouted and taken root. “Has His mercy ceased forever? Has His promise failed forevermore? Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? And I said, "this is my anguish"! But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High. I will remember the works of YHVH, surely I will remember Your wonders of old. I will also meditate on all Your work, and talk of Your deeds. Your way, O Elohim, is in the sanctuary; Who is so great a God as our God? You are the God who does wonders; You have declared Your strength among the peoples. You have with Your arm redeemed Your people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph” (Psa. 77:8-12). To be continued...

Shabbat Shalom
Yours in Messiah,
Ephraim

Personal Testimony Part 3

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

During the early seventies the grace of YHVH was moving through the denominational churches; the Holy Spirit was especially targeting the Catholics. As mentioned earlier, I had grown up in a Lutheran, prejudiced-toward-Catholics environment, but here I was in the midst of born-again, Spirit-filled Catholics, who were hugging and loving me into a new life experience. I started to go to what were called “Life in the Spirit” seminars, and to prayer meetings, where everyone sat in a circle with no apparent leader. The Spirit of Elohim, and the reality of Yeshua (Jesus) dominated those meetings, with tongues, interpretation thereof, words of knowledge, prophecies, short scriptural readings, testimonies, laying on of hands, praying for the sick, or for the baptism of the Holy Spirit and so on. Everyone, it seemed, participated. There was nothing boring about these meetings, especially exciting was the praise and worship. I found myself participating with others, who brought their musical instruments to make a joyful noise. There was no formal organization and no set songs that we were to follow. The time just seemed to flow with the unity we all had in the Spirit. It was a delight to get up in the morning and read the bible, especially the Psalms. After about two years of this wonderful beginning, things started to change as the group grew, and many more, especially Catholics from the local churches, joined in. The local priest began to show up at the meetings, and incorporated some parts of the Catholic mass into the freedom we were experiencing. The new “leadership” was into Transcendental Meditation, and after one of the meetings I had a blunt confrontation with them. On the way home I was still angry, and at one point I banged my fist on the steering wheel, and shouted out to God: “How can this be?? ?!!!” The response, in a form of a question, came gently into my thoughts: “Who is under whose wing”? I knew in that moment that God did not need me to defend Him. Needless to say, I began to feel out of place, as they spoke also of Mother Mary and did other typical Catholic ‘things’. During the last meeting I attended, I had a vision of a giant octopus with one of his sucker-bearing tentacles reaching out to surround and embrace this prayer group. After this, I contemplated going back to the Lutheran church, which I eventually did.

That first Sunday at the Lutheran church service was like old days. I set like a bump on a log, while everything was being orchestrated and ordered. But what really ‘threw’ me was the sermon on the virtues and their application to life, in order to become more Christ like. I almost fell out of my pew! I thought I was back in the philosophy of the great brotherhoods, whose teachings were actually far superior to the sermon which was promulgated that Sunday morning. I thought to myself, “this pastor could use the teachings of the ‘brotherhoods’ to enhance his sermons.” I didn’t know exactly what to do; I wasn’t inclined to go with the Catholics, but this seemed to be far worse. I stuck it out for a few months, thinking that maybe some Lutherans would get turned on to this ‘Holy Spirit stuff’. But just the opposite happened. When the minister started preaching from the pulpit against the ‘Charismatic deception’, I didn’t feel welcome anymore. I was, in fact, looked upon as an enemy in the camp.

Some of my Catholic friends, who were in the original prayer ‘circle’, left and joined up with a small Episcopal Spirit-filled group. So I joined them, and again it was a wonderful and enjoyable experience. In this group I met a middle-aged curly haired man named Norman. He always seemed to be ‘led’ to exhort the brethren. Norman was a fiery guy, stocky built with a reddish complexion. One of his favorite prophetic topics was Israel, and the return of the Jews to their homeland. Most of us, if not all, were not really interested, but he kept plugging away at us anyway.

A new organization called the Full Gospel Businessmen Fellowship opened up a chapter in Monterey at that time, and some of us men joined and helped establish this particular movement in the area. Norman was one of the leaders. One of our first guest speakers was a fellow by the name of George Otis, who was Norman’s friend. George shared his personal testimony interlaced with Israel. A few weeks later, Norman came to the prayer group and proposed that we all go on a Holy Land tour, through what they called “High Adventure Tours,” with George Otis and Pat Boone. At first I was not really interested, and besides, it was very expensive. But it wasn’t long and most of my friends had signed up to go, so, never having been out of the United States, I thought that this would be an opportunity to travel.

It was in late February 1976, when 15 of us left Monterey for the High Adventure conference and 14-day excursion of the Holy Land. We were excited and sang, it seems, from coast to coast, arriving in New York after six hours, just to wait another 5 or 6 before boarding the Israeli El Al jumbo 747 aircraft. Security was very tight, and being a first timer to all this I thought I was unnecessarily harassed when interrogated, especially as a single guy, as to why I wanted to go to Israel. At last we were off into the black night skies. The flight was quite uneventful, but seemed to pass quickly. I was sitting next to the window when the announcement came to buckle up for landing. The sky was clear that winter day over the Mediterranean, and as I was looking out of the widow to get a glimpse of the land on the horizon, a Hebrew song came over the loudspeakers: “Heveinu Shalom Aleichem”; “we bring you peace.” Many on board were singing along, and just at that moment the aircraft banked and I saw the little strip of land on the horizon. What happened to me that next moment I will never forget! Upon setting eyes on the Land, everything inside of me cried out: “I’m home, I’m home, I’m home! Tears began to stream down my face, and I thought to myself: “goodness, what is happening to me? Why am I crying and why do I feel that I’m home?” I put my hands in front of my face, so that no one would see me, and just wept and wept.

During those two weeks every place we went to in the Land seemed familiar; the conference speakers’ messages went right to my heart. At one point, on the Mount of Olives, as we looked out over the capital of Israel, Jerusalem, my old friend Bob, who had gotten married and was standing there with his pregnant wife, looked at me and with his big finger pointing at Jerusalem, said with a very definite prophetic tone: “The Lord just showed me your heart, your wife is out there.” Being almost 32 years of age and still unmarried, I thought I was going to be a ‘eunuch for the kingdom’. But little did I know... There was something else that I did not know much about, being a product of American education, and that was Jewish History. I was taught about Egypt, the Greeks and the Romans, but my learning was basically devoid of Old Testament history. Most of what I knew about the Jews was from early childhood Sunday school classes.

Towards the end of the tour I was feeling as though my heart had been planted in the Land. As a matter of fact, I even changed the words of the popular song: I Left My Heart in San Francisco, and started singing: “I left my heart in Israel, high on a hill it calls to me, where little donkey carts go skirting by shops; the evening breeze will swiftly bring me back; as a matter of fact, my heart waits there in Israel”... I don’t remember the entire song, but this was all part of God’s wonderful ordained plan for my life.

“For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You, when I was made in secret, and skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth”. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book they all were written, the days fashioned for me, when as yet there were none of them. How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand; When I awake, I am still with You” (Psa. 139:14-18). To be continued.

Shabbat Shalom,

Ephraim

Personal Testimony part 4

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

Before continuing my personal testimony, here is a 'piece of wisdom' that I had received this week from a friend. To begin with he quotes Rabbi Shimon ben Gamliel: "All my days I grew up amongst wise men and I never found any benefit derived from silence." My friend then continues saying: "This is a critique of silence on the part of a student sitting before his teacher. Failure to speak up never produces any benefit for the student and is even counter productive for three reasons: His lack of response will be interpreted by his fellow students as either a sign of being too dull to understand the lesson or too haughty to bother discussing it; his lack of give and take with his teacher will prevent him from fully understanding the lesson; and finally, his ability to internalize the information and remember it will be adversely affected by his failure to verbalize what he has studied."

Inspired by this little comment, when studying about the Counting of the Omer in Parashat Emor (last week's), I noticed that there does not seem to be any connection made between the Feast of Unleavened Bread and the waving of the first cuttings of the grain harvest (ref. Lev. 23:8, 10). The waving of the sheaf takes place when the fields are ready to be harvested. The ripening of grain is not dependent, of course, on a set feast, but rather on natural conditions. This is why the Counting of the Omer cannot be tied to a prescribed time as tradition has it. In addition, why count the days if there is an already set day? Thus, the sheaf that has been cut by the first thrust of the sickle into the field is taken and waved before YHVH, on the first day of the week. The counting, therefore, is totally dependent on the Master of the Harvest. This is not doctrine, just an observation, on which comments are welcome. Now to continue to retrospect on Abba's faithfulness to this little harvested seed of Abraham (me):

"When I awake, I am still with you" (Psa. 139:18), was last week's final line, and indeed my "High Adventure" in the Land of Israel was like a dream; a dream I did not want to wake up from. Or was it the other way around: had I been somehow asleep until that time, and suddenly an ancient awakening was happening deep in my soul?

The bus to Ben Gurion Airport carried many tired people. I could not but just sit there in silence and retrospect the intimate moments of this brief stay: Joseph's tomb in Shechem, the Mount of Blessing, Jacob's well, the Valley of Dothan, the Sea of Galilee, Nazareth, Capernaum, the Mount of Beatitudes, Massada, the Golan Heights and the Good Fence, the Dead Sea and Ein Gedi, the valley where David fought Goliath, Hebron and the graves of the Patriarchs, Bethlehem and Rachel's Tomb, Golgotha and the Garden Tomb, the Mount of Olives and Gethsemane, the Temple Mount and the Western Wall, Old and New Jerusalem and more. On the other hand, the churches and cathedrals that we plodded through did not seem to leave the same lasting impression. The words of the guest speakers at the conference, which included a fiery prophetic speech by the caretaker of the Garden Tomb, Jan Willem Van der Hoeven, were still ringing in my ears. Pat Boone sang one of his songs, taken from 2 Chronicles 7:14: "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land". All of the sights and sounds were racing through my memory like waves crashing against the seashore.

By the time we reached the airport and were unloading the luggage, sadness had crept in like a fog on Monterey bay at the end of a day, obscuring the memories of those precious moments in the land and leaving me with these thoughts: “Why am I leaving? I don’t want to go!” People were talking to me, but I was oblivious.

There were about thirteen hundred people on this tour, so checking through the ticket counters presented some problems. At one point it was announced that there had been a mix-up and an over booking, and that some of us would have to stay behind and wait for another flight. This had been some of the best news I had heard all day long! I quickly volunteered to allow others who had families, jobs, dogs, cats or anything else, to go ahead of me; it made no difference, all I wanted was to stay anyway! Those of us who remained behind received the news that there would be a flight ready in another five hours. Waiting on the floor of the departure lounge, time passed and still there was no sign of a flight, a fact which raised my hopes. Sadly though, after twelve hours it was time to board the plane for our trip back to New York.

I was assigned an isle seat in the middle of the plane, next to an energetic teenager, who unbeknown to me was busy handing out Christian tracts to a group of Jewish businessmen from New York, who had been looking into investing in Israel. I wasn’t paying much attention, as I found the seat rather relaxing after the hard floor in the terminal. My thoughts and emotions were still mixed, with questions and possible solutions to this dilemma of desiring to stay, in spite of the circumstances, which were taking me in the opposite direction. As the flight was taxing down the runway I had to accept the fact that there was no turning back.

Looking out a far window, the lights of Tel-Aviv were flickering in the background. I leaned back, loosened my seat belt and with a lump in my throat closed my eyes. For the next half hour I was half awake and half asleep, as we settled into our cruising altitude. Suddenly I noticed a pair of pants, just to the right of my arm. As I lifted up my eyes I saw a man glaring down at me. When our eyes met, he motioned me with a white knuckled fist and thumb to get up. I pointed to myself with hesitance, wondering if he really meant me. When there was no doubt that he did, I slowly rose to my feet, and my eyes came to about the knot on his tie. With teeth clenched and tight lips he uttered, as he looked to his right and then to his left: “Let’s go to the back of the plane, I want to talk to you!” He whirled and strutted back toward the tail of the aircraft. I wanted to sit back down, as my knees were a little weak from the experience, but as I was about to do so my legs started moving me toward the back of the plane. When I finally arrived, feeling like a sheep led to the slaughter, I pushed myself behind the last two seats. Glancing to my right I saw the exit door, then to the left, where the toilet door was clearly seen. I was wondering which one of these doors he was going to throw me through. All at once the man’s nose came very close to mine, with only his finger between the two of them. His glare had turned to fierce anger (rage would be a more appropriate description). For a second I thought I had detected fire in his eyes. He then began to speak very slowly, through those clenched teeth and tight lips, making sure I didn’t miss a single word: “Why is it that you Christians are always trying to proselytize and change we Jews, when all that we want to be is loved?” My brain melted in my head, as there was no trace of a thought anywhere to be found. But then I heard myself say to him: “Could you forgive us for not understanding?” He drew back, his countenance changed, and with tears in his eyes and also in mine we found ourselves embracing one another. He went back to his seat, and I went back to mine. I plopped my self down, and looking up at the light switches and air vents, I said almost audibly: “God, what was that all about? What do you mean by ‘they should forgive us for not understanding’? What aren’t we understanding?”

Well, I didn’t get an answer in those moments, but was left wondering whether that whole thing was real or not. I was too tired to make much of anything for the rest of the trip, but when I finally arrived back in Monterey the lack of sleep and jet lag knocked me out for almost three days. Waking up one morning, at about four, I posed that question again to the Lord: “Why must they forgive us? What aren’t we understanding?” The thoughts that came streaming into my mind in that moment, in answer to those questions, were almost audible: “When My people see the love that manifested itself in all its fullness on Calvary for you, come forth from your heart to them, I will rent the veil and they will see me as their Lord and Messiah.” It was a lot to chew on, but the taste was bittersweet. I knew that I, along with probably most of the Church, still did not understand this providential relationship between the redeemed Gentiles and the Jews.

After trying to digest that statement, I reached over and opened my bible. Again the book of Romans appeared in front me. As I read the following lines, I was overwhelmed and left wondering if I was not somehow a part of some great mystery that was about to unfold before the universe: “And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them became a partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree, do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, remember that you do not support the root, but the root supports you. You will say then, ‘Branches were broken off that I might be grafted in.’ Well said. Because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear. For if God did not spare the natural branches, He may not spare you either. Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise you also will be cut off” (Rom. 11:17-22).

Branches of an olive tree, some wild and some natural, faith and unbelief, goodness and severity, grafted in and cut off, what is this all about? What does all this have to do with my experience in Israel and on the flight back? “For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. And so all Israel will be saved” (Rom. 11:25-6). My mind and emotions were reeling in wonderment at a mystery that I was not to be ignorant of. I could not escape the thought that what happened to me in Israel and this mystery were somehow connected. I thought maybe there were others who could tell me what this mystery was all about. So that morning I headed off to work with great expectations. I couldn’t wait to talk to my believing friends, or to anyone else who could satisfy this thirst to know and understand the God of my salvation, the God of Israel. To be continued...

Personal Testimony part 5

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

Before my first trip to Israel, I had been reading the Bible through from beginning to end, using a bible reading program. A couple of days after I had recovered from jet lag, I continued where I had left off. On this particular morning I was to read Joshua chapters 1 and 2, along with Ezekiel 35 through 36. Again, one of those incredible, memorable happenings took place while I was reading in Joshua: “Arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them--the children of Israel...Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the Torah which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go” (Josh 1:2; 6-7). Reading this, I shot out of bed and my feet went-a-dancing to a non-audible tune. My emotions were running high, as I thought that these were words given me from the Lord, indicating that I was to pack my bags and head for the Jordan River.

I finally calmed down long enough to read the next installment, this time from Ezekiel. “Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken, which became plunder and mockery to the rest of the nations all around... I have raised My hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you shall bear their own shame. But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel, for they are about to come” (Ez. 36:4,6-8). Well that did it! This time I was weeping, so much that I couldn’t even continue reading. I felt like a little lost child crying for his mommy, while at the same time wailing: “I want to go home! I want to go home!”

Later that morning I got into my little blue Datsun pickup truck, with its shell on the back, and started off for work. I couldn’t wait to talk to someone about all these things that were racing around inside my head. On my way down the highway, I thought I would listen to a scripture tape that I usually carried round in the glove compartment of the truck. There were several to choose from, but not wanting to take my eyes off of the road, I settled for the one which my hand had randomly picked and slid it into the tape recorder. I thought that perhaps the tape I had chosen would be the one with all the “begats”, but to my surprise, out comes this prophecy: “Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken c...,” E-Z-E-K-I-E-L 36!!! I couldn’t believe my ears. Needless to say I had to pull over, until my eyes would stop flooding with tears. Over the next few months I had tried sharing those scriptures with others, and each time I made such an attempt I would choke up, never being able to finish reading them.

Some days after the ‘highway experience’, some of us who had gone on the High Adventure Tour met for a prayer meeting. One of the participants felt he had ‘a word’ for me. He paged through his bible, then stopped, flipped back a page, looked down at the print for a moment, then looked up at me with a bewildered look on his face, his eyes falling back to the open bible on his lap. Finally, in a very quiet but firm voice he read the following: “Arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them--the children of Israel...Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them”. I thought to myself “that does it! I’m out of here!” At that moment a song by John Denver came to my mind: “All my bags are packed I’m ready to go, I’m standing here outside the door...cause I’m leaving on a jet plane, don’t know when I’ll be back again... Amen!” The brothers had to literally hold me down, as I shared with them the scriptures that I had received a couple of days before. They encouraged me not to be in a rush about something so crazy as leaving California and moving over to Israel. I couldn’t prove that I was Jewish anyway, so the chances of living over there were next to nothing.

During that year of 1976 many other things had occurred in my life; among them were some significant dreams. In one of them, I saw myself walking through rolling hills covered with long golden colored grass. There was an old dilapidated barn into which I entered, coming out on the other side with a barrel full of grain of different varieties: corn, wheat, barley etc. Although the barrel was heavy, the trek was down a gently sloping hill, and the load did not seem to pose a problem. Walking down this road I finally came to a small creek, which was crystal clear and very shallow but had a beautiful white sandy bottom. As I looked across I saw the landscape; it was green and lush with fruit trees, shade trees, farm animals grazing and Semitic looking men, women and children were relaxing and picnicking in the shade of the trees.

By this time the barrel was heavy in my arms, so gathering a little more strength I lifted it up and stepped into the creek, but lo and behold the bottom was like quick sand! I dropped the barrel into the water and pulled myself back up on the bank. I then tried and succeeded to pull the barrel out as well. Now it was much heavier, though, as the grain was mixed with sand and water. Walking further down stream I came to a place where it seemed possible to jump across. But as I glanced down at the water it looked black; not because it wasn't clear, but because there was no bottom. I got as close to the edge as I could, hoping that I would be able to step across, but knowing that with the barrel in my arms, both I and it could disappear into the deep, if I didn't succeed. I started to slip, and in order to catch myself from falling I dropped the barrel into the water. I could see it disappear into the black hole. I was a little scared so I turned to walk away when, while looking down stream, I saw an earthen stone bridge that went across the creek. The dream ended.

When I awoke it was very vivid in my mind. I prayed and asked for an interpretation, but the interpretation had to wait for hindsight. As it turned out, it was a prophetic dream about my future. The golden grass and rolling barren hills represented my life in California; the dilapidated barn was my past, out of which I had emerged with education, talents and abilities, all packed into this barrel that I thought would be useful to me in Israel, which was represented by the other side of the creek. The latter represented future life experiences, which were like a border between the life in California and a future life in Israel. This riverbed boundary, that governed the future, was the clear flowing waters of the Holy Spirit. I would make two attempts of my own volition to cross the creek, but neither would be in the right timing. The opportunities would seem accomplishable, but once stepping into them the lesson would be made very apparent, and the Lord's purpose in each attempt would strip me of my talents and ambitions. After those 'dealings', with my motivations exposed, I would be able to see the earthen stone bridge that He had already prepared for me. This earthen crossing meant that there would be nothing supernatural about my going over to Israel and living there. It would happen in the natural course of events. At one point I asked the Lord what I would be doing over there. He answered quite simply that it would be something I had never done before.

Shortly after this dream, I had another significant one, which was also fulfilled ultimately: I saw myself standing in front of what looked like an outhouse, the kind that was used by the farmers in the 'old days', before they had indoor plumbing. It was in an area that was surrounded by a cyclone fence with three strands of barbed wire around the top. I opened the door and walked inside, and almost immediately I started going down, as if in an elevator. It went down four stories, and on the way down I was losing my clothing. At one point I was concerned about my wallet, as it disappeared with my clothes. When I reached the bottom I found myself dressed in uniform, standing outside the little house, in the same area with the cyclone fences. This time, though, I felt that someone was standing next to me. I did not see who it was, but just knew that there was someone there. We walked together out of an open gate, into what appeared to be clear blue skies. But as we walked I could still see the fence with the barbed wire on both sides. Just like the first dream, I was not given the interpretation until after its fulfillment.

(Please keep in mind that this is not about me, but about a sovereign and faithful God who watches over His Word to perform it.)

Personal Testimony Part 6

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

We are in the week of the Feast of Shavuot, or Pentecost, and this part of my personal testimony is a tribute to the work of the Holy Spirit.

In the summer of 1976, after my stirred up emotions which were focused around Israel, calmed down some, I experienced certain "hair raising" situations. One such happening took place at about two o'clock one morning, following an urgent phone call from a 'sister in the Lord', who wanted me to come over right away to check on her husband who was 'going crazy'. She had heard my testimony on my past involvement in the occult, and had thought that perhaps I would be able to have some insights into her husband's condition. Jan's husband had been in Vietnam, and afterwards got involved with the Masons. His behavior had become stranger and stranger over the years. He and I had a mutual friend, Tom, who came into the reality of the Spirit-filled life just a few weeks prior to that night. I immediately contacted him, and arranged to meet him at the couple's house. Tom brought a friend with him who was 'borderline' believer, but an alcoholic. Upon arrival, we could feel the cold chilling atmosphere of demonic presence in the house. Jan's husband was sprawled out in his easy chair, displaying obvious signs of having drunk one too many. Jan glanced at us with expectant faith, while I, at the same time, was wondering what I was doing there in the first place. I certainly was not noted for any kind of ministry, except for music and periodically sharing a teaching in our small prayer group. Jan then turned to us and said: "Here is his mason ring, bible, and study books. What shall we do with them?" Not thinking of their value, or maybe not thinking at all, I said, "burn them in the fireplace".

What followed was something out of a horror movie. As the fire lapped up around these objects, we heard screams from the fireplace. Jan's husband immediately sat up in the chair, with a noticeable change in his facial features. When we asked if we could pray for him, he shook his head in the affirmative. I crouched down next to him and put my hand on his knee. Tom was standing behind the chair, with his friend behind him. Not being quite sure on how to pray, with a very quite and timid voice I barely got out of my mouth, "in Jesus name", and all at once the fellow began to contort and squirm in his chair, with both arms stretched out in front of him, wiggling like snakes. Tom's friend shot backwards about two paces. My eyes were about as big as pancakes, as I watched this man get set free from demonic possession. Later I found out that Tom's friend had also been set free from his problem with alcohol, and we didn't even pray for him! When we left the house, in the early hours of the morning, we were all amazed and humbled at the power of God's presence.

I learnt an invaluable lesson that night, as I witnessed YHVH's Spirit move without our help. It was an incredible faith and confidence builder in Yeshua and His sovereignty. Later on, and even to this very day the effects of that night still linger as a testimony of Yeshua's presence in His people. But I also learned not to try and reduce these experiences in formulae. This experience and its accompanying lesson were another preparatory step in the direction of the move to Israel. I began to learn what Paul meant when he quoted Elohim saying: "I will have mercy on whom I will!" (Ex. 33:19; Rom. 9:15).

Soon after that momentous night, a friend had asked me if I wanted to drive a motor home from San Francisco to Wisconsin. I agreed, as it gave me an opportunity to visit my family. We left San Francisco late Saturday afternoon and were on the road for about seven hours, when up in some very steep mountains terrain the motor suddenly made a couple of chugs and died. I managed to get the huge vehicle off to the side of the road, where we just sat. The battery was getting so weak that it hardly turned the motor over. After about an hour, I thought to myself that maybe we should pray. I did not have much confidence in God when it came to vehicles, my reasoning being that they (vehicles) didn't have faith so how could God fix them?! But I did get up enough 'nerve' to invite Darrel to pray with me. We both prayed that God would send us help in the form of a person who knew something about mechanics. After the prayer we just sat there, with not many cars in sight, and those that did pass didn't even slow up. My friend Darrel was a nominal Christian and I was getting more and more embarrassed, because I had told him how different things were for a 'spirit-filled believer' and how the power of the Holy Spirit works. When I was at my lowest point, I suddenly had the unction to try and start the motor. I got into the seat and hardly touched the key, and already it was running like a clock. Both of us sat there in utter amazement. Another lesson had to be learned; God will not necessarily do things our way. A scripture then came to my mind, "do not lean on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him" (Pro. 3:5-6).

This was to be one of the hardest of all lessons to learn. One that even now, after 25 years of walking this path, still presents a challenge which I face with a struggle. The following day we had to buy a new battery, as to our amazement, the old one was dead.

We were now out of the mountains, and were crossing the Wyoming Plains. Wanting to get an early start. I woke up that morning, at about 4 a.m., walked into the kitchen area and saw my bible open next to the sink. I was somewhat surprised, as I did not remember leaving it there. The flashlight lit up the open page and these verses jumped up at me as if they were on springs: "Set up for yourself road marks, place for yourself guideposts, direct you heart to the highway, the way by which you went. Return, O virgin of Israel, return to these your cities. How long will you go here and there, O faithless daughter?" (Jer. 31:21,22). Tears started streaming down my face, and I couldn't help but wail as if I had lost a loved one. As a matter of fact the noise I was making woke up Darrel, and he became very concerned. How could I explain to him this deep longing in my heart for the land of Israel?

There were no others, whom I knew of, who behaved in this manner. But this morning it was really out of hand! For two hours I sobbed, wept and wiped the continual flow of tears from my eyes. Needless to say, Darrel had to drive at this time. The scene that morning, as we traveled east, fit that scripture so well, as the big orange sun was coming up at the other end of this long straight desert highway.

The two-week stay in Wisconsin, before flying back out to Monterey California, was filled with sharing new life with my sister and a small group of believers whom the Lord had moved upon. I was also introduced to a retired spirit-filled Methodist pastor, who had just started a prayer meeting in a federal correctional institute near my parents home. He invited me to come with him to a meeting. It was another one of those 'only-God-can-do-it' meetings. The elderly pastor asked me if I wanted to drive down to Kansas City for a Holy Spirit conference that weekend, which I did. I do not remember much about that conference, except for one meeting that took place between Jewish and Gentile believers. This was the first time that I had witnessed reconciliation through repentance and the washing of feet between these two estranged groups of people. Every one in that room was moved; crying, laughing and hugging one another. I knew something powerful was happening, but could not put my finger on what it was. It somehow felt like the reunion of long lost family members.

Returning to California, in some ways was like going in the opposite direction of the one I had really wanted to go in. I settled back into the routines of living, but late in the winter of 1977 circumstances began to change. My job came to an end. "Should I look for another job, or not?" was my dilemma. Was this a sign that things were moving me on toward Israel? I had read how Gideon put fleeces out, to see if God was in a certain matter. As I was learning not to trust my own feelings, I put out a fleece before the Lord. If He did NOT have work for me, which given the situation did not seem possible, I would consider that as a word to pack my bags and head out east. That morning I called a friend, who had said, that if I ever needed a job there would always be one for me. My friend, Jim, answered the phone, and with fear and trepidation I asked him if he had a job for me. His response was: "If you would have called me a half hour ago I would have had a place for you." Joy shot through my soul like a lighting bolt. I couldn't wait to take the news to the prayer meeting that evening. I was a little bit reluctant at first, as I thought that some of the brethren would not confirm the timing of this move. But on the contrary; everyone there that night was supportive and encouraging. It only took me a couple of weeks to give away most of my belongings, putting the rest in the back of my truck, and off I went, eastward, to Wisconsin. (to be continued)

Personal Testimony part 7

Ephraim Frank

Dear Messianic Israelite,

Saying “good bye” to life in California, and to the many friends that bid me farewell, was not easy. Somehow we all knew that there was something final about this departure. I felt as if my roots have been dug up, and that I was suspended in mid air. However, as my little blue truck and I streamed down that same highway that I had traveled nine months beforehand, in the motor home, thoughts of that early morning scripture began to ring through my mind. “Direct your heart to the highway, the way by which you went. Return, O virgin of Israel return to these your cities.” The trip to Wisconsin was uneventful, except for a little side excursion in Iowa, to visit my old Alma Mater. That brief visit made me realize that my life before being born from above, born of the spirit, was akin to a dream in the night.

Arriving back at my parents’ home was like stepping into a time machine which took me to the days when I had still lived there. Fifteen years had passed but here I was, back in my old room, working with my father on the farm and in the cucumber sorting station that he had taken over from his father! YHVH was giving me many opportunities to share the new Spirit-filled life with old friends and family. Amazingly, the community began to grow rapidly, as His grace drew many into the ‘life in the Spirit’.

In a town of about 150 people this move did not escape the notice of the old die-hard Lutherans. What was happening all around bothered the town folk and the minister. The latter had actually preached a few sermons on the subject of speaking in tongues, and why it should not be done, as well as on the other spiritual gifts, and their irrelevance for today. He even found it necessary to pay me a visit! The Spirit was also ‘moving’ in the prison ministry, so much so that I was invited to share at other prisons. The excitement of seeing a community of believers being raised up in my hometown had actually taken my mind somewhat off of Israel.

Working with my father again and being around my mother, who both treated me as if I were still seventeen, presented quite a challenge. Many attitudes and reactions which I had toward them while being a rebellious teenager, surfaced again, to my surprise. My parents hadn’t changed, but neither had I. I did not realize until years later, God’s wisdom in bringing me back home. There were still bitterness, resentment and rebellious sarcasm that YHVH was after. One night, as I was going out the door, my mother asked me where I was going, and when would I be back. I was stunned at my irritated emotional response, which does not bear repeating. She was shocked, and so was I. “Where did that come from?” Much of the refuse was being uncovered, before the Heavenly Father was going to release me to go to the land of Israel. That little portion of scripture, “return by the way in which went”, was not only referring to a physical highway. Those dangling exposed roots were important to the Husbandman, if He were going to transplant a healthier shoot. Repentance was being called for, as these rebellious attitudes were being exposed, so that the Holy Spirit might administer forgiveness, deliverance and healing to my soul. I realized that the verse which says, “with weeping they shall come and by supplication I will lead them,” had to do with a deep repentance from the sins of youth. Repentance is one of the tools for removing the debris and the stones from this “highway of return.”

The cucumber-growing season was coming to an end, and my involvement with the local believing community was growing. However, one morning I read Ezekiel chapters two and three, and again my attention was drawn back to the land and its people. My Dad had paid me for the work I had done that summer, and it was with that money that I bought a stand-by plane ticket for a six-week trip to Israel. The day finally arrived, and I was ready to leave. Excitement aptly describes my feelings then, although not knowing anyone in the land, I was a little nervous about going alone. The name of a Christian kibbutz was all I had.

When I arrived in Chicago, after a 4 hour bus ride and a check-in process at the airport, the stewardess informed me that I would be unable to take the flight, as it had been over booked. I couldn't believe my ears. I was just about to walk away, when for some reason I decided to sit down on a bench in the waiting area, where I had 'a little chat' with the Lord which went something like: "If this is as far as I get to go to Israel, at least it was a start. But was my timing off?" I had asked. As I was sitting there, chin in hands, I heard my name being called. The lady at the desk beckoned to me with her finger. I approached the desk with what must have been a forlorn expression on my face. "There is one seat left on this flight, so hurry down the ramp and a stewardess will direct you", she said. I flew down the ramp, my feet hardly, if at all, touching the rubber mat. When I arrived, a beautiful little brunette led me to a window seat in first class. Tears welled up in my eyes, as she put a tablecloth on the table in front of me with a wine glass and a small bottle of wine. All I would have needed was just a piece of bread, and I would have felt as Abraham must have when approached by Melchizedec.

It was a warm clear "Indian summer" day as the plane lifted off the runway. The trees were still in their fall colors, although many had already lost their leaves by then. Soon we were high above the blue water of lake Michigan, heading east towards New York. I tilted back my seat, enjoying the first class treatment and just worshiped in what seemed to be the only appropriate form, "spirit and truth". As joy and peace engulfed my soul, I noticed outside the window a few small fluffy white clouds scattered below. They looked like little sheep grazing in a pasture of blue. As I was musing over the little flock below, they grew and soon formed endless rows of 'puffs', as far as my eye could see. I watched this army march toward the east, until it formed a huge thunderhead, which had taken a kind of prophetic meaning or significance. It seemed God was showing me a picture of what He was going to do with the lost sheep of the House of Israel. He was gathering them one by one into flocks, which would take the form of a marching army, to ultimately become an expression of His power, light and sustenance to the earth below, as expressed in Psalm 104:3: "He makes the clouds His [military] chariot". Those clouds also reminded me of a word He had dropped into my mind when our High Adventure Tour was traveling down the Arva road toward Massada. The dry desert scenery contrasted what we seemed to represent as a group of believers. Although we were nothing more than just a mist, that appears but for a moment, yet it was as though by His presence in us we were watering a seed that would soon sprout and break forth. Thrilled by the thought, I shared it with others, and we all felt the significance of being in the land at that time.

Arriving in Tel-Aviv as a lone gullible greenhorn American tourist, left me quite vulnerable to the veteran vultures who were waiting there for "a piece of meat" like me, or whomever else they could devour, alive or dead. No doubt some of you, reading this, are quite familiar with this type of bird. This is where I had to learn some lessons about the Lord being my shepherd; experiencing divine appointments and entertaining angels unaware, which seemed to be an almost daily phenomenon. But at the time it all just fit into ordinary life's occurrences. I walked out of the terminal with my suitcase, wondering what to do, a kindly taxi driver was going to help me, for a goodly sum of dollars, of course. But God had another plan. At that moment a lovely couple walked up to me and suggested we share a taxi, since the 3 of us were heading for Tel Aviv. When we arrived at our destination they paid for the ride, and the driver took me to a very nice and inexpensive hotel, where I settled in for the night with a very thankful heart.

I woke up quite early the next morning and decided to go outside and get my bearings, or at least try to. To my surprise, I was a block away from the beach, so in the cool morning air I walked the beautiful beach giving thanks to a wonderful heavenly Father. After eating the usual Israeli hotel breakfast, of hardboiled eggs, bread, cheeses, vegetables, and raw fish (which I didn't even attempt), I sat in my room, wondering what I should do. I thought I would call the Christian Kibbutz, which was up north, and see if I could come and visit the place at some point during my stay. Off I went, to the hall, to use the public phone. The phone machine would not take any of the Israeli coins that I tried to put into its strange little slot in the front. Just at that moment a man walked out of his room, and asked me in English if I needed help. He explained to me about the phone tokens that needed to be purchased. Later I ran into this man again. He seemed quite friendly and suggested we go out on the town together. This gentleman was an Israeli Arab from Nazareth who worked for the government, and was in town on business. Together we went to what turned out to be a nightclub where my eyes were open to triple or quadruple X-rated stage shows. I saw the 'Holy Land' from a different angle. Maybe the Lord had in mind to burst my 'holy people' balloon. Did I learn well, or was I a mediocre student? This will have to wait until next time...

Shabbat Shalom,

Ephraim

"For there shall be a day when the watchmen will cry on Mount Ephraim, 'Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to the Lord our God.'" (Jeremiah 31:6).

Prophetic Travail For America

Sharon Marks

Habakkuk 3:17-19

Though the fig tree may not blossom, nor fruit be on its vines; Though the labor of the olive may fail, and the fields yield no food; Though the flock may be cut off from the fold, and there be no herd in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation. The Lord God is my strength; He will make my feet like deer's feet, and He will make me walk on my high hills.

The prophet is telling us here that in all adversity to be not anxious! Stand in awe of our God; realize our own weakness, then rest in Him in the day and time of trouble. Yawah Adonai "Lord of my strength!" Father will strengthen those who trust in Him. As He gives the deer surefootedness to climb the hills; so will He give those who live by faith the same confidence. The righteous with God's strength will occupy the high hills like a victorious army. Praise You Most High God! You Are our strength and our shield.

I was reading the book " The God Chasers" (I HIGHLY recommend this to you) by Tommy Tenney. In it he spoke how in Ethiopia a small congregation was gathered on the second floor in worship. The communists broke in and said they were there to stop them. They had tried many means before-nothing had worked. They grabbed the pastor's three year old daughter and threw her out the window into the street. The mother rose up and went down to the street and gathered up her dead child's broken body. Cradling her she returned back up to the place where they were worshipping and continued to worship and praise the Lord. Within just a few months this small group grew to over 400,000 worshipers.

I was sitting in my car by the lake as I read this-there were cars on both sides of me and people playing with their children. I felt such a sense of worthlessness and of repentance for I realized that we as the body of Christ in our freedom have NOT A CLUE what it means to sacrifice and to be persecuted for the name of Lord!!!! What a spoiled, selfish, self-centered, and prideful people we are! We are ready to give it all up at the slightest tilt of a head or a word that doesn't sit right. We walk around like martyrs because we had to endure someone who called us a Jesus Freak.

I began to shout very loudly "Father, please FORGIVE US! Forgive America!" We took a God fearing country that You gave us and we have turned it into a fear all or anything BUT GOD country. Through complacency, laziness, selfishness, lack of faith and trust in our Lord God.

I have never felt so much sorrow as Father imparted His heart to me concerning this. I saw a black cloud come over America and it seemed to envelope it in darkness. The darkness was so intense that it felt empty, lonely, cold and completely void of any light , any comfort, any love. I asked Father what it was He was showing me. He said what I was feeling is what He feels coming from His people in America. I only wish I could describe to you how much my heart, my soul and my spirit anguished and the purity of aloneness, and the lack (complete void) of love that permeated my very being!

He said "The heart of the people is not for Me; they no longer reverence Me as they once did. They have become ensnared in building monuments to themselves with their names on them and all the time saying it is for Me. I tell you that I am a jealous God-I will tear down to the last stone those things that are built with pride and glorify man and not your God. I said to build the temple in My image.

Do you not know that YOU are My temple? I say to sow into my kingdom with love, compassion, faith, honor and trust in ME. That in these things shall you reap the fruit of the harvest. Sow love to one another not strife. Preach Good News that My Son gave you and died for; that those who are lost might be found. As My Son suffered persecution so shall those who follow Him with truth and with spirit.

I did not tell you it would be easy-I did say it would be worth it! For I have much I desire to give those who will stand strong in all adversity. Will you stand strong when the wind of strife comes? When things seem not to be as YOU think they should will you wait on Me and trust in those I have put over you to guide you? Will you be obedient to My shepherd of you? Will you go forth with what I have entrusted you with and hold strong to those things that are what I have purposed in you?

OR will you be easily uprooted with every storm that comes your way because your strength is in yourself and not in Me? How deeply are you rooted in Me or are your roots shallow and easily torn up? For as your faith is so are your roots.

Have I not told you that My Son awaits His bride impatiently? That soon I shall say GO GATHER Your bride to Yourself and bring My children home!

Still, you watch as those that are lost go without food and water. Bring My bread and feed them: let them drink of My Living Water to quench their thirst. Give and it shall be given. If you sow love you will be loved, if you sow compassion then compassion will be poured out to you, if you sow kindness - kindness will be given, if you give your cloak-I will give you a ROBE, if you give a cap-I will give a crown, if you give a staff, I will give a scepter.

Do you not know that you can not out give your Father!? Trust in me in ALL adversity, know in your weakness I am strong, I will give you confidence to stand if you but ask. I am Your Lord, Your God, I AM that I AM and there is NO OTHER LIKE ME!

Pass Through The Gates

Reuven Doron

Embrace Israel Prayer Focus, 8 February 2000

The Embrace Israel prayer focus is prepared regularly by Pastor Reuven Doron, director of Embrace Israel Ministries, and provided free of charge to a select group of intercessors around the world.

"On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed watchmen; all day and all night they will never keep silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest for yourselves; and give Him no rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth." [Isaiah 62:6-7 NAS]

PRAYER FOCUS FROM JERUSALEM 8 February 2000

This Prayer Focus is an edited version of a recent intercessory report written by Lars Enarson, director of the Elijah Prayer Army. Lars is a close friend and a co-worker here in Israel, and our ministries will cooperate this coming Passover in the events described below. Pray as you read, and consider joining our intercession teams this coming Passover.

"Pass through, pass through the gates! Prepare the way for the people. Build up, build up the highway! Remove the stones. Raise a banner for the nations" (Isaiah 62:10).

We believe that this New Year is a year of breakthrough for Israel. With this new millennium we have entered the third day of resurrection for God's people. "After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His sight." (Hosea 6:2) "You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for the time to favor her, yes, the set time, has come." (Ps 102:13) Our job in intercession is to build up the highway for the people, go through the gates, and take out the stones. It is also significant that this new millennium began on a Sabbath, as it is the seventh millennium from the creation of the world. The coming of the Lord is drawing near!

There are three major "roadblocks" that must be removed in prayer before the Jewish people will turn back to the Lord:

- (1). Rabbinical Judaism.
- (2). Anti Semitic Christianity.
- (3). Secular Humanism.

During our upcoming "Passover Israel Intercession Tour," April 12 - 23, we plan to pray on location against these three spiritual strongholds over the Jewish people. Now is the time to begin to pray and prepare in fasting and intercession for a definite breakthrough in the year 2000 over these spiritual strongholds! We are targeting ancient demonic powers, most likely some of the strongest in the world, so it will take a united effort of intercession all over the world to accomplish a breakthrough.

After the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem in 70 AD, the priests who made up the party of the Sadducees lost their influence, and three groups were now left competing for influence over the people: the Pharisees, the Essenes, and the disciples of Yeshua. We must remember that already in the book of Acts there were tens of thousands of Jewish believers in Jerusalem alone (Acts 21:20), and their numbers were increasing daily.

The Essenes, on the other hand, were the ones who had rebelled against the corrupt priesthood in the temple, went into a self-imposed exile, and lived in communities out in the desert, waiting for the restoration of a pure priesthood and the Tabernacle of Moses. It was probably an Essene who directed the disciples to the upper room for their last Passover with Jesus.

The Pharisees, who already in the times of Jesus loved to be called "Rabbis," were the ones who eventually developed Rabbinical Judaism, as we know it today. After the destruction of the temple when their most bitter rivals, the Sadducees, lost their power, they did everything they could to gain control over the masses. They actually developed a new religion that was centered on good deeds and studies of the law, instead of worship at the temple.

One of their leaders, Rabbi Johannan Ben Zakkai, escaped the destruction of Jerusalem being carried out of the city by his disciples in a coffin, pretending to be dead. After the war ended he received permission from the Romans to establish a new Rabbinical School in the city of Yavneh, away from Jerusalem, and it was from this place that Rabbinical Judaism emerged.

The one who became the real father of Rabbinical Judaism was Rabbi Akiva. With what must be considered demonically inspired wisdom, he developed a long-range plan over many years to establish Rabbinical Judaism as the only true expression of Jewish faith. The crowning act was to proclaim a cruel, ruthless military leader, Simeon Ben Kosiba as Messiah, thus starting a bloody uprising against Rome.

Rabbi Akiva changed one letter in Kosiba's last name and called him Bar Kokhba, which means "Son of a Star," referring to the Messianic prophecy in Num. 24:17. "I see Him, but not now; I behold Him, but not near; a Star shall come out of Jacob; a Scepter shall rise out of Israel, and batter the brow of Moab, and destroy all the sons of tumult."

It is evident that there were no messianic qualifications in Bar Kokhba, only that he was a ruthless and bold warrior - just what Akiva needed. Akiva even prophesied before the uprising that it would fail! But through the revolt he would accomplish his main task: to establish Rabbinical Judaism as the only accepted Judaism. He knew that especially the Messianic Jews would not be able to accept Bar-Kokhba as the Messiah, and therefore, in this way, they could be blamed for the failure of the revolt, excommunicated forever from the community of Israel. To reach his goal he was willing to sacrifice the lives of millions of his own people.

Messianic author Daniel Gruber writes in his revealing book "Rabbi Akiva's Messiah: The Origins of Rabbinic Authority": "The Bar Kokhba Revolt against Roman rule in the time of the Emperor Hadrian equaled, or surpassed, these two previous tragedies (the destruction of the First and Second Temple) in the numbers who were killed, starved to death, or led into exile and slavery. ...In long-term consequences, the Bar Kokhba Rebellion of 132-135 CE (Common Era / A.D.), 'the Last Revolt' against Roman rule, may well have been the greatest disaster in Jewish history...

"The Babylonian destruction and exile were eclipsed by the return to the land seventy years later. The failure of the 'Great Revolt' brought the destruction of Jerusalem and the Second Temple, but the Jews were still permitted to remain in the land. Following the Bar Kokhba Rebellion (however), Jews were forbidden to inhabit the land of Judea. That legal prohibition and the exile it mandated lasted for eighteen centuries. The Romans (even) changed the name of the land to 'Palestine' to demonstrate that it would never again be a Jewish land." End quote.

To be included in the Sanhedrin in Akiva's days, a rabbi had to be a "master of sorcery," something, which of course God explicitly forbids in the Law. He also had to be able to prove from the Bible that a reptile is a clean animal. In other words he had to be able to "prove" that the Bible means the opposite of what it says. "It is not in heaven" was a phrase that became a guiding principle. It means that what the majority of the Rabbis declare to be right, is right even if it is wrong.

In fact, they taught that God laughs when men outwit Him! This is the same spirit of deception that is gaining more and more influence today in Israel. A generation ago the rabbis in Israel had nothing to do with politics. Today it is getting more and more difficult for the government in Israel to make any decision until the leading rabbis, the Sages, have met together and agreed on their policy.

We are dealing with a very powerful demonic principality.

"The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie." (2 Thessalonians 2:9-11).

During our upcoming Passover Intercession Tour we will travel to the grave of Rabbi Akiva and to the graves of other rabbis and pray that God will break the influence of this spirit of deception over the minds of Jewish people who are called to salvation in this generation. Every spring, during just one night, more than 100,000 orthodox Jews make pilgrimage to these graves to invite the spirits of these rabbis into their lives! We must "remove the stones!"

The mindset from the days of Akiva that the rabbis by themselves have authority to declare what is Jewish and what is right, must be uprooted to prepare the way of salvation for the Jewish people. Now is the time to prepare in fasting and prayer. We encourage everyone to take one day per week until Passover to fast for a breakthrough in accordance with the points below:

** PRAY FOR DIVINE WISDOM AND INSIGHT ON HOW TO CONDUCT THE BATTLE.

** PRAY THAT GOD WILL GRANT THE NECESSARY ANOINTING TO DEFEAT THESE ANCIENT STRONGHOLDS.

It must be done and it can only be accomplished by the Holy Spirit!

"For yet a very little while and the indignation will cease, as will My anger in their destruction.' And the LORD of hosts will stir up a scourge for him like the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb; as His rod was on the sea, so will He lift it up in the manner of Egypt. It shall come to pass in that day that his burden will be taken away from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil" (Is 10:25-27).

Notice the reference in this passage to the victory of Gideon! We believe for a Gideon's army of 300 intercessors to come and pray on location in Israel during the Passover Intercession Tour. Pray with us for those 300 intercessors to be called and released to join the Passover 2000 intercession tour to Israel.

We encourage you to ask the Lord if He wants YOU to come on this important intercessory tour to pray for the salvation of Israel and a spiritual breakthrough in 2000. You can register now and wait with your payment until March 10, but space is limited. Israel will be very crowded during Passover 2000, when both the Jewish Passover and Easter coincide, and the travel agencies cannot guarantee us too many airline seats or hotel rooms after January. To make sure that you have a place on this tour you must register during this month. Contact The Watchman International for detailed registration information: via e-mail at watchman777@msn.com or by phone at 850-453-2907 or by Internet at www.thewatchman.org

PRAISE GOD FOR THE RAINS

God hears prayer!

What was officially predicted to be a very dry and warm winter, further complicating our draught and bringing the water economy in the region to a disastrous stage, has become possibly the wettest winter of the century.

Because of God's mercies, awakened by your prayers, He opened up the windows of heaven generously and is pouring upon us blessed and continual rains. It rained heavily all across the land, snow piled up in places which never saw snow before, floods hit the low spots, and the Lake of Galilee is rising daily!

No doubt, a miracle winter is unfolding, and we pray it remains wet and cool for as long as possible. Thank you for agreeing with us.

Perilous Times

Jane Clark

God speaks in mysterious ways sometimes! Even through computer viruses! The following is not only a teaching, but it is a strong warning of the need for discernment to be operating in our lives; the devil is truly walking around seeking those whom he may devour, and many of us are easy prey to the delusion and deception which is coming rapidly upon the world. Trouble can come from unexpected sources, so we have to be continually on our guard.

My computer system is being rebuilt from scratch by an expert. He stripped off all the programmes and data and began to load everything on anew, taking care to store all my files and records. Then came time to test and load a new foreign email connection; I had been given a programme via the internet by a friend, and felt that it would be fine to accept, the programme had been stored file without opening. Alas, when the programme was opened it had a bug too virulent to be erased by the latest edition of a good virus scanning programme! A short while later the system would not work, and my friend tore out his hair; saying "I loaded the anti virus system last!!!" The saga is ongoing, so I cannot tell you what happens next.

The spiritual application of this hair tearing episode is important. For Computer system read soul (mind, will and emotions) For programme read belief system For file read attitudes, beliefs, thoughts.

It is vital to have a virus protection programme if your files are not to be affected. It should be used regularly to prevent infection, and be kept up to date with the latest viruses. The whole computer system could crash!

Application. God's word is the ONLY effective scanning device for the entrance of bugs into our belief system; think of Eve and the temptation to eat the fruit; the bug presented itself, and she did not use the word of God. Jesus in the wilderness, however did! He countered the bugs, the lies, with the word of God, saying " It is written; man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God."

A good scanning programme runs in the background; so should the word of God " Thy word have I hidden in my heart that I might not sin against Thee" Properly in place, it will act as a warning system; but we must act on it! Eve did not!

The word of God is a discernment tool (quick and active, sharper than a two edged sword) and will catch the "bug" by the neck, isolating it from its hiding place! How relieved we all are when we see the little bug squirming on our screens; phew! I have escaped infection! If only we would feel the same way about a warning given by the Holy Spirit!

How about the bugs that have already got in? Some bugs remain hidden only to be activated by a pre determined set of circumstances. Sometimes a manual scan is needed; a housekeeping exercise. One well known one is the prayer "Search me O God, and know my thoughts, try me and know my ways; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" God acts on such a scan! Then we must cast out the intruder!

Beware of all unknown programmes (ideas, beliefs) , even if they come from a seemingly authentic source; scan the lot with the word of God before you take them in, or you may be cooking up trouble! In taking anything in it means you are agreeing with it, and will act on it in the future! Do you think I am exaggerating? This is war! If you are not careful you could become blind! Beware of what you open yourself up to.

2 Cor 10:3-6 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled. NKJV 2 Cor 4:3-5 But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, whose minds the god of this age has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them. NKJV Take heart if your system has crashed; God is in the restoration business Psalm 23 "he restores my soul" and we can ask Him "Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and uphold me with your generous Spirit, then I will teach transgressors your ways and sinners will be converted to you Psalm 31 v 12,13. Sometimes it is better to restore from a crash, i.e. begin again, than to work with a system which is infected!

We can then act as an early warning system for others. Dear fellow believers, do not neglect the word of God.

2 Tim 3:1-8 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away! For of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. NKJV

Purpose And Process

Doug Fortune

I am consumed with PURPOSE... everything I do revolves around God's purposes in the earth. I am so focused on the end product, the PURPOSE, God restoring fully His image and likeness in a many-membered New Creation Man, that often times I forget to mention that there is a PROCESS involved. As a result, sometimes after the initial excitement of becoming impregnated with PURPOSE, people look at me and ask, "What do I do now?".... This is where PROCESS comes in. There are some who are so in tune with PROCESS that they end up repeating PROCESS again and again and have difficulty moving into PURPOSE. May I interject that we need BOTH working interdependant with each other to attain the goal of manifesting Christ in the earth? Ephesians chapter four is a good example as it describes Jesus' first action as the crucified, resurrected, and ascended apostolic High Priest... verse 8 says "...when He ascended on high... He bestowed gifts on men...". By virtue of this being His first course of action as He ascended, we know that it is filled with PURPOSE and verses 12 and 13 goes on to describe that purpose, "...His intention (PURPOSE) was the perfecting of the saints... to the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ...". THIS is purpose, to manifest the fullness of Christ! Integrally intertwined within the PURPOSE contained in these verses is PROCESS... and that process is five-fold ministries equipping the saints. Consider the PROCESS as each gift equips the saints ... apostles imparting a 'sent one' mentality, prophets imparting vision and revelatory awareness, evangelists imparting the ability to draw people to Him, pastors imparting a caring and concern for others, and teachers imparting true knowledge... all this contained within the PURPOSE of being conformed to the image of Christ and manifesting Him in the earth. PURPOSE determines our PROCESS... in other words, if I believe my PURPOSE is to just "hang on till Jesus comes back, get a few people to heaven, and hope for a rapture that I may escape this world", then my PROCESS will be very self-serving and limited. If I believe that my PURPOSE is to manifest Christ by being conformed to His likeness and advance the Kingdom having dominion in the earth, then my PROCESS will be a reflection of that PURPOSE.

A great problem arises when we try to make PROCESS our PURPOSE... in other words, as a prophet, if I make imparting the revelatory my PURPOSE, then I become imbalanced and no longer see the need for the evangelist, teacher, etc. If I make spiritual warfare my PURPOSE, then I become imbalanced, looking for demons behind every bush. If I make inner-healing my PURPOSE, then I'm always looking to dig up everybody's hurts and wounds and have difficulty releasing them as healed and whole.... I think you get the idea here. Conversely, if all I have is PURPOSE and no PROCESS, then I am living in a dream world (you might know someone like that!).

PURPOSE determines PROCESS, but PROCESS brings PURPOSE to manifestation.

When God said, "Let us make man in Our image and likeness", the Last Adam, Christ, was the PURPOSE but the first Adam was the PROCESS. Consider Paul's words in Gal. 4:19, "My little children for whom I am again suffering birth pangs until Christ is completely and permanently formed within you!" (Amplified Bible). Here he is speaking of PROCESS with a PURPOSE of Christ being completely formed within. Even the word he uses there for children, teknon, is different than the word nepos used in Eph. 4:14, "... children tossed to and fro..." referring to infants; and the word huioi used in Rom. 8:19 speaking of the "...manifestation of the sons of God...", referring to mature sons. This is the PROCESS of "...working out your salvation..." (Phil. 2:2), bringing that which is already perfected within your spirit to manifest in your soul. PROCESS is imperative, but it must be born from PURPOSE.

Consider Peter walking on the water to meet Jesus; his PURPOSE was to get to Jesus but he began to focus on the PROCESS (By the way, I'm not bashing Peter, at least he got out of the boat!). Many of us are like that, we begin in PURPOSE but get bogged down in the PROCESS because we focus on PROCESS rather than PURPOSE. 2 Cor. 3:18 reveals these dynamics well, "And all of us with unveiled face, because we continued to behold as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another; (for this comes) from the Lord (Who is) the Spirit." Our PURPOSE is to be transformed into His likeness, to see His glory in the mirror, and as we maintain our focus on PURPOSE while actively engaging the PROCESS, we will see the PURPOSE become a present reality!

Unfortunately, I believe that many in the Church have mistaken PROCESS for PURPOSE, thus we have groups worshipping at the altar of past 'moves of God'. Even the restoration of the five-fold is merely a PROCESS that will eventually be consumed in PURPOSE as He brings forth the "perfect man", and the five-fold is superseded by the order of Melchizedek. I see the apostolic as bringing PURPOSE to the church, but let it NOT be to the exclusion of PROCESS!

PURPOSE and PROCESS... two dynamics imperative to the advancement of His Kingdom... let the emphasis of one not be to the exclusion of the other... rather, let them be interdependently woven together!

Pursuing God's Interest

Mike Forrest

There have been many good teachings on the willingness of God to bless His people, and that His children should be coming to an ever increasing knowledge of who they are in Christ. The faith teaching that became popular during the charismatic movement was an essential part of what God was doing in His church. The Word of God was elevated to the place that it needs to be, and believers were brought into a Word consciousness where their lives were being built on the firm foundation of God's Word.

One of the weaknesses that developed during the charismatic movement and the restoration of the teachings concerning faith and the prosperity of the believer was that many dear saints were caught into the trap of seeking their own interests and the success of their own ministries more than they sought the will of the Lord and the establishing of His kingdom. God became a means to an end. The end being "man's success in whatsoever he set his hand to." Many men that were called of God and were tremendous blessings to the Body of Christ began to grow large ministries that required large quantities of money to keep afloat. Instead of allowing the Lord to build His own ministry and work, many began to use God to build their own organizations, for their own purposes, having their own personal agendas.

One of the basic reasons that many became obsessed with their own ambition and success was the lack of good teaching on the cross of Christ in the life of the believer. Without the faithful dealings of the Holy Spirit to the self life, the Lord will not have His rightful place in our lives and ministries. Many men became prominent within the church largely due to their own initiative and personality. Whatever man does to promote himself or his own ministry will end up working against the Lord's purposes in the end. All that is not built by the Lord will have to be maintained by human strength and initiative. This includes all organized religion that man has built and now is having to maintain.

The true church of Jesus Christ is being built upon the true foundation of Christ Himself. Jesus Christ is building His own church, and He alone is the head of that church. Just as Jesus lived in total dependence of His Father, the true church will live in total dependence and faith in Jesus Christ and His Word. The true Body of Christ will receive directions from the Head alone and will do nothing on their own initiative and strength. Jesus is not choosing superstars to run His church, but God is calling men and women that have seen their own sin and weakness and having received the grace of God are now striving to fulfill God's purpose for their lives and ministries.

The Lord's true servants that have embraced the way of the cross, having died to their own plans and agenda, will live and operate in God's ways and will be empowered by the Holy Spirit to fulfill God's purposes for His church. They will have no confidence in the flesh, but will allow Jesus to live His life in them and through them. God's glory will be what their heart is set upon, and their true delight in life is to see God glorified and exalted. Their authority will not come from man but will come from heaven.

Many are now repenting of their selfish ways and returning to their first love. God Himself and not His gifts have become the object of their desire. As we put God's kingdom first, we are finding that all of our needs are automatically being taken care of. The Lord is seeking those that will worship Him in Spirit and in truth. What better way can we find to worship

Him than to give Him the first place in our lives in all things.

PUSH Alert

Joe Kirkwood

Alert - Pray Until Something Happens (PUSH)

This is a very informative insight into the White House, please take a minute to read. Below is a report from Pastor Joe Kirkwood from Amarillo, Texas, who recently had an unusual opportunity to be in a group of pastors from across the nation invited to meet with Christians who hold office in the U.S. government.

You will find this an unusual and inside look ....and you will hear a fresh call to prayer. Feel free to forward this to other intercessors. The report I have received has been edited in order to release this "publicly" to intercessors. Please read below.

From Rev. Joe Kirkwood:

Washington was incredible in so many ways. I was first given a tour of the White House where I was told by the secret service not to pray out loud, but I could pray silently as we went along through the house. The secret service man told me that on several occasions they had people who would appear to be praying then go on a sit down strike inside the White House followed by throwing blood on the walls of the White House in protest against the President. Over the mantel in one room is the "White House Prayer". It says something like "May all who live in this House abide to live in righteousness and moral character".

I was then taken to the top of the Washington Monument to find a souvenir shop run by the Masonic lodge. The shelves were filled with books on the Masonic lodge. It seems that the Washington monument is a symbol of free masonry. As you could imagine I began prayer on top of the monument.

The next morning I had dinner with 30 "born again" US Congressmen. These men shared how they are desperate for our prayers. Many of them privately told me of how lonely they were. They felt like they could talk to no one without the danger of it appearing in the Press. Some told of how the Gay & Lesbian's have taken over Washington. They even infiltrate the offices of the Congressmen. (They explained in detail how they are able to infiltrate). Some of the congressmen told me with tears in their eyes of how women had been hired to seduce the Christian Congressmen so they could be caught in compromising situations. They also shared how money would show up in unmarked envelopes to get them to vote in favor of Gay & Lesbian agendas.

One Congressman said that because he voted to impeach the President that he was even threatened by people inside the White House. This man is a spirit-filled Believer and now was in a battle to hold his seat in congress. He told us that he had even suffered nightmares of losing his children and family. When he told us this we stopped and laid hands on him in prayer.

During all of these sessions we became very close. Our purpose was to talk about "Separation of Church and State," but we found our dialogue more on giving these Christian Congressmen encouragement. You could sense that many of them felt like giving up. Before we left we saw God move upon each of them with encouragement.

One of the main topics of discussion was the upcoming election. I was told that the next President would most likely appoint three new Supreme Court Justices, but were now being told it would most likely be four new Justices appointed. They told us that the Christian vote nationwide had dropped in the last two years by 20%. Each Congressman who spoke to us begged us to call Christians to pray and to vote!

The day following the one-on-one discussion with members of congress was the most exciting. We were escorted by guard to the Supreme Court! Chief Justice William Renquist granted us a visit in a private room at the Supreme Court Building. The room which few people ever lay their eyes on was covered literally in 24 Karat Gold. I have been all over Europe, but have never seen anything like it and pictures were not allowed. Before Chief Justice Renquist arrived several of us were selected to ask him direct questions! I was one of three people given this great opportunity. Just to let you know, Chief Justice Renquist is probably the second most powerful man in the world. Even several members of Congress said that they had never personally seen or met Judge Renquist. It was a little overwhelming to say the least. Finally after some waiting an old figure of a man appeared at the door. Immediately everyone (about 30 people) including congressmen rose to their feet and began to applaud this conservative man who has led the fight for morality. As I was standing there applauding and feeling a little intimidated I had a glimpse of how powerful our Lord and Savior really is. Even Judge Renquist will one day bow his knee before Christ and yet Jesus is my best friend. This revelation helped me when I stood to ask him my question! Chief Justice Renquist is very concerned about America. Many of the decisions for righteousness of late have been lost by a five to four vote. It was easy to sense the loneliness in Judge Renquist's eyes. Three years ago his wife passed away and it has been hard for him to recover from it. Can you imagine not being able to tell people what you think for fear it will be used against you later on in court? Who does this man confide in? Most who know him say he is a forced recluse. We all had a time of prayer while at the Supreme Court.

While inside the Courtroom you can see on the wall the face of Moses (first lawgiver) holding the Ten Commandments. It was hard to imagine how this nation has drifted so far from the Bible! There are so many more things I could share, but it would take days to write it all down.

I have been asked to return again next year. I was also told by the Congressmen to consider bringing a few trusted Pastor friends with me when I come next year. Dick Armey told me that this is the most crucial election in the entire history of the United States. Several others confirmed it as well.

In conclusion I beg each and every Christian to P.U.S.H. (PRAY UNTIL SOMETHING HAPPENS).

Putting The Cart “Before” The Horse

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

Since the fall of last year the Lord has been showing me how so many have gotten their eyes OFF of Him – and on to their own “plans, programs, and (supposed) positions.” Earlier today I was again contemplating this when the Holy Spirit said to me very clearly, “Putting the cart before the horse.” Oft times with me - the Holy Spirit will use a “descriptive” word or phrase - and then I'm shown a visual picture along with it. That’s what happened this morning, for in the Spirit I saw a cart, TRYING to pull a “horse,” instead of the other way around. How ridiculous IT LOOKED! A small cart – NOT GOING ANYWHERE! The horse was ready, willing and able – but since it was harnessed to the BACK of the cart instead of the front, it just stood and contently grazed, not AT ALL concerned with how MUCH the “cart's owner” might want it to “get up and go!”

More often than not, a cart will have two medium to fairly large sized wheels in relation to its size... a “yoke” attachment for the animal that is pushing it, and a flat bed (with or without sides) to carry whatever needs moved. But even with “oversized” wheels the cart won’t move from its origination point – unless there’s some-one or something to “push it along!” OH, perhaps a very strong wind "MIGHT" push the cart forwards or backwards for a very short distance, but for the most part, it is unable to function without the help of – well, in this case – the horse.

I understood almost immediately that the “cart,” I was shown is representative of those individuals who are trying to “put their carts -THEIR ministries,” before the horse. Instead of waiting for the Lord to go ahead of them, instead of being “securely yoked” to Him, they have said “GETTY UP!” and taken off!

This got me to musing, just “what WOULD you use such a cart for?” To carry things – to move things from one place to another with the least amount of effort. What would many choose to CARRY WITH THEM? Their degrees, the positions they feel they’ve earned and/or deserve, their doctrines, their own rewards, coverings, etc. .... that’s the GREAT THING about a cart you know – you can use it to CARRY JUST ABOUT ANYTHING!

The “horse” represents the POWER that moves the cart. Without the “POWER” the animal has to “pull” the cart behind it – it’s NOT MOVING! You can place all of the “things or items” you desire in your cart – just as you can in “YOUR MINISTRY,” but “IF” the power is not THERE – don’t be surprised if it fails.

It is also the “horse,” who “sees” what’s up ahead on the path. A horse will, more often than not, REFUSE to move forward when it sees a snake coiled up on the road ahead of it. Oh – if ONLY we were so observant! We blindly load up “our carts,” engrossed in whether or not we’ve brought “enough tracts, studied enough, put a good enough paint job on our cart," and don’t stop to realize that while we’ve been “busying ourselves,” the snake has already coiled itself around “US” and is squeezing “HIS LIFE!” right out of us!

When we “hitch our horse” to the rear of the cart, instead of letting it lead, we have no one to blame but ourselves if we haven’t moved. We remain “static,” in place, unable to go forward. Eventually, weighed down by all the “things or items” we THOUGHT we needed, we might even up-end our cart, and all of its contents will spill out on the ground. ....breaking some, cracking and splintering others, and totally disrupting the “order” we had - OH! soooooo carefully! – arranged "OUR ITEMS” in.

The last thought I had was this: “How well do you suppose even a PROPERLY front harnessed horse and cart will do.... ...when trying to MOVE OUT ON SHIFTING SAND?”

Putting on LOVE

Priscilla Van Sutphin

5-11-00

What does it mean to enable? Or to forbear? Forbearance is overlooking the faults or weaknesses of others. It is the ministration of peace which gives us forbearance with others. It is a security, in knowing how much God loves us and others. I want to give you an example from my own life :

After my natural mother died, ( I was also raised half my life by foster parents) my sister was angry at me for something the enemy convinced her that I did. However she was judging my motivations, and actions in a very critical way, and was spurned on by one of my mother's sisters. I'll mention here that my sister is a "new ager" and got involved in Unity through my mother . Well, shortly thereafter, I was in church on a Sunday, and a very wonderful violin player had a solo part in the worship set, and as he played under the anointing I began to smell roses, the presence of the Lord wafting over me again and again throughout the service, until at its end I realized, I had such great peace. I could have just stayed there and slept and not only that, but I felt such security and comfort in that place. Then on Monday, I went to get my mail, and there was an envelope from my sister, and I was walking to a friend of my son's, when I opened it and started to read it.

Normally, I would have been leveled emotionally by what was in the letter there was such hatred and anger, years of being compared to each other and the witchcraft manipulation of my mother had brought such division between us. But I was strangely at peace. Then I thought of how at church the day before I had received such an impartation of peace, and in that moment realized the blessed love and care of the Lord as HE knew she was sending that letter and purposed to protect me from the assignments of the enemy attached to it ! Isn't that a loving and kind thing to do ??? How wonderful is He ?!!!!

That is why I know that it is HIS PEACE that gives us forbearance ! It is on top of that, a testimony to the fact, that if you want peace in this violent world, you must spend time at His feet worshipping and letting Him love on you to have what you need to overcome the assaults of the enemy in this world. What is the key to overcoming sin, the world, the flesh and the devil? It is yielding to be overcome BY HIM ! We must rest there is SO MUCH BUSYNESS in this life, even in the church. Some people go from activity to activity in the church, and never really get to know people through relationship.

And some are so busy IN the church they never reach outside of it. We have to be FLEXIBLE to be overcomers and AVAILABLE to the Lord if we want to be used. Forbearance is a key that is unlocked by the ever loving arms of the Lord when we come to Him and receive His love and peace. We are then transformed by His glory and can do the work of the kingdom with much less stress and we'll have more to give of HIM, if there is more of HIM in us.

Enablement is a term used in recovery. It generally means doing for others, what they can do for themselves if we let them. Sometimes DOING for others can cause harm to them. It can make them useless in areas of their lives, or irresponsible. As an example: I went away to nursing school and lived in a dorm, after having 3 years of biology under my belt. I found out then, there were other girls whose moms had never taught them how to wash clothes, or how to cook, or clean, or pick up after themselves, or to do things for themselves, and they were lost without this, and had to learn these things for themselves, and sometimes would be in great dismay, or discouragement because of it. Their moms had enabled them.

Love does no harm to another it says in 1 Corinthians 13 We must have the Lord as our teacher, if we want to be in His will and not enable others. We must ask "Do YOU want me to do this Lord ? " That is surrendering our will to HIS. What would bless one person can harm another, and vice versa.

I remember once while on food stamps, I was going into a store to buy food, and I saw a homeless woman with no shoes, filthy and unkempt, tall, thin, with a blanket-like poncho on, in front of the Vons Store. I started to feel like I should give her some money for food, so I went up to her. Her face was turned away, and she was standing next to the cement garbage bin in front of the store. I tapped her on the arm lightly, to put the $20 in her hand, and there was instead a power-encounter between light and darkness he turned on me throwing the 7-up in her hand in my face and screamed at me " Who told you , you could touch me you _____! ? And then she proceeded to pull cans and bottles out of the garbage, hurling them at me. So that what I wanted to do in secret, suddenly was turned into a ruckus. I ran in the store to get away, and the managers came up to me, my nerves kind of shattered, and just before they came up to me the Lord whispered in my ear "Did I tell you to give her the money?" It taught me a strong lesson about OBEDIENCE ! God loves obedience more than sacrifice, and mercy more than sacrifice, it says in the Bible.

I am not to be drawn in by my own fleshly compassion, but solely reliant on the direction of the Lord in each situation of my life, and every day and hour of my life. God's compassion is another thing than that of the flesh. He alone, knows what is in the heart of a man or woman.

In the days ahead we will need compassion, and we will need discernment, and to know the voice of the Lord, and to not listen to that of another. THAT is why the Lord wants us to REST in Him , and take time for the perfumed oil of HIS PRESENCE to be "rubbed" into us, that we might be like Him, only doing what the Father is doing.

I have seen many churches who move in the gifts and great power, who do NOT have the fruits of the Spirit as they ought. They don't even have the heart some of them , to reach out to the poor in their own neighborhoods. Then there are those who seem to have love and kindness, but no power. THE CHURCH NEEDS BALANCE.

WE NEED TO HAVE THE GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT WHICH REFLECT THE POWER OF GOD, .AND WE NEED TO HAVE THE FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT, THAT REFLECT THE CHARACTER OF GODLIKE JOHN DAWSON SAYS.

All of that is available through Christ, if we would only take the Time to spend in His Presence. He is the Resource of everything we lack or need. When God's LOVE gets poured out on us, we will have the fruit we need, as when we realize how much He truly loves us, we will not compete with one another, we won't be greedy for recognition and power, or jealous of others, or apathetic towards others.

There are many parents, who were victims of not receiving the love they needed, who then enable their children out of a false sense of guilt maybe they were drug addicts, or alcoholic in the past and their children, now teens have not forgiven them for their control and impatience, or intolerance; the abuse. People in the church and in the world are in great need of healing of their emotions. So many have been so greatly wounded until they feel like they have been slain. The rejection so great, that defensive pride grows and grows till it keeps them from the very thing they need most. receiving the LOVE of God and also that through the LOVE of others. People who have undergone great rejection, have trouble receiving from others. They can give, and that is where they feel SAFE. But their pride won't allow them to receive. it makes them feel vulnerable. God is a great healer, in a touch, He can change a person's life, and we need faith for that. In Revival, we have seen God do what no amount of counseling or pursuing healing from man could do. Yet God most often uses men and women to help heal people need LOVE with flesh on it. They need the tender touch of another human being. And they need those persons to be FORBEARING, as so many have been wounded, they have the wounded lamb syndrome.

That is like when a sheep falls, and is on it's back and it cannot right itself without the help of the shepherds. And the shepherds know to be careful how they approach such sheep, as they are prone to kick them as they try to help. IT IS VERY MUCH LIKE THAT WITH HELPING THE SEVERELY EMOTIONALLY DAMAGED! I HAVE BEEN ONE OF THESE. And there are those who tried to help, and I was critical towards them, and unruly at times. I was sexually abused as a child (2-4yrs) by my step dad. I had such fear and rejection, anger and rebellion in my heart, due to the damage done to me. And yet what was done to me was nothing compared to others I know. It is hard to minister to such as these, UNLESS WE HAVE BEEN HEALED OURSELVES.

SO LET US PUT ON LOVE, WHICH IS THE GREATEST, AS THE WORD SAYS. And learn to overcome, to forbear with the weaknesses of others, to love our enemies, to be good to those who hate us, and to pray for those who spitefully use us. There is a wonderful movie I just watched called "Walking Across Egypt" with Ellen Burstyn in it, who plays an elderly Christian woman trying to help a young prodigal youth. It is very prophetic for where the church needs to be. May God bless us all with the courage to be fully healed and to overcome, that we may walk like He walked, and talk like HE talked, and love like HE loved, In Jesus name.

Put On Your Strength!

George Delo

"Awake, awake! Put on your strength, O Zion; Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city! For the uncircumcised and the unclean Shall no longer come to you. Shake yourself from the dust, arise; Sit down, O Jerusalem! Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion! For thus says the LORD: You have sold yourselves for nothing, And you shall be redeemed without money" (Isaiah 52:1-3).

It is time for My Church to awake out of sleep, to arise out of its prostration from the burdens of sin and flesh. Put on your strength, My people. Put on your beautiful garments. I have called you to be a holy place. I have provided you strength. I have given you clean garments.

No longer shall the unclean glory in My presence. No longer will I tolerate the uncircumcised and foreigners polluting My sanctuary, profaning My house, breaking My covenant to please themselves.

Shake yourselves from the dust and arise. Come before Me, bow down your hearts before Me and be loosed from the bonds of your necks. I have come to set you free from your captivity.

I have come to release you into the liberty of My children. I have come to redeem you from your slavery and all without cost but for the surrender of yourselves that you might receive My blessing.

It is time for My Church to arise before the world in the beauty of My holiness, to reveal My true glory to all men. It is time for My people to come forth from the shadows to show forth My light in the midst of the darkness. It is time to show yourselves.

I call you out of the prisons of your making. I call you out of the darkness. Rise up in My strength. Come forth in My holiness. I am releasing My power.

I am releasing My wealth. To those who will seek Me, to those who are willing in this My day of power, to those who will surrender to My will, I shall show Myself strong, I will show Myself able.

Lift up your heads, O My people. Open your hearts unto Me and the King of glory shall come in, the Lord of Hosts, strong and mighty in battle. He will route the enemies of your soul and set you in the place of My will and purpose. He will clothe you with My strength and empower you with My Spirit.

Rise up, My Church, and take your rightful place in My creation.

Pride vs Humility

Priscilla Van Sutphin

6-5-00

Part 1

Christlike love is created in us when we accept the hatred, malice, and wrongdoing of others; bearing it, instead of complaining and then overcome it through forgiveness and moving in the opposite spirit of love and blessing them. The furnace of affliction purifies our character and brings us into intimate acquaintance with Jesus our Defender.

2 Chronicles 32:26 NIV says, "Then Hezekiah repented of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the Lord's wrath did not come upon them during the days of Hezekiah."

Now everyone has been quoting, "if my people will humble themselves and pray"...as prayer is a form of humility expressing our need for God... recognizing "apart from Him we can do nothing" but we have not emphasized the first step...and that is to REPENT of our pride...to ask God to unmask us, to remove our spiritual blindness.

Several years ago I had a dream in which PRETENSE (pride) was represented by makeup in the dream. I was part of a very large church, ...and I was working as a secretary in the dream...counting shingles of roofs (covering)...and the supervisor took me down into the women's bathroom, and there covering a whole wall was makeup of every type and kind and I was told I could have as much as I wanted.... This is a very sad commentary on the church... because makeup covers up our real appearance....That week 2 other people had experiences or revelation about the pretense in the church...and we set our hearts to pray....All of us have suffered from someone else's pride and our own, as pride is usually where division and argument come from...we want to hold on to our right to be right or our need to be first, or recognized for our efforts. But our God says, He gives grace to the humble...That is scary, because if we are prideful...we usually are blind to it...and it is grace...God's mercy and power to reveal it. So we must ASK FOR GOD TO REVEAL IT...TO REMOVE ANY DELUSION, OR BLINDNESS THAT WOULD KEEP US FROM RECOGNIZING IT. I used to pray(and still do)...God crush my pride after I got saved...and He has been faithful to do so.

He has put me in many situations, where I was misunderstood, abused, or made to feel like I am insignificant, and then had ME apologize for anything I had done to people, even if I never intentionally did anything to them...even if they were deluded, or insensitive, or prideful themselves...This was to teach me humility and to sow seeds of humility for the church. Warfare is about that you know, working in the opposite to whatever is in the world or church...ie: St Francis of Assisi's prayer..."Where there is hatred, let me sow love" etc.

One major roadblock to intimacy with God and others is PRIDE !

What does pride look like ?....

Once while doing dishes, and talking to God about the controversy going on in a church about manifestations of demons...The Lord spoke to me and said, "Priscilla, how does a deaf and dumb spirit manifest?" (You see some people think demons only manifest with violence). And I answered the Lord saying 'by the person being deaf and dumb ! ' Then He said..."Correct. So then how does a spirit of pride manifest?" And I thought about the upturned nose, the condescension and disgust, and the "I know better than you attitudes" I'd seen ,and manifested myself...and the Lord said YES !...He was reassuring me that they manifest according to their function in people...and they become violent though , when asked to leave unless you take authority and forbid them from manifesting.

Luke 11: 33-36 NKJV says..."No one , when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light. The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness. Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness. If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light.

Note that just before this...Jesus is talking about repentance....He says, "The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here. " v.32

When the children of Israel, in Nehemiah 9:1-4 gathered to repent...they repented of their sin, and the sins of their FATHERS, and they were specific, I am sure....they didn't just say...Oh God, forgive us for our sins....it took hours if you will notice...God is generous, and gracious, slow to anger...but It is important for us to be specific with our repentance and prayers...What are you renouncing, or repenting from...? Conviction that I know the Holy Spirit brings is always specific ! He will show me a scene of where I did wrong, or He will be very specific about what I did that offended Him....We need to respond in like kind...for that also is humility...remember pride and pretense cover up sin...minimize sin. A humble heart is BROKEN over their sin...not arrogant, not hiding. Fear and Pride cover...fear of disclosure usually comes with pride. We must not hide as God knows anyhow...and hiding gives the enemy more chance to pummel us with condemnation...and notice how he condemns and accuses...he too is specific !

Prophetically....I am warning us all that we must REPENT of our PRIDE, or God is going to expose it in a most uncomfortable way. We can be open and honest. We must not give in to fear of disclosure that causes us to hide...and pretend to others that we are different than who we really are.

There is NO SHAME in forgiveness...God breaks the shame when we are open about our sin. Shame causes us to hide from others in the first place, thinking we are bad, and awful, and the only one with the problem...when in fact it says.....ALL have fallen short of the glory of God...NONE of us is without sin...it is only a matter of degree. As we get more healed in our heart, and more delivered...we are able to obey. Our souls get free of the darkness...but it is a process...and God is in the mode right now of stripping His Bride like Hollie Moody's prophecy shared. All our idols must fall, including the one of our SELF-life called pride.

So how do we recognize pride?...I am going to paraphrase and embellish on William Backus' book..."Why do I do what I don't want to do?"

The Pride of superiority says I must to flawless work (perfectionism) and I must try harder to be perfect so that nobody will find fault with me. It is characterized by low self-confidence, self-loathing, fault-finding, self-critical, silent unrecognized self-talk. It is the pride of considering yourself better than others, wanting to do things "my way" vs Yahweh's.

Pride of Discontentment Anger at God is the most flagrant symptom of this form of pride. Jonah is a good biblical example. In this problem nothing is good enough. More is never enough...and you see it a lot in alcoholic homes, and the homes of perfectionists.

Pride of Suffering says only I know what living for God really means. Competition is characteristic. My suffering is greater than your suffering...I am more lonely than you...I've gone through more than you. I've had a worse sickness than you...This kind holds tight to self- pity.

Pride of other-control (opposite to self-control) It is the inability to tolerate a situation unless in charge of it. " My life shouldn't be subject to anyone else's orders. I should be the one to decide what others do. I can do things better than others so they have no rights to make demands of me.

Pride of Vanity is rooted in "the most important thing in life is that others think highly of me and only have positive opinions of me." This kind cannot endure not having attention or recognition. It tends towards presumption, selfish ambition, and craves attention. Uses "I" often, brags, boasts, or uses negative thinking. If they put themselves down, others will give them attention they need. This is often manifested in the church today in our bragging about our church being THE best church...rah rah...sis boom ba type preaching that puts down others to lift up SELF. Exclusivity is made manifest in this sin....won't ever go to another's church even if it is a friend of theirs'. This is a major cause of DIVISION...and denominations. "Only we know how to do worship right", or only we have the best preaching...etc.

Pride of presumption says “I can do anything better than you!” for example giving of medical advise when they are not a doctor or nurse...as if they knew better. Presumption ASSUMES....and “ass-u-ming makes an ass out of you and me”...as Graham Cooke says. One example of this In the prophetic is getting a word...ie: anger when praying for someone...and instead of asking God what HE wants us to say or do for that...starting to assume the person needs deliverance right now...when maybe God wants you to pray for the hurts behind the anger, or to pray on your own for a while without saying anything...or maybe He wants you to share HIS LOVE so they abandon the anger from seeing how much God loves them. “Love leads to repentance.” In presumption, it is intolerable for someone else to be higher or to get more recognition or anointing...whatever! It says: I can do a better job than others without even preparing. It is intolerable for others to get to do things I am denied. They will think they can order God around even in prayer.

Pride of Rebellion This form of pride, manifests as not being able to take correction. It's like it is saying “move over God, You're hogging the throne for too long !” It isn't right that I should be restrained from power. Don't run my life God, or I will have to change! And it does not want to change.

Pride of Denial This form refuses to admit there is anything wrong with me. It will not ask for forgiveness or apologize for that matter. It denies any inadequacy. This form in a person makes us avoid asking for prayer or responding to altar calls, even though it may hit the nail on the head. Remember I said...we are usually BLIND to it.

Pride of Passivity This is accepting misery instead of doing something about It. It says...it is right to hurt myself – good to do nothing when a problem exists . I deserve it...I need to just persevere, like the woman who lives with severe abuse and allows it to continue. This kind also has a tendency to blame others or situations. It's what we call the martyr complex. Self-pity is a root, and of course, fear !

Pride of Self-Sufficiency is the opposite to dependence on God. It says, ”I can manage my own life” or “ You only get out of life what you put into it” “When I was your age I was already earning a living!” It always does what is best for self. It rationalizes not giving to the poor, as if they put in a little effort they would have what I have ! I have the right to spend my money on what I want...I earned it...failing to recognize that God gave them their abilities, and can take them away if He wanted. It lacks compassion for anyone but self.

Some scripts: “I'm so terrific, I can tell others what to do !”
“I've got the answers and others don't .”
“I'm better than others because I'm self-sufficient”
“People who are in need are inferior to me and deserve what they get, because I'm not in need!”
In Clinton's inaugural address, He said, “there is no limit to what WE can do !”
“I've done this for 20 years, so I know everything.”

In some churches, including those in renewal, some pastors have built a world ministry, without ministering to the needs of their own people...or without training the youth and others to go...to give them the same opportunity.” “ It is having the ‘STAR’ mentality....I have to be the star !”

It is when we do what we want or think instead of listening or looking to God for what to do.

It is going ahead without God like Saul did in the old testament... instead of waiting on God...for the answers, or looking to God for what to do daily, hourly...etc. Decisions should never be made without seeking God for His will. Remember what it says in James...you say next year I'm going to do this or that, but all such boasting is evil.

(paraphrasing here)

Pride of Impenitence This kind says God is an unfair law enforcer...He is never satisfied. God is inept-doesn't like being disturbed. It rationalizes staying the way I am, doing what I want.

There is plenty of material in the Bible for examples of pride. The one God gave me was to examine Job 41, for in there is the characteristics of Leviathan the serpent-crocodile creature, and it ends with “He is king of all the children of PRIDE !” (my emphasis)

JOB 41

Verse 1) “ Can you draw out Leviathan with a hook, or snare his tongue with a line which you lower?

2) Can you put a reed through his nose, or pierce his jaw with a hook?

{ In other words, Pride is too tough skinned and strong to reason with. You can't stop the boasting tongue, the issues of self-talk.}

Verse 3) “Will he make supplications to you? Will he speak softly to you?”

{Will he plead with you? There is no humility or meekness, that speaks softly to you with understanding.}

Verse 4) “Will he make a covenant with you? Will you take him as a servant forever?”

{ There is no servanthood as there was with Jesus washing the feet of His apostles with this kind. It will keep you from JOINING with others to covenant in doing the work of the Lord.” }

Verse 5) “Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you leash him for your maidens?”(to play with)

Verse 6) Will your companions make a banquet of him ? Will they apportion him among the merchants?

{ Pride is not tameable. Can't play with a crocodile as with a dog. He is dangerous. You cannot rule over him.}

Verse 7) “Can you fill his skin with harpoons? Or his head with fishing spears?

{ The person with pride is tough-skinned, and you cannot penetrate his mind once it is made up...only wants to do things his/her way. And stabs you make will bounce off }

Verse 8) “Lay your hand on him. Remember the battle-never do it again.”

{ Once stung by pride, you won't do it again...}

Verse 9) ” Indeed any hope of overcoming him is vain. Shall not one be over-whelmed at the sight of him?”

{ You can't convince them they could be wrong! Pride is full of it's own opinion about things. There is a fierce countenance, overpowering presence – don't even feel they would condescend to your level to communicate with you.}

Verse 10) “No one is so fierce that he would dare stir him up. Who then is able to stand against Me?

{ No one is as firm in disposition as the prideful, that would risk stirring his wrath, or to challenge him. This kind would dare to challenge and defy God Himself ! }

Verse 11) “Who has preceded Me that I should pay him? Everything under heaven is Mine !”

{ The arrogant dare to demand of God as if they could rule Him like a puppet, or as if God owed him. There is no dependence on God. }

Verse 12) “ I will not conceal his limbs, his mighty power, or graceful propor-tions.”

{ The Lord does not conceal pride's strength and power . Pride Is the sin of Satan...his is powerful, and stealth, and sneaky. It should be well recognized. }

Verse 13) “Who can remove his outer coat? Who can approach him with a double bridle?

Verse 14) Who can open the doors of his face? With his terrible teeth all around?"

{ Who can penetrate his walls of defensiveness? Who can bridle his mouth? He is unteachable. He has powerful jaws whose words pierce your heart...his words bite terribly }

Verse 15) "His rows of scales are his pride, shut up tightly as with a seal."

{ Again, pride is impenetrable. It is difficult to get close to them who are ruled by it }

Verse16) "One is so near another that no air can come between them."

{ The scales, make it impossible for the wind of the spirit to even get through.}

Verse 17) " They are joined one to another, they stick together and cannot be parted."

{ Will not take correction or change, Can't pry into his soul.only God can penetrate them }

Verse 18) " His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

Verse 19) Out of his mouth go burning lights; Sparks of fire shoot out.

Verse 20) Smoke goes out of his nostrils, as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.

Verse 21) His breathe kindles COALS, and a flame goes out of his mouth."

{This spirit is intimidating, will get into your face, is destructive, and angry with rage behind it. }

Verse 22) "Strength dwell in his neck, and sorrow dances before him. "

{ It is stiff necked, unchanging, and it brings much sorrow to others.}

Verse 23) " The folds of his flesh are joined together, they are firm on him and cannot be moved.

Verse 24) His heart is hard as stone, even as hard as the lower millstone."

{ The Lord seems to emphasize the unchangeableness in his character...indicative of stubbornness. Then says...his heart is hard...as the lower millstone...The lower millstone is the one that does not move...The upper moves on top of it...to grind the olives or grain. This is a warning, that when our hearts feel apart from the spirit of God, it could be pride that is keeping us away from His love.}

Verse 25) "When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid. Because of his crashings, they are beside themselves.

Verse 26) Though the sword reaches him it cannot avail, nor does spear, dart, or javelin."

{ Even the strongest is intimidated by this spirit in a person. He strikes fear in the hearts of others. Even the sword, the word of God seems to be of no effect...cannot reason with them. Need a light saber for this guy ! : ) }

Verse 27) "He regards iron as straw and bronze as rotten wood.

Verse 28) The arrow cannot make him flee; slingstones become like stubble to him.

Verse 29) Darts are regarded as straw. He laughs at the threat of javelins.

Verse 30) His undersides are like sharp potsherds; he spreads pointed marks in the mire."

{ This spirit is strong in evil. Nothing penetrates his heart.(that is where javelins are usually aimed). He is unaffected, and mocks and threatens }

Verse 31) " He makes the deep boil like a pot; He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

Verse 32) He leaves a shining wake behind him, one would think the deep had white hair."

{ This spirit really stirs up trouble and strife. There is no end to the waves of trouble it can cause, especially when we respond in like kind...it just keeps going.}

Verse 33) "On earth there is nothing like him, which is made without fear !"

{ In him is no proper FEAR of the Lord ! And hence that is the lack in the church today...a lack of the proper fear of the Lord...}

Verse 34) " He beholds every high thing; He is king over all the children of Pride."

{ In the prophetic...pride will lift up self to be seen...will brag of all their great visions and dreams, and higher revelation than others... What they see and hear is better and more, and more "spiritual" . And you dare not give any insight as they will not receive it. They will 'name-drop' and steal the words of other prophets to make themselves look good . }

Hence the Lord has told me this is what always causes the rise of cults, especially in times of revival...Jehovah's witness and Mormon cults came about after the 1800's great revival here.

Jesus said, "...Learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart." Matt 11:29 KJV

For pride to be reckoned with in our churches, then we must be ruthless with It in ourselves, and not make excuses, and rationalize anymore. Pride is at the root along with fear of the CONTROL in the church. Jezebel is in the Harlot church. She is well described above. She indwells men and women. A religious spirit is of the same stuff. James Ryle had a vision of a rhinocerus once, and God showed him that is representative of a religious spirit...It stomps out fires. And it too is thick skinned.

The two enemies to true holiness are hypocrisy (pretense) and self-righteousness. One thing that must change is our self attitudes if we expect to be able to disciple the youth. That critical and judgemental spirit of pride and religion, must go. They need our LOVE, not our self-defensiveness. Mark my words : They will be used greatly in the days ahead to bring down the idols in our churches. God will make them a threshing sledge as we have never seen ! They will show us what unity is all about ! I have seen this in them even as unbelievers. The Lord has called them His SHOWBREAD!

Psalm 10:4 NIV In his pride the wicked does not seek him;in all his thoughts there is no room for God.

Psalm 56:2 Slanderers pursue me all day long; many are attacking me in their pride...{David knew the sting of Pride coming at him} (NIV)

Proverbs 8:13 NIVTo fear the Lord is to hate evil; I hate pride and arrogance, evil behavior and perverse speech.

Proverbs 13:10 NIV Pride only breeds quarrels, but wisdom is found in those who take advice.

Proverbs 29:23 NIV A man's pride brings him low, but a man of lowly spirit gains honor.

Isaiah 2:11 NIV The eyes of the arrogant man will be humbled and the pride Of men brought low; the LORD alone will be exalted in THAT DAY.

(When the bible speaks of "that day" it is referring to the day of the Lord...end times)...

Isaiah 13:11 NIV "I will punish the world for its evil, the wicked for their sins. I will put an end to the arrogance of the haughty and will humble the pride of the ruthless.

Jeremiah 49:16 NIVThe terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks, who occupy the heights of the hill. Though you build your nest as high as the eagle's, from there I will bring you down," declares the Lord.

Zephaniah 3:11 NIVOn that day you will not be put to shame for all the wrongs you have done to Me, because I will remove from this city those who rejoice in their pride. Never again will you be haughty on MY HOLY HILL.

1 Cor. 4:6 NIV Now, brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written." Then you will not take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather in what is in the HEART.

Galatians 6:4 NIV Each one should test his own actions. Then he can take Pride in himself, without comparing himself to somebody else...

Part 2 HUMILITY

We can either humble ourselves in the eyes of the Lord, or we will be brought low. Just how do we humble ourselves? What is humility really ?

Humility is 1) to cast all your cares upon Him for He cares FOR you...knowing apart from HIM we can do nothing. 2) It is also walking in meekness; considering others better than yourself...to walk in the love of God. And to do this requires....resting in His presence...casting your cares on Him, basking in His love...being in a receiving mode...so we can then give out what He gives to us , to others....In quietness and rest we are refreshed.

Zephaniah 2:3 NKJ says: Seek the Lord all you meek of the earth, who have upheld His justice. Seek righteousness, seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of the Lord's anger.

Webster's dictionary says this: humility is the quality or state of being humble In spirit, freedom from pride or arrogance. Having a low opinion one's own importance or merits.

Haughty: disdainfully proud or overbearing: arrogant.

Arrogant: having a feeling of superiority that shows or is inclined to show itself in an overbearing attitude or in claiming more consideration than is due to one's position, dignity or power: exaggerating one's own worth or importance. (ex: "He was always right")

Andrew Murray in "Absolute Surrender" p.49 prays...

"Father, let the Holy Spirit have full dominion over me, in my home, in my temper, in every word of my tongue, in every thought of my heart, in every feeling toward my fellow-men. Let the Holy Spirit have entire possession."

This is the bottom-line of humility....allowing God total rulership in our lives. He is our Adonai...our Master.

Humility is realizing we are not in control. It is the opposite of self-sufficiency and self-reliance, the attributes of pride. He is in charge of our life and the lives of others. When we think we know what is better for someone else than they do...we are walking in pride.

God is ever so patient with us...has He not been with you...I know He has been so patient with me, knowing the abuses I have had to endure in my life. He has been gentle, caring, loving, and the kindest friend I have ever known. He hasn't rushed me in sanctification process...healing, or deliverance...saying hurry up...you aren't good enough yet. He is LONGSUFFERING as we should be with each other when we are humble.

We are not the only apple of His eye....everyone else is also loved by Him. We must trust that in all circumstances, God knows what He is doing !

He knows what is best for building character in us. We have no right to resent what He is using to make us into HIS image...after all, if we pray to be more like HIM...are we willing to be made of no reputation like Is. 53 says ?

When David was in the hills of the wilderness he drew to himself those that were in debt, discontented, and discouraged. Many of us have become like David and his mighty men...of no reputation. David had a heart after God's own heart God says.

Note in the verse from Zephaniah above...humility is connected to doing Justice and righteousness....like the verse from Micah which says...And what Oh man does God require of you ...to do justice, to have mercy, and to walk humbly with your God ! (paraphrasing) So humility is not being a shrinking flower or a doormat. If it were...no justice would be done.

Proverbs 22:4 says Humility and the fear of the Lord bring wealth, honor, and life.

In Ezekiel 44:28 it says in regard to the Holy priesthood...

" It shall be, in regard to their inheritance, that I AM their inheritance. You shall give them no possession in Israel, for I AM their possession.”

Above that in verses 17 and 18 it talks about the priests not being allowed to Wear wool which causes them to sweat...only linen garments.....this is representative of anything which is done out of striving...man’s sweat...versus linen...representing purity of dependence and obedience to God; NOT walking in presumption or self-sufficiency. Only the humble can walk in this place.... as pride prevents dependency on God. Pride only does what self wants.

So if you find yourself striving...it is a sign that self is in the way.

This has been a very difficult thing for me to overcome in my life as I was raised, both by my natural mom, and my foster mom with so much independence, and striving from perfectionism and performance...it has taken years to overcome, and I am still battling it on a daily basis: the feeling that I’m not accomplishing enough. We only have to accomplish what GOD wants; Not some standard set forth by our families, our work, or our church leadership who may be walking in performance. Sometimes, there are so many church programs, and activities, it leaves no time for intimacy with each other, or with God; Much less time to minister to the lost.

Each day needs to be submitted to HIM...what do YOU want for me to do today Lord...Is there anyone YOU want for me to touch...so often we are into Worldly thinking, in stead of having God on our minds all hours of the day...He is a great Resource, even for our work...He can lead and guide us...He cares about EVERY aspect of our life. It says He will perfect ALL that concerns us, does it not ? Are we willing to TRUST HIM...as this is also a bottom line with humility isn’t it. If we strive...it is because of unbelief...not trusting HIM.

Humility does not mean thinking you or your time is more important than others. If you focus on externals and judge people by the way they look, or walk, or talk, or by their sin life, you may deprive yourself of great blessings and opportunities in relationship, or in service to our KING. We are not better than someone because our speech is more cleaned up ! This generation of youth have the worst vernacular we have ever seen. If we judge and condemn, rather than love them into the kingdom...we will not make converts of them.

There is an exclusivity within many churches, that does not allow for newcomers to feel included. It is a sense of being on the outside when certain people always get the opportunities to minister or are on the inside ”track” in relationships to the ”higher-ups” in leadership. Now that is where delegation and home groups become a life-giving place in the church...for then accountability, responsibility and a sense of community can be established in those smaller groups, that cannot happen in a large setting. Intimacy is virtually impossible with large congregations, yet we still count don’t we? Counting is an abomination I think to God...Consider what happened when David counted ! The emphasis then becomes on numbers and worldly kind of success, rather than on people with real families, and lives, and needs.

Again, it is looking at externals, rather than fruit in people’s lives which is the real measure of discipleship and maturity. Humility is as much a fruit of the Spirit as the others mentioned in Galatians...I don’t consider those all inclusive. Humility does not take credit for what God does, or did. God alone sanctifies us. God is our resource for everything we have in the way of talents or gifts...for our compassion, for our natural gifts or supernatural gifts. Yet we still stumble in this area, thinking gifting is a measure of our favor with God, when it is purely a measure of His LOVE...God gives gifts because He loves us. “Every good and perfect gift comes down from the Father of Lights with Whom there is no variation or turning.” (paraphrased) James 1.

We are merely vessels...prepared for HIS GLORY...not our own. We are merely soldiers, carrying out the commands of our Commander in Chief. This is our faithful service. I have found in my journeys...that thankfulness is a great indicator of humility. Prideful people are not thankful. They expect service, rather than giving it. He alone is deserving of all honor, and glory.

We are not to touch His GLORY ! When people in these days of revival that are almost upon us...wonder at us...like Paul and the apostles...we must also answer them...”Why are you astounded at these miracles, as if by our own power we did them? “ We are conduits...not GOD’s. Moses was called by God the most HUMBLE man on earth ! Yet he moved in great power and authority, and spoke with God FACE-To-FACE ! He could have called down fire from heaven on the children of Israel, when he was angry...instead...he pled for mercy and fasted another 40 days! That is love. That is humility. He could have helped rule Egypt, but instead chose to suffer with his people, and left the comforts of his wealth, and riches...much like Jesus, left His heavenly home and riches...to manifest Himself to us in humility, and identified with the poor and lowly.

Isaiah 53 ever remains the consummate example of humility.

v. 2b....He has no form or comeliness; and when we see Him, there is no beauty that we should desire Him.

3) He is despised and rejected by men, a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

( God often uses those no one expects...like 1 Corinthians ch.1 says. He delights in using those no one else would think capable) I remember my friend Addie was a part of a charismatic home group of Presbyterians and she described a man there who she said...said all the wrong things in prayer, yet people were instantly healed....We worry so much about having everything perfect...God is not so concerned.

4) Surely He has born our grief's and carried our sorrows; Yet we esteemed Him stricken, smitten by God and afflicted.

5) But He was wounded for OUR transgressions, He was bruised for OUR iniquities;the chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed.

Who is most deserving of any credit ? The creator or the created ?

6) He was oppressed and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He opened not His mouth.

In our humanness, we are so quick to complain, yet He opened not His mouth. We want everyone to know how much we have suffered...

You can read the rest for yourself...it is a good passage to read once a week, to remind us that we need to be like Him, and to strengthen us when we feel self-piteous.

Queen Esther could have gotten into self-pity...after all she went through. She heard Haman's plans and did not presume or assume anything, but called a fast for Israel ! Today we'd call a church planning meeting. Fasting is another way to humble ourselves before God; denying our flesh to seek God's direction and guidance.

Colossians 3:12 NIV says: Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

Titus 3:2 NIV...to slander no one, to be peaceable and considerate, and to show true humility towards all men.

James 3:13 NIV ...Who is wise and understanding among you ? Let him show it by his good life, by deeds done in the HUMILITY that comes from WISDOM.

And we know that wisdom, comes from God alone.

Father, we love You, and in the name of Jesus, I ask you to help us to humble ourselves before you. I ask You to break the chains of delusion, the veil of blindness off of our eyes. I ask You to open our eyes to the condition of our hearts Father...open every door we have shut to You Lord. Heal our inner man till we know the length and breadth, and depth and width of the love You have for us, that we would no longer compare ourselves to others Father. Help us Lord to love one another as You have loved us. Help us to still our souls DAILY before you, that we could have the grace to rest at Your feet and receive from you what You need to give us Father. Heal our hearts from the damage done in our lives to our souls, that we could walk in wholeness. Sanctify us with Your Glory Father ! God we are desperate to receive all You have and want for us...we turn over our control, and fears and ask You to RULE over us. Bend us Lord to Your will. Break any chains that bind us from following Your will in our lives God. He whom the Son sets free, is free indeed You have said Lord...Bring us FREEDOM Lord. Wield Your sword against the enemy of our souls...and loose us to do Your perfect will. In the name of Jesus ,Father....

Break our hearts for the things that break Your's Father, in Jesus' name.

Priscilla

PrayerWave Asia
July 1 - August 19
Year 2000

John Dawson always puts things so well and with such powerful perspective. 'Something's happening,' he says. And 'it's not like an earthquake. It's more like being lifted by the tide, a surging tide of God's GRACE. Across the world, the nineties is marked by the emergence of citywide prayer gatherings. . . In the last few months, I have traveled to 13 other countries that are also experiencing the same phenomena.' WHAT IS GOD UP TO?

John Dawson continues: 'We can only wonder at His tactics, but His motives are clear enough. He loves us. He has NOT abandoned our generation. He governs in the affairs of people and nations, and He is setting the stage for harvest. Amidst the terrifying realities and awesome potentials of the world at the beginning of the 21st century, it is no surprise that God is drawing His Church into the communion of prayer' [HEALING AMERICA'S WOUNDS].

PrayerWave Asia is one of those sovereign moves of God's GRACE to show us that His steadfast love for Asia never ceases. He desires to draw His Church in Asia into the communion of prayer. First launched in 1997 on July First, PrayerWave Asia seeks to unite the Church across Asia in humble, heartfelt intercession for Asia's healing and salvation. This year, PrayerWave Asia has a slightly different mobilization strategy. Let me explain.

[1] Unlike previous times, PrayerWave Asia. . . will take off from 0001 hr - 0700 hr on JULY FIRST. In large groups or small huddles, gather to worship the Lord and stand in the gap for your nation and Asia. Ask God for the GRACE to pray and the GIFT of tears.

[2] Beyond July First. . . continue to pray on till August 19. This adds up to a total of 50 days. 50 stands for JUBILEE. God has a jubilee plan and a magnificent future for each Asian nation. Commit yourself and your group to stand in the gap for your nation's jubilee. Also present each nation of Asia by name to the Lord daily. You are welcome to fast however the Lord leads you [see list of nations and fasting options at the end of this e-mail].

[3] Our PrayerWave Asia theme these 50 days - Needed: Nehemiahs! Asia is facing a leadership crisis. There's widespread [NEEDLESS] devastation and disillusionment as a result of political-economic mismanagement and blatant social injustices. During the recent International Reconciliation Consultation hosted by John Dawson in Singapore [April 2000], I was overcome by this deep stirring within me to cry out to God for Nehemiah-type servant-leadership in the Church to arise with favour across Asia. The Church is after all God's primary change agent on the face of the earth! I am convinced that Christ in us is indeed the HOPE of the nations! Therefore, for 50 days beginning July First, would you join unite with the Asian Church in priestly mediation on behalf of a very traumatized Asia? Be an active voice [Isaiah 62:6-7] appealing for her healing. One day, it will be said among the nations: God's people - among us - stooped down to make us great - restoring our dignity, repairing our communities, rebuilding our fortunes, renewing our hopes, reviving our spirits, redeeming our lives . . . in the power of Christ's love!!!

[4] Kindly inform, inspire and involve prayer groups or prayer networks in your sphere of influence in this 50-Day PrayerWave initiative. Do reply now if you yourself are participating and/or informing other groups to participate.

Prayer Theme - Needed: Nehemiahs! [A] Passionately, fervently pray through each of the 10 Nehemiah-characteristics for the Church leadership in your nation and across Asia - both present and future. [B] Ask God to grant you and your church / ministry organization a Nehemiah-servant-leadership-spirit to re-build and restore your nation and the nations of Asia. [C] Ask God to emerge and empower many more Nehemiahs in your nation and Asia to do His will and to finish His work.

[1] Nehemiah means comforter. Another name for the Holy Spirit in the New Testament is The Comforter. We need Nehemiahs who are full of the Holy Spirit, led by the Spirit and who minister in the life and power of the Spirit.

[2] Nehemiah is the king's cupbearer. Nehemiah's job in the king's court is to test and taste the wine of the king. We need Nehemiahs who are tired of old wine, tired of old wineskins; tired of the same, tame and lame stuff of religion. We need Nehemiahs who yearn for God's new ways in God's new day!

[3] Nehemiah fasts and prays. Nehemiah grieved over the sorry state of his city. He was burdened. In identificational repentance, he confessed his nation's sins as his own. "We have sinned against You." We need Nehemiahs who will see their communities through the eyes of Jesus. The condition of our nations must reduce us to tears in utter embarrassment before God for our stubborn, shameful ways. The challenge they pose must drive us to our knees in utter dependence on God. It was in prayer that Nehemiah received boldness to do something about the disgrace and disrepair of his city.

[4] Nehemiah understands the power of favour and accesses it. Nehemiah used the power structures of his day for the benefit of his people. He did not see himself on a collision course with the non-Jewish king he served. Rather he appealed for his cooperation in rebuilding Jerusalem's walls. The Nehemiahs of today must be friends of the Court, friends of City Hall, and friends of the Corporation. As we work alongside the powers-to-be - for the sake of the city's shalom and future - God will reserve the resources to help us fulfill the task.

[5] Nehemiah surveys the city. Nehemiah inspected the walls of Jerusalem. We must find out all we can about our city or community before rushing in with our pre-fabricated structures and pre-packaged solutions. Ignorance is not bliss. A good and proper profile of the community will affect our message and our method. We will know exactly the type of projects that will truly meet the needs of our city or community.

[6] Nehemiah is a Wall-Builder who inspires and involves others in the task. We need Nehemiahs who share God's ambition for the city. Their primary purpose is to build God's Kingdom, not their own Babel. They see the big-picture. They help everyone play their part in their respective sections of the Wall - God's division of labour according to gifts and calling.

[7] Nehemiah faces spiritual warfare. Serving the community is a spiritual task. Seeking to meet the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual needs of any people will bring swift retaliation from the enemies of God. We need Nehemiahs who understand power encounter, and the spiritual weapons and authority that are at our disposal. In warfare, the Nehemiahs of our day must be discerning. They must courageously expose and overthrow the schemes of the enemy. For example, when his enemies tried to lure him, Nehemiah refused to engage in fruitless discussions with people opposed to God's work.

[8] Nehemiah cares for the poor. In the midst of a great rebuilding project, Nehemiah paid personal attention to the socio-economic concerns of the people. He did everything in his power to make things right. He even used his own financial resources to alleviate the crisis. Nehemiah lived a restrained lifestyle. He modeled before the people a simple lifestyle. We need Nehemiahs who care compassionately for the poor and needy, the marginalized and the disadvantaged, those without voice or vote.

[9] Nehemiah is a revivalist. Nehemiah restored the public reading of the Word. He restored the celebration of worship. He declared a love feast to stop the people from mourning in order that they might embrace and enjoy the GRACE of God. We need Nehemiahs who will strike a balance between Word and work, worship and warfare. We need Nehemiahs who will catalyze a genuine renewal and revival movement that emphasizes repentance and public restitution.

[10] Nehemiah finishes well. The work on the wall in Jerusalem was completed in fifty-two days. We need Nehemiahs who will stick it out through the thick and thin of the battle, until the job is done! [The above 10 points are adapted from Floyd McClung's Seeing the City Through the Eyes of God].

Prophetic Word To The Bride

Cheryl McGrath

"There is a stirring in my heart towards My Bride, a longing that can no longer be denied by the Father or by Me. And I am lifting My Eyes to look for you, My Bride. (Gen. 24:63). For the longing of My Heart to behold you in your beauty compels Me to look for you.

And what shall I behold, My children, when I lift My Eyes and fasten them now upon My Bride? Ah, for there is a sigh of sorrow in My soul even now. Have I not refreshed you with the wells of abundant life, have I not sent to you gifts and treasures from My storehouse, have I not released to you the great Servant, My Spirit, to lead and comfort you on your journey? But still you tarry, My Bride, still you hesitate in the arms of comfort and familiarity.

For I would have you as Rebekah, my beautiful one, who hastened to Isaac without delay. I would have you to have a heart of abandonment to Me that does not hold back, that cries out to Me with the words "Yes, I will go." (Gen. 24:58). I would have you lift your eyes to me, Your Bridegroom (Gen. 24:64). And yes, I would even have you lay down your own identity in total surrender, choosing no other Name but Mine, the Name of Your Bridegroom.

Understand this is a choice I lay down before you, My Bride. As the choice was Rebekah's, so I give it to you. I will not force you, for the Bride I am looking for comes to Me not reluctantly, clothed in the garments of rebellion, but in joy, abandonment and anticipation of My love. Not in a sulky childishness, but in the innocent and pure child-likeness of trust in Me and faith in My character.

And so I am lifting My eyes, for the evening is upon us, my Beloved. But the choice belongs to you. Will you abandon yourself to Me, will you willingly leave behind all you have known and loved, and follow Me to a new place, a place you have yet to enter? Are you willing to pay whatever it will cost you?

For this is the day of your choice, Rebekah, My Bride, and I say to you that it is now or not at all. Come away, My Bride, come away to Me. Hear the call of My heart, now, this day, do not hesitate any longer, for the evening is upon us, and I must turn to the right or to the left. (Gen. 24:49) Come to Me!"

Note: A fuller revelation of this word can be seen in the story of Isaac and Rebekah, Genesis chapter 24. This chapter speaks prophetically of Jesus and His church.

Prayer & Warfare for USA

Dave Tuggy

In this life we "know in part" - I forward the following for your discernment & consideration as we pray for the election to be resolved & God's will to prevail.

From Florida Intercessors who are asking for prayer:

Florida needs the prayers of God's people all over the world. For some time we have had a growing sense that the Spirit of God is about to be poured out here, and we as intercessors have been very busy addressing the hindrances to this outpouring.

God has supernaturally been drawing His praying people together for strengthening and refreshing, as well as identifying one another. This is not only crucial to unity, but when the overall battle becomes personal, those bonds have been made that can be drawn upon to address the individual battlefield.

Last night a reporter stated that dozens of ballot boxes were missing from precincts in the major cities of Florida. These cities have had a known history of great darkness. Believers in each of these cities are working toward a spiritual transformation, but the provocation by the enemy is clear!

Tampa was one of the cities that has been involved in the questionable dealings with votes. Vice president Al Gore and his running mate landed in the dark on election day, to set up camp in Tampa for the election returns. Of all places in the U.S., our city was designated as the watch-city yesterday!

Every year Tampa celebrates Gasparilla Day, with the re-enactment of the invasion of the city by pirate Jose Gaspar and his brigade of thugs. Legend has it that Gaspar invaded the city, raping, pillaging, plundering and burning as he went.

The mayor turns the city over to Gaspar and pleads for mercy as he is taken "hostage." In actuality, Gaspar's pirates are members of secret societies in Tampa, and are business and political leaders of our city. The spirit of Jose Gaspar is invoked at the mock invasion.

While the invasion may be mock, the invocation of that spirit is very real, and the lingering effects of it over this area -- year after year -- have been malignant. This spirit of piracy is at work in this election.

Quietness and Confidence

Joseph Herrin

Isaiah 30:15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: "In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength." (NKJ)

7-6-2000

Most of the Christians I know would like to approach life from a position of strength. In our current state of prosperity and ease, however, pursuing such a place of strength in God seems optional and many choose not to expend the effort to arrive there. In soon coming days all saints will find that this position of strength is not an option. It will become a vital necessity. It will be required to survive in a world that is being shaken; shaken to the extent that men's hearts will fail them for fear.

The Bible has much to say about this place of strength that has quietness and confidence as its distinguishing characteristics. Indeed, the scriptures reveal that quietness and confidence should be the distinguishing characteristics of the life of every saint.

Throughout scriptures, the child of God is referred to as the temple of the Holy Spirit. Other images of the temple are also used to describe the people of God. The Temple of Solomon and the Tabernacle of Moses were merely types of what God had planned to bring forth in the lives of men and women. We are the fulfillment of what was symbolized in these Old Testament structures.

I Corinthians 3:16 Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? (NAS)

Ephesians 2:19-22 19 but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and are of God's household, 20 having been built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus Himself being the corner stone 21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together is growing into a holy temple in the Lord; 22 in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling of God in the Spirit. (NAS)

Understanding that the Temple and Tabernacle were merely types of the temple God is building today of living stones, we can discern some tremendous truths about how God wants our lives fashioned and ordered. One of the chief features of these structures was that they were to be places of peace and quiet. I Kings 6:1, 7 1 Now it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD... 7 And the house, while it was being built, was built of stone prepared at the quarry, and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any iron tool heard in the house while it was being built. (NAS)

This is a most incredible thing. The Temple was a tremendous building that took great skill to construct. To add to the difficulty of its construction, the Temple had to be built without any noise of iron instruments at the construction site. This required that the stones of the temple and the wood used within it had to be cut to fit perfectly before they were brought to be assembled. This required great skill, but more importantly it demonstrated that the Temple, according to God's design, was to be a house of prayer and as such it was to be quiet, free of the noise of commerce and industry.

Jesus again emphasized this design of God when He cleansed the Temple. We are perhaps given no greater sign of the emotion of Jesus than when He drove out the money changers and those selling animals in the Temple.

Mark 11:15-17 15 And they came to Jerusalem. And He entered the temple and began to cast out those who were buying and selling in the temple, and overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those who were selling doves; 16 and He would not permit anyone to carry goods through the temple. 17 And He began to teach and say to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a robbers' den." (NAS)

In John's account of this cleansing of the Temple we are told that Jesus made a whip out of cords and drove the merchants out with it. This was a violent encounter between man and God. Why was Jesus so incensed about what was being done in the Temple? The disciples upon witnessing Jesus' anger were reminded of the scripture, "Zeal for Thy house will consume me" (John 2:17).

Was it a physical temple built of stone and wood that Jesus was so zealous for? We know it was not. Jesus was demonstrating His zeal for the living temple built of the saints of God. Man was created for fellowship and communion with God, but man has taken the temple of his body which was to be a meeting place between the spirit of man and the Spirit of God and he has filled it with the traffic of the merchandise of the world. The temples of flesh which were designed to be houses of prayer have become houses of merchandise.

It is not by accident that the living temple of God has become full of the noise and traffic of commerce. Satan has duplicated his own error in the lives of mankind. Ezekiel chapter 28 describes the fall of Satan in this way:

Ezekiel 28:18 "You defiled your sanctuaries by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your trading..." (NKJ)

Ezekiel 28:18 By your many sins and dishonest trade you have desecrated your sanctuaries... (NIV)

Ezekiel 28:18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick... (KJV)

Yes, Satan brought traffic and trading into the sanctuaries of God and thereby profaned and defiled them. What was to be a place of worship and prayer became full of the commerce of the world. Even so, our bodies are the temples of God and they are to be places of prayer and communion with the Father. However, the majority of the saints of God have also profaned and defiled their sanctuaries. Their lives are lives of traffic and trading as they pursue the things the world has to offer. Rather than being still and knowing the God who has created them, they rush about trying to acquire the latest toy or trendy piece of merchandise. In all of their activity prayer and communion with God has been neglected.

Will not Jesus deal as severely with these violators of their temples as He did in driving the merchandisers out of the Temple 2000 years ago? Jesus is still consumed with a zeal for His Father's house and He still longs to see it function as a house of prayer. This speaks of you and I, the children of God.

The day is coming very soon when God's judgment will fall on this world and its system of merchandise and trade. Many will be caught unaware, including the majority of those who are of the household of God. Jesus prophetically foretold of the suddenness of which His appearing would come on the world and the lack of readiness of even those who are called by His name.

Luke 17:26-30 26 "And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so it shall be also in the days of the Son of Man: 27 they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. 28 "It was the same as happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building; 29 but on the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30 "It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed. (NAS)

What was the focus of the people in Noah's day and Lot's day? They were focused on the pursuit of the things of the world. Missing from the description is any indication that they were praying, or communing with God, or pursuing the righteousness without which none shall see God. No, they were marrying, they were eating and drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building.

This describes the lives of those who are found in the churches that bear Christ's name today. The children of God are looking forward to the next food fest. They are focused on their next acquisition of the merchandise of this world. They are focused on selling their wares that they might generate more money to spend on their pleasures.

They are focused on the next building project, whether in their own home or in the church itself. The sound of the hammer and axe and chisel is ringing violently within the temple of God today. The house of prayer has become a house of merchandise.

And Jesus is soon to return.

Many of the saints of God are anticipating Jesus coming back to take them from the pursuit of the pleasures here on Earth and to transplant them into the realm of heaven where they will know uninterrupted pleasure forevermore. When Jesus came the first time He was anticipated to appear in a manner altogether different from the way in which He came. For this reason we are told that "He came unto his own, and his own received him not" (John 1:11). I am convinced that His second appearing will be no different.

The saints of God are anxiously awaiting the appearing of Christ, but they have not discerned that His appearing will be to the sorrow of many. Amos 5:18-23 18 Alas, you who are longing for the day of the LORD, for what purpose will the day of the LORD be to you? It will be darkness and not light; 19 As when a man flees from a lion, and a bear meets him, or goes home, leans his hand against the wall, and a snake bites him. 20 Will not the day of the LORD be darkness instead of light, even gloom with no brightness in it? 21 "I hate, I reject your festivals, nor do I delight in your solemn assemblies... 23 "Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not even listen to the sound of your harps." (NAS)

Joel 1:15-16 15 Alas for the day! For the day of the LORD is near, and it will come as destruction from the Almighty. 16 Has not food been cut off before our eyes, gladness and joy from the house of our God? (NAS)

Joel 2:1-2 1 Blow a trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on My holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming; surely it is near, 2 A day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. (NAS)

Many today are saying that they long for the Lord's appearing, but they do not understand that He will come as a thresher of wheat to separate out the chaff; to make a distinction between the holy and the vile. Jesus will come back and He will steal away those who have made themselves ready, those who have allowed Him to purify and refine them and clothe them in garments of righteousness. Those who were sleeping and who were pursuing the things of the world, those who have allowed the traffic of the world to defile and profane their sanctuaries will receive the scourging of the Lord. They will be left behind and endure the day of the Lord's wrath as He cleanses the temple once again. As it was in the days of Noah and the days of Lot, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

What are the saints today exhorted to do? Joel tells us,

Joel 2:12-13 12 "Yet even now," declares the LORD, "Return to me with all your heart, and with fasting, weeping, and mourning; 13 And rend your heart and not your garments. "Now return to the LORD your God, for He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness, and relenting of evil. (NAS)

This brings us back full circle to the scripture we began with out of Isaiah.

Isaiah 30:15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: "In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength." (NKJ)

Both Joel and Isaiah say "return." "Return to me with all your heart, and with fasting, weeping, and mourning." Return to the place of quietness and confidence. Remove the traffic from the temple of your flesh. Do it voluntarily now that you might be spared the agony of the fiery indignation of the Lord. Still the raging voices in your soul that urge you to go out and acquire more and more things. Let quietness return to the temple that you might once again discern the voice of the Lord and fellowship with Him. The following passage in Revelation was written to the church, not to the lost.

Revelation 3:19, 20, 22 19 "Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline; be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me... 22 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.' (NAS)

Incredibly, Jesus is found outside of the door, outside of the temple of our bodies. He is desiring to come in, for the house of prayer and communion has become a house of merchandise and traffic. We must open the door. We must invite Him in. We must freely submit to His cleansing of the temple which rightfully belongs to Him.

I Corinthians 6:20 For you have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body. (NAS)

As we do so and the traffic of the world is removed from our lives, quietness will return and the temple will once again become a house of prayer and communion. As we hear the voice of God we will once again learn to trust Him and display confidence in Him. "In quietness and in confidence" we will find strength.

Many are deceived this day. They have entered into the error of Satan and have profaned their sanctuaries. Their lives are filled with traffic and noise and the purpose of their creation goes unrecognized and unfulfilled. These same ones are told to look with eagerness to the soon coming day of the Lord. They have failed to discern that the day of the Lord will be a day of judgment upon wickedness and that this judgment will begin with the household of God.

Many are being led astray by ministers of greed and covetousness who believe that godliness is a means to acquire gain (I Timothy 6:5). The apostle Paul gives the church of Galatia this solemn warning.

Galatians 6:7-8 7 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. 8 For the one who sows to his own flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit shall from the Spirit reap eternal life. (NAS)

Jesus is returning soon. Jesus clearly foretold that His coming would be to many a day of weeping, and wailing, and gnashing of teeth. Seek the place of quietness and confidence in Him. Cast off the pursuit of the world and all it has to offer. Enter into that quiet sanctuary where the voice of God can be heard. Allow Christ to make your temple into a refuge of quiet strength. The day of the Lord is fast approaching.

The Sign of God Birthing His Apostles

Paul Jablonowski

This brief study will show that the Lord not only gave a sign in heavens (the stars) as a witness to His Son Jesus' birth 2000 years ago, but that He is also giving a sign in the heavens (the stars) to our generation who is witnessing the birth of Jesus gathering His apostles. "For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God." (Romans 8:19)

There is a difference between astronomy and astrology. Astronomy, which is good, is the study of God's creation in the stars, and "declares the glory of God." Astrology (horoscopes and fortune telling from your "sign"), which is forbidden in the scriptures, is the perversion of the true study of the stars. Below are some quotes pertaining to astronomy in the scriptures:

Genesis 1:14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years.

Psalms 19:1-6 The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth forth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Luke 21:25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

Amos 5:8 and Job 9:9 mention names of constellations such as Orion, Arcturus (the Bear -The Big Dipper), Pleiades (a star grouping). Job 38:31-33 mentions the "Mazzaroth" which is the 12 constellations of the Zodiac (Zodiac means stages of the sun's path through the heavens in 12 months).

Jewish tradition, preserved by Josephus, suggests that Bible astronomy was invented by Adam, Seth and Enoch. For nearly 2,500 years the revelation of God's redemptive plan for mankind was written in the naming of the stars and their grouping in the 12 signs of the Zodiac, each one having 3 other decans (constellations) associated with it for a total of 48 constellations. The heavens therefore preserved the truth until the written scriptures could be given to Moses. Some excellent resources on this subject include: "The Gospel in the Stars" by Joseph A Seiss, "A Voice Crying in the Heavens" by B. Wadsworth, and "The Witness of the Stars" by E.W. Bullinger. Mr. Wadsworth states, "I have checked the next 2,000 years and there is nothing that comes close to the portrayal that the heavens display from 1996 to 2000."

The Sign of Jesus' Birth

Thanks to projectors, like Chicago's "Adler Planetarium," and computer technology, like the program "Dance of the Planets," we can chart the movements of the heavenly bodies to see what they looked like 2,000 years ago at the birth of Christ.

Matt. 2:1 "After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men (magi) from the East came to Jerusalem, saying "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him."

The wise men (magi) were probably Zoroastrian priests who lived hundreds of miles from Jerusalem in Mesopotamia (Iraq) and were skilled astronomers studying the heavens from atop of ziggurats. A "star" to the magoi could mean almost any light in the sky, whether star, planet, comet or nova. The tower of Babel having "its top with the heavens (meaning signs of the zodiac)" (Gen 11:4) was probably a ziggurat used for star gazing. Since the magoi were familiar with the Hebrew religion, they interpreted rare celestial events as omens. The celestial events detailed below told the wise men that a very powerful Jewish king was being born:

(Facts taken from Dr. Ernest L. Martin's books entitled: "The Birth of Christ Recalculated," and "The Star that Astonished the World." Also, Richard H. Schneider reported on these same writings in a Guideposts Magazine article in December 1988 entitled, "Star of Wonder.")

- 1) August 12, 3 BC - They saw the two planets Jupiter and Venus rise in conjunction. (A conjunction is when celestial bodies line up so closely that they appear to us as a single super bright light.) Jupiter signified kingship or Messiah and Venus meant birth and motherhood. This occurred in the constellation of Leo, which was the symbol of the Hebrew tribe Judah.
- 2) September 3 BC - They saw Jupiter rise in conjunction with Regulus, which is the brightest star in the constellation of Leo a symbol of rulership.
- 3) February 2 BC - a Second time they saw Jupiter rise in conjunction with Regulus, which is the brightest star in the constellation of Leo a symbol of rulership.
- 4) May 2 BC - a Third time they saw Jupiter rise in conjunction with Regulus, which is the brightest star in the constellation of Leo a symbol of rulership.
- 5) June 2 BC - a Second time they saw Jupiter and Venus rise in conjunction. Jupiter signified kingship or Messiah and Venus meant birth and motherhood.
- 6) September 2 BC - a Third time they saw Jupiter and Venus rise in conjunction. Jupiter signified kingship or Messiah and Venus meant birth and motherhood. This occurred in the constellation of Leo, which was the symbol of the Hebrew tribe Judah.
- 7 & 8) 3 and 2 BC - Jupiter was located directly in the womb area of the constellation of Virgo the virgin. Jupiter's Hebrew name is "Sedeq," which throughout the period of Jesus and the apostles was a term used for the Messiah. (see graphic below)

The Jews understood the principle that whenever God moves in a major way, that He would give a "sign" in the heavens. This is why they asked Jesus to show them a sign to prove he was the Messiah (Matt. 16:1). The heavens in the past several years have been lighting up like never before heralding the soon return of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus). One particular sign that has been occurring during every Feast of Trumpets (Rosh Hashanah - The Jewish New Year) from 1996 through 2000 is Virgo the Virgin giving birth to the moon. The moon is located in the womb of the constellation Virgo. Revelation 12:1-17 compares this sign with the birthing of God's "man-child."

The Sign of Revelation 12:1-17

Revelation 12:1-5 "A great and wondrous sign appeared in heaven: a woman (constellation Virgo) clothed with the sun (just below the horizon), with the moon (male-child) under her feet and a crown of twelve stars (constellation Bernice) on her head. She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth. Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon (constellation Draco) with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born. She gave birth to a son, a male child (moon), who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter. And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne. The woman fled into the desert to a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days."

Greg Killian (a Messianic Jew) first noticed the connection between this sign and Revelation chapter 12. The statistics (but not the interpretations) are quoted from his web site at:

<http://members.aol.com/gkilli2/home/rev121.html> and <http://members.aol.com/gkilli/home/celestal.html>

The moon represents the "male Child" (Rev. 12) in this rare astronomical event. Virgo the Virgin (Bethula) is giving 'birth' to the moon every year from 1996 to 1999 on the Jewish New Year (Rosh Hoshanah or the Feast of Trumpets). In the year 2000 the moon is far beneath her legs (birthed). This positioning of Virgo and the moon has never occurred before, and will never occur again, due to the precession of the equinoxes. Technically, it occurred 26,000 years ago (but mankind was not created yet), and it will occur in another 26,000 years if the earth endures.

The sun is just below the horizon such that Virgo (Bethulah) is 'clothed' with the sun. The sun must be below the horizon in order to have any possibility of seeing this 'sign'. The moon is 'new' and after 'birth' the moon will move directly to the feet of Virgo (Bethula) within 24 hours. Over Virgo's head is the constellation known as "Coma Bernice's hair". This is the "crown of twelve stars" in verse 1. Higher and above her legs, we will find Draco, the Dragon, poised to devour Bethulah's child.

The above pictures do not show Draco, the Dragon, because it would make the picture curved and hard to relate to. If you had a larger picture you would see that Draco is poised above the woman, waiting to snatch the man-child. The moon is poised in the "birth canal" of the virgin who is lying down with her feet in the air. The word "Bethulah" is in the location where her head should be. The constellation of Coma Bernice is the crown of twelve stars above the virgin's head.

This SIGN, as depicted above, is how it looks from Jerusalem. Notice that the Sun is below the horizon so that this sign can be seen. This sign would not be visible if the sun were to be above the horizon. Because the sun is below the horizon, the constellation is literally clothed with the sun!

Isaiah 66 (partially quoted below) seems to be the closest match in all of the Scriptures to the passage in Revelation 12. I think that it is more than a coincidence that Isaiah 66 is the weekly reading from the Prophets to be read by all orthodox Jews specifically when the New Moon (Rosh Chodesh) falls on the Sabbath; as it will on the Feast of Trumpets (September 11 & 12 1999). The Lord, obviously, chose the readings so that His people would be informed before He takes any action. This is also the same scripture that the Lord gave Cary Goodwin when He told him to "Gather My Apostles."

Isaiah 66:5-9 Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: "Your brothers who hate you, and exclude you because of my name, have said, 'Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy!' Yet they will be put to shame. Hear that uproar from the city, hear that noise from the temple! It is the sound of the LORD repaying his enemies all they deserve. Before she goes into labor, she gives birth; before the pains come upon her, she delivers a son. Who has ever heard of such a thing? Who has ever seen such things? Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment? Yet no sooner is Zion in labor than she gives birth to her children. Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?" says the LORD. "Do I close up the womb when I bring to delivery?" says your God.

Connection to the Apostles Gathering

So what is the connection between this sign and the apostles gathering? At the same time that the heavens were birthing a male-child, the apostles of Jesus Christ were being birthed as a fellowship. The Lord Jesus spoke to His apostle Cary Goodwin on the Feast of Tabernacles in September of 1996 a loud and clear word to "Gather My Apostles." This was like a conception which occurred during the first year of the "Virgo birthing the moon" sign in heaven. Also, at the same time the Lord spoke to Cary, there was a blood red moon and a total lunar eclipse over Jerusalem. During the years 1996-2000 there were seven (7) different red moon eclipses over Jerusalem which all happened on Jewish Holidays! (see <http://members.aol.com/gkilli/home/celestal.html>)

Joel 2:30-32 - "I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood BEFORE the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved."

For three years (1996-1999) as the "Virgo birthing the moon" sign occurred, there were contacts being made worldwide between the Lord's apostles as Cary was faithful to begin gathering Jesus' apostles. In September of 1999 when the first "apostles-gathering" meeting occurred in Anaheim California, the final "Virgo birthing the moon" sign stood in the heavens as a token of what was being carried out on the earth... The church (woman) had finally given birth to the Lord's apostles (man-child). This meeting was held during the Feast of Tabernacles, which was also the time that Jesus was born (see <http://www.awareness.org/tabernac.htm>)

At the second "apostles-gathering" meeting in May 2000 in Atlanta Georgia, the Lord brought forth several independent confirmations of this "birth," besides what has been written in this study. The confirmations that I am aware of include words by: Paul Cunningham, Cary Goodwin, and Deanna Emerson. Also, Dulce Rothacker was traveling in the Spirit. (Refer to Apostles-Gathering Newsletter #9 for further details - <http://www.apostles-gathering.com/vol9.html>)

Also, this gathering just happened to conclude the day before a major aligning of the planets occurred in heaven on May 5th. I am praying that the Lord is aligning things up for a great outpouring of His glory at the next apostles-gathering which will meet sometime around the Feast of Tabernacles 2000. This is the same feast where the cloud of glory filled Solomon's temple so that the priests could not continue ministering (2 Chron. 5:3,14).

Malachi 3:1 And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, Even the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming, says the Lord of hosts.*

Render To Caesar

Lou Engle

RENDER TO CAESAR WHAT IS CAESAR'S- --AND TO GOD, WHAT IS GOD'S

A Word and a Call to Pray for the Presidential Primaries, by Lou Engle - Pastor, Harvest Rock Church, Pasadena

THE CALL DC

On February 8-12, 2000, I went to Washington, DC for a monthly board meeting of The Call @ DC. On September 2, 2000, we are calling a massive gathering of youth with their natural or spiritual parents to fast and pray for a decisive spiritual shift in the destiny of America.

PRAYING PSALMS 2

These past five days have proven to be truly prophetic days for me. I was with my son and two friends as we completed our fast during the first 40 days of 2000. On the evening of February 9, God led us into some extraordinary, authoritative intercession concerning the government. We were praying Psalms 2. Suddenly my friend, Chris spoke, "Lou we are praying Psalms 2:8-12 for every day of this week! (February 8 (2/8) thru February 12 (2/12)). My faith was ignited! Psalms 2:9 says, "Ask of me and I will make the nations your inheritance and the ends of the earth as your possession. You will rule them with an iron scepter; you will dash them to pieces like pottery."

On the evening of 2/10, I felt led to go into Crown bookstore, sensing that I was to get a book concerning the matters on my heart. My friend Billy bought me a book by William J. Murray called "Let us Pray - A Plea For Prayer in Our Schools". Murray wrote about the court case of 1963 in which the Supreme Court struck down 170 years of legal precedent of public prayer. This effectively built a wall between religion and the state, a law that our forefathers never meant to exclude religion from the public sector but which intended that the state could not interfere with religious principle. The author is the son of Madeline Murray O'Hare, the famed atheist who became a flashpoint of an anti-spiritual revolution in America.

THEREFORE YOU KINGS BE WISE

I was grateful for the book and I sensed the Lord saying as we prayed, "It's February 10th (2/10) and Psalm 2:10 says "Therefore you kings be wise, be warned you judges of the earth." The Church is to dominate the judges of the earth as they pray to their coronated King, the Anointed One, who rules over the conspiracies of kings and judges to remove God's laws.

The following morning, February 11th (2/11), I was wakened abruptly at 2:11am. As I read the book in the early morning, I was stunned by one paragraph,:

IT'S NOW OR NEVER

"The Church must pray for and decree to the Supreme Court and the government of America the rule of God 'Serve the Lord with fear and rejoice with trembling' (Ps. 2:11). In prayer, we are to command the kings and judges to govern and make decisions in the fear of God and His laws. Scripturally speaking, it is our duty and privilege to do so (Psalm 149:5-9 and 1 Timothy 2:1-8). However, this was more than a scriptural injunction. I sensed this is a moment of "now or never." The Church must arise right now in an extended season of prayer and fasting for the prevailing influence for good government."

"I WAS ROCKED"

That whole morning, I was gripped by Murray's book, and inspired to pray for the Supreme Court. I prayed for the reversal of demonic decrees of 1963 Murray vs. Curlett, 1973 Roe vs. Wade and 1980 Stone vs. Graham. At 5:30 am that morning, my friends had agreed to meet a seasoned world intercessor named Dick. He was going to take us to his home for a morning of prayer. We entered the back of the Victorian style row of houses. He took us immediately to the front window to show us his intercessory view. We had no idea that his house faced the ACLU building, the Supreme Court building, and in the distance, the Capitol of the United States. I was rocked! What are the chances of such a prophetic series of events? We prayed that morning with a great hope in our heart for the turning of America. Then Dick took us to a lower condominium. Again, the condominium faced these historic buildings. He then told us that the condominium had been vacated and asked if we would like to rent it for intercession and use it as our East Coast office? I knew this was the word of the Lord so I "bought the field". God gave me a vision of six months of intercessory javelin pointing (Joshua 8:18) before the September 2, 2000 gathering.

GEORGE WASHINGTON ON HIS KNEES

I returned home and on 2/22/2000 (2222), George Washington's birthday, I took a day and night to fast and pray for our nation. In the room I stayed in, there was a bookshelf with a book by Dr. Richard Halverson, former chaplain of the US Senate. I took the book, and it fell open to a picture of George Washington kneeling and praying.

What a far cry from the government that removed prayer from the public sector. I began reading Halverson's chapter. In it, he recalled the installation of Sandra Day O'Connor to the Supreme Court. As he was watching the events of the day take place, God gripped him with the question, "Who prays for the Supreme Court?"

DOES ANYONE PRAY FOR THE SUPREME COURT?

After her installation, in a meeting of conservative lawyers discussing their concerns for the liberal course the Supreme Court was taking, Halverson was asked to make any appropriate comments. He asked the question, "Does anyone here pray for the Supreme Court"?

THE PRESIDENT IS BEING ELECTED TODAY, NOT IN NOVEMBER

Over the past couple of weeks, I have been burdened in prayer for God to raise up the leadership in America that he has ordained. I have been particularly gripped with the urgency of prayer for the presidential primaries. The President of America is being elected today, not in November. After reading Halverson's chapter, my spirit was stirred to call the Church in this nation to pray urgently for God's influence to prevail in the primary elections. The following morning, a prophet friend came into my office and I shared my urgent intent with him. "I need to issue a call for prayer now!" Suddenly my friend spoke, "Lou I had a dream!" In the dream, he saw George Bush and the election proceedings. There was much confusion and frenetic jostling for position around him. In the dream, there was much uncertainty as to the outcome of the election.

RENDER UNTO CAESAR

In the dream, my friend heard a voice speak loudly and authoritatively seven times, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's."

As he shared the dream with me, I knew instantly what the Spirit was saying: "It is the fullness of time! There is much spiritual warfare over the election and its outcome in the air!"

THE MEANING "SUDDENLY EXPLODED INSIDE ME

The command of the Spirit, "Render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's" suddenly exploded inside me. The Church has rendered the political process of election to Caesar when God has not. The elections should be brought under the overruling providence of God through fasting and prayer. We should be taking the process to a Higher Court. God has not given the elections of a nation to Caesar. He is installed as King of Kings. He expects the Church to give the elections God's influence through fasting and prayer.

We urge you to join us and many others in prayer and fasting on Friday, March 3 with Intercessors For America or Sunday, March 5 with Focus on the Family. Pray for the presidential primaries, the California election on Proposition 22, the Protection of Marriage Initiative and for the Supreme Court. The time is Now or Never, the call is "Render to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's". Will you answer The Call?

Revival And California

Henry Falany

EMAIL: hisword@sierratel.com May 15, 2000

During the Mariposa 24hr Prayer Watch ... as we were praying, I saw this vision of a world-changing explosion of revival in California.

The vision came to me chronologically backwards (present day first) but I have written it below in chronological order for better story form~ Pastor Henry Falany

CALIFORNIA, A PLACE OF ACCELERATED TIME ON GOD'S CLOCK!

After dwelling in Europe for centuries, in the 1600s, the Light of God, which had begun more than 5 millenniums before in the Holy Land, moved across the Atlantic to the "New World." Time seemed to accelerate as God opened America. We all know the history ... the country quickly became the place of spiritual freedom, invention, industry, free trade and prosperity.

What took millenniums in the old countries only took a couple of centuries in early America. But even early America (the east coast) grew at a much slower rate than California and the west. For more than 200 years America consisted of only the eastern seaboard. Compared to the opening of the west, early America grew slowly and steadily into her destiny.

THE WEST LAID IN WAITING

California and the west, on the other hand, laid in waiting, practically untouched until the Lord was ready. In stark contrast to the standard of long slow growth, California exploded onto the scene within a matter of months. It was only 18 months after California became American soil July 1846) that gold was discovered (Jan 1848) and the great California Gold Rush was on.

THE WORLD RUSHED IN!

Now, it wasn't just America but THE WORLD RUSHED IN! Instantly California had the attention of the whole world. They came on foot, by sailing ships, by mule (or ox) and wagon and on horseback. Great cities exploded onto the scene. It was a different time. The gold fields were alive and crawling with people from every continent on the planet. Consequently, California almost immediately became the strongest state of the strongest nation in the world.

A QUICK WORK IN CALIFORNIA

Within 56 years of it's birth into statehood (1850), the great Azusa Street Revival of Los Angeles (1906) dramatically changed the entire world spiritually, and it did it practically overnight.

"INSTANTLY" A WORLD LEADER

Now California leads the world in many important areas ... some good, some not so good! A. War: The aircraft and aerospace industry B. Knowledge: Great universities, computers and the Silicon Valley C. Agriculture: The worlds undisputed leader in agriculture production D. Economy: Calif. as a nation would rank no. 6 in the world economically. E. The Arts: The worlds eyes are focused on Hollywood and the motion picture industry. a.)

Hollywood has done more to effect and change the world than anything man has ever done. F. California gave the world beatniks and hippies and free sex. G. San Francisco: the only major city in America that has never had a major revival. H. San Francisco: The homosexual capital of the world. I. S. F.: The environmentalist's capital of the world. (Worshipping the created more than creator) And the list goes on.

But where sin abounds .... Grace does much more abound!

AN EARLIER VISION

In the late 40s, Dr. Charles Price saw a revival coming in the years ahead of his time that would begin on the east coast (Toronto & Pensacola?). He said he saw it moving west and gaining as it went. Many of the revivals and healing meetings that he witnessed in the 40s and 50s were real, and of God, but he said man eventually got his "dirty little hands" on them and quenched them.

But this vision showed a revival so big, and so strong, that he said man couldn't get his "dirty little hands" on it. PTL!

THE "GOLDEN STATE" PRECEDENCE IS ESTABLISHED

In summary, God often sets a precedence in the natural history of a land or people that is actually prophetic to HIS spiritual plans for them in the years to come. Also, with the prophetic words that have come forth about Revival in California recently .. and .. with what I believe God is showing me tonight, I believe that God has again saved California ~ "The Golden State" ~ to lie in waiting for the Great Finale!

----An explosion in the Spirit, if you will. What Satan has tried to do to the world through this great state, God is going to turn it, right at the end, and use it for HIS GLORY and the Great End Time World Harvest.

THE FIRE OF AZUSA STREET MAGNIFIED!

It's getting close to explosion time again for California and the west, but this time, it will be an out-pouring of HIS Spirit like the world has never seen. Look out Hollywood and San Francisco, you are about to receive new marching orders! ... Revival is imminent

The world will rush in one more time, and again, the Gold of the California Mother lode (HIM!), will be poured out to the entire globe!

Rise and Get Up

Bill Burns:

March 17, 2000:

Rise and get up. Rise and get up! RISE AND GET UP! The Lord says, doubt and unbelief and disobedience I will not tolerate. To the faithful, the obedient, those who would dare to believe, I shall come upon them in My glory. The rains of adversity will descend, and they shall wash away many houses, but those who arise and build their house, their faith on the Rock, Christ Jesus, shall not only endure the storm, but they shall become a light house. They shall not only endure the storms, but shall arise in the power of the Most High to scatter the enemy before them. The enemy must flee, for it is written that one shall chase a thousand, but two shall chase ten thousand.

Some of you have troubled your own house. It has not been the devil's work. You have troubled yourselves. You have troubled yourselves with doubt and unbelief. You have troubled yourselves with unforgiveness and offenses. You have troubled yourselves with judgmentalism and pride, and you have come against those things that I have desired to bring into your life. Tonight, I call for new wine skins. I am calling for NEW wine skins. The old cannot contain that which I am about to do. I am about to pour out a new wine, a glorious wine. Is it not written that I have saved the best for last? Shall it not now come forth? Shall it not now bubble forth out of your innermost being? It must be that you make the decision to become a new wine skin, and you must get up. Arise from some of those things that you have allowed into your spirit that have brought hardness to your heart. A hardened heart is a hardened wine skin and cannot contain the new. Come to Me, and I will make you new again. I will reform you and heal your land and bring you out into a fruitful place. I will give you the blessings of My kingdom. Then, why do you stay where you are? Why not come? For the call of the Spirit and the bride is to come. Come and shake the dust of defilement off of you. Come out from among them and be ye separate. Come into My house of glory, and I shall make you vessels of glory. You will be those golden vessels that stand upon My table at the end of the age that reflect the glory of the Kingdom. Out of you shall pour forth golden oil mixed with living water, which shall bring forth the final harvest. Then shall the end come. Then shall the last trumpet sound.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

March 13, 2000:

My children, I have gone before you and made a wide path for you to come into greater knowledge of My word, more revelation. I am opening your eyes to see more than you ever have in My kingdom, and I am preparing you and equipping you to gather in the harvest. What is that work of preparation and equipping? You will open your heart and I will prepare it. You will begin to walk and I will direct your steps. You will open your mouth and I will fill it, for have I not said that death and life are in the power of the tongue? I will fill your mouth with wisdom and words that have the power to convince and convict. You have camped long enough at that old watering hole. I want to bring you to fresh streams of living water that will cause new life to spring forth. Get ready to move forward.

March 14, 2000:

Behold, I am leading you in paths of righteousness for My name's sake. I am bringing you forth by way of deliverance, vindication, justification and victory. For, I say, that it is time that My name be glorified in the earth. Rise up and shake yourself spiritually awake. Shake off those things that have come to bind you and keep you immobilized. Shake yourself free from those things that have debilitated you. This is a new day, a day to cast off the restraint of fear, rejection and failure. I say, cast off the garment of a blind beggar; come and receive your sight. For, I will indeed open your eyes and give spiritual insight, bringing light and revelation to those places that have been hidden in darkness until now. I say again, come and receive your sight.

March 15, 2000:

Watch now, for the enemy has risen up against you to stop My work. He cannot defeat you in the realm of the spirit, so he has sent people in the natural realm to thwart your plans and impede your progress. But, I say, look beyond the people who oppose you, for they are only pawns of the devil's purposes. Your battle is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. These powers will manifest as opposition to you, but look carefully, and you will see the spirit of the antichrist who mocks, scorns and rejects your plans; you will see the spirit of Jezebel manifesting jealousy, control, manipulation, domination--expressed in extreme emotional behavior; you will have to face a haughty spirit that will rise up to intimidate. Have I not given you power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over ALL the power of the enemy? Then, I say, rise up in the power of My Spirit and pull down these strongholds. Surely I say to you, NO weapon formed against you shall prosper. I have set you to do My will and perform My work, and victory is assured.

March 17, 2000:

Some time ago, I asked you to sacrifice your Isaac, and you put him on the altar in your obedience to My request. You have come a long ways, to a place that I have chosen. You have built an altar to me, a place of sacrifice in your heart, and have set everything in order spiritually. You have prepared to offer up that which has been most dear to your heart. But, I say, that because you have not withheld that which is precious to you for My sake, I will bless you and multiply you and you will possess the gate of your enemies. Behold, I am restoring your Isaac to you, for I know that you fear God. Because you have not withheld that which is precious to you, I will not withhold any good thing from you, and My purposes will be fulfilled in you. Now, arise and go to Beersheba where I will bring forth living water, fresh and clean, from which will spring forth new life.

March 18, 2000:

Heads up! The queen of heaven has shouted, "Off with their heads!" So, I caution you that those placed in positions of leadership and authority have come under attack with a decree of death and destruction. But, to you leaders, I say do not shrink back and retreat in dismay, but stand in the position where I have placed you, and exercise the authority I have given you. For, those that I have chosen, I have called, and those that I have called I will undergird. Do not retreat, but sound forth the alarm and rally your troops, for I will surely bring unity among those that are submitted to My leadership, and I will declare victory.

(Note: I am reminded by the Lord as I post this, that leadership also extends to positions of authority and leadership in your home.)

Raise Your Expectations!

Mary Koons

Now the meaning of the parable is this: The seed is the Word of God.

Those along the traveled road are the people who have heard; then the devil comes and carries away the message out of their hearts, that they may not believe (acknowledge Me as their Savior and devote themselves to Me) and be saved [here and hereafter].

And those upon the rock [are the people] who, when they hear [the Word], receive and welcome it with joy; but these have no root. They believe for a while, and in time of trial and temptation, fall away (withdraw and stand aloof).

And as for what fell among the thorns, these are [the people] who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked and suffocated with the anxieties and cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not ripen (come to maturity and perfection).

But as for that [seed] in the good soil, these are [the people] who, hearing the Word, hold it fast in a just (noble, virtuous) and worthy heart, and these steadily bring forth fruit with patience.

Luke 8:11-15

Sunday, March 19

RAISE YOUR EXPECTATIONS!

Can you not overlook the past My daughter? Can you overlook the things that YOU feel need to be dealt with - and trust Me to do so? To not trust Me is to doubt. To trust Me is to move ahead, grow, mature and speak forth words of hope and life to others. The enemy comes to kill, steal and destroy. When the sower sows the seed - he immediately comes to steal and rob the joy of ones salvation! I AM your Hightower - I AM IS the ONE that brings comfort in times of stress, that brings joy in times in pain, and brings LIFE that overcomes death!

This is My prayer for you this day - do I not moment by moment intercede for you with the Father? These words were not spoken for those who do NOT believe, but I intercede as the HIGH PRIEST, for those who DO believe, who come to Me and lay their burdens at My altar - and receive My comfort, My peace and My presence. When you stop looking behind you and turn and look at the future through My eyes, you will see the glory that awaits you and those like you whom I have taken through the fire. These will I bring forth cleansed and pure; unharmed, unsinged. What is being built up within you is the true fruits of My Spirit! One who can look at turmoil and find rest. One who can look death in the face - and be at peace. One who can look at judgment, and KNOW they are NOT condemned!

The world will tell you that sin - and that kind of a lifestyle - will bring you pleasure. But the wages of sin are death. But the gift of LIFE that I bring and that the Holy Spirit imparts and regenerates within you - is a gentle washing away - a tearing down of those strongholds that have hindered you and held you back, THEN are the rags of mourning turned into My oil of gladness!

Weep not My child! Weep Not! For I AM is with thee. I do not seek to bring forth in you pain - or touch those areas that you have yet to give to Me. When you feel insecure, it is because you have not trusted Me to walk you through the fire WITHOUT being singed. There is NO SECURITY outside of the cross; for everything else will lead to the death that the enemy of your soul covets. But through the cross, and through the blood that I shed - you KNOW VICTORY! Have I not led you through each valley, taken You around each curve in the road - and straightened the path before you, and let MY LIGHT shine into those dark places, so that those things that were once gloomy, shadowy and unclear, became filled with the GLORY OF GOD wherein by My hand, I performed deeds and brought circumstances to a proper and an edifying conclusion?

Wake up saints! For your redemption draweth nigh! Weep not for the past, and look not back behind you, but seek My face - be in constant prayer, intercede for the brethren. Lower your expectations of what you are - and RAISE YOUR EXPECTATIONS OF WHO YOU ARE IN ME!

Ram's Horns And Dancing Feet

Bill Yount

In the Spirit I see the initials of the city of "D.C." lighting up, standing for "DIVINE COMBAT".

The weapons God will use to help take this city will not be carnal, but mighty through Him to the pulling down of strongholds.

" The army I'm raising up will be few in number, and their weapons will appear foolish to many. But My foolishness is wiser than man, and My strategic plans will be hidden from the enemy by My Glory as I maneuver My army by My Spirit."

RAM'S HORNS AND DANCING FEET

I saw two of the most powerful weapons being called to this city for major break-throughs....Ram's Horns and Dancing Feet! As in Gideon's Army, Shofars will be blown again, breaking many hindrances to release the Light of My Glory, as though erecting a lighthouse on the front lawn of the White House.

I see seeds of truth being pushed and planted into the ground by dancing feet! I see their roots going down deep and their fruit coming upward cracking the marble floor inside the White House. ..cracking the very foundation of Deception and Greed...exposing the enemy. [The enemy is not a man but the Satan.]

"Though this army is few in number, compared to over a million men I drew to D.C. [Promise Keepers], do not be discouraged. Your assignment is different.

A MILLION SHOFARS AND DANCING FEET

Though few in number, I am going to amplify the sound of My weapons. Their sound will be heard inside the White House by enemy strongholds. I will amplify it to the degree that it will sound to the enemy like a million shofars and a million dancing feet have come to town! The echo will carry across the nation.

Recently I saw again the initials of the city of "D.C." lighting up as another powerful weapon. The initials of "D.C." was lighting up standing for "DEAR CHILDREN"! Children will be used also to help take the city. A child shall lead them to over take it!

Reconciliation

Jim Shade

MINISTRY OF RECONCILIATION

We all have differences, but instead of pointed out the differences on how we serve God, be blessed that we serve God. The Bible says that when Jesus is high and lifted up, then He will draw all men unto Himself, not when the way we worship is lifted up, or the what we think God should or even others should be doing, but when He is lifted up.

Sometimes being prophetic we see ahead about what God is going to do instead of seeing God Himself. Not when His plans are lifted up, but when He is lifted up He will draw all men unto Himself. Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and then all these things shall be added unto you.

God is judge, not us. He will do it the way He chooses, not our ways even when we know what He is going to do, He still chooses how, when, and where.

We need to find the agreements that we have and not the differences. When we begin encouraging one another on things that we are in agreement in, then we will be able to build a relationship and gain their trust, and then we can, in love, share our differences and correct one another in love and receive correction also.

Every joint supplies. It is not going to be my church that brings revival but it is going to be His Church that brings revival to our cities.

Don't get me wrong we do need to be bold as a lion and not compromise, but the Scripture also says to be gentle as a lamb. It was Jesus' relationship with the disciples, despite their obvious differences with Jesus (i.e. "shall we call down fire from heaven..") that caused almost all of them to give their lives and service to Him.

When we as a church embrace the "Church," every joint not just charismatic joints, but Baptist joints, Catholic joints, etc., then God will do what He said He would do. God will pour out His Spirit on all flesh. The Bible says where there is unity He will command a blessing.

PROPHETIC WORD

For truly I am doing a work in the earth like none other move of My Spirit. Did I not say that there would be a generation that would seek My face? Did not my servant Paul say that there is a generation that will enter into My rest?

We have striving going on in Church. Striving for the answer, striving for the key to their cities. Truly this is a day of the one man show. I already have chosen that man: The Son of Man, My Son, the Messiah.

I will bring My Church together, I will do it says the Lord. Did I not give you all the ministry of reconciliation, not the ministry of fault finding?

For the portion you judge with so shall I judge you. For the day is coming when My chosen will stop increasing their church but will increase My Church.

For truly the time is coming when my prophets will speak as ones with authority. They will be speaking with a message that will be universal, "Prepare Ye the way of the Lord!"

They will speak of getting back to God. They will be speaking on decreasing your kingdom as God's kingdom increases. For My Word says receive a prophet and receive a prophet's reward, for truly revival and reconciliation is the reward.

As the message of My servants the prophets are embraced I will do as I said and turn the hearts of the fathers back to children and the hearts of the children back to the fathers. If you shall not receive this I will curse the land.

There will be those in the "Spirit filled" churches that will not embrace this Word and there will be those in the traditional churches that will, for truly I will get the glory and not a man, a ministry, or a movement, but I will receive the glory.

For that which I am about to do will not be able to be done by one man's anointing but by the anointing of the Body of Christ. So I say lay down your plans that do not include your brothers and sisters in the others churches, lay down your plans that builds your ministry and doesn't encourage the already existing ministries.

Lay down your plans that don't involve rooting up, and tearing down, for truly I'm fixing the foundations that are man made and I am doing reconstructive surgery, and then I will build and plant.

For truly when the surgery is over I will build and I will plant. For one man waters, one man plants, but I will give the increase. Jim Shade jshade2@juno.com

Reaping The Whirlwind

Harley Hickling

January 24, 2000

During my morning Bible reading as I was reading Jeremiah 30 the following two verse suddenly came alive to me:

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

Listen and pay heed to My words for the time of the whirlwind of the Lord is at hand. Those who have sown by the wind are about to harvest the whirlwind of my wrath for My fierce anger is going forth kindled with fire against the wicked and the unrepentant. Just as Ezekiel saw My whirlwind of fire approach from the North so shall the unrepentant and the wicked experience the fire and the sword of the Lord as My chariots of judgment sweep through the Earth rendering forth My fury and My anger. Just as Nahum wrote, I Am slow to anger and great in power, yet I will not acquit the wicked. Who is there that can stand before My indignation and can abide the fierceness of My anger? Surely the unrepentant will be unable to stand before My wrath as they will be laid waste along with the wicked. Time and time again I have stretched forth My hand unto you by way of invitation to which you have responded with mocking and with scorn. Because you have utterly rejected Me so shall I laugh at you in the midst of your calamities and I will mock your fear for your fear will surely come as My whirlwind of destruction passes over you. When you shall then call upon Me from out of your distress, I will not answer and you shall not find Me because you have chosen to mock My pleas to come unto Me. And because you have chosen to heap scorn upon Me I shall in return heap My wrath upon you. The days of pleading and begging you to come unto Me are nearly over for your appointed hour of judgment is very close at hand and that time will no longer be stayed. Your only remaining option is to repent now and to do so quickly!

To those of you who are numbered among My elect, this harsh word is directed only to the mockers and scorners of this world.

You, who have ardently sought My face and are now within the safety of My Presence shall not experience the wrath of My whirlwind, though you shall be witnesses to its effect.

The time for playing games with your Lord is over!

Revealing Christ

Gary Garner

The Spirit of God is given to us for the purpose of revealing Christ to us.

You remember, Jesus said to his disciples, he said, you know, I've got some things to share with you guys you haven't been able to bear.

If you study that word bear there, it's the word, "slips through your fingers", "slips through your hands". I keep telling you about it and you keep dropping it.

What he couldn't get them to grasp was his death, burial and resurrection. Remember he kept saying to them, I'm going to Jerusalem, I'm going to be crucified, but on the third day I will rise again. And every time it said, "they couldn't understand what he said." They couldn't grasp it. You see it takes the Holy Spirit to understand the death, burial and resurrection. Why is that? Because what happened there was more than a physical event.

The greatest thing that happened there, greater than the sufferings of the Lord, were the spiritual implications of the death, burial and resurrection. If you were standing there and viewed the physical sufferings of the Lord, you would have cried and felt the intense feelings of the moment, but a few weeks later you would have been over it and gone on with your life.

Because the greatest impact happened in the realm of the unseen, in the realm of the spirit. Because our problems were not primarily physical. Our problems are spiritual. We don't do things to become who we are. We do things because we are something. We don't say, well I did this so I guess I'm a sinner. No, you did it because you were a sinner. It is inevitable that out of your nature came sin.

The problems are spiritual. Jesus said, I've got some things to share with you, that you cannot grasp. But when He the Spirit of Truth has come, he will take that which is mine and show it unto you.

Now the church world has applied that to the Spirit of God showing you things about the future, and that is true. He can show you things about your future.

But Jesus was talking about things that had not occurred yet, that they could not understand. He was talking about his death, burial and resurrection. He was talking about things which hadn't come.

The, "things to come" was the cross. The spirit of God will show you the Cross. He will reveal to you the cross. And he said he would take that which is mine. How many of you understand the death he endured belongs to us? His death was our death. He would take that which is mine and show it unto you. Crucified, died, buried, quickened, raised and seated, all of those things shown to us because we are in Him by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Now, if we have seen what we have seen so far, with the earnest of our inheritance. How many of you know because of what you have seen of the Lord, it has changed your life? Who showed you that? It wasn't a man. It was the Holy Spirit.

What do you think will be the impact of the Body of Christ when the fullness of the Spirit comes on the Body of Christ? When the fullness of the Spirit rests on the branch. The Holy Spirit today is revealing Him to us in His fullness. And the Phillips translation says, "and reality will break loose."

It's already real. But it hasn't broke loose in many brothers and sisters lives. The reality of the Gospel and the Cross hasn't broken loose yet in many people. It won't so much change you as it will make you aware of a past change. The awareness of that past change will allow that change to manifest in and on you. When did that change happen? When you made the Jesus Christ the Lord of your life and you became a new creature.

The truth is what happened to you happened in Spirit. Not when you found it out, but immediately at salvation. How long does it take a person to become more than a conquer? As long as it takes for a person to make Jesus Christ Lord of his life. It's not something you grow into. You got that at birth. It's your nature. Now, you may be more than a conquer, and never conquer anything in your life. You can die more than a conquer and never conquer anything in your life, because you don't understand how you got to be that way, you can't grasp it mentality. Your soul has got to be saved. Your mind, will and emotions. Our spirit is re-born at salvation and then our soul has got to be renewed and regenerated.. Your soul has got to be saved.

Peter said, at the end there is a salvation ready to be revealed in the end. What salvation is that? It's not the salvation of the spirit. That's already been revealed. It's the salvation of the soul ready to be revealed. The mind, the will, the emotions. You're going to understand in the mind what is true in the spirit. When your soul gets saved with the salvation that your spirit has, then your body is going to express that. The fullness of the Spirit. This is the kind of body that the Lord Jesus is developing in the earth today. It's the kind of remnant, the kind of called out people that God is bringing up out of the church.

It is not elitism. This branch turns into the remnant of the Lords people. He turns to the church and gives them bread and wine, and feeds them the work of Christ. God is raising up something different than what we have experienced. There is a Priesthood rising up, after the order of Melchizedek. The Old Testament Priesthood was a Priesthood after the order of Levi. The New Testament Priesthood is a Priesthood after the order of Melchizedek. Melchizedek showed up in Genesis 14. He showed up out of the heavenlies. Why do you think after that time Abraham was looking for a city whose builder and maker was God? Because he met the King of that city. Abraham said, this guy is greater than me. It was the Lord Jesus, it was a O.T. Christophomy. A visible appearance. He came out of Heaven and gave Abraham bread and wine. Abraham had been blessed out of his socks up until that day. God blessed him richly. Abraham said that's fine, but I haven't given birth to the son.

Gods people want to know Him! The Apostle Paul said, every thing I have is dung compared to knowing Him. The pursuit of things has robbed us. God want's to be a blessing in your life. But He wants us to seek Him and then all these things will be added to you. In seeking the things, we leave God out. People are hungry and weeping today for something real. Something with substance.

Receiving a Man of God

Kerry W. Knorr

He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives the one who sent me. Anyone who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and anyone who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And if anyone gives a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is my disciple, I tell you the truth, he will certainly not lose his reward. ( Mt.10:40-42)

Jesus is summing up his instructions to his disciples as he was sending them out with apostolic authority (Mt.10:1-2). The whole set of instructions makes sense, and it's full message comes into context, when we understand this final paragraph. If you receive a man of God, because he is from God, you will receive the thing that God sent him to give you! If you are not receiving; guess what; you're not receiving the man of God! Jesus was not received in his home town. Familiarity breeds contempt, and creates a blockage to the release of receiving the thing that comes from God. See the word of the Lord!

And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them: "Only in his home town and in his own house is a prophet without honor." And he did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith. (Mt.13:57-58) Mark 6:4 records reference to relatives. Among relatives a man of God is not received. In his home town, among his family, even in his own house; where he has become 'old news'; is a man of God received without honor. Yet the guy from out of town, the fresh face; is received with open arms. This is a true principle that even in the secular business world; is well known. The adage goes: "tonight's expert is a guy from another town who does the same thing I do, and says the same thing I say; but because he is a fresh face, and you are not intimate with his faults, you will receive him." The church is beginning to catch on to this principle. Itinerant ministries are becoming more and more popular, because of the simple fact that they are effective. They are received; and they help keep the numbers up. They help keep the saints interested. Don't get me wrong. God is definitely using this principle, and it is changing the whole world! But there is something more.

We can build up, hype if you must, a minister from out of town and create a receptive atmosphere so that his or her message is embraced in an uninhibited way. It works, and it is good. Recently, some of our young men visited a church some distance from ours. The ministry staff at that church had been coming to our church and being received in an effective way, yet when they returned home, they were not well received! They were met with the typical bickering environment of family, a familiar environment! Yet when our young men went to visit, and had been announced in a way that they were being embraced as the men of God they are, they were well received. They were received in a way that was beyond their imagination!

The one impression that they spoke of most often was the extremely good reception that they had been received with! Even a little kid, who had no understanding of what was happening; received these young ministers with open arms and an open spirit! And truly, those who have received the man of God, have received the reward that God placed inside of the sending! Hear the word of the Lord!

People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them. (Mk.10:13-16)

How does a little child receive? A child receives without reservation! A child has not learned to remember offenses, only embrace the good thing that is seen! See this! Hear this! It doesn't matter if that child has seen Mom or Dad day after day, and been disciplined each of those days; that child continues to embrace the parent! As this word was forming in my ability to perceive it; the Lord kept reminding me that we are made in his image. People are made in the likeness of God! He kept saying this phrase: "When you recognize your offenses against your brother, know this:

he is made in my likeness, and possesses the same long-suffering and grace and forgiveness that I do." God's children have his same genetic make up. They are made in his likeness, and have His Spirit, and His love!

The Spirit of the Lord kept saying: "When", not "if"; but "when" you recognize how deeply you have offended your brother; know this: that brother has the same long-suffering grace and forgiveness that God himself has. Do not expect retaliation from him for stopping your offenses against him. Expect that he will be relieved! There is no more pain! He will find it even more easy to love you openly, when you discontinue your offense against him! A hindrance to his ability to receive you as a man or woman of God has been removed, because you recognize and repent of your offense against your brother!

An offended brother is more unyielding than a fortified city, and disputes are like the barred gates of the citadel. (Prov.18:19) Jesus compared offenses against one another with murder! And in light of "receiving a man or woman of God, it's the same as killing, to allow an offense to interfere with the free exchange of each supporting link within the body! (Eph.4:15-16)

Submit to one another out of reverence to Christ. (Eph.5:21) Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled with your brother; then come and offer your gift (Mt.5:23-24)

Oh, it is so very important that we all hear and practice this word! God very definitely uses 'out of town' ministries effectively. That is one of the things that he made, and made well! But we must have completeness in our familial relationships at the local level, and continue to minister to one another effectively! That is why there are so many instructions in the New Testament about how to properly relate to one another. Above all, we must continue to receive one another as men and women of God. To do that, sometimes we have to ignore glaring evidence to the contrary, and believe what God has spoken. Sometimes, in relating to another person, we have to embrace the "hidden Christ in them", because there is no evidence of anything greater.

"...anyone who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward..." How are we righteous? Only by God's declaration, and by faith. God declared: The righteous shall live by faith. And we know that: "there is none righteous, not one". We are declared righteous through faith in Jesus. The whole first eight chapters of the book of Romans details the way this works. Of particular importance in these passages are the following: I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: "The righteous shall live by faith." (Rm.1:16-17 [Hab.2:4])

But now a righteousness that comes from god, apart from the law, has been made known, to which the law and the prophets testify. This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference, for all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. (Mt.3:21-24)

We can not, we must not rely on our human perception. What God has declared is much more powerful than what we can see in our flesh! We must see one another as God sees us, and embrace his declaration: "It will happen that in the very place where it is said to them, 'you are not my people', they will be called; 'sons of the living God.'" (Rm.9:26 [Hos.1:10])

Scattered throughout the New Testament are great instructions about how to get along with our brothers, and how we should relate to one another. It is important so that all of us together, both near and far; can be strong. The body of Christ is engaged in warfare in the spirit that is very real. Again, there are many references to this spiritual warfare in the New Testament. The prophet Joel spoke of an army, like locusts going throughout the land, and they charge like warriors, and scale walls like soldiers and they do not jostle one another, they march straight ahead through resistive defenses, and they do not break ranks; and they basically take over the place! (Joel.2:1-11)

While some are quick to condemn hypocrites, professors of the law and ministers of the sacraments; David refused to touch the Lord's anointed. Joel says:

Let the priests who minister before the Lord weep between the temple porch and the altar. Let them say: "Spare your people, Oh Lord. Do not make your inheritance an object of scorn, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, "Where is their God?" (Joel.2:17) God himself says in Ezekiel:

Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the sovereign Lord. Repent and live! (Eze.18:31-32)

It is not a delight that the disobedient die! It is grieving and cause for great mourning. It is cause for those who love one another in the Lord to do everything they can to restore one another to grace! Paul was talking about receiving one another there in Galatians chapters five and six. Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted. (Gal.6:1-2)

Jesus talked about it, and John the Apostle captured it's importance more than any other.

God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him. Love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him. There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The man who fears is not made perfect in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says "I love God", yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. And he has given us this command: "Whoever loves God, must also love his brother." (1Jn.4:16b-21) The Lord gave an illustration that helps to see what is going on. Veteran warriors know a few things about fighting alongside young warriors. Young warriors do things wrong, that jeopardize them both.

One mistake a young warrior will often make is to become so engaged in the battle, so consumed by the flow of adrenaline, that they begin to flail blindly at anything or anyone who comes near them. They are unaware of what they are doing themselves. It is impossible for the veteran to get near the youngster, in order to cover his back; because he may get killed himself. The best a veteran can do to help this youngster is to keep his distance, but attack any enemy that would join the battle against the current opponent. If the old warrior does not love the young warrior, he will let him die. If the young warrior does not love the old warrior, he will join the enemy!

Another thing that inexperienced warriors do wrong is that they are unaware of what the veteran is doing, and step between the veteran and his opponent, just as the veteran is about to deal the death blow. The veteran is forced to both pull his punch, so as to avoid killing his friend; and must take quick evasive action so as to avoid being struck by the enemy. It is an unobservant thing! It is a lack of diligence, a focus on self, and does not regard with respect, what the other warrior is contending with. If the old warrior does not love the young warrior, he will not pull the punch, and will kill him. If the young warrior does not love the old warrior, he will get in his way, and cause him to be hurt.

Neither warrior can make the mistake of shouting and communicating his next move, because the enemy also hears it, and can counter each move. The key is to love one another! It is to know each other after the Spirit! (1Jn.3:24) (1Jn.4:1-6)

The key to both a young warrior and an old warrior surviving on the battlefield that they are fighting in together, is that they love each other in the way that is described in 1Cor.13:4-7. That love has a singleness of focus that is united, not in skill levels, nor by strength, nor by wisdom; but by a determination to succeed together and defeat the enemy. They watch one another in practice, and observe one another's moves. They watch each other in battle and look for opportunity to render aid either by assisting, or by getting out of the way! They learn one another's strengths and weaknesses, and rely on help from the other's strength, and render aid to cover the other's weakness.

They receive one another! They receive based upon the good gift that God has put into each one, and not according to pride in the flesh. Romans 12 talks about this.

For by the grace given to me I say to every one of you: "Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself in sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to us. If a man's gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith. If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully. Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. (Rm.12:3-11)

There is much more revelation to this set of truths that are unveiled in the referenced scriptures. The intent of this article is merely to introduce the importance of the key principle of receiving one another as unto the Lord. It is a huge deal; (bigger than a big deal) and critical to our efforts in God's kingdom. We are the people of the Lord, his sons, his children. We must understand his ways! If we do not receive one another as unto the Lord, we lose out on the good gift that God has put inside our brother for our support and edification. We begin to get weak, and cannot see.

Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him to make him stumble. But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks around in the darkness; he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded him. (1Jn.2:10-11)

Embrace the prophet in your brother that you see every day. Embrace that thing in him every day. Let the prophet say to you what he sees, day to day. Let the righteous man minister purity and righteousness to you each day! Do not let familiarity detract from what God has put right in your midst!

Reconciliation – A Result Of Grace

Deborah Voetberg

Reconciliation...We are seeing a lot of it these days. In December, on the beaches of West Africa, African Americans and Afro-Caribbeans accepted a message of reconciliation from African intercessors representing Africans who had sold their ancestors into slavery. This year, Louis Farrakhan of the Nation of Islam reconciled with Imam Mohammed of the Muslim American Society after 22 years of division.

When we not only see among Christians, but in the enemies camp a great focus on reconciliation...we need to read the sign of the times. Our redemption draws near! Luke 11:17... " Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls." Satan is well aware of the principles of God. He knows that THEY WORK!

As children of the Most High God, we must take seriously what our Father said to us through the Apostle Paul in 2 Cor.5:18-21.." Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the MINISTRY OF RECONCILIATION, that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, NOT IMPUTING THEIR TRESPASSES TO THEM, and has committed to us the WORD OF RECONCILIATION, now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us; we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God! For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him! "

"...has GIVEN us the MINISTRY OF RECONCILIATION...committed to us the WORD OF RECONCILIATION..." In the days that we live in, days where sin abounds...grace should abound much more. Grace is what the Good News is about! Romans 6:14..." For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under the law but under Grace. " Along with the Fruits of the Spirit, Grace needs to be manifested through us to one another and to a lost world.

But let's get honest and look at some stumbling blocks that we allow to hinder the Ministry of Reconciliation that as ambassadors of Jesus Christ we have been committed to do.

1. Do we struggle to reconcile the mistakes of our past, repenting of past sins, renouncing ungodly vows and asking forgiveness of others?
2. Are we unsure of how to release emotions and deal with memories when others ask us for forgiveness of past sins?
3. Do we get stuck between; forgetting the past and pressing onward to the upward call of God in Christ Jesus ( Phil. 3:13-14 ) and becoming accountable for past sins and judging ourselves? ( 1 Cor.11:31-32 )

These are a few examples, but shed light on some of the stumbling blocks that hinder maturity in the body of Christ. The common thread in all of them is SELF. Dead people, ( those who have embraced the work of the cross ) don't have emotions of past hurts, are able to forgive, ( for this life they now live, they live by Faith in the Son of God, who loves them and gave His life for them. Gal 2:20 ) and have taken to the cross their sins and received forgiveness.

Jesus came to seek and to save that which was lost! ( Luke 19:10 ) God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself! That is what the word says! How far did the Father go to get you back? All the way!

NOT IMPUTING THEIR TRESPASSES TO THEM ! In 2 Timothy 4:14-16 Paul says concerning a man who had done him much harm... " may it not be charged against him! " Paul understood the Ministry of Reconciliation. Only the Father knows the condition and motives of the hearts of mankind. Only the Father can rightly judge. We are to release people, not hold them in bondage. He made the way for reconciliation! The Old Testament ends with a promise of reconciliation ...the restoration of the hearts of the fathers to their children and the hearts of the children to their fathers! ( Malachi 4:5&6 )

"...and has committed to us the WORD OF RECONCILIATION, now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were PLEADING THROUGH US; we implore you on Christ's behalf, BE RECONCILED TO GOD!

Do you understand that God is pleading for you to accept what has already been given? That if we hold one another in unforgiveness that it brings brittleness to our bones and death to our bodies. If we cannot reconcile ourselves with our own past it produces the same result...death. Guilt opens the door to fear...fear produces anxiety...anxiety produces stress. Jesus said that in the last days the hearts of men would fail them because of fear. ( Luke 21:26 )

In order to understand how we can forgive others and ourselves, pressing onward to the upward call, we must have a clear understanding of the cross. Without that....we are still trying to save ourselves through good works. We must understand that of ourselves WE can do NOTHING!

By the CROSS ALL things were reconciled back to Him. Whether things on earth or things in heaven...having made peace through the blood of His Cross. ( Col. 1:19&20 ) Do you fall somewhere between heaven and earth? Do you see that He said All things. That means ALL things! Mankind...the Earth...the Heavens, all that we know of and beyond! God will have the universe and children that He set out to have.

When we understand the Cross we are able to receive His Grace upon our lives and release it upon the lives of others! It is because of Grace that we are still here breathing!

He has called us into LIBERTY! Now we are all at different stages of working out our own salvation with Fear & Trembling.. ( Phil. 2:12 ) So we need to understand that our Father has given us not only the Ministry but the Word of Reconciliation that should be upon our lips. We are ambassadors of restoring what was lost.

Romans 14, the whole chapter, is about the Law of Liberty and the Law of Love! It exhorts us not to dispute over doubtful things...not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brothers' way....to be people of peace. When we are at peace we hear God clearly...when we are at rest, our body is in health....we are able to finish the race!

Look at the world around you... You will see Migraine headaches, Asthma & Allergies on the increase...hearts failing, backs bending. You will also see self-hatred and anger on the rise...conflict, guilt, fear, anxiety, stress and panic. All of this results from a lack of understanding of what has already been provided. We are trying to fix ourselves through the wisdom of man, when the only way to be reconciled is through the Cross and living in Grace. Gal. 2:21 says, ..." Do not set aside the Grace of God ..." If we do, Christ died in vain!

Let us, as the Children of Almighty God, receive the Grace that has been given and then extend it to one another. As you measure it out ...it will be measured back to you...pressed down, shaken together, and running over! ( Luke 6:37& 38)

1 Timothy 6:4&5 says that when we are full of pride, we know nothing. That we become obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which comes envy, strife, reviling and evil suspicions. Speaking useless wranglings of men of corrupt minds and being destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. I didn't say that...God did.

Reconciliation on the corporate level sends a wonderful message to society and does bring healing, BUT when we as individuals live and walk in the Ministry and Word of Reconciliation on a daily basis as we relate to one another...this is the ministry that will restore the lost.

I close with what Paul exhorted the Ephesians in Chapter 4:1-3. That we all walk worthy of the calling with which we were called with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing one another in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Only the Church of Jesus Christ has been given the Ministry & Word of Reconciliation. Let us arise and let the light of God shine His Glory, drawing back to Him all that has been lost!

Blessings & Great Grace!

Reconciliation Between Brothers

Roseanne Harney

I am seeing in the Spirit, a young man on a riverbank. He is sitting down

And leaning back relaxing. In his hands he is holding a fishing pole and as I glance at the water, the sun's reflection is dancing across the water like diamonds. It is sparkling and there is a gentle breeze blowing over the water, causing little ripples.

I can see another man walking up to greet him and he has a big smile, he sits down and joins the first man and they begin to chat and laugh. They are brothers, reminiscing about the past and exchanging stories. I hear the words, a cherished moment filled with My love and My joy.

Then I see them begin to pick-up little stones and watch them skipping them across the water. As they watch the stones skid across the water, I look up and notice that the sun is beginning to set. The sky is a pretty shade of pink and blues, there are a few clouds that are scattered across the sky, it's dusk.

Finally, they stand to their feet and with tears in their eyes they walk down the road together in God's strength and in unity.

I heard these Words in my heart:

I am bringing together families. I am bringing together brothers that have had distance between them. It will be a time of love and laughter, and many tears.

(Hosea 11: 3-4)NIV, It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realize it was I who healed them. I lead them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love; I lifted the yoke from their neck and bent down to feed them.

(Psalms 133:1) NIV, How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!

For the sweetness of the Lord is a fragrance like no other. His fragrance fills the hearts of His people, who through fervent prayer and intercession have stood firm for their loved ones and friends.

(Philippians 1:9-11) NIV, And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in the knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ-to the glory and praise of God.

They have stood in the gap and remained faithful, remembering the great deeds and miracles that God has done and of His love that endures forever.

(2Chronicles 2: 20-22) NIV, Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem! Have faith in the Lord your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful. After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the Lord and to praise him for the splendor of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying: "Give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures forever." As they began to sing and praise the Lord set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated.

Recognize And Receive

Deborah Voetberg

1-12-00

"I will do and am doing a new thing that no eye has seen or ear has heard. Have your eyes not on what I did in the past through those whom I chose to flow through then. For it is My desire that you recognize and receive what I have planned for this hour. For it is the revelation and knowledge that has been hidden from days of old...to be revealed only in these times to bring forth the Bride for My Son.

Keep your eyes toward Me and Me alone, for I am moving in ways that are according to My Spirit, that will be revealed unto your spirit. Those of My Spirit will follow where I am leading. Keep all of your hearts and eyes upon Me. For I am truly doing beyond measure what you could ever ask or think. According to the power that you have allowed Me to pour into you...so will be the measure of revelation that you will move in!

Again I say, Eyes have not seen nor ears have heard what I am bringing to pass by the power of My Spirit upon those who belong to me and upon the sons who have rejected Me. Be of My Spirit and you will have the wisdom and revelation of the knowledge of My character and ways, so that you will be able to give an answer to those who seek you! All souls belong to Me. Do I have pleasure at all that the wicked should die? No, but that he would turn from his ways and live! Be prepared by My Spirit to give the answer that will turn them toward Me."

Receiving Your Inheritance

Dan Luehrs

"Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men; knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve" (Colossians 3:23-24).

There is nothing more exciting than to think and talk about our spiritual inheritance in Jesus. When many Christians think about it, they think about streets of gold and their mansion on the streets of glory. But, if this is all we think that it is, we have sold ourselves very short. It so much more than our minds can now comprehend!

"And now, glorify Thou Me together with Thyself, Father, with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was" (John 17:5).

Notice what Jesus asked for in one of His last prayers on earth. Was it to walk the streets of gold or to have His mansion ready by the time He got there? No. (It was to receive the glory that He had in the beginning with the Father.) Jesus did not ask for material things, as do most believers, He asked for something greater. The glory! (The glory is the sum and substance of what God is.) Many times we experience His presence and call it His glory because it is so wonderful. But, that is only a foretaste of glory divine! To receive His fullness of glory is to be swallowed up into the life, power, and fire of God Himself as Jesus was. "Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person." (Hebrews 1:3 KJV). ". Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor." (Hebrews 2:9). "And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory" (1 Peter 5:4). What an inheritance we have awaiting us!

HE IS COMING WITH OUR INHERITANCE

"Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done" (Revelation 22:12).

"Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. "For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it. "For what will a man be profited, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and will then recompense every man according to his deeds" (Matthew 16:24-27).

Jesus said that He is coming in glory to repay every person. But with what will He repay them? Money, fame, or mansions? I think not. These are all worldly possessions that worldly people seek after. But those of His Spirit know that there is something greater to inherit. I tell you openly that He is coming to repay all the faithful according to their deeds with the fullness of His glory, (His nature). Listen to the words of Paul, "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us" (Romans 8:17-18). Very clearly Paul says that we will receive His glory as our inheritance when He comes. There is no greater reward in all of God's creation than His glory. Our reward is to have the fullness of Him! ". Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward" (Genesis 15:1 KJV).

Jesus is coming in great glory to reward us with His glory, which is His nature, a consuming fire! "And to the eyes of the sons of Israel the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the mountain top" (Exodus 24:17). "I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him. Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD." (Ezekiel 1:27-28).

What was the appearance of His glory? Fire! "And of the angels He says, "Who makes His angels winds, and His ministers a flame of fire (or ministers of glory fire, God's nature)" (Hebrews 1:7).

In Matthew 16:24, we have the blueprint in receiving His glory: we must deny living for self, pick up our cross, and follow Him wherever He goes. This is not an easy calling, but it will be well worth it in the days of His glory. Carrying our cross is no easy matter; it is the way of death to the self-nature, our self-centeredness and idolatry. To carry our cross is one thing, but to die upon it, is another. Crucifixion is a slow death. This is why we must pick up our cross daily, to die daily upon it. Daily! How are we to do this? By obeying His leading and not our own selfish ways. The Holy Spirit will always lead us to the cross, which is death to self. Read the words of Paul carefully. "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and delivered Himself up for me" (Galatians 2:20). How did Paul live his life? By faith in the Son of God! The life of faith will always be a cross that brings death to self because we must continually trust Him for all things. The Holy Spirit will always lead you to the cross. We are not just to get saved by faith; we are to live by faith! The life of faith is a cross that God gives you to carry. You can either reject it or accept it. He will not make you carry it! God may tell you to relocate somewhere you will not like to be, or He may tell you to get a certain job or even to go without a job. Your flesh will have a fit! This is your cross to carry to the destruction of your flesh. It took me years to understand that when God was telling me to do something that I did not like, it was only for my good. It was a door that He wanted me to go through. The doorway was very dark and uninviting at first until I could see that God had a greater blessing in store than I could imagine. Being obedient to God when we don't feel like it will always bring death to self. When self is dead, then and only then can we handle the greater blessings of God. For it is only through suffering that we shall inherit the glory of Jesus Christ. ". Jesus, (because of) the suffering of death crowned with glory." (Hebrews 2:9). "Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and to enter into His glory" (Luke 24:26)? If Jesus needed to suffer to enter His glory, how much more us?

If we hold on to this worldly saying, "I did it my way," we will surely lose everything that we have worked for in life. But on the other hand, if we give our life to follow Christ, we will gain our life and much more! "For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory" (Colossians 3:3-4). Jesus is now hidden from the world's eyes. Where is He hidden? Inside of you and me! Jesus is already on the earth; He is hiding in us and we are hidden in Him. But one day, He is going to show Himself openly to the whole world through His people. Notice how we will be revealed, in GLORY! Hallelujah!!

In Matthew 16:26 Jesus said, "For what will a man be profited, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?" In other words, we can gain nothing in this life that will last through eternity. That which is done through our own will and way will crumble. The average person on earth is working to gain profit. For what? Only to lose it at death! Jesus said it will not last; they are building out of sand. "And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" (Luke 12:15 KJV).

What will profit us through eternity? Being obedient to Him in all things. "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and will then recompense (repay) every man according to his deeds" (Matthew 16:27). Jesus is coming to repay all those who have been obedient to Him. There is no better repayment plan in the whole universe! It is no wonder why He said in John 6:27, "Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man shall give to you, for on Him the Father, even God, has set His seal." Why would Moses give up all the treasures of Egypt? "Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward" (Hebrews 11:26 KJV). The word "respect" means that he looked away from anything else that would try to mislead him and steal the reward from him. And this is what we must do to receive His reward as well!

MAKING ETERNAL PROFITS

"For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison" (2 Corinthians 4:17).

In New Testament times gold or silver would be measured out by weight. Paul writes that we will receive an eternal weight or payment of glory for the sufferings that we have gone through for Jesus. Again read the words of a man that suffered much for the Lord, "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us" (Romans 8:18). One day I asked the Lord about the people that were in heaven, "What do they regret the most about their past lives on earth and what would have done differently?" He said, "They wished that they had suffered more for My will in their life." It is only through suffering that we will inherit the kingdom of God and the glory that goes along with it.

"Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God" (Acts 14:22).

"All this suffering is evidence that God's judgment is right, and as a result you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering" (2 Thessalonians 1:5 NIV). Paul is saying our suffering is necessary, for it is God's decision in doing what is right, so that we might be truly a tested people worthy of the kingdom of God. We are tested even as Israel was tested by God to see whether we will follow Him fully through our testing and not backslide into our old ways. "The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it" (Luke 16:16 KJV). "Presseth" means; to force, to crowd oneself into, to press, suffer violence.

No wonder why Peter could say we are to rejoice in our sufferings. "But to the degree that you share the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing; so that also at the revelation of His glory, you may rejoice with exultation" (1 Peter 4:13). Trials are entrusted to us. It is only through them will we inherit the promise of the Kingdom. Do you still want to run from your trials when they are producing in you such a weight of glory? The more I see these truths, the more I understand that we are entrusted with sufferings as we obey Him, and it is something that we should not run from. If God knows that great suffering will drive us from Him, He will protect us from it. He also knows when we are ready for greater sufferings, as they will only make us stronger in Him and more Christ-like. Most Christians know Romans 8:28 well, "And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose." What good thing is God trying to work in us? Verse 29 explains this, "For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the first-born among many brethren" (Romans 8:29). The word "predestined" means that God foreknew what it would take, (trials and pressures) for us to be conformed into the image of His Son. This is our high and holy calling. Many of the things that we suffer in life can't be blamed the devil or even result from the bad choices we have made. But it is God, in His love and wisdom, who is setting us up, so that we must overcome the problem! This is in order for us to become an overcomer and receive the prize of an overcomer, which is to sit with Jesus on His throne. If we have nothing to overcome, how can we become an overcomer? Who are the sons of God? He who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son" (Revelation 21:7).

COMING OUT OF GREAT TRIBULATION

". And he said to me, these are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:14 KJV).

It is clearly written that if we want to partake of the glory. we must partake of the suffering of Christ. "These are they that have come out of great tribulation."

"If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us" (2 Timothy 2:12 KJV).

Now read carefully Revelation 7:15, "For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne shall spread His tabernacle over them."

"FOR THIS REASON THEY ARE BEFORE THE THRONE." For what reason? They have suffered with Christ in His sufferings and were found faithful. Now, He has placed His glory over them. They do not have to go in and out of His presence, but can abide in His presence continually. This is their reward for dying to self in this earthly life. "And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, 'Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them" (Revelation 14:13). Blessed are we when we die to the self-life because we have now entered His rest, with no more striving in the flesh. Now our deeds will follow us because Jesus has rewarded us with His glory for our deeds done in the body. "For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and will then recompense every man according to his deeds" (Matthew 16:27).

TO GAIN HIS GLORY

"And it was for this He called you through our gospel, that you may gain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2 Thessalonians 2:14).

"According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue (power)" (2 Peter 1:3 KJV).

"So that you may walk in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory" (1 Thessalonians 2:12).

The greatest payment anyone can receive from Jesus is to have received a full revelation of His glory. Paul said, "So that you are not lacking in any gift, awaiting eagerly the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall also confirm you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 1:7-8). What are you seeking after in the world that could possibly compare to the experience of receiving a full revelation of Jesus in you? "When He comes to be glorified "in" His saints on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed for our testimony to you was believed" (2 Thessalonians 1:10). Oh, my friend, seek Him! Seek Him, that you may not be ashamed in the day of His revealing!

"Looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus" (Titus 2:13).

"And He did so in order that He might make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory" (Romans 9:23).

"I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints" (Ephesians 1:18).

"To whom God willed to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27).

"Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, as your fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed" (1 Peter 5:1).

"For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings" (Hebrews 2:10).

"For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; who will transform the body of our humble state into conformity with the body of His glory, by the exertion of the power that He has even to subject all things to Himself" (Philippians 3:20-21).

"Giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light (the glory)" (Colossians 1:12).

Over and over the Scriptures promise us His glory if we will just have faith and patience. "That you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises"

(Hebrews 6:12).

"It is impossible for God ever to prove false or deceive us, we who have fled [to Him] for refuge might have mighty indwelling strength and strong encouragement to grasp and hold fast the hope appointed for us and set before [us]. (Hebrews 6:18 AMP).

His promise and hope to us is the fullness of His Spirit. We now have only received the down payment of His Spirit. But, be assured that if He has placed His down payment in us, He will give us His fullness of glory soon!

"In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in and have adhered to and have relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long-promised Holy Spirit. That Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance - the first fruit, the pledge and foretaste, the down payment on our heritage - in anticipation of its full redemption and acquiring [complete] possession of it, to the praise of His glory" (Ephesians 1:13-14 AMP).

What is set before us is the greatest prize and reward of the ages. To receive it will be the greatest privilege there will ever be. We must set our goals much higher than if we are to receive the prize of the high calling of God. "I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:14).

"Not that I have already obtained it, or have already become perfect, but I press on in order that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:12).

"But I buffet my body and make it my slave, lest possibly, after I have preached to others, I myself should be disqualified" (1 Corinthians 9:27).

May God bless you with His strength and wisdom as you obey and press on toward the upward calling of God, into His glory!

Red Alert Call To Prayer

Burdell Austin

From Burdell Austin, US Spiritual Warfare Network Washington State Coordinator.

Two years ago many of you were involved in Operation Wall of Worship, a response to Bob Jones' prophetic word regarding The Lance of Basilisk.

Access "Seasons of the Basilisk" on the Internet:

<http://www.bobjones.org/> click Articles. Also, click on Intercessors for "Keys for Intercession Against Basilisk." If you do not have Internet access, I suggest access through your local library. This information is background for this RED ALERT CALL TO PRAYER.

Right after Operation WOW the Lord said, "Jim Creek." I have learned that Jim Creek is a military communications station. The Lord has directed me to gather a group of strategic intercessors at Jim Creek for a "summit meeting" with Him. This will take place August 25-26. In April the Lord said, "The Winds are really going to blow in September." I sensed that August would be a key time for intercessors to cooperate with the "Winds of the Spirit" and be instrumental in establishing what many prophets have spoken regarding the winds of change, healing, revival and harvest.

Today I received a message from the Temple Institute in Jerusalem by Rabbi Chaim Richman. It follows this RED ALERT. It gives an overview of this time frame throughout history and confirms a word the Lord spoke in May. He revealed that intercessors in the Northwest could raise the level of faith needed to usher in the prophesied unprecedented signs, wonders and miracles by dealing with the three- fold cord of Fear, Doubt and Unbelief.

Please note this key statement by Rabbi Richman, "It will be recalled that the spies returned on Tisha B'Av, and delivered an evil, FAITHLESS report to the people of Israel. With the exception of Joshua and Caleb, who valiantly attempted to rally the nation, these 10 spies turned the hearts and spirits of the people against the Land of Israel. Based on their OWN FEELINGS OF INADEQUACY, they saw danger and power where none existed. Returning to the people, they spoke "lashon ha'ra," evil speech against the Land. The nation accepted this report at face value and estranged themselves from G-d and His promises of Divine assistance."

Suggested strategy for this Season of Basilisk and on site "summit meeting" July 20 through the month of August: Fast as much as possible, as the Lord directs.

Pray for freedom from distractions and increased time to be alone with God.

Begin your focus on the Word with Psalm 91 and Isaiah 54. Trust the Lord to direct you from there and give fresh revelation in His Word as well as prophetic utterance. Please journal and declare what He gives you. Today my proclamation was from Ps. 54:17 "But no weapon that is formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment you shall show to be in the wrong. This (peace, righteousness, security, triumph over opposition) is the heritage of the servants of the Lord (those in whom the ideal Servant of the Lord is reproduced); this is the righteousness or the vindication which they obtain from Me (this is that which I impart to them as their justification), says the Lord." TAB New revelation came to me from the fullness of this Word. I sensed that I was thrusting a huge sword rather than a dagger by declaring the entire verse.

Enter into empathic repentance by asking the Holy Spirit to expose all your personal strongholds of fear, doubt and unbelief. As you confess and repent, ask forgiveness for the Body of Christ and Israel. Pray for an increase of the gift of faith.

Please pray for the strategic prayer team scheduled to hold the "summit meeting" with the Lord at Jim Creek August 25-26. May each one of these warriors have the same spirit as Joshua and Caleb. Pray for their ears to hear what the Spirit is saying and anointing to release prophetic intercession and declarations of faith.

A MESSAGE FROM THE TEMPLE INSTITUTE DATED JULY 19, 2000

Tomorrow, the Jewish people will observe the fast day of the 17th of Tammuz. It was on this day that Moses, descending from Mount Sinai and seeing the people of Israel reveling around the golden calf, cast the tablets of the Ten Commandments to the ground and broke them. Later in history, the walls of Jerusalem were breached on this same day, the Torah was burned, an idolatrous statue was placed in the Temple, and the daily sacrifices were suspended. This day marks the beginning of the three week period of national mourning which culminates with the solemn fast of Tisha B Av (the ninth day of the Hebrew month of Av), the day on which both the First and Second Temples were destroyed.

Although the destruction of the Holy Temple actually took place later, during the month of Av, our sages teach that the month in which we now find ourselves, the days of Tammuz, is considered a more severe time.

One reason for these negative associations with Tammuz is connected to the mission of the spies who were sent to the Land of Israel (Numbers 12). It will be recalled that the spies returned on Tisha B Av, and delivered an evil, faithless report to the people of Israel. With the exception of Joshua and Caleb, who valiantly attempted to rally the nation, these 10 spies turned the hearts and spirits of the people against the Land of Israel. Based on their own feelings of inadequacy, they saw danger and power where none existed. Returning to the people, they spoke "lashon ha ra," evil speech against the Land. The nation accepted this report at face value and estranged themselves from G-d and His promises of Divine assistance. Thus the entire calamitous episode of the spies rebellion against the Land of Israel and the people's rejection, was a result of seeing, speaking, and hearing evil.

The spies began their mission at the end of the month of Sivan, departing on the 29 day of that month, and returning on the ninth of Av. Thus, the last days of Sivan, and the first part of Av, were tainted to some extent by the roguish reconnaissance of the spies. But as for the month of Tammuz from the first day to the last, that period was completely taken up with their mission. The stain of the spies sortie inexorably affected each day in that month, and since then Tammuz has become a time fraught with difficulties.

Even at this writing, the mad spectacle of the Camp David "peace talks" continues. The very survival of the Jewish people is at stake, as our morally bereft leadership continues along a path of self-destruction, and promises our precious homeland to the enemy of the Jewish people in exchange for nothing. And in the meantime, the Palestinians are preparing for war and mayhem.

However, at the same time, Tammuz is also the month which features the longest day of the year the day with the most sunlight. It is merely an ironic coincidence that the month with the greatest propensity for spiritual darkness offers the most intense illumination?

This paradox is a reflection of the spiritual essence of the Jewish people and the secret of their survival. Even at the time of greatest darkness and opposition, the potential for redemption and the most powerful light is already inherent and rising.

The same is true of the magnificent generation in which we live. While some may decry it as base and lacking, in reality this generation is driven by a deep thirst for holiness and spiritual values. The current spiritual struggle being waged within Israel is being fought over the future of this singular generation for the outcome will determine the future character of the State of Israel, and the Jewish people.

Last Shabbat, which Prime Minister Barak spent in Camp David, we read the Torah's account of the heathen sorcerer Balaam who was hired by the Moabite King Balak to curse the Jewish people (Numbers 22). Like Camp David, this was also a "summit meeting" whose purpose was to bring about the destruction of Israel.

However, the Holy One of Israel changed Balaam's curse into a blessing, for "G-d is not a man, that he should lie." Instead of the powerful curses that Balak wanted delivered upon Israel, Balaam recited beautiful prophetic blessings. "How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling places, Israel" is a "curse" uttered by Balaam that has been incorporated into Israel's daily prayers. Thus here in Israel we took heart from the timing of this event and the corresponding weekly Torah portion.

At the very moment of this writing, Israel Radio has reported a news flash that Prime Minister Barak has decided to leave Camp David without signing an agreement, declining to even wait the 24 additional hours that President Clinton has requested for an extension. The report says it has become clear to Barak that the Palestinians are not acting as genuine partners.

Perhaps Prime Minister Barak, having heretofore mistakenly followed the path of the spies, and having shown fear and hesitation, has now decided to change his curse into a blessing. Or perhaps these reports of Barak's planned exit are nothing but a bluff, more misinformation, and that ultimately an agreement will be signed. An agreement that will disgrace Israel, endanger its future, place its children in jeopardy, and sell its birthright for emptiness but that will insure a peace prize for its signers.

In these uncertain days of Tammuz, we would do well to ponder the misdeeds of the spies, both ancient and modern. Let us seek to rectify their destructive actions, and to reverse the current trend of turning against the Land that G-d has promised us. Let us endeavor to see, speak, and hear no evil against the Land of Israel.

Red Hot Glory!

Mary Clark

5/23/00 9:41 p.m.

During intercession, the Lord showed me a hand putting a plug in a wall receptacle with a deliberate motion. What did this mean, Lord?

I want to explain something to My beloved tonight. I am making some changes across the face of the earth. I am taking some things, that you once looked on as beneficial to your walk, and removing them. I am taking some other things, that you once looked on as not beneficial, and placing them in strategic locations in your life where you will see the hand of your God move powerfully!

This is the hour to look on the work of the Almighty God with high expectations. For truly I am doing a mighty work of manifesting My glory in the life of My beloved. This is the hour to recognize the glory of your God as what it truly is: a glorious manifestation of the presence of your God, igniting a flame in your heart that will set your heart on FIRE. How many of you would like for your heart to be on FIRE for your God? How many of you would like to see the plans and purposes of your God develop free and easy in your lives? I am speaking to you today about putting the plug in the receptacle and letting the power come. And come it will, beloved. Come it will! For there is no power like the power of your God, enabling you to move forward into His presence and seeing His glory abounding in your heart.

I am speaking to you today about a glorious union - the glorious power of your God coming into your heart and igniting that certain spark that will enable you to burn HOT and BRIGHT for the living God. That is what I am doing at this hour, beloved. You are definitely going to see the glory of your God shine BRIGHT and HOT in your midst, for I am igniting the spark that will enable you to shine forth the glory of your God.

Your God is about to manifest Himself in your lives in His brilliant glory. He is about to rain hot coals of fire from the heavens and show the world that the living God is all- powerful and is setting a deliberate motion in the world that will get some attention. This is the hour to look on the holy work of your God in your heart and say these words to Me: " Truly, Lord, You have done all that You promised. Truly, You have ignited the flame in my heart to burn bright and hot for You. I want You to know, Lord, that I intend to stay in this avenue of faith with You, because You intend for me to. I want You to know that I appreciate Your kind intentions toward my heart. I want to see Your will manifested in the lives of Your children in a blaze of RED HOT GLORY. This is the desire of my heart, Father. This is surely the design of your will."

Now beloved child, I want you to know that I have placed the plug in the receptacle. The current is flowing. It is flowing with speed and accuracy into every willing heart. There is no turning back this current. It is an ever-ready flow of the presence of your God, streaming forth into your heart and pronouncing on you the power and strength to go forth speedily into the direction of My fame - My fame being proclaimed through My beloved, explaining the glory of the living God as it comes into focus on the face of the earth. Yes! I have put the plug in the receptacle. The flow has begun, beloved. There will be no disconnecting. There will be no interruption in the activity that this connection will incur. For your Lord God has spoken and His will is to be portrayed through His children during this glorious and fitting time of mighty and eternal demonstration. I am pulling no punches, beloved. I am holding back not a second longer. The flow of My glory has begun. It is igniting hearts all across the face of the earth. It will do all that I have sent it to accomplish. It will bring all to pass that My heart longs to see. Remember, beloved: Your God has set something wonderful in motion and there is NO stopping it - not now, tomorrow, or EVER!!!

Refining Fire

Gil Diekhoff

Diekhoff\_Gil\_P@CAT.com

I saw a large home that was on fire. The interior of the home was totally engulfed in flames and both fire and smoke were pouring out of the windows and roof. It was night time. The glow from the fire filled the area with moving light and an accompanying roaring sound. There was a large number of firemen there. Most were involved with trying to put the fire out, but there seemed to be a good number who were standing back and watching the fire. These that were standing back, looked tired and dirty already, soot and sweat streaming down their faces. I could see in their faces that they had little hope of being able to put out the fire.

Suddenly, one of the firefighters (one who was back resting and watching) seemed to make some kind of decision. I could see a look of determination on his face and there was a gleam of hope in his eyes. He purposely strode toward the burning house and without looking over his shoulder, disappeared into the smoke and flames which filled the house.

Those who were fighting the fire did not notice that one of their brothers had gone into the house. Those who had been resting watched tensely, the expectancy and worry obvious on their faces. Finally, another one of the resting firemen, apparently not able to wait any longer, rushed into the roaring flames.

Then, I saw one of the firemen emerge from the house. It was an awesome sight, as it was like I had been holding my breath the whole time, waiting for him to come back out again. For just a moment, I was so happy to see him come out, that the details of what I saw did not register.

First of all, the firefighter was no longer dressed like a firefighter. He was not wearing all of the gear normally associated with a fireman. In fact, as far as I could tell, he wasn't wearing any clothes at all, but was dressed completely in a glorious light. He had been transformed into something different. Then I noticed that he was carrying a small child, an infant, in his arms. Both were unharmed. It was one of the most amazing things I have ever seen and it filled my heart with an overwhelming joy. That was when I noticed that many of the firefighters were now going into the blaze, and many were coming out again having gone through the same transformation and all of them were carrying small children when they emerged. The stream of firemen going into and coming out of the house, seemed to be never ending.

The Lord began to explain that this was a refining fire, it was His fire. It was consuming the things of this world. The house was physical, temporal, of this world. He told me that when we overcame the bondage of fear and made the decision to lay down our lives, to risk entering the fire, that He would preserve us while we were in the fire. The fire was indeed a life/death situation, in that it killed the flesh, but brought forth the spirit, in life. The fire cleansed and purified us while we were in it, until we emerged covered with and emitting the glory of the Lord. When we finally emerged, we would be freed of all the temporal things of the world. We would no longer need them (the fireman,s gear/clothing). All of that was consumed in the fire. It is interesting to note, that although the Lord did not specifically say anything about it being night, that the light "of our refining" was shining into a "world covered in darkness." I believe Isaiah 60 to be a prophetic word for this time, and believe that that is why I saw the house burning at night.

He also told me that as we emerged from the fire, we would be bringing forth a new child into the Kingdom. We were in effect, helping to birth and then deliver a new child into the Kingdom of God. Each one who went through the fire was responsible, in part, for the deliverance of this child. I believe that the Lord was speaking of the man child spoken of in the 12th chapter of Revelation. It is the body of Christ, under the leadership of the head of that body, which is to rule the nations. It is also interesting to note, that in the vision, those who were fighting to put the fire out, were not having much if any success, and were unaware of what the other group of firemen were doing. They continued to battle the blaze, but could not put it out. Our God is a refining fire. John the Baptist said that Jesus "came to baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire." My pastor says that we will all go through the fire. We can submit to it willingly, and if not, God is happy to give us a little nudge or even a push. Regardless of how, it will happen to all, sooner or later.

Regaining The Confidence

Undrai Fizer

The Church must go through a period of regaining confidence in our renewed relationship with God. You would be surprised to know how many people form congregations in America that lack a passionate security in the power of God.

Common sense has replaced faith. Human will has replaced Spirit-led direction. There are those who relate to God only in a spiritual bondage. They cannot relate to the liberty and power that flows from the connection to God.

Terms like "prayer, faith, ministry, and fellowship" have seemed to lose their impact. This is a time where faith in God is seemingly outdated and over-hyped. Religious ritual and dogmas have spread like wildfire in our churches today. Allegiances to unscriptural teachings, personal preferences and opinion have snuffed out the mighty hand of God in some regions.

It seems like anything other than "Christian" is the stronger and most sought after. The mindset of ministry being weak and unable to relate to the changing times and seasons is growing into various cultures, and even to members of the churches themselves!

Is there a word from God in these times? Is there a different way to release the powers of God in the regions and regain the confidence of church? Or, were they really part of the church?

There are those who have been fed of wrong, but sincere, measures. There are those who have thought they accepted the Lord, but have had their faith and allegiance "crash land" in a field of doubt, worry, and despair! "What have we done? Is there a word from God in these times?"

No matter how sincere the teaching, if it was wrong, IT'S WRONG! The "sincerely wrong" may give you fellowship with people, but you will lose your hunger for the perfect reality of God. The "sincerely wrong" may give you church membership, but you will be ignorant of the present truth and movements of God in the earth. The "sincerely wrong" will teach you about God, but you will live life not knowing God and who He is in you!

Is there a word from God in these times? Is there a people who have been entrusted with the revelation of the life of God and walk in it? They know they are not perfect, but they possess the perfect hunger for the life of Him.

There are true teachers out there who must fight against the first, but wrong impression of God that has been embedded in the hearts of men and even those in the church, who have placed the authority of their lives in the "sincerely wrong" government of a church and movement built by a good man or woman who "only knew to do what they knew to do"...

That is no fault to men and women who gave their lives to express their gifts and limited knowledge to the church. However, in this prophetic session of life that we live, the ministry of the Kingdom should be fully expressed to the max! This is a season of the Holy Spirit reactivating ministry and truth to a new level of personal inventory and allegiance.

Who and what do we belong to -- the "sincerely wrong" or Living Truth? You will finally see if God is really impacting your life, or if we are "just paying our religious dues." Do we believe in the power of God and do we believe we have His power inside of us?

Is there a word from God in these times? Is there a word that will rekindle our confidence, not just an accepted, but unapplied principle, in God?

You see, there are things about God that we accept as truth, but it's a truth that we do not live or embrace! We read and accept that we are sons of God, but is that revelation a living, everyday experience?

But, there is a people who believe. These people are here in the earth, right now! They are perceived to be "out there" and unbalanced. They are highly misunderstood and looked at as "heavenly minded, but no earthly good." They have hungered for something that a good man or good woman cannot give them.

Just as the Word says that Abraham looked for a city "whose Builder and Maker is God, a city not made with hands," there is a people who are hungry for something a good service or dogma cannot make! They are hungry for something that "hype" cannot make. Only God can fulfill this hunger.

There is a people who have a hard time getting to God because of the "church terms and words" that still seem ineffective (i.e., prayer, fellowship, revival, etc.) They do not want a "churchy glory." They want His Glory. They are tired of a person "incorporating the Glory" and becoming the sole owner of the Glory. That time is over, simply over...

Is there a word from God in these times? Yes, I believe there is. Can you hear it?

Relationships

Jim Rinker

Recognizing and Overcoming Satan's Schemes to Destroy Relationships

The Lord has set forth a certain order in which He chooses to build His house. That order has several levels of understanding which encompass how each living stone is to be set perfectly into the building RELATIONALLY to fit His master plan. That order includes relationships on ALL levels (individual, family, between callings and gifting, corporately within a local body, and between churches)

His house is His bride which is made up of individual "living stones" that He is bonding together with the mortar of His love. The mortar that holds the stones together is our relationships to each other IN CHRIST JESUS. The mortar itself consists of a divine mixture of the fruits of the Spirit which are described in both Galatians 5:22-23 and 1 Corinthians 13:4-8.

Galatians 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8a Charity suffereth long, [and] is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, 5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; 6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; 7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8 Charity never faileth

So foundation ally the building is only as strong as the living stones with which it is built with. Therefore, as one "stone" hurts, the whole building suffers due to the connection we have to one another and our need to make sure each "living stone" is strong and healthy. In addition, the building is only as strong as the mortar which holds the stones together. A wall that is mortared together properly is AS ONE STONE and is extremely strong and durable. The building itself that the Lord is building which is HIS HOUSE can be viewed pictorially as a pyramid. Scripturally, Jesus is referred to as both a capstone and a cornerstone.

Luke 20:17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

Ephesians 2:20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner [stone]

1 Peter 2:6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

Only one building has a stone which can be both a corner and capstone and that is a pyramid. Jesus Himself therefore is a reflection of what the glorious building will look like when it's finished because the detached capstone is a pyramid. The house will directly reflect Jesus Himself in both character and nature.

Paul teaches us concerning this glorious building that:

Ephesians 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, [even] Christ 16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Jesus is that head which we are being grown up into so that we may reflect the very image of the capstone. Once the building is finished, that is to say, once we all come to the full stature or measure of a man (full maturity) then the capstone (which is Jesus) will be set on the building and it will be complete.

Ephesians 4:13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ

So the stones of the building then are being set IN ORDER so that the building may be completed and perfectly reflect the head which is Jesus. The building needs to be viewed as a "living organism" rather than an inanimate object. What do I mean by that? The building in being ALIVE then is capable of carrying out a function, a function which can only function to it's full capacity when each piece is set in it's proper position. If one part is not set in order or is weak then the body cannot function to it's full capacity.

Satan knows this so he has devised a counterattack to prevent this glorious building from being built. The counterattack is divide and conquer. His first priority is to prevent the building from being built. He knows that once built and fully functional he is powerless against it.

Matthew 16:18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

In addition to dividing the stones and keeping them from coming together, he will also pervert the building by placing the stones OUT OF ORDER that the body cannot function to it's full capacity or in a perverted manner. So the battle really lies at the FOUNDATIONAL LEVEL. It is more than a unidimensional project because the stones not only need to be placed in relationship but IN RIGHT RELATIONSHIP or a SPECIFIC ORDER.

The two foundations being attacked at this time are our personal walk with Jesus and our relationships IN CHRIST to one another. if these can either be prevented or perverted then the glorious building will also be dysfunctional and perverted.

The first foundation has to do with the strength of the individual stone. The stone is only as strong as the degree to which it was been subject to the Lord's molding and shaping process. So this first foundation is our relationship with Jesus and is counterattacked by the divide and conquer scheme through offenses. The greek word for offense is [4625] skandalon and is the trigger mechanism by which we are caused to stumble or fall away from the pathway. The "offense" is sent by the enemy to divide or separate us from our relationship with the Lord.

Offenses are counterattacked by love and desire. Offenses "need be" as Jesus stated:

Luke 17:1 Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offenses will come: but woe [unto him], through whom they come!

They are turned "for good" when they are allowed to deal with our personal issues that separate us from the fulness of relationship with Jesus and when the offense is used to build passion and desire and an overcoming spirit within us.

The second foundation is likewise attacked through offenses. Satan, knowing that the building is only as strong as the mortar that holds the stones together, has made this a battleground. If the stones can be kept apart or unglued then the building will not function as it should and in many cases in a perverted manner if the stones are glued together out of order. He does this on the individual level, family level, corporate level, between churches, gifting, and callings. Individuals are the "living stones" but in addition we can view 'the prophetic' as a living stone or "the teachers" or "the local body". So relationships as defined here transcend one on one relationships and are also multidimensional.

I want to address five ways we give the enemy "footholds" to cause the offense to turn into a division. This list is by no means complete but I rather offer some simple ways by which we give the enemy ground to cause division and simple counter-measures to take this ground away.

1. Misunderstanding

The word misunderstanding can be taken as "missed" understanding or lack of understanding. It is when we do not properly understand what another person or group of people either said or intended. The Lord said in:

Hosea 4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge

If I do not understand what another person said or intended and I do not ask them (relationship) what they meant or intended then I can open the door wide to IMAGINATIONS. Imaginations are in the realm of the enemy. They operate in our mind and are false thoughts that are planted in our minds to pervert what we do not understand. Knowledge and understanding come from the Lord and He promises us wisdom if we ask.

James 1: 5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all [men] liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

Often times that wisdom comes in the form of simply asking the other person what they meant rather than a direct word of knowledge. This keeps us humble and forces us to relate to one another, especially when we don't want to.

2. Assumption

Assumption breeds from misunderstanding. It is a foothold that is gained when we REFUSE to ask the Lord for wisdom and knowledge or we REFUSE to rightly relate to one another. Assumption is built on lies and therefore what we think is then dictated upon lies rather than truth. Assumption works hand in hand with IMAGINATION and festers as a oozing wound that becomes much in need of healing.

Jesus told us that it would be the truth that set us free. When we fully know those things which were intended instead of what we speculate then we be set free from the prison houses of our imaginations and the bondage's that keep us divided.

3. Unwillingness to Relate

Misconception often forms when we are simply unwilling to relate to one another properly and ask simple questions like 'what did you mean by that' or "I did not fully understand that statement" or "why did you do that". Simple relational questions like these asked in a spirit of true seeking can quench a potential fire!

4. Lack of Clarity

We are taught about are words:

James 3: 2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same [is] a perfect man, [and] able also to bridle the whole body. 3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. 4 Behold also the ships, which though [they be] so great, and [are] driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! 6 And the tongue [is] a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

Often we speak words that are not washed and are a stumbling block and cause for provocation. This is one major way the tongue needs to be tamed. On another level though, many times we simply "speak our minds" and are not real clear, concise, or bold about what we say and the very way we say things often causes confusion or doubt in the mind of the hearer. Without adding "understanding" or "qualification" we open wide the door for offense, especially when dealing with younger brothers and sisters in Christ.

In addition, we say things which simply should not be said like a parent using words too big and complicated for a child to understand then getting mad that the child does not understand. Words or concepts that have not been submitted to the Father for his approval on release fit this description and instead of bringing life only bring confusion.

5. Lack of Vision

Individual goals within an organization are built upon the corporate goals and must be in the context of those goals. The Lord's kingdom is no different. Many times we simply choose to not come into right "relationship" with the body because we have lost our vision for the Lord's corporate goal or raising up a bride without spot or wrinkle. Because of that lack of vision we then choose to refuse to submit ourselves to the body (one another).

Love covers a multitude of sins. This love is specifically directed towards the Lord. Our joy is to be tied up in His joy, what makes Him happy makes us happy. If we love Him we will then strive to see that His deepest desires are met, one in particular being the raising up of the bride. A regaining of our vision and purpose will place us back into right relationship with one another and thus back into a mode were we are building His house.

The bottom line for the body is that we really need to simply grow up and as we cultivate our relationship with the Lord and allow the fruit of the spirit to bond us together in the mortar of His love the offenses will cease to affect us and cause division. As we recognize the divisive plans of the enemy and choose to walk in love rather than give the enemy "place" we will see the Lord do a quick work in this last hour and the glorious bride raised up to full stature for the Lord's good pleasure.

May the Lord bless you as you continue to press into His highest purposes.

THE REMNANT

Celia R. Okhuysen - USA

"...there shall be left in it a remnant who will be brought out..." (Ezek. 14:22)

INTRODUCTION

Dream of January 22, 1990. This dream portrays the remnant Church in America emerging unharmed from a catastrophic nuclear attack. God guides the remnant Church through the post nuclear attack aftermath and confirms His foretold destruction upon a once great nation, the Lady of Kingdoms (Isa. 47:5). The Interpretation, Interpretive Scriptures, and my Personal Testimony follow this dream. (See also Spanish Pastor [Father] Juan Paul Valdez' interesting prediction about nuclear WW 3: <http://www.greatdreams.com/juan.htm>)

DREAM

It was nighttime, and totally dark. However, I was able to clearly distinguish what I saw. I stood in the midst of a vast scorched environment on the side of a road watching a multitude of people of various ages approaching from the left. These men and women wore current western style clothing and appeared strong and healthy. No two persons walked together, nor did any one person talk to another. Their total silence was most extraordinary, and more interestingly, there were wide spaces of approximately five feet between each person. I did not recognize anyone, and after observing them for a while, I suddenly found myself walking in their midst.

The landscape and environment through which we walked were one of total devastation. A catastrophic event had occurred that left the environment, buildings, homes, properties and landscape in ruins. There was no evidence of electricity or burning bon fires in the dark anywhere. Uniquely, we were able to observe even the smallest details of the horrendous destruction around us near and far away in the moonless night. We walked through what probably had been either neighborhoods, large metropolitan areas, large and small places of commerce, and perhaps some recreational parks. We also walked in the midst of wide-open fields with only a few occasional houses' or buildings' foundations remaining in the midst of the rubble. There was no sign of life nor evidence of skeletal remains. (In a more current dream I saw several TREMENDOUS fire explosions occurring throughout the vast landscape, one explosion after another. I also saw people, properties and buildings go up in flames. Evidently, these explosions were nuclear missile strikes. People turned into torches right before my eyes. Properties, buildings, vehicles, etc. erupted into flames while I stood in the midst of an inferno as a mere observer. I was not burned or harmed.)

As we walked, we repeatedly glanced to the left and to the right. No one paused, or slowed down. It seemed as though we were on a conducted tour. Countless enormous and smaller buildings' steel girders were greatly twisted out of shape or practically melted. Almost unrecognizable were cars, trucks, public transportation vehicles and other types of transportation of all various sizes whose steel frames were bent out of shape and totally contorted. They had been destroyed by intense heat. Highways and overhead highway passes were broken apart, disconnected or nonexistent for the exception of the remaining, almost total or partially "decapitated," vertical cement supports. We witnessed utter devastation, charred ruins, chaos and desolation.

Throughout all that we attentively observed, no one spoke a word or expressed a mournful sound. We seemed to have an understanding of what had occurred, and were not grieved about it. We often looked up to observe remains of what at one time must have been tall buildings. We looked around at all the debris and wreckage that laid everywhere. Yet, and strangely, however, we walked on a very wide unlittered path. It was as though a newly paved road had been laid down in the midst of the ruins for us to walk on while we observed the surrounding chaos. It was an endless observation of charred destruction, endless ruins, rubble and ashes. These sights were all too familiar to many of us. Still, no one spoke, and the eerie silence continued except for the sound of our footsteps.

After an endless period of observation we began to see a faint hint of dawning light in the sky ahead of us. We changed our focus of interest and directed our attention ahead as the sky quickly became brighter. We sensed excitement building up in our midst as we became focused on the sky. Then, instantly, we were all dressed in long white robes! I quickly became aware that we were walking on wide open white grounds. We began to revel in the increasing brightness of the sky with tremendous excitement while running and sounding forth loud boisterous cries of joy while repeatedly crying out, "JESUS!" We became delirious with excitement and ran toward an even more overwhelming Light, almost as if we were soaring. While the Lord Jesus did not appear before us in person, we instantly knew that THIS WAS THE RAPTURE!

INTERPRETATION

The multitude of men and women coming out of the post nuclear attack ruins and destructions are the salt preservative within America: the remnant Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. (See Ezek. 14:12-23 in Interpretive Scriptures.) This is in line with what the Lord had told me in June 1998 as I was about to post <http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/gjoa-2.html> that summer: "My Church will be kept here to preserve this nation during its judgment." Their presence and faithful integrity (see Job 27:3-6) during America's nuclear attack preserves her from total extinction, after which man will still be able to walk throughout the land, even as scorched and desolate as it will become.

MATTHEW 5 (13) "You are the salt of the earth."

MARK 9 (50) "Salt [integrity] is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace with one another."

I compare what I saw in this dream to post WW II bombed out sites and post atomic destroyed environments of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in Japan. The destruction of a once thriving culture and illustrious nation which had been mightily blessed by God, a giant among nations, was tragic. Her shining glory had departed. Words fail me in trying to further describe these doomed and catastrophic scenes. They were horrendous to behold, and this emerging multitude of men and women are the remnant Church to whom God had previously revealed His declared judgment upon America (Babylon) in His Word (Jeremiah 50, 51; Revelation 18) as well as through visions, dreams and prophecies. They had already grieved in their hearts through prayer about this approaching calamity as God had repeatedly revealed it to them. However, it was futile to pray against it because "it was written" in God's Word. Their call as watchmen was to warn the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth and the world of impending judgment. (Ezek. 3:16-21) What they now witnessed was the full prophesied manifestation of God's wrath (His JUSTIFIED spent anger) upon a disobedient, faithless, sinful, decadent and rebellious nation because she had wilfully departed from God, rejected His Word, and mocked His grace. (Yet, all along she sang, "God Bless America.") She had legalized the killing of babies in the womb through abortion; legally ruled prayer unconstitutional in the schools and banned the public display of the Ten Commandments throughout the nation; openly exhibited acceptance and approval of sodomy, even the ordaining of homosexual ministers and performing homosexual marriages in some of the churches, and then allowing those couples to adopt children; abandoned herself to material idolatry, and prostrated herself to the worship of money. The tragedy of it all was that on her currency she had once declared "IN GOD WE TRUST" and yet that same currency became HER trust which she worshiped as her god. (Continue with the following scripture of Romans 1:24-32)

INTERPRETATIVE SCRIPTURES -- NKJV

ROMANS 1 (24) Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, (25) who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. (26) For this reason God gave them up to vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature [lesbianism]. (27) Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful [homosexuality], and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due. (28) And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting; (29) being filled with all unrighteousness [sinfulness], sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness [greed], maliciousness [spitefulness, bitterness]; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers [gossips], (30) backbiters [slanderers], haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, (31) undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving, unmerciful; (32) who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of [eternal] death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them.

PSALM 46 (8) Come, behold the works of the Lord, who has made desolations in the earth. (10) Be still, and know that I am God;...

PSALM 76 (7) You, Yourself, are to be feared; and who may stand in Your presence when once You are angry? (8) You caused judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared and was still, (9) when God arose to judgment...

JEREMIAH 18 (7) "The instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it, (8) if that nation against whom I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I thought to bring upon it. (9) And the instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to build it and to plant it, (10) if it does evil in My sight so that it does not obey my voice, then I will relent concerning the good with which I said I would benefit it. (11) Now therefore, speak,...saying, 'Thus says the Lord: "Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good." ' ' (12) And they said, "That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one obey the dictates of his evil heart."

MATTHEW 23 (34) "Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes..."

LUKE 10 (16) "He who hears you [My servants] hears Me, he who rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

JEREMIAH 25 (4) And the Lord has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear. (5) They said, "Repent now everyone of his evil way and his evil doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord has given to you and your fathers forever. (6) 'Do not go after other gods to serve them and worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will not harm you.' (7) Yet you have not listened to Me," says the Lord, "that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt."

ISAIAH 5 (20) Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! (21) Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! (24) Therefore, as the fire devours the stubble, and the flame consumes the chaff, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom will ascend like dust; because they have rejected the law of the Lord of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. (25) Therefore the anger of the Lord is aroused...He has stretched out His hand against them and stricken them...

JEREMIAH 22 (6) For thus says the Lord...(8) "And many nations will pass by this city [nation]; and everyone will say to his neighbor, 'Why has the Lord done so to this great city?' (9) Then they will answer, 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.' "

ISAIAH 3 (9) The look on their countenance witnesses against them, and they declare their sin as Sodom; they do not hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have brought evil upon themselves.

ISAIAH 1 (9) Unless the Lord of hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been made like Gomorrah.

EZEKIEL 14 (12) The word of the Lord came again to me, saying: (13) "Son of man, when a land sins against Me by persistent unfaithfulness, I will stretch out My hand against it; I will cut off its supply of bread, send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it. (14) Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness," says the Lord God. (15) If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they empty it, and make it so desolate that no man may pass through because of the beasts, (16) even though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord God, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters [backslidden Christians and the apostate Church]; only they would be delivered, and the land would be desolate. (17) Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land,' and I cut off man and beast from it, (18) even though these three men were in it, as I live," says the Lord God, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be delivered. (19) Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out My fury on it in blood, and cut off from it man and beast, (20) even though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live," says the Lord God, "they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness....(22) Yet behold, there shall be left in it a remnant who will be brought out, both [My] sons and daughters; surely they will come out to you,...Then you will be comforted concerning the disaster that I have brought...(23) And they will comfort you, when you see their ways and their doings; and you shall know that I have done nothing without cause that I have done in it," says the Lord God.

ISAIAH 3 (24) And so it shall be: instead of a sweet smell there will be a stench; instead of a sash, a rope; instead of well-set hair, baldness; instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty. (25) Your men shall fall by the sword, and your might [power; strength] in the war. (26) Her [America, the Babylon of Rev. 18] gates shall lament and mourn, and she being desolate shall sit on the ground [lie in ruins].

LAMENTATIONS 5 (15) The joy of our heart has ceased; our dance has turned into mourning. (16) The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned!

EZEKIEL 12 (21) And the word of the Lord came to me, saying, (22) "Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land...which says, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'? (23) Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord God: "I will lay this proverb to rest, and they shall no more use it as a proverb..." But say to them, "the days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. (24) For no more shall there be any false vision or flattering divination...(25) For I am the Lord, I speak, and the word which I speak will come to pass; it will no more be postponed; for in your days...I will say the word and perform it," says the Lord God.' "... (28) "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: "None of My words will be postponed any more but the word which I speak will be done," says the Lord God.' "

EZEKIEL Chapter 7 [The reader is well advised to read and study this extremely graphic chapter which describes the Babylonian conquest over Israel. It is a preceding present day commentary on what America (Babylon) will soon endure through great woe, humiliation and suffering.]

JEREMIAH 17 (5) Thus says the Lord: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart departs from the Lord. (6) For he shall be like a shrub in the desert,... (7) Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, and whose hope is the Lord. (9) The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it? (10) I, the Lord, search the heart, I test the mind, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings." (13) O Lord, the hope of Israel, all who forsake You shall be ashamed. "Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth [dust and ashes] because they have forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters."

ROMANS 1 (18) For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, (19) because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. (20) For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, (21) because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. (22) Professing to be wise, they became fools, (23) and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man--the birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.

ACTS 10 (42) "And He [Jesus] commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge of the living and the dead. (43) To Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, whoever believes in Him will receive remission [forgiveness] of sins."

ROMANS 6 (23) For the wages of sin is [eternal] death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

JOHN 5 (19) Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. (20) For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel. (21) For as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, even so the Son gives life to whom He will. (22) For the Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son, (23) that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him. (24) Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from [eternal] death into [eternal] life.

JOHN 11 (25) Jesus said..."I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. (26) And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die."

JOHN 14 (6) Jesus said..."I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

MATTHEW 11 (28) "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. (29) Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. (30) For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

ACTS 4 (12) Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.

ROMANS 10 (13) For whoever calls upon the name of the Lord [Jesus Christ] shall be saved.

PERSONAL TESTIMONY

During a desperate time in my life and not knowing Christ as my Savior, I dreamt three powerful and vivid dreams in May, June and July of 1975 which are too lengthy to describe. Briefly, in the first dream I was told that I had to change my ways. (I was deeply involved in the occult and witchcraft.) In the second dream, Jesus appeared before me and beckoned me to come to Him. The third dream was as follows: an enormous ancient book of an approximate size of twenty-four inches in length by sixteen inches in width, and about eight inches thick materialized before me, suspended in mid-air. A golden aura surrounded the enormous Ancient Book. With the bound edge of the book to the left, the black leather cover opened from right to left by itself. I beheld O-L-D ivory colored pages with Hebrew writing neatly written on each page. I had seen many Jewish newspapers when I lived in New York City and recognized Hebrew writing. (A Hebrew book is read in reverse; the bound edge of the book is at the right. Therefore, I was being shown this book starting at the end. Since I am living in the end time, that was the stage from where God wanted to begin His instruction in the Ancient Book, slowly taking my understanding back in time to where He had already foretold and made His sovereign declarations.) As ancient as this book was, there wasn't one smeared, creased, torn, dog-eared or a corner-ripped page. It was absolutely perfect in appearance. The same powerful Voice that spoke to me in the first dream began to speak in an instructive tone and said, "From this time on I will..." and then the Voice continued, however, speaking in a different language which I did not understand. I stood before the Ancient Book intently looking at each page while the Voice spoke instructively without end. The dream seemed endless and the pages continued turning by themselves, one at a time, momentarily pausing so that I could quickly gaze at both pages. Eventually this seemingly eternal dream faded while the awesome Voice was still speaking in the strange language.

Thereafter, for a whole year following those stunning dreams, I entered into a deeply anguished walk under the shadow of death. Those dreams were instrumental in preparing and leading me to finally understand that my deepest need was God's grace, mercy, hope, peace and strength found only in His Son, Jesus Christ. I responded to Jesus' beckoning call in the dream of June 1975, accepted Him as my Savior, and surrendered my heart and my life to Him fourteen months later on August 30, 1976. I received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit on October 11, 1976. From that time forth, the Lord has ministered to me not only through His Word, but through dreams which continue to this day. From 1989 to 1994, I received a series of dreams which made absolutely no sense to me. I did, however, discern that most of them were end time dreams. The Holy Spirit prompted me to write and file them away. During an approximate period between 1994 and 1997, it never failed that whenever I opened any Bible anywhere it almost always fell open to the Book of Jeremiah! After this began to occur repeatedly I discerned in my spirit that the Holy Spirit was prompting me to read Jeremiah. I did, and also reviewed both the major and minor prophets until He called me to begin research work on the Web in May 1997 for <http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/gjoa-1.html> and other subsequent posted dreams on the Web. Also in the fall of 1997, through a pastor, He prompted me to begin working on those dreams I had filed away a few years earlier. (I sought interpretative assistance from Pastor Paula Cavu for only <http://www.do-you-love-me.org/wsomers/ju9h.html>.)

Since 1997 I have searched the scriptures so as to present those which the Holy Spirit shows me agree with what God is revealing in each dream and is saying to the Church. I am deeply convicted in my spirit that part of those instructive words which the Voice spoke to me in the third dream of July 1975 have a strong and overwhelming objective toward this end. Therefore, I urge (exhort) my brothers and sisters in Christ to heed (pay attention to) God's Word in these crucial and spiritually quenched desperate times we are living in. Do not be deceived, and do not lean on the arm of the flesh or on your own understanding. Judgment upon America is at hand. Listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and heed the Word of God as declared in:

Heb. 3 (7) Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you will hear His voice, (8) do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of trial in the wilderness, (9) where your fathers tested Me, tried Me, and saw My works forty years. (10) Therefore I was angry with that generation, and said, 'They always go astray in their heart, and they have not known My ways.' (11) So I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest.' " (12) Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; (13) but exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. (14) For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, (15) while it is said: "Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

Heb. 4 (11) Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. (12) For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. (13) And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Repositioning

Marsha Burns

April 17, 2000:

Haven't I told you I'm bringing you into My order? I am repositioning you spiritually so that I can reveal Myself more completely to you. In fact, I am releasing revelation in your midst like a river, and you can either be a spectator and watch others get in the river to be partakers of My divine revelation, or you can be a participator. This is the river that flows out of the Temple of God, whose temple you are. Out of your innermost being will flow rivers of living water. It will bubble out of dry ground as only a trickle, then will begin to flow out. If you are careful not to stop the flow, this river of life will become so deep and move so quickly that all you can do is go with the flow. This is the river of My Spirit flowing out of you. By My Spirit, you will both produce this flow of living water, and enjoy and move with the flow of revelation as it flows from others. Come on in; the water is fine!

April 18, 2000:

Today is a new day. Let Me wash away all defilement. For I say, you have been defiled by the things that have been communicated to you, not only by hearing the spoken word, but by reading. Consider where you have been and what you have allowed to come into your being by the words, attitudes and motives of others. Consider also the things that you have spoken that have not been edifying. Repent; turn from speaking idle words, for you surely will give account in the day of judgment. Come to Me for a cleansing. For indeed, I will wash you whiter than snow. I will remove this filth from you. Let me take that subtle feeling of embarrassment from you, and restore you. Let all things hidden be brought fully into the light and revealed, for this is righteousness. Psalm 51:1-4, "Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done this evil in Your sight; that You may be found just when You speak, and blameless when You judge."

April 19, 2000:

Psalm 23:1-3, "The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake."

I had a vision of the Lord as our Shepherd leading His sheep to a quiet and peaceful pasture. Those who were watching Him arose and followed to a place of rest. But, there were sheep who were butting each other, crowding each other and generally creating confusion and chaos. They were jealous and angry and didn't even notice that the Lord had moved His flock to another pasture. They were too busy beating each other up to even notice that He was gone.

And, He says, rise up out of this place of strife and contention. Be done with wrangling and jealousy. It is foolishness to compare yourselves among yourselves. I am leading you to higher places where I can pour out greater revelation of My kingdom, but you cannot receive it unless your heart is prepared. And, your heart cannot be prepared as long as you are in contention and chaos. You must quiet your soul and focus your attention on Me instead of your current circumstances.

April 21, 2000:

The cities lie in ruins, the walls are a heap and the gates have been removed. Lawlessness abounds and the land lies desolate. The young ones are loose in the streets like a pack of jackals. They roam and hunt and bring destruction. They are empty-headed fools. They rise in the morning having no vision or hope for good. Yet, I will descend upon them with a mighty clap of thunder and will open their ears to hear the deafening roar of My chariots upon the mountains. I will open their eyes to see the destruction that awaits them, and they will tremble in fear and fall to their knees crying out for help in the day of their distress. For, I am coming with a vengeance, and the day of visitation is at hand. I will bring an utter end to their foolishness and anarchy. I have arisen out of My holy habitation. I will reveal the mighty power of My right arm and call forth My army.

April 22, 2000:

I kept seeing a vision of a hot-air balloon. It was big and colorful, but it was still anchored and floating only a few feet off the ground. The Lord says, clap your hand over your mouth, for a haughty spirit is unbecoming a child of the Living God. Humble yourself and let My character and nature prevail in you. Refuse to be moved to speak great swelling words of emptiness, for pride is nothing more than being puffed up with empty, hot air. Come back down to reality. Repent of this deception.

Zephaniah 3:11-13,

"In that day you shall not be shamed for any of your deeds in which you transgress against Me; For then I will take away from your midst those who rejoice in your pride, and you shall no longer be haughty in My holy mountain. I will leave in your midst a meek and humble people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. The remnant of Israel shall do no unrighteousness and speak no lies, nor shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they shall feed their flocks and lie down, and no one shall make them afraid."

Resurrection Power

Dennis E Share

I humbly submit this after reading the Hollie Moody vision, Behold the Cloud

4/23/00 Resurrection Sunday

During worship, I received from the Lord a very strong impression, that the same power present when Jesus was resurrected from the dead is being poured out on The Church as of this day. God was waiting until we celebrated this particular resurrection. The following verse came to mind:

Beloved, do not forget that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (II Peter 3:8) Our Lord was in the tomb two whole days, which is equal to 2,000 years. Jesus was resurrected very early on the third day, which we are now in.

This resurrection power is going to manifest in The Church almost immediately. In fact, it has already begun in certain places. You will see and experience God's power as never before. Are you ready for it?

The world will be stunned by the miracles that will take place. Just as when Jesus was resurrected from the tomb, the power was so great, the dead in surrounding tombs came back to life, this power will cause many in the world to faint at the signs & wonders that will begin to take place. Keep your eyes, your ears and your heart open!

This is the time of Isa 60: 1-5 to be fulfilled, literally.

Arise, shine! For your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people, but the Lord will arise over you, and His glory will be seen on you. The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. Lift up your eyes all around, and see; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be nursed at your side. Then you shall see and become radiant, and your heart shall swell with joy; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.

As of today, you will begin to see, with your own eyes, this prophecy fulfilled.

Shepherds, open wide your doors for the lost sheep are coming home.

Repentance Unto Restoration

Ros Henderson

Today I have been thinking over many battles, I have witnessed in christianity, examples:

doctrinal battles

Spirit filled verses non Spirit filled believer faith verses legalism men in ministry verses women in ministry the list goes on !

Whilst I was thinking over the many different issues, that I have witnessed amongst the body of Christ. The Lord brought to my remembrance of a situation I knew of recently.

Here is the vision

I SAW IN THE SPIRIT REALM, 2 WARRIORS DRESSED IN ARMOR FIGHTING EACH OTHER BOTH WITH SWORDS DRAWN. BOTH BELIEVED THEY WERE FIGHTING EACH OTHER UNTO RIGHTEOUSNESS AND THE TESTIMONY OF THEIR WORDS. WITH THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT. THEY FOUGHT BITTERLY, EACH WAGING A WAR OF HIS OWN. THE BATTLE WAS HARD FOUGHT, BUT THE STAMINA OF BOTH WAS GREAT, YET ONE OF THE SOLDIERS BEGAN TO BEND AT THE KNEE.

I CRIED OUT LORD, WHY DO THEY FIGHT EACH OTHER ? FOR WHAT REASON DO THEY WIELD THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT AGAINST EACH OTHER ?

THE LORD SAID TO ME, DO YOU SEE THE WARRIOR BENDING AT THE KNEE ? AND I SAID YES, IS HIS FAITH WEAKER THAN THE OTHER ?

THEN THE LORD SAID TO ME, THOUGH HE BEND AT THE KNEE, I WILL SUSTAIN HIM, HE SHALL BEND NO FURTHER!

I SAID LORD WHY DO BELIEVERS FIGHT EACH OTHER, WHEN THE BATTLE IS FOR THE ENEMY? THE LORD REPLIED, PRAY FOR REPENTANCE UNTO RESTORATION. FOR THIS IS MY WILL CONCERNING THE MATTER!

MATHEW CHAPTER 18 VERSE 21

THEN PETER CAME UP TO HIM AND SAID, LORD HOW MANY TIMES MAY MY BROTHER SIN AGAINST ME, AND I FORGIVE HIM AND LET IT GO? AS MANY AS SEVEN TIMES?

JESUS ANSWERED HIM, I TELL YOU, NOT UP TO SEVEN TIMES, BUT SEVENTY TIMES SEVEN!

It seems that while we are fighting, amongst ourselves we have forgotten that we have an enemy who comes around as a roaring lion seeking who he may devour- our enemy isn't the body of Christ[believers] our opponent is the devil- that age old serpent !

We must learn to put the stumblings and grievous offenses, caused by other believers to one side, and continue to walk in the God kind of Love !

While there is factional disputes, and doctrinal controversies abounding to me it means that we are not working out our OWN salvation and deliverance ! because we are to busy picking the stick out of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

If any man offends you, forgive him, lest you fall into judgement. If any man boasts, let him boast of the mighty wonderful works of the Almighty God ! and finally brethren there is one commandment we all should follow and that is to love one another.

GALATIANS CHAPTER 6 VERSE 10:

SO THEN, AS OCCASION AND OPPORTUNITY OPEN TO US, LET US DO GOOD TO ALL PEOPLE ] NOT ONLY BEING USEFUL OR PROFITABLE TO THEM, BUT ALSO DOING WHAT IS SPIRITUAL GOOD AND ADVANTAGE]. BE MINDFUL TO BE A BLESSING, ESPECIALLY TO THOSE OF THE HOUSEHOLD OF FAITH.

God Bless you All

Dan Root

August 9

Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it...for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from his own work...Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience. Hebrews 4:1, 9-11

A servant, son, daughter and priest of God is compelled to not only enter but to remain in the perfect rest of God. If we struggle, it is to remain in His perfect rest as children of faith that are fully assured of our Heavenly Father's faithfulness to accomplish His will. As His children of light, we recognize that the active working grace and power of God combined with faith produces the royal quality and quantity of Kingdom harvest that will greatly please the Master of the vineyard. There are three rests we can enter and remain in to assure His good pleasure in His bountiful divine harvest from His co-laborers.

The first rest is the rest from our daily and weekly physical labor. (Deuteronomy 5:12)

The LORD instructs us each to take a day that is set aside to remember that the LORD rested after He created the world. He also wants us to reflect on how He gave the Israelites rest from their oppressors. Additionally, we are each given a night to be restored from a day full of labor so that we are refreshed and ready to face each new day with victory in Christ.

The second rest is the rest from sin and our own human striving. Jesus said, "This is the work of the Father, that (we) believe on the One Whom He sent." (John 6:29) We must cease from sin and stop striving to do the will of God in our own understanding and effort (Proverbs 3:5-6) and remember that Kingdom work is all about relationship with the One Who is the Visible Image of the invisible One we serve. As Jesus constantly rested from reliance on His humanity to achieve the Father's work, we can do the same. We have now replaced confidence in our individual capabilities with faith in His divine inspiration to lead, energize and work through us as we are inter-connected and unified in purpose in our labors with others to carry out His perfect will.

We notice that Jesus focused on what the Father wanted at all times, not just some of the time. This is the essence of resting from our own striving and understanding. As the Greatest Servant of the Father, Jesus simply responded to what the Father wanted done. Though He had to wrestle with His human will to remain in that rest from His own human desires, Jesus was successful in remaining in the perfect rest of the Father's will. He was consistent with this disposition from early childhood, through Gethsemane, His unjust trial and the cross.

The third rest is what exists as we remain with God in priesthood worship. We are all royal priests after the order of Jesus Christ. (1 Peter 2:9) As sons and daughters of our hard working and active God, Who is constantly involved in His redemptive work, we can remember that the duties of priesthood include entering the Holy of Holies, asking for His perfect will and remaining in communion with Him. This constant state of worship and holy fellowship is the essence of rest from slavery to the world and the world's demands.

Application

Aaron and the other high priests that followed in the priesthood steps under the Old Covenant were instructed to enter the Holy of Holies only once each year. Under the New Covenant, each believer is urged to enter and remain in the heavenly Holy of Holies daily and for eternity. Every believer can enter and now remain there hour by hour in spirit, adoration, fellowship and service.

Entering this place of rest through the blood of Christ, and remaining there, results in a disposition that is always pleasing to the Father. As we are seated (resting) with Christ in heavenly realms, (Ephesians 2:6) we can agree with His work on the earth. We affirm His divine will, yielding to His Holy Spirit. We are "yes" instruments of worship and obedience to His constant reconciling and restoring work. We flow downhill as peaceful streams from Him, our River of Life. We offer the still waters that the distracted restless world is looking for.

Our restful "work" is to focus on Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith. We can imitate Him as His royal priests, sons and daughters; walking in the same perfect rest He enjoyed so that the world can believe that He truly was sent by the Father to restore and reconcile all things back to our LORD of the harvest. This is so that all may come to complete rest from sin, evil and all bondage that were never intended to interrupt the joyful rest He designed for all of creation. We who have received His rest can now remain in it and offer His peaceful Kingdom to all of those who need to be free of their wandering restlessness. <\\><

Restoration of the Tabernacle of David

Harold Hopper

These are the last days and we live in awesome times! But God's big plan is still moving forward. Doesn't matter if we're walking on the moon or if we have manned space stations, God's Word will come to pass.

Acts 15:16-18 16 'After this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up; 17 So that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord, even all the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the Lord who does all these things.' 18 "Known to God from eternity are all His works. (NKJ)

God speaks in this scripture (which references Amos 9:11) that He will restore the Tabernacle of David. Most of us agree that we are in the last days. We need to find out what the Tabernacle of David is all about because God said He would restore it. We need to be able to recognize it and embrace it. When God is doing something, we should be part of it. Right?

The first question that comes to my mind is why does He intend to restore David's Tabernacle? From the verse above it is clear that He wants the rest of mankind to seek Him. The restoration of the Tabernacle of David is evangelistic "so the rest of mankind may seek the Lord". Take a look at Psalms 40:3:

Ps 40:3 3 He has put a new song in my mouth-- praise to our God; many will see it and fear, and will trust in the LORD. (NKJ)

What is the new song? We will talk about this further in this study. Note here that this says many will see the new song and fear and trust in the Lord. The word "fear" means to revere. The word "trust" means to hie for refuge. "Hie" means to go quickly, hasten. What we see here is that many will see the new song and it will cause a reverence or fear of the Lord and they will go to Him quickly for refuge. This is evangelism. This then, is one of the primary reasons God is restoring the Tabernacle of David: Evangelism.

This study is an overview that is limited to the praise and worship aspects of the Tabernacle of David. We could write volumes about it, covering the spiritual aspects etc. Because this is evangelistic, I feel that the Church needs to understand what it is all about and participate in it. This is not limited to musicians.

1 Chr 15:16 16 Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy. (NKJ)

Singers were also to be appointed to service in the Tabernacle of David. Singers, you need to understand what the musician's role is so you can interact with them in the the praise and worship. We will discover in this study that prophetic song is basic to the psalms and this is in great part what God is restoring in the Tabernacle of David.

There are seven basic forms of praise in the Bible. All of them involve physical activity. All these definitions are taken from the Strong's Exhaustive Concordance:

1.YADAH: Strong's 3034. Genesis 29:35 is the example. This is to hold out the hands. Notice that this is physical activity.

2.Towdah: Strong's 8426. Josh 7:19 is the example. An extension of the hand, i.e. (by implication) avowal, or (usually) adoration; specifically, a choir of worshippers. Notice that this is physical activity.

3.Zamar: Strong's 2167. Judges 5:3 is the example. A primitive root [perhaps ident. with 2168 through the idea of striking with the fingers]; properly, to touch the strings or parts of a musical instrument, i.e. play upon it; to make music, accompanied by the voice; hence to celebrate in song and music. Notice that this is physical activity - to play an instrument and sing.

- 4.Tephillah: Strong's 8605. Psalms 17:1 is the example. From 6419; intercession, supplication; by implication, a hymn. Notice that this is physical activity - to sing.
- 5.Shabach: Strong's 7623. Psalms 117:1 is the example. A primitive root; properly, to address in a loud tone, i.e. (specifically) loud. Note that this is a physical activity - shouting.
- 6.Halal: Strong's 1984. 2 Chronicles 5:13-14 is the example. A primitive root; to be clear (orig. of sound, but usually of color); to shine; hence, to make a show, to boast; and thus to be (clamorously) foolish; to rave; causatively, to celebrate; also to stultify: (stultify is to make appear foolish or ridiculous.) Notice that this is physical activity. This one is the "go for it" abandonment in praise. It is what they did when the glory cloud filled the house so that none could stand to minister....
- 7.Tehillah: Strong's 8416. Psalms 22:3 is the example. From 1984; laudation; specifically (concretely) a hymn. Notice this is physical activity. A hymn - singing; which is physical.

These are the seven basic forms of praise in the Bible. ALL ARE PHYSICAL ACTIVITY. Worship is spiritual, not physical. One can praise and worship at the same time. One can praise without worshipping and one can worship without praising. We have redefined praise and called it worship in the church today with regard to singing and playing music. There is no definition of worship in the Bible that suggests it involves music. Worship is a spiritual thing.

Worship is "proskuneo" in the New Testament. It is derived from two words "pros" and "koun". "Pros" means toward. "In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God". This word with is "pros" meaning toward. "Koun" means dog. What is this? Toward dog?

Toward God. That is what the Word (Jesus) is. We should be toward God, like Jesus is. What about the "koun" part? Dog? This doesn't make sense unless you look at the attributes of a dog. Dog is called man's best friend. A dog is loyal, obedient and trusting. If old Shep is laying in the corner asleep and you call his name, he will immediately turn his eyes and attention to you, ready for any command you may give him. We need to be like these words "toward" and "dog". We need to have our lives, our everything toward God. We need to have the attributes of loyalty and obedience -- a setting of our hearts to please our master.

You could say then that worship is a spiritual positioning or relationship with God. It is placing Him on the throne instead of us. It is recognizing Him as Lord and Master and acting accordingly.

Matt 14:33 33 Then those who were in the boat came and worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God." (NKJ)

Notice here that they did not play a song. They did not tap out a beat with the oars nor did they sing. They did not fall down. It says "they came and worshipped (proskuneo) Him. They simply said "truly You are the Son of God." This clearly says it. Worship is a spiritual positioning..

Praise is a physical activity. The songs we sing and accompany with instruments is praise. The word for it is zamar (as defined above). We can proskuneo while we zamar, but zamar is not proskuneo. The reason I put so much emphasis on this is that if we say music and songs are worship, then we get into a quality thing. Does the better musician worship better? If music is worship, can we begin to worship music? I think this is an area in which we need to be careful.

Take a look at the word tehillah (number 7 in the definitions above). This is a hymn. We will take a look at what a hymn is. First I would like to point out that God inhabits tehillah.

Ps 22:3 3 But You are holy, enthroned in the praises of Israel. (NKJ)

The word praise in this verse is "tehillah". This is the ONLY verse in the Bible that says God inhabits the praises of His people. Do not misunderstand me. He responds to all forms of praise, but He inhabits tehillah. I am not saying He can't inhabit the others. I am saying the Word does not say that He does.

So why does God choose to inhabit a hymn (tehillah)? Let's go to the New testament and define what a hymn is since the word does not occur in the Old Testament.

Eph 5:18-19 18 And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, 19 speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, (NKJ)

We see here that there are three types of songs that we are to sing when we assemble. Let's define them and understand what they are. First, what is a psalm? Per the Strong's Concordance:

5568 psalmos (psal-mos');

from 5567; a set piece of music, i.e. a sacred ode (accompanied with the voice, harp or other instrument; a "psalm"); collectively, the book of the Psalms:

A set piece of music. That means it has been recorded and is reproducible. Don't we have hymn books? Aren't they "set music"? Could it be that we have altered another definition? Evolution of language is a fact of life. We must take care with the Word of God not to define a word out of existence. Substituting definitions for the three types of songs, the verse does not say "set piece of music, set piece of music and spiritual songs", does it? Wouldn't that be repititious? A hymn then must be different than a psalm. By definition then, a hymn is:

5215 humnos (hoom'-nos);

apparently from a simpler (obsolete) form of hudeo (to celebrate; probably akin to 103; compare 5667); a "hymn" or religious ode (one of the Psalms):

Comparing the two words, we see that both are odes. What is an ode?

5603 oide (o-day');

from 103; a chant or "ode" (the general term for any words sung; while 5215 denotes especially a religious metrical composition, and 5568 still more specifically, a Hebrew cantillation):

Any words sung. Both the psalm and the hymn are "any words sung". Notice in the above definition of ode, any words sung is in contrast to metrical composition or Hebrew cantillation. What I'm getting at is this. A psalm is a set piece of music and since an ode is any words sung (common to both psalm and hymn) then a hymn must be other than set music which would be spontaneous. Any spontaneous words sung is a hymn. Once a hymn is set down and recorded, it then becomes a psalm. Our hymn books are really psalm books. They are hymns (spontaneous) that have been recorded - hence they become psalms.

Look at the verse again "spontaneous song, recorded songs and spiritual songs". Doesn't this make more sense? Notice the word tehillah is derived from halal. This means that the hymn (tehillah) has the flavor of halal. So then we have tehillah which is a spontaneous song which has the flavor of halal. It is 'go for it' singing to God from the heart. God inhabits this. Why?

God is creative and spontaneous song is creative. Need I say more? Why am I dwelling on this so heavily? Take a look at spiritual songs. What are they? A spiritual song is "ode pneumatikos". We already know ode is any words sung. What is pneumatikos?

4152 pneumatikos (pnyoo-mat-ik-os');

from 4151; non-carnal, i.e. (humanly) ethereal (as opposed to gross), or (daemoniacally) a spirit (concretely), or (divinely) supernatural, regenerate, religious:

KJV-- spiritual. Compare 5591.

Spiritual. Any words that are spiritual. This would be from God. The song of the Lord. If the words are from God, then they are prophetic. So we are to sing spontaneous songs, recorded songs and prophetic songs.

This raises the question; "how can I sing prophetically if I am not a prophet"? Paul says that he would have us ALL prophesy. That means all, including YOU. Therefore it is within our grasp. Jesus lives in you, correct? Jesus is THE Prophet. If He is in you, then He can prophesy through you. Therefore open your mouth and it will happen, if you let Him.

Look at this idea. Since God inhabits tehillah, if you sing spontaneously, He lives in every word. Since He is living in every word, if you yield to Him, it is Him singing. Hence you are now singing the prophetic song. All a prophet does is speak the words God gives. What is the difference if it is sung? None. In fact if you search a little, you will find the the book of Psalms contains many prophetic songs. You will also find prophetic songs outside of the book of Psalms. Consider this: The Book of Psalms is the "Book of Tehillah". Tehillalum is plural for tehillah.

If you say you can't sing spontaneously, then how do you pray? The bottom line is you can. Look at this:

Mark 9:23 23 Jesus said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." (NKJ)

Phil 4:13 13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. (NKJ)

If you say "I can't" then you need to read the above passages again; and again; and again until you can. "I can't" does not line up with the word of God.

Does it seem like we got off track? Didn't we set out to delve into the Tabernacle of David? Yes, we took a side trail to establish that the prophetic song is still something we should do. It is the New Testament that tells us to sing three types of songs when we come together. Somehow we have dropped that back to one - the songs out of books. We thought we accomplished something when we threw away the "hymn books" and started using overhead projectors. All we did was come up with a "hymn book" that the whole church could read at once. The "hymns" are now current songs written by worship leaders of this day. We have only changed the songs we sing and how we access them for the body to sing. What we're missing is the spontaneous song and the prophetic song. The prophetic song was very much a part of the Tabernacle of David.

David set out to have prophetic song as evidenced by the following:

1 Chr 16:4 4 And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel: (NKJ)

The word commemorate is "to record". Why would David want songs that are already written to be recorded? He wouldn't! He knew full well that the songs would be prophetic. That is why he appointed recorders. God is raising up again the Tabernacle of David and that includes the prophetic song. Nowhere in the New Testament or the Old Testament did He tell us to stop singing prophetically. We just did. Why? Because we fulfilled the Word of God when we (the Church) drove the musicians out. Before you can rebuild something, it must be torn down. The church tore it down, now God is rebuilding and restoring.

If you want to validate the idea of prophetic song further, look at:

1 Chr 15:22 22 Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful; (NKJ)

The word "music" here is translated singing in some translations of the Bible. It is "massa" in the Hebrew dictionary. It means 'prophetic burden'. Chenaniah taught the musicians and singers to prophesy.

Church, the days of two fast songs, a slow song and a sermon are coming to a close. God is restoring the Tabernacle of David. How do I know? It is the last days and He said He would do this in the last days.

Heb 1:1-2 1 God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, 2 has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; (NKJ)

If it was the last days then, it is even more so the last days now. Therefore, the Tabernacle of David is being restored now. Look at the changes in the music in the church. There are still those that argue that drums and loud music are of the devil. This is unfortunate. It only takes a cursory look the instruments used in David's time to see there were many instruments including cymbals. Cymbals are LOUD. What about a 4,000 piece orchestra with all of Israel singing and praising (halal)? This is LOUD. Ever hear 200 trumpets? One trumpet can be heard for miles. Imagine 200 at once! Sound is cumulative. I am not saying we should set out to damage our ears. I am saying that we should not be so worried about the volume of the praise. If it gets loud, then let it. If musicians and singers are skillful, there will be dynamics in the music. There will be soft and strong in the levels. If not, find a Chenaniah and have them receive instruction.

Jesus said if we're not for Him, we are against Him. If He is doing something, as His servants, we want to work with Him and not against Him. He is restoring the Tabernacle of David and I want to be working with Him.

So, we see that we are to sing spontaneously and prophetically when we assemble. What is the role of the musician in the Tabernacle of David? To answer this primarily, look at the following verse:

1 Chr 25:1 1 Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the skilled men performing their service was: (NKJ)

Do what with their instruments? PROPHECY! How can you prophesy on an instrument? Sound is words without the words. In other words, words are expressed three ways; 1) in our thoughts; 2) written down and 3) spoken. Spoken words use sound to reach the listener. If the sound of an instrument reaches your ears and the musician is playing the music God is giving him, then He is indeed prophesying with His instrument. Clearly the above verse says that it can be done. Moreover, it says the musicians were set apart to do just that! We have this mindset that if something doesn't make sense, we explain it away. We should seek God to have Him explain it to us. If the word of God says we can prophesy on our instruments, then we can. To understand how, one needs to dig a little.

The secular world knows how to use music to influence us. Listen to the background music in a movie and consider what is being played and how it relates to the scenes you are viewing. Do this with commercials. Try this in the stores that use music in the background. I think lights will come on for you. Music does have an effect on you, without using words. What about the church that puts on worship music while ministry is taking place? Music goes straight to the spirit. You cannot intercept it because there are no words for the rational mind to capture and process. If the musician (sold out for God) hears from God, interprets that musically and plays it and you listen, God is literally speaking directly to your spirit through a living vessel.

In the realm of the spirit, God uses music to prepare the heart for His word. A study of selahs will uncover the role music plays in prophetic psalms.

Just what is a selah? It means to pause and reflect. It also has numerous other meanings. In music, selah is a suspension of music. This does not mean to be suspended by a string. Suspension is tension. Music is tension and release. Selah also means musical interlude or more plainly, it is when the musicians play without the singers. Ever notice how the psalms have the word selah in them? Some have more than one. Does the song stop? No. The musicians play and then the singing comes back in. There are five basic types of selahs and they are determined by the "flavor" of the words. When you see the word selah, you should review the words in context with it and you will be able to hear in your mind the kind of music played. Many of the psalms have instructions as to what instrument is to be used and even the type of music to be played.

If the words of the psalm speak of warfare, then the music would be warfare music. Satan knows this. That's why rock music sounds the way it does. It is WARFARE! He uses the music to prepare the spirit and then injects his demonic, evil words. Satan knows the principles that God set in place when He created music, and he uses them against us. If the church played the same type of warfare music and used the Word of God, would this be any less warfare? It would be using what God established to bring war against our enemy. It is not the music that creates the problem. It is the heart of the musician and the words sung that determine the effect of the music and whether a given piece music is good or evil; whether it is of God or of satan.

Musicians have been taken out of the church when it was and is God's plan to have them there. We need to examine our praise and worship and get back on track. Psalms 149 tells us why we praise God. Nowhere in the Bible does it say the type of praise God implemented through David has been done away with.. In the early Church, they did not have the New Testament so they based their praise and worship on the Old Testament. The Tabernacle of David was torn down by man, not by God. We must recognize that God is restoring it and we need to embrace that restoration, understand it and participate. Where is halal? Where is shabach? Where is the prophetic song? Where is the spontaneous song? Who stole it from the Church? God is creative and He wants to express Himself through His people.

The above is intended as an overview and is not a complete teaching on the Tabernacle of David. To go fully into this would require a book, which is currently being refined and prepared for release. It will be released in written form and electronic form also in the very near future. If you are interested in obtaining a copy in either format, check back to our web site periodically or email me at prophetikos@earthlink.net and I will notify you by email when it is available.

My wife Nancy and I are available to teach on this subject as well as minister with prophetic psalms. It requires approximately eight hours of time to teach in its entirety although the thrust of it can be presented in one meeting as an overview, as this writing has done. You can call us at 208-288-4298 or email us at prophetikos@earthlink.net to arrange for us to come. We are prepared to teach as well as involve musicians and singers in hands on application of the prophetic song. We are prepared to lead worship and to demonstrate by doing, the prophetic song both instrumentally and vocally.

Resting In The Bosom Of The Father

Ching Co

May 2, 2000

Having just recently come back from an a 7 days oversea holiday trip with my whole family, it has taken me a while to get adjusted back to my normal routine. Once I got myself settled , I was also preparing to take up my place in the spiritual realm.

SOMETHING HAS CHANGED

I noticed that something has changed within me. While in the past, I am just too eager to engage the enemy face to face in battle at every point. This time however, I felt a greater longing to just ignore him most times. This was somewhat strange to me.

In place of that, I am finding myself just wanting to do nothing actively in terms of spiritual battle like binding and rebuking , but to rest passively in the presence of the Lord. No matter how much I want to put on my "battle gear", I just could not keep up my position.

I initially thought that what I was feeling was a carry-over of "vacation blues". In the spiritual realm, it was like I was spending a long weekend every day with no urgent schedules to keep and I can afford to have breakfast in bed and just spending leisurely time snuggling close to my loved ones.

This went on for some days and I began to feel that maybe I have left my guard down and have become complacent. But no matter how hard I try to stir up my spirit, it continue to remain in that state.

THE FATHER'S ASSURANCE

I decided to bring this matter before the Father instead of trying to analyze it by myself and to hear what the Father has to say to me. I asked Him if "something is wrong with me spiritually."

I felt a very reassuring impression from the Father that He has called me to that place this season and that it is okay to continue resting in the bosom of the Father.

CONFIRMATION FROM OTHERS

I was not contented with that impression because it sound too good to be true and seem too easy for me, so I decided to inquire from my prayer partner, I check with her if she has noticed something different in her quiet time. We discovered as we exchange notes that we are feeling the same way. After that, I check with another prayer partner and found that the same was happening to her.

RESTING IN THE BOSOM OF THE FATHER

I felt the Father impressing to me that what has happened to me and my friends were not limited to our sphere but that many of God's faithful children might be finding themselves in the same place.

The Father reminded me of the story of Martha and Mary, and made me focus on the place of Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what He said and how the Lord commented that she has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her. (Luke 10:38 - 42)

Another reference the Father brought to my mind was the story of Ester when it mentioned about the preparation that all girls must have to undergo before they are brought into the king's presence. "Before a girl's turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she has to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women, six months of oil of myrrh and six with perfumes and cosmetics." (Esther 2:12)

A TIME OF SPIRITUAL REST

To those in the body of Christ who are finding themselves in this place. This time is a time ordained by the Father for us. It does not mean that there will be no trouble or warfare taking place in our midst. But despite the turmoil's surrounding us at all point. We need not worry for God will have us covered at all point.

He knew the many battles that His children have been engaged in the past season and it is His desire that we spend this season resting in the bosom of the Father. We need not worry about the enemy's tactics or schemes because as we rest and hide in Him, God will take care of the enemy. This is a season to FOCUS ON GOD and be immersed in Him.

RHEMA PROMISES

Psalm 91:1,4,9-10,14

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. If you make the Most High your dwelling - even the Lord, who is my refuge - then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent. "Because he loves me," says the Lord, " I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name."

Psalm 17:8

Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings.

Psalm 31:19-21

How great is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you, which you bestow in the sight of men on those who take refuge in you. In the shelter of your presence you hide them from the intrigues of men; in your dwelling you keep them safe from accusing tongues. Praise be to the Lord, for He showed His wonderful love to me when I was in the besieged city.

PRAYER

"Father, thank you for letting us know that nothing is wrong with us. We thank you for allowing us this time to rest in Your bosom, for drawing us nearer to You and for refreshing our soul despite the turmoil's that surrounds us at many points. We praise you for Your wisdom, we are glad that Your ways are not our ways. And to know that Your desire is to prepare us like Ester was prepared to meet her king. Oh what a privilege it is to be counted as Your children. We love you Father."

Resting in the Father's bosom,

5. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Ps. 23

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. Ps 91

10. In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will rally to him, and his place of rest will be glorious. Is. 11

2. This is what the LORD says: "The people who survive the sword will find favor in the desert; I will come to give rest to Israel." Jer. 31

(The Lord showed me two different things this morning while I was in prayer. The first thing was a hand, and as I looked at this hand, someone else was wrapping a bandage around it continuously. The bandage went around the fingers, as if to protect them, or because they had been wounded. This person, in spite of his wounded hand and fingers, was doing Christian service of various things. He would lay hands on the sick, even with his own "wounds.")

(The second scene was one of a man who was bent-over, and he was carrying a bundle of sticks on his back. This appeared to be very burdensome to him, as he walked, and seemed to be something that perhaps he had "carried" for sometime.)

Then the Lord said:

"This man represents a certain part of my body. For many of you are wounded who have gone out to serve Me. You go out to serve Me, and yet, you have things that you need to be "freed of." You lay hands on the sick, and you cast out demons, and yet you are sick and are not free. Many of you who have gone out in my name are not ready. You focus on the wounds and needs of others, and yet your wounds cry out to Me. Can one who is sick take care of another one?

Many of you have become "battle weary." I say to come by my stream and rest."

(The Lord again began to show me something, and this time it was a King and He lifted up a cloth and spread it before all who were present. It was a banqueting table. He sat at the front of this table, and there were several who were sitting around this table with Him. Then He raised a glass and said: 'This is my body and blood given for you.' Do this in remembrance of Me, for you will need this to strengthen you.)

"My people, I spread a banqueting table for you in the midst of the battle. Rest from your labors and come and eat with Me. Then you can go back to the battle and serve Me. My troops have need of rest in Me. The great battle has been fought, and it will continue to be fought. Any soldier in an army needs to know when to rest. "

"This is my word for you this day."

29. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Matt. 11

1. Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it. Heb. 4; 9 There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; 10. for anyone who enters God's rest also rests from his own work, just as God did from his.

Restoration

David Clements

I have set boundaries for my people. These are the ancient landmarks of Holiness. Within these landmarks is the Highway of Holiness. No unclean thing moves upon this Highway.

You have felt lost and disoriented as I have led you out of the wilderness of your ways. The traditions of religion and the commandments of men have led you in times past. Even your own opinions have led you. I AM the Lord and you are the servant! Stop giving me counsel and walk in my ways. If you are lost then stop at the side of your road (ways) and consider me and my ways. Return to me that I might show you my ways and place you on the correct road (way). I AM the way, not you or others. My word is the map for I AM my word. Return then from your ways unto my ways.

You will then be delivered from your wandering in the wasteland. Outside of my Gates lie confusion, loss and every unclean thing. Your way seems right but it is death. I AM life and I AM the truth. You all must lay down your agendas. As you do I will speak a Word to you and give you my counsel for your life, your family, and my Church. I AM restoring ancient ways unto you. My ways. Ways that you know not of because you have become lost in the ways of men and self. Lay all of your ways upon the altar that I might consume them. Confess that you have no wisdom that I might be your wisdom.

I AM, make me your King and I will lead you into my kingdom. The Highway of Holiness leads to me and my rule. Do this now for soon I will come to judge the quick and the dead. The obedient and the rebellious. Time is short and you are always in my sight. I AM testing the hearts of men. I call you out of the unclean and into Holiness. In Holiness I will raise up my Church in power and authority to do my work in this final hour. You have had your day now it is mine. This is the Day of the Lord.

Restoration Of Our Innocence

Jim Rinker

Genesis 3: 6 And when the woman saw that the tree [was] good for food, and that it [was] pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make [one] wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. 7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they [were] naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

As Adam and Eve had partaken of the tree of knowledge the "eyes" were opened to knowledge (natural realm understanding) and they "knew" they were naked. The "knowledge" that they gained was to give both Adam and Eve vision in the natural or flesh realm. Before they had joined themselves to the tree of knowledge (I believe the partaking was actually a sexual sin) they had no "knowledge" of their nakedness for their vision was in the spiritual realm where their covering resided. Their "belief" system was SOLELY based upon what Abba Father had shown them as truth. They were INNOCENT in the respect that they were "child like" for they only "knew" and "believed" what the Father had shown them.

When they willingly sinned and joined themselves to the tree of knowledge (satan), the "eyes of their understanding" were opened and their minds were then open to the deception that lies in the earthly, fleshly, sensual realm. Their "belief" system no longer rested solely on what Abba Father showed them but rather what their natural understanding based upon their senses (where sensual comes from) were showing them. What they saw, heard, and believed was no longer solely based on that "child like" faith in their innocence but was rather based in KNOWLEDGE in what they could see and hear (perceive) with their natural eyes and ears.

In this hour the Father is seeking to restore INNOCENCE to the bride. Jesus was child-like and innocent. He only did that which he saw the Father doing. Consequently He only "judged" based upon what the father had shown Him and NOT with any reliance upon His natural understanding. He relied totally on the Holy Spirit to give Him true vision.

John 5:30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

John 5: 19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. 20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

Because of our loss of innocence there is a "mixture" in our perception. Because satan has "raped" us to a certain extent and we have lost our innocence we too have partaken of the tree of knowledge. Much of our perception (discernment) is rooted in knowledge and NOT by revelation via the Holy Spirit thus our vision is limited to the "natural" realm to a certain extent.

1 Corinthians 2:14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know [them], because they are spiritually discerned.

The Lord is seeking to restore the innocence that we have been robbed of by the enemy. As our innocence is restored we will then have the child like faith that Jesus spoke about. The child like faith that will allow us to only see that which the Father is doing and hear that which the Father is telling us. The child like faith that will allow us to only "judge" (base our decisions upon) based upon what the Father shows us and not what we perceive "sensually". When this happens and we receive His "perfect" love and allow His perfect love to conquer and wash our hearts, all that is rooted in knowledge (not revelation from the Father, natural understanding) will be cast aside and thus His perfect love will cast out ALL fear and our innocence will be restored.

Once our innocence is restored the enemy will have no "foothold" within us to use His weapons of deception to cause strife and division in the body but rather the love of the Father will be all consuming both to us and through us as we will see through the perfect eyes of the Father and align our thoughts and "judgments" solely based in what the Father shows us. When our innocence is restored the Father will then be able to use us as purified empty vessels fit to carry the full measure of the anointing Jesus carried and use the anointing to fulfill His plan of restoration and reconciliation.

Restoring the Spirit of God

Becky McLendon

Isaiah 11:1 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:
2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;
Romans 1: 21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.
24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:
25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

Earlier this year I had a student who did a Likes/Dislikes collage for a class of mine where he had to find pictures of things he liked and disliked. Much to the shock of most of the students he put "AMERICA" on the "Dislikes" side. But then he proceeded to explain. He said, "I don't like what America has become. America has removed God from the public arena and won't allow students to pray or His Word to be upheld in public. I don't like America. I don't like the fact that our basic religious freedoms are taken from us." He had a point. I looked back over the decades of my own life. the trends... In the 1950's we lost the fear of the Lord. He was just a good old Santa Claus that gives us blessings. and we DESERVED THE BLESSING because we were Americans. We became Christians by rote. If we were Americans we were Christians. If we went to a church we were a Christian. Things got messed up and we slipped our moorings. In the 1960's we declared " GOD IS DEAD". Man took over, fulfilling the above scriptures from Romans 1. "Professing to be wise, we became fools." After all "the fool hath said in his heart THERE IS NO GOD." We became very adept at "serving the creature rather than the creator." This theme flourished even more in the 1970's to the present. Creation is more to us than our Creator. We weep more over losing a whale than the millions of babies aborted yearly. We celebrate the "year of the child" and "save the children" but we are casting them into the fire by freeing them of all parental restraints and relegating them to the state to raise while we "party on." We have made the child the IDOL, to be worshiped but never RAISED. Manners and respect are out. Cheekiness is in. Looking at Isaiah 11: 1,2, we see the true spirit of God manifested. We, on the other hand have lost the fear of the Lord, which resulted in the loss of wisdom which cost us our understanding. Without that we have NO COUNSEL or MIGHT. Who is going to listen to a bunch of compromised, double speaking church members who stand for nothing for fear of loss of money or "members."? Look up, those who practice lip service to God; God will require of you your "members" anyway for He wishes to RESTORE the spirit of God upon his people. And as they grow in the Spirit of God, rapid judgment will fall on all this other mish mash called "Peace and Democracy". What needs to happen? A restoration of Isaiah 11:1,2 to the hearts of His people. Only God can do that, and only His people will receive it. Once that happens, the TRUTH of His word will issue forth out of the MOUTHS of his people, young and old, unknown or famous...bringing immediate downfall of all that is not of Him and establishing His saints forever in their Inheritance.
Amen so be it Lord.

Resurrection!

Doug Fortune

“That I may KNOW Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death; if by any means I might ATTAIN unto the RESURRECTION of the dead...”(Phil.3:20). The RESURRECTION!... wow, sounds awesome, some day we’ll be resurrected out of the grave. Too bad we have to be graveyard dead to attain it... or do we? The next verse Paul says, “Not as though I had ALREADY ATTAINED...”; well Paul was obviously still alive at the time he wrote this letter to the Phillipians, so why does he bother to tell them that he hasn’t yet attained, if it is something you have to DIE to get? Also, isn’t everybody going to be resurrected?... why would Paul say “...IF by any means...” he wanted to ATTAIN it? Perhaps there is more here than a casual reading of the verse renders.

Firstly, it helps us to understand these verses when we realize that the words translated twice as RESURRECTION are actually two different words in the Greek; their meanings are similar but different enough to warrant an explanation. The word in verse 10 is anastasis and it means ‘a resurrection from death’. The word ‘power’ in that verse is dunamis in Greek, from which we get the word dynamo- a dynamo is a device capable of reproducing electricity. (I believe the traditional analogy of dynamite and dunamis is a poor one; God’s dunamis isn’t just for blowing things up!)

So Paul is saying he wants to KNOW (be intimately acquainted with) Christ and the dunamis power (capable of reproducing itself) of HIS resurrection from the dead. In other words, he not only wants to know Christ, but he also wants to be intimately acquainted with Christ reproducing HIS resurrection in Paul, thus resurrecting Paul to the resurrected LIFE of Christ. From Paul’s words, it would seem that this happens through the fellowship of His sufferings being made conformable unto HIS death. The word conformable there is summorphos in Greek, meaning ‘jointly formed’; it is from two Greek words meaning ‘union’ and ‘adjustment of shape or nature’. Do you see the picture here?...conformable means that we are in UNION with Him, jointly formed in His death... He became US in crucifixion (“...He hath made Him to BE sin for us...”), and WE are crucified in Him; it was a ‘joint venture’. Do you also see that the focus is on HIS death?... For years I was focused on MY dying to self, I tell you from experience that this focus leads to the pride of false humility. Our focus must be on HIS death, seeing ourselves in HIS crucifixion, in the fellowship of HIS suffering. Although for some, this may manifest in actual physical suffering and martyrdom, we can’t rule that out. Now then, it is from the place of BEING MADE (it is a PROCESS of being made) conformable to HIS death that Paul speaks of the resurrection he wants to attain ‘if by any means’. This word translated resurrection in verse 11 is exanastasis in Greek; you’ll notice that the prefix ex has been added to the original word in verse 10. In Greek, ex is a primary preposition denoting ORIGIN or the point from which motion or action proceeds. In other words, THIS resurrection spoken of here in verse 11 proceeds from the point or origin of being made CONFORMABLE (jointly formed) to HIS death... not ALL will ATTAIN this resurrection, because not all will be made CONFORMABLE to His death. I believe we can walk in a measure of this first resurrection as it is manifested in our SPIRIT and our SOUL without having to physically die to attain it. You see, the resurrection is not just an event that happened to Jesus and will one day happen to us... the Resurrection is a Person, the Person of Christ! "...Jesus said to her I AM the Resurrection and the Life (zoe)..."(Jn.11:25), and of course Christ IN US and living His zoe Life through us is the hope to which we were called. I love the way the Amplified Bible reads in Phil.3:11, "That if possible I may attain to the spiritual and moral resurrection that lifts me out from among the dead even while in the body..."

This resurrection Life is already manifesting in our SPIRIT as we are joined to the Lord and become ONE SPIRIT with Him... the resurrection Life is in the process of being manifested in the realm of our SOUL (mind, will, emotions) as we are being transformed into His likeness... also the day is coming when it will be manifest in our BODY.

Hebrews 11:40 and 12:1,2 speak of this as it says, "...Because God had us in mind and had something better and greater in view for us, so that they (these heroes and heroines of the faith) should not come to PERFECTION apart from us, that is, before we could join them. Therefore since we are surrounded by so great a CLOUD of witnesses...". Remember, Jesus was received into a CLOUD, and is returning in a CLOUD, I believe to be the CLOUD of witnesses. This is the manifestation of the sons of God spoken of in Rom.8:19 that all creation is groaning for. This is what Eph. 4:12-13 tells us is a result of five-fold ministry, "...His intention was the PERFECTING of the saints... unto a PERFECT (teleios) MAN, unto the measure of the stature of the FULLNESS of Christ...". Yes, this mortality shall put on immortality and "...we know that when He shall APPEAR, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is..."(I John 3:2). The word 'appear' in that verse is phaneroo, it means 'to render apparent', it is from phaneros which means 'shining'. Remember what happened on the Mount of Transfiguration that was a shadow of the fulfillment of the Feast of Tabernacles?... there will be a literal fulfillment of this transfiguration in US; we shall be LIKE HIM! Consider Col. 3:4, "When Christ Who IS OUR LIFE appears then YOU ALSO will appear with Him in the splendor of His glory." I tell you, this is the season when the man of sin, the Adam / soulish nature is being revealed, and the Lord Jesus is slaying him with the prophetic breath of His mouth (2 Thess. 2:8), the prophetic last trumpet is sounding and the day is approaching when we shall join Paul and the cloud of witnesses, resurrected in spirit, soul and body, the full and accurate manifestation of Christ in the earth! "Blessed is the person who takes part in the first resurrection!"(Rev.20:6).

Like Paul, my desire is to be part of that company... how about you? Let us press on toward our God-ordained destiny, the upward call!

Retouching

Ching Co

"RETOUCHING" FROM THE MASTERS HAND --

A Word through Ching Co

Yesterday afternoon, during my time of rest, I felt the Lord gently calling me to take a walk with Him in the spirit. I found myself being led inside a beautiful gallery and inside I saw many pieces of artwork that was hanging from wall to wall. It was of various sizes, colors, textures, designs. I noticed that as we passed by every piece, the Lord would gently touched each one with His hand and there will be a smile in His face as He did that.

Then, I heard Him speak these words to me. "Each piece you saw is My Masterpiece."

SOME WERE PLEASANT, SOME FEARFUL AND AWESOME

Then He brought me to His workshop. Inside I found different types of tools and materials that He used for the creation of His masterpiece. Some of the tools and materials look very pleasant and familiar to the eyes while the other tools look fearful and awesome. However, when He began using each tools in His hand and worked with them. They all worked so beautifully together and I realized that all are useful and essential for the creation of His Masterpiece.

IT LOOKED PERFECT TO ME

Then He showed me one work that was still in process. When I looked at that piece, it already looked perfect to My eyes. But then I saw the Lord shake His head and began doing some retouching to that piece, and when He has finished retouching it, the piece was glowing with the same glory that the Master has.

THE LORD EXPLAINED

I then felt the Lord began explaining to me the meaning of that vision. He impressed to me that each one of us is like a Masterpiece hanging in His gallery. Special, unique like no other piece and that He is the one who crafted each piece.

The different types of tools and materials that I saw, some pleasant and others fearsome and awesome represents all the experiences that God has allowed to touched our lives. Some are pleasant while others have been painful but when we combined them together, we will realized that all these have become important ingredient to what we have become in Him.

UNTIL WE GLOW

Many times when others look at us, they see only the things that are outward and often would think that we are already good enough, and sometimes we ourselves would think that way too. But to the eyes of the Master Artist, He sees beyond the outward appearances and He will not stopped working in our lives retouching every part of us until we will glow with His own reflection and His glory will be seen in us.

WHAT'S THE ARTIST WORKING ON THIS TIME

The Lord impressed to me that for this season in the lives of many of His Masterpieces, He is doing a very particular work. He asked me what I've noted in my own life and those that are around me like my family and my friends. And as I was pondering about this, I realized that all of us seem to undergoing the same type of "retouching" from the hand of our Master Artist.

FORCED TO THE SURFACE

We have been experiencing more and more the Lord working in healing us from many emotions associated with the past. Whatever we have been suppressing or ignoring or putting aside have been forced to the surfaces in these past days. Events would occurred in our midst that will triggered certain reactions and we have discovered that as we sift through all these reactions and emotions, that many of them were tied in to our past pains, past fears, past failures, past suppressions.

FOUND ACTING LIKE CHILDREN

God has been showing us where all these started and at times bringing us back to our childhood days and pointing out the specific time and event where all these has taken place . It was like we were inside a theatre watching a movie being played in our mind and that movie was about us. Some of us even found ourselves acting like children (the main character of that movie) and for the first time was able to expressed out to the Lord various emotions which have lie dormant in our sub-conscious mind for so long. All the past phantoms hiding deep within us were being forced out to the surface. This time, we found the Lord walking us through each particular event . We have felt challenges not to run away nor to cover them up , but He has encouraged us to freely shared and expressed these feelings to one another. We have been experiencing a great washing of His love being poured all over us as we allowed Him to retouched us. The stings and pains associated to those times was finally removed from us.

I felt that the work that He is doing now in our midst is not isolated but this could be taking place in a greater scale and happening to many brethren as well and this is the reason why the Lord has led me to share this publicly.

ALMOST TO THE PUBLIC

The Lord is about to open His gallery to the public and to show off His Masterpieces to the nations. He has done much work in the lives of His various Masterpieces and now He is finishing and retouching the smallest flaws and imperfections.

Rejoice beloved Masterpieces of the Most High, for He who began a good work in us will be faithful to bring it to completion for the glory of His name.

Revelatory Grace

Peggy West

A NEW LEVEL OF REVELATORY GRACE -- A Word through Peggy West

October 25, 2000

Mark 1:13b " ... and the angels ministered to Him."

I am releasing angelic ministry into the body of Christ. You, both individually and corporately, will begin to see manifestations of My glory, accompanied by angelic visitations. Get ready, for I am loosing a new level of revelatory grace in 2001. Revelatory grace is an understanding of how your sins have been covered both in and by My blood. It is a deeper understanding of My work of atonement on Calvary, and it will be used to win the lost to Me, for My heart is souls - always has been; always will be.

IT'S THE GOODNESS OF GOD

It is the goodness of God that brings repentance, and revelatory grace is a new and deeper understanding of My goodness toward an individual.

Not a general sense of grace, but deeply personal - how My mercy has covered an individual's walk through life, and each person will see specifically and personally how I have loved and cared for that person throughout their life.

FOR THOSE WHO WILL PREACH MERCY

Those that preach My mercy and grace will begin to operate in this gift, and they will begin to see their flock literally run to the altars in repentance, because this revelation of grace will melt even the hardest of hearts. This is part of my "October Surprise" for the body of Christ. As the older and mature do not rip and tear their way through Christmas gifts under the tree, so I am releasing My gifts to be tenderly opened, and individually savored by My body. Revel in My gifts for you - oh, taste and see that the Lord is good, and that I am adorning My bride, dressed in the finest of linen, with heavenly jewels.

Savor and enjoy each one, for I am the Bridegroom wooing His bride by showering love and kisses upon her, revealing layer upon layer of My love, mercy and grace.

I am wooing you to fall in love with Me all over again, and to rekindle your first love, only this time with more passion and grace and a depth you thought was not possible.

It is this depth of love that the world will see and then they will know that I AM.

Revolution is Coming

Priscilla Van Sutphin

20-7-2000 0215 hrs

Grace and mercy are kissing each other says the Lord. Are you ready for a revolution? This will violently, abruptly, suddenly erupt upon you and you will not possibly be prepared for what I'm about to do. But HAVE NO FEAR! You, My church, will fear for what I'm about to do will astound and confound you! Do not try to pour this movement into the old wineskin of formalism. The old wineskin is RANK and MOLDY. I am doing a new thing! and you will not be able to conform it to your religion, to your conformity of man's way to "have Church", or to man's "order". For once again, I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. And I will shake all nations, and they will come to the 'Desire of All Nations', and I will fill this temple with glory,' says the Lord. 'The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,' says the Lord of Hosts. 'The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former,' says the Lord of Hosts. 'And in this place I will give PEACE,' says the Lord of Hosts. (Haggai 2:6-9)

True religion will again be established in My church and the lampstands who do not conform to MY WILL, will be extinguished.

I am coming like a mighty rushing wind and NOTHING will be able to stop what I have planned. The gates of hell will NOT prevail against My church. But the FACE (the heart attitudes of the people) of My church will change abruptly and like an altering of surgery - will not be recognizable in it's old form.

What I do will be so shocking to some that they will attempt to box it In and control it, but they will find themselves fighting with ME. Their attempts Will be strongly opposed. Keep your eyes on ME My Beloved! I AM the Author and Finisher of your faith!

I AM the King of Kings and I WILL have no other gods before ME. I am not coming as the meek and gentle shepherd. I AM coming as a jealous Bridegroom and I will destroy the strongholds of the enemy over whole congregations - over whole cities, and nations. My glory will INCREASE and be of great offense to many. The Spirit of Might will empower the children and youth and all who are open to MY WAYS to go forth in the POWER of Elijah to tear down the altars to Baal in this land and to destroy the kingdom of darkness, all over the world.

Worship ME in the beauty of holiness!
Worship ME in spirit and in truth!
Worship ME with abandonment!

Glory in what I am about to do! Rejoice! for the glory of the Lord is rising upon you, and life as you have grown accustomed to will abruptly change and NEVER be the same again. "Do you want a revolution?" { the Kirk Franklin song is resounding in my mind as I write this.} It will be a revolution of MY LOVE and GRACE! LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I HAVE LOVED YOU and been patient with you! As I have treated you - treat others. In this you will be blessed! GREAT HEALINGS AND MIRACLES ARE AT THE DOORSTEP.

Open the doors of your heart and let the King of Glory come in!
Who is this king of Glory?
The Lord Strong, and Mighty in Battle!
The Son of Righteousness is rising with healing in His wings!
Be found in the shelter of His wings!
For He is your everything.
Love in Christ,

Revelation of the Man Child

Cary Goodwin

Dear Brethren,

After the second Apostles Gathering the words Man Child were being used for the first time in this work and it made me nervous because I really didn't have the wisdom and revelation of Revelation Chapter 12. I had met one who says he is an Apostle who believes that he is the man child. I knew that this wasn't true. I began to seek the Lord about this and I believe that He has given me the revelation and wisdom of Revelations Chapter 12. This is very important to every believer. The time of the Man Child and the Woman has already begun and the child was birthed. So please Brethren read this carefully.

When the Lord delivered the Command to Gather His Apostles to me in Sept. 96 I was not aware of the signs in the heavens. The great wonder in heaven as described in Revelations Chapter 12 vs. 1-5 had just begun. At the same time the command was given to me there was a red moon and total lunar eclipse over Jerusalem. This alignment of stars that showed a woman giving birth happened every year from 1996 (when the command was issued) at the feast of Tabernacles till 1999. At about the same time as the second Gathering this sign in the heavens showed that the man child had been birthed.

At the Second Gathering of the Lord's Apostles the subject was brought up and discussed some before the congregation by Apostle Paul Jablonowski. After the Gathering, Paul wrote a detailed report on these signs in the heavens and the time table of events. The report was sent out over this mailing list. You can read this report at <http://www.covenantcenter.org/Rev12-Sign.html>

As I said, I was unaware of these wonders in the heavens. When the Lord delivered this command to me to Gather His Apostles it was done very formally. It was not His usual conversations with me. I have had to walk out this directive from the Lord one step at a time following His leading making sure to keep it as pure as possible from the traditions and doctrines of men and devils. The first Gathering at the feast of Tabernacles 1999 would have been the last sign in the heavens of the woman travailing in birth. The Second at the time when the birth had taken place. Again, I was unaware but merely following the Lord's leading in the time and place for these two Apostles Gatherings.

Many still do not understand what this Gathering of the Lord's Apostles is all about. And of course many still don't believe that the Lord issued this command to me or that He would issue a command to any one man. This would be due to the teachings of the churches and religion, certainly not from the word of God where God Commands those whom He will. The battles over this have been fierce and if I hadn't received this formal Command from our Lord I would not be pursuing this work any further. I would not want to. I would be afraid to touch it.

During the second Apostles Gathering, We found that it was about this spiritual baby being birthed. I watched one night while the Lord restrained me and everyone else from delivering any word or message, as Dulce Rothacker travailed painfully as though she were giving birth. I sought the Lord that night as to what was taking place and He said twice Travail, Travail.

On the last day of the Gathering when the Apostles stood up before the congregation, two were given visions of this baby that was birthed. The birthing was complete and the spiritual Baby was being shown to us for the first time through these visions. Apostle Paul Cunningham wrote of the vision that he received that day and I sent it out over this mailing list. <http://www.apostles-gathering.com/vision.html>

When the Lord birthed His Church on the Day of Pentecost using His Apostles whom he had named and prepared, it was glorious and full of power. There were no doctrines of men and devils among the believers to hinder this mighty flow of the Spirit of God. They had no preconceived ideas about what was to take place.

For the first time men could be born again and filled with the Holy Spirit. When we are born again the Spirit of Jesus the Son of God is birthed in us by the Holy Spirit.

We know that the power and the Glory of the Lord in His Church, His Body began to diminish as they were seduced by the order, ways, traditions and doctrines of men and devils.

These signs and the birthing of this Man Child is further evidence that the Lord is about to Re-empower and pour out His Glory on the Church once again.

You need to read Revelation Chapter 12 once again in light of this revelation and teaching. Now in Rev. Chapter 12 vs. 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God and to his throne. There is only one who is to rule all nations with a rod of iron and that is Jesus. We see that this child after being birthed is caught up unto God and to his throne. (Rev. 2 vs. 26-28)

The woman represents the Church or the Body of Christ in the earth. This man child is born to the Church the Body of Christ. Revelation Chapter 12 vs. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and three score days. (three and half years). Reading the entire chapter we see that Satan being cast down to the earth no longer able to accuse us day and night before our God, persecutes the woman but the Lord protects and provides for her.

The kind of persecution described in Chapter 12 can only be when the Church or the Woman is walking in greater power from the Lord. At the same time there will be more and more evil coming upon the earth.

The Lord has aligned the signs in the Heavens with this Gathering of His Apostles, which is by His Command. He has birthed the Man Child in the midst of those Apostles obedient to the Command at the proper time with the signs in the heavens spoken of by the Apostle John on the Isle of Patmos. (The book of Revelation.)

I believe that He is called the Man Child here because this Latter Day Re-empowering of His Body, His Church in the earth will be more mature and surpass anything seen before. And those being born again and coming into the Kingdom in this dispensation of the Man Child spirit of Jesus, will be more mature and will be more repulsed by the systems of men's religion.

After the Lord gave me the Command to "Gather together His Apostles from around the world into one place and time as has not been since the days of Pentecost", He told me that He had given me the key that would unlock His Glory and the Final move of His Spirit for the last days and the final Harvest. Go to <http://apostles-gathering.com/Overview.htm> To read the circumstances and the words given to me of this Command.

Everything is lining up perfectly and I fully expect His Glory to be poured out very soon. If we had received every one who says they are an Apostle after the order and ways of men and being politically correct to this time in society, this birthing could not have taken place in our midst. It must be after the Order and Ways of God keeping our doctrine as pure as possible.

We also see from Chapter 12 that Satan will make war with the woman and her seed. We are coming into a time where having church as usual after the order and ways of men will not sustain you. His Glory will not be given over to systems and religions of men. Matthew 16 vs. 6 Jesus said unto them, take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. In Mark Chapter 7 vs.13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered and many such like things do ye.

Consider this, when Jesus began His earthly ministry He went and gathered His Apostles first. When the Lord was about to ascend in to heaven and Birth His Church in the earth, He Commanded His Apostles to Gather and to wait. The Lord is about to move again in the earth and has Commanded His Apostles to Gather Together.

Some think that this Latter rain move of God will just automatically transform all the churches. This is not true. There will be Apostasy waxing worse and worse even as the Apostle Paul prophesied in the scriptures. There will also be the remnant of God's people who follow Him after His Order, Ways and Commandments. It is up to the individuals to make decisions in whom they follow and how they follow the Lord. One of the reasons that we have gotten so far off course in previous generations is because the warnings from the Lord were not heeded or even understood. This link will take you to chapter 10 of the Book "Gather My Apostles" <http://www.apostles-gathering.com/chapter10.htm>

Along with what is written in Rev. 12 vs.10 we have to realize that we are coming to the end of the 6000 year lease for this earth that Satan has usurped. This should be at the season of the Jewish New Year and Feast of Tabernacles this year. The authority given to Satan at the fall of Adam and Eve will be no more. The Authority given to the believers in Christ Jesus through the New Testament will still be in effect. Satan does not want us to know this.

The Third Apostles Gathering will be Sept. 25-28 2000 the 28th is the fourth anniversary of the date the Command was given to Gather the Lord's Apostles.

I try very hard not to speculate or get ahead of the Lord. But I tell you with everything we have discussed in this letter and everything the Lord has been showing me, I am very excited about the Apostles Gathering in September.

The Gathering is open to the Body of Christ. These meetings are not church as usual but rather we are taking care of the Business of the Kingdom of God according to the leading of the Lord in Gathering His Apostles. However those who say they are Apostles must go through the discernment process with the Elders and myself. We are not judging Apostles or appointing any Apostles. We simply want the Apostles who stand up as Apostles to truly be Apostles called by the Lord Jesus Christ.

If you intend to attend as an Apostle please get your testimony of your walk with the Lord into us as soon as possible, telling us why you say you are an Apostle.

We are not Gathering to compete for some perceived position as many have come but simply to fulfill the Command from the Lord to Gather Together. This is not a debate or place for dispute. The command is simple, it is definitely not easy but simple. I can tell you that pride and arrogance has been one of the biggest enemies to this work. Yet it should not be named among the Apostles of Jesus Christ. The Lord is building this fellowship of His Apostles.

I am sensing that the Next Apostles Gathering will be held in the middle of the Country. I am seeking the Lord right now for the finances to set everything up as soon as possible. I will let you all know as soon as I can. Remember there are some overseas who will need help in getting here.

I would suggest to all of you to get behind what the Lord is doing right now in the earth with everything within you. We need to protect and nurture this Baby to the best of our ability. It is not the time to be passive. The times we are already in are just too short and too important!!

God Bless You all with the very Glory that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. I love you all Cary Goodwin

Revival - Who Needs It?

Cheryl McGrath

For thus says the High and Lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, with him who has a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, to revive the heart of the contrite ones." Isaiah 57:15

I remember clearly the first time I heard the term "revival" used in a Christian context, back in the mid-seventies. A traveling evangelist had set up a huge tent in the town I lived in, with the words "Revival Meetings" written in large letters right across it. I had no idea what he meant by "revival", but one of the senior ladies in the Pentecostal church I had recently joined tried to explain it to me. I still had no real concept of what she was trying to convey, but the tone of her voice and the "far away" look of longing on her face spoke volumes. I was impressed. REVIVAL! It was obviously something I, as a newly Spirit-filled Christian, and so hungry to learn, needed to take very seriously.

Over the years since that day more than twenty five years ago, I've heard the word many times. I heard it reverberate through the Christian world loudly and clearly when the "Father's blessing" broke out in Toronto. A few years later, "revival" became the catch cry once again for the Brownsville outpouring, and since then for a number of other spiritual "hotspots" where the Spirit of God was known to be moving in power, healing, and salvations. I've seen the word plastered in big letters alongside indisputable (?) numbers on the billboards of large city churches. (You know the ones I mean: "Now in our umpteenth week of revival!"). I've heard it whispered, shouted, pleaded, commanded, claimed, and groaned, in countless prayer meetings and intercessors' conferences. I've read just about every "hot off the printing press, must have" book on it. I've poured through volumes on the history of revivals and the lives of revivalists from Edwards to Roberts. And I've listened dutifully to the varied opinions of "authoritative voices" on the subject, from local church pastors to international prophets.

And just lately I've come to the painful conclusion that while we're all talking about it , writing about it, reading about it, praying for it , seeking it and chasing it, there don't seem to be a great many of us actually HAVING it!

So what is this elusive thing we all think we want; Revival? And do we really want it, or do we just need it? Some seem to think revival is just the church awakening, dying to "dead works" and coming alive to a living relationship with Jesus. Others would say you know revival has come when there are signs, wonders, miracles and healings being manifested. Still others will tell you it's not a revival until there are multitudes of souls being added to the Kingdom. I don't dispute any of these views, in fact I suspect revival includes all of them. But are any of these a revival, or are they the fruits of revival?

If we turn to the scriptures for more insight on the matter we find that all the recorded instances of revival in the Bible, were preceded by some common elements. Revivals took place under the reigns of Hezekiah (2 Chronicles 29, 30, 31) and Josiah (2 Chronicles 34 & 35); revival came in the days of Ezra (Ezra 9 & 10); and again in the times of John the Baptist (Matthew 3:1-6) and the early church (Acts 2:37-47). A closer examination of each of these will reveal that God revived His people when He saw a combination of four things:

- Repentance;
- Forsaking of all forms of idolatry;
- Separation from the surrounding world;
- A turning back to the His Word.

Have you ever heard the old saying "familiarity breeds contempt?" It seems the church of God has become so familiar with terms like "renewal", "repentance" and "revival" that we're fast losing the significance and integrity of those words. I've heard it stated that we've had our fill of "repentance", that it's time to celebrate. Surely the question is not whether we, the church, are satisfied with our repentance, but whether God is satisfied. And surely He alone is able to judge when we've borne the "fruit worthy of repentance."

The word "repent" in the Old Testament ("shuwb") conveyed the idea of withdrawing, reversing or turning back from a position, (e.g. Ezekiel 14:6.) In the New Testament, the Greek word for repent ("metaneo" ) means to think differently, to reconsider, and comes from a root word meaning to consider and exercise the mind, or to change one's mind or purpose. It signifies not just regret, but a turning point. In the New Testament, repentance was preached first by John the Baptist, (Matthew 3:2), taken up by Jesus after John's imprisonment (Matthew 4:17), and later by the disciples (Mark 6:12). In scripture, revival was preceded by repentance.

However, if we look deeper we will discover another significant aspect of scriptural revival, and that is that before revival was granted on a corporate scale, it first took place in the spirit, mind and will of an individual. Both Hezekiah and Josiah, Kings of Israel, experienced revival in themselves before it manifested in their nation. It is said of Josiah that he began to "seek the God of His father, David" (2 Chr. 34:3). Ezra the priest was drawn into deep and humble repentance for the sins of the Israelites which led in turn to the corporate repentance and revival of the people. When John and Jesus preached "Repent. For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand" it was individuals who responded. They came one by one to be baptised, one by one to hear the words of the Kingdom, one by one to follow Jesus. Yes, there were crowds, but crowds are made up of many different individuals, not all who are of the same mind. Often crowds become a remnant when things become harder than expected. (See John 6:48-66)

The point I am making is that revivals start with the convicting power and quickening of the Holy Spirit in one yielded vessel. And when revival flares up in one, it cannot be contained. It spreads like wildfire to those around, until as in Hezekiah's day "the thing is done suddenly" (2 Chr. 29:36).

So many of us seem to be sitting around waiting for "the revival to come" as if some mighty rushing wind is going to bombard through the doors and windows at any moment, knocking us off our feet and transforming us all into "Supersaint" in an instant. And I won't for a minute say it can't happen that way. We know it has and can. God is sovereign and if He chooses to move on His church in that manner, so be it.

But consider this: Maybe there's a revival already starting in some of us. Maybe it's not coming, maybe it's here. And maybe He's just waiting for us to truly yield to everything He wants to do in us as individuals, before He brings it all out in the open and lets the world know about the treasure He's been hiding in His earthen vessels.

And to stretch the idea even further - maybe revival isn't the boisterous, happy, party time we've anticipated. Maybe revival is having everything comfortable and familiar in our lives stripped away; maybe it's having to let go of relationships, habits, or dreams we've held for years, in fact forsaking anything and everything that's exalted itself above the knowledge of the Lord; maybe it's calling sin, sin instead of "weakness" or "personality" or "culture"; maybe it's discovering we're wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked before our Creator, rather than the "have need of nothing" people we thought we were; maybe it's being confronted with the ugliness and utter hopelessness of our flesh in such clarity that all we can do is cry out for mercy. Yes, maybe it's uncomfortable, and maybe it's learning that repentance isn't just saying sorry, but willfully turning (2 Corinthians 7:9, 10).

Is that where you are right now? Well, if it is, welcome to revival my friend. This is it. If you're being dealt with by the Holy Spirit in a way you've never known before; if every day brings new revelation of the depth of your need and complete dependence on God's grace; if all of your dearly held doctrines are being questioned, stretched and even dismantled by Him; if your obedience is being tested to the utmost; if you are being driven to the Word out of sheer desperation for the truth; if you thought you knew at least a little and now find you know nothing; if everything you believed you had learned long ago is being re-examined and sifted; if what you had perceived as your God-given duty, ministry, calling or career is being exposed to you as nothing short of idolatry; in short, if you're not even sure who you are any more - well, there's a good chance you have what you've been asking for - REVIVAL!

One who experienced revival in a unique and powerful manner was Lazarus (John 11). Our English word "revive" means to "come or bring back to life" and comes from the Latin "vivere" - to live. So if we are to take the word "revival" at face value, what can we learn from the story of Lazarus, as one who was dead and lived again? Perhaps one of the greatest hindrances to the Holy Spirit's work of revival in our individual lives, is our fear of death. Not just physical death, but death to our everyday lives as we have known them. Three times in John 11 it was said of Jesus that if He had only come earlier, Lazarus "would not have died" ! Jesus, however, was fully aware of this. In fact, He had purposely delayed His journey to Bethany so that at the time of His arrival Lazarus had already been in his tomb for four days. Jesus did not view death in the same way as Martha, Mary and Lazarus did, and He does not view it in the same way as we do. How can He, when He is the resurrection and life? Lazarus' death was, to Jesus, no less than a means to bring forth life.

So it is with our flesh. The purpose of its death is that we may live. We have thought we have been alive, but we have not known life "abundantly" which is the supernatural life Jesus came to give us. Our English translation of His words "more abundantly" in John 10:10 fall far short of the original meaning of the Greek word used in that verse ("perissos"). This word literally translates as "exceedingly abundantly above, beyond measure, excessive, superfluous and vehement" - LIFE! In the light of the life Jesus came to bring us, we have indeed been dead.

When Jesus cried out the words "Lazarus, come forth!" Lazarus responded. Think of him in the blackness and dampness of that cave for four days, wrapped in his grave clothes. The Voice of Jesus suddenly breaks through every unseen barrier, commanding wholeness and life. At the sound of His Voice, death retreats full speed into the darkness, and Lazarus awakes. Jesus cried out the command, but it was Lazarus who "came forth". It was Lazarus who yielded, body, soul and spirit.. It was Lazarus from whom the grave clothes were removed and whose eyes were uncovered to behold the face of His Lord. It was Lazarus who was revived

Jesus is beginning to revive His Bride. He's starting with individuals. It starts with me, it starts with you. And it means a death must take place - ours. But He will not leave His Bride in the cold, dark cave. When the refining has taken place He will call her forth to life abundant.

So let me ask you - revival, who needs it? May God grant us a revelation of the desperation of our need and the humility to yield to His purifying fire as He revives us - that we may live!

"Come, and let us return to the Lord, For He has torn, but He will heal, He has stricken but He will bind us up. After two days He will revive us ; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His sight. Let us know, let us pursue the knowledge of the Lord, His going forth is established as the morning. He will come to us like the rain, like the latter and former rain to the earth." (Hosea 6:1)

Remember How The Tower Of Babel Fell

Stephen Hanson

Aug. 19, 00

4. Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth."
5. But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building.
6. The LORD said, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them.
7. Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other."
8. So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city. Gen 11
10. By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should be careful how he builds.
11. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.
12. If any man builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw,
13. his work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work. I Co. 3

"This day I will talk about those who build their own towers."

"Remember in ancient times that man strove to reach the heavens. He built a Tower of Babel that would reach high. Many people worked together in this effort. In the end I brought confusion to them so that they couldn't go any higher. "

"Dear people of God, the same thing is happening today. There are movements today that would enable man to reach to the heavens. A structure can easily fall unless its foundation is secure. "

(The Lord showed me the ground where a building would be started. Here a trench was dug for where a foundation would be laid. It was dug perhaps 3-5 feet deep and I noticed that a wheelbarrow of rocks was being taken out so that the trench was clean and smooth inside. Then came the concrete and there was rebar set inside of it. All was in process, but it seemed that this foundation would be laid correctly, and would serve as a footing for a great building.)

"Those involved in this movement must be aware of the great need for a firm foundation. I have given great wisdom for those who are working in this ministry. But I say, do not glory in your wisdom or in your strength in building this thing. Remember how the Tower of Babel fell. There was a king who stood in the midst and told the people what he wanted them to do."

(I saw a king dressed in royal clothing with a crown, and he stood amidst the platform of a high building. He looked out to the crowd and was giving a decree or orders for the construction of a great building.)

"There are some of you who are like that king. You would strive to reach to the heavens. I say to you, to be careful how you are to build. "

(Again the Lord showed me a building. This time it was finished and was beautiful in appearance. It had gold turrets and seemingly great charm and appearance. At the very top of this building, there was a gold turret. Here a man was sitting down and appeared to be proud of his achievements. He began to blow a great horn or trumpet. As he blew the entire building collapsed and fell to the ground.)

"In this building, I say to be wise in the choice of stones that you are using. Let them be the stones that I would give you and not the stones of your own making. Remember how the Tower of Babel fell. Be a wise master builder and know how to lay out your plans. Remember that I hold the blueprint for the design of this building. "

Raising His Standard

Sandy Warner

4 Visions and teaching on His Banner Compiled by Sandy Warner SWauthor@aol.com Website: www.thequickenword.com

Hi Loved Ones, Recently in asking the Lord to send His quickened Word to me, two intercessors received visions the same week, of the Lord's banner and shared them with me. The first one was given to Grandma Anna, my Mom:

"On Sunday, March 12th while in worship at Cornerstone Church, I had an open vision. I saw an extremely tall flag pole that went into the clouds. I couldn't see the top of it but I knew it had a flag flying because of the cords at the bottom for raising and lowering a flag. Suddenly I was lifted up to see the top of the pole in the clouds. Waving in the gentle breeze was a huge orange flag with a purple circle in the center. Then I was down at the bottom again. A Vine began rapidly to climb the pole. I was carried along horizontally with the Vine and watched it climb clear to the top. When the Vine reached the flag, it changed form and wove itself into the material, although it still looked like a Vine. The Vine moved through the orange flag straight into the purple center. It then branched into many vines in the material which began to radiate outwards towards the edge of the flag. When they reached the edge, they became regular looking vines and shot into space. It was rather like watching fire works. I watched them from the top and knew they would hit the earth although I was so high up I could not actually see that. From the directions they went, I knew they had been scattered all over the earth." [end of vision]

At prayer meeting the same week, one of our intercessors shared her vivid vision of the American flag raised up and waving in the clouds. People of different ethnic backgrounds were singing "God bless America" including a Jewish lady. Suddenly she exclaimed that Jesus was coming back. [end of vision]

I was also given a vision of this banner. The following is an excerpt from my book, 101+ Ways God Speaks (And How to Hear Him): "When I went to sleep on November 14, 1985, I had a strong yearning for Jesus. As I slept, He came to me and opened my eyes. I saw a huge, gigantic banner unfolding across the sky. This was so huge that it took the entire sky to unfold the banner and display what was written: It said, "THE LORD JESUS CHRIST." Suddenly I found myself in heaven looking down upon a vast desert. It was dry, brown, flat, and immense.

As I gazed upon the lifeless desert, someone was standing above and behind me declaring the scroll of Isaiah 35: "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, the excellency of our God. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them of a fearful heart, be strong, fear not: behold your God will come with vengeance; He will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water..." (Isaiah 35 KJ)

After Isaiah 35 had been announced, I heard the Lord say, "And the desert shall blossom as a rose. It shall happen all at once, and it shall happen suddenly." Immediately I saw the desert come to life. The sight was astounding and oh so beautiful! Everywhere blossoms emerged: this dry, lifeless region became a spacious garden of color and beauty. Then I came out of the gazing vision. As I woke, I was still in awe of what I'd seen, because it was so beautiful. I knew the Lord was speaking a promise of what He would be doing to our dry desert like lives. He was going to rain His Presence upon us and we would emerge with life and beautiful blossoms." [end of vision]

SYMBOLISM

THE FLAG: The Old Testament speaks of the Lord raising up His banner. Other meanings of this same Hebrew word are flag, sail, flagstaff, signal, token, banner, pole, sail, ensign, or standard. "All inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth: When he lifts up a banner (5251) on the mountains, you see it; And when he blows a trumpet, you hear it." Isa 18:3 NKJ) (Some other scriptures using this same Hebrew word 'nec' [Strong's # 5251] are: Isa 5:26, Isa 11:10, Isa 11:12, Isa 18:3, Isa 31:9.)

THE VINE: The scripture says that Jesus is the Vine and we are the branches: "Yes, I am the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him shall produce a large crop of fruit. For apart from Me you can't do a thing. If anyone separates from Me, he is thrown away like a useless branch, withers, and is gathered into a pile with all the others and burned. But if you stay in Me and obey My commands, you may ask any request you like, and it will be granted! My true disciples produce bountiful harvests. This brings great glory to My Father." (John 15:5-8 TLB)

ORANGE: The color orange is not literally quoted in the scripture. However, the closest proximity is the color amber. Amber is fossilized resin from tree sap. The ancient Greeks and Romans regarded amber as a gem that could be polished to a high gloss. The prophet Ezekiel mentioned amber three times, (Ezek 1:4,27; 8:2) and always in context with the appearance of fire. These scriptures were in context to God's glory appearing to Ezekiel and the cherubim bearing His throne.

PURPLE: Purple was a most expensive and ancient dye coming from a shellfish around the Mediterranean Sea. It is said that a total of 250,000 mollusks were required to make one ounce of the dye. Thus purple was associated with royalty and the wealthy. Purple was found in the high priest's clothing, the tabernacle and upon Jesus at His trial. (Ex 39, Ex 27:16, Mark 15:17, Es 8:15, Lu 16:19)

THE UNFOLDING: The fact that the banner was being unfolded, (as though it had been rolled up like a scroll) to reveal the words, THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, represents the "manifestation" of Jesus Christ, or the revealing of Who He is to the world.

The word revelation, from Revelations 1:1 is the Greek word (Strong's #602) apokalupsis (ap-ok-al'-oop-sis). The meaning of apokalupsis is disclosure. It is translated as appearing, coming, lighten, manifestation, be revealed, revelation. It comes from a word meaning to take off the cover.

This is the same word used in the scripture: "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." (Rom 8:19 KJV)

Jesus said to Jerusalem, "For I say to you, you shall see Me no more till you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' " (Matt 23:39 NJV) This banner will unfold to the whole world, and Jesus is not coming back until Jerusalem welcomes WE who come in the Name of the Lord. He is going to manifest Himself through us, to the world.

THE WAVING: In all three visions, we saw the movement and the folds of material in the waving of flag/banner. Although the wind was invisible, its effects were not. It moved the banner to and fro, just as His Spirit carries us. "The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." (John 3:8 NKV)

In the Old Testament, the wave offering (also called the peace offering) was presented to the Lord by raising it above the heads of the priest and worshipper, and waving it before the altar. It was then eaten by the priest, the worshipper and his guests of non-officiating priests, Levites and the poor. There were three kinds of peace offerings: (1) thank offerings for His blessings; (2) votive offerings accompanying a vow to God; and (3) freewill offerings spontaneously presented in worship and praise. (Deut 12:18; 16:11-14, Lev 7:12; 22:29, Num 15:3,8, Lev 7:16; 22:18,21)

It was quickened to me that waving of His banner in these visions could have special significance to this offering. This could be a parable of those called to be priests and worshippers who have offered their lives as sacrifices to the Lord and in turn the Lord hosts a dinner with guests included, whereby all partake of the sacrifice. These sacrificial ones will be raised up as waving banners in His wind, and be meat to the world. (John 4:34)

GOD BLESS AMERICA In context with the other visions, the Lord will not only raise up Himself and those that represent Him, but also once again bless America and raise her up to proclaim Jesus to the world. In the mid 80's I had a vision of the map of America. I saw band members on a field and they were outlining the map. They were all out of line and it looked like a very disorderly map. Then in the vision I saw the same scene as though a video was rewinding. The members stepped into their place and it formed a perfect looking outline of the USA. The Lord has promised He will restore the years that have been eaten by the cankerworms and He is going to rain upon all flesh. (Joel 2:23-29) He will once again return America to her godly heritage and she will be used to bless even the Jewish people.

ISAIAH 35 He is raining His Presence upon us. Even now we are experiencing His touch and reviving as. (Hosea 6:2,3) More and more of His Presence will fall until it becomes a deluge and even the most hopeless lives who are dry, flat, barren and without hope will spring to life. We will experience the glory of the Lord.

CONNECTING THE SYMBOLS: The Lord is going to raise His banner as a sign for all the world to see. This banner will be like an advertisement, a sign to draw the unsaved. The banner will be moved by His Spirit and unfold before the world. Those abiding in His glory, His priests and kings, will burst forth upon the world to share the heart of His kingdom. This will happen as He rains His Spirit upon a dry and thirsty world.

Lovingly, Sandy

Rising Up From The Ashes

Ching Co

March 28, 2000

THE IMPRESSION

In the coming days, there will rise up in various nations, in different cities and communities, strong groups of Christians with different spiritual and vocational giftings, and God will sovereignly networked them to work together, not just in uplifting the spiritual condition of the land but even to help share their different skills and expertises and used them as tools in building up the community.

THE BUILDING OF THE LORD

In the past, the enemy has been using the Babel type of community building where it was mostly individualized and often identified to specific group and even person. But the building of the Lord in these last days will be totally different and unique. It will be in the type of Nehemiah where everybody whom the Lord called and touched will respond and will become part of the rebuilding.

For the first time, the world will see Christian men and women whose lives God will use as a showcase. In the past, the unbelieving world has look down upon us because even though we have not been lacking in preaching God's word, we have been short in living it out.

But the Lord has been quickening my heart for many months and I see the body of Christ rising up to the challenges of the time. God will cause His defeated body to rise up from the ashes, and like the vision of Ezekiel and the valley of dead bones, when the Spirit of God blows upon us and resurrect us, we will stand and glow with the glory of the Resurrected Christ Himself.

NAMELESS AND FACELESS

Different centers will rise up in various cities and nations. These centers will be taken care of by men and women of God who has no motive but to serve and willing to remain nameless and faceless and willing to come and go at the shortest notice. They will not hold on to anything or be dependent on anybody but the Lord will be their provider.

People of God, rejoice and gear yourself for this wonderful time of sending out. God is at the head of this party and His angels are busy preparing everything, even at this point of time. Many of His pioneering servants are all packed and ready to go to this exciting trip ahead of them.

THINGS WILL SOON BECOME CLEARER

A little longer and all things will become more and more clearer. The next three years will see a greater unfolding of all these and by that time, many centers in various land would have risen up and made known to the nations. None of these centers would need to advertise themselves. God Himself will trumpet their presence and people from all over the nations including head of state, king and queen will flock to see what all these are about.

RHEMA PROMISES

Isaiah 2:2-3

In the last days the mountain of the Lord's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and all nations will stream to it.

Many people will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths." The law will go out from Zion, the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 60:1-4,5b,7b,10a-12,16,17b-18,22

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. See darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and his glory appears over you.

Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look about you: All assemble and come to you; your sons come from afar, and your daughters are carried on the arm.

The wealth on the seas will be brought to you, to you the riches of the nations will come. They will be accepted as offerings on my altar, and I will adorn my glorious temple.

Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you. Your gates will always stand open, they will never be shut, day or night, so that men will bring you the wealth of the nations - their kings led in triumphal procession. For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish; it will be utterly ruined.

You will drink the milk of nations and be nursed at royal breasts. Then you will know that I, the Lord, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

I will make peace your governor and righteousness your ruler. No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I AM THE LORD; IN ITS TIME I WILL DO THIS SWIFTLY."

GOD WORDS TO US

" My faithful children, do not fear for I have not forgotten you. I have seen your sowing, I have taken note of your sacrifices for me, just a little longer and things will began to change before you.

Like Jacob at Bethel, you will see my angels coming up and down from heaven to bring My provision to you and to prepare the way for you.

Like Joseph, you will be brought before Pharaoh and my glory will shine forth from you. Do not worry about what you are to say for when the time comes, I will put the word in your mouth.

I WILL MOVE EARTHLY LEADERS TO ISSUE DECREES

Like Nehemiah, you will find favors before your leaders. I will move the heart of earthly leaders and will cause them to issue decrees that will worked in your favor so that My kingdom's work will be hastened.

THE CLOUD OF GLORY IS DESCENDING

What has taken years before will now be accomplished in weeks and months. The cloud of my glory is descending, it is heavy and about to be pour down upon you. You don't have to run around to seek these clouds, it will come to you where you are, to those whose heart has been harkened unto me, the clouds will come to you and will rest upon your homes.

There will be no more running around chasing for My glory-- for My glory will be resting upon my people and many will be drawn to you because of the glory resting upon you.

Even your young children will reflect my glory, what I've spoken in Joel will become more and more real soon.

NO LABOR FOR YOUR INHERITANCE

Enter into your inheritance; I have assigned you your portion and your cup, your lot is secure in me. Your boundary line has fallen in pleasant places. (Psalm 16:5-6) No one will be able to steal them from you. You will not need to labor to enter into your inheritance for I will bring your inheritance to you."

May these words encourages us to hold on to all the promises given to us individually and corporately by our Faithful God.

Blessings,

Rivers and Fires

Gloria Shepherd

Rivers of My Spirit Are Flowing Over the Earth

Gloria Shepherd

"Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall we not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert " Isaiah 43:19

8/3/00

In the dry and thirsty land and desert, I am about to flood your lands with the waters of my spirit, everflowing springs of living water are about to erupt over the earth in so many places now. For I am doing a new thing upon my earth, my children. For you have been thirsting after my living waters in a dry desert land, and I am about to unleash the rivers of my spirit over the earth. There will be no spot of this earth untouched by these waters that are going to begin to flow like the everliving springs of my living waters spring forth like geysers over the earth. There will be many gushers springing up over my earth now and out of those gushers the waters will flow out to the dry and thirsty land about it.

So prepare my children, the rivers of my spirit are going to begin to flow with such a force now to quench the thirst of the land about it. Come and drink of this water, come and drink the waters of my spirit, for they will quench your thirst and you will not thirst again, for they are living waters of my spirit, that are beginning to flow now through the earth. Refresh in the springs that are about to erupt up and out of the earth, and let my waters give you a quenching and a refreshing that you have not had yet.

God's Breath Blew and It Ignited Fires Over the Earth

Gloria Shepherd

8/11/00 This morning, I felt the breath of God blow and it ignited great fires over the earth as it was moving over the earth. He was blowing a strong wind over the earth, igniting the great fires of prophetic intercession and the prophetic mantles of warfare were being ignited all over the earth as He blew.

The Lord spoke to me this morning of this which He is doing over the earth this day.

Thus saith the Lord of Hosts, It is nothing that you do my children, but what I am doing over MY earth. I am igniting the fires within my children to begin to pray with the prayer mantles of the great warriors of intercessors of the past, to begin to pray up the visions which I lay on their hearts, to not stop until these visions which I shall lay in the hearts of those I have chosen for these missions have come to past. I am initializing a great movement of prophetic intercession now for the lands, for the countries which I lay on each of the hearts of this warriors. I am doing this work. I will begin to rise up a great multitude of intercessors in the land that will begin to be able to break that which has held the lands for so long, the gates of hell shall not prevail over these lands any longer, for I will begin to rise up men and women with great spiritual vision that will see what holds these lands captive, and will be able to show those given to pray over these lands the veils that have been over these cities and these countries. The veils will begin to be ripped apart as these intercessors will begin to pray over these lands that I have said will be given over to my people now. No longer will the gates of hell prevail over these lands, for I am the Great Creator, and I have spoken this, and this will be done because I have spoken it this day.

Rise up, you intercessors who I am now giving the vision to see and to go forth and do the things which I call forth. Go forth you men and women I have chosen for this task now. Rise up and let your eyes behold the vision which I am unveiling now this day before you, for you are to go forth and take the land of your forefathers, for you are to take that which I give you now, the vision which I give you this day, you are to begin to pray over it, I shall begin to unveil the spiritual plan and many of you will be given the anointing of spiritual mapping this day for those lands, and others the spiritual discernment of the enemies camps and his plans that are laid out for that land. You will see it and together in that tri-fold cord which will be laid out the plans to take hold of that land, for nations will begin to be broken now, as I have spoken this forth in this day. For the enemy will not prevail in the gates of these cities and over these nations any longer, for I have given the words this day to ones I have spoken to and who I am now just unveiling the plans for this spiritual work and warfare over the lands which you will begin to lay hold of by my spirit it will be done, for my word has spoken it this day.

Really A Prophet

Steve Shultz

"IF HE WERE REALLY A PROPHET, HE'D KNOW WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT THOSE PEOPLE!"

-- A Commentary on modern-day prophets, prophetic people, and what they say they are seeing By Steve Shultz
THE ELIJAH LIST
steve@elijahlist.com
www.elijahlist.com

Jesus was the Messiah, the true Anointed One of Israel and the Church.

But his accusers saw it differently. One of their strongest accusations against Him was this: "IF HE WAS REALLY A PROPHET, HE WOULD KNOW WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT THAT PERSON AND ABOUT THOSE PEOPLE."

In this particular case from Scripture, they were speaking of the woman who had lived a life of sin,"

Luke 7:37-50 37 When a woman who had lived a sinful life in that town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume, and as she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is-- that she is a sinner."

FUNNY THING ABOUT TRUE PROPHETS

Not only was Jesus the Messiah, but He was THE TRUE PROPHET (and the True Apostle, the True Evangelist, the True Pastor, etc etc). If anyone was a prophet, Jesus was. Yet the argument against Him was His love for KNOWN sinners.

Their question, by the way, was their answer. He WAS a prophet, and what he SAW and what He did, proved it. He saw what others believed to be not only unlikely . . . BUT IMPOSSIBLE---That God loves the VERY PEOPLE who many believe have become-- or who simple ARE ---UNREACHABLE!!!

There's something else beyond the obvious also. Not only will today's truly prophetic people be seen for their love of KNOWN sinners, but they will be observed as KNOWING the impossible things God is doing and planning to do--the things many believe just CAN'T happen. Pharisees had no belief or expectation that Jesus could do anything or make anything pure out of this sinful woman. The same is true today.

Prophets are speaking things that some are just saying, "CAN'T HAPPEN!" "I should know," they say.

Over the years, I've received quite a lot of correspondence from people who tell me (about a given prophetic word), "That can't be. I know this person can't be truly prophetic, because we are intimately familiar with this person or group of people he is prophesying about and if what he is saying was true, WE WOULD KNOW IT!"

NOT JUDGING BY WHAT THE EYE SEES OR THE EAR HEARS

Isaiah, prophesying of the Messiah said it this way:

Isa 11:1-4 A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit. The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him-- the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD--and he will delight in the fear of the LORD. HE WILL NOT JUDGE BY WHAT HE SEES WITH HIS EYES, OR DECIDE BY WHAT HE HEARS WITH HIS EARS; but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth.

It's the oddest thing to me. A prophetic word comes forth and then come many letters and articles saying, in so many words, "That can't be. I'm familiar with that situation and I'd know it if it was true. I'm in a place to know. And I'm saying it can't be true."

SITTING IN THE SEAT OF THE SCORNFUL

We must not find ourselves sitting in the seat of the scornful:

Ps 1:1 1 How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the path of sinners, nor sit in the SEAT OF SCOFFERS!

As fellow Believers, how very careful we must be not to "scoff" at what some are saying the Lord is about to do. A fairly common email I receive says, "I'm so tired of hearing what the Lord is "about to do." Yet God expected Israel to not only believe-- but to be ready and knowledgeable about their day--HIS DAY-- of visitation, even though the prophets had been "silent" for over 400 years.

We get frustrated when a prophetic word that comes forth isn't fulfilled within two years. That might appear humorous to the New Testament Believers who finally saw the fulfillment of the cross. It would sound odd to them that we are tired of waiting for these two years (or twenty years) for God's promise to come true for us.

GOD LAUGHS AT OUR FEELINGS OF HIS INABILITY TO ACT

The very next Psalm, Psalm 2--- says that the Lord LAUGHS AT THOSE WHO THINK THEY KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THE LORD'S INABILITY TO INTERVENE ON BEHALF OF HIS OWN.

Ps 2:1-6

"Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One. 'Let us break their chains, they say, 'and throw off their fetters.' The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying, 'I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill.'"

While the context is slightly different than about prophetic words today, the principle is the same--some people, and yes, even Believers, find themselves in the seat of scoffers, saying, "Everything continues as it has from the beginning. Where is His coming," they say, "or even a sign of His coming?"

APPEALING TO THE LORD TO COME QUICKLY

Did you know that when we are instructed in the book of Revelation to pray, "Even so Lord, come quickly!"---(the second to the last verse in the Bible}---that we are to pray this about everything? Come quickly to heal us, LORD. Come quickly to save our relatives! Come quickly to help us in our financial need. Come quickly to Israel! Come quickly to bring Your Presence into the Church today, LORD!

DOESN'T GOD TELL HIS PROPHETS EVERYTHING?

Now we come to what prophets today DON'T KNOW. Having said all the above, that is--having proclaimed all the things that prophetic people know and prophesy--that many don't believe is possible-- we must necessarily visit what prophets DON'T know.

What, you ask? Didn't the Lord say: Amos 3:7 "Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets?"

Answer: Yes he did.

Question: "Then don't God's Servants, His prophets know everything?

Answer: Well, no, not each prophet or prophetic person. Because prophets and prophetic people know that they only see and know IN PART. Most are familiar with this Scripture:

1 Cor 13:9 "For we know in part and we prophesy in part . . . "

The implications are clear. God tells His prophets everything---- But He only tells a given prophet or prophetic voice IN PART--- and He only tells each person when it's TIME to tell them. We see that in the life of Jesus. He revealed certain things to His disciples when it was time to reveal it --and then He "OPENED THEIR EYES" when it was time for them to have them opened--to the very things he has ALREADY TOLD THEM.

Luke 24:27 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He EXPLAINED TO THEM what was said [and what He had of course already told them] in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

WHAT THINGS DO HIS PROPHETS NOT KNOW?

When Jesus appeared on the "Mount of Transfiguration,"-- only two others appeared with him. Moses, the great Lawgiver, and Elijah, perhaps the greatest prophet known to man. It was even proclaimed by Jesus that John the Baptist came in the spirit and power of Elijah. The point is--among prophets, ELIJAH WAS GREAT!

Didn't Elijah Know everything?

Well, there was a famous incident that proved the answer to that to be, "No!"

At the time of his greatest success, we find ELIJAH MORE OR LESS "CLUELESS."

He's run from Jezebel. He's hiding out in a cave and the Lord comes to Him and asks him the obvious question, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE?

IKing 19:9-19 9 There he went into a cave and spent the night. And the word of the LORD came to him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?" 10 He replied, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I AM THE ONLY ONE LEFT, and now they are trying to kill me too."

"BUT LORD, I'M THE ONLY ONE LEFT--I'VE LOOKED AROUND!"

Elijah didn't get it. He was the greatest prophet of all times. If anyone should know who was who--- and who was serving the Lord in Israel, wouldn't it have been Elijah?

So the Lord gives Elijah some experimental homework:

Verse 11 "The LORD said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper. When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave."

Now get this. The Lord had already asked the great prophet this question once. Now He asks it again to the fearful ELIJAH,

Vs. 12 "Then a voice said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Elijah lists the complaint again:

Verse: 14 "He replied, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I AM THE ONLY ONE LEFT, and now they are trying to kill me too." Elijah wanted to make sure the LORD understood that he was IT, the last one!!

Prophets back then, just like prophets today, need fresh instructions from the Lord---sometimes, right in the middle of great confusion:

Verse: 15 "The LORD said to him, "Go back the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael king over Aram. Also, anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet. Jehu will put to death any who escape the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death any who escape the sword of Jehu."

HERE'S WHAT ELIJAH DIDN'T KNOW---EVEN THOUGH HE WAS A PROPHET!

Now we see exactly what Elijah Didn't know. And this gives us a clue of what some modern day prophets and prophetic people also don't know--at times.

18 "Yet I [GOD] reserve seven thousand in Israel-- all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouths have not kissed him. So Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. . . "

ELIJAH'S EMBARRASSMENT

I just see Elijah's face turning red at this point. Shouldn't he have known? Well, maybe yes, and maybe no. Either he wasn't listening carefully, or the Lord just hadn't told him this fact.

Meanwhile, all throughout Jerusalem, Israeli's are meeting in houses--- IN SECRET, not allowing the corrupt Jezebel to know they were serving the Living God. And God was reserving and preserving them, amidst this secrecy. Their lives were spared because of this and not even ELIJAH knew about them.

WHAT DOES THIS HAVE TO DO WITH PROPHETS TODAY?

The same is true in the modern-day world. All over the earth, literally hundreds of thousands are receiving revelation from the Lord. Some are being told about nations. Others about cities. Some know names of people about to come into the Kingdom and when they will come. Some know who have committed which crimes. Some know where apostles and evangelists are to go next. Others know about what's going on in Jerusalem, Israel. Still others know what World Wars the enemy is up to, and they are told by God to discreetly intercede against a premature war. The list goes on and on.

All of God's prophetic voices know only in part. And they all DON'T KNOW things that other prophets DO KNOW.

"IF HE OR SHE WAS A PROPHET THEY WOULD KNOW THIS!"

There are tremendous things going on behind the scenes by the Lord and guess what? He's not telling EVERY prophet about them. And every person who SHOULD KNOW about these things--because they live in the area, or because they are specialists in this type of knowledge---DON'T IN FACT KNOW about many of these things HAPPENING RIGHT UNDER THEIR NOSES. God loves secrets and He loves to reveal them at the most unusual and inopportune times.

How many prophets proclaimed the date and time of the fall of the iron curtain? Who prophesied in advance the public repentance to the church by the Worldwide Church of God. Who is now prophesying the great things that God is doing within the Mormon Church and Jehovah's Witnesses Church. Which prophet now knows the day when public repentance will come forth from people "at the top" of these organizations.

IT'S HAPPENING RIGHT NOW! WILL YOU BELIEVE IT?

I'm telling you, among the Mormons, among the Jehovah's Witnesses, among the Jewish people, and among those who are unsaved members of all denominations, ---It's going to happen---Sudden intervention by GOD (that's been going on all along.) We know because a number of prophets have "seen it" and proclaimed it. But few know exactly when. Few know how many.

But will YOU believe that God is doing the impossible, right now, almost under your nose?

Will you believe that God is working in the hearts of your most atheistic family members? Will you believe that God has slated for upcoming-salvation ---that very person for salvation that is acting in hatred toward you right now?

THE QUESTION THEY SHOULD BE ASKING ABOUT PROPHET'S TODAY

There is one thing we do understand about what prophetic people KNOW FOR SURE today. Just as they did with Jesus, We prophetic people should be seen with sinners, IN PUBLIC, and our accusers should be saying about us, "IF HE (OR SHE) was a prophet, they would know what kind of sinner those people are."

And our answer should be, "Yes, we know what kind of sinners these people are. The kind of sinners Jesus loves. The kind of sinners Jesus died for. And the kind of sinners very few people believe that Jesus can EASILY save on this very day.

Jesus is about to suddenly come TO HIS TEMPLE, His people, the most unlikely and unlovely--or the most beautiful and unexpected---and He's going to just suddenly SAVE THEM!

Do you believe this? Will you believe this?

Receive My Power

Harley Hickling

July 29, 2000

The Spirit of the Lord would say:

As I now speak forth there are many among you who will sense a change in the wind as you receive these words, for deep down in your spirit you are experiencing a quickening, a dramatic quickening of a deep and abiding faith welling up from within, a faith that in time will flow with the power to move mountains and even hasten the return of your King. A very large portion of you that are now experiencing this quickening of faith I have called to be intercessors, a calling upon your lives you have been aware of for some time. Soon The Most Holy Spirit shall lay burdens of prayer upon you the depths of which you have never before experienced for deep shall be calling unto deep. In your groanings and deep travail you shall be preparing the field of battle for My warriors who shall be going forth even into the very lairs of those principalities and powers that I have determined should be removed. You warriors are experiencing this wave of quickening faith rising up within you as well for My power is reaching out to touch both intercessor and warrior alike for the days of battle will soon be coming to pass.

For the days you are now entering will be days not like any other days experienced before in the history of man for it is now time for that one who goes about as a roaring lion to experience some serious setbacks. And what will it take to bring these setbacks about? Nothing more and nothing less then great faith and obedience directed to bringing to pass the burdens that I will soon be laying upon you, My intercessors, and upon you, My warriors. You have been prepared well for this great and dynamic time and in your hearts you are fully aware that I Am truly speaking to you now. I say unto you, lift up your hands with joy and receive the fullness of My power I would have you to be clothed in! Spend time laying prostrate before Me and I shall raise you up in newness of power ready to take the battle even into the enemy's camp. Success will require nothing less then great faith and perfect obedience! Receive ye now My power and receive it in great abundance and your success will be assured!

Romans 12:1

Gregory M Gavin

This is just something that god has placed on my heart to share...it is not perfect in presentation it is just what God has been showing me.

Romans 12:1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

The greek word for beseech is: 3870 parakalew parakaleo par-ak-al-eh'-o from 3844 and 2564; TDNT-5:773,778; v

AV-beseech 43, comfort 23, exhort 21, desire 8, pray 6, intreat 3, misc 4, vr besought 1; 109

- 1) to call to one's side, call for, summon
- 2) to address, speak to, (call to, call upon), which may be done in the way of exhortation, entreaty, comfort, instruction, etc.
- 2a) to admonish, exhort
- 2b) to beg, entreat, beseech
- 2b1) to strive to appease by entreaty
- 2c) to console, to encourage and strengthen by consolation, to comfort
- 2c1) to receive consolation, be comforted
- 2d) to encourage, strengthen
- 2e) exhorting and comforting and encouraging
- 2f) to instruct, teach

The holy spirit beseeches us teaches us, comforts us, strengthens us...blesses us And begs us to present our selves to God as a living sacrifice!

On the earth this should be the outcome of our Christianity : to esteem ourselves as sheep to the slaughter! That we would be as the lamb of God which was slain before the foundation of the world...God help us to come to the place of sacrifice in our lives that prove you supreme...Christ wants to bring us to a place of sacrifice with him so that his power may be completely free in our lives. He expends his power to bring us to sacrifice and when we do he releases his power to do mighty things...that is how his church is to function from this place of sacrifice!

I am so void of the ability to offer myself up as a living sacrifice. My understanding is so carnal that I cannot conceive how...all I can do is try and keep myself unspotted from the world ... seek to walk in purity...seek his holiness and say God here I am use me...by his mercy I present myself holy and acceptable...

God take my sacrifice, I fill my hands with your blessing. I consecrate it to you. I give you permission to move anything in my life you want to sacrifice...burn up what you will and I will follow you...

River of Fire From Heaven

Lynne Williams

As I prayed for a friend interceding in Jerusalem, the Lord gave me a vision of a river of fire flowing from His throne, to Israel and out through his prayer warriors to the whole world. I saw lightning and thunder bolts being thrown from heaven onto Israel and to everyone involved in the conflict against Israel. I saw 'fire' over Israel. I saw 'Mighty Angels' from the throne of heaven being dispatched to do warfare for Israel and all those who are standing in the gap for Israel. Angels that have been 'on alert' have now been called to action. The prayers and true worship of the saints empower angelic hosts to do Gods' bidding.

We have come to the 'Mountain of the Lord' but the Mountain of the Lord has erupted and there is a river of lava flowing, and all those who attempt to come and refuse to come clean will be burned in the fire of Gods' great river. This river is not the same river of water that flowed during the 'renewal'. This is the river of the Baptism of Gods' Holy Fire. Rev. 15:.....

At the beginning of 1998, the Lord spoke to me and told me that I would have another grandson named Benjamin. Benjamin was born during Passover season this year. He was born to my youngest son and his wife. They named him Benjamin David Williams. they tried very hard to name him something else, but God would not let them. Benjamin means 'the son of my right hand'. The Lord told me when Benjamin was born we would be entering the 'Days of His right hand'. I released this prophetic word August 20, 1998. You can find it on Bill Somers web site titled "Horsehoofs" or through Dave Bodine's web site "Northwest Revival News <revival@kalama.com>.

I know there is more to this 'Word', but for now this is all God has given to me.

Lynne Williams

Thu, 20 Aug 1998

This is the time to release the 'Word of the Lord'.

In February 1998, I was called out (along with Dave Bodine) by the Pastor of Renewed Hope Ministries. He said "You two prophets of the Lord, come here. The Lord wants you to know that the reason your ministries have not been released, and why the anointing you have sensed has not yet been unleashed. The Lord says it is because the word He has put in your heart, the people have not been ready to hear!"

I hit the floor and as soon as I did I started to hear these words "I hear the sound of the hoofs of many horses" I hear the sound of the hoofs of many horses." Over and over again I heard these words. Then I saw the horses! They were fierce, and they were riding over the top of me. I was laying underneath them, and I could see the bottom of their hoofs, and the riders. They were flying furiously over me, as fast as they could go. They were dark reddish brown in color. Then the Lord spoke to me "Get yourself up off the floor and look for the horses in Jeremiah!" I jumped up off the floor and got my Bible. The first scripture I found was; Jer. 4:10-22(Amp.)

*"(10) Then I Jeremiah said, Alas Lord God! Surely you have greatly deceived and misled this people and Jerusalem (for the prophets represented You as) saying (to your people) you shall have peace, whereas the sword has reached to their very life.
(11) At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness (comes at My command) against the daughter of my people, not (a wind) to fan or cleanse (from chaff, as when threshing, but)*

- (12) a wind too strong and full for winnowing comes at My word. Now I will also speak in judgement against (My people).
- (13) Behold, (the enemy) comes up clouds, his chariots like a whirlwind; HIS HORSES ARE SWIFTER THAN EAGLES. Woe to us for we are ruined, (destroyed)!
- (14) Oh Jerusalem wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your iniquitous and grossly offensive thoughts lodge within you?
- (15) For a voice declares from Dan (in the North) and proclaims evil from Mount Ephraim (the range dividing Israel from Judah).
- (16) Warn the (neighboring) nations ( that our adversary is coming ); announce to Jerusalem that besiegers are coming from a far country, and they shout against the cities of Judah.
- (17) Like the keepers of a field they are against her round about, because she has been rebellious against Me , says the Lord.
- (18) Your ways and your doing have brought these things upon you. This is your calamity and doom; surely it is bitter for surely it reaches your very heart!
- (19) (It is not only the prophet but also the people who cry out in their thoughts) My anguish, my anguish, I writhe in pain! Oh, the walls of my heart! My heart is disquieted, and throbs aloud within me; I cannot be silent! For I have heard the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.
- (20) News of one violent disaster and calamity comes close after another, for the whole land is laid waste; suddenly are my tents spoiled and destroyed, and my tent curtains ruined in a moment.
- ( 21) [Oh Lord] how long must I see the flag [marketing the route for flight] and hear the sound of the trumpet [urging the people to flee for refuge]?
- (22) [Their chastisement will continue until it has accomplished its purpose] for My people are stupid, says the Lord {replying to Jeremiah}; they do not know and understand Me. They are thickheaded children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to good , they have no knowledge [and know not how].

The next day I had a dream. I was exhausted and took a nap in the afternoon. Right after I fell asleep, someone came to the door and woke me up. I thought it was my daughter, so I answered the door with my hair a fright. It was some Pastor inviting the neighbors to his church. I was embarrassed about the way I looked. Then I went back to sleep for 2 hrs. My husband called and woke me up out of a dream from the Lord. In the dream we were in a large hotel, and were attending a large meeting, ( it seemed as though it was a secular banquet). The waiter came over to our table and asked us very sternly if we had invitations to this banquet. My husband replied in just as stern a manner that, 'yes we did'. Then he said to me, you better go comb your hair. So I headed for the bathroom, and discovered I was in the men's bathroom. So I tried to sneak out, but I heard Doctors and nurses in the stalls getting dressed into their uniforms to go to work. So I went and found a mirror in the hall. As I was fixing my hair I heard this song of anguish coming over the loud speaker. I heard a high tenor singing it. The words started out " Oh America , America, God shed His grace on thee, Oh America, America, what used to be will never be ....

I began to sob from the depths of my spirit and 'knew' something awful had happened to America. In my dream I thought this is what the horses hoofs meant! I started going through the hotel telling people "the only way you'll make it through this , is to be right with the Lord!" But they looked at me like they didn't know what had happened. Then the phone rang and it was my husband. I was sobbing so hard I couldn't talk, not even enough to tell him what my dream was about. I knew America had been invaded, and would never be the same again! The Lord has told me to finish the song to America. I wish I could sing it to you.

WAKE UP AMERICA'S PROPHETS to AWAKEN AMERICA; THE HORSES ARE COMING AND THEY ARE SWIFTER THAN EAGLES.

WAKE UP THE INTERCESSORS, WAKE UP THE MIGHTY MEN

WAKE UP THE WORSHIPPERS, WAKE UP YOU WARRIORS WAKE UP THE MUSICIANS, CALL FOR THE WAILING WOMEN IT'S TIME FOR WAR

- Is. 42: 13 The Lord shall go forth like a mighty man; He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war He shall cry out, yes shout aloud; He shall prevail against His enemies.
- 14) "I have held My peace a long time, I have been still and restrained Myself. Now I will cry like a woman in labor. I will pant and gasp at once.
- 15) I will lay waste the mountains and hills, and dry up all their vegetation; I will make the rivers coast lands, and I will dry up the pools.
- 16) I will bring the blind by the way they did not know; I will lead them in paths they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things I will do for them, and not forsake them.
- 17) They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, who trust in carved images, who say to the molded images, you are my gods'.
- 18) Hear you deaf; and look you blind that you may see.
- 19) Who is blind but My servant, Or dear as My messenger whom I send? Who is blind as He who is perfect, and blind as the Lords servant?
- 20) Seeing many things, but you do not observe; Opening the ears, but he does not hear.

We are entering the 'Days of His Right Hand' The Lord is a Man of War

Ex 15: Your RIGHT HAND oh Lord has become glorious in power; Your RIGHT HAND has dashed the enemy in pieces. And in the greatness of Your excellence You have overthrown those who rose against You; You sent forth Your wrath; It consumed them like stubble. And with the blast of your nostrils the waters were gathered together;

The Lord has been speaking to me for almost 2 yrs. about His Right Hand. At the first of this year the Lord told me that I was going to have another grandson named 'Benjamin' which means 'the son of my right hand'. At that time not one my kids were pregnant, neither did they plan to have anymore. But shortly thereafter my daughter-in-law discovered she was pregnant. She already has 3, all age 3 and under. It seems to us that she got pregnant at the exact time I prophesied about another grandson named Benjamin. She then told me that if there last baby would have been a boy, they would have named him Benjamin! They had a girl and named her Rebekah Lynne.

The Lord is calling His prophets forth. The days are over that people will not listen. But the Lord says

"Those of you who have prophesied My words in the past , will not be so quick to speak My words in the future. For they are the words that will separate and divide, root up and tear down. Those of you who have sang My songs in the Spirit will not believe what you're hearing from My Spirit, but I tell you to 'listen' closely to My heart. These are days that I will speak with great authority, and power, and many 'words' will I sing to my people. You will see great change in the traditions of men. Those of you who still have the 'fear of men' upon your hearts will fall by the wayside, so I tell you to repent now. Those of you who have been worshipping men and their positions will suddenly find yourselves with without hope, for many will fall in this battle. I am about to expose the chaff and blow it to the wind. I tell you "prepare yourselves' now----- the days are almost over for the 5 foolish virgins. Run into the anointing, and I will hide you away with me while the indignation passes by. Do not look at what the enemy is doing among My people or you will miss what I am doing! I am exposing false doctrine, the doctrine of men that brings glory to them and not to Me! Those who preach for their own self-protection will suddenly be exposed. For I am God and there is no other. I will not share My glory with another. Those who have been preparing their hearts during this transition time I will use mightily. I tell you do not look to men, for your hope is in Me and Me alone. Do not depend on anyone, for in these days many will be offended and fall away from the faith. These are treacherous days, and you do not know which ground is safe to stand on. So take your stand on the 'rock that will not be moved.

If you have not been preparing yourselves I tell you to fall on your face and cry to me for mercy, and I will gladly give it. I will strengthen you and uphold you and protect you from the enemy.

Forsake it all now, and throw yourself on Me, for I am mighty to save.

Road to Armageddon

Bill Somers

News Item:

Palestinian President Yasser Arafat said Sunday that his people, locked in running street battles with Israelis, would remain resolute until Palestinians won sovereignty over Jerusalem.

News Item:

Communications Minister Binyamin Ben Eliezer, told reporters that Israel has lost its peace partner and must therefore establish a unity government to prepare for major challenges ahead. He said he found it "difficult to believe that Arafat is going to abandon his new strategy of bringing about a Palestinian state by blood and fire."

Here is that strategy in a nutshell:

War for Jerusalem: Battle Plan

Step 1 Find a pretext for increasing the level of the violence [war]

Step 2 Increase it till the enemy is compelled to respond with [increasingly] harsh force. [Disregard your own losses; once the enemy can no longer respond you have won.]

Step 3 Call for outside help and use the enemy response to: Go to step 1.

As long as outside help continues to come and outside intervention does not come, you will eventually overcome the enemy.

Comment:

One potential source of outside intervention is the USA. If and when the USA is unable to intervene, that leaves only one other source.

Releasing The Kingdom Of God

The Church Needs Discernment

Perhaps one of the greatest needs in the church of Jesus Christ today is the need for discernment. Not the gift of discerning of spirits (I Cor. 12), but the discernment that knows the holy from the profane, the voice of the Shepherd from the voice of the wolf, the Kingdom of God from the usurpation of man. The purpose of this article is to create an atmosphere for that discernment to be formed in the reader, for discernment comes through (revelation) knowledge that is coupled with experience. The manifestation of God's kingdom can only come if HIS principles are set in motion in our hearts, homes, churches and communities. And although some of the author's statements may seem poignant, it is with the intent that the people of God be set free to be all that God has called us to be. That calling, to be the mature man of Eph. 4:13, standing in the measure that is the fullness of Christ.

A Mature Approach to Dominion, and Rule

Our maturity level has much to do with how we view things. A three-year-old child sees money as a toy, while an older child understands that money buys toys. A fourteen-year-old may realize that someone has to work for the money he spends, but a thirty-year-old understands what it means to labor, and that money is necessary for the security of his family. The church has approached dominion and government in much the same way. Unfortunately, the opinions and methods that we formed while spiritually immature have not been easy to change. Let us begin at the beginning, in Genesis, to find the purpose and origin of the principles of the kingdom of God.

In Gen. 1:26-28 we read how God made man (Strong's 120 – "Adam"), to rule over the creation. Note that he created "Adam" or mankind, both male and female, and in verse 26, God said "Let them have dominion." The word translated as dominion, Strong's 7287, is "radah-" and means to rule, to have dominion, to dominate, to tread down; to have dominion, to rule, to subjugate; to cause to dominate. The word subdue, (3533 – kabash), means to subject, to force, to keep under, to make subservient. Mankind, male and female, was created for the purpose of ruling and reigning. Just as God's nature is to have dominion – He is King of Kings and Lord of Lords – He put that same ability into mankind when He created them in His image. After the fall, however, the Woman of Gen. 2:23 became Eve, and the original order of God was brought into a fallen state where man ruled over man (Gen. 3:16). In Genesis we see man placed in a sphere of dominion, as a representative of the Supreme Authority, God Almighty. Although the first Adam failed to fulfill God's complete desire at that time, the Last Adam, Jesus (1 Cor. 15: 45), triumphed to restore true authority in righteousness. Once again God established a government, a sphere of dominion, called the Kingdom of God. To govern means to direct, and control, to regulate; to influence; to restrain; to keep in due subjection. Jesus said in Matt. 28:18, "All Power is given unto me in heaven and in earth." Power (1849 – exousia) means delegated influence or authority. It is the power of rule and of government.

What Does God's Government Look Like?

Once again as representatives of Christ on the earth, Christians must give expression to the kingdom of God. Regarding the kingdom of God Jesus stated in Luke 17:20-21 that the kingdom "is within you". Kingdom (932 – basileia) is royal power, kingship, rule, not to be confused with an actual (geographical) kingdom, but rather the right or authority to rule over a kingdom. Webster's 1828 Dictionary says that a kingdom is government; rule; supreme administration. God's kingdom or government is first established in the heart of the individual. He both relates to us and governs us on a personal level first. As God sets up his government in us, he resides in our spirit as king. From there, he begins to transform and renew our soul (mind, will and emotions) so that our soul becomes a servant for the King. He is able to direct, guide and restrain our will, our intellect and our emotions for his purposes. Our body then becomes a slave to do whatever the Holy Spirit leads us to do. Thus is God's kingdom established in our “earth”.

Government is by the Consent of the Governed

The first principle of God’s government is established in John 1:12, which says, “But as many as received him gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:” Received is defined as “to take a thing offered or sent; to accept”. How amazing that an all-powerful God constrains his power to the human will. To receive involves a choice, a decision, a consent. So we see perhaps the highest order of God’s governmental principles, which is, government is by the consent of the governed. Just as Adam was created to have dominion, so he was created to choose.

God’s Kingdom Operates in Measures

All that God is, is contained within his kingdom. The King then releases his own attributes and authority, in measure, to those who are part of his kingdom. Rom. 12:3 – measure of faith Eph. 4:7 – grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Eph. 4:16 – the Body works together according to the effectual working of the measure in every part. 2 Cor. 10:13-16 – Paul wrote about the measure of rule that he obtained in the Corinthian church because he had birthed and mentored them. The word measure is the Greek word “metron”, Strong’s 3358, and the Greek word “metreo”, Strong’s 3354. It means an instrument for measuring, a limited portion, or measure, or to give out by measure (to measure or to mete out). Some might interpret this to mean that we are sovereignly limited to whatever measure of faith, grace or gifting that God chooses to mete out to us. But Jesus talked about measures (still metron) in another dimension. Luke 6:38 talks about giving and receiving measures. The principle is that we have measures (some parables likened it to seeds) that we can choose to give out, and that those same portions will return to us in multiplicity. The church usually relegates this principle only to finances, but read the context of the statement. Luke 6:36-38 talks about mercy, judgements, condemnations, and forgiveness. Read also Matt. 7:2, and Mark 4:22 – 26. Restating the principle, What you choose to release your “metron” into, that is what is both returned and facilitated. We can facilitate good things like abundance, forgiveness, and mercy, or bad things like condemnation and greed. Like Adam in the garden, we choose how we mete out our authority.

That Which We Serve, We Empower

Romans 6:12-13 tells us that we can either yield ourselves as instruments of unrighteousness or of righteousness, it is our choice. In verse 16, Paul explains even further that “to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey...”. The Living Bible states it quite directly, “Don’t you realize that you choose your own master?” Let us clarify the meaning of the words that are used in this passage. The Greek word translated as “yield” is defined as placing a person or thing at one’s disposal; metaphorically, to bring into one’s fellowship or intimacy; to stand beside, to stand by or near, to be at hand, to be present; to stand by to help. So to yield yourself, your authority, and your measure to another includes supporting, helping, fellowshipping and facilitating what that person is doing. The word ‘obey’ means to submit and to listen and give heed to another’s counsel. Remember that Paul spoke of this in terms of both the unrighteous and the righteous “master”. First as individuals, we must consider carefully what we empower or serve in our own lives. That choice will determine the level or the measure of God’s authority operating through us. If we want authority in our prayer lives, in our homes, on our jobs, in our ministries, and in our communities, we must allow the government of God to operate in our lives. Sin returns more sin, and righteousness, more righteousness. Now, as a maturing church that walks in integrity and discernment, who or what we measure our portion of the kingdom into, is critical. We must become accountable regarding those whom we empower and support. We empower individuals, ministries, and organizations by yielding our measure to them, through our time, our money, our presence, our prayers, our support, and our listening. What we choose to yield our metron to, we empower with our agreement, and with our favor. So we facilitate their buildings, their public exposure, their projects, their doctrines, their teachings and finally their impact upon the church at large and upon the world.

First Day Church

The church has walked in the First Day realm of the feast of Passover, and in the mentality of sacrifice that is found in the outer court. It gathered us together into a place where we were governed by whatever met our needs and the needs of others. Feed me, clothe me, chill me and thrill me. It measured out, or produced, self-serving ministries that caused the people to live lives that were dependent on a minister's anointing to hear and receive from God, yet never coming into the maturity and responsibility to seek the kingdom of God for themselves. Our support came out of sacrifice, (If you don't support this ministry, then I can't do what God has called me to do, we heard.) Forever wandering from meeting to meeting, crying "touch me, Lord." Is this what the Kingdom of God is about?

Second Day Church

Then in the Second Day, known as the feast of Pentecost, we experienced the realm of obedience, which we know is better than sacrifice (but not the best). Our unity has produced amazing fetes in the kingdom of God. King-sized ministries and mega-churches abound on every side. In the Holy Place, we found that the manifestations of the Holy Spirit have changed us, yet we are still vacillating between a need-based theology and word-inspired accountability. We yield our support to those ministries and leaders when we feel "lead". After all, it's God's money, and it is only my responsibility to give it. It's up to God as to what happens after that. It is my job to submit and stand along side, but God is responsible for what happens at the top where the leadership lives. We have exchanged God-ordained shepherds who will lay down their lives for the sheep, for hirelings who fleece the sheep for their own name's sake.

In the church today, the kind of leaders that have followings, or flocks, are a result of the character, the expectations, and the maturity level of the people who allow them the power to lead. But, we say, isn't it God who establishes leadership and authority? Let's not forget Saul, who was man's choice, not God's. God still allowed him to be anointed king of the nation. Remember the word of warning that Samuel delivered to the people when they ignored the heart of God and chose Saul anyway. 1 Sam 8:11-22: 11 He said, "This is what the king who will reign over you will do: He will take your sons and make them serve with his chariots and horses, and they will run in front of his chariots. 12 Some he will assign to be commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and others to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and still others to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. 13 He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. 14 He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his attendants. 15 He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vintage and give it to his officials and attendants. 16 Your menservants and maidservants and the best of your cattle and donkeys he will take for his own use. 17 He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves. 18 When that day comes, you will cry out for relief from the king you have chosen, and the LORD will not answer you in that day." 19 But the people refused to listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We want a king over us. 20 Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles." 21 When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated it before the LORD. 22 The LORD answered, "Listen to them and give them a king." Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Everyone go back to his town." (NIV)

A New Day

Hosea 6:1-3 1 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. 2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. 3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. (KJV) A new day is upon us, the time of the Third Day feast of Tabernacles, where we live in the Holy of Holies and become the presence of God in the earth. There, we must walk in the realm of covenant, and in fullness of purpose, as the mature body that God created us to be. The principle of covenant is foreshadowed in Gen. 1 & 2 when God said, let every seed produce after its own kind, as a semblance of what was to come. Adam looked for one that was like him with whom to covenant, and to reproduce. Now we as individuals who are governed by God, seek those who carry a corresponding seed of present truth to empower and to form a union. As we meld together as mature sons of God, every measure will be released and every joint will supply. A company that knows no barriers will arise as the voice of God, kingdom representatives who a royal priesthood and a holy nation. A face-to-face (Exodus 33:11) assembly who understands that a covenant partnership involves communion and intimacy both with God and with one another. It is in the Holy Place that the Lord said; I will commune with you between the wings of the cherubim. (Exodus 25:20 & 22) The third day church is people who, with hearing hearts, yield themselves as the will of God in the earth, and become the manifestation of the prayer of Jesus in Matthew 6:10, Thy will be done in earth as it is already done in heaven. In our first day experiences we have gathered together. In our second day, we have assembled in unity. But now we must become equipped to grow beyond our current church traditions and enter the walk of union that is born out of covenant. Let the many-membered Christ of I Corinthians 11 and 12 not merely partake of the Lord's supper, let our union as believers flow out of communion. Let us chose to release our metron of authority, our measure of the kingdom wisely, and in accordance with the nature and character of the King. Let judgement begin in the house of God, that is, in the church and in each Christian. Let judgement and discernment and accountability flow like rivers (Joel 3: Micah 4). It is His kingdom, His faith, His authority, His government, His truth. We must give account as to what we have done with the talents (Matt. 25), or measures that He has placed in our lives.

Relating the Messiah's Way

Bill Bremer

Bob Jones and Keith Davis, article on the spirit of the nicolaitans rang my bell. Praise God for giving it to them and for giving them the guts to put the word out. I am sending what the Lord has shown me on the same subject.

In 1978, God gave me a dream about our call to build the Messiah's Way instead of Nicolaitan mans way. In this dream, I saw a straight and level paved highway with a bridge out. People were driving up to the bridge, getting out of their cars, and crossing a small stream by walking across on a plank. Then, they walked on down the road on the far side. A culvert was lying beside the bridge that was out. I asked some bystanders, "Why don't you have the culvert put in?" They said, "The engineer won't let us." The next morning, I prayed and sought the Lord for the meaning. The dream is about the Church and the kingdom of God. He has called us to build the highway as Isaiah prophesied. The highway is the way we walk/relate with Messiah Jesus, our King. He calls us to enter into harmonious, communion, relationship with God and one another and bring others into this fellowship. When we build the highway according to His plan, Messiah Jesus will come down this highway to reign in triumph (Rev 19 & 20). The bridge that is out indicates a barrier to our fellowship with God and one another. The people are God's firstborn people, the body of Christ, the Church. The plank indicates we are hindered, but not incapacitated. The engineer is man standing in the way of God's plan. Nicolaitan man includes all of the human power people in a church - this could be the pastor, the board, the little old lady with all the money - whoever likes lording it over their fellow man. We partially fellowship with and minister to God and one another. But, not nearly as God has planned. We still detour around the barrier instead of putting in the culvert, because the engineer won't let us bridge the gap. This relational barrier continues because we only partially, "Seek first the kingdom of God" (Mt 6:33). We need to pay absolute attention to the King and to God's plan for our part in His kingdom. Years ago, I heard Jill Jackson aptly describe the root of the barriers to fellowship with God and one another as the Me Attitudes. Messiah Jesus wants us to have the Be Attitudes of the kingdom, but we've got a lot of Me Attitudes of the Church. In spite of this, body of Christ is doing much of what God has destined us to do. He blesses our every act prompted by the Beatitudes. When we adopt the Beattitudes of the kingdom, our attitudes and actions reflect our relational integrity with Messiah Jesus and one another. We will live in the light as He is in the light. With this perspective, let's turn to the Word to find God's plan for His highway. By His Spirit, He inspired its revelation in this Word:

"Go through, go through the gates, prepare a way for the people. Heap up and build a highway. Clear away the stones. Raise a flag for the people" (Isaiah 62:10).

This Word encompasses God's plan for His people in Isaiah's time, His plan for John the Baptist, His plan for Messiah Jesus, His plan for His firstborn, including you and me, and His plan for the things revealed in Revelations. As His Spirit quickens His plan within our hearts, it gives us divine direction and purpose. God calls us to come into His presence in the oneness of the Spirit and help others do the same. We do that as we, Go through the gates!

Go through, go through the gates.

These gates are the gates of Zion, opened so that we can come into His presence. Zion is God's dwelling place, the place of His presence. Remember, He works through us all. He will help us do our part to prepare a way for the people. So, let us go through, go through the gates. God in Messiah Jesus has opened the gates of Zion to us and brought us into His presence. He has made us holy and blameless before Himself, accepted in the Beloved. Messiah Jesus enables us to come into the presence of our heavenly Father in "the new, living way He opened for us through the curtain, the way of His body" (Heb 10:20). God's Old Covenant people didn't have this glorious New Covenant privilege. To get an inkling of the magnitude of the privilege of coming into His presence in the new way, see what His presence meant in the Old Covenant. Moses had to climb Mount Sinai to come into God's presence. It smoked and shook because of God's holy and powerful presence. In that setting, God gave the Israelites His Ten Commandments (Ex 19-20). Moses asked God/YAHWEH to show him His glory. "'Please,' he said, 'let me see Your glory.'" "I will let all My goodness pass by you," He said, "'and will pronounce the name, the LORD/YAHWEY before you. I will be merciful to whom I want to be merciful and pity whom I want to pity. You can't see My face,' He added, 'because a man can't see My face and live'" (Ex 33:18-20). God's glory/shekina is so powerful that a full jolt of it would vaporize our human body. Yet, we can come into His glorious presence in the Spirit. Even the shadow of His glory is awe inspiring. Just a partial experience of God's presence made Moses glow with God's glory. "Moses came down from Mount Sinai. The tablets with the Word of Testimony were in Moses' hands as he came down the mountain. Moses didn't know the skin of his face was shining because God talked with Him. "But Aaron and all the other Israelites looked at Moses and saw the skin of Moses' face shining and were afraid to come near him" (Ex 34:29-30). God instructed Moses to build an Ark of the Covenant for the Ten Commandments. In accord with the rest of God's specifications, Moses erected a tabernacle to house God's ark, and a tent over the tabernacle. When Moses completed this work, God revealed His presence: "Then the cloud covered the tent where God met with them, and the LORD's glory filled the tabernacle. Moses couldn't go into the tent where God met with him, because the cloud rested on it and the LORD's glory filled the tabernacle" (Ex 40:34-35). >From then on, only the High Priest was allowed into YAHWEH's presence once a year. Before he could even attempt to come into God's presence, he went through an extensive cleansing rite. God gave the High Priest the exact way to come into His presence. The sons of Aaron introduced a deviation. "And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD" (Lev 10:2). Going through the gates and coming into God's presence in the Spirit is an awesome privilege. When David began to reign, he brought the ark of God to his city. "And David danced before the LORD with all his might, wearing a linen priestly apron fastened by a belt. So David and all Israel brought up the LORD's ark with shouts of joy and blowing of horns" (2 Sam 6:14-15). Solomon built the LORD's temple. "Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the leaders of the tribes, the princes of the clans of the people of Israel before King Solomon at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from David's city, which is Zion. ... The priests brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place in the inner room of the temple, the most holy place, under the wings of the angels. ... When the priest had come out of the holy place, the cloud filled the LORD's temple so that the priest couldn't stand and serve on account of the cloud, because the LORD's glory filled His temple" (1 Kings 8:1, 6, 10). The glory, the shekina of God's presence was so strong that the priests could not stand! He was with His people in Jerusalem. They worshipped Him with fear and awe. Over the years, this became old stuff to the children of Israel, so they deviated from God's plan and failed to come into His presence in Zion. Deviation from God's plan is iniquity. This Word shows the tragic consequences of iniquity: "The LORD's hand is not to short to save or His ear to dull to hear. But your iniquities have made a barrier between you and your God, and your sins have made Him hide His face so He can't hear you. Your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with wrong. Your lips tell lies, and your tongues express wickedness. Nobody summons another in a righteous way or pleads his case honestly. People trust in empty things and tell lies. They conceive misery and give birth to calamity" (Is 59:1-4). It is a good thing God's plan depends on His grace and power. When all looked dark and hopeless, God revealed His way of bringing His people into His presence.

Looking forward to the first coming of Messiah Jesus, Isaiah prophesied: "'The LORD announces to the most distant part of the world: Tell the daughter of Zion, 'Look, your salvation is coming'" (Is 62:11a). Looking forward to the Second Coming of Messiah Jesus, Isaiah prophesied: "'See, His reward is with Him, and what He has earned goes ahead of Him.' They will be called the holy people whom the LORD redeemed, and you will be called 'Sought' and 'A-City-Not-Forsaken'" (Is 62:11b-12). We are in the time in between, in the acceptable year of the Lord, the day of God's grace. By the riches of His grace lavished upon us, He has saved us and brought us into His presence. In Messiah Jesus, we have come to Mount Zion, the site of the heavenly Jerusalem (Heb 12). "But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother " (Gal 4:26). She is also where Messiah Jesus is seated at the right hand of God (Heb 1:1-4). He is our New Covenant High Priest, who made it possible for us to "come boldly to the throne of grace" (Heb 4:16). Only God's kingdom and our relationships and works of the kingdom will be left after God shakes everything that can be shaken. So, our goal as Christians should be to walk in the way of our King and do what He asks. Just like the churches in Revelation 2 & 3, the church in America is being shaken today. We need to pay attention to what Messiah Jesus our King says. He is magnificent in God's glory. Here He is: "He who holds the seven stars in His right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands." "The First and the Last, who died and became alive." "He who holds the sharp, double-edged sword." "God's Son, whose eyes are like flames of fire and whose feet are like white-glowing bronze." "He who has God's seven spirits and the seven stars." "He who is holy and true, who has the key of David. When He opens a door, nobody will shut it; when He shuts a door, nobody will open it." "The Amen, the Witness who is faithful and true, the Origin of God's creation" (Rev 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14). In Messiah Jesus, we have come to the heavenly city. There, we are filled with all that is in the Messiah to fulfill God's plan together. "And He put everything under His feet, and gave Him as the Head of everything to the church, which is His body having all that is in Him who fills everything in every way" (Eph 1:22). He has a Divine plan for each of us that gives us destiny and purpose. A vital part of our purpose is to prepare a way for the people.

"...prepare a way for the people. Heap up and build a highway..." (Is 62:10).

God inspired Isaiah to fill us in with the details of His building plan for His highway. His word reveals a highway that was begun in Isaiah's time, that Messiah Jesus came on at His first coming, that Christians who have come before us built, that we are to continue to build, that Messiah Jesus will finish through the things revealed in Revelations. This is the finished highway of the kingdom that is to come. "A highway will be laid out; it will be called the Holy Way. No unclean person will travel on it. It will be a road for the pilgrim; no fool will wander there. No lions will be there. No wild animals will come up on it to devour you. They will not be found there. But the redeemed will be walking there. Those whom the LORD freed will come back. They will come to Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy. They will find gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will disappear" (Is 35:8-10). This is the highway of the kingdom of God in the Spirit. Today, our prophets are again calling us to build it. "A voice cries in the wilderness: 'Prepare a way for the LORD; Make a straight highway in the desert for our God. Every valley must be raised, every mountain and hill be lowered. The steep places must be made level, the impassable ridges be made a plain. Then the LORD will show His glory, and all people together will see it, for the mouth of the LORD has said it'" (Is 40:3-5). By His grace, God has given us the privilege and empowered us to help build this highway according to His glorious plan. Let's pick up on progress the last 50 years. Judy and I know people from many of the building moves of the Spirit. We were raised Lutheran, so we know, we are saved by grace. And, we have their example of godliness and Christians neighborliness. We know people from the Holiness movement. We know God our Father has made us holy and Jesus leads us to live holy. We know Pentecostals. So, we know God poured out His Spirit on all flesh and gave the gifts of the Spirit to all who partake. We helped some of the Jesus people get to know Jesus the Messiah better. So, we know God reaches the rebellious and the unreachable and fires them up with His love and His Spirit. We know faith people, healing people, and charismatics. All have built on the highway in reformation, revival and renewal.

But, the bridge is still out and the culvert needs to be put in. We need restoration to the kingdom of God. It will take apostles and prophets to show us how to put in the culvert and build in integrity with Messiah Jesus. "Every valley must be raised, every mountain and hill be lowered. The steep places must be made level, the impassable ridges be made a plain" (Is 40:4). Much rebuilding and repair must take place to make the highway a place of freedom in the Spirit. Valleys must be raised. Mountains and hills lowered. One of the valleys is the division amongst believers. Valleys separate us into sects and classes. I'm looking forward to hearing the prophets show us how to put in the culvert and build the highway in accord with God's plan. And, I'm looking forward to the apostles helping us work together to do it. They will help us understand and act in accord with the Word so that we come through the gates into our Father's presence, in the Messiah. As we soak up His glory, we can glorify Him outside the gates, in obedience to this command: "And so, if your hands are letting go, take a firm hold; if you feel weak in your knees, stand firm; and march on without wavering. Then a cripple will not be turned away but be made well. "Try hard to live in peace with everybody and to be holy. Without holiness nobody will see the Lord. See that no one loses God's love, that no root with bitter fruit grows up to trouble you and so defiles all of you, that nobody lives in sexual sin or is unholy like Esau, who for one meal sold his rights as firstborn. You know that later, when he wanted to get the blessing, he was rejected. He had no chance to change his mind although he begged for it with tears" (Heb 12:12-17). God calls us to enter into this communion relationship and empowers us to make a way for more and more people to share it. This highway is to be free of stones.

Clear away the stones.

These stones are smaller obstacles than hills and valleys. They are stumbling stones that deter and can destroy koinonia relationship. Two types of stumbling stones are sin and conformity to the world. Jesus shows us the grave consequences of sin and warns us to watch ourselves. "'Temptations to sin are sure to come,' Jesus told His disciples, 'but woe to him through whom they come. It would be better for him to have a big millstone hung around his neck and to be thrown into the lake than to lead one of these little ones into sin. Watch yourselves'" (Luke 17:1-3a). In the very next breath, He exhorts us to be full of grace when dealing with sin in another's life: "'If your brother sins, correct him; and if he's sorry, forgive him. Even if he sins against you seven times in one day and seven times comes back to you and says, 'I'm sorry,' forgive him'" (Luke 17:3b-4). We are to judge ourselves (1 Cor 11:31), to recognize and repent of our own sins (1 John 1). If we all did that, all of the stones would be cleared away. Some Christians are not aware of their sin or are aware but ensnared beyond their own strength to be freed. In such cases, we are instructed to clear away the stones. But, always with the log and speck attitude (Mt 7:1-5). Notice, Jesus limits such relational transactions to those we know personally. The objective is to rid the sin and restore the sinner to harmonious relationship, as a rescuer, never as an oppressor. For, God always forgives, reconciles, and restores the repentant. "It will be said: Heap up, heap up dirt, and build a highway. Prepare the way. Take the stumbling blocks out of the way for My people. Here is what the high and lofty One says, He who lives forever and whose name is holy: 'I live in a high and holy place and am also with the crushed and humble in spirit to revive the spirit of the humble and the hearts of those who are crushed'" (Is 57:13b-15). In our fellowship gatherings, we are encouraged to prophesy. It is not and will not be Scripture, but, like the Word above, prophesy is for edification, exhortation and comfort (1 Cor 14). Through prophecy, the Holy Spirit brings us close to our Father and our Messiah Jesus.

Raise a Flag for the people.

We raise a Flag for the people by walking worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called (Eph 4). Messiah Jesus is the Flag. "Live as citizens /of the kingdom worthy of the good news of Christ so that, whether I come and see you or stay away, I will hear you are standing firm, one in spirit, and fighting side by side like one man for the faith in the good news. Don't let your enemies frighten you in any way. This is how you prove to them they will be destroyed and you will be saved, and this proof is from God. It is given to you to be for Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him as you have the same struggle you once saw me have and now hear that I have. "Now if you are encouraged in Christ, moved by comforting words of love, if you and we have the same Spirit, if you are tender and sympathetic, make me very happy--be one in thought and in love, live in harmony, keep one purpose in mind. Don't be selfish or proud, but humbly treat others as better than yourselves. Each of you, don't be interested in your own things, rather in the things of others. "Think just as Christ Jesus thought; Although He was God, He decided not to take advantage of His being equal with God as though it were stolen goods, but He emptied Himself, made Himself a slave, became like other human beings, and was seen to have the ways of a man. He became obedient and humbled Himself till He died, yes, died on a cross. That is why God also exalted Him up on high and gave Him the name above every other name that at the name of JESUS everyone in heaven and on earth and under the earth should kneel' and everyone should confess, "JESUS CHRIST IS LORD!" and so glorify God the Father" (Php 2:7-11).

Rebuilding The Ruins

Bryan Hupperts

Hi, SheepTrax!

Ruins are run down structures that have been abandoned, left to the forces of decay and entropy. Many castles in Europe lie in ruins having been abandoned in favor of more modern dwelling places. While they make for interesting places to visit, no one lives among the ruins. They have been abandoned and stand as monuments to what once was.

Yesterday I awoke with a burden to pray. It had been building for two days until the agony of it could not be contained. I began to moan and cry out to God in harmony with (Romans 8:26) "The Spirit himself making intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered." I went driving and found myself in the Loop District of St. Louis a few blocks away from Washington University, one of the top rated, ultra modern universities in the world. With my natural eyes I was seeing beautiful, even regal, buildings and a well-sculpted landscape. With my spiritual eyes, I was surveying the wreckage of a landscape in ruins.

There were church buildings everywhere. Liberals, Conservatives, Apostates, Foreign Gods, it was all a mishmash of everything but Christ. That's not to say there aren't godly outposts there - I know there are - but the whole lay of the land seemed to be one big ruin. It wasn't the cold rain that was stinging my eyes.

It is with a prophetic prospective that I surveyed the landscape of this particular university. I could sense ruins, places that had fallen from their former glory, and no longer served any practical usage. Yet among the ruins I sensed a stirring of life, a sense of destiny that was lost being regained. I felt the stirrings of revival.

God's command is clear. When He is about to pour out the rain of Heaven in the person of sending an outpouring of his Holy Spirit (as a type of rain), we are to begin to prepare by plowing up the fallow ground. If you're not from a farming background, fallow ground is land that was once tilled and produced an abundant harvest of crop. It is land that is no longer being worked and is now not producing fruit. Fallow ground is hard earth that needs sharp steel run through it so it can be plowed, seeded, and farmed with an eye towards harvesting its produce. It is a picture of hearts that have grown cold before God.

Hosea 10:12 "Break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you." Breaking up fallow ground is done by praying till God comes in power and begins to restore the ruins and recreates a vibrant testimony of Himself in the earth.

God rebuilds waste places with living stones - his people - and established them using Jesus Christ, the Chief Cornerstone, as the new foundation. I sense that the Lord is calling out for his church to reclaim the waste places for the kingdom of God.

God promises to those that labor in hard places that a touch of Heaven is fast approaching. In some of the hardest places on earth - university campuses - that have been dulled with humanism and compromise and have sneered at Truth, he will come and do a new work. This verse has been bubbling up in my heart for months. Isaiah 58:12 "And they that shall be of you shall build the old waste places: you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in."

Survey history and you'll see that many great moves of God began on university campuses. Many of our great institutions of higher learning were started to train preachers and to provide Christian education. God is coming to reclaim the ruins of our campuses to harvest the souls of the young. Amos 9:11 "In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up its broken breaches; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old."

Russia's Long-Range Vision

Becky McLendon

Russia's long-range vision AND a word for America
Becky McLendon

So????? The communist agenda plans to "win " Germany's heart???? Have they checked out Daddy's plans? NOW you might have victory for a season, but read the end of the Book! Our Father wins!!

See this article: Russia's Long-Range Vision -- J R Nyquist

http://www.worldnetdaily.com/bluesky\_nyquist/20000619\_xcjny\_russias\_lo.shtml

A word for America:

"Stupid Americans." they say. "bye, bye Miss American Pie.
What greater loss can you suffer than no more pie in the sky.?
No one believes in you, your glory is past. "
Yet God's time table is moving on quite fast.
But one thing about you that sets the world's teeth on edge.
You still love Israel and are within God's hedge.
Oh you will be judged for your bloodshed within,
But as long as you love Israel, my own,
You can be saved from your sin.

For in the end I will pour out mercy and grace,
And cause all of my own to behold my face.
They will see Me in truth and rejoice in my feast
Prepared on My mountain, for my servants, The least Among mighty and great who have boasted aloud
Will be caught up with Me in a brilliant white cloud.
Be counted among them, be willing to decrease,
For as you fade to nothingness, I will increase.
I have said it before and will say it again,
If you are Mine, then act like My men.
Humble yourselves and seek My face,
Repent of your sins and pray for My grace
To heal your land and call you to Me..
Through the portals of Heaven.. you will be free.

And for Germany:

I saw a river flowing from the top to the bottom of the land. The Lord began to speak

Once this river was a conduit for evil, but I say NO MORE NO MORE NO MORE. It is MY river and MY glory shall be seen in that river! My glory will be carried to the outermost parts of the land.

I am purifying the waters of this river, My people, for these waters have seen violent men come down them, but I say NO MORE VIOLENT MEN with HARM in their agenda. I say, I COME I COME I COME MY GLORY COMES. Prepare O My people of this land. Prepare to receive My glory upon your weary souls, for I have heard the prayers of My intercessors who have cried over you. I will wash out religion amongst you my people. I will wash out the history of violent blood shed through the ravages of war and hatred, the Dark Ages, the Black Death, the superstition, the bitterness, the hurts, the coldness and the fatherlessness that has plagued your land. I SHALL BE YOUR FATHER... I say to you this day ICH LIEBE DICH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!.

Amen.

For Russia:

I have seen My people in their struggle to serve me in a land where I am hated. Know this, Russia, I come to you with the greatest weapon against communist oppression and deception. LOVE. I come into you with LOVE. as hatred increases in angry men all around you who seek world dominion, My LOVE will ever INCREASE toward you. for Yea I have prepared a table before you in the presence of your enemies. and though they come against you , know this they are coming against Me. I will repay says the Lord. And yes my greatest victory will come as My Spirit infiltrates the inner circles of communism and begins to harvest key leaders from that inner circle...Oh yes you have read my word and my word stands true. Russia will play a very big part in the final conflict on this earth, for there are Pharoahs, Sauls and Herods who absolutely detest my cause and will seek to dominate the world. They will succeed but only for a season. But YOU, my people of Russia, YOU be strong and courageous, for I am with you, strengthening you, providing for you and making the way of escape. Be comforted in this today, know that I love you with a fervent love. Know that I hold your tears in my hands and your prayers are incense SOON TO BE POURED OUT with ALL THE PRAYERS OF THE SAINTS.. KNOW THIS and KNOW THAT I AM GOD.

Amen

Something to be Obtained

Becky McLendon

There is a Rest to be obtained, and glorious it is when it is possessed.

The Lord has watched the restless waves of His people, chasing after Him, dashing from one state to another to be "in the river", to sit under the Big Name to "get a word or a touch", and coming home to get depressed because "it" isn't in their home town.

The Lord has watched as many of His people have struggled in the morass of their personal inner conflicts and outer circumstances to no avail. Their hearts remain unhealed, and their lives remain ineffective.

The Lord has watched as many of His people have strived and sweated to "work for God" and to no avail because their service is to appease a system that is self perpetuating but certainly of little eternal value. They are only working because someone said they "should".

The Lord has watched as many of His people sit, overly fattened on teachings and preachings, taking it all in and never giving it all out.

The Lord has watched as many have assumed "leadership" roles and designated all others as mere "watchers and supporters" .a holy fan club, as it were. As long as the crowds and money are rolling in, the "leaders" continue to "lead" by clever sales tactics and control.

The Lord has watched as many of his sheep blindly submit to leaders who determine their spiritual gifts, whether they should marry or not, who dictate what to touch and not to touch, and whether to travel to a certain place or not. They never flourish or reach the potential of their calling, thus failing to fulfil their role in the Kingdom.

The Lord has watched as many of his people, who are weak and sin laden, openly invite deception into their homes and believe outrageous lies all perpetrated in the name of Christ.

The Lord has watched many of His people receive a genuine vision from Him and become so lost in the maze of trying to make it happen that they perish before it is realized. Then they walk away and say "Guess it wasn't God."

He says to us today : "What My people have missed in all of this is the open invitation to receive ME and enter My rest. Many think to "receive" Jesus is to buy fire insurance. That they can die and go to heaven some day. But there is so much MORE to "receiving Jesus." Do you even realize what it is to receive Me? It is to take Me in, and allow Me to enter an earthly temple, YOU. It is to bring the fullness of the Godhead into your inner man and allow Me to be manifested in you. HOW ELSE CAN YOU TRULY SERVE ME LEST I BE ENTHRONED IN YOU? Do you not realize that when I sit on the throne in your inner man your striving and sweating and stress will cease and you will REST in me?

"Here are some equivalents. Synonyms.

REST = Receiving Jesus

REST = Inheriting the Kingdom of God

REST = Doing all in the Name (Character) of Jesus

REST = The Spirit of the Lord, Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Might, Knowledge, and the Fear of the Lord

REST = Trusting the Lord with all your heart and leaning NOT upon your own understanding

REST = Eternal Life

REST = BRIDE HOOD

REST = 100 fold return

REST = The Holy of Holies

REST = Mt. Zion

REST = Blessings of Abraham

REST = The blessedness of the Beatitudes

REST = Christ IN you the Hope of Glory

REST = Faith

REST = Abiding in ME and I in YOU

REST = Knows I AM and says to ME YOU ARE

"So you see, My people. I call you to My rest. There we have the intimacy a husband should have with His wife. Cease the fretting and the straining at gnats. Cease the arguments and "discussions" and "great verbal exchanges and speculations." RECEIVE ME...and enter your rest.

"Cease wallowing in self and being concerned about yourself and how others perceive you, enter your REST. RECEIVE ME and receive OF ME all you need. Cease clamoring for acknowledgment and affirmation. RECEIVE ME I have affirmed you from the beginning of time.

"The spirit and the bride say "come". So come."

Come Into Safe Harbor, and Be A Light Giver

Stephen Hanson

COME INTO SAFE HARBOR

Stephen Hanson

Jan. 5 evening, 2000

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life? Matt. 6:25-27

"Martha, Martha," the Lord answered, "you are worried and upset about many things, but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her." Luke 10:41-42

"Speak tenderly unto Zion, and tell her that her long service is over with."

"There are times of resting, and there are times of laboring. There are times when my servants need to learn how to rest. My yoke is easy and my burden is light. There is a way of entering into my rest even in the midst of laboring for Me. Many of my servants find themselves caught-up in all kinds of activities. Strain and toil...these are things which can hurt your relationships. Muscles and tendons are stretched when exertion is great, so in the same way, is it in the Spirit. Exercise is needed in order to be in shape, and truly, this is important; but without rest between those moments of exercise, then a muscle is overly exerted.

"I tell you, I see many of you going about, doing this and doing that. "Activities...activities.... There is so much "busy-ness." "Martha, Martha, when will you just sit at my feet? Did not even the Son of Man go and find a place to spend time with Me? There is no fruitfulness in activity, which is activity just for the sake of activity. "

"Let Me make an analogy:"

"There was once two boats which set sail. Both of them had a full crew and the necessary gear. And then, a stormy gale came. One of them was busy "polishing" and getting everything ready. They were constantly checking the netting. They checked the sails to make sure that they had no tears in them. They checked the instruments to make sure that they were all working properly. And the other ship simply had their men stationed at various positions. They looked out and saw a storm approaching them; and they hoisted the sails and made ready. But the other ship was so busy watching for a tear in this or that. Which ship do you think made it safely home?

"And so it is with you, my people, you need not be preoccupied with all the cares of this world. I will take you safely home to a safe harbor. I will bring you "safely home." There are many things, which would concern you about the year in which you are living. Truly, this year, this New Year, will see many changes. But again, do not just look at the "netting," and how you can prepare. Look unto Me. "

BE A LIGHT-GIVER

Stephen Hanson

Jan. 8, 2000

"The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it." John 1:5

"And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts." II Peter 1:19

"The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands. Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge. Ps. 19:1-2

"A bright and shining day is coming for my people. "

"The heavens declare your handiwork, and the stars show forth your glory. But I tell you that the firmament is nothing compared to the glory when I will return. There is a natural order of things seen in heaven and on earth. There is the order of the earth, and this order is seen as day unfolds to night. For with each passing day, new things come. It has been said that new things come in the morning, and truly, this is so. Let the troubles of the night stay with the night. Darkness will give way to light. The light has shown in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to understand it. And I tell you, that the enemy will attempt to darken the vision which I have planted in each of your hearts. Let that light which is in you, shed that light abroad unto many."

(The Lord showed me a scene where there was a row of people in robes and each of them were carrying candles in their hands. It was evening, and this was in a landscape of some kind, in the country-side. They were walking across this landscape in a fashion which was woven across the country-side; like an army, or a group of people would as they traveled. Then one of them let go of his candle, and it soared into the sky and heavens. This candle though, was in the shape of a "ball of light." Here it was caught by God, and He threw it back to earth, and another group of people in robes caught that (ball) of light. After this, then each of the people in this group, began to "trumpet" the call of God. Each had trumpets, and they were "heralding" the call of God with this "ball" of light.)

"The people that have the light of God, must share it with others. There are some who receive my light, and they keep it unto themselves. And there are others who have received that light, and given back unto Me, and it has gone unto others. There is a reciprocal way in which light can be given. When the light that I give you, is given unto another, then I AM given glory. But you see....then this light which was given unto another, is manifested in a form where it is then "heralded." The light which had begun, has now grown in intensity. And so is this true in the body. For someone may receive a revelation; and they receive that light, and then that light is given. Others receive that "ball of light," and then they herald the truth of that "light." You see....light and revelation is not just given unto one. And then the full manifestation of that light can be seen in the varied expression of my people. And that light will reveal all things unto you. My Son had come to be the light of the world. Now that light is in you. Truly, my people, you will see the things hidden in darkness. I will illuminate. Let the candle burn brightly in each of your hearts. Then you will see the way which is before you. Be my "light givers" unto this world. "

San Francisco Get Ready For Revival!

Chad Taylor

"Every man at the beginning sets forth good wine, and when everyone has well drunk, then he gives that which is worse, but you have kept the good wine until now..." (John 2:10).

I HAVE SAVED THE BEST FOR LAST

In this place will I now demonstrate My power. For I have saved the best for last says the Lord. I have saved the best for last. I have heard the cries of your children from the streets. I have seen them wandering to and fro 'fainting for hunger at the top of every street.' I have seen them hungry and thirsty begging for something to eat. I have heard the cry of the orphan crying out for Me. Now I will visit them in their affliction, I will visit them in their distress. I will give them rest.

YOUR STREETS WILL RESOUND WITH THE SOUNDS OF SINGING

You will be an epi-center of My shaking, My choosing. From you will come an army of evangelists and intercessors that will blaze the trail of revival across this nation. 'As of one born out of due season...' (1st Cor. 15:8). You will see the greater works, the manifestation of my glory. Your streets will resound with the sounds of singing and dancing as you children eat of the fatted calf. As they return to their first love.

I am about to do in you what men dream of. I am about to do in you what your forefathers longed for. I will remove the stain of sin from your garments. 'Come now, and let us reason together, says the Lord. Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow. Though they be red like crimson, they will be as wool. (Is. 1:18). I will restore what the locust have devoured says the Lord. I will restore the years that have been stolen from you.

CATHOLICS WILL STIR THE FLAMES OF REVIVAL

The ancient walls that have stood between My people will be shaken and fall in this hour. The walls of division and hierarchy will be shaken and fall says the Lord. The lethargy and religion will be shaken and crumble. Your children will sing a new song. A move amongst the Catholics will stir the flames of revival. The Catholics will lift a righteous standard in this hour. They will be a forerunner to the greater works. The walls that have separated and segregated will be shaken and removed says the Lord. They will be shaken and removed.

MEXICANS WILL HERALD REVIVAL

A remnant amongst the Mexican people shall herald this revival. A cry will be heard from their ranks, a cry of forgiveness and restoration. They will help break the age old curse of division amongst My children. The minority will become a majority in My Spirit in this hour says the Lord. I will cause a few to remove mountains and shake cities and governments. I will bring them before magistrates and judges as a testimony against them. I will sit them in high places for My sake says the Lord.

REVIVAL IN THE HOMOSEXUAL COMMUNITY

A counter cultural movement will occur in the homosexual community. I will raise up an army from their midst. They will be an army of grace that trumpets a revival of love and compassion. They will give back love to the Church and forgiveness to the people. I will create in them a clean heart and a right spirit. They will march the streets with a different anthem, "JESUS IS LORD!" I will heal their wounds and bind up their hearts. I will give them back the innocence that was stolen.

A GREAT MOVE OF UNITY

Churches will gather in mass to worship and pray. A great move of unity will arise like a storm to blanket the city with the latter rain of My grace. I will transform your countenance from one of sin and shame to one of passion and power in My name. I will do in you in one moment what you have strived for, for generations. Stadiums and public places will echo with prayer and intercession as thousands gather to pray and worship. No denominational lines will separate one group from another, these lines will be blurred and removed as these things take place says the Lord.

Santos Olabarrieto

Don Swanger

Some Thoughts on "The Wave"

In the spring of 1972, I visited a friend who had become a Christian shortly before I did. He was staying at a "Jesus house" somewhere in Fort Lauderdale. The people who ran the house were Pentecostal ex-hippies with a heart for Latin America. They held all things in common and were starting outreach into the islands and Central and South America. We had a pleasant visit, a meal, some interesting fellowship, and that was that.

About five years later, my mother received a package addressed to me at her home (I had since moved to Michigan) from a group in Fort Lauderdale. When I opened it, it was a stack of pamphlets on the end-time move of God. Prophetic and bible prophecy stuff. Some of it still pretty cutting edge and perceptive. It came with a note asking me to see that these materials were released at the proper time. No signature or further explanation. Only a defunct post office box and the name Santos Olabarrieto. I didn't recognize the phrase, so I asked a Puerto Rican pastor friend about it. He said it was an odd term, but the closest it could be translated was "Holy Tidal Wave".

I don't know about the group or the pamphlets (I still have a few in my file cabinet). But I do know that the experience planted something prophetic in my spirit. A vision. An expectation. A handful of hippies living in a commune on the seedy side of Fort Lauderdale praying and reaching out and filling the atmosphere with prophetic expectation that God would sweep Latin America with a Holy Spirit Tidal Wave of revival. In 1972. So now, almost 30 years later, this term keeps resurfacing. The wave. The next wave. Big wave. Waves of the Spirit. Tidal wave. And Argentina is sending missionaries to America.

This move of God will begin in the Church, but it will not stay there. I received a word a little over a year ago that I posted here. One brief excerpt read "The church is about to undergo a catastrophic upheaval, which will change the face of Christianity forever. Like the forces of plate tectonics, pressure has been building for a long, long time, and the separations will be a short work, explosive, powerful. Things never before seen will be brought to light and revealed, and other things will be instantly buried and hidden, or washed away in a flood. Like the earth, this will NOT be a drawn out evolutionary process, but a burst of destructive and creative power. The result will be a totally new map, a totally new landscape, and a totally new atmosphere. The Lord does nothing of this magnitude without first revealing it to His servants the prophets."

Somewhere deep below those things which are seen, there is a pressure building where two worlds, an old and a new, have been pressing against one another for a long, long time. Something is about to give. We talk of shaking, often glibly and with little thought to the implications. But this will be a SHAKING like the world has never seen before. A release of power when the points of tension snap. All that can be shaken will be shaken. All. Afterward, the landscape may be totally unrecognizable in many ways. Familiar routes and places will be gone. Edifices, works to which years and lives have been committed, gone. Crooked paths will have been straightened. Valleys raised up. Mountains made low. Grave sorrow to those who are clinging to what is passing away in an instant. Glorious preparation to those whose eyes are fixed on a city not made by hands.

Then, when it seems the shaking has stopped, its full effect will have just begun. The release of great power, the explosive dunamis, creates a stirring, unseen at first. We have not seen this yet. It is yet to come. A stirring deep in the sea (the mass of people). A stirring that will rise up and spread outward in all directions. A wave. A wave does not move water. It is power that moves through the water. So with this wave. It will move and gather force through a mass of people, crashing over every place they touch. Sudden. Drenching. Flooding. A wall of water. A holy tidal wave. Finishing the work begun by the shaking. Changing the face of the world forever.

Love and Let the Wind Blow,

Firedancer

Surprise Attack

Maria Magruder-Taylor

Today, myself and 2 other mighty women of God (Suzan Hartman & Glinda Smith) went in for a surprise attack on the enemy, that I would like to share with you all. Its the first time we've ever done anything like this. I have kept it hush, hush, except for a few intercessors to pray over the situation, in order to have a surprise attack! To just show up on their door steps, them not knowing we are coming, and take the enemy off guard. (the ladies aren't the enemy, but demonic presence is) My husband and I over a month ago went and prayed, ourselves over the land and the place of the houses, and as we did we had six eagles in mid-town Anchorage flying over us! Its one thing to see an eagle outside of Anchorage, but rarely do we see them downtown!

We went in today to 5 prostitute houses in Anchorage. We came to share and show the love of God, not to preach or condemn, but to be a servant to some lost ladies. We came as well bearing gifts. We had baskets full of skin care, and all kinds of lovely stuff that women like, as well as gift certificates for them to get their hair done, and also the word of God.

We went up to the first door, not knowing what to expect, if we would encounter a man who runs the place with a gun, or if we would get to go straight to the ladies. We opened the door, and went down a long tunnel into the house, not knowing again what to expect. Two ladies were at the desk, and we presented them with our gifts and began to tell them how important they are, and that they are loved by God. We did this for all 5 of the houses, many of the women we talked to as we told them we cared and God cared could barely hold back the tears. They could hardly believe someone would take the time to come to their door to give them gifts and just be friendly. Some weren't sure were for "real". Some asked us what "organization" we were with, and we said, "NONE!", we are just people with the love of God, real people that want to be your friend. They all accepted us, some invited us into their home, others couldn't leave the house, they are stranded there, and ordered not to ever leave.

Four out of five whore houses have given us their phone numbers and names, so we can be in contact with them. We plan on taking these lovely ladies out to lunch next week, and share in more depth the love of God for them. One of the ladies OWNS two of the houses and has agreed to let us take her to lunch! What an opportunity to take one of the owners out to lunch!

After experiencing this today with these women, I am addicted. I want to pursue reaching these women for Jesus, as well as other houses in Anchorage, as the Lord leads...

We would appreciate any prayer support in the next few weeks for these ladies, and the salvation of their souls. As well, if you would like to be a part of this outreach in donating items or financially, please feel free to email me. Or if you just want to be kept up to date with the progress of this ministry as the Lord leads, feel free to email me and I'll put you on the list!

Blessings to all of you! Feel free to pass this report to anyone that may be interested in hearing what God is doing and about to do with the lost women of Anchorage, or who may be interested in getting involved in a ministry like this.

Blessings to you all!

Saved And Unsaved

Rose Everett

Several nights ago, I heard a kitten meowing loudly outside. The next day, my neighbor told me how she found the kitten dead, something had killed it!

I was extremely upset that perhaps the kitten had been meowing for help and because it was in pain, but I didn't bother to go check on it. The meow didn't sound like one of distress to me.

I kept running it through my mind, asking God "Why?" and telling him how unfair it is for the kitten.

This morning, as I walked my little Chihuahua, I was again lamenting the unfair death of the little kitten, and wondering if I could have done something to save it. Suddenly, I became aware of the pleasantness of the day, the bright sunlight, the chirping birds, the pretty flowers and green, lush trees, and the gentle breeze on my skin. As I was enjoying all of these wonderful things, out of nowhere appeared a huge black Rottweiler, close enough that I had to snatch Cinnamon up very quickly to keep the dog from getting her. Intensely aware of the present danger, not only to Cinnamon, but also to me, I eased my way back to the house. Thankfully, the dog did not continue to pursue us!

I became aware of The Presence of God, and ask Him to speak to me. He said "The kitten represents the unsaved person, who is out in the darkness of this evil world, oblivious to the dangers and totally helpless and unprotected, unaware of this fact, also. In his unsaved condition, he is too weak to fight off all attacks of Satan. He also does not have spiritual knowledge of what is evil, and where it lurks.

Just as an evil attacker had destroyed the kitten, so it is with the unsaved person. Without knowledge, he walks right into the hands of the destroyer. By the time he realizes this and cries for help, it is too late. Even though the world may hear his cries, it does not recognize this as a cry for help and, thus, does not come to the rescue.

In contrast to the unsaved is the condition of the one who is in Christ. He walks about in the Light, able to see where he is going. His life is filled with the goodness of God for his enjoyment. If he is blind sided by Satan, he has someone (The Holy Spirit) to warn him of impending danger, to direct him out of the danger (or temptation) and to protect him until he is safely back in the fold. God also cares for and protects all that pertains to the saved person.

Seasons of Blessing

Doug Patterson

I have heard a great cry from the depths of my people's hearts throughout the nations. Prepare this day for the next move of my Spirit. A new vision and purpose will cause this generation to cross their Jordan and possess the territory for which they have travailed. In this season, the obstacles shall be destroyed. You will possess a new freedom and a new release of a spiritual move. Put your house in order to receive my seasons of blessing. Mountains of discouragement are blocking your divine purpose. They shall be vertically ripped from their foundations by the strength and power of the Holy Spirit. Speak to all obstacles and cast them into the sea. This will create an open pathway of blessing and a sea of provision for you.

I see my people as a great forest of tall pine trees, the planting of the Lord. A five-part blessing is about to be released upon my forest. The first season will be the blowing of a gentle wind that comes from the West. I have positioned warrior eagles to hover over the shoreline of the sea, looking towards the forest in your nation. As the flapping of their wings intensifies it will create an ever increasing strength in the wind. The constant pressure of a west wind will directly hit the forest of the Lord causing every tree to bow backwards in my presence. Who can stand, for my trees are planted on holy ground. My wind will not stop blowing in this time and season. It shall release a blessing upon you. Do not look for the mountains of discouragement any more. As the west wind covers you in my glory I will remove doubt and unbelief from the minds of my people concerning their divine calling.

The second season will be a wave of refreshing. It will travel from the sea with the west wind and soak the trees in my glory. The third season will soon follow as a mighty wave. It shall bring forth a spirit of revelation and understanding in my word. You will then know my Son in a new dimension and move in a deeper love towards your neighbors.

The fourth season shall be a larger wave of the third; a double anointing, a consuming wave of such proportion that it will destroy anything that is not rooted and grounded in my word. I will place golden trumpets in the boughs of the trees. I shall cause them to be filled with praise and the sound shall blow in the heavenlies. A blast of the trumpets shall come forth from my house.

This sound will announce the fifth season of a wave of liquid fire that will engulf the nations. It will burn the wood, hay and stubble to utter ashes. A deposit of fine gold and silver shall be left as this fire passes across your land. It will be an intensive outpouring of my Spirit. This fire will burn in the depth of your heart.

No man, no circumstance and no situation can cause that fire to be extinguished.

You shall be one that will radiate the fire of the Holy Spirit. An awesome presence of the Lord shall burn in your heart, be released from your mouth and be revealed in your eyes. You shall be my ambassadors, as you present and share the Kingdom of the Lord with those who need a King.

Ezekiel 34: 25,26

And I will make them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

Season Of The Basilisk

Keith Davis

May 25, 2000

INTRODUCTION

One need only read the daily newspaper or watch the evening news broadcast to discover the turmoil, tension and political unrest in the Land of Israel. Never has there been greater need for prayer concerning the government of Israel, the land of the Bible and the natural seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Church of the Lord Jesus Christ has, not only a responsibility but a great privilege to stand in the gap and intercede for the land of Israel during these turbulent times.

The scriptures promise the Lord's blessings for those who bless the natural seed of Abraham. And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great; and so you shall be a blessing; And I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed." (Gen 12:2-3)

The Lord's love for Israel is eternal and to share in His heart is to participate in His love for the Jewish people and the land upon which the blood of Christ was spilled.

A deep and affectionate passion is being imparted to the Christian Church for the land of Israel and the natural seed of Abraham. Even as Ester sanctified and adorned herself in her royal attire, so is the Bride of Christ in order to come boldly before the Throne of Grace to obtain mercy for the land of Israel and find divine help in time of need. For the past several years, the Lord has spoken prophetically concerning strategic intercession against the spiritual enemies of Israel and the Church. Perpetual, daily prayer is essential in the spiritual warfare on behalf of Israel and the enemies of the church. However, the Lord has identified a particular season in the spirit in which considerable warfare is amplified. This has been known as the--- SEASON OF THE BASILISK.

Over the past several years considerable revelation has been released to disclose the workings of this evil opposition historically and currently in Israel and the Church. As a result, we have published an article entitled "Lance of the Basilisk" to outline the revelations and the prayer strategy against this great enemy. The time is quickly approaching for this season to begin. For the year 2000, this notable season begins July 20th, and extends until August 10th, which is the 9th of Av on the Jewish calendar. It is during this time frame that heightened prayer and caution should be exercised in our spiritual warfare. This unique season has produced many of the most catastrophic events in Jewish history. This historic enemy of the Cross has an extraordinary hatred not only for Israel but also any of God's people. We trust the following outline will assist each reader in this spiritual encounter.

Seasons

Ros Henderson-Hobson

There are many seasons in a believers life, that cause deep changes within Our hearts. Seasons come and seasons go, but not without effect on our Lives.

In the autumn time, we watch the leaves fall off the tree's as they shed Themselves in preparation for the season ahead. Stripped of all dignity and Clothing they stand bare for all the world to see.

Habakkuk chapter 3 verse 17

Through the fig tree does not blossom, and there be no fruit on the vines; [though] the product of the olive fail, and the fields yield no food; though The flock be cut off from the fold, and there be no cattle in the stalls.

Yet I will rejoice in the lord, I will exalt in the [victorious] God of my Salvation!

The Lord is my strength, my personal bravery and my invincible army; he Makes my feet like hinds feet, and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make progress upon my high places [of trouble and suffering or responsibility.]

Often in life we go through many times of suffering, being stripped bare and Naked before others. Our shame at our naked reproach causes us much Suffering and embarrassment. All who stare upon us, see us as weak and inadequate and unable to be saved by ourselves. So we struggle and hide to Cover our nakedness, we say we are strong, yet our outward condition reveals Our barrenness'. It is a time of self abasement a time of suffering and a time of waiting for him, who is mighty to reach out and save us!

The winter comes, and the rains begin to fall. The storms hit down upon us with such ferocity that we become beaten and bruised. Still naked we seek shelter from the cold. Who will welcome and warm us in our time of need, who will be a protective covering from the bitter winter chill, that menaces our being. Will our feet remain firm and entrenched in the garden of the Lord? Even when the wind itself seems to come from heaven? Will we be uprooted And moved by the savageness of the storms that prevail over our lives? Will We turn and run for the shelter of our enemy, even though we know he may kill Us?

Some of the tree's become uprooted by the intensity of the storms, so the Flood washes away the roots until the very foundations of the tree is Revealed and laid bare. Unable to hold the ground on which the tree was Established, it topples over and is swept away by the strong currents to a Place far away, from where it first was sown.

Other tree's laid bare and naked weather the storm, event though they are Stripped naked and are revealed for all to see. Even though their condition Is pitied and judged by all for their outward condition to most seems to be In a state of great disrepair. Yet the tree stands out in the storms battered and weary, and torn by the flood. Many branches are broken, and every last leaf has been shed. Yet the roots will not be moved, for they are planted deeply under the earth and grounded on the rock. The storms rage fiercely ever threatening to destroy the tree's very existence, yet the tree will not be moved. Then the snow comes freezing all life around, and the Tree again reveals nothing but a bare covering of ice revealing its sad and forlorn state. Woe to the tree says the mockers and the deriders, whilst gazing on the tree's naked condition. Seeing it stripped bare of all dignity, They say where is your gardener tree, for it is obvious to us, he has not Tended or cared for your needs! Yet the tree remains silent and will not be moved by those who mock and scorn.

The season begins to change, with the sun warming the earth once again. The Sweet scent of spring fills the earth with a sweet aroma. The ground begins To soak up the warmth, sending life back into the battered and naked branches of the tree. At first small buds begin to appear on the branches of The tree. Little by little they shoot until they produce blossom and leaves. The tree once again becomes covered, no longer laid bare and naked. Basking In the beautiful warmth the tree springs forth life. Fruit appears on the branches and deep green foliage covers its once naked branches. Its trunk has thickened, and its roots have hardened and strengthened their grip on the rock.

Many now come and take shelter under the tree, glorying at its beauty. Birds begin to make their nests in preparation for new lives that lay ahead.

And the tree looks up at the creator of heaven and earth knowing that once again the master has not allowed the tree's roots to be torn away. And says to him who created all life.

Though the storms of life are many, and all the branches laid bare. And yes Though I am robbed of all dignity and there was no splendor to look upon my Being. You O master have created and grounded me. Whilst those who thought surely my roots would be torn by the storms and the floods and believed that I would be no more. They could not see, who had held and sustained me in my season of need. For the rock from which I grew on, was my anchor and my hope. You O master creator held me and sustained me from the very depth of my being.

Friends there are many seasons and storms that come in our life, and yes Though there be no fruit on the vine. Do not fear, for he that is greater than human thinking and reasoning will attend to our needs for his is the gardener, and we are his workmanship. There are times when there is much pruning to be done, but without the pruning there cannot be any new growth.

So let us remain firm and confident in every season for the master knows our Needs, and will not fail us.

God Bless

A dream—September 10, 2000

There is a large school cafeteria, packed with students, parents, and administrators. It is not clear whether the gathering is for a meeting or a social time, or if it is simply a break time between instructional periods. What is clear is that the administrators are quite busy lobbying for programs and building projects. The school for them has become an industry to be supported and expanded. It has an organizational life of its own. Its existence and profitability, its cash flow and task to build and become an Industry leader has made the students themselves secondary. They are the now. This is about the FUTURE.

Key to the current building project is investment by and with a company that makes Insulation Board. Seagate Insulation. Apparently the school district is going to need A lot of Seagate insulation. And the administrators are quite proud of themselves over an arrangement they appear to have made with the Seagate people. One that will be very profitable for both.

There is a wave of excitement growing behind the scenes, though, as a news release is circulated indicating that the Seagate people are not in control. The real wealth and profit and power lies in understanding and aligning with the Stargate. The headline on the release reads "The Stargate controls Seagate." This information seems to undercut the position of the administrators, and puts the students themselves in position to move quickly, because they are able to invest in Stargate. They are not heavily invested in the wrong place.

Also, some students appear to have been involved in a demonstration or picket line of sorts as they are carrying what is left of signs...Stargate signs. The cardboard has been torn or worn off, though, as if by rain or wind or both. All that remains is the sticks, which are more like staffs now than sign handles. Shepherds' rods.

Interpretation:

There is a large school cafeteria, packed with students, parents, and administrators.

School indicates a place in the Church and in the Spirit where learning/teaching/discipleship should be occurring. This is a school cafeteria, a place to be fed, nourished, and to spend time together with others. The cafeteria approach also seems to indicate a desire on the part of those eating there to pick and choose what food they want at any given time. There is a growing tendency in our churches to be spiritual cafeterias where people are free to pick and choose what they want or feel they need, rather than being fed and nurtured and directed. There are three distinct groups present in this cafeteria:

STUDENTS: Those new believers hungry for the word of truth and the present manifestation of God's presence and power. Those who want to feed on the reality of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. Those who have a disciple's heart.

PARENTS: Those leaders in the church who have seen the fields ripe for harvest and have been seized by the Father's passion for having their lives wrapped up in the work of discipling and being spiritual fathers and mothers.

ADMINISTRATORS: Those who have become caught up in being leaders in the organization. Their identity, their purpose, is wrapped up in the survival and promotion of the organization...the structure. And in their own vocational self-preservation. To understand these men and women, it is important to understand that they are not necessarily acting out of self-service. Many if not most are honestly convinced that the approach, the structure, the organization to which they have given themselves IS the vehicle for the will of God. And while this, perhaps, makes them more understandable, it also makes them doubly resistant to any strategic spiritual realignment which would position them to catch a new move of God for a new season.

It is not clear whether the gathering is for a meeting or a social time, or if it is simply a break time between instructional periods.

The Church is in a season of MAJOR change. For many, it is a disorienting time. There seems at this moment to be a lack of focus and clarity, purpose and direction. There does not seem to be a clear, Spirit-led consensus as to "what we're here for". There is, however, a sense that we are entering into a new season, and that this is an "in between" time. Major new instruction and revelation is about to unfold.

What is clear is that the administrators are quite busy lobbying for programs and building projects. The school for them has become an industry to be supported and expanded. It has an organizational life of its own. Its existence and profitability, its cash flow and task to build and become an Industry leader has made the students themselves secondary. They are the now. This is about the FUTURE.

The students, the disciples, the spiritual sons and daughters, have become lost to the Church Industry. They are lost in the shadow of a greater "vision", an organizational agenda and destiny and methodology. The "future" and that which is being prepared for overshadows those individuals whose needs are now and may be gone tomorrow.

Key to the current building project is investment by and with a company that makes Insulation Board. Seagate Insulation. Apparently the school district is going to need A lot of Seagate insulation. And the administrators are quite proud of themselves over an arrangement they appear to have made with the Seagate people. One that will be very profitable for both.

The SEA in scriptural and prophetic symbology almost always represents the masses of people. Seagate Insulation, then, represents a means of insulating the Church Industry from the mass of people who will come pouring in through the gateway of the true gospel in final great harvest. Seagate Insulation represents the Church's attempts to guide and control revival and the Move of the Holy Spirit so as to keep things orderly and manageable. Techniques for prayer and evangelism and discipleship and service. Nice orderly respectable religion that fits in its place.

There is a wave of excitement growing behind the scenes, though, as a news release is circulated indicating that the Seagate people are not in control. The real wealth and profit and power lies in understanding and aligning with the Stargate. The headline on the release reads "The Stargate controls Seagate." This information seems to undercut the position of the administrators, and puts the students themselves in position to move quickly, because they are able to invest in Stargate. They are not heavily invested in the wrong place.

There has already been a change in the heavenlies, and it is coming to pass on earth. No amount of jockeying for position, no technique or alliance, no earthly agendas or old order power structures will hold back the flood of God's power in the coming harvest. God is raising up the students themselves because they have not invested in the earthly religious systems. Control of the floodgates of revival lies in the heavens. Open the gates for the King of Glory. Open the gates for the Spirit of God to come pouring in. Open the Stargate. The gate for the Lord Jesus. The Stargate controls the Seagate.

Also, some students appear to have been involved in a demonstration or picket line of sorts as they are carrying what is left of signs...Stargate signs. The cardboard has been torn or worn off, though, as if by rain or wind or both. All that remains is the sticks, which are more like staffs now than sign handles. Shepherds' rods.

Some have known this, and have proclaimed it before. They have held up "signs"... "Stargate signs". But this is a new season. The signs are no longer necessary. They are passing away with the arrival of the Wind and the Rain. What will remain is a new and more powerful sign...Rods and Staffs in the hands of the next generation. Kingdom authority and power in the hands of the Third Day Church.

It is Time

September 27, 2000 The Fountain – I looked in the Spirit and saw a fountain in a central plaza. Spanish looking, like the square at the center of a city. The fountain itself was broad and circular, with a high and ornate tower in the center. I knew that it drew its water from the deep, shot it high into the air, and collected it in its wide pool. I did not at first realize how deep the pool was until I saw people in the plaza running toward it, jumping and diving in.

This is My Presence, set in the midst of the city. If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto myself. They will RUN to get to me. They will RUN and jump and dive deeply into my Presence and be refreshed and unashamed, in the cities' centers, in the public squares and marketplaces. This is where I will make myself known.

September 28, 2000 Road Trip—I was driving on a long road trip, interstate, for ministry. I know I was traveling through the south by Jeep, over back roads, through the Carolinas, on the way to Texas. As I crossed one state border (not certain which) the music on the radio suddenly changed to "country". It was very evident that a border had been crossed into a different territory, with a different atmosphere and different "Air".

There are very distinct territories, with very distinct atmospheres and spiritual landscapes which must be discerned, and yet the Lord is in the process of taking us from one to another. He is bringing down walls. Not only walls between groups, but walls between territories. Walls between Anointings and Callings. He is giving us ministry vehicles to cross borders. Walls between "spiritual" and "practical" pursuits. Walls between church and marketplace. He giving us vehicles and pathways that go where there are not expressways. And He is taking us through the Prophetic to the Apostolic.

People in spiritual leadership are notoriously territorial. And yet, in this hour, God is uprooting that territoriality, that division, that political spirit, and is replacing it with His Spirit, His vision, and His destiny. We have sought after individual blessings and individual destinies. And we have viewed coming together in cooperative efforts as a sacrifice. But the leaders who are drawn to this, who give themselves to this new move of God, will find themselves caught up into something MUCH larger and more powerful than they ever imagined. And they will come away with new anointing and clarity and vision and release into the individual spheres to which they are called. This is apostolic anointing.

Many who are drawn to this are drawn by something burning inside them. Something that has been there for a long long time. Something that has been waiting and longing for such a time as this. Longing to be given expression and release. These are leaders who have been prepared. Who will recognize the "this is that" prophetic character of events as they occur. This is not about information or planning or agendas. This is about vision and fire. About giving place to passion for the Lord Jesus Christ. The seeds of this have been sown in hearts and souls. Seeds of expectation and of vision. These seeds are even now being called into quick maturity and fruitfulness by the Voice of God. The Call. The Sound. They will burst forth in fruitfulness. Quick works in our own lives. Why have the prophets and intercessors been so stirred up? It's time. The quick works are bringing about the firstfruits of the Spirit for the harvest to come. You will not collect the firstfruits, says the Lord. You will BE the firstfruits. You ARE the firstfruits of the harvest. And the sower will overtake the reaper, and the two will rejoice together.

Seasons Zion Ephraim Frank

Seasons Ephraim Frank

Shalom Dear Friends,

"To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to harvest what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.... a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace" (Ecl. 3:1-5, 8).

I grew up in the State of Wisconsin in the north central part of the United States. Wisconsin is not unique in its four distinct yearly seasons. I used to enjoy the change from one season to the next. There was no mistaking the times; everything in nature would respond to the changing weather patterns, as did man. The sights, the sounds, and the smells all told you that change was about to come. However, technological advancement has been enabling man to create artificial conditions that 'cooperate' with him, and thus the environment accommodates itself to suit his comforts. It is the works of his own hands which now stimulate his senses. His ears take in the sounds from TV, radio, tapes, CDs etc. The smells that surround him are emitted from scented canisters and other devices. His eyes feast on what he himself has created and built. All of these objects can be brought into a self-contained capsule, like buildings or automobiles. However, in so doing, humanity has become mute to reality. In the same way, the religious systems have insulated themselves in luxurious and opulent edifices and set lofty aspirations for themselves. Intellectual knowledge and/or ignorance have blinded the eyes from seeing and intimately knowing the Creator. Man has constructed for himself a false sense of spirituality, and being surrounded by an artificial world he is not able to take notice of the changing times and the seasons. Indeed, he cannot, as he has adapted to what he worships in reality; the works of his own hands.

If we don't know the season, we are like a farmer who goes out to harvest his crop in the winter and plants in mid-summer. Yes, there is a "season for love and for hate, for war and for peace". As it is in Israel today, almost overnight it seems that we have gone from one to the other, but yet the change has been gradual. Many, who were, and still are, looking to man to save them at the change of season will be disappointed when they find out that they have run, so to speak, out of fuel for the winter. The world has experienced a season of relative peace and prosperity, but I think it is about time that we begin to smell the fading flowers of spring, for the hot summer months may be ahead. Those who are crying out, saying that "the fields are ripe for the harvest", may be swinging sickles into non ripened wheat fields. It takes the hot summer of tribulation to make those fields (garments) white.

The days of Ya'acov's Trouble may be only a few days (YHVH's days) ahead.

"For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be. And unless YHVH had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake (Israel), whom He chose (Ya'acov), He shortened the days" (Matt. 13:19-20). "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red'; and in the morning, It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening'. You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times" (Matt. 16:2-3). "Let us now fear YHVH our God, Who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season. He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest" (Jeremiah 5:24).

Under His wings,

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelites,

This morning, being awakened by the eerie sound of the local muezzin (the Muslim minaret), I was reminded to arise in these early morning hours to fellowship with the God of Israel. I opened to the Psalms and read this prayer:

"YHVH, remember David and all his afflictions; how he swore to YHVH and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob: 'Surely I will not go into the chamber of my house, or go up to the comfort of my bed; I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids, until I find a place for YHVH, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob'..... For YHVH has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His dwelling place: 'This is My resting place forever; here I will dwell, for I have desired it'" (Ps.132:1-5;13-14).

As I mused on that prayer I was wondering: "Do I have that kind of a desire, to see His house restored and built up so that He can come and fill it and find His rest?" Messiah Yeshua gave His life to redeem and restore the house of Jacob, that house that is called by His Name, the house that belongs to YHVH for the purpose of His dwelling, that He might fill it with His Glory. "Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old, the tribe of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed--This Mount Zion where You have dwelt...[for You] chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which You loved....[for You] love the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob" (Ps.74:2; 78:68; 87:2).

YHVH's house is being built from living stones, these precious stones at one time looked like broken pot shards, lying in the dust heaps of humanity. Jeremiah writes about them in Lamentations: "How the gold has become dark! How the pure gold has changed! The stones of the sanctuary are scattered at the head of every street. The precious sons of Zion, valuable as fine gold, how they are regarded as clay pots, the work of the hands of the potter....their appearance is blacker than soot; they go unrecognized in the streets; their skin clings to their bones, it has become as dry as wood" (Lam. 4:1-2,8).

When Ezra and Nehemiah returned to the land from Babylon, they found the stones of the city burned and cast down in the midst of rubble. The enemy was mocking them saying that these stones were worthless, and even if the workmen were to build, they would crumble if a mere fox were to jump on them. Such is the work of restoration in our day! We may not look like much in the eyes of our enemies, but the One who holds the plumb line, the One who has redeemed us, sees us as pure gold fit for the Father's use. Ephraimites, as you return to Zion, which is in Judah, remember where you came from... You must leave Babylon and the pig sties of Torahlessness behind you! A prerequisite of the covenant that was made with our father Abraham, was to leave his father's house and his native land and to go to a land that YHVH would show him. This process starts in our hearts, as there is where the highways to Zion are to be found (Ps. 84:5). "Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God brings back the captivity of His people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad" (Ps. 53:6).

"Go forth from Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans! With a voice of singing, declare, proclaim this, utter it to the end of the earth; say, 'YHVH has redeemed His servant Jacob!'" (Isaiah 48:20).

The restoration in the days of Zerubbabel and Joshua could only begin after a remnant left Babylon. YHVH stirred up Cyrus's spirit, in order that the word that He spoke by Jeremiah would be fulfilled. YHVH's sovereignty led the way when the season came for His word to come to pass. YHVH just may be stirring up the spirit of entire nations today, in order to do the same thing. "Proclaim this among the nations: 'Prepare for war! Wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near, let them come up. Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears...Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehosaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations. (Please note which nations are judged. See Ps.83). Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. (There is a harvest that is ripe at this time, but it happens to be that of the tares). YHVH also will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; the heavens and earth will shake; but YHVH will be a shelter for His people, and the strength of the children of Israel. So you shall know that I am YHVH your God, dwelling in Zion My holy mountain" (Joel 3:9-17).

Mo'adim Lesimcha and Shabbat Shalom, Shevet Achim

"Together (Ephraim and Judah) will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines on the west; they will plunder the sons of the east; they will possess Edom and Moab, and the sons of Ammon will be subject to them. And will destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt". (Isa.11:14-15)

VISION: THE CHURCH PUTTING ON THEIR "SECULAR CLOTHES"

January 13, 2000:

To the Living Church of God, Many have been perceiving this year to be a year of change. While standing in my watchtower, I began seeking to understand how these changes will come. During these past days, I began to discern one area of change which will be significant to many of God's children. This understanding come to me in the form of a vision.

THE VISION:

I saw a great number of people both men and women and a tag was attached to them. I saw the words pastors, evangelists, teachers, prophets, apostles, singers, ministry heads, etc all basically identifying them as servants of the Most High. Then the Lord explain to me that the group I saw are His children, both active and those waiting to be released. While watching them, I notice that the clothes that they were wearing were being changed from regular dress to working clothes. And I saw many of them put on various clothes that reflects their specific works. I saw some putting on aprons and the dress of a chef, I saw some putting on carpenter's over-all.

GETTING READY FOR WORK

I saw some putting on blue over-alls. I saw some putting on suits like those worn by businessman and lawyers and others working in office. I saw yet others putting on office uniforms. As I watch them, I notice that most of them were getting ready for work. At this point, I was puzzled because I have expected them to be standing before men preaching, teaching and doing the things which are directly identified with Christian service. But instead many of them were getting ready to do work which I considered as "secular" in nature. At this point, the Lord bring me back to the time of King Josiah and also of Nehemiah. And the Lord began to instruct me to take note of the events taking place at that time. And He asked me if I notice what most people were doing then.

These two verses from 2 Chronicles 34:12 - 13 light up before me.

"The Levites - all who were skilled in playing musical instruments - had charge of the laborers and supervised all the workers from job to job. Some of the Levites were secretaries, scribes and doorkeepers." At this point, I began to felt the Holy Spirit explaining to me in more details about the meaning of the vision I saw.

THE INTERPRETATION

As the wind of the Holy Spirit began to blow, the manifestation of this blowing will affect many children of God. One of the change that we will see will be in the area of WORK. Many are waiting for God to open wide the door of ministry to them this year, but instead of that door, we will find another door being opened to us.

THE ENEMY'S TACTIC

This door will come in the way that we are Not prepared for or have perceive to be, for it will come in the form of opportunities that will involved working in secular jobs. The enemy's tactic is to discouraged us from taking on these jobs and will be presenting them as obstacles, distractions and hindrances to our call. But God never intent for it to be that way. Instead, many of these opportunities are the road that will lead to the destiny that the Lord has for us. He then reminded me about Moses, that before He send him to stand before Pharaoh, he has to work as a farmer. Also, Joseph that before he walked into the fullness of his destiny, has to serve in prison and do other service. Furthermore, if we observe the time of King Josiah, many of the Levites were called to work as secretaries, scribes and doorkeepers (2 Chronicles 34:12-13)

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

Our job at this point is to be vigilant and prayerful. We must never judge by outward appearance, and we have to remember that God's way are not the same as men's way. Also, never measure the anointing of God with the level of work presented before you. The lower the position that these works will get in the world, the higher will be the importance that God give to them. For the lower the position, the more humility it will require.

GOD'S WORD

"My children, keep your eyes upon me. For the changes that will come will astound many. Those who are not seeking me continually and are watching with the world's eyes will miss my way. But be like Elijah who listen to that still small voice for I will not be in the wind, I will not be in the earthquake, I will not be in the fire, but I will come as a gentle whisper. Do not be deceived by the commotions taking place in the mountains. For if you are not careful, these things can lead your away from me. Cling on to me, hold on to me. . . seek me daily for I am with you always. Great works have been accomplished in your lives and I am accomplishing more. Watch and be alert." This is the word of the Father to us this season.

PRAYER:

"Father, open our eyes to see your glory more and more. Stilled our hearts that we will hear you clearly. Thank you for your hands that is continually guiding us day by day. Set a wall of fire of protection over your people this day that no presumption, deception, and confusion will be able to penetrate that wall around us. We praise you and we come to you in your Son JESUS most sweet and powerful name. Amen!!!" May the Lord bless each one to whom this message is intended.

Seeing Beyond the Mountains

Roseanne G. Harney

In a vision: I am seeing mountains. A man is standing on the top of the highest peak and looking at the sun shining with great intensity in the distance ahead of him.

His eyes are looking down the mountainside and he is examining the base of the mountain. On his face can be seen a look of amazement, he is looking at just how far he has come in such a short time. He gives thanks to the LORD and raises his hands, giving God all the honor and praise for what He has done in and through his life for the Kingdom of God.

I hear the Holy Spirit speaking these Words to my heart:

As you go forward in my anointing you will see mountains. As you shout forth My Word, the mountains will become level. Bless God for the miracles; Bless God always, for it is by His hand that He works through men.

The mountains that have been built by men can only be torn down, from having eyes to see above the mountains. Rise above the situations, rise above the noise. The sound of grumbling and discontent has been heard coming from the base of the mountain. As you do this I will enable you to see off in the distance to see the future clearly. For I have given you eyes to see and ear to hear. Obey Me and yield to My Spirit.

Those that walk in disunity will not have eyes to see nor ear to hear what the Spirit of the LORD is saying for this hour, for this time and for this season.

Those that look at how tall the mountains are before them or at the length of the walk will grow weary. It is only by seeking his face through prayer and intercession that understanding and revelation comes. Direction to follow and do His will can be found as one pursues His Word. By studying His Word, The Kingdom's treasures are found. These revelations are worth more than gold and silver.

Paul prayed in Ephesians 1: 15- 23 (NIV) That the Spirit of Wisdom and revelation would be given, so that you may know him better.

Jesus went up the mountain to pray, Luke 9: 28-36(NIV) along with him he took Peter, John and James. As he was praying, his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. Moses and Elijah spoke about his departure that was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem.

As you examine the mountains around you, do so with God's perspective and His Wisdom. Don't lean on your own understanding, but enter into fervent prayer. Asking God to give you the desire and hunger to receive a Spirit of Prayer and Intercession to know Him and have His Faith to move mountains. He will help you and teach you to see beyond today's situations that look impossible; listen to him.

We are coming into a time a season like no other and those that walk in His presence are those that walk in His love and compassion. Those that keep their eyes focused on Him will have His power to do His Will in these last days.

Seek First Those Things Which Are Above

Stephen Hanson

April 8, 00

33. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Matt. 6

1. Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. 2. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. Col. 3

"What is there to be found which can satisfy a person's longing?"

"Is there a longing to have your desires filled?"

"It is true that I can satisfy the deepest longings, the deepest longings of the human heart."

(The Lord showed me a cantaloupe which was ready to be eaten. It was very ripe and juicy. There were other forms of fruits, and also a cup of something which was ready to be drunk. There seemed to be various forms of food which can satisfy a person's desires or cravings.)

(As I kept watching, I noticed an array of various metals which may have been worn by a military leader of some kind. There were several of them, and they were "set" on a table of some sort. I said, "What is this?" and He said, "Medals and places of honor.")

(I looked again, and saw a cigarette burning in an ashtray. There was a decanter of glass in the background, ready to fill a wine glass. Most likely, to be filled with wine.)

(Lastly, I saw a bag of gold coins which were many. They completely filled this bag, and poured out onto the floor and surrounding area. There was an overabundance of these coins, and it was as if there was an unlimited amount of them.)

Then the Lord said:

"These are just some of the things that the human heart would long for. They will never satisfy your complete longings. There are longings which only I can fill with my Spirit. Seek those things which are above and are not on this earth. In my gates are to be found things which far exceed the riches of this world. Peace and lovingkindness and wisdom and mercy.. I have come to bring life, and that more abundantly. And while it is true that I will bless my people with the things of this world, there must be a seeking first of my kingdom and my righteousness. For you do not seek the gold, you do not seek the food, you need not even seek love."

"So, seek first my kingdom and my righteousness, and then all these things will be yours as well. Do you not think that the Heavenly Father knows how to take care of His children? If you would then ask for a loaf of bread, would I then give you a serpent? You as earthly mothers and fathers know how to give good things to your children. How much more than am I able to do this? The cattle on a hundred hills belongs to Me. The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof. You are but caretakers of my vineyard."

"So seek those things which are at my right hand."

(Lastly, the Lord showed me two crystal-clear glasses which were raised and set in the air. There was a plate such as would be used during communion, for the bread, and here was set the these wafers. A very fine liquid was being poured into the glasses to drink from. And in front of this was a very beautiful opal bracelet, which encircled around the scene of the two glasses and the bread on the plate. )

He said then,

"This represents my eternal food and wine. It will last forever for it has been poured-out for many. And I have made you as kings and queens to reign with Me. These are the things which will satisfy your deepest longings. "

"Seek those which are above, for they are eternal."

34. You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. 35. The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. 36. But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. 37. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned." Matt. 12

7. All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man, 8. but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. 9. With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God's likeness. 10. Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, this should not be. 11. Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring? 12. My brothers, can a fig tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water. James 3

"Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks, and that is how I would have all of you speaking...Speaking as your hearts as one with Me. "

"There are two streams which flow in this earth: One is that one which has come directly from my throne. Here there is no pollution, here there is no defilement, for the water is pure and clean. Here the river flows onward to the sea. The light gathers about its surface, and you can feel the cool breezes. Taste this water, for it is clean and pure. "

"There is another river which flows. Its waters are murky and dark. Every form of defilement can be found there."

The Lord told me to watch, and so I did. He said, "There is a river which flows in every person."

(Here as I watched in the Spirit, He showed me a person's body, and inside was a stream or river which flowed, and seemed to fill the body. Then, I saw the profile of a person's head, and watched as water was being spewed out of their mouth. It came in bursts and there were all kinds of debris and various things which came out of the mouth with this water.)

He then said: "The water which you have just seen, has been polluted. From this person's heart, have come the results of pride, and jealousy, and envy."

(Again, this time the Lord showed me a person's tongue and as I looked at it, it had various sores and places where the surface had become changed from the things which had "spewed-out" of the mouth. It was not a pleasant sight. As strange as it may sound, then, a wheelbarrow was taking and dropping a load of garbage which had collected down below, and was then in the mouth. This was then being dropped outside of the mouth, as to get rid of it. Lastly, I saw a bucket of water which was being raised from above, and this was being used to "wash" the mouth and so, to get rid of the filth.) "I can by my Spirit, clean the things which have defiled the mouths of my people. But the origin is your hearts, and that is where the work needs to be done. Come to Me and I will clean your hearts of every defilement. Then when you speak, it will be for the purposes of healing and blessing others. "

Seek Me As Never Before

Terri Ward

9-4-2000

O My children, How very important it is that you seek Me as never before! It is expedient that you set aside all that distracts and hinders you from focusing on Me, and determine in your hearts to seek My face with abandon. You must know My specific will for your lives, and in order to accomplish that, you must get alone with Me and allow Me the time and opportunity to speak with you. How else can you possibly know My will for you? I will not fight to be heard, but if you truly desire to know My plans and purposes for your life, come to Me, be still before Me, and allow My Spirit to reveal to you that which you so desperately need to know.

Many will cry out in the days of destruction which lie ahead, asking "Why did You not tell us what was coming?" "Why did you not warn us?" And yet I have warned for long years now that trials and tribulation of such magnitude as you have never yet experienced are on their way. Have you listened? Have you taken heed? Have you spent time in preparation? Ignoring My warnings will not make them empty ones. What I have declared will take place, and that very soon. You have had so long to prepare; so long to warn others of the impending judgment, and yet so very few have done so.

Many will be so beset with turmoil and confusion, frantic to know what to do - and yet this need not be the case if you come to Me now and allow Me to show you what will shortly and surely take place.

This Nation has been weighed in the balance and found wanting- and My judgment will shortly ensue. Those who claim that I have shown them that prosperity and revival will sweep this land, have spoken a lie- for it is devastation and destruction which will sweep this Nation; for I shall send judgment upon her for all her atrocities, all her lewdness, all the shed blood of the millions of innocents, and all her abounding iniquities.

For those who are truly Mine-who seek My face and counsel-who walk in My ways and embrace and obey My Word-I will be with you as I was with the three Hebrew lads in the midst of the fiery furnace. I will be with you as I was with Daniel in the lions den. I will be as the pillar of cloud and pillar of fire which protected and guided the children of Israel on their journey to the I have not changed, and I am still able to care for My own even in the most dire of circumstances. Is anything too difficult for Me? I know who are Mine, and I will hide you beneath the shadow of My wing.

There is no need to fear so long as you are led and taught by Me - but woe unto those who close their ears and hearts to My Spirit's call! Woe to those who continue to seek the things of this world, neglecting the spiritual riches that I offer!

Put your faith in Me- for I am your hope and peace-and nothing can take that away from you. I am your firm foundation-and you will not be shaken, come what may.

I would remind you of My Word in Psalm73, "Nevertheless I am continually with You; You have taken hold of my right hand. With Your counsel You will guide me, and afterward receive me to glory. Whom have I in heaven but You. And besides You I desire nothing on earth. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. For, behold, those who are far from You will perish; You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to You. But as for me, the nearness of God is my good; I have made the Lord God my refuge, that I may tell of all Your works."

"SEEK ME IN THE MIDST OF THE CLAMOR"

Stephen Hanson

Dec. 29, 1999

"Go up and down the streets of Jerusalem, look around and consider, search through her squares. If you can find but one person who deals honestly and seeks the truth, I will forgive this city. Although they say, 'As surely as the LORD lives,' still they are swearing falsely." O LORD, do not your eyes look for truth? You struck them, but they felt no pain; you crushed them, but they refused correction. They made their faces harder than stone and refused to repent. " Jeremiah 5

"Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter-- when you see the naked, to clothe him, and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood? Is. 58:6-7

"Go out about the city, and tell Me what do you see? A people who are callused and have gone on their own way. In their houses their homes are beautiful to the sight; every imaginable thing they have. Gold and silver is hoarded up for them. But I tell you, that they are not "beautiful" unto Me. For I tell you, that the riches that you have will not save you on that day. From your capital unto your shores there is violence. There was a time when there was heard of Ramah weeping over her children--her children were killed by the sword. But now, a worst thing has happened--- children shooting and killing each other. Where have they learned this, you might ask? Who have been their heroes? Who have been their examples? For they have looked to the media and those on the "silver screen."

I tell you, that this "new year" will be filled with many things. You will hear of wars and the continuation of these things. Brother will betray brother, and the love of many will "wax cold." Many will shut themselves up in their hollow caves. For the days which are ahead, are days which I have warned you about. It is a time of seeking Me above the clamor. It is a time of seeking Me in the midst of the storm. Surely, this nation which was once founded upon my word, can return to Me. But you need to throw away your detestable things. A cup of judgment is ready to be poured out upon you. Woe to those you say "peace and prosperity." Many of you have a faith in Me, but you have denied the power their-in. Many of you have neglected the poor. Many of you have neglected the "fatherless." Many of you have neglected the widow and the widower. You have neglected your neighbors and the people next to you. For is this not what I ask, to loose the chains of bondage? To proclaim liberty to the captives? To extend mercy and love to a nation which has gone far from Me? To be my examples to the darkness around you? For you are to be my "lights" in a fallen world. They need to know my word where my word has not been known. Lift up your hands and see if I would not hear your pleas and cries unto Me.

Will judgment come, or will it be stayed? The tide has risen, and the dam has been broken. I say again...."Seek Me in the midst of the clamor." Do not follow the voice of another. To those who hear my voice, I will lead them to a place of safety. I will be a "strong tower" to them. I will be their city of refuge. Surely I have warned....now heed my command. "

"FACING FORWARDS OR BACKWARDS"

Stephen Hanson

Dec. 24, 1999

My family and I just made a trip back to Kansas where my parents live for Christmas. In order for all of us to go, we needed to take my pick-up which has a topper on it. So, in the back my son, (Brent) and I laid down facing the back end of the truck, and Carol, my wife, and daughter, Sarah, along with Destiny, our foster child, sat in the front cab of the truck. Midway to our destination, we exchanged places with each other, so we each had turns at sitting in the front looking forward, or in the back watching where we had come from.

As we started traveling, I looked out the back door window of the truck, and watched as the city of Colorado Springs finally became a speck in the distance. I saw Pikes Peak as the rays of the sunrise hit it and turned it into an array of gold's and violets. The mountain slowly became a small hump on the edge of the horizon as we drove on down the road. I watched, as most people do on trips such as this, the scenery which we were passing by alongside the road. I then thought to myself, and wondered what the scene might be in the front, where my wife, and daughter(s) were. I realized that their vantage point was obviously different from my own--they were viewing and watching in anticipation of what was before them on the highway, and I was observing where we had just come from.

Is it not the same way for us in our own spiritual lives and walks with the Lord? We can either find ourselves reminiscing about the past and going over these "images" which we have experienced. We may regret some of these things which have perhaps happened in our lives. We need to know though, that God has brought us out of the kingdom of darkness and into His marvelous light. He has washed us clean of any sin, and made "all things new." We also need to remember to press on towards the goal.

"Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do; Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize of which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. Phil. 3:12-14

God has told us to:

"Forget the former things, do not dwell on the past."

Now, as I have said, the vantage point was different for those who were watching from the front of the vehicle. They saw the world as it unfolded before them, and they were watching in anticipation of this scenery and what they would see next.

As we all know, we are at the end of the year, 1999, which is also the end of the century, and the end of this millennium, and the beginning of a new one. Now, this is also debatable, because many consider that this millennium does not end until the end of the year 2000, and not at this juncture between 1999 and 2000. I however, am not going to quibble with this, and will keep to what this message is endeavoring to present.

So, now we are watching the scenery before us. The tide of our Savior's birth has been upon us, and we await the new year, and the beginning of a new millennium. We have had many forecasts which have pointed to this time period--most of which have centered around the Y2K crisis. I propose that it won't be as disastrous as many have forecasted. We await the new year and millennium with great anticipation. This may be a fulfillment and culmination of many years of waiting for His plan in each of our lives to unfold. The finest wine often takes longer to ferment and to mature. I believe the "new wine of His Spirit" will be poured out in greater measure than ever before. His sons and daughters will come into a greater stature and maturity, and in time, I believe that many will come into a greater unity in the faith. We will see more and more, how much we need to be interdependent upon others in the body of Christ. While this will be happening in the body of Christ, I believe that darkness will also be manifested more:

"But mark this: there will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God--having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them." II. Tim. 3:1-5

"Jesus answered--"Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, "I am the Christ;" and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birthpangs."

(I believe that we have been experiencing "birth pangs" for a while now.)

vs. 12--"Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved."

In Roman mythology there is a god which is called Janus. He is viewed as one which is facing both forward and backwards--the future, and the past. We know from scripture that God is the God of the past, present, and the future. He is eternal and exists since before the world and universe were created, since before time began. He is present with us now, and resides in the future forever. Our viewpoint should be one which is similar. We need to have our seats facing forward while at the same time, be able to turn our face towards the back window and see where we have come from. We need to always learn our lessons well from what history teaches us. We cannot build unless we have a blueprint and a design. The Master Builder has given us this. There are others who have gone before us:

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Heb. 12:1

We live in the present, and need to know that God is an ever-present help in times of trouble, and that He also never changes:

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in times of trouble. Ps. 46:1 "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." Head. 13:8

As my family came back from our trip to Colorado, I saw a faint image of the mountains on the horizon. They were there just as a faint silhouette. Then as we came further down the road, the parts of this mountain became more pronounced, and I could see more the details which were there. I noticed that there were some small amounts of snow still on the peak, and I observed the light as it came across a section of the one of the foothills. As we come into the new year, we perhaps saw the mountain in the distance. But we have not been able to see ALL of the details yet. We need to approach the new year with anticipation and wonder at what God will do. Let us keep our seats facing forwards though, and at the same time, remember where we have just come from.

"Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End." Rev. 22: 12-13

"All things are yours, whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the (present) or the (future)--all are yours and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God." I Co. 3:21-22

"THE RIVER OF YOUR HEART"

Stephen Hanson

Dec. 30, 1999

"There are springs of living water which I have for my saints, ready to give them. These "springs" are springs which are always there. The earth has springs of water which can be found at various places. There is water which is used to replenish the earth. For this water nourishes and gives forth "life." With it, plants, and trees, and living things can grow. With it, man is replenished and is nourished. But there is a river which runs deeper than any of these to be found. It flows from my throne. It is the river of my Spirit. You may not see this river, but it is ever-present with Me. "In the beginning was the word, and the word was with Me." In the beginning, the word says that "the Spirit was moving upon the waters." That same Spirit which was moving upon the deep, is the same Spirit which is within you. It is within you, and is found "deep" within the rivers of your soul. "

"There are "rivers" which flow in every man's heart. There are the "rivers of desire." These desires are either "fallen" or depraved desires, or there are the desires to "seek after Me." There are the "rivers of dreams and hopes." There are dreams or hopes which every man or woman has. Some of these "dreams and hopes" are dreams and hopes which come from your own nature. And there are other "dreams and hopes" which I have planted there. This river which flows in your hearts flows to show you what "true" hopes and desires should be."

(The Lord then showed me various plants and flowers which were on the side of a river. I watched as a flower began to open and spread its petals forth. He said to me, "These are desires which grow and spread unto eternal life." Then He said, "Now look on the other side of the river. Here I began to watch, and saw a plant which was withering, and drooping. It had a thistle on top of it, and the stems were cut and dying, and torn in places. As I watched this plant, it attempted to bend forward to where the water was, but could not reach it. I then saw the sun above, and the Lord told me that the sun's heat has scorched this plant. )

He continued speaking to me:

"Truly, these are the desires which will never grow in my river. They do not have the nourishment of my Spirit. They are not "sustained and fed." They may have a life of their own, but they are not healthy and strong. The desires which I plant within a man will blossom and grow. Seek that river which flows within your hearts. It flows directly from my throne. Here I will tend it and nourish the things which grow there. I want my desires to be your desires. There is a river which flows deep within you. I watch over that river and cause that stream to flow. "

The Spirit and the bride are saying, "Come!" Let the person who is listening say, "Come!" Let the person who is thirsty come. Let him take as much of the living water as he wants. Rev. 22:17

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. Ps. 1:3

And the earth was waste and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. Gen. 1:2

Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. Ps. 42:7

The LORD will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame. You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring whose waters never fail. Is. 58:11

The waters nourished it, deep springs made it grow tall; their streams flowed all around its base and sent their channels to all the trees of the field. Ezek. 31:4

Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." John 4:13-14

Seeking The Bridegroom

Fred Weikert

The Lord awakened me in the early morning hours the other day. And He spoke to me saying, My bride has lost her passion for Me her bridegroom. She has received My gifts, and she yearns for the caress of My hand, but she no longer looks upon My face. She is only desiring to see what I have brought her as a gift.

Since 1994 there seems to have been an intensely progressive increase of signs, wonders and physical manifestations of the Lord. We have watched as the gifts of prophecy and healing manifest in conference gatherings. As we experience all of these miraculous manifestations our faith and desire to receive more grows. To desire more is a good thing, it demonstrates the growth of our faith and belief in the Lord to move upon just me, the desire of a deeper relationship with Jesus suddenly becomes a daily living reality in our hearts.

The ability to ask and receive becomes a tangible reality in the Lord. So we develop the habit of coming into His presence, extending our faith and asking for a greater portion of the anointing. More Lord!

The Lord is using the gifts and manifestations of the Spirit to woo His bride to Him, as a groom would pursue his lover in the natural. Sending her gifts (gold dust, gold teeth, feathers, oil and other tangible manifestations), love songs (prophetic songs) and messages of love (prophetic words) to entice her to draw closer to him.

Jesus desires to draw His people, His bride, into an intimate relationship that consists of dialog, emotion and the desire to please Him by the doing of His word.

As with any relationship when there is a giving of gifts, and the wooing of words, an expectation of a desire of love returned growing in heart of the giver. He that has given so much from His heart and emotions desires to hear the voice, feel the touch, and gaze upon the beauty of His promised bride.

But what happens when the pursued one, the bride, has an indifferent heart? Coming to receive the gifts that the bridegroom has for her, but not respond to His words of love and encouragement, refusing to change the direction of her destiny because she has become comfortable and familiar with the life which she now has.

She can see the future that the bridegroom has in store for her is one of greater destiny, but is reluctant to enter the risk of change because she fails to see the need for radical change in her life; to become submissive to the bridegroom, and release her self from her present way of life and be joined to the bridegroom. So that she would no longer rule over her metron (her measure of rule over her own life), but to have her metron overtaken and become part of the bridegroom's metron.

The one thing we cannot do is to deny the gifts that have been given to us in the past six years. The Renewal movement has been the Lord's way of shaking and waking us from the opiate induced sleep of the religious standards that we as Christians have established upon ourselves. We must come into a place of becoming a lover of the bridegroom, not just a lover of His hand..

As we receive the gifts, we must look into the eyes of our lover Jesus. With a heart of growing gratitude for the gifts

He has given us. We must allow the gifts He has given us to deepen our love and desire to be with Him, in Him, and like Him until we our selves become a sign and wonder to the world, as He was a sign and wonder to His world.

Love relationships do not just happen because words of commitment have been exchanged. There has to be a true brokenness of both spirits and souls of the lovers before the verbal commitment becomes a commitment of the heart.

Lovers do not become lovers until the desire of an agape love (unconditional love) becomes the true desire to give to the other. Pleasing not to be pleased and to receive the gifts of our lover, but to desire to only please the one we love without expectation of return.

We have entered a season where the Lord is calling to those who will answer to come closer and to experience the beauty of His face and the Love that is contained in the depth of His eyes. To desire to be with Him and no other.

To lay down our idols and return to Eden and walk a walk of commitment and love with the one who loved us first. It is the Lords desire to be in the midst of His people. To rejoice, to receive their worship is a great joy to Him. What the Lord is calling for today is the desire of His heart, To be loved by the one He pursues, and the heart that He pursues is you.

Seers

Kathie Walters

This is by no means an in-depth teaching - just a bit of help for those who are being used in this way.

There are basically two kinds of prophetic anointing that are in operation. There are prophets who prophesy by faith - they have a gift of faith for this and they simply open their mouths and out comes wonderful prophecies, and words of comfort, direction, etc. I know many of these prophetic people and I admire them greatly - they are wonderfully used to impart- and to teach others. I would call these people "prophets."

There are others, like myself, whom I call for the sake of differentiating, "seers."

When I was baptized in the Holy Spirit about 30 years ago, naturally a lot of supernatural things began to happen in my life. One day the Lord spoke to me and said, "Kathie, if you will present your body to Me as a living sacrifice, I will use your body to show you about My Body - and then I will take care of your body." I agreed but I had no idea what the Lord was taking about. But afterwards I began to notice that in meetings, or when I met individuals, or when I was praying, I would feel all kinds of things on my body (please notice that I said "on" and not "in").

In Hebrews 4:15 it says, "We do not have a high priest which cannot be touched with the feelings of our infirmities...". When the Bible compares the church to a body, as in 1 Corinthians 12, that is not an idle illustration painted by Paul at random - but a true revelation of how the Body of Christ is meant to function.

Each member functioning as it gets its direction from the Head (which is Christ). i.e. if an object comes close to your eye - your eye-lid closes over it. If you step on a piece of glass your right (or left) hand ministers to it - picks out the glass. But the eye-lid doesn't get its direction from the eye, nor does the hand get its direction from the foot, but from the head. So we all as members of the Body, minister to each other under the direction of the Head - Jesus.

As we are in touch with the Head (Jesus) He will often "touch us" with the feeling of the need of another member of the same body. This is what I call a part of the "seer" anointing.

When I am ministering to people at the end of a meeting, I often begin to feel something just for a few seconds, and the Lord also sometimes gives me a vision or word of knowledge, which all work together to help me minister.

I.e. Often when I start to pray I may feel as if there is an infection in my ears -in which case I know that negative words have been spoken in the ears of the person I am praying for...and it has affected their faith. It could be in their ministry, or perhaps it affects how they see themselves - inferior or fearful.

Words are meant to build up and edify and strengthen. Negative words do the opposite, they tear down and destroy faith. When words enter our ears they are like seeds, they can stay in the back of the mind and affect our faith. If I feel that sensation, like an infection, I take authority over the negative words and pull them out by faith - in the Name of Jesus. I tell the person to listen to edifying and faith building words.

Sometimes when I am ministering to someone, I feel one of my knees seem to give out - in that case I know something has been attacking their faith. "Lift up (strengthen the hands that hang down and the feeble (weak) knees," it says in Hebrews 12.

If I feel something in my eyes I pray for God's vision to be imparted fully - that they will see the whole picture...I bind anything which may be trying to interfere with the vision God is imparting to that person.

The five-fold ministry gifts I feel in my fingers. When I pray or lay hands on someone - I usually know if there is any interference or anything trying to hinder the flowing of that ministry. It works like this:

1) Thumb -Apostle- it can wrap around the other fingers. 2) Forefinger -(pointer)- prophet. 3) Middle finger - (longest finger reaches out) - Evangelist. 4) Ring finger-Pastor (married to the Body). 5) Pinky -Teacher (can get into the ear).

When I feel something on the fingers of my right hand I know the person has a developed, mature ministry gift. If it's on my left hand, I know the ministry gift is there in them, but it is not developed yet. In this case I do not say, "You are a prophet, or you are a Pastor," in case people start trying to run before they can walk. I would say, "You have a prophetic anointing, but it is not developed yet." I encourage them to get with people who also have a prophetic anointing, or leadership that can give the right input to develop their ministry properly.

Sometimes I am in a meeting ministering, or maybe in a restaurant or store, checking out, and it feels as if my elbow has gone out of joint. Then I know that person is in the wrong place, either job-wise, church-wise, or even trying to fulfill a role that they haven't been called to.

While you are trying to fill a role that is not really your calling, then you AREN'T fulfilling the one you ARE called to. I pray for them to be Spirit led to the right position, place, area, or whatever the Holy Spirit shows me. If I am in a store and it has something to do with someone I don't know - they always turn out to be a Christian. The seer anointing doesn't work apart from the members of the Body of Christ.

Rather than take up more space here I have a list to help you if you feel the Holy Spirit is moving this way in your life. If He's not, don't look for it, it's often not very convenient (and sometimes people don't want to go to restaurants with you!).

For this anointing to flow, you need to get free from the spirit of religion so that you do not make any personal judgments, and be very yielded to the Spirit. In fact, I would encourage you to make a decision that your first loyalty is to the Holy Spirit. He is the one you have to please first.

One little story before I quit. One time, I was with my husband who was ministering at a conference. Before the first meeting, the Pastor and his wife who were hosting the conference, plus the speakers and guest ministries, held hands together to pray before the first meeting started.

As I held the hand of the man next to me, who was a very well-known, high powered minister, I felt my little toe begin to hurt badly. After the prayer had finished and people began to leave the room, I turned to the minister. I didn't want him to have to go through the conference with a heartache.

"Excuse me," I said, "Are you hurting about something, a relationship?" I asked. "Well, yes as a matter of fact I am," he replied. I prayed for him, felt the anointing, and the heartache lifted. As we walked toward the auditorium he turned to me, "How did you know about the heartache?" he asked. "My little toe was hurting real bad when we were praying," I said, "God just speaks to me that way," I continued by way of an explanation. Well the famous, well known powerful preacher got very offended. He didn't like it at all that I referred to him as just a little toe.

But you see, a ministry gift doesn't mean that someone is more important than someone else. You can have an Apostolic anointing and yet in the Body be just a little toe.

In finishing let me make something very clear. When you feel those nudges of the Spirit, they are on you and NOT IN YOU. When you pray it lifts. It is usually just a few minutes or seconds. It has nothing to do with any kind of sickness or illness. It is an entirely different thing.

Seer type people are usually very open to the spiritual realm... Visions, dreams, angels, heavenly visitations. The Lord's perfume etc, are all meant to be a part of our lives. We are were created for the supernatural realm when we were born again.

None of these things are earned - they are received by faith. God moves in our faith not our works and our striving. Striving is the opposite to the nature of the Holy Spirit. It's great to see both types of prophetic anointing ministering together - one is not greater than the other. And it's possible to minister in both - but usually there is a stronger tendency toward one or the other.

See What I Am Writing

Bill Burns

April 9, 2000:

The Lord is saying, can you not see what I am writing in the heavenly places this day? If you will but open your spiritual eyes you will find that I have written a title, "Tabernacle of David" across the entirety of this universe that My people might raise their vision and see that which I am doing. For surely, I will restore that which has been prophesied. I ask you a question...is it not written that I will restore the tabernacle of David? Is it not written that you will be the mighty men of David that I call forth in this hour? And, if I call you, will I not prepare your hands to make war and your fingers to do battle against the enemy? Will I not put the sword that David took from Goliath in your hand that you may go forth and take the head of the enemy; I said the head of the enemy, the authority of the enemy? The established authority shall be cut off by the sword in your hand, and then you will rule and reign with Him in the heavenly places, for I have given to My Son all authority in heaven and in earth, and I give this day to those who can receive it. You are not only My sons, not only My daughters, but you are joint heirs destined to rule with Me in heavenly places even in this hour.

Words from the Lord to Marsha Burns:

April 10, 2000:

Rejoice! I say, rejoice, for there is a release of new life, new strength, new growth in, around and through you. Rise up out of the dead ashes of the past. Lift yourself up from your position of grief and mourning, sackcloth and ashes, for yesterday is gone. I have set before you this day, death and life; cursing and blessing. Choose life! Rise up in My strength and power. Refuse to allow the circumstances of life, disappointment and rejection to overtake you. Come to Me for renewal. Haven't I said that they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength? Come, and I will renew you; I will empower you; I will raise you up in newness of life.

Isaiah 40:31 "But those who wait on the LORD Shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

April 11, 2000:

Rise up above the noise and clamor of circumstances that want to dominate your attention and focus. Give no place for the nagging voice of the enemy that wants to dump you down into condemnation, rejection and self-focus. Throw off the cloak of anxiety and worry. This cloud of dust will make it hard for you to breathe and will impair your spiritual vision. Rise up out of confusion and set your face like flint to come to your spiritual Jerusalem, that place of peace. I give you My peace. "Let not your heart be troubled; neither let it be afraid." I am indeed with you and will lead you out of this dry place if you will let go of the things that hold you and bind you. I have come to give you a garment of praise for a spirit of heaviness.

April 12, 2000:

I have spoken to you about repositioning. I have told you that it was coming. Now, I'm telling you that it is. Since I speak to all of My chosen ones, I say to you that this repositioning will take many forms and manifest in many different ways. For some it will be a radical uprooting and transplanting. For others it will be a course correction. For still others it will be a change of mind and heart. I exhort you to yield to this process, for I am bringing you into My perfect order. Indeed, every part of My Body has its designated position and purpose, and I am bringing you into proper alignment for greater effectiveness. Lift up your eyes; look and see, for I have brought clarity in vision.

April 14, 2000:

Watch and be amazed as I continue to bring My chosen ones together. I am bringing people and ministries together and joining them in unique and powerful ways. Watch for new and valuable contacts that will enrich your lives and bring glory to My kingdom. I say to you, My people, be done with suspicion, arrogance and jealousy. Do not be afraid, for I am doing a glorious work on the earth, and there is no place in it for selfish motives and self-interest. I am raising up a people whose minds are stayed on Me and My purposes and whose goals and purposes are Mine. Release yourselves into greater vision and higher purpose.

Setting Your Mind On Christ

Mike Forest

"The light of the body is the eye: If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light, but if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness." (Matt.6: (22, 23).

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on the things of the earth. For ye are dead and your life is his with Christ in God." (Col. 3:1-3.)

The born again child of God is positionally "IN CHRIST." The Word of God says that "He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world." (Eph.1:4). The Word of God also says that the believer has been crucified with Christ, buried with Christ, and risen with Christ. Now we are seated together with Him in the heavenly places. The Holy Spirit is opening the eyes of our understanding so that we would know all that Christ has done for us through His death and resurrection.

The believer's legal position in Christ must be appropriated by faith so that we will live in all the good of our standing in Christ . Jesus Christ died for the sins of the whole world, yet in order for this to benefit man, he must put faith in this fact and appropriate it. So it is with everything that the Lord has provided for us through His death and resurrection. The Holy Spirit is wanting to make all of the great truths of the death and resurrection of Jesus a living reality in our lives.

The child of God has been delivered out from the power of darkness and has been translated into the kingdom of God's dear Son. (Col.1:13). We are citizens of the kingdom of heaven. This world is not our home, but is a testing ground for the Christian. It has been said by many well meaning Christians that there are believers that are so heavenly minded that they are no earthly good. But one of the main problems in the church today are the large number of Christians that are so earthly minded that they are of very little use to the kingdom of God. What are we setting our mind on? What is it that holds our attention? "To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."(Romans 8:6). The Word of God says that we are to set our minds on those things that are above. "He will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is set on thee." The man that is becoming more like the Lord Jesus is the man that has set his gaze set upon the Lord. We will never become more like Jesus when we are in a perpetual state of naval gazing. Humanistic psychology is pre-occupied with self. True Christianity is having our eyes fixed on Jesus, who is the author and finisher of our faith. What is it that we are feeding on?. If we are spending more time in front of the boob tube or computer than in the Word of God, is it any wonder that there are still many things of the world that are still clinging to us? I am not pointing the finger at anyone but myself. Let's face it, most of the television programming is done by men that do not know the Lord. We are being entertained by scenes that promote the lusts of the flesh, the lusts of the eyes, and the pride of life. There is a particular denomination that doesn't believe in allowing TV. sets in their homes. Many of us free Christians would call this legalism. But I believe that in many respects they are better off than we are.

"Finally, my brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." (Phil.4:8). Jesus Christ is all of the above. He is true, He is honest, He is just, He is pure, He is lovely, He is of good report, because He is the good news. There is virtue in the Lord,(He is the holy one), and He is worthy to be praised.

The Word of God says that we are not to be conformed to this world, but to be transformed by having our minds renewed. Our mind is renewed by thinking the thoughts of God. The word of God contains the thoughts of God. As we meditate upon the word of God, the light and life that are in the Word are communicated to us and become a part of us. The Holy Spirit has come as the Spirit of truth to open our eyes to see Jesus in the Word of God. The Word of God is not just an accumulation of facts that are to be memorized, but God's Word is Spirit and it is life, and it has been sent to us to change us. True revelation of God's Word will always bring about change and transformation.

The only thing that is lasting and enduring is God's Word. "For heaven and earth shall pass away, but my Word shall never pass away." This life is like a vapor that is here for only a second in the light of eternity, therefore eternal things should be taking up most of our time and should be consuming most of our thoughts. The trials that we go through are designed by God to bring us into spiritual maturity, but this will only happen as we allow these pressures and temptations to drive us closer to the Lord. "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things that are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things that are seen are temporal: but the things that are not seen are eternal." (2 Cor.4: 17, 18). Whatever trouble or difficulty that we are going through, there is a promise in the Word of God that we can hold on to and claim. This will not only get us through the trial victoriously, but we will be changed as we go through the trial. For it is through the exceeding great and precious promises of God that we have been made partakers of the divine nature of God.

It is always better to see things from God's point of view because the Lord has the whole picture. As children of God that are seated in the heavenly places in Christ, we should be seeing things from God's perspective. The prayer that Paul prayed for the Ephesian believers, and that we should be praying for the church, is that God would grant us the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him so that we would know the exceeding greatness of His power that is working in us that believe. This power that is working in us is the same power that God used to raise Jesus from the dead. Jesus has been raised from the dead and He is "far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in the world to come: and has put all things under His feet and given Him to be the head of all things to the church. Which is His body, the fulness of Him that fills all in all." (Eph.1:21-23). If we truly know that we are in Him and He is far above Satan and every demonic spirit, far above every name, every problem, every bondage, every sickness and disease, then we can truly know that as members of Christ body, then all of these things are under our feet. It is all a matter of perspective. It is seeing everything as God sees it, and this can only happen as we abide in Christ, fixing our eyes on Jesus, and allowing our minds to be renewed by the Word of God.

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Himself the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in the fashion of a man, he humbled Himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God has highly exalted Him and given Him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus, every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of the Father." (Phil.2: 4-11).

"For who has known the mind of the Lord, that we may instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ." (1 Cor. 2:16).

Setting The Stage

Ching Co

"I AM SETTING THE STAGE FOR THE BATTLE"

February 5, 2000

THE BATTLE:

God brought me up to my watchtower and instructed me to watch various events presently taking place in the midst of His people. As I was doing so, I saw various scenes unfolding before me. At one part, I saw a group of people in battle gear and they seem to be trapped. There was fire all around them and there was no way of escape. In another part, I saw a group of people walking over a tightrope like in the circus. Suddenly, the path under them seem to disappeared and I saw them pause as if pondering what to do next, not sure how to proceed.

I was taken aback and my first reaction was to run to my closet to do intercession. But I felt the Lord restraining me and instructing me to wait and to continue to watch. The situations seem to be getting more precarious as the time ticked away. I was beginning to feel exasperation sweep over me. I wanted to do something, but I don't know what to do. I turn towards the Lord for help, but He was silent.

At this point, the vision froze before me and I found myself reviewing actual events taking place in our midst during these past few days. Actual reports from friends and family were brought back to my mind. A sister in the Lord was telling me the result of the medical exams of her husband, the report from the specialists checking him was, " there is nothing more they can do for him." My sister has been waiting for some months now regarding her application for a scholarship grant. We received the form from the institution but the deadline for their submission was about to end and there isn't enough time to process them. It seem God has answered her prayer , but the answer has come " too late." Another brother in the Lord with whom I've been standing in prayer about some projects in progress wrote to me informing me that events are not progressing well and in fact seem to be getting more muddled up .

LORD, WHAT HAPPENED?

As I put these events together, I began to feel numbness sweep over me. I turn back to the Lord and found myself asking Him. " Lord what happened? Have we miss something? Things seem to be getting worse instead of becoming better? I began to remember many words spoken by the various writers from the book of Psalm and I found myself repeating these words to Him.

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken us? Why are you so far from saving us, so far from the words of our groaning? O my God, we cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, and am not silent. Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the praise of Israel. In you our fathers put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them." (Psalm 22:1-4)

"O God, do not keep silent; be not quiet, O God, be not still. See how your enemies are astir, how your foes rear their heads. With cunning they conspire against your people; they plot against those you cherish. With one mind they plot together; they form an alliance against you - Make them like tumbleweed, O my God, like chaff before the wind. " (Psalm 83: 1-3,13)

Then I felt the Lord began to touch my hand, and He draw me closer to Him and I felt Him trying to calm me down with gentle hush. Then He began to speak and these were His words.

"MY CHILD, I AM SETTING THE STAGE."

As I pondered over these words, I felt that God desires me to share these with His people.

THE MESSAGE:

In these days and times, many of His people will be finding themselves standing at the edge of a high cliff and seemingly pushed to the end (figuratively) . We will be facing more and more impossible situations. This will cover many areas of our life. This will appear as medical impossibilities for sickness that affects our loved ones. Also, projects and programs that we have been working on or praying for will seemed to go totally awry and will appear hopeless.

Relationships will be stretched to the limit and many will seemed to be in the brink of being destroyed. We will also began to witness our children going through times of emotional and spiritual struggles and it will appeared that they are backsliding and even rebelling. All these will come upon us in greater rush and we will be finding ourselves surrounded by these. In so many ways we will find ourselves standing in the same place that Moses and the Israelites people have stood. The Red Sea before them and the Pharaoh's army behind them.

BUT God is allowing these to take place in our midst for HE IS SETTING THE STAGE TO SHOW FORTH HIS POWER AND PERFORM HIS MIRACLES.

The Lord is saying to us:

"Be strong and be courageous. Do not give in, do not give up for you are not alone. I am fighting these battle with you. I am the Captain of the Hosts and with you are thousand of heavenly hosts. Do not fear for I have not abandoned you. Do not be distress for I am here with you. Take heart, for victory is yours and the day of unveiling is at hand. I tell you that you will not suffer shame and loss for I will restore to you all that has been taken away from you. For my recompense is with me and when I pour them out, you will not be able to contain them. Stand still and see the deliverance that is coming your way."

PSALM 94:14 - "For the Lord will not reject His people; He will never forsake His inheritance."

PSALM 95:1-7 - "Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come before Him with thanksgiving and extol Him with music and song. For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him. The sea is his, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land. Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; for He is God and we are the people of His pasture, the flock under His care."

May everyone to whom these words are intended find refreshment and rest in Jesus , our Savior.

Settle It

Pat Gregory

March 9, 2000:

I will show you my ways, that you might walk therein. I have poured myself into you, and my anointing rests upon you, of which therewith, everything that you will ever need is provided, equipping you fully for the task, with nothing lacking.

Draw forth from the well freely, it is your right. Have I not already spoken that all the promises are yea and amen? Have I not promised to be with you? Have I not promised to make the crooked places straight? Have I not promised? Then why, why now, do you doubt me? When the fire gets hot, you doubt me? Did I not tell you that though you be tried with fire, you would come forth as pure gold? The fire is not to destroy you, but to purify you, so that I may know what is in your heart, and cause you to run to me, allowing my strength to be made perfect in your weakness.

The enemy of your soul has no power over you. He is a liar and the father thereof. There is no truth in him. So why are you moved by his words? Why are you moved so easily by opposition? I AM your shield and buckler. I am your strong and mighty tower in the time of need. I am the friend that sticketh closer than a brother. I will never fail you! Look to me, not to the things that surround you. Trust me and allow me to lift you to new heights.

You must settle it and KNOW that I AM for you, and not against you. You must settle it and KNOW that I AM true and faithful. You must settle it and KNOW that what I have promised, that will I do.

The times that lie ahead will test you sore. You must KNOW who you are in me. You can do nothing of yourself, but truly, you can do all things through me. Nothing shall be impossible to you as you stand firm, in me, rooted and grounded in me, my love, my strength, my victory.

Take control of your mind, bringing into captivity every thought, sifting out the impure and profane, the negative and the natural, the doubt and unbelief, allowing my thoughts to elevate you into a realm where nothing can touch you. Here, you shall soar as eagles, with no boundaries, but shall rise above the elements of this world, and you shall SEE clearly my plans, and you shall HEAR with clarity my words, and you shall KNOW my path.

My precious children, I AM the Lord your God, the Alpha and the Omega, I AM the beginning and I AM the end, beside me, there is no other. I have laid before you life, my life, that you may walk therein, in victory, in peace, and in love. And not for you alone, but that I may live in you and through you, manifesting myself, my goodness toward mankind, demonstrating my power, that the lost might be drawn to me.

The time has come, and now is, that you stop walking as mere men, but arise as the Sons of God, the church of Jesus Christ, that my glory might be made known to all. Do you not yet realize, that my glory that they shall see, shall be seen through you?

I AM ready to do a new thing, though not new to me, for there is nothing new under the sun. The things that have been, is that which shall be, and that which is done is that which shall be done.

Prepare yourselves, seeking me, desiring me, loving me, above all else. As you lose yourself in me, you shall find yourself, in me, and I will show you great and mighty things which you know not. I will release unto you the very desires of your heart.

I love you, my beloved children, and with open arms I await you. Run to me. Trust me. Stand in faith, KNOWING, that I will do what I've promised, I will do what I've spoken, and I will perform it.

San Francisco

Mike Hendrick

April 22, 2000 "Arise and Shine for your light has come San Francisco and the Glory of the Lord rises upon you!
See I am doing a new work in this city!

There has been a remnant that has stayed faithful to me and My Word and I will draw them into cords of unity! The embers are burning low but behold as they draw from each other, I shall blow on this tiny fire and make it into a bonfire! I shall purify this city!

The church will rise up in this city and take back what the enemy has stolen for years! I shall raise up the age old foundations and establish My words on My people's hearts! My wind shall blow across this city in sweeps and many will fear and put their trust in the Lord!

ARISE FROM SLUMBER

Arise from your slumber Church of San Francisco! Let me heal you and take your filthy rags and clothe you in white garments! See I am placing my signet ring upon you! Take your promised land! For I am rising up a Joshua Army in this land! Be like Caleb and Joshua who saw past the giants and saw the promised land!

DON'T BELIEVE A BAD REPORT ABOUT SAN FRANCISCO

Many of you have believed the wrong report! Open your eyes and see that those who are for you are more than those who are against you! Repent of your unbelief San Francisco church for I desire this city to bring me Praise, honor, and Glory to my Name! Rise up my army! You will not be able to contain what I wish to do, " Says the Lord!

Searching For The Man Christ Jesus

Doug Fortune

We just returned from Texas, where I had the pleasure of attending Christ as Life Christian Center, founded by Dr. Bill and Nadine Smith. During the service, the Lord spoke a prophetic word through me that was based upon 2Chron.16:9. The word spoke of how the eyes of the Lord are searching to and fro throughout the earth in search of a people through whom He can show Himself mightily... He spoke of those who had forsaken the self-life and were consumed IN Him. The prophecy ended with this question, "My eyes are searching to and fro even in your HEART, and what shall I find?... shall I find the MAN Christ Jesus?"

Those words surprised me as they came out of my mouth, as I had never spoken them or even thought them. As I pondered this, the Scripture came to mind as Paul says in Gal. 4:19, "My little children, for whom I am AGAIN suffering birth pangs until Christ is COMPLETELY and permanently FORMED WITHIN YOU!". Then someone in the service read Ezek.11:19, "And I will give them ONE HEART, a NEW HEART, and I will put a NEW SPIRIT within them..."; that word for heart in Hebrew means 'the intellect, emotions, and will', in other words the SOUL. Now we know that at our conversion to Jesus Christ we receive a NEW spirit, His Spirit, according to 1Cor.6:17, "...He who is joined to the Lord is ONE SPIRIT with Him.". I believe that our SOUL, just like our spirit, has the opportunity to become "...ONE heart (soul), a NEW heart (soul)...", HIS SOUL... in other words, the mind, will and emotions of Christ WITHIN US! This is what Paul was speaking of; Christ completely formed WITHIN us... or as the prophetic word I delivered said, 'the MAN (manhood speaks of completeness or maturity) Christ Jesus in our heart'. (Keep in mind that when I say MAN, that is NOT a reference to gender... in Christ there is neither male nor female!)

I believe that God is searching for a people through whom He can manifest His fullness, and He is searching hearts (SOULS) to see what He finds... will He find the man Adam living the self-life OR will He find the MAN Christ Jesus? This is how Paul could say "...for me, to live IS Christ..."(Phil.1:21). Romans 8:19 tells us that all of creation is waiting expectantly for the manifestation of the sons (huios in Greek, meaning mature sons, MEN) of God. I believe that the eyes of the Lord are searching to and fro looking NOT for giftedness or talent or even sincerity in service (although these are good things), but looking for the MEASURE of Christ formed within us. The measure of maturity is not service or obedience or gifting (these are a result of maturity, not the measure), but rather ONENESS of purpose and destiny... our SOUL being consummated IN Christ. Religion has told us that we DO things, certain disciplines like Bible study and memorization, fasting, serving, prayer, etc. that bring maturity. Certainly these are good habits, and good habits are a whole lot better than bad habits, but they don't necessarily always translate to maturity. Maturity is having the resurrection LIFE of the MAN Christ Jesus being lived THROUGH us... and in order to have a resurrection, you must first have a DEATH.

The Messianic prophecy of Is.53:10 speaks of "...His SOUL an offering for sin..." and verse 12 says "...He hath poured out His SOUL unto death..." (remember, His SPIRIT was committed into the Father's hands). Now Rom.6:6 tells us that "...our old unrenewed self WAS (past tense!) nailed to the cross WITH HIM..."; and Jesus confirmed this saying that if He was lifted up on the cross, He would draw ALL men unto Him. We MUST see that our SOUL was (past tense) crucified, poured out unto DEATH in Christ on the cross, He has already accomplished it... it is the FINISHED work! Unless we see this FINISHED work in Christ, we can fall into a deadly trap of the false humility of 'dying daily'; we are ALREADY dead IN Christ, and we must APPROPRIATE by faith what He has already accomplished... it's all about HIM, not about us! The Father will SHARE His glory with no one, but He clothes the MAN Christ Jesus within us with His glory... and His glory is the hiding place of His power!(Hab.3:4)

As the Father searches these earthen vessels and finds the MAN Christ Jesus maturely formed within the heart (SOUL), then we can expect to see Him manifest His fullness in His huioi SONS (I believe this will also someday eventually manifest in our bodies as this mortality puts on immortality)... all creation is travailing for this (Rom.8:22), even as Paul travailed, and as are multitudes of intercessors across the globe even now. Truly, the eyes of the Lord ARE searching to and fro throughout our hearts... will He find the MAN Christ Jesus?

Safe Harbor Part Three

Mary Clark

1/19/00 9:56 p.m.

The Lord spoke the words, "Safe Harbor-Part Three" to me. What did you wish to say about your safe harbor, Lord? I have told you, beloved, that I am calling you into My safe harbor. I have told you that I long to have you there. I long to have you closer to Me. Now, I will tell you something else you may expect as you dwell in the safe harbor of your Lord God Almighty... Hear the word of the Lord God Almighty...

I am equipping you for the final hour. I am speeding up the training with an intensity that is going to surprise many of you. Many of you have sat back and given up. Many of you have talked the good talk, but not believed in your heart. Many of you have looked to the future with dull eyes, having grown weary in well doing. Now I am telling you, beloved, that time is about to come to a screeching halt! Your God is about to give you a nudge and if that nudge doesn't do it, I am going to give you a good shake. For I want you awake and alert in these final days. I want you bright eyed, beloved. I want you READY FOR ACTION!!! The time is here for you to rise up! Rise up! Take notice of the outstanding work of your God. Take notice and get moving...get moving in the direction that I point out to you. I am calling you into action, beloved. I want to make you aware of this tonight. Arise from your slumber. Your God is preparing His army. March...I say! Now! MARCH!!!

Sheep And Goats

Shelly Mathis

<http://www.NothinButJesus.com>

samathis@uswest.net

14 August 2000

On Sunday morning, I awoke from a disturbing dream. My Grandmother and I were walking through a flock of sheep and she was expressing her concern that some were missing, injured and killed... all mysteriously. We came upon a sheep whose left eye had been gored through and was kneeling on the ground in agony. We were quite frightened and decided to go into the house. She went in, but as I followed up the step, I felt something in my back. I turned to face a sheep that had goat's horns stained with blood and an expression of anger and rage in his eyes. The dream ended there.

In recording the dream this morning. I asked the Lord what it meant. I had thought yesterday that the murderer was a goat dressed in the skin of a sheep. But, this morning, I remembered that it was a sheep who appeared to be going through a metamorphic process... from sheep to goat. This alarmed me. I search the scriptures and Proverbs 30:29-33 came alive:

"There are three things which are majestic in pace, yes, four which are stately in walk: a lion, which is mighty among beasts and does not turn away from any; a greyhound, a male goat also, and a king whose troops are with him. If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, or if you have devised evil, put your hand on your mouth. For as the churning of milk produces butter, and wringing the nose produces blood, so the forcing of wrath produces strife."

I believe that the Holy Spirit is giving warning to the Flock of the Lord: "There are sheep who have given themselves the permission to exalt themselves over others, thus producing division and strife. They have churned in their wrath and pride, thus devouring and cursing their brethren with evil thoughts and murderous words. This hardening of the heart is causing a metamorphic change in their spirit man... from a submitted sheep to a rebellious goat. The Great Shepherd is even now coming amongst His Flock to separate the sheep from the goats, because this evil is defiling and wounding His sheep. This process will indeed take place before His Throne at the end, but it must now take place on the earth... the separation of the Bride from Mystery Babylon. Jesus Christ will remove all the evil and rebellious from His Presence... that His sheep might dwell safely with Him. Be warned! Examine your hearts and yield to His fire that will soften and purify your hearts from this evil. Repent, for the time is short."

"And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, between the rams and the great he-goats [the malicious and the tyrants of the pasture]. Is it too little for you that you feed on the best pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture? And to have drunk of the waters clarified by subsiding, but you must foul the rest of the water with your feet? And My flock, must they feed on what your feet have trodden and drink what your feet have fouled? Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: Behold, I, I Myself, will judge between fat sheep and impoverished sheep, or fat goats and lean goats. Because you push with side and with shoulder and thrust with your horns all those that have become weak and diseased, till you have scattered them abroad, therefore will I rescue My flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. And I will raise up over them one Shepherd and He shall feed them, even My Servant David; He shall feed them and He shall be their Shepherd. And I the Lord will be their God and My Servant David a Prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it. And I will confirm with them a covenant of peace and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land, and [My people] shall dwell safely in the wilderness, desert, or pastureland and sleep [confidently] in the woods." # Shaking the Slumber

Nancy Shupe

10-27-00

I had been asking the Father to give me a sense of urgency about praying for our nation. I believe He began to answer that prayer last night with a dream.

Without going into every detail, each of the characters in the dream were absorbed in their own "thing" or obsession. All of the these "things" had as their core a necessary place in our lives, but had become disproportionate to the reality of their importance.

My husband's was his working on the computer, my obsession was cleaning, my mother-in-law's drive was to save a buck on a super-market special.

While we were all busy doing our own thing - I was upstairs folding clothes (like any good Martha would), my mother-in-law yelled, "A Panicking Report!" The TV announcer had just broken into the scheduled programming with that phrase as his lead-in.

I ran downstairs to the TV and saw exuberant, energetic, and purposeful looking soldiers, all dressed in fancy looking snow outfits.

They were removing parachutes from themselves and the equipment that had been dropped down for their use. China had launched a military strike against America. This footage was in Alaska, but they were also attacking on other fronts. There was music playing in the background.

It was not a minor key spy movie type score. It was more the type you might hear when the "good guys" were right in the heat of the action, executing the winning strategy. A "we're doing the stuff and no one is going to stop us" type of song.

I said to no one in particular, "I thought we had more time." (to pray to have the judgment averted from our nation) I had a panicked feeling that there was no escaping what was happening and wishing that I had taken the warnings more seriously and prayed so much harder than I had.

I felt that had I really realized that my freedom and the well being of my family, friends, etc. was on the line I would have travailed in earnest. Our fate was now sealed and because of my lack of prayer and apathy I was in no position to ask the Father for "special protection status." I had not done my part. I would reap what I had sown. I was wide awake and very sober.

Father, help us to make use of this precious privilege you have afforded us. Stir our hearts continually to intercede on behalf of those we love and this nation. Help us to shake off the slumber and apathy and take this message as a "wake-up call." Help us to pray as Daniel prayed, with understanding of where we're at on the pages of history.

Oh God, have mercy on this nation! Yank your bride out of her bed of slumber and strip the sheets off so she won't be compelled to crawl back in under her blankets of comfort and self-indulgence!

Remind her that love is an action word. Provoke her to "take to her knees" out of love for You and all that You love.

Reveal to her that she is called as Esther and positioned by you for such a time as this. Cause her to cry out to You on behalf of Israel, because Jacob's trouble has begun to engulf him. Help her to understand that she is divinely connected to Your covenant people. That their being grafted back in through Messiah will usher in the worldwide revival that she ask been asking You for.

Let her experience the great love that You have for Jacob and how strongly You desire to gather Him to Yourself at this time.

Give her eyes to see that Your kingdom is coming and it is her prayers and praise that prepare the way.

Cause her intercession to blast open the gates of righteousness so the King of Glory may come in.

Give her eyes to recognize Him as He comes and be prepared to rush out to meet Him with oil in her lamp, dressed in her spotless bridal gown of purity and holiness.

Lord God, King of the Universe, hear our prayers for your kingdom's sake. We ask them in the name of Yeshua, our Messiah and King, that He might receive the glory due His name.

Separating the "Sheep from the Sheep"

Mary (Koons) Wattenford

June 11, 2000

The 25th Chapter of Matthew gives us some real insight into the last-day church. Following on the heels of the Olivet Discourse from the previous chapter we find the parable of the "ten virgins," and the "five talents" in Matthew 25, verses 1 through 30. Beginning in verse 31 we find the return of the Son of Man and the separating of the sheep from the goats.
(All scriptures from the Amplified Translation)

When the Son of man comes in His glory (His majesty and splendor) and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory.

All nations shall be gathered before Him, and He will separate them from one another as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats,

And he will cause the sheep to stand at His right hand, but the goats at His left.

Then the King will say to those at His right hand, Come, you blessed of My Father
[that is, favored of God and appointed to eternal salvation], inherit - receive as your own - the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.....

Then He will say to those at His left hand, Be gone from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels!

(Matthew 25:31-34, 41)

In these passages our Lord (the King) is separating nations - and peoples from each other. Some will be called "blessed," and inherit a kingdom - the others are called "cursed" and sent into eternal damnation! Jesus decides "who goes where" on the basis of whether or not an individual has fed and gave drink, clothed and lodged, visited the sick and infirm and prisons to the "least of His brethren." We need to ensure, therefore, that we are NOT among the individuals who are told to go to "His left hand" side. Considering the seriousness of this "separating" we need study this passage of scripture out thoroughly.

As I began this study, I was led to Ezekiel, Chapter 34, and when I began to examine the literal translation from the Hebrew and the Greek I was amazed to find what "appears" to be a rather inept translation in the KJV - specifically in Ezekiel 34:17. In the King James Version - this passage reads:

And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; Behold I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he-goats.

The Amplified Translation reads:

And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, between the rams and the great he-goats [the malicious, and the tyrants of the pasture].

In both translations, the 34th Chapter of Ezekiel is talking to the "shepherds..." as is clearly stated in verse 2. Which terminology then would make more sense in this context - "cattle" or "sheep?" And, what DOES the literal translation for verse 17 actually say?

Strong's tells us that the Hebrew word for is "seh or sey" [07716] that is translated "cattle" in the KJV and gives these meanings:

- 1) one of a flock, lamb, sheep, goat, young sheep, young goat
  - 1a) sheep, goat
  - 1b) flock (collective)

Other verses in which this is translated as "sheep" verses "cattle" in the KJV are found in: Genesis 22:7, Exodus 13:13, 22:1, 9-10, 34:19-20, Leviticus 5:7, 27:26, Deuteronomy 14:4, Isaiah 7:25, 53:7, 66:3, Jeremiah 50:17, and Psalm 119:176. In fact - the ONLY place where this number from Strong's [07716] is used for cattle is in Ezekiel, Chapter 34! Even in this same book - [07716] is used in one other verse 45:15, and there - it is translated "lamb."

Having established then that Ezekiel 34:17 - SHOULD BE translated "sheep" instead of "cattle" this chapters connection to Matthew 25 begins to become a little more defined, particularly in relation to verse 17 - (Amplified translation)

And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, between the rams and the great he-goats [the malicious, and the tyrants of the pasture].

It is not the purpose of this study to focus on the last half of verse 17 - "between the rams and the great he-goats." Briefly though, rams and he-goats (explained in the Amplified translation as the malicious and the tyrants of the pasture in Ezekiel 34:17) are animals that have several key characteristics in common. Both like "high places," and exhibit "head-butting" as a show of superiority or strength. Both rams and he-goats have "horns." Ram horns especially are used in scripture to denote "worldly power(s) or Kingdom(s)," (Daniel, Chapters 7 & 8, and Revelation Chapter 13). The separation of the goats is no doubt connected to Genesis 30 and 31 where Jacob tells his wily and untrustworthy father-in-law Laban, that he will take every speckled, spotted and black sheep and goat from their flock as his salary for his many years of service to Laban. Although Laban attempts (again) to outwit Jacob and removes these animals from the flock.

But that same day Laban removed the he-goats that were streaked and spotted, every one that had white on it, and every black lamb and put them in charge of his sons.

And he [Laban] set [a distance of] three days' journey between himself and Jacob; and Jacob was then left in care of the rest of Laban's flock.

(Genesis 30:35-36)

It is impossible to miss the correlation here with the "false shepherds," discussed in Ezekiel 34. Laban has removed those animals that Jacob wants - a "three days journey" from where Jacob is - and Jacob [then] is left in care of the rest of Laban's flock. So for a three day period Laban and his sons appear to have had "total control" over the animals that Jacob - (here representing a good shepherd) - wishes for his own. Laban's ploy however, to keep the animals that Jacob has asked for - fails, because God was with Jacob and eventually it is Laban's flock that becomes weak and feeble while Jacob's flock has substantially increased and is as healthy as it is numerous, (Genesis 30:41-43 and 31:7-13).

Keeping our focus then on "I judge between sheep and sheep," from Ezekiel verse 17, we are clearly told that the Lord God WILL JUDGE between them. Sheep are always considered a term for "followers" of Christ. So, "IF" - the 34th Chapter of Ezekiel is also speaking of an "end-time" judgment - we need to seriously re-evaluate our understanding of the "separating" being done by our Lord in Matthew 25.

Ezekiel 34:12 reads:

As a shepherd seeks out his sheep in the day that he is among his flock that are scattered, so will I seek out My sheep, and I will rescue them out of all places where they have scattered in the day of clouds and thick darkness.

Strong's lists the Hebrew translation for "day - clouds - and thick darkness" as follows:

day - yowm [03117] - day, time, year, evening/morning in Genesis 1, working day, lifetime, period, as a division of time.

clouds - anan [06051] - cloud, cloudy, cloud-mass (of theophanic cloud) thick darkness - araphel [06205] - cloud, heavy or dark cloud, darkness, gross or thick darkness

There are at least two other verses in the Old Testament using these same Hebrew words: Joel 2:2 and Zephaniah 1:15.

Blow the trumpet in Zion, sound an alarm on My holy Mount [Zion]. Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of [the judgment of] the Lord is coming, it is close at hand.

A day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and of thick mists and darkness, like the morning dawn spread upon the mountains; so there comes a [heathen, hostile] people numerous and mighty, the like of which has never been before and shall not be again even to the years of many generations.
(Joel 2:1-2)

The great day of the Lord is near, near and hastening fast. Hark! The voice of the day of the Lord! The mighty man [unable to fight or to flee] will cry then bitterly.

That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness.

(Zephaniah 1:14-15)

These two passages leave little doubt then that was is being referred to in Ezekiel 34 "IS" for the "last days..." a day of clouds and thick darkness. What additional clues can we discover in Ezekiel 34 to see WHICH "sheep" are being separated from the others?

Ezekiel 34:2 reads:

Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, even to the [spiritual] shepherds, thus says the Lord God:
Woe to the [spiritual] shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the sheep?

This prophecy is directed towards the shepherds who have looked to themselves, and NOT the Lord's sheep. Verse 4 reinforces this:

The diseased and weak you have not strengthened, the sick you have not healed, the hurt and crippled you have not bandaged, those gone astray you have not brought back, the lost you have not sought to find; but with force and hardhearted harshness you have ruled them.

God takes very seriously [spiritual] shepherds who "feed themselves," but allow their charges - "His sheep" to remain hurting and lost. He calls these shepherds "hardhearted and harsh," because they have apparently made little or no effort to care or comfort for those who are their [spiritual] responsibility!

In verse 12 we verified that God would seek out "His sheep," and rescue them out of all places where they have been scattered (by their uncaring shepherds) in the day of clouds and thick darkness. Continuing in verse 15 through 16- we read:

I will feed My sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord God.

I will seek that which was lost, and bring back that which has strayed, and I will bandage the hurt and the crippled, and will strengthen the weak and the sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong [become hardhearted and perverse]; I will feed them with judgment and punishment.

God is going to "rescue" HIS FLOCK - and bring them into good pasture - where HE will feed them. He will 'seek the lost, bandage the hurt and crippled, and strengthen His flock,' but to those who have been [spiritual] hardhearted shepherds - God is going to BECOME HARDHEARTED AND PERVERSE and feed "them" with judgment and punishment. The meaning of judging between "the sheep and the sheep" is a strong indictment of how seriously God views [spiritual] shepherds who are suppose to be leading "His sheep," but instead "feed themselves," and allow the sheep to remain lost and hurting.

In the Gospel of John , Jesus tells us that He is...."the Good Shepherd.....but he who merely serves for wages - who is neither the shepherd nor the owner of the sheep, when he sees the wolf coming deserts the flock and runs away. And the wolf chases and snatches them and scatters [the flock]. Now the hirling flees because he merely serves for wages and is not himself concerned about the sheep - cares nothing for them. (John 10:12-13). Who these "wolves and hirlings" represent can be found in Matthew 7:15-16. "Beware of false prophets, who come to you dressed as sheep, but inside they are devouring wolves....You will fully recognize them by their fruits." These wolves are identified in Matthew 7 as "false prophets.*"

Beware of false prophets, who come to you dressed as sheep, but inside they are devouring wolves.

(Matthew 7:15)

And then Jesus tells us HOW we will know what is and isn't a "false prophet..."

A good (healthy) tree cannot bear bad (worthless) fruit, nor can a bad (diseased) tree bear excellent fruit [worthy of admiration].

Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire.

Therefore, you will fully know them by their fruits.*

(Matthew 7:18-20)

A very sobering note in this passage lets us know that "decayed and worthless" trees, producing bad fruit, will be cut down and cast into the fire. As the church age winds down we desperately need strong discernment about the "fruits" that false prophets and/or shepherd are putting forth. For the passages in Ezekiel show that not only will the King decide between the "sheep and the goats," but ALSO between the "sheep and the sheep." We see from the above passage that the Lord tells us that many will come to you "DRESSED AS A SHEEP," - as a Christian; but inwardly they are devouring wolves. These will attempt to take down and rip apart and devour the Lord's "TRUE" sheep. Since "fruits" is used in the plural, eventually - through a series of incidents (fruits) - we should be able to tell whether or not the fruit(s) being offered up by any individual are in accordance with the Spirit of God - or through the flesh; brought forth in pride, and/or for unjust gain. Lest we think that this passage ONLY refers to prophets another "identification" is found in the Olivet Discourse in Matthew.

Jesus answered them, Be careful that no one misleads you - deceiving you and leading you into error.

For many will come in (on the strength of) My name - appropriating the name which belongs to Me - saying, I am the Messiah, the Christ; and they will lead many astray.

(Matthew 24: 4-5)

Jesus warns us to be careful that we do not fall into error by someone misleading us. A breakdown of verse 5 shows that MANY will come - 1) on the strength of the name of Jesus, 2) appropriating His name, (i.e., appropriating defined as: taking a position or place or making use of something exclusively for oneself, or 3) Saying they are the Messiah or the Christ.

Verse 18-19 in Ezekiel tells us that those who are "illicit sheep" - will have "trodden down" the best pasture and "fouled" the water that they should be offering to their charges.

Is it too little for you that you feed on the best pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture? And to have drunk of the waters clarified by subsiding, but you must foul the rest of the water with your feet?

And My flock, must they feed on what your feet have trodden, and drink what your feet have fouled?

A good shepherd will lead His sheep to the "best pastureland" available, one with plenty of clear, fresh water because he cares for the sheep's condition. The sheep are His "responsibility and charge," and only an irresponsible shepherd would attempt to care for his flock by choosing to lead them to pasture that is not as lush as possible or to fouled water! In these two verses we note that the "false shepherds," have taken the VERY BEST for themselves, but have beaten down the pasturage and befouled the remaining water.

Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: Behold I, I Myself will judge between fat sheep and impoverished sheep, or fat goats and lean goats.

Because you push with side and with shoulder, and thrust with your horns all those that have become weak and diseased, till you have scattered them abroad.

Therefore will I rescue My flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

And I will raise up over them one Shepherd, and He shall feed them, even My servant David; He shall feed them, and He shall be their Shepherd.

And I the Lord will be their God, and My Servant David a prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it.

(Ezekiel 34: 20-24)

These verses tell us that the Lord Himself - "the prince among the sheep" will shepherd and feed the flock that has been allowed to go to ruin. The Lord will select between the "fat sheep" and the "impoverished sheep!" This again, is another strong indication of how seriously God views those who have abandoned the "orphans, widows, the helpless and the broken, and the poor," and indulged themselves.

The remaining verses in Ezekiel 34 give us the "promise" of a "covenant of peace," from the Prince of Peace that His people will dwell safely - whether they be in the wilderness, desert, woods, or pasture land. The King's "true" sheep are promised "showers of blessing" in their season so that the trees of the field will yield an increase in fruit, and that the Lord God will raise up for them crops of renown.

We are also told at the last of verse 27:

....and they shall be confident and know - understand and realize - that I am the Lord, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them.

And finally the last verse in this incredible chapter reminds us NOT to "lift up"
ANY - no matter how much of an anointing such an individual, prophet or shepherd should have.

And that you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, are only men, and I am your God, says the Lord God.

(Ezekiel 34:31)

We are called to be "servants," one to another - and called to intercede and "lift up" in prayer, but not on a pedestal, those in spiritual authority. It is important to remember that "all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God," and when a believer begins to look to ANY INDIVIDUAL - instead of TO JESUS, they are "ripe" for deception from the enemy.

Shelter Of The Wings

Stephen Hanson

July 1, 00

Psalms 91

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
2. I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."
3. Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence.
4. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.
5. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
6. nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.
7. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.
8. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.
9. If you make the Most High your dwelling-- even the LORD, who is my refuge--
10. then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.

(I saw the Lord in a temple, and He was at the front of this temple, with wings spread out on either side, as a canopy, or a shelter. These wings although alive and beautiful, also appeared to be "chiseled and gem-like in appearance.)

"My wings overshadow you, and my wings enfold you. You who sit in the shelter of the Almighty are indeed, sheltered. What is there in your life that you would find shelter in? Would it be a home or a business, or a wife? I tell you that the only shelter that can truly save you are my wings. For I AM the Most High, and those who dwell with Me dwell under the shelter of my wings. From morning until noon, my wings are a shelter from the storm. "

"The terror that comes at night, or at noon-time, will not come near your tent. Nothing will harm or destroy you. The pestilence which will come upon this earth will not harm you. Surely a time is coming when this earth will be judged. The mountains will quake and the seas will rise. There will be "unrest" seen upon many on this earth; and there will be many things which will cause these things to happen in their lives. But those who dwell with Me under my wings, will be safe."

"Why would you seek another? I AM the Ancient of Days. My wings can encircle and enfold many. I created this world out of nothing.....Can I not hold the inhabitants under my wings? Eagles have wings, and so do various birds of the air. For it was to my delight to have them fly in this way. And it has been told that: "Those who wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, and they shall mount up with wings as of eagles." And surely, you shall mount-up. But remember, all you who soar with Me, to soar "under my wings" as you soar. Be held in the "pinions" of my grace. Be held in my "captivating" Spirit. Soar with Me and fly with Me. Then the mountains will not "quake" before you, and the seas will not rise in their tumultuous fury. Dwell under the shelter of the wings of the Almighty. "

I Will Provide A Way

- 5. Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?"
- 6. Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14

The Lord said, "This is what I want to show you today."

(I saw a man who was clearing a pathway in the midst of a forest. He was dressed in a coon-skin hat, and was dressed like one of the early settlers. He was walking from place to place, lifting a rock and clearing the way to walk.)

"And this is the way that many of you are today. You have found yourselves in the middle of a vast forest. You have become entangled in the affairs of the world and the surrounding area. You have felt like you are lost and you don't know where to go to next. But there is a way out and I Am that way out, would say the Lord. I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no one does comes through Me, except through the Father. "

"Many of you have chosen a way that I have not chosen for you. Have I not said that I will make "level paths" for you? To be sure, it is a "narrow way" and not a wide way, but remember that I go before you. I strike a trail for you in the midst of your journeys. "

(Here the Lord showed me a man who was walking along a precipice. As I continued to watch, I noticed that the scene was of a huge dam, very much like Hoover Dam. This man was walking along the very edge of this dam, where the embankment of concrete went down several hundred feet below. He was very high up, and it was a very difficult place to be in. The next scene was one of the Great Wall of China. Another person was shown to me who was walking along the very edge of this wall. Now, I know that there is a road to travel on across the middle of this great wall, but this person seemed to be walking along the very edge, on the stones which were set there on the top of this wall.)

"Remember that there are "safe roads" to travel on as well as very treacherous ones. Do not venture into areas that are unknown or unfamiliar to you. I will provide a way and I will make it safe to travel on. I AM the pioneer that goes before you and strikes that trail. So do not be lost in the midst of your "wanderings."

Shepherds, Prepare for War!

Scott Hofstee

January 11, 2000

Proverbs 28:10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

The Lord says to the shepherds, Prepare for War! Call to the mighty men, gather the men of war! For this day I AM beginning an implementation of My strategy. A battle has begun, a war is declared, for I AM a mighty warrior. My ministers of fire are being sent out to gather My fold. My fold is under the care of shepherds. Some of My choosing but many are not. I speak to the hirelings, who have led My sheep astray, your love for denominations and form and tradition have come before Me. Your form of godliness while denying the power has come to an end. The roar of the lion will scatter you because you never really loved My sheep. You sought a place, a position, a career. All along My sheep have been starved, led astray and beaten in My name. NO LONGER! I move now towards you, I AM coming for My sheep, My building materials, to build a habitation for Myself. When I come you will not recognize Me, but My sheep will and they will follow My shepherds to the pastures I have prepared. There the water will be pure, the grass will strengthen and their care will be My foremost thought. I say to you hirelings, I will have mercy, if you cry out to Me but the time of mercy is leaving. The restoration of all things is upon you. What will you hold on to, as the wind blows over you? You have no foundation, therefore you will fall, but if you fall on the Rock I will hear and I will restore. Hear My voice and repent or else you shall see the hand of the Lord move against you.

To the chosen shepherds in the land, I say yes, I have chosen, I have ordained but I say to you this day, these are My sheep. I AM the Good Shepherd. Move only by My leading, do not presume to know the way. My chosen vessels will come. Restoration and refreshing will come as you yield to My Spirit. I the Lord, say this day, strengthen My sheep, with the words I have given, minister My love, guard against the wolves. Most of all, be spent for My people! I AM coming with a visitation for all times. The walls are going to fall and My sheep will not be controlled any longer. A revolution is here. I have gathered an army of twos and every place that they put their feet on, shall be their inheritance. My government comes, My order comes. Do not be faint hearted, neither be discouraged, for the increase comes. Prepare the pastures for a gathering is upon you. Allow Me to purify the waters and I will fill you to overflowing. I call out to the apostles, the prophets, the teachers, the evangelists, the elders, the deacons. You too are called to be a shepherd, for who of you can minister to My sheep if you do not love them as I do. My call is to step into the fire, allow Me to make you into vessels of honor. That I might manifest Myself through you.

Sheshak Is Taken!

Keith Jackson

"How is Sheshak taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised!"

Jeremiah 51:41

This is dedicated to those saints who would "Flee out of the midst of Babylon". This teaching is not for the faint of heart, the fearful nor the unbelieving, but for the mature disciple who has reached the "appointed time of the father". Those who seek the truth at any cost and desire to "possess their possessions", which is their spiritual inheritance in the Kingdom of God. To those who know that there is much more to experience with Christ in this life. My prayer is that something in these pages will help someone who finds themselves "in the midst of Babylon". That they might embark on an adventurous journey with Christ once again... Ye did run well, who did hinder you that you should not obey the truth?... find out about the seducing spirit of Babylon in your midst. Godspeed!

Introduction

SHESHAK is a cipher or code word derived from an ancient Hebrew coding process known as Atbash. This coding process involves a substitution of successive letters of a word by letters from the opposite end of the Hebrew alphabet. Thus "bbl" ("Babel", "Babylon") becomes "sh sh k". The second letter of the alphabet "b" is replaced by the second to last, "sh", and the "l" by the "k". When this cipher is arranged in the original Hebrew language it spells out the word "shesh ak". The word "shesh" in the Hebrew language literally means "fine linen", and "ak" signifies the possessive "thy", thus Sheshak or Sheshach is literally translated "thy fine linen" in the Hebrew language. It's significance will be discussed in detail later.

The word "Sheshach" is only mentioned twice in the entire bible (and only in the book of Jeremiah), therefore one might be tempted to dismiss it as obscure and insignificant. Though the bible has little to say about the cipher "Sheshach", it has much to say about the subject for which it has been encrypted, which is "Babylon". Babylon is mentioned over 300 times in the bible, in one form or another. It is unfortunate that God's people are, for the most part, totally ignorant of the powerful significance of Israel's captivity in Babylon and what it means to the Church today. This crucial knowledge of Babylon has truly been "Mystery Babylon" to the Church. But the "fine linen" veil which concealed Babylon's deceit is finally being taken away, even this very hour, and the shame of her (Babylon's) nakedness is beginning to appear (see Jeremiah 51:41 and Revelation 18:16).

The purpose of this prophetic teaching is to join the voice of prophecy being raised in this hour to speak against the destroying mountain of Babylon saying "be thou removed and be thou cast into the sea" : "And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all." (Rev. 18:21) (see also Jer. 51: 42,63, 64) This rising voice is sending the rain of truth, the floods of righteousness and the mighty rushing wind of the Spirit to beat upon the house which is built upon the false foundation of Babylon. Every house which is built upon this foundation will fall, and great shall be it's fall!

We have come to realize the significance of Israel's captivity and bondage in Egypt and what that means to the Church. We understand that we are called out of Egypt (Egypt being a type of the "world system"). However, the church has failed to realize that she is also called out of Babylon's "religious system": "Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans..." (Isaiah 48:20) "Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans..." (Jer. 50:8) "Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense." (Jer. 51: 6) "Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon." (Zechariah 2:7) "And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." (Rev. 18:4)

While Egypt symbolizes a type of "worldly bondage", Babylon represents a type of "religious bondage", "idolatry" and a cleverly devised "system of false doctrine and deceit". The idolatry and falsehoods were established over many years of religious tradition. Many erroneous teachings have become "sacred cows" to the Church. Much of which has been passed along for so many hundreds of years that the Church readily and ignorantly excepts many false teachings as the gospel truth. This deception has been one cleverly devised Satanic plan, a work of cunning skill, a demonic masterpiece! The sad thing is that most of God's people don't even know it exists!

Babylon has been extremely successful for the kingdom of darkness. The success of this demonic plan can be attributed to the fact that Satan has been able to disguise this deception under the auspices of "Church government" for the sake of "Church order" and for the "good of the Church". But instead of government it has brought the Church confusion. Instead of Church order it has ushered in chaos, division, envy, strife, a spirit of competition, sensuality, and much darkness. In the gospel of Matthew, Jesus declared "upon this rock I will build my church...". Well, Satan wasn't going to just sit around and watch. While Jesus began building His church, Satan decided he would build a church too! This is in keeping with Satan's pattern of "I will be like (make myself like) the Most High". Satan set out to build something that would closely resemble the true Church, like "tares among the wheat". After laying a false foundation we see the walls of Babylon begin to go up! This marked the beginning of division caused by denominations in the New Testament Church. *As early as the beginning of the second century a distinct cleavage had begun to appear between clergy and laity, and this in spite of the fact that in the first century every Christian was held to be a priest unto God. By the end of the second century the clergy had clearly become a "separate order"... Those who regarded themselves as Christians separated into organizations which denounced one another and as an indication of their disagreement excommunicated...those from whom they differed. (*A History of Christianity, Vol. I, pg.133). Satan gave Babylon "gates" which speaks of government, power and administration. For a season this elaborate religious system has succeeded.

BABYLON AND THE CHURCH

There are many aspects of the Babylonian order, touching many realms of religion and the world system as well. For our understanding as believers and God's elect, we will touch on Babylon as it concerns us. It is a religious system and a kingdom at work in the midst of God's people. This system has been set up by Satan to dupe, divide, control and neuter (render powerless) the sons and daughters of God, the body of Christ. It can be traced back as far as Nimrod and the Tower of Babel. However, as far as the Church is concerned we find it's influences creeping in soon after the departure of the first order of apostles in the early church. In fact, before he was martyred Paul prophesied concerning this and cried tears doing so, see Acts 20:29-31. There are many evil works to speak of in Babylon, for she has in her hand a golden cup "full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication" (Rev. 17:4). Those who are ignorantly conforming to this Babylonian system are ignorantly being conformed to this world (Grk, aion, "age").

This Babylonian system reduces sons to impotent "temple eunuchs" in perpetual service to a king. Under this regime, sons are never able to realize their right, privilege, inheritance and liberty as sons in the family of God. Like Israel of old, the church has desired a king. When we read the passage of scriptures below we are able to see the heart of God concerning anything less than Theocracy. That is anything short of Him being King in the hearts of men and in His Church. As we read it let it reveal to us where we have gone wrong in the Church today because we also have desired a king, but instead of saying "My King" we call him "my pastor". The verses below let us know what privileges we neglect when we desire a king. Read it with this in mind and let us learn from what was written in I Samuel 8:10-18, these things were "written for our admonition."

And Samuel told all the words of the Lord unto the people that asked of him a king. And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will TAKE YOUR SONS, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

And he will TAKE YOUR DAUGHTERS to be confectioneries (ointment makers), and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

And he will TAKE YOUR FIELDS, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

And he will TAKE THE TENTH OF YOUR SEED, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

And he will take your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

He will take the tenth of your sheep: AND YE SHALL BE HIS SERVANTS.

And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the Lord will not hear you in that day.

This Babylonian system opposes "sonship" and vies to destroy the power and authority given to sons. It emphasizes "ministry" as a "goodly Babylonish garment" to cover the importance of our belonging to God's "family". We will look more closely at this "goodly Babylonish garment" just ahead. Satan knows that if he can cover the importance of God's family with this garment, then the importance of our sonship, with all its rights, inheritance and power will never be realized. The Babylonian order exalts the power of one man to the point of idolatry. While this system of idolatry is easily recognized and judged by evangelicals, as we observe its work in Catholicism, we evangelicals fail to realize that this Babylonian order has also, more subtly been working in our midst also, for hundreds and hundreds of years. The Babylonian system is a religious order which is given to idolatry. It is a false order, a false pattern, a false structure built on a false foundation. This religious system is blatantly flaunted in Catholicism where a man, namely the Pope, is so highly magnified that he has become "like God" to the people. And not only the Pope, but many Roman Catholics worship many other idols of their peers, both alive and dead. But the scripture says: "For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise." (2 Cor. 10: 12) But on the contrary, listen to the humility, the meekness, the self abasement and the seemingly despicable natural state, of God's holy apostles and prophets:

"For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools* for Christ's sake but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honorable, but we are despised. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; And labor, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers..." (1 Cor. 4: 9-15) (*fool here is "moros" in the Grk, from where we get our English word, "moron")

Truly these apostles and prophets were men who, like Christ, "made themselves of no reputation"! They did not go around demanding to be recognized as master, apostles, prophets, bishops, pastors and so on, commending themselves. Certainly they knew what they were in Christ, but what mattered more to them was that they should be humble holy men, counted worthy to fellowship the sufferings of Christ! And in so doing they loved Christ and His church. These were men of decrease. They understood what great effect their self-abasement, their humility, their suffering, their weakness, their emptying out (kenosis), and even their death would bring about in the body of Christ. They knew as they bore Christ's death, the body would live! They knew how to be abased and they knew that the more they decreased the more Christ, in the body, would increase! They properly discerned the Lord's body and were very careful about their relationship to it, seeking only its edification, not their own! 5. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. 10. Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. 11. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us (apostles), but life in you (the church). (2 Corinthians 4: 5,10&11) For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. (2 Corinthians 13:9).

SHESHAK IS TAKEN!

Observe this cryptic name for Babylon found in Jeremiah 51:41, "Sheshak". As explained in detail earlier, Sheshak means "thy fine linen". This speaks of Babylon's garments, her appearance and ultimately her "false righteousness". This fine linen is Babylon's ability to appear righteous. In II Corinthians 11:14 Paul called it Satan's ability to "transform himself into an angel of light." Furthermore Paul states in the very next verse, "Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness: whose end shall be according to their works." He proceeds still further saying in verse 20, "...ye suffer fools gladly... for ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face." If you study this out you will see that Paul is speaking in reference to the close relationship that the church in Corinth had with false apostles.

This Babylonian order has the ability to change its fine linen garments. So not only does Babylon exist beneath the miter and fine garments of the Papal realm, but she also subtly exits behind the backward collars and robes of the Episcopalians, the Methodists, and the Baptists. Furthermore, she is also able to change her fine linen to subtly lurk behind the silk ties and three piece suits of some of today's Pentecostal leaders! But God shall take away Sheshak, thy fine linen O' Babylon!

"How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!" (Jeremiah 51: 41)

Her garments are removed! She is astonished and surprised! She will have nothing to hide behind! She will be fully exposed and her falsehood fully revealed! Yes, and Sheshak is already being removed! And she will no longer have a change of garments because thy fine linen, is taken! And then shall come to pass the sayings of these prophets:

"Alas, alas that great city (Babylon) that was clothed in fine linen, and purple and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls. For in one hour so great riches is come to naught. (Rev.18:16,17)

"And it shall come to pass in the day of the Lord's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes and the kings children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel." (Zephaniah 1:8)

Her fine linen was part of her "uncertain riches" in which she trusted. Here we see that Babylon was clothed in fine linen. But she won't be any longer. Her fine linen will be taken! But what will happen to this fine linen? Where will it end up? Immediately after the fall of Babylon in Revelation chapter 18, chapter 19 says:

"And unto her (the Bride of Christ) was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints" (Rev. 19:8)

This fine linen belonged to the church all the time! To her they are true riches! But as usual, the thief (Satan) cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. Satan, the king of Babylon, stole this fine linen only to pervert it, so that he, by Sheshak, might blind us to the true order of God these many, many generations. Satan knows that Divine order brings Divine authority to the sons of God!

The Lord shall take away Sheshak everywhere it is found! Observe! Fine linen is also used for the bed! "I have decked my bed... with fine linen of Egypt" (Prov. 7:16). This speaks of worldly harlotry or prostitution. A prostitute is a woman who sells her body. This is the "merchandising of the gospel of Christ", be it the word preached or be it gospel music. It also speaks of the prostitution of spiritual gifts such as prophecy and healing! "The heads thereof judge for reward and the priests thereof teach for hire and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the Lord and say, Is not the Lord among us, none evil can come upon us." (Micah 3:11) Harlotry is rampant in the body of Christ. This abominable harlotry is able to exist within the body of Christ because of Sheshak, the fine linen of deceit. In fact the Babylonian system promotes this harlotry so much that she is called "THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS". In other words, Babylon is posing as a "Madame" or "Pimp" as some churches "turn tricks". But when Sheshak is taken, the fine linen will also be removed from the bed of harlotry, and all those who occupy this bed will be revealed there in it, naked and full of shame!

"Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things offered unto idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works." (Revelation 2:20-23)

"Therefore behold, the days are coming when I shall punish the idols of Babylon; and her whole land will be put to shame, and her slain shall fall in her midst." (Jeremiah 51:47) NASB

And why are they ashamed? in verse 51 we read:

"We are disgraced, for we have been insulted and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the Lord's house. But days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will punish her (Babylon's) idols, and throughout her land the wounded will groan." (Jeremiah 51: 51, 52) NIV

Perhaps this will be the reason for the great falling away. Whenever an idol falls, many that worship idols also fall away. No different in this case. Leaders who encourage such idolatry will soon be fully "punished" and "made low".

Indeed many shall be made weak, "wounded" and "groan" because they loved their idols. They will become offended and weak, and so fall away during these days.

The Lord says; "I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall." My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the Lord. And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumor (report) that shall be heard in the land; a rumor shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumor (report), and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. (Jeremiah 51: 44-46)

Bel means "lord", "the chief deity of Babylon". What is it that the Lord will bring forth out of Bel's mouth? What has Bel taken and swallowed up? Bel has taken and swallowed up the inhabitants of Zion, God's people!

"Nebuchandrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicacies, he hath cast me out. The violence* done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say." (Jeremiah 51:34, 35)

*This word violence is the Hebrew word "chamas" and according to Vines this word means: the disruption of the divinely established order of things. It connotes a "violent wrongdoing" which has not been righted, the guilt of which lies on an entire area (its inhabitants) disrupting their relationship with God and thereby interfering with His blessings.

This Babylonian system devours true sons and daughters, because they are never able to come into their full inheritance as kings and priests themselves! It is God's desire to birth a "habitation" of kings, lords and princes who rule as one, this is Zion! Soon will be done away the "one man" Babylonian king who reigns alone and swallows up the people.

The wall of Babylon speaks of the division in the body of Christ. The Babylonian system has kept the church divided for hundreds of years. Ruler against ruler, leader against leader, denominations, and covetous practices to control and manipulate "tithers" (whom in most cases are merely Babylonian "tax payers"); these are all strongholds of the Babylonian order.

To Pentecostals, the idolatry of Catholicism is so very obvious. And though the degrees of our conformity to this system varies, it is still prevalent and it is subtly at work among us. In varying degrees we Pentecostals still put the pastor on a very high pedestal and we are blind to our own subtle Babylonian habits and religious thinking. It is as though we haven't figured out how to revere something or someone who is holy, without worshipping him, or it. God is the only Holy One we worship. He is the only one we should exalt at all! But we have exalted the gift (the gift being the man) above the body, which is Christ. But God intends for it to be the other way around, the purpose of the doma gift (the man) is "...for the edifying of the body of Christ!" (Eph.4:12).

BABYLON, A MATTER OF THE HEART

It is very important to remember that the Babylon we contend with is spiritual and therefore becomes a matter of the heart, the inner man. Let us take a look at how the idolatry of Achan reveals this. He was only one man, yet for his sin of idolatry God's anger was kindled against the entire nation of Israel. And because of this sin, Israel was on a path to utter destruction and desolation. Israel had become powerless and could not stand before it's enemies, instead they turned their backs. Because of this abomination they were accursed, for God had said "I will not be with you (Israel) anymore, except you destroy the accursed from among you." (Joshua 7:12) Israel was in trouble and in great danger of being wiped out. Other nations would find out that their God was no longer with them. These nations would utterly destroy Israel.

This scripture below says that Achan coveted a Babylonish garment along with silver and gold. After Joshua commanded a search of every tribe and family, look where it was all found, "hid in the earth in the midst of my tent..." The earth speaks of the soil of the heart and the tent speaks of our earthly tabernacle, our body and God's temple. Is it possible that we could have a Babylonian idol hidden in our hearts? or in the midst of God's temple? The answer is yes. Yes we can have a Babylonian idol hidden in our hearts, and yes we do have a Babylonian idol in the midst of the temple of God! We don't realize it because the devil is making it appear good, hence it is referred to as a "goodly" Babylonish garment. Joshua 7: 20-22 "And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them: and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it." Though He suffered it for a season, God has already judged Babylon and He will bring her system to utter ruin and desolation, in every place! Babylon the Great is Fallen, Fallen!

THE NEW ORDER PRIESTHOOD

John the Baptist belonged to the tribe of Levi but he certainly did not look like a Levite! He was the "transitional voice" between the old order (Aaronic) priesthood and the new order priesthood of our Lord Jesus Christ, a priesthood after the order of Melchisedec, who himself is an eternal King and Priest. John the Baptist refused to be clad with the "fine linen" of the Levitical order priesthood. The garments of the Levites were made of fine linen, (see Exodus 28: 2-8) But John the Baptist wore a crude leather girdle and camels hair. Why did John refuse the fine linen of his fathers? Because he was to pave the way for our High Priest the Lord Jesus Christ. John was to introduce the High Priest of a priesthood that is given to the people, given to sons and daughters in the family and kingdom of God, the eternal royal priesthood. This new order priesthood of Christ would not require "one man" to come into the presence of God for all the people, but rather, after that our Lord had offered up Himself, His High Priest ministry would enable every man to present himself before God. The vail of the temple being taken out of the way, which vail also was made of fine linen (see Exodus 26:31). Therefore, John the Baptist could not don the fine linen of his Levitical fathers knowing that the "one man-High Priest Levitical order" was to be done away in Christ.

JOSHUA THE HIGH PRIEST

Zechariah 3:4 "Take away the filthy garments* from him (Joshua). And unto him (Joshua) he said, Behold I have caused this iniquity to pass from thee and I will clothe thee with change of raiment*."

In this verse the word "garments" and the word "raiment" are two different Hebrew words. The word "garments" in Hebrew is beged which has the meaning of "treachery and deceit", thus referred to by the Lord as "filthy garments". The word "raiment" in Hebrew is machalatsah, this has the meaning of "a mantel and a robe of state". A mantel is a humble garment, and a robe of state speaks of authority, honor and privilege. This Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, was among the captives who had returned from Babylon; "a brand plucked out of the fire", the fire being the captivity in Babylon. The "filthy garments" which Joshua was wearing were the Babylonian garments of treachery and deceit! Joshua was a leader of the people, the high priest. The high priest of Israel was wearing Babylonian garments! But the Lord removes Joshua's iniquity and takes from him the garments of Babylon, replacing them with a change of raiment! There must come a change of garments in the priesthood today, beginning with those given the highest responsibility of oversight and leadership in the body of Christ! It is evident in Joshua that those who humble themselves will receive favor and strength, even a new spiritual authority! This change of raiment for the Church in these last days symbolizes the donning of glory for the Millennial reign, for we will "put on Christ" as a garment! Our mortal* bodies will be clothed with immortality! (See "The Fellowship of the Mystery.") There will be a great exchange of garments in the spirit realm which will bring about a sudden, drastic, visible change - everywhere on earth! At that time you will see the inhabitants of Zion come into power, rule on earth and overcome all things, even death!

THE FURNACE OF BABYLON

Cyrus is the Persian king who was anointed by God to conquer Babylon and release the children of Israel from seventy years of Babylonian captivity. The name Cyrus means "possess thou the furnace" (Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew definitions). The furnace is Babylon which Cyrus conquered and possessed. Also, in scripture, captivity is portrayed as being in a furnace. Jude vs. 22-23 makes reference to this Babylonian furnace and the filthy Babylonian garments as it is revealed in the New Testament. Here Jude is saying that this should be the disposition of those who contend for the faith as they attempt to pluck God's people from Babylon's furnace of deception put forth by men, that would hold us as captives. In these last days these men are mockers who walk after their own ungodly lusts, separating themselves into factions, sensual, having not the Spirit.

"(Refute [so as to] convict some who dispute with you, and) on some have mercy who waver and doubt. [Strive to] save others, snatching [them] out of [the] fire; on others take pity [but with fear, loathing even the garment spotted by the flesh and polluted by their sensuality]." (The Amplified Bible) (Jude vs. 22&23)

Jude gave these instructions to those whom he exhorted to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Then Jude goes on to talk about certain evil men who have crept in amongst God's people. These men set out to pervert the pure faith, which is why they must fight to keep and promote the truth! There is still a Babylonian furnace from which many of God's people must be delivered today. This fire is the fire of captivity, bondage and deceit. It is an inability to receive the kingdom and power of God because God's people (in varying degrees) cling to a false order of idolatry and ignorantly practice ways which were established by these evil men spoken of by Jude, Peter and by Paul in the passage of scripture below:

"Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departing, shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch and remember that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one, night and day with tears. And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel." (Acts 20: 28-33)

There is probably no better verse of scripture to close this teaching with. It has a healthy dose of both warning and promise. Leaders, take heed to yourselves! Take heed to your ways as you tend this flock which belongs to God! Beware of the wolf that arises! Do not seek to be a king even if the people demand it! It is very interesting that Paul should mention these three things; silver, gold and apparel. It almost seems out of place, but it is certainly there for a reason. These are the very same items which rendered Israel powerless before it's enemies when Achan coveted them and hid these things in his tent. Do not covet money nor the prestigious apparel which is Satan's goodly Babylonish garment also called Sheshak! The promise is that, in obeying God fully, we will grow and be built up. And God will give us our inheritance. Then we will all reign together with Christ in Zion, the Kingdom of God! Amen.

Sifting Wheat

Susan Slagle

It is a time of judgment and judgment begins in the House of God. I am sifting wheat from chaff. No one believes they are chaff. My Word is the sword that divides between soul and spirit. Many think they walk on the narrow road. I have stepped back and let the enemy bring a tidal wave of anger and frustration against this land. This will separate the true wheat from the chaff.

My Word instructs those who follow Me to love their enemies, to do good to them, to lend to them without expecting repayment, it instructs them to bear up under unjust suffering, to bless and not revile those who revile them. Those who react contrary to My Word will suddenly realize exactly which path they are truly on. I am giving space to repent. I am the only overcomer, I have told you that in this world you will have tribulation, but to be of good cheer for I have overcome this world. Rest in Me, draw on My strength, for it is not by might, nor by power that you will overcome in this time of testing but rather by quietness and confidence in the Lord your God. I have promised to raise a standard against the flood of ungodliness and I will do it. Make very sure on which side of that standard you stand.

Miracles and Signs

Linda Lamon

*15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.
16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.
17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;
18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.
19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.
20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen. Mark 16:15-20*

What an amazing mission! The Lord commanded them to go throughout the world and preach the Good News that God loves every man and that Jesus has come and died and risen again. Everyone that believes and is baptized is to be saved and the unbelievers are to be damned forever. This part of the command is believed by nearly everyone that professes to be a Christian. Preaching is necessary to the spreading of the gospel. It is that next part most people want to ignore. The signs that are to follow them that believe. I am going to list these signs that Jesus said would follow them that believe.

- 1.Deliverance- cast out devils or demons.
- 2.Speak in New Tongues, in the languages of men and angels.
- 3.Pick up deadly snakes
- 4.Poisons won't hurt them
- 5.Lay hands on the sick and they shall recover...i.e. get well

Now I want you to get the most important part of this passage. The signs follow them that believe! Believe what? Believe in the signs? Believe in miracles? Believe in tongues? Believe in showing off by drinking poison and handling snakes? Believe in healing? No and resoundly NO! These signs do not follow because you believe in them they follow because you believe in Jesus Christ. Remember the statement in John 6:29 which says "The work of God is to believe in Him whom He has sent", in other words believing in Jesus is the work of God. Performing miracles, or healing people or speaking in tongues or any other gift or sign is not the work of God, believing is the work of God. Preaching the Gospel to a lost and dying world is the method that God has chosen to help men to believe. It is the foolishness of preaching that produces faith and belief in men and women. The signs are to follow them that believe.

I have seen two kinds of errors about signs and miracles. The same errors that Jesus saw. People only want to see the signs and miracles without having to believe or they disbelieve signs and miracles and call them the works of the devil. Both cases lead to the same place, destruction, damnation. Because without believing, the signs and miracles are worthless to you and refusing to believe in the miraculous is the same sin. God is a God of miracles and wonders. He has performed many miracles to prove His power and His Glory. He will magnify His name and uphold the ministry of those that believe in Him with signs. But those that seek signs and wonders are called a perverse and adulterous generation.

*38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.
39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: Matthew 12:38-39*

We need to be careful what we ask for and how we pray. Are we to pray for miracles? Will someone show me a scripture where we are exhorted to pray for miracles? Where does the Word say we should ask for a miracle? How many times have you said “I believe in miracles!”? Really? I believe in a God who does miracles. I don’t believe in miracles. Jesus never told anyone to believe in miracles but he did tell someone to believe in Him because of the miracles. Believing needs to be reserved for Jesus. Believe in God, believe in Jesus, believe in the power of the Holy Spirit. Don’t waste the energy required to believe in believing in signs or wonders. Miracles, signs and wonders do not require faith in them but rather faith in Jesus is required. Pastors and teachers and many others have gotten into the habit of praying for miracles rather than simply praying as Jesus taught us to pray. Their prayers have become lists of demands rather than petitions and supplication. They have forgotten that grace is unmerited and undeserved favor. Somehow when you hear these people pray you get the impression that they think their words of “believing for a miracle” will move God to work on their demand. The prayers are most often ineffectual.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. John 14:11-14

The works, the miracles, the signs and wonders, are a testimony that the person is from God. God is the one that does the works and the miracles, not the person. Any person that performs a miracle or sign and accepts the praise of men is in a very grave position. That person better give all the glory to God or he or she will be wide open for the Devil to make a heyday out of their ministry. Miracles are by the grace of God. The same grace that saves us. We have no right to demand them. However, they are to follow those that BELIEVE in Jesus Christ. I am afraid that most of us have very little of this evidence following us around to validate our belief. Not many of us can perform miracles, or have signs and wonders abounding in our lives and ministries. Many Christians refuse speaking in tongues as though it is from the devil. Most of us are smart enough not to get caught up in the foolishness of testing God by deliberately drinking poison or picking up deadly snakes. The fact is, that what I am addressing is the error of praying for miracles. Praying for signs to happen. Too much emphasis is being given on these things and far too little time is spent in addressing real issues.

I will be blunt. Why are so many of God’s people sick? Why do the prayer lists on Sunday mornings just get longer and longer? Why do we pray for healing and miracles when we haven’t even bothered to ask the Lord’s wisdom or guidance in any given situation? There are many reasons why so many of God’s people are sick. The answers are in the word. However, that is not what we are going to discuss here. The issue at hand is the demanding way we approach God in these situations. The profession of healing without evidence of healing. Have faith we are told as though we should have faith in faith itself. What is the truth about faith?

I was recently in a Sunday school class and the lesson was about faith. The question under discussion was, “How do you increase in faith?” How does your faith grow? In fact, the title of the lesson was “How to Grow in Faith” Lot’s of people had answers and opinions. The Sunday School lesson book had several scriptures. Mark 1:14 and 4:14, Romans 10:16, Luke 17:5, Colossians 2:5, and Jude 20-21. All wonderful and mighty scriptures. Yet there was one scripture that was missing and I thought that it was very unusual that they would have missed such a basic scripture about faith.

1 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. Hebrews 12:1-2

There are many wonderful points in this passage but the point pertinent to this discussion is this; “let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith...” You see, faith is not a fruit of the Spirit. Faith is a gift. You will find faith in 1 Corinthians 12 listed as one of the gifts of the Spirit. You cannot grow or develop faith. You can choose to believe but it is the Holy Spirit that gives us faith. Faith is not assent or confession it is a gift from God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. Romans 12:3

Hebrews describes faith as the “substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen”. (Hebrews 11:1) I have heard many sermons on this passage and the meaning of faith. I haven’t heard a sermon yet that has just accepted faith as simply a gift from God. Even our believing comes from the Spirit . Substance is translated from the Greek word “hupostasis” which means literally - a setting under- (a support). This made my Spirit leap with joy. You see this means that faith is the support of the things we hope for. Things like : salvation, the redemption of our bodies, the return of the Lord for His own and many others. Without this support, faith, it is impossible to please God. And faith is a gift from God. Hallelujah! Dance with me to celebrate this truth for just a moment!!! That ‘measure’ of faith spoken of in Romans 12:3 is like the recipe of your life in Christ. In the recipe of your life, God has dealt you a measure of faith. Perhaps in your case it is a teaspoon or in someone’s it is a tablespoon. In another’s it might be a truck load. Or perhaps, just a mustard seed, a grain of faith. Whatever that measure is, we are exhorted not to think too highly of ourselves because we should soberly recognize that the faith we have, the faith that supports our hopes in God, is given to us by the Holy Spirit. In all truth and reality, Jesus in us, is our hope. It is the fact that we are born again that gives us this faith because it comes from the Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ that dwells in every believer. Anyone without the Spirit of Christ is not His.

The phrase, “evidence of things not seen”, is also very enlightening when you look at the Greek word translated evidence, which is eleghos. This word means “proof, conviction”. Proof or conviction of things not seen can only come from the Lord God on high. The Holy Spirit is the one that convicts the world of sin and trust me that is one of the ‘unseen’ things in the natural. We are so blind to our own sins and iniquities that without the convicting power of the Holy Spirit none of us would ever repent and turn to the Lord. Are you still wondering why the writer of Hebrews said “looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith”? It is very obvious to me that without Jesus creating and completing our faith we would have none. Praise His holy name. All the people of faith in the Bible got their faith the same way we do, by believing in God. We have a tendency to equate faith with believing but they are not really the same thing. We can believe and still not have faith. Believing is a choice, faith is a gift. Faith comes from that marvelous transaction when we cry out to God and say “I believe, help thou my unbelief” and He by His grace, mercy and love gives us the faith to support our belief. Thank you Father.

I want more faith. I want to be able to BELIEVE the way that God has intended for me to believe. I want to believe with faith that will move mountains, uproot trees, part waters, and cause the sick to recover. I want signs to follow me only because it will prove that I believe. The signs of tongues, healing, deliverance, protection from harm, these things, have followed God’s people from the earliest times of history. Men of faith have done all these things. Their faith came from the same place, from the Holy Spirit and our gracious Father above. The fact is though, that I have no faith in faith but I only have faith in Jesus Christ. I believe that He is Sovereign Lord of all creation and He will move every mountain, uproot every tree and heal every sick person and deliver every demonized person, protect me from harm and do all of these things because I love Him, and He loves me and He has promised that if I ask anything of Him , He will do it.

In the past, He has given me what I asked for even to my regret. The difference in how I pray today and how I have prayed in the past, is that today I only want what He wants. I pray fervently and with great zeal that He will not lead me into temptation but deliver me from the evil one that will tempt me. I pray that His will be done on earth, right here, right now, in my life, as it is in Heaven. I pray that He will rule, here and now, in my heart. I want to be what He wants me to be. I want to say what He wants me to say, I want to go where He sends me. Jesus told the disciples at the well in Samaria that he had food that they ‘knew not of’. I have found the same food. My food is to do the will of Him that has sent me and to finish His work. My work is to believe on Him that the Father sent, Jesus Christ. I will do this work daily for as long as I live or as long as the Lord tarries.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

*11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: Ephesians 4:7-13*

We all have a measure of faith, a measure of the gift of Christ, and we are a part of the body of Christ. A measure of the fullness of Christ dwells in each of us. Church, we all have the same ‘work’ and it is not calling for signs, miracles, or wonders. Our work is to keep our eyes on Jesus, believe in Him and do His will. His will be done. He has given us gifts of the Spirit and gifts of people to help us all mature and grow into the Bride of Christ. Jesus is coming back soon. Will He find any with faith? Will He find His bride ready and watching for her bridegroom? Faith is necessary to our walk with the Lord. Only by faith can we please God. I once heard a description of faith that has never left me. A little girl came to her daddy and interrupted his reading the newspaper with a question. She said “Daddy will you build me a doll house?” He absentmindedly glanced from the paper and said “Sure honey, in a little while. Just let me finish my reading.” After a little time, when he was finishing his reading he looked out the window and saw his daughter carrying her dolls out into the yard. He watched her with a smile of amusement not at all understanding what was happening. Finally he asked his wife. “What is she doing?” It looked as though she was moving. His wife answered “Didn’t you tell her you would build her a doll house?” The father looked startled and perplexed and then recalled the child’s request. He looked at the dolls, the child humming and singing in anticipation, the happy expression on her face and immediately got up and went to the garage and built his child a doll house even though it was Tuesday and he should have gone to work. Under no circumstance would he have disappointed that child’s faith. She had the substance of what she hoped for, a belief that her daddy would keep his promise.

Our father is anticipating our needs, providing for us and loves it when we display our faith in Him and His word by obeying and expecting Him to do what He has promised. The child did not nag, beg or even remind her father that “he promised” she simply believed and that belief became faith and faith produced actions that were the evidence of her belief. This is the same path we walk and when we are like this child we are a delight to our Heavenly Father. I don’t know about you but I long more than anything to be a delight to the Father I adore. So I strive to always believe, knowing that belief becomes faith by the power of the Holy Spirit and that faith produces works that are the evidence of my belief. When we walk in the Spirit we produce not only the fruits of the Spirit but the Spirit gives us gifts including faith that enable us to be His witnesses and live our lives free from bondage, sin and iniquity. All in the matchless name of Jesus Christ.

May the Lord keep you and make His face to shine upon you and give you love, joy peace and FAITH, that there will be signs and evidence of your belief in Him.

In love with Christ

Sihon and Og

Jim Rinker

As we continue to study the word of God we find a hidden treasure that once revealed to us is food for us and our children that we may do all that is written in the word of God. As the Lord is revealing PORTIONS of scripture in these last days it is the Father's heart that these revelations will be looked upon as tokens which are meant to drive us deeper into the word of God to "mine" the treasure that is in the word of God for ourselves. This I would consider to be one of the main goals of these letters. Not to be a "teacher" to others but rather a token giver or perhaps as Caleb was a spy who goes into the land and brings back good fruit for the express purpose of stirring hearts and building faith to go in and possess the land.

As we study the journey of the children of Israel through the wilderness to the promised land we find that there were two kings THIS SIDE of Jordan that stood in the way of a portion of their inheritance. As a side note, a portion of the children possessed the land this side of Jordan then went before their brethren to help dispose the land on the other side of Jordan.

Numbers 32:33 And Moses gave unto them, [even] to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, [even] the cities of the country round about.

Within this is an end time allegory in which a "portion" (first fruit) in these last days have already or are in the process of displacing the enemy from their RESTING PLACE. As these take their possession "this side of Jordan" they will be called to "go before their brethren" and help the rest fight and displace the enemy in the land.

Joshua 1:13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land. 14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them; 15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as [he hath given] you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD'S servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising.

There are those in these last days who have and very shortly will enter into that place of rest or their possession. These will then be equipped to help their brethren claim their inheritance in Christ Jesus. They will GO BEFORE THEM. Paul revealed this very thing as he spoke to the Galatians.

Galatians 4:19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you Note here Paul said TRAVAIL AGAIN. He travailed once to possess his inheritance now he is travelling AGAIN to help the rest of the body.

In order for the first fruits company to take their possession, inheritance, or rest they had to displace a people and two specific kings over that people. The people they had to displace were the Amorites (Deuteronomy 3). The name Amorite is [0567] in the Strong's concordance and means "a sayer". This name is derived from [0559] in the Strong's concordance and means self, to boast, proud, to say, speak, or utter. This "stronghold" has to do with our speech and specifically those things which flow from our SOUL or SOULISH, CARNAL man. James tells us:

James 3: 2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same [is] a perfect man, [and] able also to bridle the whole body.

Thus we see here that the one stronghold that stands in the way of entering into our rest and possession of our inheritance is bringing our SOUL in subjection to our SPIRIT or SPIRIT MAN. James tells us anyone who does this is PERFECT (mature).

The Amorites had two kings over them. The first was Sihon king of the Amorites who dwelt in Heshbon. Sihon is [05511] in the Strong's concordance and means "warrior". This name is derived from [05477] and means a tempestuous wind or to wipe or sweep away. We read of this "spiritual stronghold" or king that stands in our possession or inheritance in:

James 3: 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! 6 And the tongue [is] a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

Sihon is the "warrior" in our flesh (antichrist if you will) that seeks to take matters into our own hands. It is the way of the flesh. Paul told the Galatians:

Galatians 5: 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, [even] in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. 16 [This] I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

The key to overcoming Sihon is walking in the spirit or placing our soul under the subjection of our spirit man.

Sihon dwelt in Heshbon. The name Heshbon is [02809] in the Strong's concordance and means "stronghold". It is derived from [02808] in the Strong's concordance and means account, reasoning, reckoning. These are all descriptions of our NATURAL MIND and CARNAL UNDERSTANDING. It is the soul or soulish nature that stands in the way of our inheritance. It is that which comes from our soul that comes out of our mouth. James tells us:

James 3:9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. 10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet [water] and bitter? 12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so [can] no fountain both yield salt water and fresh. 13 Who [is] a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

The "natural" tendency is to be a WARRIOR rather than a servant. It is relying or leaning upon our natural understanding. The word [02808] is derived from [02803] in the Strong's concordance and means to calculate, devise, or fabricate.

That which comes out of our soul is not the word of God or the words of life but rather are cunningly devised fables and fabricated stories. They are words of vanity and emptiness that have no value nor do they give life to anyone including ourselves. It is this "straying" away from the word of God and not bringing ourselves into subjection to it that causes ourselves and others to stumble and get off course and stray from the pathway. That which our SOUL lusts after causes us to calculate and fabricate in order to feed or fulfill the lust of the flesh. Paul warned of those who speak from the soul who lie in wait with cunningly devised fables.

2 Timothy 4: 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; 4 And they shall turn away [their] ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

The second king in the land was Og king of Bashan. The name Og is [05747] in the Strong's concordance and means "long necked". This name is derived from [05746] in the Strong's concordance and means round or to gyrate around a central point. That central point is a central doctrine or theme which is the root of the above mentioned cunningly devised fable. It is appealing to the soul or soulish carnal nature of man and is specifically designed to stop us from entering into our rest or inheritance. The central theme is the justification of the fulfillment of the lust of the flesh by the means of cunningly devised fables.

Og was king of Bashan. The name Bashan is [01316] in the Strong's concordance and means "fruitful". Og dwelt it Astaroth. The name Astaroth is [06252] in the Strong's concordance and means "star". Astaroth was one of the false gods of the land. This name is derived from [06251] in the Strong's concordance and means increase or prosperity. Astaroth is the god of prosperity or fruitfulness. Is not the single greatest movement today within the church the prosperity movement that seems to be the "central theme" among much of the body of Christ. This movement is rooted in soulish lust and covetousness. Peter spoke of this in:

2 Peter 2:1 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

The place at which Moses lead the children to defeat the Amorites was Edrei. The name Edrei is [0154] in the Strong's concordance and means "goodly pasture". How do we overcome or defeat the soulish or carnal self man and self life? With the word of God. Specifically by aligning our soul and bringing it under the subjection of the word of God. The word of God is the goodly pasture that we feed upon that we may do all that is written in the law.

Deuteronomy 29: 29 The secret [things belong] unto the LORD our God: but those [things which are] revealed [belong] unto us and to our children for ever, that [we] may do all the words of this law.

Today as in that day the Amorites stand in our way from entering into our rest or inheritance. Now more than ever the WHOLE COUNCIL OF GOD needs to be applied to our lives that we may bring the soul under subjection of the "Spirit-man" or "Christ-man". As we do this the enemy will have no place in us and the Lord will then bring us to Edrei to bring the deathblow to these strongholds that stand in the way of our inheritance in Christ Jesus.

Silence in Heaven and A Call to Action

Jay Atkinson

July 30, 2000

I am listening to the Lord. I may not always hear Him right or do the right thing but I am always trying to incline my ear, listen and bear witness. I heard the prophets speak of a paradigm shift, the re-alignment of ministries coming, the call to prayer, the birthing of an army and visions of the manifestations of the sons of God soon to be revealed.

I heard of promises of preparation and empowerment, of blowing a trumpet and sounding the alarm. The promises included both men and women, young and old, not of big names but of common people being given the mandate of harvest with spiritual power.

And then last week I heard nothing from the Lord. It was sudden and profound. I heard some good teaching and correct interpretations, I heard those that would pretend to speak in His name, but of His voice - silence.

After that time and just as suddenly, spirits of the flesh attacked me. I noticed division in the body raring up against me with accusations, shouting and hatred for God's end-time people. God started showing me areas in my own life that need to be dealt with and put away.

He showed me others in the ministry that would not listen that I must separate from. He sent me encouragement, peace and comfort for the doubt and frustrations that I had been feeling.

And then the Lord spoke - a lot. He spoke of a new day, a threshold of change. He spoke of all of us loving each other in a new way, one that tears down the walls of division and accepting our brothers and sisters by looking at their hearts the way that He does.

We heard from Him of repentance from church leaders and repentance of entire nations for grievous sins. We are close to the wedding feast now, we are to move into this change. The Lord told us that we have been perfected for war.

He is telling us that this is not the war that the others are waging that stain their swords with the blood of our brothers and sisters but of spiritual warfare that will bring down spiritual strongholds.

Can you hear His voice? Are you hearing those things that I am hearing? The realizations of heavenly desires are being fulfilled. Hallelujah.

Expect an onslaught of attacks from those in the church that battle in the flesh. Be aware of the spiritual warfare involved and pray with fervent power. We are now to go through a period of trial and refining, of purging and cleansing and times of trouble. Only those that can pass through this fire will overcome and be part of what this remnant church will surely become, holy and blameless, without spot or wrinkle.

Those that do not hear the voice of the shepherd will think that we are crazy and will come against us. Let them. Let the words of the present generation be allowed complete freedom as a witness against those against the Lord when these things come to pass.

We are to confront the government, denounce the oppression and wickedness in high places and deliver the captives. We are to seek out the poor and fatherless, clothe them, visit them, feed them, house them.

Do not search for Jesus in the wilderness, do not look for Him in the churches, wisdom is crying in the streets and we are about to host the wedding feast. Find Jesus exactly where He said He would be - in brotherly love and inhabiting the praises of His people.

Silk Road Followup

Aimee Hennen

SILK ROAD 2000, JULY 24TH

Dear Intercessors,

Thank you for your faithfulness in prayer for the Silk Road 2000 conference. This has been a historic event, and though the event is over, the process has only just begun.

Two years ago the pastors of Almaty began to meet together to pray for each other, for the city, for Kazakhstan and for Central Asia. At about the same time, 9 young Koreans took a prayer journey along the entire Silk Road. They felt that a convocation of Central Asian Christians should take place in Almaty, in the Central Stadium to bring about unity and blessing for the Silk Road. God brought these two strands together and wove them into the beautiful picture that we have seen at the Silk Road 2000 conference. Many organizations and individuals shared in the planning and outcome of the conference. By far, most of the financial costs were covered by Koreans. One of the young people from Korea who was on the original prayer journey wrote a song about Kazakhstan that reached the top of the Christian charts in Korea. There is a passion and compassion for Kazakhstan and Central Asia in the hearts of the Korean believers.

As we prayed before the conference, we saw that the full purpose and plan of God for this region is like a child about to be born. This conference was only the first birth pang. There is much more prayer and hard labor before we will see the fullness of God's will brought into completion.

On the last night of the stadium event (once again overcast and pleasant - thank you for praying), there was a different feeling than the night before. On Friday we had prayed and repented for the sins of the church and the nation, and it was hard at times to pray through. But on Saturday night, as blessings were pronounced upon the government, the people, and all the needs of Kazakhstan, there was a release of great joy. The pastors who took part in declaring the blessings began to take turns running with 3 flags of Kazakhstan. They ran all around the football field. The music and dancing was so joyful. The 1500 Koreans who had come to pray and to bless stood in the stands and stretched out their hands to all of us gathered there. They sang a song in Korean which we did not understand, but we could see in their eyes the deep love and compassion which God has birthed in their hearts. Even the 300 or so policemen guarding the stadium were smiling and amazed as the Koreans sang to them and held their hands and prayed for them.

As we sang "Gospod, mbi bmetce, mbi odno telo..." (Lord, we are together, we are one body...) there was a bonding in the hearts of the people. Then we sang "Kazakhstan, you will be saved, the light of love will shine upon you, Kazakhstan - here there is only one God, there is only one King - Jesus Christ!" It was hard to stop, and many people stayed afterwards to pray and to fellowship.

Jesus said that in the last days "nations would rise against nations". But in God's great wisdom and grace, He is moving in the opposite attitude through the Body of Christ, and "nations are REACHING nations". That is God's antidote for the hopelessness of the world! We have seen a great beginning, and we are committed to seeing the fruition of our prayers. May God be glorified!

Praise Reports:

1. One of the staff who was in charge of handling the staff donations for the local churches in Kazakhstan had lost a bag with $10,000 in it at the stadium Friday. It was a humbling experience for the staff and they had to learn to be thankful regardless of circumstances, but today the Lord answered our prayers and the lost bag was returned to the staff member!
2. One of the high level local officials accepted the Lord Jesus with tears.
3. The Association of Religious Unions of Kazakhstan, which brought together 150 church leaders of Central Asia for this event, announced on Monday that they will hold this kind of event on a yearly basis.
4. Many of the Central Asian Christians who attended the conference hope that a similar gathering will take place in their own countries in the future. One worker from a particular country announced that a gathering will take place in their nation in the year 2002.

Prayer Needs:

1. Please pray for the youth camp which is now taking place in connection with Silk Road 2000. Please pray that the young people will be impacted by everything that Holy Spirit wants to impart to them. Pray for the Lord to call as many as He pleases into fruitful labor in this harvest field.
2. Teams are going into all the countries of Central Asia to carry on further prayer and other ministry. Pray for smooth visa processing. Please pray for safety, wisdom, and grace upon every step of the way. Pray for God's grace and favor to be poured out on them and on every country they visit.
3. Please pray and bind the attacks of the devil that inevitably follow any such advance of the kingdom of God.
4. Please pray for the remaining staff members as they finish up the rest of the work here in Almaty. Pray for all financial needs to be met.

Thank you for all your prayers. It has indeed been a blessing to be a part of what God is doing in Central Asia. We will continue updating you on praises and prayer needs.

Many blessings,

Silk Road Prophecy

Kathleen Pirl

Following is a prophecy I received while returning home from Almaty, Kazakstan. I have a prayer request to be posted for the Silk Road 2000 conference July 19 -25th in Almaty, Kazakstan. Please cover all aspects of this conference as it is a major prayer thrust into Central Asia to crush the head of the enemy.

Kathleen's Prophecy enroute May 1st:

I Am going to shake Central Asia

I Am going to shake Central Asia

I Am going to shake Central Asia

Until I shake out every soul destined for Me

I Am praying for her

That the rod of Moses, The rod of authority over serpents will execute judgement on my enemies Wicked and deceitful men prosper and grow fat at the expense Of the poor and oppressed

They ride their backs and continue to extort and bully the weak and downtrodden

The rebellious full of witchcraft and idolatry fill the land with violence and blood

But I Am crying out for the slaving of the Silk Road people

I the Great Intercessor am crying out that the darkness and land full of violence and the habitations of dragons be brought the great light of Moses supernatural demonstrations of power and deliverance

I will send fire from heaven against that wicked spirit Jezebel

I will send the fires of holiness and purity

I will raise up my end time warriors to take the land

By my great mercy for Judgement will come

My testimony will be spread to every valley, low place, mountain, and crevice

My Gospel will be completely preached over the whole earth

The end shall come

Not one stone will be left unturned before my return

They will no longer be drunk and filled with excesses But will be filled exceedingly full with my Holy Spirit. And I will heal them and join them into a great army. My glory will fill this land and the Golden Road will be established preparing the way for my return.

Look Up your redemption draws nigh-

I Am able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that you can ask or even imagine

I have made this city Almaty a central hub for spiritual truth that spreads to the surrounding nations

Just as I have changed the government in the natural so the government of this city shall be changed to a heavenly government For I've been searching to and fro over the earth for men and women that would lay down their lives for me And I have found many here and will bring many here to lay at my feet and cry out for the greatest harvest ever seen in Asia

The wheel of my fire and my presence will come

And the glory of the Lord shall cover the earth

I will do all that I have purposed to do because this is not by man's hand but My divine plan

I will finish what I have begun

I will make it complete Without beginning or end

I will bring full circle my design for mankind

I AM the Authorer and Finisher

The Completer and Restorer

The Alpha and Omega!!!

Be blessed in His love,

Kathleen Pirl

Silk Road Report

Religion Today

Central Asia "Pentecost"

An ancient trade route is becoming a highway for the gospel. Thousands of Christians live and minister along Asia's Silk Road, routes once used to carry goods from China to the Mediterranean Sea and the Roman Empire.

More than 18,000 Christians from many points along the Silk Road gathered in Almaty, Kazakhstan, to celebrate their faith in July at the Silk Road 2000 Festival, a five-day event, Norm Nelson of Orange, Calif.-based Life At Its Best radio ministry told Religion Today. Nelson and his wife, Cher, were among the few Westerners to participate in the festival, intended to encourage Christians as they shared stories about what God is doing in the region, he said.

Christians from many countries attended, according to Assist Communications. They came from Chechnya, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Kurdistan, Uzbekistan, Syria, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Turkey, and Ukraine. Others traveled from India, Pakistan, Nepal, and other parts of Asia, the Middle East, and Europe to take part.

The festival "became a kind of Central Asian Pentecost," Nelson said. It was "a supernatural bonding together of diverse national and linguistic peoples, Spirit-filled, energized, and commissioned to witness to the love and Lordship of Jesus Christ."

They gathered in Almaty's outdoor stadium to worship. People sang praise songs, waved Kazak flags, and shouted "Shine Kazakhstan," Assist said. Police and government officials were deeply affected by the display of love for the country. "Their attitude changed astonishingly when they saw we came to give life and honor to the country," Nelson said.

The event included educational seminars, mobile medical clinics, cultural events, and seminars on economic development, Assist said. A high-level government official made a public profession of faith, Nelson said. Organizers told him that the man stated that he had professed faith in Christ and was very excited, Nelson said. "He told them that the whole country needed to hear this message - that they should get it on TV and radio."

Silk Road 2000 was "a watershed event," according to AD 2000 and Beyond's Luis Bush. "It has the potential to launch a powerful evangelistic movement all across Central Asia and into Turkey." Bush was the only Western leader to address the gathering.

Hundreds of Koreans made short-term mission trips to several countries after the festival. "It was a kind of missionary boot camp," Nelson said. They didn't go with a lot of money or resources to give away but tried to form relationships, he said, and many will go back to work as full-time missionaries.

Thousands of Christian "tentmaker missionaries" are at work in central Asia, Nelson said. They hold secular jobs and minister to people through personal relationships. Christian physicians, businessmen, travel agents, and other professionals work and minister quietly, he said.

Korean Christians organized the festival and are sending many workers to the area. Koreans have adopted the region because they have a special ability to learn its various languages, Nelson said. The Korean language belongs to the Turkic family of language, as do many central Asian languages, he said. "In typical Korean fashion, they look at [their linguistic ability] as a mandate from God to evangelize the region," Nelson said.

It is a miracle that the event took place in such a heavily Muslim region, Nelson said. Islam dominates central Asia, and Kazakhstan is nearly 50 percent Muslim. The Kazak government granted official permission for the event only two days before it began, he said. "Humanly speaking, it probably never should have happened, but this was God's event in God's time and it was supposed to happen."

Sin-Consciousness

Doug Fortune

“Christ, will appear a second time, not carrying any burden of sin, NOR to DEAL with SIN, but to bring to FULL SALVATION those who are expecting Him.”(Heb.9:28).

We know from our recent studies on the golden lampstands in Revelation and Zechariah that we are to look for the appearing or the REVEALation of Jesus Christ in His Body, the Church, the ecclesia called-out ones (not necessarily what the religious system calls Church). "when Christ Who IS OUR LIFE appears, then YOU ALSO will APPEAR with Him in the splendor of His glory."(Col.3:4). Now Heb. 9:28 is very clear on an issue that has been largely obscured by modern Christianity, His appearing in us ("Christ IN US, the hope of glory,") is NOT to deal with SIN! That can ONLY mean one thing, sin has ALREADY been dealt with on the CROSS! The Christian religious system (at least the more 'spiritual' ones) have for the most part told us that in order to be humble, we must always be acutely aware of what sinners we are, how far short we fall, that we must feel guilty and STRIVE to conquer the sin in our lives. My friend, this is a deadly form of PRIDE called false humility, it looks and sounds SO spiritual, but I will be bold enough to declare it ANTI(instead-of) CHRIST! I publicly repent for allowing that spirit to operate in my SOUL in times past. There was a time period in recent years when I fasted two or three days every week; I spent countless hours sobbing before God over sin; I could barely take a compliment because I was so aware of how rotten I was; I looked SO broken and humble, I was SO sin-conscious. In retrospect I can see that it was so SOUL (mind, will, emotions) oriented, it felt good to feel so lousy about myself, in reality, my SOUL was filled with the poison of false humility, that religious spirit that LOOKS so spiritual.

Consider the strong words of Col.2:21-23, "Do not handle this, do not taste that, do not even touch them, To do this is to follow human precepts and doctrines. Such practices have indeed the outward appearance that popularly passes for wisdom, in promoting self-imposed rigor of devotion and delight in SELF-HUMILIATION, but they are of NO VALUE in checking the indulgence of the flesh- the lower nature. Instead, they do not honor God, but SERVE ONLY TO INDULGE THE FLESH!" Am I saying that fasting and discipline are no good?, am I advocating a lifestyle of sin?, certainly NOT! "Are we to remain in sin in order that God's grace may multiply and overflow? Certainly NOT! How can we who DIED (past tense!) to sin live in it any longer?, we were BURIED therefore WITH HIM,"(Rom.6:1-2). My point is that all the fasting, discipline, etc. is useless against the sin-nature; the ONLY thing that is effective is REALizing (making it real in my life) that the sin has ALREADY been dealt with on the cross, NOTHING I can do will add to this! If any man be in Christ he is a New Creation, old things are passed away, for me to say that I must continually deal with the sin-nature is anti (instead of) Christ; it profanes the FINISHED work of Christ on the Cross. Sorry to be so blunt here, but I am dealing with a religious Babylonian stronghold deeply entrenched in the Christian religious system, and it must be rooted up and torn down!

As we read in the first sentence, the appearing of Christ in us now is to bring us to FULL SALVATION, this cannot happen if we deny the finished work of His first coming. Consider Heb.10:22"Let us all come forward and draw near with true hearts, having our hearts sprinkled and purified from a GUILTY EVIL conscience,". I used to have a guilty evil conscience, one of my favorite scriptures was in Isaiah chapter six as he cries out "woe is me for I am undone, I am a man of unclean lips and dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips,"; I could dwell on that emotion, that self-abasing subtle pride and never get to the next verse as the seraphim proclaims, "your iniquity and guilt are taken away, and your sin is completely atoned for and forgiven!, whom shall I SEND?," A distinguishing characteristic of the Apostolic Reformation is pulling down the strongholds of false humility and sin consciousness that have held people bound, in order that they may be SENT! The seraphim didn't join in Isaiah's pity party, he proclaimed Isaiah CLEAN and then SENT him!

Hebrews chapter 10 tells us how the Law could never make the people perfect, otherwise the sacrifices would have STOPPED being offered because if “since the worshippers had once for all been cleansed, they would NO LONGER have any guilt or consciousness of sin,”(Heb.10:2). Did you catch that? , if we have once for all been CLEANSED, we will NO LONGER have sin consciousness! If we go up to verse 14, it says “For by a single offering He has FOREVER completely CLEANSED and perfected those who are consecrated and made holy,” We have been CLEANSED! Sin-consciousness is anti-Christ; it is a religious principality that seeks to establish a stronghold in the mind to render you ineffective, it must be cast down and destroyed! I had a very Godly and sincere man whom I love and respect tell me that the most Godly people he knew were the most conscious of their sin, that sounds so spiritual and good, but is simply isn’t true ( I know there was no malicious intent on his part, just an inaccurate understanding).

Once again, am I advocating some kind of sanctified hedonism where one does whatever they want, whenever they want with no active conscience?, certainly NOT!, Gnosticism and true Christianity don’t mix! Quite the contrary, EVERY activity of life must be measured against one thing - Does it manifest Christ?, if not, stay away from it! And IF we should sin (notice I said IF!), repent and turn from it, confess it and MOVE ON in the purpose of God!

I realize that some will have a difficult time accepting this (it doesn’t seem to meet that prideful religious desire in us to do ‘penance’), but sin-consciousness will NEVER take us into the maturity of being sons of God. Matt.6:23 tells us that if our eye, our focus, is EVIL then our whole body will be filled with darkness, if we are focused on sin consciousness we actually EMPOWER the very sin we seek to be free of. Consider what James 1:21-25 is telling us, (1) the Engrafted Word, Christ IN us has the power to bring our SOUL (mind, will, emotions) to FULL salvation (2) if we hear Him but do not allow Him to REVEAL Himself in us and through us (through our obedience), it’s like we walk away from the mirror and forget what LIKENESS we just saw, I have usually heard this preached negatively, like we should always be aware of what sinners we are in the mirror. I don’t believe this is the intention though, as Paul also speaks of the mirror of the Engrafted Word in 2 Cor 3:18, “all of us with unveiled face, continued to behold in the Word of God as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His VERY OWN IMAGE,”. Where are we beholding the glory of the Lord?, in the MIRROR, Christ IN us the hope of His manifest glory!

What do YOU see when you look in the mirror?, do you see the appearing of Christ to bring FULL SALVATION to your soul? Cast down that sin-consciousness that strengthens the stronghold of sin in your life. Accept and REALize the finished work of Christ on the cross, that He may live HIS LIFE through you, to the glory of the Father!

Sin in Gilead

A Double Release

Jo Cotter

Hosea 12:11a: Is there iniquity in Gilead?

Sin in Gilead

Something is wrong in Gilead. The healing Balm is not flowing, and we need to understand why.

For 14 years I sought the Lord concerning this Balm of Gilead. I studied. I prayed. I asked, and always I knew there was more that I was not quite understanding. Then one morning as I cooked breakfast the revelation came. I did not have to labor for it. I was not even doing anything Spiritual at the time. It just came.

Finally I understood that there is indeed a healing Balm of Gilead; that God wants to flow through my broken places; and that I am becoming a Balm the Lord can actually flow through to bring healing to the brokenness of others.

This week the Lord gave me a second revelation concerning the Balm of Gilead. Only this one was not quite as comfortable.

Hosea 12:11 asks, "Is there iniquity in Gilead?" Another translations succinctly states, "There is sin in Gilead." My Word Study Bible shows only two words for this Verse. Those two words are "Iniquity" and "Gilead."

Iniquity comes from a base word that means to exert oneself in vain. It is to come to nothing. It implies trouble, vanity, wickedness, idolatry and unrighteousness. Gilead, we know, is the region where the Gilead tree grows. From that tree comes the healing salve mentioned in the Bible.

Something has happened to Gilead and to her healing medicine. Hosea 6:8 tells us, "Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity (trouble, vanity, wickedness, idolatry and unrighteousness), and is polluted (fraudulent and crooked) with blood."

What in the world has happened here? What caused Gilead to go from being the place where healing balm was produced, to the description above? How did it become a defiled city, filled with iniquity, unrighteousness, vanity and idolatry? More importantly, how do I, and how do others, sometimes go from being a vessel through which healing flows, to one whose efforts come to naught? Why is it that we sometimes exert ourselves in vain, especially after we have known incredible Spiritual success?

God sometimes moves through us in ways we could not have imagined. People are touched. Lives are changed. Ministry grows. Then, seemingly out of nowhere, the power goes off. The waterwheel stops turning. What was previously a gushing stream of healing is now little more than a drip; it can no longer even be considered a trickle! What happened we wonder?

Hosea 12:11 gives a very simple answer. There is sin in Gilead, and where there is sin, healing cannot flow.

When you and I think of sin, we usually describe some outward action. That's unfortunate. If we're not committing adultery, or stealing from our boss, or robbing banks, we may not see ourselves as being in sin. But God looks at the inward man. He measures the heart, and His assessment may be quite different from ours.

God had to confront me this past week. He had to show me that I was in sin, NOT because of anything I was doing on the outside. My sin was because of the ground that existed on the inside.

I have wrestled with rejection since I was a very little girl. I assumed that I was not loved because I was unlovable. I saw myself as inferior and of little worth. Other people around me were loved. Other people around me were valuable. Therefore, the problem obviously had to be with me. I learned to internalize my pain. I also learned not to like myself very much.

God considers that sin. It is an affront to Him; it is an offense. He has been willing to overlook that sin in me for decades, but He is not willing to put up with it any longer.

God considers my feelings of rejection and worthlessness as sin. That almost seems unfair. I wasn't the one who rejected me my whole life. I wasn't the one who took away my sense of value. Nevertheless, God considers it sin, because I have rejected what He has said, and have accepted the lies of the enemy as truth, instead.

Each one of us has ground that needs to be overturned. Each of us has attitudes and judgments we have built up over the years as a result of the circumstances of our past. God understands that we did what we had to do to survive, and He has allowed it for a season. However, we are now moving into a season where God wants His vessels clean on the inside, so that we can do the work that lies ahead. Grace has been extended to us for a very long time, but the work of God must now be completed in our midst.

"Break up your fallow ground," we are instructed in Hosea 10:12. Fallow ground is freshly-plowed ground.

Have you ever had God plow the ground of your heart? It hurts. Most people withdraw from the Lord rather than endure that pain.

Hosea 10:12 instructs us to go even further. God wants to go into that painful, freshly-plowed ground and break up every block, big and small, until the ground in our heart is as fine as powder.

Why? Because every area in me and in you that has not been completely transformed by the Lord is an area that God cannot work through.

In times past God allowed us to work with partial truth. He used what we knew, and moved through us in those areas to bring healing to others. But that needs to change. Each area in me that remains unconverted is territory for Satan. It is ground in me from which the enemy launches attacks against me. It is also ground that I will pass on to others, and it is tainted, polluted, fraudulent, crooked ground.

God can't have that. He can't have His representatives giving tainted food or partial truths. So He deals with us. He causes us to become unfruitful. He allows our ministering to come to naught. He does this so that He can deal with the corruption that is in our midst. "It is time to seek the Lord," Hosea 10:12 continues, "till He come and rain righteousness in you."

The Balm of Gilead will only flow freely when the sin in Gilead has been purged. Since that is the case, God has my permission to complete the work He began in me - no matter how painful; no matter how deep it must go - that healing may once again flow to me and through me.

A Year of Double Release

The following is a "double word." It is to those who went into bondage in the mid- to late-1980s; AND it is a word to those who did not.

(1) To those of us who went into captivity: I believe the Lord is saying that the year 2000 is our "day of release." The Lord has not spoken it once, not twice, but three times and more.

The Lord had to do a work in us so that He would one day be able to do a work through us. I believe that work is now coming to a close.

Many of us were carried away captive by disease, poverty and rejection. Some have even lost ministries or gone to prison.

Let me tell you from experience; captivity is not fun. It is not what I had in mind when I said "Yes" to the Lord more than 20 years ago. But it is doing its job. The Lord is having His way, and little by little, He is using my failures, hurts and struggles to minister to others.

There is one good thing that can result from being taken captive and having no way out unless the Lord moves on your behalf. It makes you pretty willing to hear whatever God has to say.

I'm stiff-necked and rebellious?

I'm resisting the work You're trying to do in me?

There are impediments in me; blockages that make it impossible for You to work in me and through me to the extent You desire?

My Christianity needs to be turned upside-down?

When you're being held captive with no way out, sooner or later (hopefully) the response becomes, "OK, God. Do whatever it is You want to do."

God has been dealing with us, sometimes severely. We have had to come face to face with our sin. We've HAD to hear whatever God had to say so that we might one day find our way out of our pit. It's amazing how open to the Lord we can become when there are no other choices.

(2) God also desires to bring release to those who were NOT taken captive in the past, but who are now in danger of Ezekiel 24's Boiling Pot. It is not God's desire to see any falter, and so He warns us in advance that some might be spared.

This year many who were spared the captivity of the 1980's will have their hearts inspected. They too will need to ask themselves the same questions we faced. They will go in one of two directions.

(1) 1 Corinthians 10:11 tells us, "Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." Every story in the Bible, every mistake, every sin, is reported for my example, for my benefit. So my life too is poured out for the benefit of others.

Verse 12 warns, "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." In the common vernacular 1 Corinthians 10:12 can be translated, "There but for the Grace of God go I."

When I see another man who has fallen; when I see those who were in ministry being removed, or shamed, or publicly exposed, the worst thing I could think is I would never do that! I could. 1 Corinthians 10:12 tells me so.

Those who were spared captivity were meant to learn from our example, that they too might be spared.

(2) Unfortunately, there is a second response we sometimes have when we observe the terrible presses some lives go through. That response is found in Ezekiel 24. Written nearly 10 years after most of Israel had been taken captive, it is directed toward a small group that had been spared captivity.

Verse 4 reads, "Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, [the choice pieces) the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones." Footnotes in the NIV explain exactly what was going on. "Choice pieces refers to the people of Jerusalem who thought they were spared the exile in 597 because of their goodness."

Those who had been spared captivity could have learned from the example of their brothers. Instead, they saw themselves as holier, better, more Godly, in the right. They assumed those who had gone into bondage were sinners, while they, who had not, were not.

Again from the NIV: "The residents of Jerusalem who were not exiled in 597 BC felt smugly secure, thinking that nothing worse would befall them. THOSE LEFT BEHIND BOASTED THAT THEY WERE THE "MEAT," THE CHOICE PORTIONS- the inference being that the exiles in Babylon were the discarded bones."

In Verse 6 the Lord declares, "Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it."

Look what happens when we begin to see ourselves as holier, better, in the right. The scum stays in the midst of it. "Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great. Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed." (Verses 9-11.)

Some Christian people this very day are in jeopardy of being thrown into the boiling pot because their filth and scum have not been removed. They have not been purified even though they have witnessed what happened to those of us taken captive more than a decade ago.

This year God is going to move on some (and I believe it is going to happen during the first seven months). Many who do not even know they are in danger are going to find themselves in that boiling pot where they will not be allowed out until all "the filthiness is melted, and all the scum is consumed."

The fire is being readied. The boiling pot is about to be filled. Yet, there is still time to be spared.

This is not meant to be a message of fear or of condemnation, but one that would encourage all of us to allow the Lord to examine us, and remove the dross that needs to be removed.

"Lord, I don't want to be deceived. If you see any filth and scum in me; any impurities that need to be brought to the surface, then You have my permission to penetrate my heart and show me.

I may not be able to save myself from the boiling pot, Lord, but YOU ARE ABLE. So work on me now, Lord; today; this very moment, and do in me the work that needs to be done."

We serve a very merciful God, and it is His Mercy that He wishes to dispense to all.

Suddenly in Seattle

Chad Taylor

"And suddenly there came a sound from Heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting..." (Acts 2:2).

The lightning of My presence is upon you Seattle. The thunder of My voice is about to be heard in you, the veil rent in two. The ground will shake, the graves will open and you children will be set free. I am about to shake the prison houses where My people are hidden and their shackles shall come loose. They will be in their right mind. From legion to liberty says the Lord. From legion to liberty.

I will break up the fountains of the deep, I will dig the old wells. I will break up the fallow ground. I will now remember the prophecies that have been spoken a generation before you. They have come as a memorial before Me. As an incense. I will now stir the ancient flames, the revival fires that once burned in your midst. Suddenly Seattle I will come upon you. I will not allow the minds of men to dictate and control, NO. I will suddenly come upon you Seattle. The word I say to you is the word of Elisha,

"Hear the word of the Lord; Thus says the Lord, tomorrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of [Seattle]." (2nd Kings 7:1).

The famine of My presence is over. The dearth and the hunger has come to an end. I will now give back what the locust have devoured. Like a flood I will suddenly be upon you. I will visit your widows and orphans in their distress. Your children shall be blessed. A river of revival shall flood your streets. The sounds of dancing and rejoicing will be heard from your hi-ways and bi-ways. I will loose the shackles from your children's feet. The smoke of fatted calves will be seen across the land as the heart of the prodigal comes home.

Suddenly Seattle will the fire of reformation burn and burn. The baskets that have hidden your faith shall be consumed. Nations from afar will see the flames of revival burning in you. I will consume the sacrifice from the altar. I will lap up the wood, hay, and stubble. Only pure gold will remain. I will visit your streets with healing. Your city with the latter rain. As in the days of Peter will it be seen in you, "Insomuch that they brought the forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them..." (Acts 5:15).

The lame will walk, the blind will see. The spirit of abortion will be abolished in your borders Seattle. No longer will the destinies and purposes of your children be aborted. But they shall come to fruition and maturation in this hours says the Lord. The reaper shall overtake the sower. Suddenly Seattle will these things come to pass. An evangelistic army will rise from your midst. An army of prophetic evangelists shall march into the land. Signs and wonders will herald their coming. Suddenly Seattle you will be filled with the glory of the Lord. Suddenly Seattle the hand of God will fall upon you. Gird up the loins of your mind, a day of visitation is upon you says The Lord. A day of visitation is upon you.

LAMENTATIONS 2:19

South Lebanon

Reuven Doron

The Embrace Israel prayer focus is prepared regularly by Pastor Reuven Doron, director of Embrace Israel Ministries. This is provided free of charge to a select group of intercessors around the world.

"On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed watchmen; all day and all night they will never keep silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest for yourselves; and give Him no rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth." [Isaiah 62:6-7 NAS]

Prayer Focus From Jerusalem

5-30-00

Reuven Doron

Most of you who read and pray according to our materials have seen the media coverage of the recent Israeli withdrawal out of south Lebanon and have heard the various commentaries. Following is my short commentary on these momentous events for the purpose of prayer and also in order to give you a more balanced report.

Contrary to the media's popular version, portraying the Israeli withdrawal as an undisciplined and confused military fiasco, the facts on the ground were different. More than one thousand troops with their equipment, ammunition, vehicles, and dozens of dismantled bases were moved back to Israeli territory within one night and under fierce enemy fire, without engaging in battle or suffering even one casualty. From the top brass' point of view, it was a carefully and successfully executed operation, and the only fuss was on the political level.

The operation indeed was hurried, and the final stages of the withdrawal were sped up for good reasons, reasons which escape shallow observation. The not too recognized facts are that as the Israeli forces gradually began the planned withdrawal, as announced and projected by Prime Minister Barak, their positions were supposed to be taken over by the SLA (South Lebanese Army) friendly units.

These units of south Lebanese citizens originally formed a local resistance movement attempting to quell the Islamic pressure on their region. After Israel invaded the area, these units were organized, trained, and equipped by the Israel Defense Forces for over twenty years now, serving as an extension of the Israeli military in our battle against Islamic terror organizations who settled in and operated from south Lebanon.

However, the Moslem and Druze members of the SLA had apparently cut a last minute deal with the Hizbullah terror militia, opting to surrender and be spared rather than face their wrath. That left only the Christian members of the SLA who were not numerous or strong enough to hold their positions alone against the Islamic encroachment into South Lebanon.

Knowing that they would most likely be slaughtered if captured, these mostly nominal Christian Lebanese counted on Israel to give them sanctuary and fled across the border with their families. They were indeed accepted, and about 6500 of them are presently being accommodated in resort villages by the Sea of Galilee and the Mediterranean coast. Israel has guaranteed their safety, offered them work permits, citizenship if desired and appropriate, and assistance toward immigrating to other countries.

Because of the sudden collapse of the SLA which left no friendly force to take over the Israeli positions and bunkers in the security zone, there was no reason for the Israeli units to linger in the area any longer. The withdrawal's final stage, therefore, was carried out so fast that the United Nations forces which were supposed to take over Israeli and SLA positions, were not ready to move in and remained "symbolic," as they often are in the region.

The terror Hizbullah units, however, flooding into the vacant territory without anyone to check their movements, are now virtually in control of South Lebanon. Some units of the Lebanese regular army are only now making slow moves toward the south, but their presence is kept very low key and is mostly viewed as a policing mission against rioting and looting rather than a military/political statement.

Not having the territorial depth of south Lebanon's security zone anymore, and having the Israeli troops returned to the international borders, armed Islamic guerrillas from various terror groups are now stationed within shouting distance from Israeli civilian homes, kindergartens, and schools in our north Galilean communities. And though both the Syrian and Lebanese governments know that Israel will respond with decisive force in any event of border clashing or terror acts emerging from their territories, a single madman acting on his own could spark the entire front.

PRAY

1- Pray with us that the Hizbullah and Syrians will not take revenge on the remaining Christian population of South Lebanon. Most of those left behind were not part of the SLA, yet knowing fanatical Islam and Middle Eastern attitudes, these innocent civilians could easily be accused of collaboration with Israel, turned into "traitors," and be slaughtered.

2- Pray with us also that those who stood with Israel for more than 20 years now, the SLA members and their families who are now refugees in Israel, will find comfort for their hearts and be allowed to return to their homes and their land. An evangelistic/humanitarian campaign by local believer is presently under way, reaching toward these thousands of despondent souls.

3- Pray with us for our northern border to remain calm and secure. The rules of the game changed overnight, as did the risks. President Asad of Syria has yet to determine his response, not being sure how these developments influence his stand at the negotiation table. Also, knowing that Israel will hold him responsible for any military or terror activity from the Arab side, and will respond with ferocity, both Syria and Lebanon now have a renewed interest to maintain calm, at least for a while.

Interestingly, our recent Passover Prayer Tour to Israel this last April which consisted of 55 German intercessors, received as their "prayer assignment" from the Lord the impending Israeli withdrawal from Lebanon. The group traveled up north to Metulla, our northern border town which functions as the gate to Lebanon, and spent a long time praying and worshipping at the "Good Fence," our famous border crossing.

They even received military clearance and drove up to Mount Dov on the slopes of the Hermon summit, a highly militarized zone, and there interceded for God's hand to calm the area and still the demonized spirits agitating the Islamic mobs. I believe that the success of the operation and the relative calm we have enjoyed so far are directly related to the prayers of the saints. We offer thanksgiving and praise to God for the sparing of lives during these last days of much danger.

Keep up the work of intercession, dear friend, and may God fill your cup with fresh anointing, vision, and joy today.

Spiritual Necromancy

Doug Fortune

“We know that our old renewed self WAS nailed to the cross with Him in order that the body of sin might be made ineffective and inactive for evil, that we might no longer be the slaves of sin. We WERE buried therefore WITH Him by the baptism INTO DEATH, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, so we too might habitually live and behave in newness of life.”(Rom.6:6&4). Our old self WAS (past tense) nailed to the cross with Him; all our sins, hurts and wounds, EVERYTHING! Verse 6 in the King James says this happened “...that the BODY OF SIN might be DESTROYED, that henceforth we should not SERVE sin.” Earlier in the book of Romans we are told that ‘...all have sinned...’, therefore we all have a ‘body of sin’. Is this saying that our physical body is intrinsically sinful and God destroys it?... no, the word for body there means ‘as a sound whole’; in other words the idea of a body of water, a body of thought, or a physical body also. I believe that this BODY OF SIN includes not only our own sin nature and sin committed, but also sin committed AGAINST US. How many of us carry the wounds and scars of sins committed against us and emotionally we are enslaved, serving those sins... there are countless multitudes, you yourself may be one. Is there provision only for the ‘body of sin’ that WE have perpetrated?... is there no provision for the victim of the sin of others? Certainly there is as much provision for the victim as the perpetrator, as we have all been marred by sin on one end or the other.

The provision is this: we were nailed to the cross WITH Him, and “...when a man dies, he is freed, loosed, delivered from the power of sin among men.”(Rom 6:7). YES, that applies just as much to our sins committed as to the sin we were victimized by!... the body of sin IS DESTROYED! We no longer need be enslaved by sin! Now your mind, will and emotions may well be telling you different , but remember that the woman / soul was deceived.... if we live according to our emotions we will be subject to great deception, we must live according to the TRUTH of the WORD! We must SEE not only our own sin, but the victimizing consequence of the sin of others that plagues us laid upon Jesus Christ on the cross AND see ourselves crucified WITH Him, dead to the power of sin. My friend, in Christ you ARE ALREADY crucified, dead and buried... yes, the whole body of sin is DESTROYED! When you SEE this truth you will be freed from the enslaving power of being victimized by the sin of others against you; that thing is crucified, dead and buried, and you are resurrected with a NEW life.

Having established this TRUTH of the FULL provision of the Cross of Jesus Christ, I see a well-intentioned but inaccurate alternative offered in modern Christianity. In an attempt to help us deal with the pain of being victimized, there are those who would take us on a spiritual journey of sorts back to the origin of our pain, sometimes back to our childhood, to bring healing to the wound. My friend, do not try to heal that which the Father says is crucified, dead and buried! “If any man be IN Christ, he is a NEW creation, OLD things are PASSED AWAY, behold ALL things are become NEW”. Do not try to communicate with, resurrect and heal that which God declares DEAD... this is equivalent to spiritual necromancy (communicating with the dead). Once again, your emotions may be telling you a very different story than this, but we cannot allow soulish emotions to dictate our position in life... let the woman / soul be silent in the assembly, let her not usurp authority over the man / spirit. (Remember, IN Christ there is neither male nor female, so my reference here has NOTHING to do with gender!)

As for the sin that WE are responsible for perpetrating, we must remember that “...If we confess our sin, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sin and to cleanse us from ALL unrighteousness...” (I John1:9) and “...that God was IN Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, NOT imputing their trespasses unto them...”(II Cor.5:19). Not only our sins, but our sin-nature HAS BEEN dealt with on the cross... yes, we MUST appropriate this through our obedience (without obedience we only fool ourselves), but it is already a reality IN Christ, and WE ARE in Christ! How many of us think and speak of ourselves and others in the Body of Christ in terms of the Old Adam nature. “Well, I’m just that way... after all, I’m only human. My dad was that way, his dad was that way... nobody is perfect...”. This is spiritual necromancy; we must quit communicating with that which God says is dead, be it concerning ourselves or with others in the Body of Christ. Once again, if we do sin we must claim responsibility for it (‘the devil made me do it’ just doesn’t cut it!), turn from it in repentance and make restitution if necessary, and then move forward in the purpose and plan of God. We cannot let our sin or the sin against us dictate our identity and destiny. Sin consciousness is equivalent to spiritual necromancy and an affront to the blood of Christ which made full provision for us.

Let us be as Paul as he says, “... but one thing I do - it is my one aspiration; forgetting what lies BEHIND and straining FORWARD to what lies ahead, I press on toward the GOAL...”(Phil3:13) And what is his goal?... is it identifying with that which God says is dead?... NO, it is “...that if possible I may attain to the spiritual and moral resurrection that lifts me OUT from among the DEAD even while IN THE BODY.”(Phil.3:11). We wouldn’t have a seance or consult a spiritual medium to call up the dead, let’s not do it with the Old Nature of sin either. Yes, the whole body of sin is DESTROYED!

Something to Consider

Nancy Shupe

Dear Bill, I wrote the bulk of this on 9-25. I had really wanted to put down on paper the things that the Lord had been teaching me, and I had told Him so many times. I knew that it would take a while to write it out and I didn't know where to begin. When I began my time with Him that morning I had no idea that this was coming. He engaged me with the first thought and had my ear and pen for hours.

After the initial writing I wrote an introduction to it. After writing both parts I was bombarded by confirmations. I visited an Assembly of God Church on Sunday and heard it preached from the pulpit there. I attended a Barbara Richmond conference during the 1st week of October and heard it there. I received the first edition of a ministries newsletter in the mail and there it was again! I added Barbara Richmond's quotes after attending her conference. I submit it to you, not necessarily as a submission for your list, but to you personally. As the facilitator, you read words from all over the globe. When I read your posted words it seems that the truth of this message is being trumpeted loud and clear. Yet, I know that many minds remained veiled to the reality of it. I just wanted you to be aware of it. As you read the words submitted to you, please ask the Lord to confirm it to you if it is His truth. I'm sorry it's so long, but there's still so much more that I could say...

Thank you for your incredible service and encouragement to the Body! One of the Parts, Nancy Shupe

In the last several years, the Lord has been speaking to many different people, using many of the same themes. We have heard certain phrases repeatedly, such as: Returning to the ancient paths...
Entering the promised land...
Restoring the things that have been made waste places...
Throwing down the stones of man made religion...
Restoring the foundation...
Repairing the breach...
Purifying the Bride...
Removing the doctrines of men and demons...
God is shaking to remove all that is not of Him...
Abandoning our plans and purposes to receive the Lord's...
God is restoring our inheritance...
Yielding to God's order...
Coming out of Babylon...
God is sifting the church...
He is separating the wheat from the chaff...
Come out of her and be separate...
We are in a season of transition...
The authority of God's Word is being restored...
We need to return to sound biblical principles from the Word of God...
God is rebuilding the temple...
The Lord is coming back for a pure Bride...
The Lord is restoring unity to the body...

Here are two words by well known men that go into greater length about a coming change: "I believe that God is going to allow us to see and to even partake in this restoration -- this is a major statement and I want you to pay attention closely --to the restoration of the New Testament Standard... I believe that God is going to renovate the entire understanding of what Christianity is in the nations of the Earth. I believe that the way that 99% of us across the world as believers understand Christianity, in 20 years there will be a totally different understanding of what Christianity is from what it is right now. I believe the understanding of it, the standard of life and the expression of Christianity as we know it, I believe God is going to restore it and change it in the Earth in this generation." (Overview of Corporate Long Term Vision, Mike Bickle, 1/5/86, cassette tape.)

This is not a time to sleep. This is not a time to be numb or to numb our senses with the wine of Babylon or any other kind of wine if you want to know the truth about it. Ephesians 5:14-16. You say, "Well, what about wine drinking? There's nothing in the bible about drinking wine as a sin, it's only drunkenness that is a sin."

Well, be that as it may, this is the time for soberness. We are right on the heels of doom or we are on the threshold of the greatest move of God in all of the history of the world combined. So don't you think it's good if we give up the wine of Babylon and all else that comes from Babylon and come out from among her because the good that are in her will perish with the bad. All the bad that are in her. So you don't want to be the good mixing with the bad. It's an unholy mixture. God has come to give something to his people in an unprecedented way. He will visit his people without mixture, with his Spirit without measure. (Paul Cain)

We hear over and over about the need for intimacy so we can know and hear God's voice. Also, that when we hear Him speak, we need to surrender to Him in obedience, knowing His thoughts and ways are higher than ours.

We all interpret the things of the Lord through the veil of our own understanding. Because of the different things we have been taught and have received as truth, we all view each word received, heard, or read, in our own unique way. At times we miss the bigger picture that the Lord is trying to communicate, because our understanding of the truth has been tainted.

The following message will be a hard one to receive for many, because of that veiled understanding. It was shocking to me when the Lord first revealed it to me, two and a half years ago, and He continues to prune me with it regularly as He gives me deeper revelation and calls me to a greater level of obedience. I, in no way, am trying to imply that I have a full revelation either. The Lord has restored this understanding to thousands and continues to do so daily, so I don't feel that I'm on the "cutting edge" of this revelation. I can't say that I took hold of it right away in it's entirety either, because there were so many different layers or "veils" that had to be removed. I am so thankful for the Lord's patience and tender mercy towards all of us. I am most thankful for the blood of Messiah, which has atoned for my sins, whether hidden faults or willful disobedience.

We all know that now, at the end of the age, He is calling the people of Israel back to Himself. The church has become a stumbling block to their salvation in many ways. We have absorbed many pagan influences and practices into our religion or "worship" of God. We claim that He is the "Holy One of Israel" but very little in our religious practices and life styles support that confession. If we would truly embrace the Father's heart and eternal plans for mankind, I believe that the scales would be removed from their eyes and they would see that we truly are worshiping "their" God.

I am in no way endorsing "Jewish" customs or "Oral Torah" in what I am trying to communicate. Just as in "Christianity", many of these things are quite harmless and can be used to "enhance" our worship of God. Nevertheless, they are man's thoughts - not God's. In this message I am referring only to the instructions in God's Word - both the Old and New Testaments.

Nor am I implying that we can be justified by observing the law. The scriptures are quite clear about this point. Gal. 2:15 "We who are Jews by birth and not 'Gentile sinners' know that a man is not justified by observing the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by observing the law, because by observing the law no one will be justified.

Having said all that... Last week, while spending time with the Lord, a sentence popped into my head. I thought, "Hey, I like that! I'm going to write it down." Hours later, I finally put down my pen...

God's Word is the goodness of God wrapped around his people. Like a blanket, a garment, a covering - protection from the elements. It is loose fitting, free-flowing and comfortable. It is perfectly designed and beautiful in the eyes of it's Creator. It's purpose is to protect - not bind like a straight jacket. It is God's desire that we throw off our garments sullied by the world and be clothed in His righteousness. Yeshua is the righteousness of God living in us, the Living Torah, written on our hearts. He is not a harsh taskmaster. His yoke is easy and his burdens light, allowing us to move freely with Him. In Him we live and move and have our being. To deny His garment, which He designed, robs us of the blessings He desires to pour out on those who are obedient to His word. He is crying out - "Clothe yourselves with My garment (righteousness)! Take hold of My garment (security)! Wrap yourselves in the folds of My garment (hidden in Christ {protection})! Cling to what is good. Cling to me! God designed His ordinances to be lasting ordinances for all generations. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. In Him is no shadow of turning. He did not change course midstream. He has always been a free-flowing fountain and river of life. It has always flowed from His throne to the heart of man, offering all who will, to come and drink of it and receive life.

Jesus died to save us from the curse of the law. He came to fulfill the Torah. He did not come to destroy it, He came to write it on our hearts so it would become a delight to do His will. He came to conform us to His image by the renewing of our minds - which were in opposition to His. He does it with His Word. His Torah, His "Instructions in Righteousness."

In her book "Coming Home," Barbara Richmond writes about the Torah, "It was never conceived in the heart of God as oppressive though this is how some modern theologies would portray it. It is the sacred Word of God, given from a God of love to people whom He had miraculously delivered, that they might learn to live in fellowship with Him, enjoying His blessings. For us today, the Torah should be a source of inspiration, teaching, motivation and revelation. Of the 613 commandments contained in the Torah, we today are still able to embrace and obey approximately 170 of them. Each of these 170 is reflected in the New Testament. When Yeshua was asked what was the greatest commandment, He did not invent something new. He quoted from the Torah, which He lived by and revered. He was the living Torah!"

What changes would it to require of us as "Christian" believers to embrace all of His commandments? We could begin by honoring His Sabbath on the day and in the way that He has commanded us in His word. We could honor His Holy Days - His feasts - the Feasts of the Lord. (Deut. 23:2-4) "These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies. There are six days when you may work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, a day of sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to the LORD. These are the LORD's appointed feasts, the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times:"

When He asks us to obey His commands is He requiring too much? Aren't we to crucify the flesh with it's desires, which are contrary to the ways of God? He asks us to lay our lives, ways, and thoughts down on the altar and surrender to His way. Is what He asks too difficult? At this suggestion some people say, "I don't have to do those things! I am free from the law!" And this is true. They are not obeying His commandments, His "Instructions in Righteousness." But the sad truth is that, while they are shaking their fists in defiance, the robes of Babylon are flapping in agreement with their hearts. Waving like a flag of "independence" and "freedom," while the chains of bondage and captivity to the Greco-Roman mind set are jingling and clanking in a house "haunted" with the mind sets of mere men who did not rightly divide God's Word. They state with their mouths, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord", but their hearts are far from Him. They are living in disobedience to His Word. Their houses have been built on the sands of mans' incorrect interpretations of God's Word.

There are many people who have rejected His design out of ignorance, not hardness of heart. We have become ensnared by the teachings of men and have viewed His truth through the veil of that misunderstanding. His foundation was established before He created the heavens and the earth. He laid out the blueprint for His design in His inspired, written Word. He then reiterated it when he came as a Carpenter to shore it up, where it had become corrupted at the hands of men. There is no other foundation which can be laid except for that which is Christ Jesus. He is the Chief Cornerstone, laid on the foundation of the Torah and the Prophets. We are called to be living stones with which He can complete His temple, but I believe we have not fully embraced His structure and design. We are trying to build on His foundation without understanding all of the materials that are required. We have no unity because we have an incomplete understanding of the Master Builder's blueprints. We cannot figure out how the house is to be rightly joined together, because we each hold fast to an incomplete understanding of His Word. We are not embracing the full revelation of the truth that He has laid out for us. We must embrace His whole design. We cling to a piece of the structure that He has revealed to us, but we are not able to build with it because we have not fully understood His foundation.

Though His "Instructions in Righteousness" were originally given to Israel, He has always made provision to the nations of the world to come to Him through the same means. To the foreigner who joined Himself to Israel on God's terms, He gave an inheritance equal to that of His own children. Jesus reiterated that when He came. He said that He came to seek and save the lost sheep of Israel first, but that whosoever will, may come. Eph. 2:11-22 "Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves "the circumcision" (that done in the body by the hands of men) — remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ.

For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, by abolishing in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new man out of the two, thus making peace, and in this one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit." Peter wrote to believers, both Jewish and Gentile, "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy." (1 Peter 2:9-10)

He was reiterating God's promise to Israel. "Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites." (Exod. 19:5-6) We have been grafted into Israel (Romans 11), the Master Builder's grand design. In His Torah He described what His called out people, His "ecclesia," would look like. How they would live and move and have their being. The Greek word that is translated "church" in the New Testament has the same meaning as the Hebrew word used to describe Israel. A separate word for a separate identity called "The Church" has never existed. We were always to exist as "one new man" grafted into believing Israel.

Like Ruth, the gentile, we are to come out from among the nations. We are to embrace the God of Israel, their Messiah, and become one with His people (believing Israel). It is their Kinsman Redeemer who has purchased us and taken us unto Himself to become one with His Bride, Israel. He only has one bride and she will embrace and reflect the fact that He is a Hebrew. Barbara Richmond tells of a time when her earthly father revealed his true identity to her birth mother. Barbara said the Holy Spirit revealed to her that what He is doing now with the church parallels that experience. Yeshua is saying to His bride, "I'm Jewish. Do you still want to marry Me?"

If God has adopted us as His children, doesn't it make sense that He would raise us as one of His own? If you adopted children, wouldn't you assimilate them into your family? Would you have two different sets of rules and expectations?

He says if we love Him we will obey His commandments. It is the Father's will that we walk in obedience to His Word. This is not what saves us. He knows that we will not be able to do it perfectly, and certainly not in our own strength.

He has given us his instructions, the Father's will (Torah). He has shown us what those instructions would look like when lived out perfectly in the flesh (Jesus). He has sent us a teacher (the Holy Spirit), to write them on our hearts and help us to walk them out. Because the Torah points out our inability to walk in complete obedience, and the penalty of sin is death, He sent Jesus to be an atonement for our sin. He is also our High Priest and our Advocate. He represents us before the Father on those occasions when we do transgress His commands.

It is my hope that none of us who call ourselves His disciples would reject any part of His plan for man's redemption as not worthy of our acceptance or obedience. He has said, "This is My way, walk in it. May we walk worthy of His calling to be the ecclesia - "the called out ones". Called out to be a holy and separate people. Called out from among the nations of the world to show forth His glory, His unchanging nature, that all people might be drawn to His light. A holy nation, a kingdom of priests unto the Holy One of Israel, the Lion of Judah. Joined to Israel to become not only His unified body, the "One New Man," but also the pure and spotless "Bride" of Messiah.

We need to come before the Holy One of Israel and lay all that we have come to embrace as "truth" at His feet. Then we can lift our empty and open hands to Him, like a little child, and ask Him to strip us of the garments of Babylon*, including the Greco-Roman headdress*.

A word of warning: This stripping may cause death to many of the things that we have held dear. You cannot go through this stripping if you are not willing to die. You may come face to face with the fact that you have worshiped a Holy God in unclean ways. If you are sincere in your desire to worship Him in the beauty of holiness and truth, there are many resources available to research the pagan origins of what we embrace as expressions of our "Christian " faith. If you allow Him to strip you in earnest, it may leave you in a state of shock and brokenness. In this state of nakedness He is then free to clothe you with His truth, so you can embrace His grand design.

*These refer to the pagan influences and changing of the times and seasons that infiltrated the church during the time of Constantine. The celebration of Christmas, Easter, and Sunday as the Sabbath, all came about during that time. It stems from the root of "Replacement Theology" which states that Israel failed, so God transferred His plans to "the Church."

What would the Churches' reaction be if the "hidden and prepared" apostles that so many people have referred to, ended up being the "Torah Observant" Rabbis in Israel? They have embraced Yeshua as the Messiah but they understand God has never changed His commands and ordinances. Jesus fulfilled and satisfied all of the commands pertaining to the blood sacrifices (which amount to about 25% of the Torah commands) but the others remain intact.

Paul wrote to Timothy, "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Tim. 3:16-17) The only scriptures they had at that time were the Old Testament scriptures. Contrary to what other men have taught, Paul, the apostles, and the first century believers were all Torah observant and continued to be so for the remainder of their lives.

Sound the Alarm

Gloria Shepherd

This is something the Lord has so put on my heart today, to sound this alarm, the urgency in my spirit had me sending forth these messages to pray if you have the burden for this.. Our prayer that will form this ring of fire about the USA will deter all that is trying to form against us..

Gloria Shepherd

ps.. I never send these things forth unless . . . .

SOUND THE ALARM

Today the Lord said to me, sound the alarm to all the prayer warriors to form a wall of fire around the USA forming this wall of prayer of fire to protect it.. I believe this is significant for what is forming inside our USA, right now, and what is coming from the outside to hurt us.

I was informed tonight that there were fires raging inside in the USA right now.. I didn't even know this, I think it is significant to what has been spoken in the spirit to so many of us..

He showed me that as this wall of fire is being formed, with prayers from each warrior with this burden, and as each one sends this forth to their own lists, that the wall of fire will grow higher and thicker with the prayers.. All the enemies weapons that were on the horizon to hurt this country will be thwarted by this wall. It is going a wall to stand in the gap between the storm and the people, we stand in the gap like the priests did when they stood and the waters separated for the children of Israel to pass without danger to them. We are the priests, called to this call. We are the ones who the Lord is speaking to this day..

This wall of prayer and fire will break the enemies weapons that have been posed to form against this USA of ours. We are the ones called to stand in the gap for our country. This coming storm that I saw on the horizon this morning coming is coming from outside the USA, a country I believe that is posing to attack, as well as from the inside. It was both an inside and outside attack...

We are the priests that stand in the gap, just as in the time the crossing of the red sea, we are the warriors called to form this thick wall of prayer and fire around this country.. Our prayers, the Lord said to me, will stop what is coming right now in the coming days from being formed and implemented.. Our prayers before will stop it. This is what the Lord is speaking to me today, if we will pray now, all the weapons the enemy has to be formed against us will be destroyed before hand.

God bless you..

Sound the Alarm Blow the Trumpet

David Howe.

Sound the alarm - Blow the trumpet in Zion - Call unto the people to prepare a habitation - To be Holy unto the Lord - For I AM coming to dwell with my people.

My prophets - My watchmen - Tell the people that I AM coming with Holy Fire - Coming with sword in hand - Coming to separate the sheep from the goats - False from true - For by their fruits you shall know them - For all things shall be revealed in the sight of my Son for all to see - For I AM the righteous judge and I AM standing at the door of this world says the Lord.

Sound the alarm - Blow the trumpet in Zion - Call the people to be clean - To be consecrated unto the Lord - For no unclean thing can stand on the day of my coming unto you.

Call unto the wind - Call him to blow from the four corners of the earth - Call My Watchmen - Call My prophets - For the day of the Lord is about to come upon all the earth.

Be ready - Do not be caught sleeping - Do not be caught up with the affairs of man but keep your eyes and ears open to the Spirit of the Lord - For how can a warrior please his commander if he is involved in civilian ways says the Lord.

Stir up - Stir up the fire within - Stir yourselves up - Yes stir up the gifts of God within - Let the Fire of My Word come forth from your mouths - Let the living waters flow from your innermost beings - Speak forth and be not afraid - For as it says in My Word - That the righteous shall be as bold as a lion.

My prophets - My watchmen - Call the people to be ready - To be clean - To pray - To be Holy as I AM Holy - To prepare a habitation - For I AM coming to dwell with you says the Lord.

Sound the alarm - Blow the trumpet in Zion.

Spirit of Elijah

Jim Rinker

Spirit of Elijah - The Restoration of God's Children

Malachi 4: 5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: 6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

As the Lord begins to reveal the deeper truths in the word of God we are now beginning to receive and understanding of how and why the Lord is going to fulfill His exceedingly great and precious promises written in the word of God. We are given above one of these precious promises of the hearts of the fathers (both natural and spiritual) being turned back to the children. What we see here, among many other prophetic "messages" is a "type" of restoration and reconciliation on all levels. It is a type not only of reconciliation between fathers and sons in the natural and spiritual fathers (type of apostolic ministry) and sons (the body of Christ) but also a type of the prodigal son in which all the prodigals are being returned and restored back to the Father.

Hidden in the story of Elijah and the slaying of the prophets of Baal is a type of how this restoration and reconciliation will occur. The deeper end time truths that have been kept secret are now being revealed as the Father now chooses to show us how He plans of fulfilling His exceedingly great and precious promises that He has made to us.

It will be the spirit of Elijah that will reconcile and restore god's children by anointing true apostolic leadership that will ultimately be responsible for the destruction of that which is keeping God's people in bondage. Specifically these things are compromising church government that operates in agreement with a religious spirit and a religious spirit that promotes false prophets who seduce God's children to worship and heed to the spirit of antichrist. This is all hidden in types in the story of Elijah in 1 Kings 17 through 2 Kings 10 and should be read to gain the full context of this teaching.

In this time period the king of Israel Ahab married a "foreign" woman named Jezebel. The name Ahab is [0256] in the Strong's concordance and means "father's brother". Ahab is a type of church leadership that has not been anointed or ordained by the Father. It is a type of all of those who have received their position in the church via the ordination of man rather than by inheritance or ordination by the Father. It was upon the throne of David that Jesus would sit. Jesus received his leadership by appointment. Israel split from Judah and thus the lineage of anointed leadership did not run through their kingly line but rather through Judah.

Luke 1:31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. 32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: 33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

The name Jezebel is [0348] in the Strong's concordance and means "Baal exalts" or "Baal is husband to" or "unchaste". This is a type of church leadership marrying or covenanting with Jezebel who is "married" to her false god or husband Baal. Baal is [01168] in the Strong's concordance and means "lord". One of the primary uses of the word "lord" is in the context of provision and husband. Baal was the principal MALE god of the Cannanites. Baal is a type of the spirit of ANTICHRIST who is manifest as a MALE (Revelation 13) to be a substitute for Jesus our husband or provider. The word antichrist in addition to being "against" Christ (the anointed one and His anointing) means "instead of" of "substitute".

So Baal is really the "spirit of antichrist" we see in the world today that lies and sets itself up as our husband or provider. It seeks to substitute itself for our true husband or provider which is Jesus Christ. The mechanism that satan uses to promote the antichrist spirit is through religion therefore Jezebel is a type of the religious spirit. The main goal of the religious spirit is to infiltrate 'leadership' and influence the "kingly" calling or church government and substitute the spirit of antichrist for Jesus our husband.

One of the main manifestations of the religious spirit is to kill the prophets. The prophets are a type of the true word of God being set before God's people to reveal the heart of the Father, his intentions, and His plans and purposes. The substitute can only be presented when the truth is suppressed. Therefore it is the first and foremost goal of the religious spirit to "pave the way" for the spirit of antichrist. Jezebel is Elijah's antithesis in every way. John the Baptist was "Elijah" to his generation in that he "paved the way" or made the way straight for the coming of the Christ. Likewise, Jezebel or the religious spirit paves the way for the coming of the spirit of antichrist. We now pick up on the story of Elijah, Jezebel, and the killing of the prophets of Baal.

1 Kings 18:4 For it was [so], when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

We see here two things. First, Jezebel removed all of the true prophets out of the land and replaced them with the prophets of Baal (mentioned later in this chapter). Second, we see a "preservation" of the true prophets of God. In the midst of the "church system" (Ahab) which is controlled by the religious spirit (Jezebel) was left Obadiah. The name Obadiah is [05662] in the Strong's concordance and means "servant of Jehovah". Obadiah is a type of the Holy Spirit who is God's "helper". It is the manifestation of the work of the Holy Spirit as our provider and comforter. In addition to being a helper the Holy Spirit is also a comforter and revealer and provider of those things needed to be restored back to the Father. Here we see Obadiah fed 100 prophets in courses of 50 in caves bread and water (study the number 50, it is constantly connected with the prophetic). Bread is a type of the true word of God and water is a type of the infilling of the Holy Spirit. The prophets were hid or preserved in caves. Many of the Lord's true prophets right now are being preserved by the work of the Holy Spirit in caves away from the religious spirit and the church system until the manifestation of the Holy Spirit as the spirit of Elijah completes it's work and anoints apostolic government under which they will be released and flourish.

It is the spirit of Elijah that will be used to turn the hearts of the fathers back to the children and the hearts of the children back to the fathers. The spirit of Elijah is the manifestation of the work of the Holy Spirit in fire or judgment. The mechanism by which this will occur is in the killing of the prophets of Baal and judging Jezebel and Ahab's sons (lineage). The prophets of Baal are all those who are coming into agreement with the spirit of antichrist (Baal) or that substitute for our Husband and provider Jesus. The "prophets of Baal" is multidimensional. Not only is the spirit of Elijah (fire of God or judgment of God) coming to destroy those who are wholly given over to the spirit of antichrist but He is also coming to "remove" from within the true believer that part of us that is a prophet of Baal. In other words, some will be wholly consumed by the spirit of Elijah because they are wholly given to Baal while others will suffer "loss" of that part of their heart given over to Baal.

In addition to this and perhaps the greater revelation in all this is that Elijah was sent by the Father to anoint Jehu as King over Israel. So firstly by analogy the spirit of Elijah slew the prophets of Baal. Second and more importantly, the spirit of Elijah will then anoint "Jehu" leaders who will ultimately slay Jezebel, the sons of Ahab, and the rest of the prophets of Baal and usher in true revival in the land and turn (restore and reconcile) the hearts of the fathers back to the children and the hearts of the children back to the Father (true unity). In addition the spirit of Elijah will anoint Elisha (true apostolic leadership) and bring complete restoration back to the land.

1 Kings 19:7 And it shall come to pass, [that] him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. 18 Yet I have left [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

The seven thousand are a type of the "remnant" in the church who are faithful to the Lord and have not succumb to the spirit of antichrist. So here Elijah is then commissioned to anoint Jehu as King. The name Jehu is [03058] in the Strong's concordance and means "Jehovah is He". It is the AUTHENTIC leadership that is commissioned to hunt down and slay Jezebel.

2 Kings 9:30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard [of it]; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. 31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, [Had] Zimri peace, who slew his master? 32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who [is] on my side? who? And there looked out to him two [or] three eunuchs. 33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and [some] of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

Ahab or the old order church government that is ruled by the religious spirit will be given over to STRONG DELUSION and killed by the enemy in battle. We read of this by analogy in:

1 Kings 22: 20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. 21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him. 22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade [him], and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

He was deceived into going to Ramothgilead. The name Ramothgilead is [07433] in the Strong's concordance and means "heights" or pride by analogy. It was in Ahab's pride that he was judged by the Lord who sent a spirit of strong delusion to him to entice him to move out in pride in battle. The end time church is being sent to Jordan which means "lowland". The church government being ruled by Jezebel will be judged in their pride. we read of Ahab's demise in:

1 Kings 22:34 And a [certain] man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded. 35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

The word Syrian is [0758] in the Strong's concordance and means "exalted". It is by the hands of the enemies or Jehovah who have exalted themselves against the knowledge of God that the Ahab church government will be judged.

The Jehu's will also be commissioned to judge Ahab's sons or offspring. Ahab's sons are those who have been brought up under man's church government and carry with them the "corrupt seed" of their father. They carry with them the same spirit of compromise that their father taught them that is leading the church into agreement and control by the religious spirit.

2 Kings 10: 7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him [them] to Jezreel. 8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. 9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye [be] righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? 10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done [that] which he spake by his servant Elijah.

We then see the final judgment that the "Jehu's" are commissioned or anointed for that will bring to set God's people free and turn back their hearts to the Father(s). This is in the judgment of the rest of the prophets of Baal.

2 Kings 10: 18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; [but] Jehu shall serve him much. 19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice [to do] to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did [it] in subtlety, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

Finally and in conjunction with Jehu, the spirit of Elijah will anoint true apostolic leadership that will build the foundation upon which the church will once again be restored. Elijah anointed Elisha with a double portion anointing. The "double portion" is biblically synonymous with apostolic leadership.

2 Kings 2:9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

It was under the prophetic ministry of Elisha that Jehu judged both Jezebel, the prophets of Baal, and Ahab's sons. It was also under Elisha that the prophetic ministry was restored back to Israel. As we press forward and seek the double portion anointing, which is the fulness of His inheritance in Christ Jesus, we need to be mindful of the Father's plan and be patient as the spirit of Elijah begins to move in our midst in order to establish His true government. It will be through the Elijah anointing that the Elisha ministry will be established and it will be under the Elisha ministry that the children will be restored back to the Father as the Ahab's, religious spirit, and prophets of Baal are removed from within the church.

Sons Of Glory

Olivia Reitz

mreitz@penn.com

SONS OF GLORY - IT'S TIME TO LIVE October 23, 2000 Isa 5:27-28 "None shall be weary nor stumble among them, none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the lachet of their shoes be broken; whose arrows are sharp, and all their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint". Ex. 19:5-6 Ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto Me above all people, for all the earth is Mine, and ye shall be unto Me A Kingdom of Priests".

I Am raising up a people in this hour who will literally and totally reject the wisdom of this world, for it is foolishness to your God. I Am raising up kings and priests after the order of Melchizedek. You will have one heart and one motive, you are redeemers, reconcilers and restorers, and you shall move forward pouring forth My grace, My mercy and My salvation. You have gone through the purging fires, purifying your heart, mind and body. You have "willingly" surrendered and given up all in every area. You have stayed the course, willing to have every selfish, even secret motive and intent of your heart to be cast out. For everything must come to the surface for the dross to emerge. I had called you out of Babylon and I have purged Babylon out of you.

You are overcomers, you are conquerors but only after being conquered by Me. You are standing at the ready to ride with My Son. You shall carry the light of the world and wherever you go, the light and splendor of heaven will shine. You shall have "clean eyes" the eyes of Christ. The eyes of discernment, shining with heavenly fire, shining with unlimited love for those reaching out in their pain and misery. I have prepared My horsemen company. Pharoah's horses and the horses of the kings, were known for strength and swiftness in battle and powerful in warfare. They were noted for beauty, sure footedness, never falling or stumbling, obedient and would run straight "into" the enemy even unto death. They were bedecked with gold and precious jewels, portraying the glory of the king. They were "royal horses"and they were "thoroughbreds in every way". As My horsemen company, you are as the magnificent white stallion My Son rides at your head. Symbolizing holiness, purity, righteousness, illumination...all characteristics of My Sons of Glory. You are rapidly approaching your completion and your speed and beauty will become marked, bearing the King's Glory. Into the manifestation of My Sons of Glory...Power, power for speed, strength and victory.

During your wilderness training I was there sometimes unseen or unheard, but I have established your steps. I have kept your feet from slipping, lifted you over all the ravines and jagged rocks below, even though they were unknown to you. As Gideon, who was also in hiding, there is nothing especially mighty about you, but as with Gideon, I led you slowly and gently to become My Mighty Men and Women of Valor. You are not of this world, there will be no more of the old nature left in My chosen ones. For old things have passed away and behold "ALL THINGS ARE BECOMING NEW".

Now you are waiting, waiting for My command, and you shall go forth. Grasp this, My beloved, you have been and are being prepared to rule and reign with Christ. Purposed from before the foundation of the world, calling you to Glory. Your entire life has been to train and equip and process you for a royal position, one with Jesus. You are standing on the threshold of a powerful move of your God. My Son shall be revealed in you and through you.

You are even now being raised from death, death from the world and carnality and from your wilderness cave. A company with Christ as the head bringing forth the rule of the Kingdom of God upon the earth. Hold on, for the journey you are to embark on, you cannot conceive with your human mind. Only in the Spirit can you imagine where I am taking you. You have been called for such a time as this. You will speak forth My words to the nations and the world. You will speak pure and undefiled words, as they come straight from My lips. Your light is a beacon to those I will place in your path. There is a great breaking forth as everything is lining up for that great day. Stand back and see the Mighty Work of the Lord, for the hour for the manifestation of My Sons of Glory is at hand and I who have begun a good work in you shall complete it. My chosen ones "The day of death is over, now it's time to live" !

Street Of Gold

Doug Fortune

The visual imagery of those streets of gold have captured the imagination of countless minds since those words were penned. Most recently, a song swept through the revival movement about dancing on those streets. In our excited anticipation of seeing those streets, have we possibly missed a present reality?... I think so. Firstly, the word for street, 'plateia' in the Greek is singular and not plural... it is a singular STREET of gold. Also the meaning of plateia is 'a wide plat or place, an open square'... not at all like the street in front of my house. Revelation 21:21 tells us that this street was "...pure gold, as it were transparent glass...". Earthly gold is a soft but dense metal with no translucence, you can't see through it, so possibly there is something here beyond an absolutely literal view... remember also that in the scriptures gold is symbolic of divine nature. Verse two of the next chapter seems to indicate also that there is a "river of water of Life, clear as crystal..." running through the street. I'm not going to discount a future literal fulfillment of this and I'm not just pointlessly messing with your theology... I AM trying to point out that there is perhaps more truth here than a literal interpretation provides... I believe there is a present reality also.

Rather than the 'street' we normally think of, you will probably find a closer association with the word 'pavement' we find in Ezek. 40:17. In fact, compare the wording in Rev. 21:10&15 to Ezek. 40:2-3... God brought both John and Ezekiel to a very high mountain and showed them a city and measured it. You will also find reference to this 'pavement' in 2 Chron. 7:3.... the 'pavement' was really the outer court where sin was judged and dealt with by means of the altar of sacrifice and the laver of cleansing. So the sacrifice on the altar atoned for sin and washing in the laver made one ceremonially clean. Now read John 19:13 and things will become very clear for you, "...Pilate brought Jesus out and sat down on the JUDGMENT seat at a place called the PAVEMENT..."

Do you see it now?... the 'pavement' or 'street of gold' is the FINISHED WORK of Christ on the cross which not only atones for our sin, but delivers us from the sin-nature that we may live in His divine nature! God's judgment was poured out as "...for our sake He made Christ virtually to be sin Who knew NO sin, so that in and through Him we might become the righteousness of God..."(2 Cor. 5:21). The transparency of that 'street of gold' is the divine nature of Christ IN ME (gold) shining through as I die to self and the SOUL life. Must I wait till the hereafter to experience that 'street of gold'?... I believe we can walk in a present reality of it now... or perhaps I should say swim and not walk... remember that "river whose waters give life..." (Rev.22:1-2) flowing in the 'street of gold'. To me that sounds a lot like "...out of his innermost being shall flow rivers of living water..."(Jn.7:38).

So what makes me think I can experience this now?... because "...ye are come (present tense!) to Mount Zion, and unto the city of the Living God, the heavenly Jerusalem... and to the church of the Firstborn who are registered as citizens in heaven..." (Heb.12:22) "...they are not OF the world, just as I am not OF the world..." (John 17:16)

“...we are citizens of the homeland which is in heaven, and FROM IT also we earnestly and patiently await...”(Phil.3:20). Yes, my body is functioning in this natural realm but also “...He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together - giving us joint seating with Him - in the heavenly sphere...”(Eph.2:6). I believe this is a present reality, not only a future hope. Consider also that in Rev.21:9 the angel says to John, “...Come with me! I will show you the bride, the Lamb’s wife...” and in the next verse he shows John the New Jerusalem “...descending out of heaven from God...”. Did not Jesus tell Nicodemus that “...ye must be born again (from above)...”(John 3:7)? Yes, the word Jesus used there is ‘another’ in the Greek and it literally means born ‘from above’. I believe that as we are born ‘from above’ that we ARE the New Jerusalem descending out of heaven from God! Am I negating some type of future literal fulfillment?... no, I’m not. But if a future literal fulfillment is all I will allow in my mentality, then I am missing a powerful present reality.

WE are the city that John and Ezekiel saw when the angel took them to a high mountain, “...You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid...”(Matt.5:14). WE are the New Jerusalem, “...and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem which descends from My God out of heaven, and My own new name...”(Rev.3:12). “...And I saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, all arrayed like a BRIDE beautified and adorned for her husband...”(Rev.21:2). Verse 18 goes on to tell us that “...the city itself was of pure gold...”, this is symbolic of the city manifesting the divine nature of Christ. All this is only possible because of the ‘street of gold’, the ‘pavement’, the FINISHED WORK of Christ through the cross, as He not only atoned for our sin, but also dealt with our sinful Adam nature. This is the treasure in earthen vessels... this is the mystery hid for ages, Christ IN US the hope of glory!

Let us BE that city set on a hill, the Light of the world, shining forth His divine nature as a city of pure gold, transparent as glass!

Sunflowers in California

Kelly Campbell

June 21, 2000

Following is one vision that came in four parts during tonight's intercession for the lost in Contra Costa County:

"Watch and see what I am about to do in Contra Costa County, even the faithful will be amazed."

"This year Contra Costa County will experience the hottest weather they have ever had."

"I saw the Lord's hands take hold of the ground in the center of Contra Costa County, at the base of Mount Diablo, and shake it, causing several young sunflower sprouts to spring up from the broken-up soil. The sprouts were shaped as they normally are when just a few inches out of the ground, but the height of these sprouts were half the height of the mountain next to them. (I was reminded that sunflowers are strong against the wind and they always face the sun, by which they are named. I was also reminded that sunflowers require a lot of water to grow.) These will require A LOT of water!"

"I saw a bright light over the top of Mount Diablo and the mountain began to melt and a river flowed down from it."

AN INTERPRETATION:

An intense heat from the presence of God will burn out the spiritual wickedness in high places ("Diablo" is Spanish for "Devil") and The River will flow down to water the thirsty young sunflowers (or "son-flowers" whose face is always turned to the "Son" Jesus, even in high winds, perhaps new converts from the most unexpected places) and the overflow will flood the existing church (the "faithful" who will be amazed).

COMMENTS:

Perhaps evaporation from the river will create great clouds that the Holy Spirit blows over other places to rain down upon. Perhaps the mountain's we now see are really icebergs in the sight of God. (I am hearing there may be "mountains" within me!) Perhaps the valleys where we live are really dry riverbeds waiting to be shaken, filled and flooded to produce such a great catch of fish that we will be amazed and drop the broken nets we hold in our hands.

Amen.

The Song In The Night

Bob Neumann

It is 3:33 in the morning and this night is filled with images both sublime and complex. Yet in the midst of this darkness I hear a SONG. I guess I have been hearing it since I was pulled out of the pit so long ago. I have heard it in my sorrow and my shame. I have heard it in my fear and my pain. There have been times I have tried to sing it in the heat of battle and in the joy of HIS PRESENCE. If there is one thing that I have yearned years for is to one day sing HIS SONG in HIS Pavilion as King David sang about. Usually it is always in the back of my mind always there but not imposing. Since the beginning of this year that changed. Now I am almost fixated on HIS SONG and HIS VOICE and I don't really understand why. Everywhere in HIS WORD it is there, yet it is seldom explained. The only thing I know for sure is that one day I shall sing it with those who overcame....

Revelation 15:1-4

*1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.
2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.
3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.
4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest. (KJV)*

Maybe that is a bold claim on my part, to think I might be found worthy to be among THE OVERCOMING SAINTS, but HIS WORD CLEARLY STATES 16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:16 (KJV). Funny thing being bold enough to ask a HOLY GOD for GRACE is what THE MESSIAH'S total message was about. To be forgiven and redeemed not because of anything we could ever do, because THE LAMB IS WORTHY.

Revelation 5:1-4

*1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.
2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.
4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. (KJV)*

No man is worthy, could ever be worthy. But there is ONE who is...

Revelation 5:5-14

*5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.
6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.
7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.
8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.
9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;*

*10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.
11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;
12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.
13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.
14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever. (KJV)*

I would like to be there to be part of this, too. But I might be here "on Duty" for this one. You see no Saints are mentioned..... except for John. ELDERS, SERAPHIM/CHERUBIM and one large group of Angels. Now "the prayers of the saints" is mentioned but no further details are given. Even here all involved are singing a "new song". I wonder if old dogs might get slipped in if we promise not to misbehave?

The SONG OF THE LAMB is something we have yet to hear. The SONG about HE WHO IS WORTHY. The ONE called the LAMB OF GOD. His cousin John called HIM THE LAMB. But even John was aware that HE was so much more....

*John 1:29-36...
29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.
30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.
32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.
34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.
35 Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;
36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! (KJV)*

John had no doubt because he heard THE VOICE of GOD and declared it for all to hear. THE PRECIOUS LAMB OF GOD.

Yet scripture also speaks of those far less happy to gaze upon HIM....

*Revelation 6:9-17
9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.
12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;
13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.
14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;*

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? (KJV)

The answer of course is none. Amazing how easily we get the "warm fuzzies" all over when we picture THE LAMB. We all do and I have begun to wonder why we fail to see HIM in FULLNESS. Actually I begun to wonder about three years ago and it has made me very uncomfortable at times when people push their shallow and limited "personal JESUS" around. Then HE has to remind me they never walked through TOPHET with HIM. Seeing HE IS ALWAYS RIGHT I have learned to tread gently through the sheepecotes and day care centers that are our churches. So I trust and keep going because there is a point just in sight and since the THIRD THUNDER I have looked forward to with eagerness.

Isaiah 30:29-33

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it. (KJV)

Now that is one celebration I do not want to miss. Yet even here THE SONG and HIS GLORIOUS VOICE precede all the other "stuff" so maybe now you might understand why this is all so important. There is a set and specific sequence of events established by HIS WORD.....if we have been diligently seeking HIM. Yet unless we are like John at the Jordan in direct obedience to HIS INSTRUCTIONS we will not here HIS VOICE to be looking for HIM. We will not here HIS VOICE and we will never notice HIS SONG.

So often I have tried to describe THE VOICE of MY SHEPHERD. To differentiate THE VOICE of THE GLORIOUS KING from that sweet gentle VOICE OF THE MOST HOLY SPIRIT. To explain the difference between MY ABBA'S TONES and the COMMANDS of MY CAPTAIN. Maybe I have listened so much with my spirit man that my "ears" gave up trying to label and catalog long ago. But I ponder HIS VOICE all the time and as I gaze now into the "outer darkness" and THE DAY OF HIS WRATH.... I wonder why I am scratching at this so hard. HE isn't cutting me any slack which means there is a reason for my sitting here, now at 4:44 in the predawn morning of Ground Hog's Day. Now I know HIS HUMOR and that is part of it. I could throw this scripture out but it seems to echo right now.....

Psalms 42:8-11

8 Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. (KJV)

Man, that is what I have been going through these last few months....I wondered if I would ever hear HIS VOICE again. Foolish of me to doubt or fear....

Psalms 77:5-15

5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

*9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.
10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.
11 I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.
12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.
13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?
14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.
15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. (KJV)*

All the answers were there all along...I just had to hold on to THE TRUTH. It worked. What did not kill me only makes me stronger and extends this attitude I seem to have found. selah squared.

So I started to study once again to learn what was needed for the here and now. Times and Seasons do change, but HIS PURPOSE like HIM, have never changed. We just learn more of it as we survive and press onward. When we overcome.

So I was looking for HIS SONG and HIS DAY OF WRATH.....but I found something else...amazing....

Zephaniah 1:14-18

*14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.
15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,
16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.
17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land. (KJV)*

And there it was, so to speak, all in a nutshell. It blew me away that THE DAY OF THE LORD had it's own VOICE. WILD ain't it! in fact these verses have clouds...darkness...trumpet...alarm....thick darkness....mighty men crying. Also liked HIS response to the PROSPERITY GOSPEL.....

Yet "SONG" was not mentioned. So I wondered how to deal with that when I heard that sweet gentle voice say "LOOK AT HIM". So I did....

Revelation 1:10-20

*10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.
12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;
13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.
14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.
16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.
17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:
18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.
19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter; 20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which* thou sawest are the seven churches. (KJV)

Daniel 10:5-9

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. (KJV)

Talk about being slain in the SPIRIT....Daniel called HIS VOICE "like the voice of a multitude". But poor Daniel had never heard HIM before. John had. I like what John said..."I turned to see THE VOICE"....that was like a trumpet...."and his voice as the sound of many waters". That was the description of one who walked with HIM through Judea, stood under the cross, and watched HIM ascend to THE FATHER. So I had a handle to THE VOICE of THE DAY OF THE LORD....and THE SONG OF THE LAMB. But had no real idea what it meant. Then once again I heard....."COME UNTO ME ALL YOU WHO THIRST"

John 7:37-38

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (KJV)

Isaiah 55:1

1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. (KJV)

Now if you follow Isaiah 55 down a few verses there is an interesting line....or two....or....

Isaiah 55:3

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. (KJV)

Isaiah 55:6 6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: (KJV)

Isaiah 55:8-13

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. (KJV)

And I am back into THE SONG....yah have to LOVE HIM it all comes back onto itself. So if I am back tracking steps already made it would make sense to hit all the bases....

John 4:6-26

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well:

and it was about the sixth hour.
7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.
8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)
9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.
10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.
11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?
12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?
13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:
14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.
15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.
16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.
17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:
18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.
19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.
20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.
22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.
23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.
26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. (KJV)

Yes HE IS THE LIVING WATER....and if we drink of HIM LIVING WATER will flow from us, too. Now if we are all joined IN HIM wouldn't it sound like a "multitude" and "many waters"? Now remember exactly how HE ENDS HIS REVELATION to the "woman at the well" ....23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. 24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. 26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. (KJV)

The hour now is where we must worship THE FATHER IN SPIRIT and IN TRUTH. There is no alternative in this. It is very explicit. Especially when HE declares, "I that speak unto thee am he". No way around it at all.

So to put it bluntly....we are in a mess. See any great move out there to get anyone on the same page of the same songbook?

I don't. Then again I do not expect it either. Because like all things only THE LAMB can do it. Now so many are preaching UNITY and it seems "cool", "spiritual", but it ain't working. Anyone remember Gamaliel? In ACTS?

Acts 5:34-40
34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;
35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.
36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

*37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.
38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:
39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.
40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. (KJV)*

Sound advice...but the apostles still got their lumps. If it is of GOD nothing can stop it. If it is not of GOD it will come to naught. So we blame the devil and every demon in miles when our "stuff" fails. Maybe we should reassess this idea of UNITY?

Paul in Ephesians speaks of unity twice....

*Ephesians 4:3-13
3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)
11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: (KJV)*

Paul speaks of the "unity of THE SPIRIT" and the "unity of the faith" but adds "knowledge of THE SON OF GOD". Then he goes onto the idea of "perfecting". And this is where we fit it all together...

*Ephesians 4:14-16
14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. (KJV)*

Fitting together as HIS BODY on this earth....and if it happens THE BODY has a VOICE. That is what I have been holding on to, yet can not put together. Simply because nothing is being fit together thanks to man and the thing called "church". Unity just is not working. Unless we missed somewhere along the line?

AND WE DID....BIG TIME.....let's go to first mention.....

*Psalms 133:1-3
1 A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore. (KJV)*

This is the first time UNITY appears according to old Dr Strong....look it up....it is the HEBREW WORD "ECHAD"...

But ECHAD appears earlier....SHMA ISRAEL ADONAI ELIHENU ADONAI ECHAD....

HEAR OH ISRAEL, THE LORD YOUR GOD, THE LORD IS ONE.....

ECHAD means ONE. AS ONE. NOT FITTED TOGETHER....BUT FLOWING TOGETHER as many streams into one GREAT and MIGHT RIVER....

AS MANY VOICES IN HARMONY SINGING ONE SONG....HIS SONG....THE SONG OF THE LAMB THAT TREADS THE WINEPRESS OF THE WRATH OF ALMIGHTY GOD.

now Psalm 133 is a Song of degrees....the first of three complementary, sequenced WORSHIP SONGS....

Psalm 134:1-3

1 A Song of degrees. Behold, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, which by night stand in the house of the LORD.

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD.

3 The LORD that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion. (KJV)

Psalm 135:1-21

1 Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God,

3 Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

4 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

7 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures.

8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast.

9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.

10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings;

11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan:

12 And gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel his people.

13 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.

14 For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

19 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron:

20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.

21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD. (KJV)

Sound like we were there in Zephaniah sort of.....and THE GREAT AND DREADFULL DAY OF THE LORD....THE DAY OF HIS FIERCE ANGER.....Looks Like Joel Time....and Nahum....

Nahum 1:2-8

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies. (KJV)

An overrunning flood making an "utter end" does sound like HIS VOICE and the TWO EDGED SWORD out of HIS MOUTH....

Sounds like someone I can SING with, and even Laugh with.....HOLY, HOLY, HOLY IS THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY WHO WAS, WHO IS, WHO SHALL ALWAYS BE....

SPRING UP O WELL, SING YE.....

SONS OF LIGHT! & SON OF MY RIGHT HAND

This is awesome, I was just finishing the last few lines of this article on Sons of Light and happened to open an email from my friend Alan Mc Savage <broal1@greater-emmanuel.org> and what a confirmation! I offer the following from Alan Mc Savage and myself for your edification and discernment. God is indeed speaking to His people in this hour!

keep listening for His voice!

SONS OF LIGHT! by Doug Fortune

And God said, "Let there be light, and there was light... and God separated the light from the darkness..."(Gen. 1:3-4). Can't we just imagine the sun bursting into existence and light drenching the planet as He spoke those words on the first day of creation?... if so, we might want to look a little closer. It wasn't until the fourth day that God created the stars, sun and moon (verses 14-19). Perhaps there is more here to be searched out and hopefully shed some light (pun intended!) on the subject. If we back up to verse one, we find that "God created the heavens and the earth.", and verse ten tells us that "God called the DRY LAND earth...". If we can set aside our presuppositions and allow the scripture to interpret itself, then it would appear that in verse one, God created the heavens and the dry land earth. Verse two translated literally says the earth BECAME, (heyah in Hebrew, from the verb meaning 'to become', not the verb meaning 'to be') without form and void. I realize that this line of thinking may be controversial for some as it is not the traditional interpretation, but there is nothing else that God created void and without form... everything had form and purpose and I believe that originally the earth did also. Consider Isaiah 45:18 "... God Himself who formed the earth and made it, Who established it and created it NOT a worthless waste; He formed it to be inhabited...". Something must have happened between verse one and verse two that the earth BECAME 'tohu va bohu' (without form and void). I believe you may find the answer as you read in Isaiah 14, Ezek. 28 and Rev. 12 how Satan and his angels were cast out into the earth. Throughout the scripture, obscuring the light and subsequent darkness are always a result of judgment, never of creation. So verse two, I believe, describes the earth under judgment, covered in darkness... the word for darkness, 'choshek' in Hebrew, means not only literal darkness, but also misery, destruction, wickedness... this is the chaos brought about by sin.

Even in the midst of this judgment, we find Ruach Elohim, the Spirit of God brooding upon the face of the deep ready to speak Light and Life into this 'tohu va bohu' (without form and void). We can also read in John 1:4-5 that "...In Him (Christ) was Life and the Life was the Light of men. And the Light shines on in the darkness, for the darkness has never overpowered it...". Yes!... darkness NEVER overpowers Light! God SEPARATED Light from darkness in Genesis chapter one and that separation is still as powerful today! John goes on to say in verse 12-13 "...to as many as received Him, He gave the power to BECOME SONS of God... who owe their birth neither to bloods, nor to the will of the flesh, nor to the will of man, but to God - they are BORN OF GOD!" I Thess.5:4-5 says it a little differently, "...But you are not in darkness, brethren... for you are all SONS OF LIGHT and sons of the day; we do NOT belong either to the night or to the darkness." Yes!... We have power to BECOME Sons of God, born of God, sons of Light, the same Light God spoke in Genesis chapter one that totally overpowers darkness and chaos. Jesus said, "YOU are the Light of the world..." (Matt. 5:14). So, where am I headed with all this?...

You and I encounter people and situations that are just like Genesis chapter one... God created them for a purpose and a destiny, BUT as a result of direct or indirect sin, their own sin or the sin of others they are in chaos, without form and void. All too often the church has responded with condemnation, but remember "...God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world..."(John 3:17). Jesus spoke words of Light and Life... yes, His words brought SEPARATION of darkness and Light, sometimes very painful and infuriating to His hearers, but condemnation only came when "...men loved darkness rather than Light..."(John 3:19). WE must be sons born of God, Sons of Light speaking
